THINK ON THESE THINGS

HIS LOVING GUIDANCE 1983: THINK ON THESE THINGS

November of 1983 1:15 A.M.

I was in a deep sleep and then was suddenly AWAKENED. The Lord caught me up into the heavenly realm! All around me, I saw stars of all sizes and brightness peppering the firmament. Then He began to speak to me.

"I will not have mixture says the Lord God. You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of devils. As cool air is brought into a warm car by opening a window, so is the cooling of the fire of My Word within you to lukewarm when you are not simple concerning evil. Yea, I would have you wise concerning unto that which is good."

Then His voice changed and it roared as though He was speaking to the whole universe! At the same time, I also saw the words of the following scripture written in bright light across the dark sky.

"FINALLY, BRETHREN, WHATSOEVER THINGS ARE TRUE,
WHATSOEVER THINGS ARE HONEST, WHATSOEVER THINGS ARE JUST,
WHATSOEVER THINGS ARE PURE,
WHATSOEVER THINGS ARE LOVELY,
WHATSOEVER THINGS ARE OF GOOD REPORT;
IF THERE BE ANY VIRTUE,
AND IF THERE BE ANY PRAISE,
THINK ON THESE THINGS!"

DISCERNING YOUR THOUGHTS [TEACHING]

Loved ones, are you able to discern the different "voices" speaking in your thoughts? There is the Lord's "voice," the enemy's "voice" and your own "voice." Do you know which "voice" is guiding you? Often, you will be entertaining a mixture of all three almost at the same time. The Lord's "voice" will have you thinking about what is true and honorable. You will be thinking about things that are pure, lovely, admirable and excellent and worthy of praise.

Then the deceptive "voice" of the enemy can come to cause you to get into a negative groove of worry, fear, or bitterness, all of which can progress into depression, or even anger or hate. It can even get to the place where you can't control your thoughts. At that time, you quickly need to seek deliverance, whether it is just yourself doing warfare or others standing with you, binding the enemy, and loosing you into freedom.

How our own God given free will plays out into our daily lives, is what guides our own "voice." Our will is supposed to be yielded to the will of the Lord, and therein lies the battle because our flesh does not easily cooperate.

HIS LOVING GUIDANCE 1977: BE PREPARED FOR MY GLORY

[The Lord is very serious about our being led by His "voice," and has dealt with me all my life about this subject. This is one of these encounters.]

Precious one, I desire that you begin to think upon My Majesty and My Glory - begin to meditate upon Me in the heavenlies - My awesome Love, My unlimited power, My created Beings. I am all that you can think of and more.

A time is coming when I will open your eyes to the heavenly realm surrounding you. Think on these things to be prepared for My Glory when it is poured out upon you. I would not have you taken unaware.

Practice My Presence, seek fellowship with Me alone. Come into a oneness with Me. This will serve as a bridge to the opened field of My Glory.

BRING YOUR THOUGHTS INTO CAPTIVITY: 1/16/07

In my devotions this morning, He again spoke to me along this same subject:

SELAH WORD: "You are allowing the enemy to feed you his lies into your thought life. He is in every self-condemning thought. I will do all the perfecting that concerns you along with My right hand placed firmly upon you. You are ordained to come into the "New Thing" I AM going to do in the earth and I AM going to be the one Who does it!

Hear Me, little one, I AM GOING TO DO IT. None of this has anything to do with your natural abilities. It will be TOTALLY ME manifesting My glory in you and in the rest of My own.

So, stop the self condemnation. Consider your flesh crucified to My Cross and let Me do that which is good in My sight. Bring your thoughts into captivity, and rid yourself of all the enemy planted false conceptions. Discern the difference, little one."

"Do not remember the former things, Nor consider the things of old. Behold, I will do a new thing, Now it shall spring forth; Shall you not know it? I will even make a road in the wilderness And rivers in the desert. The beast of the field will honor Me, The jackals and the ostriches, Because I give waters in the wilderness And rivers in the desert, To give drink to My people, My chosen. This people I have formed for Myself; They shall declare My praise." (Isaiah 43:18 -21 NKJ)

"You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons; you cannot partake of the Lord's table and of the table of demons." 1 Corinthians 10:21 NKJ)

"For your obedience has become known to all. Therefore I am glad on your behalf; but I want you to be wise in what is good, and simple concerning evil." (Romans 16:19 NKJ)

"For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, and being ready to punish all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled." (2 Corinthians 10:3-6 NKJ)

"Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." (Philippians 4:8 KJV)

REPOSTED: HE WHO HAS CALLED YOU WILL ALSO DO IT

Posted by [grandmaanna] May 18th 2009 - 6:01PM Posts to date: 626

HE WHO HAS CALLED YOU WILL ALSO DO IT

"For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure." (Philippians 2:13 KJV)

When the Lord calls us to do a particular job for Him, He is always involved in our guidance. We may not see it as His guidance at the time, and we may not like His timing, but when all is said and done, He is the One Who prepares us every inch of the way.

Using myself as an example, in the early 70's, I was called to be a scribe, but I had no idea that was what I was already doing. I just wrote down what was in my heart in little spiral notebooks and occasionally shared them with my pastor. One time, he said I was hearing from the Holy Spirit. That startled me. I began to pay more attention to what I was writing and realized that some of what I had written had happened. Other than sharing with my pastor, I kept my writings to myself.

I began to realize something was out of the ordinary when I began to have dreams and visions and occasionally carried away in trances. Later, I saw angels with my eyes closed but it was as though I was actually seeing them with opened eyes. For, as soon as I realized I saw them, I would quickly open my eyes and would see them for a few seconds. Each time they startled me so much I cried out! I finally mellowed out to a loud OH! (Smile)

So what did all this mean and what was I supposed to do with it? I wanted immediate answers, but I received no instruction. I was frustrated, but I kept on writing down what I heard and saw.

Some years later, the Lord began to instruct me through a dream.

DREAM: A MESSY KITCHEN

I had a vague recollection that I was giving the mail carrier some kind of a treat while I read my mail. My kitchen was in a frightful mess. I had to leave suddenly and left the mail carrier in my messy kitchen with my opened mail intermingled among the dirty dishes.

When I returned, the kitchen was immaculate and my mail was neatly stacked on top of the washed dishes. I was thrilled and astonished.

POSSIBLE INTERPRETATION: So what did all that mean? I understood from past rhema that the Lord called my rhema a feast of His bread and I was to enjoy His feast. I didn't think what I heard had much relevance to others so I had just kept on writing for many more years. Nothing I heard was organized and mostly just stashed away in notebooks.

I understood from the dream that the mail carrier was the Holy Spirit and He was pleased that I was writing down what He said. However, I obviously wasn't keeping it properly. The deplorable condition of my kitchen and then cleaned up by the mail carrier meant the Holy Spirit was going to give me His divine help to make order of what I heard.

Then I had another dream that same night.

DREAM: CLIMBING DIAGONALLY

I was at a snow recreation area. I couldn't ski because of the weakness in my arms, but I saw an inner tube run and knew I could do that. I began to climb up the run. It got steeper and steeper. Finally, I was looking straight up. "That's ridiculous, no one can climb that! I wonder how you get up there?" Just then I saw a young boy going diagonally across the hill. "Oh, I can do that!" I exclaimed.

POSSIBLE INTERPRETATION:

I had climbed quite a ways in being His scribe. The fullness of that calling was in sight, but I had to change course and approach it in a different manner. This path would be much easier and a place of rest compared to the path I was pursuing.

"A man's heart deviseth his way: but the LORD directeth his steps." (Proverbs 16:9 KJV)

I still wasn't sure what course I was to take regarding what I heard. A few years later I received more instruction.

ANGELIC VISITATION AND DREAMS

I was awakened by hearing the floor joists creak in the hall by my bedroom door, as if a heavy weight had stepped on the floor. I heard a very powerful, deep, masculine voice say, "We hope to set her rhema straight."

I was not frightened. Rather, I was enveloped with a deep sense of peace as I am when I am *"slain in the spirit." Although I didn't hear anything more, I was very conscious of angels being in the room as I drifted off to sleep.

*"Slain in the spirit," means being supernaturally put into a deep rest. It's a state of total relaxation and a wonderful state of peace and cognizance of the Lord's manifested presence.

POSSIBLE INTERPRETATION: The following scripture was quickened to me as to what happened that night.

"For God may speak in one way, or in another, Yet man does not perceive it. In a dream, in a vision of the night, When deep sleep falls upon men, While slumbering on their beds, Then He opens the ears of men, And seals their instruction. (Job 33:14-16 NKJ)

From that night forward, I had a sense of peace about being a scribe and knew in my innermost being that He was in total control and would bring clarity to what I didn't understand.

To bring this rhema to full circle, the Lord's timing was many more years of waiting to fill in the missing steps of being a scribe. In the process, I learned that being a scribe means more than just writing down what He said. It also must be shared so others could enjoy His feast. He had specific guidance for me to get the job done correctly, but much of it was taught to my spirit and bypassed my intellect. To be honest, I did not enjoy His timing of having to wait so many years to understand where He was taking me. But when every thing fell into place, there was great peace knowing that He is the One who calls us and sees to it that we carry out our calling in His perfect will, time and place.

"for it is God who works in you both to will and to do for His good pleasure." (Philippians 2:13 NKJ)

Beloved, if you are in a place of waiting for the Lord to fulfill His calling in your life, take heart, and wait patiently for Him to give you the necessary instructions. It may take years in coming, but He will guide you in the way that is best for you. Hopefully, you won't have to wait as long as I did. (Smile)

"Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it." (1 Thessalonians 5:24 KJV)

"He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so that we can do the good things he planned for us long ago." (Ephesians 2:10 NLT)

"For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise." (Hebrews 10:36 KJV)

THE TONGUE – A CREATIVE FORCE

THE TONGUE – A CREATIVE FORCE

Many years ago in the late 70s, I was greatly influenced by a book written by Charles Capps, "The Tongue - A Creative Force." It made me very aware of what came out of my mouth and its eternal effects.

In connection to the above, the Holy Spirit told me in the early 80's that He wanted my mind programmed to His Word and not to the media. He asked me to get rid of my TV. (To this day,

I do not have TV.)

I had an amazing confirmation. That very night I went to the Wednesday evening Bible Study at church and was shocked to see TV sets, up and running, all along the long altar area! We were told they were props for the night's lesson which dealt with what kind of things were on TV and how the mixture was programming our minds to go against scripture.

A few years later, I had a vision that related to the above:

I WILL NOT HAVE MIXTURE SAYETH THE LORD GOD

A new teacher at home group was teaching mixture and I was very disturbed about it. I don't usually kneel beside my bed, but this time I did, begging the Lord to tell me whether to stop going to this home group.

CAUGHT UP:

At 1:15 AM, I was caught up into the heavenly realm. I saw the nighttime firmament with the stars in the background and the words being clearly written in brilliant white light across the dark sky. At the same time, I clearly heard God powerfully speak each Word as it was written.

"I will not have mixture, sayeth the Lord God. Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of devils. As cool air is brought into a warm car by opening a window, so is the cooling of the fire of My Word within you to lukewarm when ye are not simple concerning evil. Yea, I would have ye wise concerning unto that which is good. Finally brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."

The vision powerfully touched my life, and I have not been the same since. It opened my spirit to discern mixture.

Confirming Scriptures:

"Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils. " (1 Corinthians 10:21 KJV)

"For your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil." (Romans 16:19 KJV)

"Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." (Philippians 4:8 KJV)

Today, I was very blessed to read the following from Dr. Cindy Trimm on the Elijah List.

Cindy Trimm: "What Have You Put Out in The Atmosphere?"
by Cindy Trimm
Apr 5, 2009

Everything in the universe begins with and revolves around two things: words and thoughts. These two elements are divine gifts created by God and given to man. They form the creative substance that molds and shapes the destiny of humanity. Each of us becomes the person we are, chooses the direction we take, and accomplishes everything we do based on these two primary elements.

Just as in every seed, there is life-giving power that resides in every spoken word. This principle illustrates how the spiritual law of incubation and manifestation works. Everything you see in the natural began as a spiritual seed—that is, as a thought.

We are told in 2 Peter 1:3-4 that God, in His infinite wisdom, has already given us all things pertaining to life (the Wycliffe version says, "all things of His God-like virtue") that we might partake of His divine nature. Included in this celestial equipping are divine thoughts and inspired words.

