DEFERRED HOPE BECOMES LIFE 2/19/01

I know how hard it has been for you to wait, because I have waited since the dawn of time for you. I know the pain and the longing for our intimacy to be completed.

I see you as a little sparrow who has flown against great winds of adversity and struggled to stay in the air as overwhelming odds were sent against you. In your earnest waiting you have felt like giving up, but even in the worst of times I would not let you fall. My hand has always been there to catch you.

I AM faithful to call you and I will also do it. I will not let My Word go void in your life, I will fulfill every dot and tittle.

So, let Me wash your tears. Let Me wash your stains. Let Me blow against these winds of adversity. Let Me smooth your feathers, feed and nourish you. Now lay your head upon My hand and I will nurture you as My tender one. I promise every Word spoken in your life will come to pass, and even though some Words have waxed old with age, every nuance will become brand new and rich with meaning. The fulfillment of these Words will come to life before your very eyes and become living waters that satisfy the longings of your soul.

"Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: but when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life." (Prov 13:12)

INTERCESSORY BAROMETERS

Hi Loved Ones,

I would like to share something the Lord taught me last year in connection with intercession. Hopefully, this knowledge will help us feel more comfortable in being used by the Lord and keep us from being led astray in our intercessory experiences.

A barometer is a gauge (like an outward sign) that tells us the pressure of the air around us. Intercessors are like barometers. They can walk into a room and their meters will detect things unseen to the natural eye. Part of their gifting is an intuitive sensitivity to a world that most people don't even know exists. As they remain keenly aware of the Holy Spirit's presence and learn to take what they are sensing to prayer, they grow in their giftings and become even more sensitive. These unique experiences are often misunderstood and yet God uses them as signs.

Since 1994, there has been a call by God to raise up intercessors, to help birth His new thing upon the earth. His strong, near Presence has caused many to fervently respond. Some have matured and are coming into a new level of gifting. The Lord is wanting to enlarge their gifts and further hone their sensitivity for a hands on ministry.

Hebrews says, "For we have not an high priest which cannot BE TOUCHED WITH THE FEELING OF OUR INFIRMITIES; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need." (Heb 4:15-16 KJV)

That sentence is a little hard to understand because it is written as a double negative. In the positive, it is saying that Jesus WAS/IS touched with the feeling of our infirmities. The Holy Spirit quickened that verse as I was thinking about the tangible feelings that come with many intercessory experiences. The phrase, "be touched with the feeling of" is actually one Greek word, sumpatheo. (Strongs 4834) It means to feel sympathy or commiserate. I traced that word back to it roots and found something quite interesting. It comes from 2 words meaning to companion or associate with an experience, sensation or impression, usually painful. (Strongs 4862 & 3958) Now that is an interesting definition for those touched by intercession that is birthed by the Holy Spirit! They have experienced this as very real.

We are called to be like Jesus, Who is the greatest Intercessor. As intercessors, we will sometimes feel physical things in our bodies, or experience emotional sensations, and have instinctive impressions of either the room we are in, or the person/ issue we are praying for. This is not supposed to be a unique experience, this is actually the very heart of intercession — to feel and know what touches God's heart. He feels these things and we are allowed brief moments to companion with Him in prayer.

Some call these experiences words of knowledge, some call them discernment, some call them warfare, some call them intercession, some call it responding to His Presence. Actually this gift is all of the above. Some may feel various physical infirmities or pain in their body. Some may feel anger, lust, fear, anxiety, ambition, impatience, joy, peace, compassion, etc. Some may sense a coldness in the room, or heat, or a gentle wind, or slight tingles in their hands, or on their head, or any number of experiences.

Human beings naturally feel all of these things. The difference for intercessors is that they do not own these feelings. It is a sudden download, whether strong or gentle, it is a happening that in one minute it is there and another it is not. It is connected with a sensitivity to the Holy Spirit, to the person we are in proximity with, to someone placed upon our heart, or to the environment in a room, etc.

For years I had warfare experiences without understanding why. Several years ago the Lord opened my eyes. As I was driving on the way to see a person, one minute I was worshipping the Lord and the next minute my heart was racing, my stomach gripping and my breathing short. It was such an unusual feeling and I wondered what it was. I asked the Lord and I suddenly realized it was fear. Now that may sound strange, but I was not used to having fear and so it took a while to register that was what I was feeling. It was ridiculously out of context because I was worshipping the Lord, having no worries and it was a nice day!

I bound the spirit of fear, commanded it to go in Jesus Name and was flooded with peace. As I was pulling into the driveway, I was still scratching my head wondering why I would suddenly be attacked like that, but at least I knew it was a demon. When I walked in I noticed that the lady was kind of white faced. She was holding onto the counter and I asked her if she was OK. She told me she had just had a panic attack. I asked her how long ago, and it was exactly when I'd experienced this. That was a real eye opener. The Lord allowed me to experience this, so that she would be set free from that attack!

