INTRODUCTION TO GRANDMA ANNA

Posted by [grandmaanna] Sept 17th 2005 - 3:53PM Posts to date: 626

NOTE FROM SANDY:

Hi loved ones,
Grandma Anna is my beloved Mom. (The family calls her Grandma Anna.) For many years, she has been editing my writings. She has an eagle eye for grammar and typos. She even has been wonderfully prompt to proof anything I post which needs to go out immediately. I have so appreciated her help.

Anna is a scribe, a Mary who has sat at the feet of the Lord for many years. During the day, she often sits with Him and loves just soaking in communion. The Lord has given her some wonderful experiences and interesting rhema, poems and studies. I hope she shares some of it with you, and you enjoy feasting at her meals.

Lovingly,
Sandy

Dear Family,

I have earnestly sought the Lord as to how I should first greet all of you. Some of you know me personally; others know me through many years of reading Sandy's posts. However, most of you don't know me at all.

So, who is this Grandma Anna? First, I am a "born-again, baptized in the Holy Ghost, tongues speaking intercessor!" (Smile)

Secondly, I am Sandy's mama. So how did I receive the title of Grandma Anna? My baby grandson, who is now married, (Big smile!) couldn't or wouldn't say Grandma; from the beginning, it was Anna. Then it evolved into "Gwama" Anna, and finally resolved as Grandma Anna. The name stuck. Sandy has called me that or Anna ever since.

Many things came to mind in my desire to introduce myself to you, but when I read this quote from Ray Hughes, I couldn't think of a better way to express my intercessory heart than what he said.

9/10/05 Ray Hughes said in his Elijah List post, speaking of the New Orleans tragedy, "I see the faces and horrors of the old ones forgotten, the young ones forsaken, and the frustration and fear on the faces of those in between. I see the sights of the tired and weary, waiting in waters of despair; somehow, my heart is ignited with hope and faith, that this time, the church will truly shine and be what we are called to be to those who need us most. We can no longer presume that the harvest is in the future. We do not have the luxury of time to prepare and wait for the harvest. Harvest truly is now. We must pray, and we must obey."

This is who I am in the spirit and reflects my hope and faith for the coming glorious church without spot or wrinkle. This is the bride who is in the process of making herself ready for His appearance. I look forward to sharing with you the Word, My experiences over the last 75 years and what the Holy Spirit has shared with me regarding our Christian walk.

Lovingly,

Grandma Anna

A DIVINE APPOINTMENT

Posted by [grandmaanna] Oct 30th 2006 - 4:25PM Posts to date: 626

A DIVINE APPOINTMENT

I would like to share with you the most exciting, wonderful and awesome thing that has ever happened to me! I had a divine appointment at the garbage can! Before I tell you about my divine appointment, I would like to give you some background that led up to this amazing event.

I was reared in church, and at age eleven was born again when I asked the Lord into my heart and was baptized. However, I fell away from the Lord in bitterness during my teenage years. What caused the bitterness? When I was fifteen, My mama succumbed to some experimental procedures due to female problems. The procedures caused an extreme depression and consequently she took her own life. I was too young to understand why my mama did what she did. I could not rectify a loving God with this horrible thing that had happened to my precious mama and my heart grew cold. I felt a terrible loss and rejection: a rejection from my mama and a rejection from God. Much of what I had learned in Sunday school and in Sunday church about being a good Christian went on the backburner except the belief that Jesus was my Savior.

I later married. Early on, I repented of the sins of my rebellious years. I earnestly prayed for guidance in my marriage and in rearing our daughter to know Jesus. With what knowledge I had, I did the best I could with both. As the years went by, the Father began to intensely draw me closer to Him and I began praying even more and began seriously reading my Bible. I found my priorities changing. All the worldly things that had been so important to me were no longer giving me the same satisfaction. I longed to know Him as personally as the people I read about in the Bible.

Then tragedy came again into my life. My husband of twenty-one years left and our marriage ended in a divorce. The old feelings of loss and rejection returned and now they were doubled in my heart. I prayed and prayed to the Father. I desperately wanted specific guidance as to what to do.

One particularly frustrating day in 1970 I was standing by the garbage can with my arms around a sack full of garbage and praying a faithless, hopeless prayer. "How like this garbage is my life," I said dejectedly to the Lord. "Please help me. I don't know what to do." My mind raced with all the "if only" and I stood there despairing. The thought briefly raced across my mind, "If it weren't for my daughter, I'd consider joining my mother."

As soon as that terrible thought flashed across my mind, I heard what seemed to be an electrifying, thundering voice saying, "SINCE YOU HAVE CONSIDERED TAKING YOUR OWN LIFE, CONSIDER YOURSELF DEAD AND LET ME LIVE MY LIFE THROUGH YOU!"

I stood there trembling. It was the Lord Jesus Christ speaking to me! The voice had thundered, yet it was full of love, compassion and understanding. All of those things my soul suddenly knew and comprehended. An amazing peace enveloped my very being. The words were stern and yet they had an amazing effect upon me. I stood there with tears streaming down my face, saying over and over again, "You are real! You are real! Yes! Yes!" I felt more comforted, more loved and more acceptance than I ever had in my entire life. In just that one moment of time, what happened to me was life changing and indescribable. It had taken all those hard years and circumstances to lead up to this awesome divine appointment, and they were all worth it in order to deepen my relationship with My Lord and Savior! In Colossians 3:3, it says, "for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. This is what had just happened to me!"

I had known all about Jesus and believed in Him but when I asked Him to come into my heart, I had never taken the step to make Him the Lord of My life. In fact, I don't ever remember anyone teaching me that this was a necessary step in the Christian experience.

"Because if you acknowledge and confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and in your heart believe (adhere to, trust in, and rely on the truth) that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. 10 For with the heart a person believes (adheres to, trusts in, and relies on Christ) and so is justified (declared righteous, acceptable to God), and with the mouth he confesses (declares openly and speaks out freely his faith) and confirms [his] salvation. ROM 10: 9-10 AMP

As I even more seriously began to study His Word, I found out that as I followed His teachings in the Bible and walked in intimacy with Him, the power of His grace would begin to restore my soul.

As I began my new walk with my Lord, that hopeless, depressed person, who stood at the garbage can, faded away. From that time on, I reacted differently. My priorities had totally changed.

I had made many mistakes, but now I knew for sure the Lord had always loved me in spite of my mistakes and had forgiven me for all my sins and He was starting me out on a brand new beginning in life. I was on my way to becoming the person He had planned for me to be in the first place. (Smile)

Yes, it took a long time through much prayer and many wonderful supernatural experiences with my Beloved Lord, before I overcame the rejection and trauma in my soul of the divorce and the death of my mama. However, knowing that my life was now His to live through me gave me a genuine joyful purpose in being alive on the earth, which continues to this day!

Dearest Reader, if you don't have the assurance that you are born again and you intensely desire this to happen to you, please pray this prayer with me with all your heart.

Dear heavenly Father, I am so very sorry for my terrible sinful life and I ask for Your forgiveness. I don't want to live like that ever again. Father, I believe that Jesus Christ is Your Son. I believe You sent Him to earth to take my sins upon Himself so I would not have to suffer the wages of my sins, which is death and eternal separation from you. I gratefully accept the sacrifice of His life, which already has removed my sins. With all my heart, I want Him to come into my heart and be the Lord of my entire life.

I yield my will to do His will. I turn away from my past and considered it dead and buried. I ask that the Holy Spirit would come and give me new life from heaven so that I am born again into newness of life and begin my new life as a new creation.

I now consider myself dead and ask the Lord Jesus to come and live His life through me. In faith, I believe that You have heard and answered my prayer and now I am born again. In Jesus precious name, I pray. Amen!

If you prayed that prayer and you experienced being born again, I would love to hear about it.

With much love!

BAPTISM OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Posted by [grandmaanna] Oct 30th 2006 - 4:29PM Posts to date: 626

Sandy had an experience at camp in the summer of 1970 when she was seventeen years old and came home all excited. "Mama, they prayed for me and I received the Baptism of the Holy Spirit and now I speak in tongues!" (Acts 2:4) I was very concerned. To my knowledge that experience was for the era of the disciples and it is no longer done today.

Then I saw the change in her life and in the reality of her personal relationship with God. He was the same God I served, yet I didn't know Him like she did and I yearned for that intimacy! I pondered the "speaking in tongues" as she called it, wondering if she still did it. Finally, I asked her if she still spoke in tongues. "Yes, Mama, I do," she said quietly.

"What does it sound like?"

"Porta quita. Comen a tata." She said rapidly over and over again. "Do you know anybody else that does this?" "Oh, yes, Mama, you know the two ladies at church in the choir that you say always look so happy? They both do it." I was amazed.