As a spiritual being created in the image of God (see Genesis 1:26) your spiritual genes hold the creative power to frame your personal world by the thoughts and words you think and speak, which are divine tools given for your creative use. All you are, experience, and ultimately achieve can be traced back to how you have made use of these two simple, yet vastly powerful, tools—your words and thoughts.

What Occupies Your Mind Determines What Eventually Fills Your Mouth

The power of the spoken word is one of life's greatest mysteries. All that you will ever be or accomplish hinges on how you choose to govern what comes out of your mouth. By what you allow to occupy your mind and mouth, you can either bless your life to great heights of success or send it orbiting into realms of failure, sadness, and discontentment.

This is why Proverbs tells us, "For as he thinks in his heart, so is he" (Proverbs 23:7), and urges, "Guard your heart above all else, for it determines the course of your life" (Proverbs 4:23). Jesus followed suit by declaring, "For whatever is in your heart determines what you say. A good person produces good things from the treasury of a good heart, and an evil person produces evil things from the treasury of an evil heart" (Matthew 12:34-35).

What occupies your mind determines what eventually fills your mouth; your outer world showcases all that has dominated—and at times subjugated—your inner world. Because the law of cause and effect is continually at work, there is always an inner cause for every outer effect. Your outer world is a direct result of your inner world.

Every circumstance in life is a result of a choice—and every choice is the result of a thought. All those things that fill your mind hold the keys to your reality. Your thoughts provide the fuel for your words, and your words provide the fuel for your world.

It is paramount that you become the master of your thoughts. The greatest man has become so by the scrupulous attention he gives to controlling what goes into his mind and what comes out of his mouth.

So, "Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

"Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things" (Philippians 4:6-8).

Blessings,

AN EXCELLENT STUDY BY JIM GOLL ABOUT SPEAKING IN TONGUES

James W. Goll

What is Spirit Empowered Prayer?

A. Letting the Holy Spirit Lead

1. Romans 8:14 states, "For all who are being led by the Spirit of God, these are the sons of God."

2. Just like in a great waltz or dance, you want another to take the lead and gently nudge you in the direction you are to go. Follow the lead of the Holy Spirit and He will guide you into a power prayer that is strong and effective.

B. Letting the Holy Spirit Empower

In Spirit empowered prayer, as it was on the Day of Pentecost (Acts 2), the Holy Spirit will light upon you and give you power that you previously did not know. When you add the Holy Spirit's power to the force of prayer, it is like getting a booster to your missile or rocket. A burst of energy that is not your own will come upon you or even through you, and your prayers will hit the target!

There are various forms of Spirit Led and Spirit Empowered Prayer. Let's take a look at a few of them.

Praying in the Gifts of Tongues

A. Praying in the Spirit through the Gift of Tongues

While there can be many expressions of Spirit empowered praying, praying with the gift of tongues is one of the foremost ways. The following are some key points concerning this type of prophetic intercession.

1. Praying in the Spirit is your spirit communicating directly with God. It is primarily for use in your devotional prayer life for intercession, praise, and worship.

a. 1 Corinthians 14:2 - "For one who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men, but to God; for no one understands, but in his spirit he speaks mysteries."

b. 1 Corinthians 14:28b - "...let him speak to himself and to God."

2. Praying in the Spirit is a Perfect Prayer

a. Romans 8:26 - "And in the same way the Spirit also helps our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we should, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words."

b. 1 Corinthians 14:14 - "For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful."

c. Since you do not always know how or what to pray in a given situation, you can bring the need before the Lord by praying in the Spirit. The Holy Spirit, your Helper, enables you to pray as you ought thereby praying in the Lord's will.

d. Praying in the Spirit is a means by which the Holy Spirit intercedes through your spirit. This is where we get the term "prayer language."

3. Praying in the Spirit has Definite Meaning

a. Although you do not understand what you are praying, God does. He who inspired it also comprehends it.

b. 1 Corinthians 14:10 - "There are, perhaps, a great many kinds of languages in the world, and no kind is without meaning."

4. Praying in the Spirit Edifies the Person Praying

a. As you use this prayer language consistently, you become built up, strengthened, and encouraged. You then have the refreshing ability to continue on in your intercessory warfare task.

b. 1 Corinthians 14:4a - "One who speaks in a tongue edifies himself..."

c. Jude 1:20 - "But you, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith; praying in the Holy Spirit."

5. Praying in the Spirit has the Authority of Heaven Behind It

a. There is no way you could know in the natural when Satan and his demonic forces will launch an attack. But the Holy Spirit will prompt you at the strategic, opportune time and keep you on the alert.

b. James 5:16b - "The effective prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much."

c. 1 Corinthians 14:15 - "What is the outcome, then? I shall pray with the spirit and I shall pray with the mind also; I shall sing with the spirit and I shall sing with the mind also."

d. Like Paul, you can pray in the spirit and praise and worship Jesus. As you do this, you regain territory from the demonic kingdom in the lives of those for whom you are praying.

e. This perfect prayer and praise weapon is powerful and always on target. Praise and prayer in tongues is God's secret anti-ballistic missile!

B. Diversities of Tongues

1. 1 Corinthians 12:1, 4-7, 27-28:

"Concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant."

"Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God, which worketh all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal

"Now ye are the Body of Christ, and members in particular. And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues."

2. There are Different Types of Tongues

There is more than one kind of tongue. In 1 Corinthians 12:28 (above), the word translated "diversities" is the Greek word genos, which means "kin" or "offspring." It is a term that is used to refer to a collection of different things belonging to the same group or family. In other words, diversities of tongues are heavenly utterances that are all different from each other, yet all are related to one another by the same Spirit.

3. Examples of Diversities of Tongues

a. Tongues at the filling of the Holy Spirit - Acts 2:1-4; 10:44-46; Mark 16:17.

b. Tongues for interpretation - 1 Corinthians 12:7-10; Isaiah 28:11.

c. Tongues of edification - Jude 1:20; 1 Corinthians 14:4.

d. Tongues as a sign to the unbeliever - 1 Corinthians 14:22.

e. Tongues of intercession - Romans 8:26. The word groanings in this verse can be translated "inarticulate speech." It refers to speech that does not originate in the intellect or with the understanding. It is speech that is not related to race or nationality. Inarticulate speech includes, but is not limited to "other tongues."

f. Tongues of Warfare

There is a place where the Holy Spirit goes on the offensive. He battles through us. Sometimes there is a coupling together of the gift of faith with tongues. A rising within occurs and a push or urge to launch out against the demonic forces happens. Sometimes it is the wedding between discerning of spirits and tongues. You combat or attack the dark force, commanding it to flee.

In these situations, you are operating in a "militant tongue" or "warring with the gift of tongues." When you pray in this type of tongue, you are attacking the powers of darkness. You are taking authority over the power of Satan. You are rebuking the enemy and rejecting his plans for your life by the power of the Holy Spirit who dwells within you. This is the tongue of intercession engaged in warfare. Deliverance, healing, and liberty can come through the power of warring in the gift of tongues.

Being Tenacious!

A. Never Give Up!

Never Give Up! Passionately pursue God and tenaciously pursue your enemy until you prevail! Love never quits and as intercessors we are called to prevailing prayer motivated by the love of God – not just sporadic praying! Be constant in your prayers. Never Give Up!

B. The Watchmen's Anointing

In Spirit empowered prayer, an anointing of a watchman can be granted to you. You are watching to see in the Spirit what the enemy is doing and what the Holy Spirit desires to do. You take the keys of the Kingdom and bind up darkness and may see the opposite spirit of the Lord's presence. Watch! Be alert! Be vigilant! Be on your guard!

C. The Words of Jesus' Word from Matthew 11:12

"The Kingdom of Heaven suffers violence and the violent take it by force."

Such will be the Holy Spirit empowered intercessors in a last generation! Will you be among them? Will you volunteer freely?

Let's Pray: Father, I want to make a difference! I want to take the Kingdom by force. Teach me Spirit empowered and Spirit led prayer. Anoint me with a prayer power that goes beyond my natural mind. Take me further than I have ever been before, for Your Kingdom's sake. In Jesus name, Amen and Amen!

PUTTING ON THE NEW MAN

(This is a repeat of the same post I sent in April 2007. The Holy Spirit quickened me to send it again today. He said it was very important for the times we are currently living in.)

While earning my degree in Psychology, I was studying basic behavior processes in my Physiological Psychology class. I was taught that what we see, hear, do and think causes neurological pathways to grow in our brains by way of the synapses, axons and dendrites. Thus, daily we actually grow new connections through what we see, hear, do and think.

Once connections are made they are not removed. Our old pathways remain in the brain, regardless of the growth of new pathways, and can be reactivated with the same original stimuli. In Christian terms this would be called back-sliding. Thus backsliding is merely reactivating the old neurological connections. However, they can be circumvented by new ways of thinking or doing.

While studying all this, suddenly the "lights went on" and I immediately applied what I was learning to what the Word says about putting on the "new man."

NKJ Ephesians 4:24 and that YOU put on the new man which was created according to God, in true righteousness and holiness. (Caps, mine)

I realized my old pathways could be circumvented by changing my behavior, by changing the things I thought about, and changing the things I looked at. Contrariwise, if I was stimulating an old thought pattern that was contrary to the Kingdom of God by watching something that the Holy Spirit considered evil, or doing something against my conscience, or dwelling on past wounds, it was bringing confusion to the "new man" that I was supposed to be putting on. The demons gained entrance through those open doors and I had a fight on my hands. It was that simple.

Our eye gates are one of the major ways we learn. We can do much to keep our eye gates pure. We can avoid reading ungodly material, or viewing it, or listening to it and instead fill our minds with God's Word.

KJV Psalm 24:3-5

Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

The Word makes it very clear that the new man is put on through our participation.

NKJ 2 Corinthians 10:5 casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ,

NKJ Philippians 4:8 Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy -- meditate on these things.

NLT Ephesians 4:17-32

With the Lord's authority let me say this: Live no longer as the ungodly do, for they are hopelessly confused. 18 Their closed minds are full of darkness; they are far away from the life of God because they have shut their minds and hardened their hearts against him. 19 They don't care anymore about right and wrong, and they have given themselves over to immoral ways. Their lives are filled with all kinds of impurity and greed.

20 But that isn't what you were taught when you learned about Christ. 21 Since you have heard all about him and have learned the truth that is in Jesus, 22 throw off your old evil nature and your former way of life, which is rotten through and through, full of lust and deception.

23 Instead, there must be a spiritual renewal of your thoughts and attitudes. 24 You must display a new nature because you are a new person, created in God's likeness -- righteous, holy, and true.

25 So put away all falsehood and "tell your neighbor the truth" because we belong to each other. 26 And "don't sin by letting anger gain control over you." Don't let the sun go down while you are still angry, 27 for anger gives a mighty foothold to the Devil.

28 If you are a thief, stop stealing. Begin using your hands for honest work, and then give generously to others in need.

29 Don't use foul or abusive language. Let everything you say be good and helpful, so that your words will be an encouragement to those who hear them.

30 And do not bring sorrow to God's Holy Spirit by the way you live. Remember, he is the one who has identified you as his own, guaranteeing that you will be saved on the day of redemption.

31 Get rid of all bitterness, rage, anger, harsh words, and slander, as well as all types of malicious behavior. 32 Instead, be kind to each other, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, just as God through Christ has forgiven you.

NKJ Revelation 19:7

"Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready."

May the Holy Spirit help all of us to make ourselves ready for our Bridegroom!

WE ARE SCRIBES WHEN WE JOURNAL

Posted by [grandmaanna] Sept 23rd 2008 - 10:03PM Posts to date: 626

WE ARE SCRIBES WHEN WE JOURNAL

God's Word says, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:" (John 10:27 KJV)

A governmental position called a Scribe existed in the Old Testament. Scribes kept a written track of important matters for their king. Today, we as Christians become scribes for God's Kingdom when we record the voice of the Holy Spirit.

"Then He said to them, "Therefore every scribe instructed concerning the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings out of his treasure things new and old." (Matthew 13:52 NKJ)

As the years go by, it is so easy to forget much of what the Holy Spirit has said unless it has been recorded. I recommend keeping a journal on the computer. You can type in a subject and do a search and all the information He has ever said to you about it is there.

Most of the time, I hear the Holy Spirit when I am asleep. It was difficult, but I trained myself to wake up and record His messages when I hear Him. Currently, I speak into a pocket recorder, but for years I wrote what I heard using a notebook and a flashlight. A recorder has been a wonderful addition to being a scribe.