There is a deception that can happen in this area of experiencing these tangible feelings. When Jesus hung on the cross, He bore everything upon Himself, so that we do not have to. The scripture says, "Surely He has BORNE our griefs and CARRIED our sorrows; yet we esteemed Him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities; The chastisement for our peace was upon Him, and by His stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; We have turned, every one, to his own way; And the Lord has LAID ON HIM the iniquity of us all." (Isa 53:4-6 NKJV)

The difference is that as intercessors we are not meant to CARRY any of these experiences. We can be TOUCHED by the feelings, but we are not to BEAR them. If we do, we take Jesus' place on the cross. I had noticed a few intercessors living with their burdens, and as I was praying about this, the Lord told me it was a spirit of delusion whose name was savior! So if you have been carrying someone else's burden, or someone else's pain, or someone else's warfare, start rebuking it in Jesus Name. Do not own it, do not carry it, do not accept it, do not embrace it, do not receive it.

In contrast, when we are touched by the heart of God and experience tangible feelings, it is for the express purpose of giving them back to Him. He touches us, so that we can yield them up to Him in prayer. He touches us so that we can understand what is going on, and take authority over it, so that the enemy does not have his way.

Another common error is that when we experience these tangible things, we begin to think that we are the ones with the problems. The enemy would love to make us think this. If he convinces us, then he has two victims, the person with the problem and then us - because we receive it through our belief! Therefore, we must learn to not take the things we experience personally. The Lord wants to hone our sensitivity so that we will stand against the enemy, we will pray, and we will minister to others in His Name.

Another error that often takes place is an intercessor's personal response after being a public sign or gauge. Sometimes they feel shame because it was a public display and they are embarrassed. That is because pride and servanthood are not compatible! Following Jesus to the cross, we learn that to be a servant is the lowliest of all. The beauty of this is that such intercessors so love the Presence of the Lord that they gladly sacrifice all for just one touch of His Presence. They so love the Presence of the Lord, they long for that, and that is the only place they want to be.

Lord, please hone our sensitivity to these gifts so that we can lay hands on the hurting and heal them and set them free in Jesus Name. And help us to remember the battle belongs to You. (2 Chron 20:15)

Lovingly,

Sandy

RHEMA 1/16/01 ENLARGE THY TENT, NOT A BUILDING.

HEARD: Go intercessor. What's up? Inspired to pray. Unity. Bigger. Enlarge thy tent. It's not in a building, it's in the heart.

Isa 54:8 NKJV
"Sing, O barren,You who have not borne!Break forth into singing, and cry aloud,You who have not labored with child!For more are the children of the desolate Than the children of the married woman," says the LORD. 2 "Enlarge the place of your tent,And let them stretch out the curtains of your dwellings;Do not spare;Lengthen your cords,And strengthen your stakes. 3 For you shall expand to the right and to the left,And your descendants will inherit the nations,And make the desolate cities inhabited.
4 "Do not fear, for you will not be ashamed;Neither be disgraced, for you will not be put to shame;For you will forget the shame of your youth,And will not remember the reproach of your widowhood anymore. 5 For your Maker is your husband,The LORD of hosts is His name;And your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel;He is called the God of the whole earth. 6 For the LORD has called you Like a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit,Like a youthful wife when you were refused,"Says your God. 7 "For a mere moment I have forsaken you,But with great mercies I will gather you. 8 With a little wrath I hid My face from you for a moment;But with everlasting kindness I will have mercy on you,"Says the LORD, your Redeemer.

1 Chron 4:9-10 NKJV
Now Jabez was more honorable than his brothers, and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, "Because I bore him in pain." 10 And Jabez called on the God of Israel saying, "Oh, that You would bless me indeed, and enlarge my territory, that Your hand would be with me, and that You would keep me from evil, that I may not cause pain!" So God granted him what he requested.

THE GREATER WORKS MAKE A BIG SPLASH

RHEMA 1/6/01

HEARD: Strong number. Manifestation. So vital was this, that it made a big splash. Apostle.

FUNNY: Wayne booted up his brand new computer and the speakers were blaring! The song was “Crown Him with many crowns.” He accidentally did this several times and it blared through the whole house. I laughed and laughed.

I guess when the Lord brings His Apostles on the scene, they are going to make a big splash! Greater works are coming!

John 14:12-14 NKJV
"Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father. 13 And whatever you ask in My name, that I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. 14 If you ask anything in My name, I will do it.

FUN CONFIRMATIONS

When God speaks, He always confirms His Words via 2-3 witnesses. Check the link out on God Speaks Through Confirmations. Here are some fun examples of how God has spoken to me via confirmations.

IN THE MOUTH OF 2 OR 3 :O)

RHEMA 1/3/01 25TH ANNIVERSARY

FUNNY CONFIRMATION: Tonight as I was saying the date 1/3 into my recorder, I said, this is our 25th wedding anniversary, awesome, awesome, awesome.

Then I felt quickened to hear what was on the recorder after that. I use the same tape and just keep taping over the old rhema. The very next sentence was “It was awesome” and that was Bob Jones's voice spoken at the conference!

=======

ALWAYS MINE

SCRIPTURE 7/26/05: I turned in my little bread box of scripture cards to:

All things are yours. You are Christ's and Christ is God's. (I Cor 3)

CONFIRMATION: At the same time I read this scripture, the next song came on my MP3: “You will always be mine. You will always be mine. You will always be mine. I will always be yours. I will always be yours. I will always be yours.”