The phrases sounded Spanish to me but I wasn't sure of the words, so I finally looked them up.

Porta = door of a port hole
quita = discharge, release
Comen = they eat a = with tata = daddy

I translated it as, "Door of a porthole released. They eat with Daddy."

A full language did not come to her for a long time. However, these few words were her commission from the beginning to open a "porthole" in heaven so that others could enjoy eating with their Daddy in Heaven. She was repeating this request thousands upon thousands of times and bombarding heaven with a prayer she didn't even understand at the time! I have always thought that was so amazing. I believe it was the foundation of her ministry, which teaches people how to have a feast of intimacy of their own with their Daddy in heaven. It was also a lesson to me in the importance of tongues!

Discovering the meaning, convinced me that tongues were real because I knew she didn't know Spanish. Moreover, I could also see a wonderful new joy in her. I was soon in hot pursuit of the Baptism of the Holy Spirit myself! I wanted it so badly I literally agonized over it. I pursued it alone with Him with everything in me. I knew nothing about it other than what Sandy had told me and what I read in the Bible. Finally, in desperation, I told the Lord I wasn't coming out of the studio den until He blessed me with the same thing He gave His disciples and to my daughter. Within an hour HE DID! I was afraid to stop speaking in tongues for fear I couldn't do it again. I was non-stop "motor mouth" for several hours until my daughter returned home and confirmed me, assuring me it wouldn't go away! It didn't! (Smile)

I devoured the Word to find out all I could about it. Paul said, "I thank my God I speak with tongues more than you all;" (1 Corinthians 14:18 New King James) I was drawn to the verse that says, "He who speaks in a tongue edifies himself,..." (1 Corinthians 14:4 NKJ) In that verse, the Greek word for edifies is "oikodomeo." In the Strong's Hebrew and Greek Concordance, it means to build a house, erect a building, to build up from the foundation, to restore by building, to rebuild, repair, metaphorically to found, establish, to promote growth in Christian wisdom, affection, grace, virtue, holiness, blessedness, to grow in wisdom and piety

Did I ever need all of those! My life was a mess and I figured if Paul spoke in tongues more than anyone, there was a good reason. It made sense to me to follow his example and do it as frequently as possible. Thus, I began a lifestyle of consistently speaking in tongues at every nudging of the Holy Spirit. I have found that the more frequently I do this, the more exciting, divine encounters I have in my life!

The Holy Spirit filling me was also a major character turning point in my life. My shyness began to disappear. I no longer enjoyed the worldly pleasures of the world. I loved to give more than to receive. I had a passion to know Father God and His Son intimately. I devoured His Word from cover to cover over and over again. The scriptures opened up to me in an amazing way. I learned what He likes and what He hates. I learned what brings Him joy and what makes Him angry. I learned of His mercy and His holiness. Most of all I learned that love was what motivated Him. Now that was a real eye opener!

I was taught all my life that the gifts were not for today. In fact, I had never seen them in operation. Yet, now my life centered on the times when the Holy Spirit would flow His gifts through me to others. Prophetic dreams and visions were frequent. They became an ordinary occurrence in my daily life.

From that day forward, I had a fervent goal in my life and that was to share being born again and the baptism of the Holy Spirit with as many people as possible. My heart's desire was to help others come to Christ and receive His wonderful promise of eternal life with Him and the Father as well as living an abundant supernatural life of on earth.

"And when they had prayed, the place where they were assembled together was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness." (Acts 4:31 NKJ)

"I thank my God always concerning you for the grace of God which was given to you by Christ Jesus, that you were enriched in everything by Him in all utterance and all knowledge, even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you, so that you come short in no gift, eagerly waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ, who will also confirm you to the end, that you may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ." (1 Corinthians 1:4 - 8 NKJ)

"There are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. There are differences of ministries, but the same Lord. And there are diversities of activities, but it is the same God who works all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to each one for the profit of all: for to one is given the word of wisdom through the Spirit, to another the word of knowledge through the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healings by the same Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another discerning of spirits, to another different kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. But one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing to each one individually as He wills." (1 Corinthians 12:-12 NKJ)

A HOLY SPIRIT LED ENCOUNTER AT A BUFFET

Posted by [grandmaanna] Apr 2nd 2006 - 11:05PM Posts to date: 626

A HOLY SPIRIT LED ENCOUNTER AT A BUFFET RESTAURANT

I was sitting in a booth at a buffet restaurant and noticed the people in the booth in front of me sitting side by side with their backs to me. They were dressed as though they were going through some very hard times. I couldn't help but notice how many times they went back for more food. Every now and then, he would stop eating and look at her. Then he would put his arm around her and hug her close and she would nestle into his arms and wipe the tears away from her eyes.

My heart went out to them. The Lord imparted to me that they had lost their hope. Every thing in me wanted to see that hope restored. I wanted so much to bless them and bring some joy back into their lives. I had two five dollar bills, which wasn't much, but I wanted to give it to them just to let them know they were loved and that the Lord loved them so very much.

As I stood up and was putting on my coat, I didn't know what to say or how to say it. I pondered with the Lord what He wanted me to do. Then I found myself with a sudden peace and a resolve. I walked very decisively in front of them and looked at the woman and said, with no premeditation at all, "You remind me of my daughter and I want you to have this." As she reached out to take the money she was looking at me incredulously with tears filling her eyes. She took my hand and exclaimed, "I just lost my daughter!" I don't know who was more shocked she, or me! I wept with her. The man took my other hand. Then the Lord filled my mouth and I spoke over them prophetically. I told them that Jesus knew all about their circumstances and He loved them very much and the circumstances in their lives were going to change, and to trust Jesus.

As I looked into the man's eyes they were the most vivid, penetrating clear blue eyes I have ever seen. I knew in my spirit that the Lord has a call upon his life. As I was walking away, he called after me very endearingly, "God bless!"

As I was walking to my car, the Holy Spirit said very clearly, "You changed their lives." I immediately said back to Him, "YOU are the One Who changed their lives! What a blessing to be Your heart, Your feet and Your mouth!" I knew the Holy Spirit had put those words in my mouth about her reminding me of my daughter. I was as shocked as she was when I said them! And it was not the money I gave her, it was His love that flowed out of me to her and hers back to me as we wept together. I knew that they both suddenly knew deep inside that the Lord was with them in their sorrow of just having gone through the death of her daughter.

I felt so very blessed as the man's words, "God bless" still echoed in my ears. Then I really cried with His love for them and interceded for their blessings to come. I knew in my heart of hearts that their circumstances were definitely going to change!

I SMELLED THE LORD AND THEN....!

Posted by [grandmaanna] Apr 10th 2009 - 10:01PM Posts to date: 626

I SMELLED THE LORD AND THEN....!

Some of my most precious intimate times with my beloved Holy Spirit is when He manifests Himself into my natural world. I have never seen Him, but He does make Himself known to me in various tangible ways. One of those precious ways is by opening my physical senses and I smell His sweet presence.

This particular night, I particularly asked Him if I could smell His fragrance again. I took a long deep breath in faith, and just at the end of the long inhaling I smelled cinnamon and then

I smelled lilies! I was so excited!

Sol 5:13 plainly describes the meaning of the cinnamon and the lilies.

"His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers: his lips like lilies, dropping sweet smelling myrrh." (Song of Solomon 5:13 KJV)

I took another deep breath as before, and this time the fragrance was even more pronounced as though He had drawn even closer to me. His cheeks had to be close to mine when I smelled the cinnamon. And then He was even more close when I smelled the lilies! Then suddenly my lips began to vibrate. That night He must have put me right to sleep because I don't remember any more after that ..."kiss" ???

Louis Experiences

Posted by [Louis] Nov 8th 2008 - 0:11AM Posts to date: 1

The Vision of the cross after my water baptism:

This is what the Lord showed me. I looked down into a grave. I could see a coffin down at the bottom of the grave. I saw that the coffin's lid was covered with a thin layer of soil. As I was looking, the lid of the coffin became like water. I was still looking when I saw something move beneath the water. Slowly I saw a golden cross rising out of the water.

The cross arose slowly until it was above the coffin and then it stood upright in the grave. The beauty of the cross took my breath away. I have never seen anything so beautiful in my entire life. The cross was made out of solid gold and there were all sorts of precious stones moulded into it. This cross shone like the sun and it was almost too much to look at.

I was still admiring this cross when it was placed on a hillside nearby where the whole Earth could see it. My first thought was that this cross, before me was Jesus Christ. In my heart, I suddenly understood: The old me had become new. "I was dead, as the coffin in the grave symbolised and after passing through the baptismal water in faith, it was me that was raised on the other side of the grave, as the cross." It was I that shone with that beauty and the glory of the Lord, because I had been washed clean of all sins.