The Holy Spirit has taught me that the clock times of when He speaks can add important clues to what I hear. Many times the clock numbers are familiar scripture addresses that confirm, and support what I heard. Other times the corresponding Strong's numbers in the Hebrew and Greek will give added depth. Note: If they do not seem to match, I check the Strong's numbers immediately below it and find they often are a perfect match. Since I hear mostly at night in my sleepy condition, frequently at least a minute or more goes by before I look at the clock.

My own journal goes back to 1970 and it is such a faith builder to compare what I have heard throughout the years with what He is saying today. There is such comfort in looking at the overall big picture of my life's journey. It never conflicts, rather it adds wonderful richness to my understanding. It takes away any confusion I might have regarding the direction the Holy Spirit is leading me.

If you don't already journal, it would be a great addition to your own walk and end much of your confusion in following Him.

There is an in depth study on this subject in my forum in the Quickened Word. Control Click on the link below.

REKINDLING THE GIFTS

REKINDLING THE GIFTS

I had just finished listening to a tape entitled "Walking in the Prophetic." It greatly inspired me and confirmed one more time that both the Spirit of God and the Kingdom of God dwells within me. I had been given spiritual gifts in the past and had been lax in allowing them to flow out of me.

I went to Home Group that night determined to allow them to flow again. That evening as I waited before the Lord, I specifically asked the Lord if He had any gifts for anyone He wanted me to give. My eyes focused on a visitor from Washington. As I thought about her, I remembered the beautiful, double rainbow a friend and I had seen that afternoon. Then I saw the visitor standing at the very end of the rainbow with the beautiful colors surrounding her.

I said to her, "Does a rainbow mean anything to you?" She got all excited and said, "Yes!" I told her I saw her standing at the very end of the rainbow and believed the Lord was wanting to encourage her with the hope of His fulfilling His promises to her. She said she had seen a rainbow that afternoon while walking with her children and they had all talked about what it meant.

Later, as she was lying on the floor drinking in the presence of the Lord, I saw myself picking up some rose petals on the table and sprinkling them on her. Then I was telling her they represented the heavenly Pot of Gold at the end of the rainbow and the blessings the Lord was going to pour out upon her. I hesitated in doing it, because I wasn't sure if it was just me or the Holy Spirit.

She got up and sat on the couch, and I thought "Oh dear, It's too late! I missed my opportunity." But the movie in my mind would not leave. Finally, I stood up and said, "I felt I was supposed to do this while you were lying down, but I procrastinated. I believe the Holy Spirit is asking me to do it anyway." And then I told her the rose petals in my hand represented the heavenly Pot of Gold at the end of the rainbow and the Lord was going to bless her.

Pastor knew nothing about any of this. In the next Sunday service, he suddenly announced he wanted us to bless someone financially without our knowing who it was and he took up an offering. Then to my shock and joyful amazement, he walked over to the one I had prophesied over in Home Group and said, "The Lord wants you to know you are very much loved, and this is a representation of it. The offering was taken just for you!" Then he prophesied over her.

She had received part of her Pot of Gold!

I shared that to encourage you. If you have been holding back on your gifts, seek the Lord and see if He will rekindle them for you. Then be "holy" bold and step out! You may be amazed at what He will do. (Smile)

"Therefore He says: "When He ascended on high, He led captivity captive, And gave gifts to men."
(Ephesians 4:8 KJV)

"Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, let us prophesy in proportion to our faith;" (Romans 12:6 KJV)

"Pursue love, and desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy." (1 Corinthians 14:1 NKJ)

HIGH PRAISE BRINGS A SERIES OF MIRACLES

HIGH PRAISE BRINGS A SERIES OF MIRACLES

(EXPERIENCING THE SUPERNATURAL NUMBER 2)

(This is the second of a series of teachings about experiencing the supernatural through the sharing of my experiences)

Pastor Bob called me and asked if the youth group could come to my home instead of the church for their midweek meeting. I was in the midst of midterms and hadn't had time to study hard for a 2nd year Algebra exam the following morning. Commuting to college everyday, plus being a mama and all the other ministry I was doing, was really hard. However, I couldn't refuse him. Somehow, I would get the studying done.

During prayer and worship we all felt a stronger presence of God than any of us had ever felt before. With about 20 teenagers in the room sprawled all over the carpet there was a hush for a long time. It was as though everyone was holding their breath,... it was so quiet! I half opened my eyes and the entire room was filled with a golden mist. I was in awe. Slowly it left and we all began to move.

"Pastor Bob, what WAS THAT?" "We went into High Praise," he said simply. Then he explained that we had experienced a very rare occurrence where the presence of God came to bless because we had so blessed Him with our praise and worship. He said that wonderful things are accomplished in the heavenly realm when High Praise is entered. He also said we may never know what was accomplished.

The kids left about 10 o'clock PM and I hurried to my math book. It was a 45 minute drive to college and my exam was in an 8 o'clock AM class. That meant I had to be up no later than 5 o'clock AM.

No sooner had I picked up my book than the doorbell rang. It was a neighborhood youth higher than a kite on drugs, the son of godly parents. He was shaking all over with terror in his eyes and cried out, "I was riding my bike and I felt the Lord told me to come here. I have overdosed and I don't know what to do!" I invited him in and began to pray and beg God to have mercy one more time for this young man. I knew he loved the Lord, but he wouldn't stay off drugs. Soon he quit shaking and trembling and a smile came over his face. "Hey, I feel normal." "Good," I said, "Now you can ride home and go to bed and talk to God about all this," as I ushered him out the door.

Back to the math book. It's now about 11 o'clock PM. The door bell rang. This time it was another youth who obviously was high, but not overdosed. "Hey, I saw your light was on and I thought you might like to play a game of cribbage." I couldn't believe my eyes or my ears. I invited him in and proceeded to give him my testimony, the plan of salvation, and what he needed to do about it. At about midnight I was through talking. He was looking at me very intently, "This obviously is very real to you. You have given me a lot to think about." I closed the door, looked up to heaven and said, "Lord you brought these kids for me to pray for, now somehow please help me pass that test tomorrow without my studying!"... and I went to bed.

The next morning I'm sitting in my math class. There are five questions. Each one involves formulas "a mile long." I had done the easier ones first and suddenly the math Prof. says, "On problem number such and such there is a mistake, it should be x/y not y/x ." "Oh no!" I moaned, that was one I had already done. I took up my eraser with defeat and stared at amazement. I had made a mistake and inadvertently had done the problem like he said! I sat there with goose bumps all over me just wanting to relish the experience, but no, I had to forge ahead. I was doing great and just finishing the last problem. The Prof. drones on, "There has been a mistake in problem 4, that is supposed to be a minus sign not a plus sign." Everyone groans. I don't groan. I look at problem 4 and, "Yep! I made another wonderful mistake." I could hardly contain myself. I was one of the first ones finished and sailed out of the room under an anointing that was surely having me walk a foot above the ground. (As I remember, I think I aced the test, but I know for sure that I got a very good grade.)

As I sat in the car thinking about everything, a Word came to me very strong and I wrote it down. "You are to walk through the door I am opening for you." Along with the word came a strong unction to share it with Pastor Bob. I dropped by his office on the way home and handed it to him. He read it pensively and tears filled his eyes. I thought, oh no, now what have I done! Bob said softly, "I haven't told you this, I haven't told anyone this, I was just praying about it and asking the Lord what He wanted me to do. A door has opened for me to have another ministry at another church in another place."

I was crestfallen. He and his wife meant everything to me. The Lord used me to give him the news because He knew how hard it would be for me to accept them leaving. It was terribly hard. They did leave. They were both the epitome of what Christians should be. They lived the life of love and had poured themselves out upon me even helping me with the practical problems of keeping up my home.

In conclusion, in less than 24 hours, I had the joy of experiencing the supernatural life that happens after entering "High Praise." All of those "Kisses From Papa" happened immediately, one right after the other. It was my first experience in seeing the golden mist of the Lord's glory. I helped a struggling youth get off drugs and return to God. I shared my testimony with another who later became a Christian. And... without studying, I had a miraculous experience and result while taking my math exam. Finally, I was given a significant prophetic Word for the Youth Pastor. Going into High Praise taught me a lifelong lesson. When the Lord is worshipped with all our heart, and all our mind and all our strength, He sends back His loving Kisses which is the seed bed for miracles!

EXPERIENCING THE SUPERNATURAL

Posted by [grandmaanna] Apr 6th 2008 - 7:28PM Posts to date: 626

EXPERIENCING THE SUPERNATURAL

Every now and then I have had people ask me, "What is it like to experience the supernatural? This post will be the first of several where I will share some of my own experiences.

My experiences in the supernatural are often when God reaches down to earth and "kisses" me by tangibly manifesting Himself to me.

The first time I heard His audible voice it was so loud I thought the whole city heard it! It was one particularly frustrating day in 1970 when I was standing by the garbage can with my arms around a sack full of garbage and praying a faithless, hopeless prayer. "How like this garbage is my life," I said dejectedly to the Lord. "Please help me. I don't know what to do." My mind raced with all the "if only" and I stood there despairing. The thought briefly raced across my mind, "If it weren't for my daughter, I'd consider joining my mother."

As soon as that terrible thought flashed across my mind, I heard what seemed to be an electrifying, thundering voice saying, "SINCE YOU HAVE CONSIDERED TAKING YOUR OWN LIFE, CONSIDER YOURSELF DEAD AND LET ME LIVE MY LIFE THROUGH YOU!"

I stood there trembling. It was the Lord Jesus Christ speaking to me! The voice had thundered, yet it was full of love, compassion and understanding. All of those things my soul suddenly knew and comprehended. An amazing peace enveloped my very being. The words were stern and yet they had an amazing effect upon me. I stood there with tears streaming down my face, saying over and over again, "You are real! You are real! Yes! Yes!" I felt more comforted, more loved and more acceptance than I ever had in my entire life. In just that one moment of time, what happened to me was life changing and indescribable. It had taken all those hard years and circumstances to lead up to this awesome divine appointment, and they were all worth it in order to deepen my relationship with My Lord and Savior! In Colossians 3:3, it says, "for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. This is what had just happened to me!

Another time was when I used to work as a counselor 35 miles from my home in the forest wilderness at a residential treatment facility for teen age offenders. This particular night I had to leave the Ranch later than usual, sometime around 11:30 P.M, because of discipline problems with some of my kids.

I was in a deeply forested area with no houses when my car began to go slower and slower even though I had the accelerator floored. Finally, the car completely stopped. Glancing at the ½ full gas tank, I was very frightened.

I sat there not knowing what to do. Weary with the day of cussing, screaming kids and frisking them for smuggled knives and drugs, getting out to walk the dark road was the last thing I wanted to do. My heart pounded as I sat there in the eerie silence of the darkened night.

Suddenly I heard the loud audible voice of an Angel of the Lord say, "I CANNOT WORK THROUGH FEAR."

Like clinging to a branch suspended over a deep gorge, I began to call out to the Lord. I rebuked my fears, prayed in tongues and praised the Lord. As I did so, the car filled with the same golden mist I have experienced several times before and I began to feel the peace and wonderful Presence of the Lord.

Again I heard the Angel speak, "START THE CAR." Turning on the ignition, with my foot on the gas, I shot forward.

I was stunned, incredulous and excited that this potential catastrophe had turned into such a glorious experience with the Lord!

The last one I will share with you at this time was on 4/7/77. I had a very amazing experience with God's glory cloud while attending a Charles and Frances Hunter conference. This conference was giving me my very first experience in seeing people "slain in the spirit." I was very afraid of it and had no intention of having them pray for me. However, I suddenly developed an excruciating headache. I had a choice of leaving and going back to my motel or receiving prayer. The pain was so bad, I found myself going forward and got in line to ask for healing before I even thought much about it.

Suddenly, Frances Hunter was in front of me and asking my need. Coming out of my mouth with no premeditation at all was a shocking request, "I want God's full anointing for ministry." I didn't say one word about my horrible headache!

She touched my forehead with one finger and said, "Lord, this gal wants everything you've got!"

I felt myself float back and I literally landed on a white puffy Cloud. The Cloud began to love me. I can't explain how a Cloud can love, but it did. It was a force of love all by itself and in the experience I knew it was God's glory cloud. Never, before or since have I experienced anything exactly like it.

My head was aching terribly and I cried out to the Lord to take the pain away. God's voice spoke out of the cloud and said, "Does that headache really matter?" Then the Cloud loved me again and again.