POP THAT LID

PARABLE 8/17/05: Anna is in the other room and the doc is cutting the stitch on her eye flap with a laser. This will open the flap so the excess liquid can have a place to flow so the pressure will not build up behind her eye.

CONFIRMATION SCROLL BAR:
My eye scrolled down the Word to Ponder file on my Pocket PC and it stopped at this one:

> WORD TO PONDER: POP THAT LID AND BREAK THE RESTRAINTS 3/12/03
> My people have been under years of restraint. Timidity, shame, regret, insecurity, intimidation, domination, controlled, wounded. It's time for Jubilee freedom that can only come through great and mighty works of My Spirit in their lives. My Presence shall draw nearer to them than ever before and My Spirit will break off the restraints. I will lead them out of their own personal captivities and they shall have testimonies of restored lives. Then I will use them to help others. I AM preparing to pop the lid off My people and all that has held them in captivity shall burst away as they spring forth in a new release.

MOVING DAY

EXPERIENCE 8/13/05: So funny! In one way or another, when the Ponders come out online they always seem to nail me. I rarely, if ever, know what is coming since I post them over 3 months in advance. So today I have been moving my website to a new server that has better features and opportunities. It has taken several hours so far. I am also having to move my e-mail addresses and a bunch of other 3rd party connections. So this ponder just came in. He sure knows how to make me laugh with delight as His Word comes alive with living parables!

> MOVING THE LOAD
> I have packed your bags, cinched them down tight and prepared you to move the load. What are you carrying? A load of benefits. Come on in to your new place naturally. You need not run or walk too fast, just let it all happen naturally. Play, have a good time and take off in great delight.

NKJ Psalm 68:19
Blessed be the Lord, Who daily loads us with benefits, The God of our salvation! Selah

NKJ Hebrews 11:8
By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to the place which he would receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going.

RHEMA 10-10 WILD CARDS 12/24/00

EXPERIENCE: 10 WILD CARDS WHEN PLAYING CANASTA

Tonight when we were playing the card game Canasta at Anna's house, I had an amazing experience. I drew 7 wild cards, one in each turn. I also had 3 on the table, for a total of 10 wild cards. Then I heard the Lord say, HEARD: Ollie, ollie, oxen free.

> John 10:10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

COMMENT: Ollie, ollie, oxen free is what we used to call out when we were playing hide and seek as children. When it was safe to come home, we could cry out, "ollie, ollie, oxen free!" and run to home base without penalty.

Papa has given us wild cards for a free trip home to Him.

> Luke 15:18-21 NKJV
> I will arise and go to my father, and will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you, 19 and I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired servants.'" "And he arose and came to his father. But when he was still a great way off, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and fell on his neck and kissed him.

WORD TO PONDER: ADOPTED 8/23/05
I have been working for many years in your life to give you a planting where there is a need and an appreciation for your gifts. This place is like being embraced into a family where you will be loved and flourish. Allow me to transition you into this place. Lay low and follow Me. Stay obedient. Stay humble. Be transparent but careful and let Me move you into position. I AM bringing you into other's lives and bringing them into yours. My Spirit of adoption is not only crying out for the literal orphans and widows who have walked alone, but for those of you whose gifts were not accepted.

Come to Papa and I will settle you. Daddy says it is safe to come home now. No more hide and seek." Come home dear ones.

Gal 4:4-7 NKJV
But when the fullness of the time had come, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption as sons. And because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying out, "Abba, Father!" Therefore you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

HE TEACHES MY HANDS TO WAR

RHEMA 12/15/00: HE TEACHES MY HANDS TO WAR

DREAM: EXPERIENCING NEW WAYS TO DO DELIVERANCE

There was something that a lady needed set free from. I started prophetically doing chopping movements in front of her chest. I literally felt demonic resistance against my hands and then it left. Then she did a big yawn and was delivered from the demonic that had her bound.

VISION: I was yelling out from the depths of my being, out into the open skies. I was yelling, 'FREEEEEEEEEDOM!"

HEARD: You can handle this? Graduation. What does this mean? It means you are free.

2 Sam 22:35 NKJV
He teaches my hands to make war, so that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

=======

EXPERIENCE 9/27/00: Today at prayer meeting pastor's wife was sitting next to me. I did not know she had a headache and she silently prayed, “Lord why won't this headache go away?” A moment later the spirit came upon me and I did the warrior gesture with my hands and arms whirrling. She was astounded as the pain left exactly at that moment. She told me about this later. I was amazed.

The sad part is that when it hits me, it is totally involuntary and I don't make it happen. So although it is very supernatural with deliverance attached, it is not something to call out at will like using our authority. I was blessed though to hear about this confirmation.

2 Sam 22:35
35 He teacheth my hands to war; so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

Ps 144:1
144:1 Blessed be the LORD my strength, which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight:

RHEMA 11/22/00 REST NOW MY CHILD

> [Please Lord I need You so much. I am so tired, I dont think I can continue. I need Your touch desperately.]

QUICKENED TIME:

PIX: I saw a hand reach towards my brow and soothe it, and it was a very comforting touch.