I had become a new creature in Christ Jesus. I was stunned, and even today as I close my eyes I can see that cross, its beauty and its slender. It always helps me to look forward in dark days and it gives me confidences in Christ Jesus because it is He that is in me that makes me so beautiful. Believer, you will also look like that in the spiritual realm if you are obedient in this step.

The grave is symbolic of sin and death. The coffin is symbolic of my state of sin. The soil is symbolic of our fleshly nature. The water is symbolic of spiritual rebirth. The gold is symbolic of Divine Nature and the precious stones symbolise a solid foundation in Christ Jesus, and also means the gifts of the Holy Spirit and the cross is symbolic of the sacrifice I had made in laying down my old nature to take up my cross and the nature of Jesus Christ.

Awakened

www.thequickenenedword.com

At church this morning during worship, 8/10/08, I had a vision. Three blue clad figures, not clearly defined, were blowing immense horns. The mouth of each trumpet was huge. As I watched, letters began to come out of each trumpet at the same time.

The three trumpeters are the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The God Head is announcing an awakening to the body of Christ that the order of end time events has begun.

CLIMBING INTO GOD'S GLORY CLOUD

Posted by [grandmaanna] Apr 20th 2008 - 10:48PM Posts to date: 626

CLIMBING INTO GOD'S GLORY CLOUD

In October of 1984, I was resting in my family room lounge chair with My Bible in my lap when I was caught up into an experience with the Lord's Glory Cloud

I found myself laboriously climbing, inching my way up a narrow shaft with my elbows. I was aiming at the brilliant light at the top of the shaft. Suddenly, in the midst of my climb, I knew that if I reached the top and walked into the light I would disappear. As I pondered whether or not I wanted to lose my identity, I continued to climb. When I finally and wearily pulled myself over the edge, I stood up and walked resolutely into the light of His Glory. I could no longer see myself. I had disappeared. Then I heard the audible voice of the Lord say, "Colossians 3:3."

As soon as I came out of that experience I opened my Bible and there in front of me was this verse! "For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God." (KJV Colossians 3:3)

Ever since then, I have been trying to cooperate with the Spirit of the Lord and die to my flesh whenever it comes in conflict with His will. It has been a long pull. I am 78 years old and still climbing. (Smile) Mercifully, He showed me the end of my climb and yours also, dear one, for My experience is a parable for all of the Lord's own. If you, beloved, love Him with all your heart and soul, He will help you put to death the deeds of your flesh and allow His deeds to be made manifest in you and then someday His glory shall be revealed in you...and in me.

SELAH WORD: JESUS MADE MANIFEST IN OUR MORTAL FLESH

Dearly beloved, does it seem as though your life becomes more difficult the closer you draw to Me in intimacy? Also, is it true, dear one, that two cannot walk together lest they be agreed?

You are flesh and I AM Spirit. For us to walk together as One, your will must become subject to Mine. Your spirit must be connected to My Spirit and consequently overrule your flesh. Whenever that occurs, you are being led by My Spirit. The closer you draw to Me, the more My grace will cover you in your struggles to overcome your flesh.

I learned in the garden of Gethsemane how difficult it is to put to death the desires of the body. This is why I promise you in My Word that I will perform this work in you as you submit your will to Mine. Your part is being obedient at the moment and yielding your will to Me. As you pursue Me with your whole heart, it is My delight to work in you and process your will into My own. By taking one step at a time, My glory will be revealed in you.

"Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure." (Philippians 2:12-13 KJV)

"Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ: ~ (Philippians 1:6 KJV)

"For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh." 2 Corinthians 4:11 KJV)

"It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life." (John 6:63 KJV)

"For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God." (Romans 8:13-19 KJV)

Today I received this following post from Doug Foust which quickened the above experience to my memory. His post also included a beautiful red rose. I love how the Lord unites His body one with the other!

True Eyes

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.
Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.
For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

Colossians 3:1-3

Love,
In Christ,
Doug Foust

THE ANGELS KEPT ME FROM BEING KILLED

Posted by [grandmaanna] Jan 20th 2008 - 7:56PM Posts to date: 626

THE ANGELS KEPT ME FROM BEING KILLED

I was a counselor in a co-ed residential treatment facility for juvenile offenders. It was an in-between training place that was offered instead of sending the offenders straight to the Juvenile State Prison. The facility was called a Ranch and the youth lived together in separate dorms and learned proper behavior in a structured environment without being locked up.

One time, while I was in the ranch office doing my case planning for CSD, one of my case load demanded to be let in. They weren't allowed in the office and I told her so, and that I would be free after a while. This made her angry and she slammed the screen door. That behavior was not permissible and I called out that she had just received a demerit for acting out. She opened it and slammed it again repeatedly, each time getting demerits which amounted to losing privileges. After she had stacked up the equivalent of taking away a week's worth of fun, she stamped off in a huff. I called out to her to place herself in isolation which meant going to her room and closing the door.

When I went to the girl's dorm she was nowhere to be found. I finally found her defiantly sitting in the lounge in the boy's dorm. I managed to get her to go to her room, but she was furious. When she went into her room, she had red candy in her mouth and spit it in my face. I hid any reaction from her, but went into my room, washed my face and cried. I thought of the humiliation of my Lord when they spit at Him.

The rest of the evening, she yelled and pounded the walls. There was a "ranch" rule that we were not to leave the night watchman with anyone that was acting out. If they were, they had to be transported to Juvenile Detention in a town 27 miles away. At 10 PM, I told her I was taking her in and to be ready.

The facility was in the forest and very dark. I pulled up to the dorm in my little gold Opel GT and she climbed in. Immediately, I sensed an evil presence. I began to sing in the spirit praising the Lord in tongues. The Lord's presence filled the car with such glory that I was scarcely aware of what I was doing! A golden sparkling haze filled the car and we seemed to float around the mountain corners as though time was suspended.

When I reached the city limits, I realized I had not called ahead to have them ready to handcuff her. I also realized that if I stopped at a stop sign she was likely to bolt and run. I did everything I could to keep the car moving and the Lord seemed to make everything turn out so that I didn't stop once before I arrived at the jail. She immediately bolted. By the time I got the staff out to the car, she was gone.

Inside, the phone was ringing. It was the boy's counselor all upset and wanted to know if I was ok. He said, "Go look at your tires!" To my dismay, I found them all flatter than pancakes. When I went back in to tell him, he said she had told the girls she had slashed my Michelin tires and was going to kill me on the way in. Thus the tires had been flat for hours, as she had slashed them around 2:30 in the afternoon.

I was amazed. I knew the Lord's angels had carried that car all the way into town. I had really sailed along, taking the corners very fast. No wonder I thought I was floating in the spirit. I was!!

The boy's dorm counselor decided to bring all the kids into town so I could have the van to get to my home 30 miles in another direction. When they arrived, all the kids flew out of the van and were looking at the hood of my car. Then I saw it. She had carved the "f" word in big letters across the hood of the car. I had done pretty well up to that point, but when I saw that I burst into tears. The youth were shocked and dismayed. Counselors don't cry. The other counselor was also a Christian and quietly said, "Vengeance is mine, saith the Lord." With those Words, peace came.

I needed gas in the van as I had to drive the 27 miles back to the ranch and then 34 miles to my home town. We went on the freeway to a truck stop and guess what? There she was,.. thumbing it. When she saw the van, she stood there as though paralyzed. As soon as we pulled over, the youth piled out before we could stop them. To our surprise, they angrily and forcibly put her in the van. She took one look at me and terror filled her eyes. I thought that was strange. Little did I know why she was so frightened of me.

At the truck stop, I got out with one of the girls and she whispered that our problem child had a knife and had planned to knife me along the way. Then I phoned ahead that we had captured her and to have the cuffs ready and to search her thoroughly because she had a knife. All went well. She was in jail, they found the knife and I was home about one in the morning and through with the whole episode... or so I thought.

The next morning the director called me and said I was to pick her up at "Juvie" and bring her back to the "ranch." I went to prayer meeting that morning and had them pray for my safety. When I went into the jail cell, she was cowering in the corner of her bunk, absolutely terrified of me. When I told her I was taking her back to the ranch, she cried out, "You'd do that after what I tried to do to you!" "What did you try to do?" I said, trying to sound very casual.

It finally came tumbling out of her. She said, "I raised my knife to kill you two times and both times, something took my hand and forced it down and held it there!" With a slow grin that was widening by the minute I said, "The Lord wouldn't let you kill me. The angels of the Lord stopped you." Then she got such a wicked evil look on her face and said, "Would they stop me if I tried it again?" "That's up to the Lord, I have no answer for that," I said simply."