I kept crying out for Him to heal me, and He kept asking me if the headache really mattered. Each time He increased the strength of His love for me which penetrated my very being. I can't explain the feeling, but it was wonderfully comforting. Finally, I felt His love so intensely that it equaled the pain.

Again He asked me and increased the intensity. I was so caught up in His love for me that I wasn't even thinking of the pain and I said to Him, "No, the headache really doesn't matter."

I slowly came back to conscious awareness of things around me. I felt glued to the floor and had great trouble getting up and walking back to my seat. My head ache was still there and pounding furiously. My friends could hardly believe I still had the headache. They said I was out cold for at least twenty minutes. They prayed for me and it slowly left.

I learned a lesson and have applied it many times. No matter what the circumstances are, the Lord will love us through it. We will know and experience His love in some kind of a tangible way. I also know, that I know, that I know!- that His glory cloud is LOVE!

WHAT SPEAKING IN TONGUES ACCOMPLISHES

Posted by [grandmaanna] Aug 6th 2007 - 11:29PM Posts to date: 626

WHAT SPEAKING IN TONGUES ACCOMPLISHES

SPEAKING IN TONGUES EDIFIES US

"He who speaks in a tongue *edifies <3618>himself,..." 1 Cor 14:4

That word edify, in the Greek, holds the key to what speaking in tongues accomplishes. In the time of Jesus, they understood what "edify" meant, but somehow over the centuries the whole meaning and use has been compromised. Simply put, it means to build a house.

EDIFY:

*3618 oivkodome,w oikodomeo {oy-kod-om-eh'-o} also oikodomos oivkodom,j {oy-kod-om'-os} Ac 4:11

Meaning: 1) to build a house, erect a building 1a) to build (up from the foundation) 1b) to restore by building, to rebuild, repair 2) metaph. 2a) to found, establish 2b) to promote growth in Christian wisdom, affection, grace, virtue, holiness, blessedness 2c) to grow in wisdom and piety

Origin: from the same as 3619; TDNT - 5:136,674; v

Usage: AV - build 24, edify 7, builder 5, build up 1, be in building 1, embolden 1; 39

In studying the meaning, do you see what an awesome gift this is? Speaking in tongues builds our house from the foundation, which is Christ. It restores us and establishes us by rebuilding and repairing the things the enemy has done to us and in us.

That is not all! As the definition states, it builds our growth in Christian wisdom, affection, grace, virtue, holiness, and blessedness. It also helps us grow in wisdom and piety. These are all traits that dwell in Jesus and He wants those same traits to dwell in us. There is no other gift in the Bible that even comes close to this marvelous, sanctifying gift.

TONGUES INCREASE OUR FAITH

The Bible also says that tongues increase our faith, and thus our intimacy with the Lord.

"But you, beloved, building <2026> yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit," (Jude 1:20 NKJ)

2026 epoikodome,w epoikodomeo {ep-oy-kod-om-eh'-o}

Meaning: 1) to build upon, build up

Origin: from 1909 and 3618; TDNT - 5:147,674; v

Usage: AV - build up 3, build thereupon 2, build 2, build thereon 1; 8

Misc: To finish the structure of which the foundation has already been laid, to give constant increase in Christian knowledge and in a life conformed thereto.

Notice that this word for building comes from the same word edify <3618>. It says it finishes the structure from which the foundation has already been laid. It gives a constant increase in Christian knowledge and in the life conformed thereto.

TONGUES BUILD OUR INTIMACY WITH GOD

NKJ 1 Corinthians 14:2 For he who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God, for no one understands him; however, in the spirit he speaks mysteries.

Speaking in tongues builds our intimacy with God. The more we speak in tongues the more our relationship grows. In a sense, when we speak in tongues, our spirits are being reconnected to God as they were in the time of Adam. Our spirits are again walking and talking with God and the heavenly realm and what is even more precious, we are being God's friends.

NKJ 1 Corinthians 13:1 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels,

WHAT JESUS HAD TO SAY ABOUT TONGUES

This is the very last message on record spoken by Jesus before He was received up into to heaven.

Mark 16:15-20, "And He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who does not believe will be condemned. AND THESE SIGNS WILL FOLLOW THOSE WHO BELIEVE: In My name they will cast out demons; THEY WILL SPEAK WITH NEW TONGUES; they will take up serpents; and if they drink anything deadly, it will by no means hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover." So then, after the Lord had spoken to them, He was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God. And they went out and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word through the accompanying signs. Amen.

Jesus said those who believe will speak with new tongues. It is very important to seek this awesome gift and receive it by faith. By the way, it comes so naturally, that at first it might even seem as if you are making it up. It came that way to me, and for many others for whom I have prayed.

HOW TO BECOME UNOFFENDABLE

Posted by [grandmaanna] June 25th 2007 - 2:07PM Posts to date: 626

Francis Frangipane:

"HOW TO BECOME UNOFFENDABLE"
(word reposted from 2005)

"I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; and I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh" (Ezekiel 36:26).

God has a new heart for us that cannot be offended, an "unoffendable" heart.

Beloved, possessing an unoffendable heart is not an option or a luxury; it's not a little thing. Consider: Jesus warns that, as we near the end of the age, a majority of people will be offended to such a degree that they fall away from the faith. Listen carefully to His warning:

"Then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another...and because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold" (Matthew 24:10-12).

"Many" will be offended; the love of "many" will grow cold. My prayer is that we will hear His words with holy fear.

The Dangers of Harboring an Offense

When we allow an offense to remain in our hearts, it causes serious spiritual consequences. In the above verse, Jesus named three dangerous results: betrayal, hatred, and cold love. When we are offended with someone, even someone we care for, we must go to them. Otherwise, we begin to betray that relationship, talking maliciously behind their back to others, exposing their weaknesses and sins. We may mask our betrayal by saying we are just looking for advice or counsel, but when we look back, we see we have spoken negatively to far too many people. Our real goal was not to get spiritual help for ourselves but to seek revenge toward the one who offended us. How is such action not a manifestation of hatred? For an offended soul, cold love, betrayal, and hatred go hand-in-hand.

People don't usually stumble over boulders, they stumble over stones--relatively small things. It may be that the personality of someone in authority bothers us, and soon, we are offended. Or, a friend or family member fails to meet our expectations, and we take an offense into our soul. Beloved, if we will "endure to the end," we will have to confront the things that bother us.

When Jesus warns that we need endurance, He is saying that it is easier to begin the race than finish it. Between now and the day you die, there will be major times of offense that you will need to overcome. You might be in such a time right now. Do not minimize the danger of harboring an offense.

No one plans on falling away; no one ever says, "Today, I think I'll try to develop a hardened, cold heart." Such things enter our souls through stealth and it is only naiveté that assumes it couldn't happen to us. I know many people who consistently become offended about one thing or another. Instead of dealing with the offenses, these people carry them until the weight disables their walk with God. You may be doing fine today, but I guarantee you, tomorrow something will happen that will inevitably disappoint or wound you; some injustice will strike you, demanding you retaliate in the flesh.

The Root Of Offense

An offense can strike at our virtues or sins, our values or our pride. It can penetrate and wound any dimension of the soul, both good and evil. I once brought a series of messages about gossip. Most people saw their sin and repented, but a core group of gossips were greatly offended and ultimately left the church. When the Holy Spirit exposes sin in someone's soul, if we refuse the opportunity to repent, we often become offended at the person who brought the teaching. Instead of humbling our hearts, we are outraged at the pastor or teachers in the church. Truthfully, most of the time, I have no idea who specifically needs to hear what I'm teaching, but God knows.

Paul told Timothy to "reprove, rebuke, exhort" (see 2 Timothy 4:2). He didn't say, "exhort, exhort, exhort," but exhortation is what we receive in most churches. Certainly, we need to be encouraged, but there are also times, beloved, when we need to be reproved and rebuked. Today, there are preachers who are afraid to preach truth, for fear people will react and leave the church. The end result is a church of easily offended people who cannot grow beyond their inability to accept correction.

People don't change by exhortation alone. There are areas in all of us that need to be confronted and disciplined. The pastor who refuses to discipline and correct those in sin is in disobedience to God. He is unable to lead people into any truly transforming changes in their lives; they will not "endure to the end" if they cannot be corrected (see Matthew 24).

We need to become a people who say, "Lord, show me what needs to change in me." I'm talking about growing up. A wise man will receive a rebuke and he will prosper. But a fool rejects his father's discipline (see Proverbs 15:5).

Personal Offense

An offense can wound our pride when we are not recognized for our good works or ministry. This happened to my wife and I long ago while in California. We were young pastors at a conference when the main leader decided to personally greet each minister and wife. He greeted the couple on our right and then turned to his staff to ask a question. A moment later he returned, but passed us by and went to the couple on our left.

Everyone around us saw we were bypassed. We were embarrassed and offended. But my wife wisely observed that we could allow this thing to hurt us or we could see it as an investment in sensitivity toward other people's feelings. The offense taught us how others feel when they are ignored. Do you see this? You must make that offense become an opportunity to become more Christlike.

The occasions for taking offense are practically endless. Indeed, we are daily given the opportunity to either be offended by something or to possess an unoffendable heart. The Lord's promise is that He's given us a new heart: a soft, entreatable heart that can be filled with His Spirit and abound with His love.

Lord, forgive me for being so easily offended and for carrying offenses. Father, my heart is foolish and weak. Grant me the unoffendable heart of Jesus Christ. Amen.

JOY TO FATHER'S HEART BY JOHN P JACKSON

Posted by [grandmaanna] May 20th 2007 - 3:49PM Posts to date: 626

May 20, 2007

John Paul Jackson:

"WHEN WE BECOME AWARE OF THE JOY WE BRING TO THE FATHER'S HEART, WE WON'T BE ABLE TO KEEP FROM REJOICING OURSELVES!"

Has anyone ever come up to you and tried to encourage you with the following verse? It sounds like a psalm, but it's actually found in Nehemiah.

"This day is holy to our Lord. Do not sorrow, for the joy of the LORD is your strength." -- Nehemiah 8:10, emphasis mine

The joy of the Lord is your strength. You can find this verse all over the Christian world--greeting cards, refrigerator magnets, church bulletins--but what does it actually mean? More specifically, does it really mean what most of us think it does?

In different ways, many of us take this verse to be the Christian life standard: "I will be joyful. The joy of the Lord will be my strength even if it kills me!"

When taken to an extreme, this belief literally will kill you because it doesn't allow you to be real, process pain or genuine joy, grow spiritually or truly know your Father.

Some of us assume it's a command: "I'm supposed to be joyful all the time, and if I'm not, something must be wrong with me. I have to try harder, because clearly I'm not measuring up."

Both of these assumptions are entirely wrong. Jesus does not expect you to be joyful all the time. He's been here; He knows what living on earth is like. He knows it's hard, and He understands why we fail sometimes. Most of us don't comprehend this last aspect especially--God actually understands why I did what I did? You mean, He's not sitting up in Heaven with a judgment stick, ready to sever our relationship the minute I even think the wrong thing?

Not at all. He knows why that step in particular made you stumble. He knows what you're going through. He knows the thoughts, breaths and nuances of your heart--and loves you. That brings us to what the verse actually means.

The Joy of Your Father

The joy of the Lord will be my strength. It's not that some heightened level of my joy will be my strength; it's that God's joy will be my strength. His Fatherly joy. He is so proud of us. We know that God invented laughter, but most of us don't understand how easily He is amused, how easily He loves and how easily we delight Him.

Someday, when we get to Heaven, He's going to pop in the DVD of our lives, and we'll get to sit there and watch it with Him. Yes, we'll have to give an accounting of what we've done wrong, but we forget the other side of that! We forget how He loves us; we forget His joy over our existence.

As He plays the DVD of our lives, He'll say, "Oh, I loved it there when you did that, son! That blessed My heart so much, daughter! Let Me show you how great that was." He'll pull up a dual screen. "Here's what you were doing, and this is what happened in Heaven when you did it."

We will get to see what went on in Heaven when we did what we thought were small, insignificant acts on earth. Why did God ever have me do that? we wonder in our day-to-day lives here on earth, only to hear the Father say one day in Heaven, "Wow! Oh! I loved that."

We bring a huge, galactic level of joy to our Father. We delight Him in ways that are humanly impossible to understand. That is what the joy of the Lord means, and that's why it is our strength. When we walk in the awareness of His joy, we won't be able to keep from rejoicing ourselves. This joy is what gives us the strength to endure.

PUTTING ON THE NEW MAN

Posted by [grandmaanna] Apr 23rd 2007 - 11:17PM Posts to date: 626

Arise, for this matter is your responsibility.
We also are with you.
Be of good courage and do it."