PIX: I saw a package and it was forest green, the same deep color as my nightgown.

It was placed in my hands and I started to tear the paper before I knew whether I should open it. I stopped in mid action to ask the Lord.

HEARD: Yes, open it.

EXPERIENCE: So I opened it up and said, "Sheets Lord? Sheets?"

HEARD: Yes, now REST. Peace. Troubled storm.

[Lord what color are these sheets?]

PIX: I saw blue sky, with white fluffy clouds (like my book covers) and I saw little baby angels with wings sitting on top of the clouds.

HEARD: They went to school. Training.

PIX: I saw a pair of lips. They blew one puff of air against my forehead, as though to blow away demonic dust.

PIX: Then I saw my forehead being kissed a bunch of times.

HEARD: What's behind door number one? You can open. The price is right. Forwarding address. Refresh. It belongs to you. A new beginning. Planted. In the house of My God.

REST NOW AND LET MY HEALING BEGIN 11/22/00
Beloved you have suffered a major storm. Like Joshua who pursued Me regardless of the cost, and who stood before My Presence in filthy rags, the battle was much bigger than expected. And yet you stood, and you stood and you stood, expecting to see Me any day, and receive such a reward for so much onslaught. For years you have stood expecting My Word to be fulfilled in your life. This very day I declare from the throne room, "Enough is enough!" I Myself have rebuked the storm on your behalf.

Take your filthy rags off of My bride satan, for your attempts have failed.

Now let the healing begin. The fiery trials are but dusty ashes upon your brow. Let Me blow upon your forehead and remove them. Let My finger touch your forehead and remove the worry lines. For My bride is to be without spot or wrinkle.

Kisses, I have kisses, nothing but kisses for your face. Kiss after kiss after kiss, as I touch your weariness and tenderize your heart once again. For deep inside is the heart of a warrior who has stood many a battle, and one who longs for love, and yet flinches due to battle fatigue. Let My kisses do their work, for in each kiss is the tender wooing of My heart to yours. Each breath you feel of My Presence envelops you in deeper and deeper caresses until at last you no longer finch. At last you welcome Me with joyful expectation and with no more sorrow.

Learn to rest in My love for you. I lay deep emerald green satin sheets upon your bed. They shine with My fresh anointing oil. Be immersed in translucent emerald light from My throne, and let Me visit you in the night seasons. Rest My love, for great has been your battle. I give My beloved sleep. Yes awaken to My call, but let your heart be at peace. Let the anxiety melt, let all cares vanish, let the fears break and let My peace surround you in perfect restoration. The storm is calmed and I give you rest.

Much restoration is coming. It will take many years, for I will rebuild My temple and all that has fallen. I will send you to help rebuild. But first let Me touch you. You have My promised enduement coming. It will be like a brand new battle, one that will never die and one that will never be stolen.

"Let Him kiss Me with the kisses of His mouth - For Your love is better than wine. Because of the fragrance of Your good ointments, Your name is ointment poured forth; Therefore the virgins love You. Draw Me away! We will run after You. The King has brought Me into His chambers. We will be glad and rejoice in You. We will remember Your love more than wine." (Song 1:2-4 NKJV)

RHEMA 11/18/00 DELIVERANCE OH YES SHE DOES!

HEARD: As we find space to be delivered. Healing room. Set free. As often as we pray. Not likely. Then what? Drive them out. Healing, how then? By the power of God. Driven. Deliverer.

I attended an out of town healing service and they called us all up front for those who wanted the healing impartation. Wayne and I were left standing and everyone else went to the floor.

I started twirling my hands and feeling the Lord's Presence as I did this. So I continued to worship the Lord this way as I was moving my hands. A few seconds later a lady next to me started manifesting demons. She was loud but I did not realize that was what was going on, since I was feeling the Lord's Presence so well, I was enjoying twirling my hands and feeling His tangible anointing as I did this.

Finally she got really loud and I stopped and looked over at her. She was writhing around and making unusual sounds. There was a lady on top of her taking authority and some other people around her praying and also taking authority. Cal's wife had walked up from the back and was pointing and sternly saying something to the demon as well.

I started binding the enemy silently. Then I heard the lady (demon) say, “You don't have the authority to deliver me!!!” It was quite rebellious speaking to the lady that was on top of her. I said, “Oh yes she does!” And the lady shut up and the demon came out.

The lady was very nice looking and cultured and obviously attended this church, since her sons were sitting and coloring and doing puzzles and they knew how to go to Sunday School after worship. I had watched her worship and pray a few times and discerned that she had a strong striving spirit during worship. It was a good lesson in discernment for me.

Luke 10:18-20 NKJV
And He said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. 19 Behold, I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

LABELS, LABELS AND MORE LABELS

11/14/00

Hi Loved Ones,

I had an interesting prophetic thing happen a few days ago. He had already been talking to me about "opinions" before this happened. It happened on a day where there was a war going on in my mind about a particular person. I had been criticized and felt judged and so I forgave, I released, I prayed, and I still had this war going on inside my thoughts. It became really ridiculous and I knew that this was a spiritual thing of fighting spirits, certainly not the person. Even after I understood this, I went right back to the mind war. I thought, "Whatever I do, it is not good enough."