Changing the subject, I said, "Why didn't you run when you saw us on the freeway?" "I couldn't, she replied, "It was as though my legs suddenly became full of concrete and I couldn't move!" I just looked at her and bubbled inside. What a Lord I had! I was so excited I could hardly stand it. She never gave me any more trouble after that.

So I had miracle after miracle. I drove all that way on flat tires with the angels literally holding up the car. The car filled up inside with the glory of God. The angels stopped her twice from trying to kill me. Then they paralyzed her on the freeway so she couldn't run away. Moreover, I received an added blessing,..she finally understood I wasn't her enemy. I was there to help her climb out of her wounds of abuse.

ENEMY STRONGHOLD DESTROYED

Posted by [grandmaanna] Nov 27th 2007 - 9:01PM Posts to date: 626

ENEMY STRONGHOLD DESTROYED

PARABLE: I discovered yellow jackets going and coming around my well. I had a feeling they were building a nest and I knew better than to try and dispose of it myself. I called the exterminator who found not one, but two huge nests. He charged me $75.00 to get rid of them.

(75 Strong's Heb. Stalled. Gr. Contend with adversaries, fight.)

One nest had its nest in the ground, about a foot across and five or six tiers high. The entrance was under some tarps and a box protecting the pipes from freezing. The other nest was under some plastic bags piled against the well. They were filled with old rotted black plastic removed from my garden area. Twice I had removed stuff from the bags to gradually place in the garbage can when I had excess room. Within the next two weeks I would have completely moved the bags and uncovered the whole nest and might have been badly stung in the process.

I interpret this that with his various distracting ploys, the enemy had been attempting to drive me away from accessing my place of intimacy with the Lord and drinking His Living Water from my spiritual well. The Lord exposed all the distractions and I was able to return to my resting place of intimacy with Him. The battle was not mine, but the Lord's. I didn't have to do one thing except call the "Exterminator." He took all the risk and was stung twice in the process. He even cleaned up the area he sprayed and placed it all in new plastic bags which were hauled away. (Smile)

THIS IS NOT YOUR BATTLE

The enemy has built a nest over your spiritual well to distract you from coming into the intimate place of rest you have with Me. Not to worry, I AM going to exterminate his dampening effect upon you and haul off his stronghold. You just stand still and see My delivering power over your life. This is My battle, loved, one, not yours.

"And Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid. Stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which He will accomplish for you today. For the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall see again no more forever." (Exodus 14:13 NKJ)

THE VEIL LIFTED, I RECOGNIZED THE LORD

THE VEIL LIFTED AND I RECOGNIZED THE LORD

In her post today of 11/10/07, "KEEP YOUR PIPES CLEAR AND CLEAN" My daughter Sandy wrote the following and my mind quickly jumped to the most awesome experience I have ever had with the Lord.

SANDY PARABLE 7/02/07: Recently I have noticed when caught up in working really hard that I am under a lot of stress in my body and emotions. When I let it go for a drive in the car with the loud worship music on, and with praying in tongues strongly, it is like blowing out the dirt in my pipes. It releases me from all the stress on my body and soul and the Spirit flushes out and breaks through to the Lord. It is a wonderful time. I feel refreshed and cleansed and free. (End Sandy Quote)

4/05/87 Grandma Anna: This morning in choir, as I worshipped the Lord, I trembled violently with His power. I felt charges of electricity hit the top of my head. I actually heard them.

Later that day I took a drive. I worshipped the Lord while slowly driving along the river. I was singing in tongues and adding the name Elohim and Adonai, telling Him how much I loved Him. Tears drenched my face because of my longing for Him.

Suddenly, I saw Him and I KNEW HIM! It was as though I had amnesia all my life down here on earth and the veil was lifted. I was astonished at our true relationship and at how much love there was between us. Never on earth had I loved or been loved like that! Then the veil came down and I couldn't remember what He looked like or what He said to me, only that I knew Him in a way I never imagined I did and that we had an awesome love for one another.

How little we know here on earth of our true relationship with our Beloved Lord. He has such an intense love for each of us and us for Him.

"For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. (1 Corinthians 13:12 KJV)

"How we praise God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms because we belong to Christ. Long ago, even before he made the world, God loved us and chose us in Christ to be holy and without fault in his eyes. His unchanging plan has always been to adopt us into his own family by bringing us to himself through Jesus Christ. And this gave him great pleasure. So we praise God for the wonderful kindness he has poured out on us because we belong to his dearly loved Son. He is so rich in kindness that he purchased our freedom through the blood of his Son, and our sins are forgiven. He has showered his kindness on us, along with all wisdom and understanding. God's secret plan has now been revealed to us; it is a plan centered on Christ, designed long ago according to his good pleasure. And this is his plan: At the right time he will bring everything together under the authority of Christ -- everything in heaven and on earth. Furthermore, because of Christ, we have received an inheritance from God, for he chose us from the beginning, and all things happen just as he decided long ago. God's purpose was that we who were the first to trust in Christ should praise our glorious God. And now you also have heard the truth, the Good News that God saves you. And when you believed in Christ, he identified you as his own by giving you the Holy Spirit, whom he promised long ago. The Spirit is God's guarantee that he will give us everything he promised and that he has purchased us to be his own people. This is just one more reason for us to praise our glorious God. (Ephesians 1:3-14 NLT)

(End Grandma Anna quote)

ACCESS TO MY THRONE

Posted by [grandmaanna] Nov 7th 2007 - 7:35PM Posts to date: 626

ACCESS TO MY THRONE

EXPERIENCE: I rounded a corner on the freeway and suddenly I was in the middle of the most beautiful double rainbow I had ever seen. It arched across the freeway coming to the ground on both sides of it. I immediately pulled into a small area of an exit that still enclosed me in the rainbow. I sat there with the anointing of God all over me, in me, and surrounding me! It was glorious. I was conscious of other cars joining me, but paid them no attention being caught up in ecstatic worship of my Beloved. I don't know how long I sat there weeping in awe and gazing at this phenomena. I felt that I was in the Throne Room before the very Throne of God.

I knew I had to continue my journey and reluctantly started the car. To my surprise the rainbow continued to cover me until the freeway made a bend in the road. As I turned away from it, I heard the Holy Spirit say, "As long as you follow the path I will make for you, you will have immediate access to My Throne. But if you follow the crowds, that access will no longer be open to you."

I knew He was speaking of the following scripture.

"Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it. Because narrow is the gate and difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it." (Matthew 7:13 -14 NKJ)

AN ANGEL DROVE MY CAR

Posted by [grandmaanna] Aug 20th 2007 - 9:59PM Posts to date: 626

AN ANGEL DROVE MY CAR

It was the winter of 1969. My husband had left me and I was commuting to college 45 miles away to finish earning my degree in Psychology.

It was a very cold winter and the day before, I had put studded snow tires on my front wheels to keep from sliding on the ice. I didn't know it was necessary to put them on all four tires to prevent skidding.

I was going 70 mph, which was the speed limit at the time. I approached an overpass that always had a warning light on if there was ice. The light wasn't on, so I hadn't slowed down and I certainly wasn't prepared for any skidding. Just as I came to the middle of the bridge over the creek, the car began to fish tail. It did a 360-degree turn within the bridge without hitting the sides. Then it slid into the barbed wire on the other side of the bridge. It did perfect figure eighths in between the freeway posts until the speed slowed and then it gently slid into a pile of boulders in the creek!

All the time this was going on, the steering wheel was going crazy. I didn't even try to hang onto it. I was just gripping the seat for dear life! At the time I thought, "This ride feels just like the Octopus at the carnival as I pressed my head back against the seat for support!" I wasn't even frightened. I was just awed. I knew I wasn't driving that car! Someone I couldn't see was doing the steering. When it finally stopped, the car was wedged against the creek bank. It took a little while but I managed to get the car door opened and scrambled up the hill to the highway.

To my surprise there was a TV News truck taking a picture of my climbing towards them and a friend of Sandy's running towards me who had recognized my little Opel GT in the creek. The officers had already arrived and as I reached the freeway they greeted me with, "That was sure some fancy driving lady!" There had been a heavy frost and the tracks were very visible where the car had skidded and done figure eighths in between the barbed wire and freeway posts until my speed slowed down, and then where it gently went into the creek.

The police said they said they would take care of towing my car to my home town. Sandy's friend dropped me off at college on his way to the mountain to ski. I wasn't even late to class. Then the same friend picked me up after my last class and took me home. I relived the experience that night as I watched myself on TV. (Smile)

This was my first experience, of many, with my knowing that the Lord was very, very real! And there was no doubt in anyone's mind that I had an angel watching after me. For the first time, I knew that my steps were ordered by the Lord. My faith soared after that and life was not nearly as difficult.