Ezra 10:4 NKJV

www.thequickenenedword.com

PUTTING ON THE NEW MAN

While earning my degree in Psychology, I was studying basic behavior processes in my Physiological Psychology class. I was taught that what we see, hear, do and think causes neurological pathways to grow in our brains by way of the synapses, axons and dendrites. Thus, daily we actually grow new connections through what we see, hear, do and think.

Once connections are made they are not removed. Our old pathways remain in the brain, regardless of the growth of new pathways, and can be reactivated with the same original stimuli. In Christian terms this would be called back-sliding. Thus backsliding is merely reactivating the old neurological connections. However, they can be circumvented by new ways of thinking or doing.

While studying all this, suddenly the "lights went on" and I immediately applied what I was learning to what the Word says about putting on the "new man."

NKJ Ephesians 4:24 and that YOU put on the new man which was created according to God, in true righteousness and holiness. (Caps, mine)

I realized my old pathways could be circumvented by changing my behavior, by changing the things I thought about, and changing the things I looked at. Contrariwise, if I was stimulating an old thought pattern that was contrary to the Kingdom of God by watching something that the Holy Spirit considered evil, or doing something against my conscience, or dwelling on past wounds, it was bringing confusion to the "new man" that I was supposed to be putting on. The demons gained entrance through those open doors and I had a fight on my hands. It was that simple.

Our eye gates are one of the major ways we learn. We can do much to keep our eye gates pure. We can avoid reading ungodly material, or viewing it, or listening to it and instead fill our minds with God's Word.

KJV Psalm 24:3-5

Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

The Word makes it very clear that the new man is put on through our participation.

NKJ 2 Corinthians 10:5 casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ,

NKJ Philippians 4:8 Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy -- meditate on these things.

NLT Ephesians 4:17-32

With the Lord's authority let me say this: Live no longer as the ungodly do, for they are hopelessly confused. 18 Their closed minds are full of darkness; they are far away from the life of God because they have shut their minds and hardened their hearts against him. 19 They don't care anymore about right and wrong, and they have given themselves over to immoral ways. Their lives are filled with all kinds of impurity and greed.

20 But that isn't what you were taught when you learned about Christ. 21 Since you have heard all about him and have learned the truth that is in Jesus, 22 throw off your old evil nature and your former way of life, which is rotten through and through, full of lust and deception.

23 Instead, there must be a spiritual renewal of your thoughts and attitudes. 24 You must display a new nature because you are a new person, created in God's likeness -- righteous, holy, and true.

25 So put away all falsehood and "tell your neighbor the truth" because we belong to each other. 26 And "don't sin by letting anger gain control over you." Don't let the sun go down while you are still angry, 27 for anger gives a mighty foothold to the Devil.

28 If you are a thief, stop stealing. Begin using your hands for honest work, and then give generously to others in need.

29 Don't use foul or abusive language. Let everything you say be good and helpful, so that your words will be an encouragement to those who hear them.

30 And do not bring sorrow to God's Holy Spirit by the way you live. Remember, he is the one who has identified you as his own, guaranteeing that you will be saved on the day of redemption.

31 Get rid of all bitterness, rage, anger, harsh words, and slander, as well as all types of malicious behavior. 32 Instead, be kind to each other, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, just as God through Christ has forgiven you.

NKJ Revelation 19:7

"Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready."

May the Holy Spirit help all of us to make ourselves ready for our Bridegroom

Think on these things

Posted by [eagle4tl] Jan 17th 2007 - 1:15PM Posts to date: 1

Greetings from Canada - I was indeed blessed to read the latest posting re: Think on these things. Over the last few weeks, the Lord has been emphasizing the themes and scriptures mentioned in this posting. In particular 1sa. 43, 2 Cor. 10:3-6 and Phil. 4:8. So to see this posting was indeed an encouragement and confirmation to set my face like flint before and towards my God. To look up in the midst of lives situations and renew my mind and take my thoughts captive. To recognize whose voice is speaking and then to act in accordance with the ways of the Lord.

Thank you so much. This is definitely A God moment for me and most likely for the Lord's dealing in my life. Blessings

HE WHO HAS CALLED YOU WILL ALSO DO IT

Posted by [grandmaanna] Jan 15th 2007 - 11:24AM Posts to date: 626

HE WHO HAS CALLED YOU WILL ALSO DO IT

"For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure." (Philippians 2:13 KJV)

When the Lord calls us to do a particular job for Him, He is always involved in our guidance. We may not see it as His guidance at the time, and we may not like His timing, but when all is said and done, He is the One Who prepares us every inch of the way.

Using myself as an example, in the early 70's, I was called to be a scribe, but I had no idea that was what I was already doing. I just wrote down what was in my heart in little spiral notebooks and occasionally shared them with my pastor. One time, he said I was hearing from the Holy Spirit. That startled me. I began to pay more attention to what I was writing and realized that some of what I had written had happened. Other than sharing with my pastor, I kept my writings to myself.

I began to realize something was out of the ordinary when I began to have dreams and visions and occasionally carried away in trances. Later, I saw angels with my eyes closed but it was as though I was actually seeing them with opened eyes. For, as soon as I realized I saw them, I would quickly open my eyes and would see them for a few seconds. Each time they startled me so much I cried out! I finally mellowed out to a loud OH! (Smile)

So what did all this mean and what was I supposed to do with it? I wanted immediate answers, but I received no instruction. I was frustrated, but I kept on writing down what I heard and saw.

=====

Some years later, the Lord began to instruct me through a dream.

DREAM: A MESSY KITCHEN

I had a vague recollection that I was giving the mail carrier some kind of a treat while I read my mail. My kitchen was in a frightful mess. I had to leave suddenly and left the mail carrier in my messy kitchen with my opened mail intermingled among the dirty dishes.

When I returned, the kitchen was immaculate and my mail was neatly stacked on top of the washed dishes. I was thrilled and astonished.

POSSIBLE INTERPRETATION: So what did all that mean? I understood from past rhema that the Lord called my rhema a feast of His bread and I was to enjoy His feast. I didn't think what I heard had much relevance to others so I had just kept on writing for many more years. Nothing I heard was organized and mostly just stashed away in notebooks.

I understood from the dream that the mail carrier was the Holy Spirit and He was pleased that I was writing down what He said. However, I obviously wasn't keeping it properly. The deplorable condition of my kitchen and then cleaned up by the mail carrier meant the Holy Spirit was going to give me His divine help to make order of what I heard.

=====

Then I had another dream that same night.

DREAM: CLIMBING DIAGONALLY

I was at a snow recreation area. I couldn't ski because of the weakness in my arms, but I saw an inner tube run and knew I could do that. I began to climb up the run. It got steeper and steeper. Finally, I was looking straight up. "That's ridiculous, no one can climb that! I wonder how you get up there?" Just then I saw a young boy going diagonally across the hill. "Oh, I can do that!" I exclaimed.

POSSIBLE INTERPRETATION:

I had climbed quite a ways in being His scribe. The fullness of that calling was in sight, but I had to change course and approach it in a different manner. This path would be much easier and a place of rest compared to the path I was pursuing.

"A man's heart deviseth his way: but the LORD directeth his steps." (Proverbs 16:9 KJV)

I still wasn't sure what course I was to take regarding what I heard. A few years later I received more instruction.

ANGELIC VISITATION AND DREAMS

I was awakened by hearing the floor joists creak in the hall by my bedroom door, as if a heavy weight had stepped on the floor. I heard a very powerful, deep, masculine voice say, "We hope to set her rhema straight."

I was not frightened. Rather, I was enveloped with a deep sense of peace as I am when I am *"slain in the spirit." Although I didn't hear anything more, I was very conscious of angels being in the room as I drifted off to sleep.

*"Slain in the spirit," means being supernaturally put into a deep rest. It's a state of total relaxation and a wonderful state of peace and cognizance of the Lord's manifested presence.

POSSIBLE INTERPRETATION: The following scripture was quickened to me as to what happened that night.

"For God may speak in one way, or in another, Yet man does not perceive it. In a dream, in a vision of the night, When deep sleep falls upon men, While slumbering on their beds, Then He opens the ears of men, And seals their instruction. (Job 33:14-16 NKJ)

From that night forward, I had a sense of peace about being a scribe and knew in my innermost being that He was in total control and would bring clarity to what I didn't understand.

To bring this rhema to full circle, the Lord's timing was many more years of waiting to fill in the missing steps of being a scribe. In the process, I learned that being a scribe means more than just writing down what He said. It also must be shared so others could enjoy His feast. He had specific guidance for me to get the job done correctly, but much of it was taught to my spirit and bypassed my intellect. To be honest, I did not enjoy His timing of having to wait so many years to understand where He was taking me. But when every thing fell into place, there was great peace knowing that He is the One who calls us and sees to it that we carry out our calling in His perfect will, time and place.

"for it is God who works in you both to will and to do for His good pleasure." (Philippians 2:13 NKJ)

Beloved, if you are in a place of waiting for the Lord to fulfill His calling in your life, take heart, and wait patiently for Him to give you the necessary instructions. It may take years in coming, but He will guide you in the way that is best for you. Hopefully, you won't have to wait as long as I did. (Smile)

"Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it." (1 Thessalonians 5:24 KJV)

"He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so that we can do the good things he planned for us long ago." (Ephesians 2:10 NLT)

"For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise." (Hebrews 10:36 KJV)

NURTURE THE TIMOTHYS

Posted by [grandmaanna] Nov 7th 2006 - 10:37AM Posts to date: 626

TEACHING: NURTURE THE TIMOTHYS

Nurturing parents, you are sorely needed to train up all the young, budding, Timothys who have been called to raise up thousands upon thousands to minister in the streets.

First of all, encourage them to seek the Baptism of the Holy Spirit and speaking in tongues, both of which will empower them with boldness and power, as well as to live a spirit-led, anointed life.

"Then Peter said to them, "Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all who are afar off, as many as the Lord our God will call." (Acts 2:38-39 NKJ)

"And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance." (Acts 2:4 NKJ)

When we speak in tongues, we leave nothing out when we pray, because speaking in tongues is speaking mysteries unto God, which is not accomplished in our native languages.

"For he who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God, for no one understands him; however, in the spirit he speaks mysteries." (1 Corinthians 14:2 NKJ)

Teach them to emulate Paul who said, "I thank my God I speak with tongues more than you all;" (1 Cor. 14:18)

Also, encourage them to seek the gift of interpretation of tongues so they may be a blessing in gatherings.

Do every thing you can to teach them how to live the set apart life, holy unto God, their Father. Nourish them. Train them up to have a thirst for God's Word. Provide for their practical needs when possible. Trust that the Lord's angels will be with you to help you in this.

The Lord has honored you with a great responsibility. Your calling, as nurturing parents, is very important and necessary to establish the kingdom of God on earth.

"Timothy, my dear son, be strong with the special favor God gives you in Christ Jesus. You have heard me teach many things that have been confirmed by many reliable witnesses. Teach these great truths to trustworthy people who are able to pass them on to others." (2 Timothy 2:1-2 NLT)

"Don't let anyone think less of you because you are young. Be an example to all believers in what you teach, in the way you live, in your love, your faith, and your purity. Until I get there, focus on reading the Scriptures to the church, encouraging the believers, and teaching them. Do not neglect the spiritual gift you received through the prophecies spoken to you when the elders of the church laid their hands on you. Give your complete attention to these matters. Throw yourself into your tasks so that everyone will see your progress. Keep a close watch on yourself and on your teaching. Stay true to what is right, and God will save you and those who hear you." (1 Timothy 4:12-16 NLT)

STUDY ON BINDING AND LOOSING

Posted by [grandmaanna] Oct 30th 2006 - 3:0PM Posts to date: 626

STUDY ON BINDING AND LOOSING

I was studying Matthew 16:19. in the 1970's using the Interlineal Bible by J.P. Greene. I was amazed at what I was reading. What a wonderful gift our precious Lord has given us in this verse through the literal Greek translation! At that time, I found that the only version which had the full meaning was the Amplified.

The literal Greek from J. P. Green's Interlinear Bible:

"And I will give you the keys of the kingdom of the heavens, and whatever you bind on earth shall be, having been bound in the heavens, and whatever you loose on the earth shall be, having been loosed in the heavens."

Mr. Green interprets his literal translation as the following:

"And I will give to you the keys of the kingdom of Heaven; and whatever you may bind on the earth shall occur, having already been bound in Heaven; and whatever you may loose on the earth shall occur, having been already loosed in Heaven."