At that moment in history I was reaching for an envelope on a shelf and bumped into a plastic box the size of a very large drawer. The box turned upside down and hundreds and hundreds of labels fell out on the floor in a huge mass. I stood there staring at the contents of this box with my mouth hanging open. I saw little round garage sale stickers, filing labels, sticky notes, diskette labels, removable labels, Xstampers and ink, filing labels and plastic inserts to hold the labels. The tally continued, and with my mouth still hanging opened, I realized what I had just thought was an opinion that was exactly like a label. It was like a word curse upon myself in the form of a self applied label.

THREE STORIES

Years ago as a newly born, naïve, prophetic child the Lord sent me to a person of authority, who formed an opinion about me. He labeled me, eventually judged, and finally rejected me. From the beginning, I was instantly hurled into a spiritual battle of such magnitude, that I did not know what hit me. It was my training ground and my teeth cutting days. All prophetic people go through this training, and I learned a lot of lessons back then. One thing I learned was that since this person was very anointed, he carried a lot of authority in the spiritual realm and his opinions of me were actually loosing evil spirits upon me. I knew this was true, but could not find the scripture to support this revelation. Through the years I saw this happening to others when they were judged, and I kept asking the Lord to send me confirmation. During the past couple of weeks, He finally answered that prayer. Before I share with you the scriptural insights, I want to share 2 more stories.

A couple of years ago, I was listening to a father speak negatively about his daughter. He was upset about a decision she had made and he brought several things into the conversation about her past mistakes. Feeling awkward about correcting an elder, I listened and by the time I was finally able to disconnect myself from the conversation, I felt slimed. I had compassion for the gal whose father had spoken like this about her and I prayed for her. That very day, a few hours later, I ran into her and she told me that she had a particularly bad day of bombarding negative thoughts. During a lengthy car drive that morning, she suddenly started thinking about all her past mistakes. Her mind was a battle ground of trying to overcome condemnation, guilt, shame and also trying to defend herself to no one but her own miserable thoughts. She said it was such a war that she had to finally yell at the devil to stop bugging her and she started speaking the Word of God over her past. I was so amazed at her volunteer confession, I asked her what time this happened. It was the exact time that her father was speaking these things about her. Then I knew beyond a shadow of a doubt that people’s opinions, conversations and judgments release evil tormenting spirits to others.

A few days ago I was listening to a sermon on a cassette tape. It was the story of a traveling speaker who discovered that sometimes after he spoke at various churches, he would have these terrible wars going on in his mind. He would wake up and start thinking, "Maybe I should have said, this, or that.. I didn’t quite cover that right, I meant to say this… etc, etc!" It was becoming quite an issue of unrest with him. He realized it was a spiritual battle and started praying over it.

After one battle, he called one of the churches where he had just ministered, and mentioned to the pastor that he had not heard from him, and wondered if everything was all right. The pastor told him that they had not received what he had shared. When he got off the phone, he realized his thoughts of condemnation were bombarding him via evil spirits sent to him from the congregations’ inability to receive what he had shared. He started declaring out loud to the spirit world, "God’s Word will not return void!" A couple of days later, he called the pastor back, and the pastor said everything had changed and they had received him. In another church he had no bombarding thoughts, and so he wondered why! He called, and the pastor and congregation were very pleased with what he had shared. This was a real revelation to him of why he was having such unrest and this bombardment of ‘thought wars’.

As I listened to this tape, I knew the Lord was speaking to my prayer of so long ago. Here a preacher had also discovered that people’s opinions can loose curses in the form of evil spirits upon us. At the same time, I was working on a deliverance file for ministry teams (eventually to be placed at my site) and I was doing a study on curses. The scriptures came alive to me and gratefully I finally found the scripture connections to back up this revelation. I hope that I can relay this to you in a way that you can see it too. It has really helped me and given me some good tools in overcoming what I call ‘word curses’ that are sent to us from opinions of others and even ourselves.

THE SCRIPTURAL REVELATION

Scripture One: "Like a flitting sparrow, like a flying swallow, so a curse without cause shall not alight." (Prov 26:2 NKJV)

King James says, "As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, so the curse causeless shall not come." The word causeless in the Hebrew means devoid of cost, devoid of reason or devoid of advantage.

What this means is that a curse will not land upon us unless we give it a reason to stay. Most often, that reason is our own sin or our own unforgiveness. The scriptures tell us that all of have sinned and deserve all the curses for disobedience to the laws of God, but that Jesus became a curse for us and paid the cost so that we could be set free of those curses. (Deut 28:15, Matt 18:34, Rom 3:23, Gal 3:13-14)

Please note that in Matt 18:34 it is a PROMISE that if we do not forgive, we are delivered to our tormentors! "And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the TORMENTORS, till he should PAY all that was due unto him. So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses."

Scripture two: "But I say to you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you…" (Matt 5:44-45 NKJV)

"Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse…. Repay no one evil for evil… Beloved, do not avenge yourselves, but rather give place to wrath; for it is written, "Vengeance is Mine, I will repay," says the Lord. Therefore "If your enemy is hungry, feed him; If he is thirsty, give him a drink; For in so doing you will heap coals of fire on his head." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good." (Rom 12:14,17,19 -21 NKJV)

This is a command to bless when we have been cursed and a promise that this "subdues, conquers, prevails and gains the victory" over evil. (Greek for the word overcome.) This very promise took place in Job’s life.