BEING RESCUED AND BEING A RESCUER

BEING RESCUED AND BEING A RESCUER

The Lord is desiring all of us to stay in close fellowship with Him and listen for His voice in the many ways He speaks. There are times when hearing Him can be very crucial for the moment.

Recently the Lord reminded me of a late 1970's experience I had on the freeway. Just as I passed a truck, I suddenly heard a clunk and a bang-bang-bang on the pavement from under my car! I quickly pulled over and noticed the same truck was also stopping. I found my muffler had fallen to the pavement. I looked at it helplessly. I didn't know what to do. Then I looked up to see the truck driver walking toward me. He must have seen the muffler fall and help was arriving already!

He took a quick look at my sad muffler and said, "Maybe I have something on my truck that will fix it," and asked me to drive very slowly up to his truck.

As I drove, I asked the Lord why this was happening to me. Very clearly, I heard, "I WANT HIM BACK." I pondered what I was supposed to say. All I knew was to tell the truck driver what I had heard.

I got to the truck before he did and saw a blue-coiled covered wire hanging on the back as though it was just waiting for me. (Smile) As the man tied up my muffler, I waited for an opportunity to give him the message. Finally, I just blurted out what I had prayed and what the Lord had told me. Sudden tears spurted out of his eyes, and he had to remove his glasses and wipe his eyes. "Maybe that IS why," he said quietly and walked slowly to his truck. Not only was I rescued, but so was that trucker. God's ways are so awesome.

SELAH WORD: I WANT YOU BACK

Loved one, did you really think that I would let you go? I forgive you 1000 times over and see only your wounded heart. Climb out of the shame. Wipe the tears of discouragement and loss off your face and run to Me as fast as you can. How I long to hold you in My embrace and comfort you as a mother comforts her child. Run into My waiting arms, My son. RUN!

"The LORD has appeared of old to me, saying: "Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love; Therefore with lovingkindness I have drawn you." (Jeremiah 31:3 NKJ)

ONE OF GRANDMA ANNA'S BEAR STORIES

Posted by [grandmaanna] Sept 19th 2007 - 10:16PM Posts to date: 626

ONE OF GRANDMA ANNA'S BEAR STORIES.

Three of us couples with our children had finished setting up camp along the riverbank. The adults left in our jeep, hauling our wooden boat to the boat ramp for a ride through the rapids while I babysat the children.

I thought a nice walk along the narrow dirt road through the woods would entertain them. We had just passed a camping trailer belonging to an older couple when a medium sized black bear suddenly appeared moving quickly towards us. I yelled to the children to run back to the car and I made a distracting ruckus by running towards the bear and clapping my hands and roaring at him. One look at me and he quickly climbed a tree. I watched him paced back and forth upon a large horizontal limb too scared to come down.

Good! I thought, and started back towards the car. As I passed the trailer, two big-eyed people were staring incredulously at me and at the bear. I smiled and waved and went back to my brood.

I found them all safely in the car, also with big eyes. "Where's the bear, Mama!"

"I treed it," I replied, "and everything's fine. Let's build a nice fire and get dinner started." The children scampered around the bank looking for wood,... staying close to the car... I might add.

Towards evening, my husband and crew floated up to the bank. As he strode past me, I announced, "I treed a bear this afternoon."

"Yeah, sure you did," he said, as he headed towards the outhouse near the trailer.

About 15 minutes later, he returned, with his eyes as big as saucers. "You weren't kidding!" The couple in the trailer had told him their excitement that afternoon when a young woman treed a bear right by their trailer. They said they couldn't get into their trailer fast enough when they saw it! Then added, "When all was quiet, the bear finally felt safe enough and ran back into the woods."

I played it real cool the rest of the evening,... but I stayed awake most the night and kept that fire going!

Spiritual application: His grace is sufficient. (Smile)

"And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me." (2 Corinthians 12:9 KJV)

EXPERIENCE - ANGELS?

Posted by [grandmaanna] June 12th 2007 - 3:46PM Posts to date: 626

EXPERIENCE - ANGELS?

I was enjoying a day's trip over to the coast with a girl friend. We clambered over the rocks and ran along the beach dodging the tide as it swept up upon the sand. We found a sheltered place away from the wind and watched the waves coming in at high tide. When it was time for us to leave, I reached in my pocket for the keys. Oh no! Where are the keys!!! My eyes were drawn to the passenger seat and there they were. Now what were we to do? A man approached his own car and I told him what we had done. He said, no problem! "I'm a vacationing sheriff and just happen to have the tools to get those keys. He pried the door open just enough to lift them out with two coat hangers wound together. An Angel in disguise? Fun! I love it!

"Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing some have unwittingly entertained angels." (Hebrews 13:2 NKJ)

A PARABLE OF GODS SHIELD OF PROTECTION

Posted by [grandmaanna] Apr 14th 2007 - 9:32PM Posts to date: 626

A PARABLE OF GODS SHIELD OF PROTECTION

A girlfriend and I had a strange experience at the Wild Life Safari Zoo where most of the animals are allowed to roam freely while visitors drive through and watch the animals from their cars. I had parked along the side of the road and we were looking at the different animals in the distance. I happened to look in my rear view mirror and saw an ostrich rapidly approaching the car. I barely had time to close my window!

He towered over us and suddenly bent his long neck and began to viciously attack the windows with his beak. He went from the back of the car along my side pecking the glass all the way and then across the front windshield trying over and over again to reach me. At first I was frightened and then I realized the Holy Spirit was giving me a strong parable of how He keeps the enemy from harming us!

We both finally had enough of our parable, and I gunned the motor to put distance between us. That bird chased after us but we outdistanced it and escaped through the gate.

It was a wonderful example of how He places His shield of protection around us that the enemy can't penetrate.

"For You, O LORD, will bless the righteous; With favor You will surround him as with a shield."
(Psalm 5:12 NKJ)

THE LORD'S SENSE OF HUMOR

Posted by [grandmaanna] Mar 28th 2007 - 10:0PM Posts to date: 626

THE LORD'S SENSE OF HUMOR

Circumstances had not been very pleasant around here and I had been trying to COPE! Laughter had NOT been part of the program. And worst of all, I felt like I was in the desert in a spiritual drought because of not hearing much from the Lord. When I awakened early one morning, again not hearing from my Beloved, and feeling rather grumpy about it, I suddenly thought a good hearty breakfast would lift my spirits. (Note: I very seldom go out to breakfast.)

I treated myself to breakfast at Denny's. When the waitress came she had the biggest smile I have ever seen on anyone. I commented about it and told her she was bringing joy to my heart this morning. (Little did I know!)

I very clearly ordered a Senior Omelet and a side of grits. I even pointed to it on the menu. She asked me how I wanted my eggs. I looked at her a bit strangely and said, "Over easy." I wondered how else one would make an omelet?

Some time later she returned with my breakfast. There staring me in the face was one egg over easy, hashbrowns, a sausage and a bowl of grits. No omelet. "I ordered the senior omelet" I said in dismay! "Oh! I thought you said the Senior Starter." (Parable - smile) She said, "Oh, I'm so sorry, I will have them make you an omelet!"

After a while, I looked over at the cooking area and noticed my waitress holding a platter and having some kind of discussion with one of the cooks. I heard her voice ring out saying, "I ordered a Senior Omelet!" So here she comes bearing this HUGE omelet. She put it down in front of my astonished face and said, "They thought I said the ULTIMATE OMELET! "IT SEEMS THAT NO ONE IS HEARING TODAY!"

I burst into laughter! It was the funniest thing that could have been said in my current circumstances. I laughed and laughed. Then she said, "YOU LOOK LIKE YOU'VE BEEN IN THE DESERT AND NEED ALL THIS FOOD!"

That made me laugh harder. I laughed all the way through my gigantic meal and filled a big box to bring home. The Lord has more than one way to speak to us in a drought!!!

ANNA TEACHING ANNA

Posted by [grandmaanna] Mar 9th 2007 - 7:22PM Posts to date: 626

ANNA TEACHING ANNA

PARABLE: At my senior water aerobics class a new member named Anna was introduced. She was from a foreign country and wearing a rainbow striped unusual looking bathing suit. I was asked by Lloyd, our male instructor, to help her with the exercises.

Anna teaching Anna was hilarious. I liken it to my spirit Anna trying to instruct my body and soul Anna. What ever this lady did, she did with more zeal and vigor than the class had ever experienced. I would try to duck in amid all her splashing to give her some needed instruction and then quickly exit to keep from getting drenched.

We were all trying so hard not to laugh, but finally the whole class came unglued! I have never seen anything like it. She actually went clear under the water one time, glasses and all! She wasn't the least bit embarrassed or intimidated, in fact she said she was having a marvelous time! Actually she learned quickly and did much better than most beginners.