AMPLIFIED Matt 16:19

I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; and whatever you bind (declare to be improper and unlawful) on earth must be what is already bound in heaven; and whatever you loose (declare lawful) on earth must be what is already loosed in heaven.

In the Amplified is a notation:

16:19 p Charles b. Williams, The New TESTAMENT: A Translation: "The perfect passive participle, here referring to a state of having been already forbidden [or permitted].

AMP

BIND: 1210 deo {deh'-o}

Meaning: 1) to bind tie, fasten 1a) to bind, fasten with chains, to throw into chains 1b) metaph. 1b1) Satan is said to bind a woman bent together by means of a demon, as his messenger, taking possession of the woman and preventing her from standing upright 1b2) to bind, put under obligation, of the law, duty etc. 1b2a) to be bound to one, a wife, a husband 1b3) to forbid, prohibit, declare to be illicit

Origin: a root; TDNT - 2:60,148; v

Usage: AV - bind 37, tie 4, knit 1, be in bonds 1, wind 1; 44

LOOSE: 3089 luo {loo'-o}

THE HARNESS OF THE LORD

Posted by [grandmaanna] Oct 30th 2006 - 2:18PM Posts to date: 626

Dearest Beloved Ones,

Many years ago, the following vision by Bill Britton greatly impacted my life. The Holy Spirit quickened to me that it would do the same for many of you.

With much love!

~Grandma Anna

THE HARNESS OF THE LORD
by Bill Britton

There is a terrific operation of the Spirit going on today to bring the Sons of God into an absolute confinement to the perfect will of God. This is the Day of His Preparation the day in which He is preparing the channel through which He shall pour forth His Glory for all the world to see. This channel is His Body in the earth that glorious company of people who are being conformed through much tribulation and fiery tests to the Image of the Son of God. This is His "battle axe and weapons of war" with which He shall subdue Kingdoms and overcome all His enemies. This is His "mighty and strong One" to whom He shall commit the work of judging this world. This is His Overcomer, His "great army" with which He shall bring the nations into submission. The weapons of their warfare are not carnal, natural weapons but they are mighty weapons, mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds. These are those who shall "be strong and do exploits."

But before God can commit this great and tremendous ministry into their hands they must submit themselves to the discipline of the Lord letting Him truly be the Lord of their entire lives. We have long since dealt with the question of open sin but now God is dealing with the inward rebellion of our own wills. Some good Christians are not now being so dealt with for they are not in this Firstfruits Company but nevertheless there is a real dealing of God going on within those who are called into the High Calling of God. This is a very real thing and is the work of the Refiner's Fire. To those who are going through it some of its aspects are horrible but very necessary and the end result thereof is glorious as we are brought into absolute and complete submission to the will of our Lord.

It was in a minister's conference and convention in Tulsa, Oklahoma that God gave me a vision which I want to share with you concerning this harnessing of our own wills. There were more than 30 ministers present in this particular Thursday morning service and God, the Father of spirits, was present to deal with His sons, to correct them and discipline them to absolute obedience to His will. There was such a stern dealing in the Spirit that no one could go to the pulpit and minister, there was a reluctance among the ministers to say anything except that which was directly ordered by the Spirit. And as those men of God sat there in the awesome presence of Almighty God, some of them having many years of ministry, some missionaries, all of them capable of getting up and preaching a powerful sermon, I was impressed by the way they responded to the discipline of the Spirit. And in the midst of this terrific dealing of God with our spirits, the Holy Ghost gave me a vision ...

I SAW THE KING'S CARRIAGE

On a dirt road in the middle of a wide field stood a beautiful carriage, something on the order of a stagecoach but all edged in gold and with beautiful carvings. It was pulled by six large chestnut horses: two in the lead, two in the middle and two in the rear. But they were not moving, they were not pulling the carriage, and I wondered why. Then I saw the driver underneath the carriage on the ground on his back just behind the last two horses' heels working on something between the front wheels on the carriage. I thought, "My, he is in a dangerous place; for if one of those horses kicked or stepped back, they could kill him, or if they decided to go forward, or got frightened somehow, they would pull the carriage right over him." But he didn't seem afraid for he knew that those horses were disciplined and would not move till he told them to move. The horses were not stamping their feet nor acting restless, and though there were bells on their feet, the bells were not tinkling. There were pom-poms on their harness over their heads but the pom-poms were not moving. They were simply standing still and quiet waiting for the voice of the Master.

THERE WERE TWO YOUNG COLTS IN THE FIELD

As I watched the harnessed horses I noticed two young colts coming out of the open field and they approached the carriage and seemed to say to the horses: "Come and play with us, we have many fine games, we will race with you, come catch us." And with that the colts kicked up their heels flicked their tails and raced across the open field. But when they looked back and saw the horses were not following they were puzzled. They knew nothing of the harnesses and could not understand why the horses did not want to play. So they called to them: "Why do you not race with us? Are you tired? Are you too weak? Do you not have strength to run? You are much too solemn, you need more joy in life." But the horses answered not a word nor did they stamp their feet or toss their heads. But they stood, quiet and still, waiting for the voice of the Master.

Again the colts called to them: "Why do you stand so in the hot sun? Come over here in the shade of this nice tree. See how green the grass is? You must be hungry, come and feed with us, it is so green and so good. You look thirsty, come drink of one of our many streams of cool clear water." But the horses answered them not so much as a glance but stood still waiting for the command to go forward with the King.

COLTS IN THE MASTER'S CORRAL

And then the scene changed and I saw lariat nooses fall around the necks of the two colts and they were led off to the Master's corral for training and discipline. How sad they were as the lovely green fields disappeared and they were put into the confinement of the corral with its brown dirt and high fence. The colts ran from fence to fence seeking freedom but found that they were confined to this place of training. And then the Trainer began to work on them with His whip and His bridle. What a death for those who had been all their lives accustomed to such a freedom! They could not understand the reason for this torture, this terrible discipline. What crime had they done to deserve this? Little did they know of the responsibility that was to be theirs when they had submitted to the discipline, learned to perfectly obey the Master and finished their training. All they knew was that this processing was the most horrible thing they had ever known.

SUBMISSION AND REBELLION

One of the colts rebelled under the training and said, "This is not for me. I like my freedom, my green hills, my flowing streams of fresh water. I will not take any more of this confinement, this terrible training." So he found a way out jumped the fence and ran happily back to the meadows of grass. I was astonished that the Master let him go and went not after him. But He devoted His attention to the remaining colt. This colt though he had the same opportunity to escape decided to submit his own will and learn the ways of the Master. The training got harder than ever but he was rapidly learning more and more how to obey the slightest wish of the Master and to respond to even the quietness of His voice. And I saw that had there been no training, no testing, there would have been neither submission nor rebellion from either of the colts. For in the field they did not have the choice to rebel or submit, they were sinless in their innocence. But when brought to the place of testing and training and discipline, then was made manifest the obedience of one and the rebellion of the other. And though it seemed safer not to come to the place of discipline because of the risk of being found rebellious, yet I saw that without this there could be no sharing of His glory, no Sonship.

INTO THE HARNESS

Finally this period of training was over. Was he now rewarded with his freedom and sent back to the fields? Oh no. But a greater confinement than ever now took place as a harness dropped about his shoulders. Now he found there was not even the freedom to run about the small corral for in the harness he could only move where and when his Master spoke. And unless the Master spoke he stood still.

The scene changed and I saw the other colt standing on the side of a hill nibbling at some grass. Then across the fields, down the road came the King's carriage drawn by six horses. With amazement he saw that in the lead, on the right side, was his brother colt now made strong and mature on the good corn in the Master's stable. He saw the lovely pom-poms shaking in the wind, noticed the glittering gold bordered harness about his brother, heard the beautiful tinkling of the bells on his feet -- and envy came into his heart. Thus he complained to himself: "Why has my brother been so honored, and I am neglected? They have not put bells on MY feet nor pom-poms on MY head. The Master has not given ME the wonderful responsibility of pulling His carriage, has not put about ME the gold harness. Why have they chosen my brother instead of me?" And by the Spirit the answer came back to me as I watched: "Because one submitted to the will and discipline of the Master and one rebelled, thus has one been chosen and the other set aside."

A FAMINE IN THE LAND

Then I saw a great drought sweep across the countryside and the green grass became dead, dry, brown and brittle. The little streams of water dried up, stopped flowing, and there was only a small muddy puddle here and there. I saw the little colt (I was amazed that it never seemed to grow or mature) as he ran here and there across the fields looking for fresh streams and green pastures finding none. Still he ran, seemingly in circles, always looking for something to feed his famished spirit. But there was a famine in the land and the rich green pastures and flowing streams of yesterday were not to be had. And one day the colt stood on the hillside on weak and wobbly legs wondering where to go next to find food and how to get strength to go. It seemed like there was no use, for good food and flowing streams were a thing of the past and all the efforts to find more only taxed his waning strength. Suddenly he saw the King's carriage coming down the road pulled by six great horses. And he saw his brother, fat and strong, muscles rippling, sleek and beautiful with much grooming. His heart was amazed and perplexed, and he cried out: "My brother where do you find the food to keep you strong and fat in these days of famine? I have run everywhere in my freedom, searching for food, and I find none. Where do you in your awful confinement find food in this time of drought? Tell me, please, for I must know!" And then the answer came back from a voice filled with victory and praise: "In my Master's House there is a secret place in the confining limitations of His stables where He feeds me by His own hand and His granaries never run empty and His well never runs dry." And with this the Lord made me to know that in the day when people are weak and famished in their spirits in the time of spiritual famine that those who have lost their own wills and have come into the secret place of the most High into the utter confinement of His perfect will shall have plenty of the corn of Heaven and a never ending flow of fresh streams of revelation by His Spirit. Thus the vision ended.

INTERPRETATION OF THE VISION

"Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it," (Habakkuk 2:2). "Harness the horses; and get up, ye horseman," (Jeremiah 46:4).

I am sure that many of you who can hear what the Spirit saith to the Church have already seen what God was showing in the vision. But let me make it plain. Being born into the Family of God feeding in the green pastures and drinking of the many streams of the unfolding revelation of His purposes is fine and wonderful. But it is not enough. While we were children, young and undisciplined, limited only by the outer fence of the Law that ran around the limits of the pastures (that kept us from getting into the dark pastures of poison weeds) He was content to watch us develop and grow into young manhood, spiritually speaking. But the time came to those who fed in His pastures and drank at His streams, when they were to be brought into discipline or "child-training" for the purpose of making them mature Sons. Many of the children today cannot understand why some of those who have put on the harness of God cannot get excited by the many religious games and the playful antics of the immature. They wonder why the disciplined ones run not after every new revelation or feed on every opportunity to engage in seemingly "good and profitable" religious activities. They wonder why some will not race with them in their frantic efforts to build great works and great and notable ministries. They cannot understand the simple fact that this Company of saints is waiting for the voice of the Master and they do not hear God in all this outward activity. They will move in their time when the Master speaks. But not before, though many temptations come from the playful colts. And the colts cannot understand why those who seemingly appear to have great abilities and strength are not putting it to good use. "Get the carriage on the road," they say, but the disciplined ones, those in God's harness, know better than to move before they hear the voice of the Master. They will move in their time with purpose and great responsibility.

And the Lord made me to know that there were many whom He had brought into training who had rebelled against the discipline, the chastising of the Father. They could not be trusted with the great responsibility of mature Sonship so He let them go back to their freedom, back to their religious activities and revelations and gifts. They are still His people, still feeding in His pastures, but He has set them aside from the great purposes for this end of the age. So they revel in their freedom feeling that they were the Chosen Ones with the many streams of living water not knowing that they have been set aside as unfit for His great work in this end of the age.

He showed me that though the chastising seemeth grievous for the time and the discipline hard to endure yet the result with all the glory of Sonship is worth it all and the glory to follow far exceeds the suffering we endure. And though some lose even their lives in this training yet they will share alike in the glory of His eternal purposes. So faint not saints of God for it is the Lord that doth bring thee into confinement and not thine enemy. It is for thy good and for His glory so endure all things with praises and thanksgiving that He hath counted thee worthy to share His glory! Fear thou not the whip in His hand for it is not to punish thee but to correct and train thee that thou mightest come into submission to His will and be found in His likeness in that hour. Rejoice thou in thy trials in all thy tribulations and glory thou in His cross and in the confining limitations of His harness for He hath chosen thee and He hath taken upon Himself the responsibility of keeping thee strong and well fed. So lean thou upon Him and trust not in thine own ability and thine own understanding. So shalt thou be fed and His hand shall be upon thee and His glory shall overshadow thee and shall flow through thee as it goes forth to cover the earth. Glory to God! Bless the Lord! He's wonderful! Let Him be Lord of your life, friends, and complain not at that which He bringeth to pass in your life.