"And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before." (Job 42:10 KJV)

Scripture three: "When you are invited into someone's home, give it your blessing. If it turns out to be a worthy home, let your blessing stand; if it is not, take back the blessing. If a village doesn't welcome you or listen to you, shake off the dust of that place from your feet as you leave." (Matt 10:12-15 NLT)

King James says "And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you." (Matt 10:13 KJV) The word return means to revert, come again, to convert. When we give something away, we receive it back again.

To me, this verse implies that when we give a blessing to someone unworthy, it returns to us and we get blessed. Therefore, when we bless our enemies and those who curse us, it comes back to us as a blessing. I can see that this is similar to the concept that a curse will not stay without reason for it to stay. In the same way, a blessing will not stay without reason for it to stay. It comes back to us and we receive the benefit.

In pondering this verse that Jesus said first bless, then shake the dust off your feet, I wondered how these connected together since they seemed opposed to one another and implied some kind of a judgment against the unworthy enemies. I knew that couldn’t be correct since we are commanded not to judge, but to forgive. (Matt 7:2, Luke 6:37) And that was the moment of revelation.

Scripture four: "So it [the demon] returns and finds that its former home is all swept and clean. Then the spirit finds seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they all enter the person and live there. And so that person is worse off than before." (Luke 11:25-26 NLT)

Back then they did not have carpeted floors. When the people literally swept their homes, they swept dirt and dust carried in on their feet. In this scripture Jesus was comparing a swept home with being clean of evil spirits. I suddenly understood that when He told the disciples to shake the dust off their feet from the towns that did not receive their testimony, that He was saying shake the demonic dust, dirt, grime, filth off their feet as they left. So in context, we bless the people who do not receive us, then shake off the evil spirits that are biting our heals on the way out the door!

THE COUNTER PUNCH

I believe this concept works the opposite as well. If we judge and do not forgive those who judge or label us, it looses evil spirits upon them. These evil spirits keep them from repentance and make them worse than they were before. Therefore we have every reason to forgive, pray for, and even bless those who judge us, for in doing so they may change their heart.

SUMMARY

Getting back to the box of dumped labels, God wants to dump our boxes out, and help us get rid of all the labels from our past that are still hindering us today. Labels are like being confined in a box and they restrict our freedom to come and go. In that box we fight tormentors in the form of our thoughts and unrest. Labels come upon us from other peoples opinions, their criticism, their conversations, and their judgments of us. They also come upon us when we label ourselves. These opinions become word curses and evil spirits are sent through these channels to harass us. These curses are also allowed to harass us when we sin and when we do not forgive.

In summary, how to be overcomers of evil labels:

1) We confess our sins so that He will cleanse us. (1 John 1:9)

2) We forgive so we will not be tormented. (Matt 18:34)

3) We pray for our accusers so that our captivity will be turned. (Job 42:10)

4) We bless those who curse us, so that we may receive the blessing and not the curse. (Matt 10:12-15)

5) We shake the demonic spirits off of ourselves so our walk is free and unhindered. (Matt 10:12-15)

May the Lord help us to overcome evil with good in Jesus Name.

Lovingly,

Sandy

RHEMA 11/17/00 RAINING FISH FROM THE SEA

VISION: I was looking out the dining room window. Suddenly it started raining fish from the sky. They plopped into a huge heaping pile, flopping around. Then I saw them stop moving and appear lifeless. I saw little fish and big fish. I wondered if it was raining fish other places, but there was a pile right in front of the window and it was as though they were sent there. I called to Wayne to come see this amazing sight and mentioned we should probably take a picture.

HEARD: That was so exciting. Where did they all come from? From the sea. Harvest of souls.

TROUBLED WATERS WILL RESTORE 2/21/00

Listen to the parable of the fish. For even as your weighted down loved ones have felt like a fish on dry land, flopping until no life remains, I have sent help. This stronghold of control that has sought to take the reigns over the burden bearers will fall as I send the wave of My Spirit upon these dry ones who have held on for so long. I will wash them and bring them back from the throngs of death and move them into My flow.

Like the pools of Bethesda where the waters stir and are troubled, so I trouble the waters of those so dry they feel like they have no life left. This is so that they will fight the weight of hopelessness and despair and in one last breath, as they call upon Me they will be washed into My waters and come back to life. For these waters of trouble are really the waters of life. The vapor of My Presence hovers over the bubbling waters and My glory dwells in the midst. I stay very close to those who have suffered for so long.

Be aware that when a stronghold falls, it falls like dominoes sending waves of backlash and reverberations. The rebellious will resist in their brokenness and chastenings, and they will have sharp pieces when they fall. Stand upright, stay in patient love and yet rebuke when necessary. You are walking the right path My Sweetheart and I AM raising you up to glory.

"When they walk through the Valley of Weeping, it will become a place of refreshing springs, where pools of blessing collect after the rains! They will continue to grow stronger, and each of them will appear before God in Jerusalem." (Ps 84:6-7 NLT)

RHEMA 10/21/00 WHAT WAS PETER'S SHADOW?