Afterwards I giggled and giggled with delight at Anna's zeal. It didn't matter to her, whether she was doing it right or wrong, she was going to give it all she had, with all her 65 to 70 year old might!

Suddenly I heard the Lord laughing. Woops! As I said above, I likened it to my spirit Anna trying to instruct my body and soul Anna. Oh well.....!!!!!!!

For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. (Romans 10:2 KJV)

HE WATCHES OVER THE SPARROWS AND US!

HE WATCHES OVER THE SPARROWS AND US! (SMILE)

EXPERIENCE: I had two very similar experiences within 15 minutes of each other. I handed a young lady what I thought was $2.25 for a tall Skinny Mocha. She looked at the money and said did you mean to give me this? She held up a $20.00 bill instead of a $1.00 bill. Then upon returning home, the doorbell rang and a little neighbor girl held up a $5.00 bill and said, "Is this yours? I found it on the sidewalk ." I looked in my pocket where I keep $5.00 when I walk. Sure enough, it was missing. The Lord is so good to take of me when I'm not doing such a good job of taking care of myself! (Smile)

SELAH WORD: FAVOR

My precious one, even though you can't see Me with your natural eyes, I AM always with you. I watch over you to cover your mistakes and weaknesses so that you may walk blessed and without fear. It brings Me great joy to bless you in hidden ways, for nothing blesses Me more than when you realize it is your Beloved's favor working behind the scenes. I love to see those happy smiles!

"What is the price of five sparrows? A couple of pennies? Yet God does not forget a single one of them. And the very hairs on your head are all numbered. So don't be afraid; you are more valuable to him than a whole flock of sparrows." (Luke 12:6-7 NLT)

"In the light of the king's face is life, And his favor is like a cloud of the latter rain." (Proverbs 16:15 NKJ)

KISSED IN THE MIDST OF THE BRETHREN

KISSED IN THE MIDST OF THE BRETHREN

MINISTRY EXPERIENCE 1/14/1986

My right hand began to tremble during the time set aside for ministering healing at an out of town Healing Seminar. I showed Sandy what was happening and she encouraged me to find people who needed prayer.

I very hesitatingly and timidly began to wander around the 50 or so people who were clustered in groups praying. I stopped and asked the Lord if I should pray for a particular one. In a very still voice, He said, "Touch her on the forehead." As I did, she slumped down but the men who were praying for her didn't let her fall. Someone walking by said, "Look, she's slain in the Spirit standing up!" They dragged her over to a chair where she trembled and was unaware of what was going on around her.

"Lord," I said inwardly, "Did you do that through me?!" I wasn't sure, and was dumbfounded. I had done it oh so very, very gently so she wouldn't feel like I was using her head for a drum! My fingers were doing such a dance that I knew it would have felt uncomfortable if I had done anything but gently touch her. It took coordination and concentration to keep my hand just at the right place.

Then I felt drawn to another group who were praying for someone. Again, I asked the Lord and He said, "Touch her on the forehead," so I did and POW - down she went!

By this time, I was REALLY feeling timid and inhibited and yet at the same time sort of floating along. I wove in and out among the people and prayed for one where there was no visible manifestation. It was a man who had men praying for him and I couldn't reach his forehead, so I just put my hand on his arm. Nothing happened.

Then I stood and watched a young woman being prayed for whom I knew had a spirit of bitterness. I also knew I was to touch her on the forehead and command it to come out. I touched her and said, "Out!" and immediately her countenance changed and she began to weep.

I again walked away and went back to my seat and to Sandy. She was laughing and said she had followed me and had watched with amazement as I had prayed. My hand was still "going", so she said, "How about you going up to the front where people are still praying?" I wasn't too happy about the idea, but I felt I was to do it and had been considering it before she said something.

When I got up there, too many people were in the way for me to reach the lady being prayed for. Then oddly, one person suddenly looked at me and kind of jumped to the side, and then maneuvered me close enough so that I could touch the one being prayed for on the forehead. Afterwards, I quickly left and returned to my seat. "Well", I said to Sandy, "I guess nothing happened. She didn't look any different."

After a little while, a group of people filled in some empty seats in the row in front of us. Then they all turned around and faced us and absolutely blew me away! They said they were praying for the lady up front, when I walked up and touched her. They said soon after I left, the lady cried out, "God touched me! I felt electricity go through me and I'm healed! Did one of you touch me?" They said no and explained it was me.

They were later talking about it from the microphone and wanted to know who was the lady who had merely touched her and then left. I shrunk down in my chair and whispered to Sandy, "Lets get out of here! So we quickly exited out the back door. (Smile)

"Now there are different kinds of spiritual gifts, but it is the same Holy Spirit who is the source of them all. There are different kinds of service in the church, but it is the same Lord we are serving. There are different ways God works in our lives, but it is the same God who does the work through all of us. A spiritual gift is given to each of us as a means of helping the entire church. To one person the Spirit gives the ability to give wise advice; to another he gives the gift of special knowledge. The Spirit gives special faith to another, and to someone else he gives the power to heal the sick. He gives one person the power to perform miracles, and to another the ability to prophesy. He gives someone else the ability to know whether it is really the Spirit of God or another spirit that is speaking. Still another person is given the ability to speak in unknown languages, and another is given the ability to interpret what is being said. It is the one and only Holy Spirit who distributes these gifts. He alone decides which gift each person should have. (1 Corinthians 12:4 -11 NLT)

NOTE FROM SANDY: When Anna asked the Lord what had happened and why He had done that, He told her He had kissed her in front of her brethren. I thought that was very special. He had kissed her hand with His power.

MY DADDY

Posted by [grandmaanna] Jan 23rd 2007 - 9:24PM Posts to date: 626

MY DADDY IN HEAVEN

Moments of Intimacy: 1/22/07

Vision: Some one kissed my cheek. Then I saw the face of my earthly Daddy.

Clock Time: 11:59 Heb. Prayer. Gr. Spend

Note: Frequently, I have found that when the Holy Spirit gives me a message, the clock times in the Hebrew and Greek, from Strong's numbering system, include a correlating confirmation.

Moments of Intimacy 1/23/07:

A friend sent me a poem called Daddy's Poem. As I read it, I didn't make any connection with my vision last night. Then the "light went on" when I read the following verse!

But sometimes when I close my eyes,
it's like he never went away."
And then she closed her eyes,
and saw him there that day.

I sat there astonished and carefully reread the poem. Tears flowed.

Thank you, Father, for the special vision and confirmation that blesses me more than words can say. Amen.

"DADDY'S DAY"

By Cheryl Costello-Forshey 2002.

Her hair was up in a pony tail,
her favorite dress tied with a bow.
Today was Daddy's Day at school, and she couldn't wait to go.

But her mommy tried to tell her,
that she probably should stay home.
Why the kids might not understand,
if she went to school alone.

But she was not afraid;
she knew just what to say.
What to tell her classmates of why he wasn't there today.

But still her mother worried,
for her to face this day alone.
And that was why once again,
she tried to keep her daughter home.

But the little girl went to school,
eager to tell them all.
About a dad she never sees,
a dad who never calls.

There were daddies along the wall in back,
for everyone to meet.
Children squirming impatiently,
anxious in their seats.

One by one the teacher called,
a student from the class.
To introduce their daddy,
as seconds slowly passed.

At last the teacher called her name,
every child turned to stare.
Each of them was searching,
for a man who wasn't there.

"Where's her daddy at?"
she heard a boy call out.
"She probably doesn't have one,"
another student dared to shout.

And from somewhere near the back,
she heard a daddy say,
"Looks like another deadbeat dad, too busy to waste his day."

The words did not offend her,
as she smiled up at her Mom.
And looked back at her teacher, who told her to go on.

And with hands behind her back,
slowly she began to speak.
And out from the mouth of a child, came words incredibly unique.

"My Daddy couldn't be here, because he lives so far away.
But I know he wishes he could be,
since this is such a special day.

And though you cannot meet him,
I wanted you to know.
All about my daddy,
and how much he loves me so.

He loved to tell me stories,
he taught me to ride my bike.
He surprised me with pink roses,
and taught me to fly a kite.

We used to share fudge sundaes,
and ice cream in a cone.
And though you cannot see him,
I'm not standing here alone.

'Cause my daddy's always with me,
even though we are apart
I know because he told me,
he'll forever be in my heart"

With that, her little hand reached up,
and lay across her chest.
Feeling her own heartbeat, beneath her favorite dress.

And from somewhere in the crowd of dads,
her mother stood in tears.
Proudly watching her daughter, who was wise beyond her years.

For she stood up for the love of a man not in her life.
Doing what was best for her,
doing what was right.