PLENTY IN THE TIME OF FAMINE

For in the hour when famine sweeps the land He shall feed by His own hand those who are submitted to His perfect will and who dwell in the secret place of the Most High. When terror stalks the land those in His harness shall not be afraid for they shall feel His bit and bridle and know the guidance of His Spirit. When others are weak and frail and fearful there shall be those who shall be strong in the power of His might and shall lack for no good thing. In the hour when the traditions of the religious systems have proven false and their streams have dried up, then His Chosen Ones shall speak forth with the true Word of the Lord. So rejoice, Sons of God, that you have been chosen by His grace for this great work in this last hour. The fence which kept the colts in their own meadows and their own pastures mean nothing to the team in the harness for the gates open to them and they go forth pulling the King's carriage into many strange and wonderful places. They do not stop to eat the poison weeds of sin for they feed only in the Master's stable. These fields they trample under their feet as they go forth on the King's business. And so to those who are brought into absolute subjection to His will there is no Law. For they move in the Grace of God led only by His Spirit where all things are lawful but not all things are expedient. This is a dangerous realm for the undisciplined and many have perished in sin as they leaped over the fence without His harness and His bridle. Some have thought of themselves as being completely harnessed and submissive to Him only to find that in some avenue of their life there dwelled rebellion and self-will. Let us wait before Him until He puts His noose around us and draws us to His place of training. And let us learn of the dealings of God and the movings of His Spirit until at last we feel His harness drop about us and hear His voice guiding us. Then there is safety from the traps and pitfalls of sin and then shall we abide in His House forever!

Bill Britton served as Vice President of Pinecrest Bible Training Center for the first three years of its existence and was a great blessing in helping to establish the work at Pinecrest.