I turned to the following verse: Acts 5:15-16 As a result of the apostles' work, sick people were brought out into the streets on beds and mats so that Peter's shadow might fall across some of them as he went by.

> Acts 5:14-16 NKJV
> And believers were increasingly added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women, so that they brought the sick out into the streets and laid them on beds and couches, that at least the shadow of Peter passing by might fall on some of them.

I was wondering what the shadow was caused from.

HEARD: Glory.

> [God's glory was emanating from him and it cast a shadow]
> Acts 6:14-15 NLT
> At this point everyone in the council stared at Stephen because his face became as bright as an angel's.
> Matt 17:1-3 NKJV

Now after six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, led them up on a high mountain by themselves; and He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light.

Ex 34:29-31 NKJV
Now it was so, when Moses came down from Mount Sinai (and the two tablets of the Testimony were in Moses' hand when he came down from the mountain), that Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone while he talked with Him. 30 So when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him.

Isa 60:5 NKJV
Then you shall see and become radiant, And your heart shall swell with joy; Because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you, The wealth of the Gentiles shall come to you.

THE ARK HIDDEN WITHIN TO BE REVEALED 9/3/00
Like the seasons of a blossoming rose, so I have ordained a pathway perfect for you. Hidden inside your chambers, even to yourself, is the finest of gold, purified and preserved for the revealing in time. Like the ark of the covenant, I have placed My ark within you, and in My day, I will open the lid and reveal what is inside. Golden, radiant glory, waiting to be revealed. It shall flow from the throne room. Nothing shall stop its flow, for I will pour it directly into you and out it will come. My Word shall be in your mouth and you shall pour forth like a mighty stream of a throne room river. Get ready for the unveiling, get ready to shine.

"…And behind the second veil, the part of the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of All, which had the golden censer and the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which were the golden pot that had the manna, Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant; and above it were the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat." (Heb 9:3-5 NKJV)

THE HALLS OF FAITH 11/26/03
I declare My unending favor upon your life! Proven through the fires of testing and refining, you have been faithful to hold onto My Word. You believed Me in spite of everything speaking the opposite, and you held firmly onto Me. Dear one, in heaven your picture is forever mounted in the halls of faith. Your face shines with the radiant faith that not only carried you through rough times, but also brought you to Me on the wings of My Spirit. Even though you feel weak and unstable right now, I declare this, for it is already so in heaven.

I have placed a refuge deep within your foundation that shall not fail. My favor will never depart from you, no not ever. Although you do not understand this now, the walls of your faith are strengthened and reinforced with My favor. I will continue to reinforce your walls until you are no longer shaky, but set firmly in My favor. My favor keeps you, settles you and brings you into a much needed rest. My favor remains, and you will fear nothing because you abide deeply in Me. I AM always with you, I shall never depart or leave you abandoned on your own.

There will come a day when your faith shines so strong, that it shall be like a radiant beam of light. I will place opportunities before you and My Spirit shall rush through you with quickened bursts that shoot forth My anointing to those in need.

"What is faith? It is the confident assurance that what we hope for is going to happen. It is the evidence of things we cannot yet see. God gave his approval to people in days of old because of their faith. By faith we understand that the entire universe was formed at God's command, that what we now see did not come from anything that can be seen." (Heb 11:1-3 NLT)

"And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man." (Luke 2:52 KJV)

FOCUS AND CROSS PURPOSES 1/08/06

The intercessors are praying at cross purposes. Those who are focusing on warfare are facing the enemy perspectives and are headed towards colder weather. Those who are focusing towards Me are headed into warmer climate. As you gaze into the distance and consider your future, you shall receive exactly what you focus upon.

Wherever your focus is, there shall your heart be also. The days are growing darker, and deep darkness the people. Lift up your eyes. Consider that which is pure, honorable, true and lovely. Leave the darkness behind and turn towards Me, the light of your salvation. This will keep your disposition bright and lighter, as you journey closer to Me.

Deposit your treasures from what you focus upon - into My "goodness account". Your wealth will increase from the good deposits of prayers, faith, hope in the future and plans I have for you. You shall become radiant, My glory shall be seen upon you and many shall come to My light that shines within you.

Matt 6:21-23 NLT
Wherever your treasure is, there your heart and thoughts will also be. "Your eye is a lamp for your body. A pure eye lets sunshine into your soul. But an evil eye shuts out the light and plunges you into darkness. If the light you think you have is really darkness, how deep that darkness will be!

Isa 60:5 NKJV
Arise, shine; For your light has come! And the glory of the LORD is risen upon you. For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, And deep darkness the people; But the LORD will arise over you, And His glory will be seen upon you. 3 The Gentiles shall come to your light,And kings to the brightness of your rising. "Lift up your eyes all around, and see: They all gather together, they come to you; Your sons shall come from afar, And your daughters shall be nursed at your side. 5 Then you shall see and become radiant, And your heart shall swell with joy; Because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you, The wealth of the Gentiles shall come to you.