And when she dropped her hand back down,
staring straight into the crowd.
She finished with a voice so soft,
but its message clear and loud.

"I love my daddy very much,
he's my shining star.
And if he could, he'd be here,
but heaven's just too far.

But sometimes when I close my eyes,
it's like he never went away."
And then she closed her eyes,
and saw him there that day.

And to her mother's amazement,
she witnessed with surprise.
A room full of daddies and children, all starting to close their eyes.

Who knows what they saw before them,
who knows what they felt inside.
Perhaps for merely a second,
they saw him at her side.

"I know you're with me Daddy," to the silence she called out.
And what happened next made believers,
of those once filled with doubt.

Not one in that room could explain it,
for each of their eyes had been closed.
But there on the desk beside her,
was a fragrant long-stemmed pink rose.

And a child was blessed, if only for a moment,
by the love of her shining bright star.
And given the gift of believing, that heaven is never too far...

HE WHO HAS CALLED YOU WILL ALSO DO IT

Posted by [grandmaanna] Jan 2nd 2007 - 7:41PM Posts to date: 626

HE WHO HAS CALLED YOU WILL ALSO DO IT

"For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure." (Philippians 2:13 KJV)

When the Lord calls us to do a particular job for Him, He is always involved in our guidance. We may not see it as His guidance at the time, and we may not like His timing, but when all is said and done, He is the One Who prepares us every inch of the way.

Using myself as an example, in the early 70's, I was called to be a scribe, but I had no idea that was what I was already doing. I just wrote in little spiral notebooks what was in my heart and occasionally shared them with my pastor. One time, he said I was hearing from the Holy Spirit. That startled me. I began to pay more attention to what I was writing and realized that some of what I had written had happened. Other than sharing with my pastor, I kept my writings to myself.

I began to realize something was out of the ordinary when I began to have dreams and visions and occasionally carried away in trances. Later, I saw angels with my eyes closed but it was as though I was actually seeing them with opened eyes. For, as soon as I realized I saw them, I would quickly open my eyes and would see them for a few seconds. Each time they startled me so much I cried out! I finally mellowed out to a loud OH! (Smile)

So what did all this mean and what was I supposed to do with it? I wanted immediate answers, but I received no instruction. I was frustrated, but I kept on writing down what I heard and saw.

Some years later, the Lord began to instruct me through a dream.

DREAM: A MESSY KITCHEN

I had a vague recollection that I was giving the mail carrier some kind of a treat while I read my mail in my messy kitchen. I had to leave suddenly and left the mail carrier in my kitchen with my opened mail intermingled among the dirty dishes.

When I returned, the kitchen was immaculate and my mail was neatly stacked on top of the washed dishes. I was thrilled and astonished.

POSSIBLE INTERPRETATION: So what did all that mean? I understood from past rhema that the Lord called my rhema a feast of His bread and I was to enjoy His feast. I didn't think what I heard had much relevance to others so I had kept on writing for many more years. Nothing I heard was organized and mostly just stashed away in notebooks.

I understood from the dream that the mail carrier was the Holy Spirit and He was pleased that I was writing down what He said. However, I obviously wasn't keeping it properly. The deplorable condition of my kitchen and then cleaned up by the mail carrier meant the Holy Spirit was going to give me His divine help to make order of what I heard.

Then I had another dream that same night.

DREAM: CLIMBING DIAGONALLY

I was at a snow recreation area. I couldn't ski as usual because of physical limitations, but I saw an inner tube run and knew I could do that. I began to climb up the run. It got steeper and steeper. Finally, I was looking straight up. "That's ridiculous, no one can climb that! I wonder how you get up there?" Just then I saw a young boy going diagonally across the hill. "Oh, I can do that!" I exclaimed.

POSSIBLE INTERPRETATION:

I had climbed quite a ways in being His scribe. The fullness of that calling was in sight, but I had to change course and approach it in a different manner. This path would be much easier and like a place of rest compared to the path I was pursuing.

"A man's heart deviseth his way: but the LORD directeth his steps." (Proverbs 16:9 KJV)

I still wasn't sure what course I was to take regarding what I heard. A few years later I received more instruction.

ANGELIC VISITATION AND DREAMS

I was awakened by hearing the floor joists creak in the hall by my bedroom door, as if a heavy weight had stepped on the floor. I heard a very powerful, deep, masculine voice say, "We hope to set her rhema straight."

I was not frightened. Rather, I was enveloped with a deep sense of peace as I am when I am "slain in the spirit." Although I didn't hear anything more, I was very conscious of angels being in the room as I drifted off to sleep.

"Slain in the spirit," means being supernaturally put into a deep rest. It's a state of total relaxation and a wonderful state of peace and cognizance of the Lord's manifested presence.

POSSIBLE INTERPRETATION: The following scripture was quickened to me as to what happened that night.

"For God may speak in one way, or in another, Yet man does not perceive it. In a dream, in a vision of the night, When deep sleep falls upon men, While slumbering on their beds, Then He opens the ears of men, And seals their instruction. (Job 33:14-16 NKJ)

From that night forward, I had a sense of peace about being a scribe and knew in my innermost being that He was in total control and would bring clarity to what I didn't understand.

To bring this rhema to full circle, the Lord's timing was many more years of waiting to fill in the missing steps of being a scribe. In the process, I learned that being a scribe meant more than just writing down what He said. It also must be shared. He had specific guidance for me to get the job done correctly, but much of it was taught to my spirit and bypassed my intellect. To be honest, I did not enjoy His timing of having to wait so many years. But when every thing fell into place, there was great peace knowing that He is the One who calls us and sees to it that we carry out our calling in His perfect will, time and place.

"for it is God who works in you both to will and to do for His good pleasure." (Philippians 2:13)

NKJ)

Beloved, if you are in a place of waiting for the Lord to fulfill His calling in your life, take heart, and wait patiently for Him to give you the necessary instructions. It may take years in coming, but He will guide you in the way that is best for you. Hopefully, you won't have to wait as long as I did. (Smile)

"Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it." (1 Thessalonians 5:24 KJV)

"He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so that we can do the good things he planned for us long ago." (Ephesians 2:10 NLT)

"For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise." (Hebrews 10:36 KJV)

EXPERIENCE IN A LIGHTNING STORM

Posted by [grandmaanna] Nov 19th 2006 - 4:46PM Posts to date: 626

SUPERNATURAL EXPERIENCE IN A LIGHTNING STORM

Some while back, we had a sudden violent storm. I stood in the shelter of my garage with the garage door open and watched the magnificent lightning display and the torrential rain. I had been praying against any assignments of the enemy coming through the storm. I prayed that there would be no loss of life or injury, no lightning damage to any homes and no damage to our forests.

Then suddenly, unpremeditated, I cried out to the Lord, "Protect me and my house!!!" No sooner had the words come out of my mouth, than the dreaded sizzle and deafening, booming lightning crack was all around me, along with the ear-splitting roar of thunder! I heard my neighbors across the street scream! (They told me they thought the lightning had struck me.) The hairs were standing up on my arms and my head from the electricity. Then almost at the same time, I felt the anointing of the Holy Spirit, which placed me in a deep bow. I stayed in that position, hugging myself in gratefulness, as the downpour continued. I knew the angels of the Lord had redirected the lightning and I was in His awesome presence.

UPDATE: 2700 LIGHTNING STRIKES

The next night, the newspaper reported 2,700 lightning strikes in our local forests. We have not had such a storm since the 80's. Other than a few power outages, some hail damage to gardens and minor flooding, there was very little damage. The downpour of rain kept the lightning strikes contained in our forests and they were safe.

Sandy was quickened to look up the number 2700 in the Hebrew and Greek Strong's numbering system. We were amazed to find out what it meant. The Greek meant "To shoot down or thrust through with an arrow." The Hebrew was "Village of death."

One of the prophetic Words to the Body of Christ this year was to take authority over the elements because the enemy is empowering many of the storms. My interpretation of the spiritual meaning of the 2700 was that the enemy had planned to make this area a village of death through sending his 2700 arrows of lightning. Because intercessors were praying, there were no injuries, and the Lord intervened and sent sufficient rain with the lightning to keep the forests safe.

It is also interesting that a little five year old had a significant vision in the Sunday evening service just two days before the storm. He was dancing and spinning before the Lord. His little neck was bent and he was looking up as though into the face of Jesus as he whirled. I had been watching him and could hardly take my eyes off of him. His spinning was faster than usual and he was doing an unusual little hop every now and then. It looked as though the angels had hold of him. I saw him run over to his mom and tell her something. She told me later that he saw gray lightning come up from the floor. Then he said he saw two flashes of lightning come down from the ceiling and turn the gray lightning into dust.