WE ARE NEVER ALONE

Posted by [grandmaanna] Oct 30th 2006 - 2:17PM Posts to date: 626

WE ARE NEVER ALONE

The point of my pastor's sermon today was that as Christians we aren't doing anything by ourselves. We are never alone. The Lord is always with us. It was really quickened to me when he said, "The Lord puts us on like a glove."

~~~~~
Later, when he read what I wrote, he emailed me this precious story, "Some years back I heard a preacher tell a story of when a new Christian asked him how it is possible that Jesus is in us and we are in him at the same time. The preacher told the young man to follow him down to the river. When they got to the river, the preacher took an empty bottle and dipped it under the water until it was completely full. He then put a lid on it and said to the new believer "Look, the river is in the bottle," and then He threw the bottle out into the middle of the river and said, "Now the bottle is in the river." It is the same with Jesus, He fills us with himself and then waits for us to throw ourselves into Him."

"Abide in Me, and I in you . As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me." (John 15:4 NKJ)

"To them God willed to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles: which is Christ IN you, the hope of glory." (Colossians 1:27 NKJ)

I also thought of the scripture NKJ Romans 13:14

"But put ON the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to fulfill its lusts."

So Christ is not only IN us, but also can be ON us. We are entirely encased by Him.

And from there I thought of NAU Psalm 139:5

"You have enclosed me behind and before, And laid Your hand upon me."

One time in one of my jail ministry services, I gave a study on Psalm 139. I used the analogy of being enclosed in a bag. One of the inmates was thoroughly enamored with the idea. He kept laughing with joy and saying, "I'm bagged for Jesus!"

So take heart, dear ones. We are to be packaged from within and without by the Lord, and in our daily walk He is in front of us and behind us. So, no matter what our circumstances are, we are never alone!

NKJ Hebrews 13:5 "For He Himself has said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you."

THE PROPHETIC MEANING OF A CARROT

Posted by [grandmaanna] Oct 30th 2006 - 2:16PM Posts to date: 626

A PROPHETIC MEANING OF A CARROT

A major spiritual understanding of the symbolism of "carrots" came by way of a revelation given to me on 8/11/87. On that day I heard, "What is carrot? It is the aching, unquenchable desire for Him. Did you know that friendship with the world is enmity with God?"

In those two sentences, I suddenly understood a tremendous truth. To gain intimacy with God requires giving up one's friendship with the world in what ever ways He individually communicates that truth. When affection is set upon Him and not upon things here below, an intimate relationship with Him develops. The more intimacy one has, the more one desires. It is never enough. It is a passion for Jesus that can never be satisfied in the earthly realm.

By associating intimacy with a carrot, the Holy Spirit taught me that all the attributes of a carrot stem from that one spiritual seed -- the seed of a passionate heart. Since whatever one gains in the spiritual realm can be served to feed others, one's own passionate relationship with the Lord can grow a garden of carrots! The Husbandman will dig them up at the right time to be food for healing and deliverance to open up blinded spiritual eyes for a pursuit of their own intimate relationship.

Carrots are a symbol for a certain group of our Lord's people. This symbol can be understood by just visualizing a carrot. The color of a carrot is orange which is a combination of His red blood shed for us and the bright yellow gold of His glory. Because of the context of His use of orange, I have come to associate it particularly with those in the prophetic ministry. (I have had my physical eyes opened at times to view His glory. To me, it looks like tiny sparkles of golden light that settle as a golden mist.) NKJ John 17:22 "And the glory which You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one:"

The natural shape of a carrot is similar to a trumpet. The root end, which is rooted in Christ, is the mouthpiece, and the top part is where the Kingdom of God springs forth exposing its verdant growth. However, that from which it springs forth is hidden in the ground. KJV Isaiah 49:2 And he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me;

Carrots are known for their beta carotene. It is converted by the liver and intestinal wall into usable vitamin A. Vitamin A is known for its positive effects on night blindness and infections. It is considered by some to be high on the list as a potential cancer inhibiting food. Thus spiritually we can transfer the meaning that the serving of carrots will effect spiritual blindness and help bring deliverance from satan's infectious influence. Since the Lord likens carrots to people and carrots are served as food, then what these "Carrot People" have become in the Kingdom of God is treasured food to be given to others. The Lord would love for all of us to become "Carrot People."

NKJ Matthew 9:37 Then He said to His disciples, "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few.

NKJ Luke 10:2 Then He said to them, "The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few; therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.

REVELATIONS WITH CLOCK NUMBERS

Posted by [grandmaanna] Oct 30th 2006 - 2:15PM Posts to date: 626

Revelations with Clock Numbers

This is a teaching and personal testimony of how God speaks to me with clock times

(You may also find this in the Quickened Word Archives at the end of the category called - THE 11th HOUR.)

In our born again spirits, the Lord created the ability to hear Him in unusual ways. The world hears Him with natural ears and with natural understanding, but many other hidden ways are available to His own who are pursuing Him with all their heart. He loves to play hide and seek, and I love to find where He is hiding or what He is hiding. I find Him in the most unusual places, and in the most unusual ways when He speaks to me by way of the Holy Spirit.

"But the Helper, the HOLY SPIRIT, whom the Father will send in My name, He will TEACH you all things,... " (John 14:26 NKJ) The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the COMMUNION [Gr. fellowship] of the Holy Spirit be with you all. Amen. (NKJ 2 Corinthians 13:14) [my capitalization]

Here is a fun example. For many years, I have been in the habit of recording the clock time of when I hear the Lord's voice. One day I was quickened by the Holy Spirit to look up the clock time which corresponded to the numbers of the Hebrew and Greek words in the back of the Strong's Concordance. I was amazed to find the meaning of the words confirming and adding richness to what I had heard. I skimmed some more recorded clock times in my journal and when one was quickened to me I looked up the meaning in first the Hebrew and then the Greek. Often, I found the Holy Spirit would confirm both meanings, although sometimes it was just one and not the other. Since then, He has quickened many clock times, and I love this additional treasure to my spiritual ears.

About the same time, the Holy Spirit led me to find still another hidden treasure related to the above. I was quickened to look at the scriptures where the clock time definitions of the word first appeared. The theologians call this the Law of First Mention. Yes! Another treasure! Often there is a quickened connection, a sentence or a thought, and even though it's taken out of context, the Holy Spirit confirms and adds beautiful richness to what I hear.

EXAMPLES:

Here are some recent examples taken from my journal in the last few months.

1. JOURNAL ENTRY: On 11/6/00 page 8919 at 5:36 A.M. I heard, "Ephesians 6:10." "Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might." (Ephesians 6:10 KJV)

That particular day, I was quickened by the Holy Spirit to look up both the Hebrew and the Greek numbers of the clock time #536 in the Strong's Concordance..

2. HEBREW MEANING: The Hebrew meaning of the clock time #536 was WEAK AND FEEBLE. That was EXACTLY how I was feeling that day!

3. GREEK MEANING: The Greek meaning of #536 was "firstfruits, persons consecrated to God for all time."

4. SCRIPTURES: I was also quickened to look up the scriptures in the Old Testament as well as the New Testament where #536 was first mentioned. "Have mercy upon me, O LORD; for I am weak <536>: O LORD, heal me; for my bones are vexed." (KJV Psalm 6:2)

Then I turned to the New Testament scripture where #536 was first used. "Not only that, but we also who have the firstfruits <536> of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for the adoption, the redemption of our body." (NKJ Romans 8:23)

5. CONCLUSION: What an amazing picture of how I was feeling that day in my almost 71 year old body. I was greatly encouraged knowing that the Lord had reached down to me by way of the Holy Spirit and was saying "I know exactly how you feel, let Me be your strength."

1. JOURNAL ENTRY: On 1/15/01 on page 9021 I wrote that at 12:35 A.M. I heard, "That's all I needed for Christmas." I hadn't heard Him say anything to me that connected and I wondered what that was all about. The Holy Spirit quickened me to look up the clock time in both the Hebrew and Greek numbers.

2. HEBREW MEANING: I found the Hebrew meaning of #1235 to be "holy shekel." The Holy Spirit gave me the revelation that the Lord's life is THE HOLY SHEKEL. At Christmas time, our culture has its priorities on material wealth, spending their "shekels". However, the Holy Spirit wants us to focus on the fact that Jesus Christ is the Holy Shekel who spent Himself for US.

3. GREEK MEANING: I was also quickened to look up the Greek meaning. It meant to be fully awake.

4. SCRIPTURE: The Holy Spirit also wanted me to look up the scripture in the New Testament where #1235 was first used and then I was doubly blessed. "But Peter and those with him were heavy with sleep; and when they were fully awake <1235>, they saw His glory and the two men who stood with Him." (Luke 9:32)

5. PERSONAL AND CORPORATE CONCLUSION: So what did the Holy Spirit teach me? What do I (we) need for Christmas? We need to get the sleep out of our eyes and internalize the painful price our Beloved Jesus paid for us. We need to stir up the intimate flames of very thankful passion for Him so that we may see His glory!

1. JOURNAL ENTRY: On 1/25/01 on page 9020 I wrote in my journal that at 2:09 A.M. I heard, "A stronger anointing is coming by way of zip." This riddled speech gave me a chuckle, saying so much in such a few words. Zip is a software program that sends things much faster than regular email. Material can be sent more quickly, as Zip compacts the data and then the receiver who also has Zip can quickly extract it. By way of the gift of interpretation, I knew the Lord was saying He can say things in fewer words when He uses riddled speech so He will be sending a greater quantity of revelation that way. So, not only will a stronger anointing be coming upon our hearing, but because we also have "Zip," we can extract what He said, or in other words we will have more anointing to interpret it.

2. HEBREW MEANING: Even though I thought I understood all that He meant, the Holy Spirit quickened me to look up the meaning of the clock time of #209 in Hebrew: It meant STRONG. He wanted to confirm the Lord's message, Yes, there is a STRONGER anointing coming.

3. GREEK MEANING: I also felt led to look up the meaning in the Greek. It meant "No man forbidding him, without hindrances, freely." It was quickened to me that He was adding richness to His "Zip" Word. From this, I knew that I knew, that doors which had been closed were going to open because of this stronger anointing.

4. SCRIPTURE: Then when the Holy Spirit quickened me to read the New Testament scripture where this Greek #209 was first used, everything flowed together beautifully. "Preaching the kingdom of God and teaching the things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ with all confidence, no one forbidding him <209>." (Acts 28:31)

5. PERSONAL CONCLUSION: So with all the above, now I had a more confirming picture. Then the Holy Spirit gave me the revelation that the Lord was speaking of a Daniel anointing - that the Lord liked to play hide and seek clear back to the time of Daniel. "This man Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar, has a sharp mind and is filled with divine knowledge and understanding. He can interpret dreams, explain riddles, and solve difficult problems. Call for Daniel, and he will tell you what the writing means." (Daniel 5:12 NLT)

Remember that I heard, "A stronger anointing is coming by way of zip." So how does all this fit together? We will receive the "Zipped" riddles, "unZip" the riddled speech - interpret it, then walk through open doors to teach what we have heard and learned. (Which is what I am doing now - just three months later! Smile.)

6. CORPORATE CONCLUSION: This is also a Word for the body of Christ. The Holy Spirit is going to bring us a stronger anointing than previously. It will come upon us more quickly than we expect and it will come in such a small package that it may not look like much at first. So, because of the quickness and the seeming simplicity of the package, we will not be aware of its powerful contents until we open it up and let our faith expand it within us.

1. JOURNAL ENTRY On page 9039 2/9/01 I wrote that at 5:21 A.M. I heard, "The maze of life." Yes, I thought, - walking through life IS like a maze. (I enjoy the Lord's way of putting things.) The Holy Spirit quickened me to look up the Hebrew and Greek definitions.

2. HEBREW MEANING: The Hebrew of #521 meant "a cubit - a measure of distance." By way of Holy Spirit revelation, I immediately understood that walking through life is a measure of distance and it is certainly like walking through a maze! Our life is like a confusing network of interconnecting pathways and Christ is our CUBIT. He is the measure by which we walk. What a fun and enriching confirmation to what I had heard.

3. GREEK MEANING: The Greek #521 meant "without instruction." This said to me that in going the distance in our Christian lives, not only is Jesus the measure by which we walk, but when we pray and ask the Father for guidance, the Holy Spirit comes and teaches us how to walk out the guidance we receive. The Word says the Holy Spirit is our teacher and helper. Without His instruction, we will wander aimlessly, going the wrong way at the various intersections in the "maze of life".

4. SCRIPTURE: Then it was quickened to me to look at the scripture where the Hebrew #21 was first used. "NKJ Ezra 6:3 In the first year of King Cyrus, King Cyrus issued a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem: "Let the house be rebuilt, the place where they offered sacrifices; and let the foundations of it be firmly laid, its height sixty cubits <521> and its width sixty cubits," The words taken out of context of "Let the house be rebuilt" and "let the foundations of it be firmly laid" really stood out to me.

5. CONCLUSION: So now I had an even more confirming message. I understood Him to say that He wants our lives to be rebuilt with our foundations firmly laid in Him and always moving through life with Him as our measurement, and waiting for guidance and direction at every intersection of our lives.

1. JOURNAL ENTRY: The same morning of the above entry, 2/9/01, I wrote that I heard the Lord speak at 8:12 A.M. "If you are quality and you need help, will you please go and get the help you need." Quality means holiness unto the Lord in my spiritual language. So I knew He was saying that a group of people pursuing holiness needed help, but who were they specifically, and how were they ensnared? I felt led by the Holy Spirit to look up both the Hebrew and Greek meaning of #812.

2. HEBREW MEANING: The Hebrew meaning of #812 is "cluster." The meaning was not quickened to me in regards to what I heard and I wondered why I was supposed to look them both up???

3. GREEK MEANING: The Greek meaning is "soldiers marching out of order or quitting ranks." In my language with the Lord, soldiers speak of intercessors. Thus, intercessor soldiers who are QUITTING ranks need HELP. And soldiers marching together are supposed to be in a unified CLUSTER when they march. So now I understood how the Hebrew meaning fit after all. (smile)

4. CONCLUSION: There are intercessor warriors breaking ranks for one reason or another and they need help. They need to pray to be led to a unified cluster of intercessors they can trust and who are under the guidance and authority of trusted leadership. There they will find the help and comfort they need.

1. JOURNAL ENTRY: On page 9062 of my journal on 3/3/01 I wrote that at 2:07 A.M. I heard "Members of war international" This obviously was about an international war group, but I did not know any more than that until I was quickened to look up the meanings of the Strong's numbers of the Hebrew and Greek.

2. HEBREW MEANING: The Hebrew meaning of #207 is "vigorous." By way of revelation, I knew immediately that the Lord was using "vigorous" interchangeably with the word zealous.

3. GREEK MEANING: The Greek meaning of # 207 is an "eagle." Since the Lord often speaks of prophetic intercessors as eagles, I knew He meant these "members of war international. " were zealous, prophetic intercessors doing warfare.

4. CONCLUSION: By His using the word "Members" I knew He was speaking of a group. I suddenly knew by Holy Spirit revelation that He desires His zealous prophetic intercessors to unite world wide and organize in world wide prayer.

STUDY THE ENTIRE BIBLE

Posted by  [grandmaanna ] Oct 30th 2006 - 2:13PM Posts to date: 626

TEACHING: STUDY THE ENTIRE BIBLE

Loved ones, you are set free from the law, but that does not mean you are to ignore the Old Testament. "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:" (2 Timothy 3:16 NKJ) At the time that verse was written by Paul to Timothy, the New Testament was not yet written. Paul was telling Timothy to read the Old Testament. That is what he meant by the word scripture.

Scripture is one of the major ways to recognize My voice and to know Me. And by heeding the personal voice of the Holy Spirit, as He quickens certain instructions to you, you will find it is a major way to grow into the full stature of Myself. "Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:" (Ephesians 4:13 KJV) And of course, continue to meditate and study the gospels where My Word and actions were detailed and apply them to your own lives. Indeed, all the writings of the entire New Testament and the Old Testament are Holy Spirit inspired for your instruction.

"Now all these things happened to them as examples, and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages have come." (1 Corinthians 10:11 NKJ)

"All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness," (2 Timothy 3:16 NKJ)

NECK REIGNED

Posted by  [grandmaanna ] Oct 30th 2006 - 2:12PM Posts to date: 626

TEACHING: NECK REIGNED

The Holy Spirit quickened to me this morning that He wants us to be "neck reigned." One of the signs of a well trained horse is how much his rider has to pull on one side or the other of the reigns. Some horses can be led by just a gentle sway of the reigns on one side of his neck or the other.

One time I owned a horse who had a mind of his own. He loved to jump irrigation ditches! (Much to my dismay, I might add! I often rode bareback and found myself clinging to his mane for dear life.) I never was able to keep him from that little caper no matter how hard I tried.

The Lord often uses the phrase "don't harden your neck with Me, so that you don't hear My Words." He wants us dead to our flesh and alive to His Spirit, so just a gentle pull on one side of our supple neck or the other causes us to "know" what to do. Or a gentle tug that says stop!

Our flesh is so strong we think that it is the ruling force. We were not created that way. We were created so that our spirit rules our body through the expression of our soul. Through the sin of Adam, man has turned it around so that our flesh rules through our soul and our spirit is suppressed.

Help us all, Lord, to "put to death the deeds of the flesh." We want our necks to be trained to your gentle leading. Amen.

"For if you live according to the flesh you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the

PROBLEMS IN LEARNING TO COMMUNICATE

Posted by  [grandmaanna ] Oct 30th 2006 - 2:10PM Posts to date: 626

LEARNING TO COMMUNICATE

I was having some problems communicating with someone and we had just worked out one of the consequences. The Lord gave me an immediate delightful parable.

PARABLE: As a token gift for mail ordering something, I received one of those outside decorations that blow prettily in the breeze. This one has a tubular purple top with two butterflies painted on just one side of it; one in orange on the bottom, and the other above it to the right is in shocking pink. Purple and shocking pink streamers hang below the tube. I hung it in the almond tree, so I could see it out the window when I am working on the computer. I had trouble positioning it correctly. It seemed that no matter how I hung it up, it would twist in the breeze so I couldn't see the butterflies. Finally, I just gave up. I knew the butterflies were there and I just enjoyed the colors and enjoyed their flight.

About a week later, I received the identical gift. Out it went onto the almond tree, and now I had two of them doing a dance together. I still couldn't get either one of the butterflies to face where I could see them.

Today, just as I resolved another communication problem with the same person, I looked out the window. You guessed it! Not only were the butterflies where I could see them, but they were facing one another and the orange butterflies were kissing each other! I couldn't help myself. I sat there all alone, yet not alone, and giggled and giggled with the Lord at His parable. He is such fun!

MY OWN SYMBOLIC UNDERSTANDING:
Almond tree = Aaron's rod

Butterflies = soaring in the spirit
 Orange = the prophetic realm
 Shocking pink= the double portion company of the body of Christ
 Purple = ruling and reigning

SELAH WORD: KISSING ONE ANOTHER IN THE SPIRIT 11/12/05

How you bless Me with your persistence in wanting to grow in loving communication with one another. Just like Aarons rod budded and gave forth buds, blossoms and almonds all at once, so are you growing in your relationships. The day will come when only gracious love will pour forth from your precious lips.

At the same time you are growing in your relationships, you also are growing in your spiritual gifts. Some of your gifts are in the prophetic budding stage. Some are blossoming with a sweet fragrance while others have already come to full double portion fruition. For those of you who are flowing together, you are experiencing the true meaning of what it means to flow in My spirit. Such joy awaits you each day as you soar together by way of the heavenly winds that blow across your paths.

"And it came to pass, that on the morrow Moses went into the tabernacle of witness; and, behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi was budded, and brought forth buds, and bloomed blossoms, and yielded almonds." (Numbers 17:8 KJV)

YOU HAVE FORGOTTEN YOUR RESTING PLACE

Posted by  [grandmaanna ] Aug 15th 2006 - 12:04AM Posts to date: 626

YOU HAVE FORGOTTEN YOUR RESTING PLACE

HEARD: You have forgotten your resting place. Parable.

CLOCK TIME: 3:51 A.M.
STRONG'S CONCORDANCE HEBREW. Where!
GREEK. Examination.

PARABLE: I had bought a decaffeinated mocha freeze even after I was told there was caffeine in the mix they used. I thought, "Oh well there couldn't be that much in it," but I must admit I wavered. Ah ha! The wavering was the clue. That was the Lord's quickening telling me that I was making a poor decision.

I went to bed at Midnight, still wired and was still awake at 3:30 A.M. I think I had just dropped off to sleep when I heard Him say, "You have forgotten your resting place." He wanted to be sure I got the point! When I heard Him say that, I asked Him what it was in reference to. I heard, "Parable." So I laid awake another hour trying to figure it out. I finally got it!

It came to me all at once that I had walked out the parable that afternoon by drinking caffeine. I am the one who is disturbing my own resting place. I can't blame anyone else or circumstances. I am losing my rest because of the choices I am making.

Many of the choices have to do with whether or not I am going to trust the Lord that He has divine control over my circumstances and timing.

Am I going to continue to run merrily along, without including Him?

Am I going to include Him or am I going to let my flesh overrule His gentle nudges and do things my way?

Am I going to believe that His protection and provision in all areas of my life are sufficient? Or am I going to stew over trying to make ends meet.

Am I going to believe that He has the health of my body in the palm of His hand or am I going to stew over every ache and pain and imagine the worst?

Then I went to the Sunday service, rather sleepy I might add. Pastor's sermon title was YOU HAVE FORGOTTEN YOUR RESTING PLACE.

Ok, I got it. ! I got it. !

Do any of you relate to this? (Smile)

(Hebrews 4:1-11 NLT) "God's promise of entering his place of rest still stands, so we ought to tremble with fear that some of you might fail to get there. For this Good News-- that God has prepared a place of rest-- has been announced to us just as it was to them. But it did them no good because they didn't believe what God told them. For only we who believe can enter his place of rest. As for those who didn't believe, God said, "In my anger I made a vow: 'They will never enter my place of rest,' " even though his place of rest has been ready since he made the world.

We know it is ready because the Scriptures mention the seventh day, saying, "On the seventh day God rested from all his work." But in the other passage God said, "They will never enter my place of rest."

So God's rest is there for people to enter. But those who formerly heard the Good News failed to enter because they disobeyed God. So God set another time for entering his place of rest, and that time is today. God announced this through David a long time later in the words already quoted: "Today you must listen to his voice. Don't harden your hearts against him."

This new place of rest was not the land of Canaan, where Joshua led them. If it had been, God would not have spoken later about another day of rest. So there is a special rest still waiting for the people of God. For all who enter into God's rest will find rest from their labors, just as God rested after creating the world.