This scripture came to me regarding all the aspects of the storm

"Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh. Is there anything too hard for Me?" (Jeremiah 32:27 NKJ)

THE GLORY OF GOD ON A GREEN JEEP

Posted by [grandmaanna] Nov 4th 2006 - 3:29PM Posts to date: 626

FREEWAY EXPERIENCE WITH THE GLORY OF GOD ON A GREEN JEEP

This morning, I had an errand to run in a neighboring town 45 miles away. On the way home, the sun reflected on the back plastic windows of a green Jeep in front of me. It was very bright and very unusual. As I watched it, it became more intense until it looked like a ball of light with rays shimmering forth from it. My heart leaped and I knew it was a supernatural sign. I said out loud to the Lord, "That must be what we are going to look like when your glory shines from us!"

After enjoying it for a while, I got curious as to who these people were, so I passed the jeep. In a little perpendicular sign, that I had not seen before, right where the "glory" had been reflecting on the driver's side, the words said, "THE HOLY SPIRIT RIDES IN THIS CAR."

Needless to say I was shocked and my spirit wanted to somehow make contact with these people. I slowed down and let them pass me. I watched to see if the "glory" came back, but it didn't. We were getting close to my exit and I prayed and said, "Lord if you want me to tell them what I saw, then have them turn off." They did!

The next step was how do I get their attention? The cars were stopped at the light. He got into the middle lane and was the second car back. I went into the far right lane and stopped opposite them. There was no one behind me, so I could do that. I rolled down my window and got the gal's attention to roll down hers. She looked young, maybe in her twenties and of Mexican or Aztec descent. He looked like a mixture of Caucasian and Mexican or Indian. I had just enough time to yell at them, "I had an experience with your car. I saw the glory of God on it." He beamed a great smile and yelled, "Thanks" She looked astonished. I turned right and they went on.

The obvious parable is that any present or future ministry of theirs has the glory of God on it and I'm praying accordingly!

Don't you just love experiences like that? 😊

HUMOR OF THE LORD: CUP OF SUFFERING

Posted by [grandmaanna] Oct 30th 2006 - 4:50PM Posts to date: 626

HUMOR OF THE LORD: CUP OF SUFFERING

I watched a sermon on the "Cup of Suffering." I was deep in thought about it while I prepared to sit with the Lord prior to going to bed.

While I was waiting for the faucet filter to fill my jug of water, I was wandering around before settling down in my easy chair. I was thinking about Todd's sermon and was having a rather ungodly pity party with some rather stinkin'-thinkin'. I said to myself, "I have experienced a lifetime of the cup of suffering!" (Whoops! Not cool!)

Sill in the multi-grubs, I passed by the end table and the photo book Sandy had made for me. I casually flipped it open and laughed aloud! It was the page of my poor operated on bandaged toes sticking out of my cut away shoes. On the same page were pictures of the terrible nauseous ride we took on the dune buggies as part of a family vacation! There was a picture of me looking very sick at my tummy just after getting off the buggy. Sandy had written a blip attached to my head saying TERRIFIC. This was so apropos as to what I was just thinking, I giggled and giggled! At the same time, I experienced a download of His wonderful presence. Needless to say, I repented of my thoughts and took them into captivity!

The Holy Spirit is something else! I love the fact that He is in my hands and often guides me that way. I dearly love His sense of humor and His wonderful presence! 😊

"The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God." (Romans 8:16-19 KJV)

AN APPOINTMENT TO PRAY

Posted by [grandmaanna] Oct 30th 2006 - 4:31PM Posts to date: 626

A few days ago, I decided to clean out my closets and organize them for better access to my winter apparel. I collected clothes to take to charity that I hadn't worn in at least two years. The first two places I called were not receiving any more things right now. I remembered my Catholic neighbor mentioning their Thrift Shop. I called her to find out where they were located. She thrilled me by saying to bring my clothes to her. She would take them down for me and bring me a tax receipt. She is 85 and ten years older than me; that is the last thing I expected her to do! I piled all my things in the car and drove across the street so I wouldn't have to make a lot of trips. I knew her kind blessing was also a gift of favor from my precious Lord. I was a very "happy-camper!"

So, after we had transferred everything into her car, we suddenly heard a child screaming and screaming like he was badly hurt. The son of the neighbors living right next door to me, was holding his little boy and trying to comfort him as well as was his mama. I dashed right over there. He had fallen down three concrete steps and had a huge inch high knot on the top of his head. He was hysterical, sobbing and sobbing and coughing and choking in his daddy's arms. I put my hand on his little arm and began to pray out loud quietly and gently for the pain and fear to go away, and for the swelling to go down. I asked that the angels would be called forth to minister to him. He quieted down immediately! It was amazing.

They took him to the emergency room and did a cat scan. Nothing was even cracked. The next day the mama said the lump was entirely gone! We talked about how her little son quieted right down when I prayed. We both knew the Lord had healed him!

So, my decision to clean out my closets today, was His plan for my life and this little boy's. If I hadn't done it at the time I did it, I wouldn't have been there to pray. It is amazing how the Lord intertwines our lives and gives us these divine appointments. (Smile)

CHAP STICK ANOINTING

Posted by [grandmaanna] Oct 30th 2006 - 4:27PM Posts to date: 626

THE CHAP STICK ANOINTING!

My friend was very ill with a heart condition at a hospital in a nearby city. Compassion led me to go pray for her by myself. The Holy Spirit nudged me to hang onto her feet and pray. Since I didn't have any anointing oil, I anointed them with her chap stick. She received great heat and tingling through her arms and chest. I had waves and waves of goose bumps as I prayed in tongues and held onto her feet.

Both of us physically felt the Lord's Presence and I was having a difficult time in standing up. We had great joy and were anything but religious. In fact we were laughing uproariously. We wondered what would happen if a "for real" Pastor walked in and saw our non religious shenanigans. I frankly didn't know when to let go of her feet, but finally I knew she couldn't help but be healed and tried to get her to get up out of the bed and go home with me.

She had promised to have an Angiogram done with a catheter going into her heart and wanted to go ahead with it. I had absolutely no peace and cried and pleaded with the Lord about it. As it turned out, she seriously convulsed with it and it could easily have killed her. However, the good news about the Angiogram was that they found she had a healed heart. They took her off all her heart medication. She had suffered heart problems for years.

SELAH WORD:

Little ones, how I love your hearts that beat with My loving compassion for the hurting and sick. At times, I will give you a special gift to give to another. Walk with courage and boldness, and see what My gift will do! Long prayers aren't needed and even anointing the sick with chap stick has My smiling approval.

"Now there are different kinds of spiritual gifts, but it is the same Holy Spirit who is the source of them all. There are different kinds of service in the church, but it is the same Lord we are serving. There are different ways God works in our lives, but it is the same God who does the work through all of us. A spiritual gift is given to each of us as a means of helping the entire church. To one person the Spirit gives the ability to give wise advice; to another he gives the gift of special knowledge. The Spirit gives special faith to another, and to someone else he gives the power to heal the sick. He gives one person the power to perform miracles, and to another the ability to prophesy. He gives someone else the ability to know whether it is really the Spirit of God or another spirit that is speaking. Still another person is given the ability to speak in unknown languages, and another is given the ability to interpret what is being said. It is the one and only Holy Spirit who distributes these gifts. He alone decides which gift each person should have. The human body has many parts, but the many parts make up only one body. So it is with the body of Christ." (1 Corinthians 12:4-12 NLT)

MINISTRY FUN TODAY AT THE MALL

A man was ringing the Salvation Army bell as I entered the mall. I wondered how long he had been doing that and thought he might be hungry. I offered to buy him an ice cream cone. He thanked me politely, and said he had been eating nothing but candy all day so he had better not add any more sweets. I bought myself an ice cream cone and then thought, "I'll go buy that man a hamburger! I got him a burger with fries. He was absolutely delighted. Later, when I passed him on the way to the car, he profusely thanked me again! I was so excited to be able to do something for somebody I didn't know. I was as blessed as he was!

NKJ Matthew 25:40 "And the King will answer and say to them, 'Assuredly, I say to you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me.'

When I read your post, this Selah was quickened to me.

GRANDMA ANNA SELAH WORD 11/21/86 PG 829: THE LONGINGS FOR INTIMACY

Oh My precious friend, you are longing for more intimacy with Me and how I am longing for more with you. Look for Me to be speaking to you even when you are busy. I love to speak to you through your circumstances.

You have asked Me to increase your ability to hear Me. I am actually speaking to you in every area of life. Be aware of any area where your flesh is reigning instead of your spirit. It is in those areas that the enemy brings static and separates our sweet communion,

"If any man have ears to hear, let him hear. 24 And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given." (Mark 4:23-24 KJV)