I WILL RESTORE THE YEARS

I WILL RESTORE THE YEARS

10/18/00

VISION - THE CATERPILLARS

In the early 80's, I had a vision of a massive army of crawling caterpillars climbing over mountains and valleys. Everywhere they touched left a trail of slime, and everything the slime touched left a gaping hole. I saw gaping holes in people. In a closer view I saw the army come upon a school. There were trails of slime in the hallways, on the ceilings, on the floors. It was seemingly impossible to get away from the slime. I was told the only way to avoid being touched by the slime was to exercise. I saw a group of people in a classroom vigorously doing calisthenics! It was quite unusual to see, but these people were being protected from the slime. As I stepped outside, the caterpillars were now gone but I could see the devastation they left behind.

The Lord gave me the following scriptures which are self explanatory and interpret the vision.

Acts 24:16 KJV

And herein do I EXERCISE myself, to have always a conscience void of offense toward God, and toward men.

Joel 1:4 KJV

That which the palmerworm hath left hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm hath left hath the caterpiller eaten.

Joel 2:25 KJV

And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpiller, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you.

VISION - RESTORING THE SHIP

In May of 98 I had a trance vision where I heard intercessory music going on behind a curtain. It was a medley of two songs. The first song was "Behold He Comes." The words were: "There shall be wars and rumors of war. Nation shall rise against nation. Because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. There shall be earthquakes, pestilence, distress of nations! Famine, signs in the sun, moon and stars!" The song turned into the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" with the words, "Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord. He is tramping out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored. He has loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword, His truth is marching on." [Words from Behold He Cometh! By Jerry Kirk (1967) and Battle Hymn of the Republic by Willliam Steffe (1852)]

While the music was playing, I saw an old vessel that was being resurrected from years and years of being buried in the earth. I realized that we were going backwards through time and I saw the layers of dust and dirt peel away and the ship appear as though it was rising above the rubble. As the ship appeared, it looked decayed and as I continued to watch, I saw the layers of rust and decay disappear and it returned to its brand new condition. It was now sitting on top of the earth looking brand new.

Behind the intercession curtain, I saw a clock on a wall and I knew it had something to do with the countdown to Y2K, and was told that there was a computer time chip that could be inserted that would help us go back in time and do this same thing to the ship. As I watched a repeat, the ship seemingly rose from the earth, and I realized that a blast of wind was blowing very, very hard upon the ground and blowing away layers and layers and years of dirt. As it blew away the layers, it made it appear that the ship was rising from the earth. This had happened the first time, but the first time was through intercession. This second time, I could see that the wind was a strong blast and appeared to literally happen.

However, the chip was left in a tad too long and the stripping process took it back to an elemental stage that looked like the primer coat of paint. It was a stage just prior to completion. I was somewhat alarmed at this. I woke with the impression that if the enemy had his way, he would try to take advantage of the stripping process and tear away what the Lord had restored.

These are the scriptures the Lord gave me at that time:

And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations. (KJV Isaiah 61: 4)

In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old: (KJV Amos 9:11)

After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up: (KJV Acts 15:16)

This year I have gone through a strong stripping: as in circumcision of the heart, the flesh, peeling away old dead layers to heal old wounds, and exposing generational sins to set me free from the past. In hindsight to this vision, I think the Y2K clock and the computer chip had to do with the timing of the stripping process. This year I have written several posts on different aspects of being stripped. From the many responses I received, many have been going through the same thing.

A warning as related to the computer chip being left in too long, is not to wallow in the process. The Lord has a specific time limit to this work and if the enemy could continue the process, it would turn into destructive things like shame, condemnation, fear, etc. When the Lord peels away our layers to expose our wounds, our sins, our failings, He does so to cleanse and make whole. The enemy does so to destroy.

Something I had not realized until just this week, as He brought back the memory of that wind basting away the layers on the ship, is that His intention in this stripping has been to RENEW us, to RESTORE us and bring us back from being underneath the years of enemy dirt and grime. In the midst of dust and dirt flying everywhere, all I had been thinking about this year was repentance and inner healing, but He had even more in mind. He wanted to resurrect painful truths, so that they could be healed in the right way, HIS WAY. He wanted to take us past the pain, and even past the healing, and INTO TOTAL RESTORATION OF ALL THAT WAS LOST. That will be mind boggling when we begin to realize how the revelation will begin to come to pass in our lives!

There are many applications to this revelation and to this work He is doing among us. One of them is the ship. Ship in prophetic language speaks of leadership. He is raising up His government and restoring something that has been buried a very long time. I perceive this goes all the way back to the leadership of the early church and extends into the present time. We have yet to know what His kingdom is to become ON THIS EARTH.

Today I received an email that reaffirmed what I had been thinking about the restoration process and this was very quickened to me so I want to pass it on:

ALL THINGS MADE NEW

A vision given to Debra-Louise debbcossu@juno.com

Revelation 21:5

"He who was seated on the throne said, 'I am making everything new!"

Vision:

I was in front of a large warehouse. Across the door was written: "Piece's Restored" As I went inside there was a myriad of all different kinds of boxes. Most like shoe boxes, some the type roses would be carried in, some cartons, and crates, and even coffins! They were all sizes and shapes and colors... Each box had a string that held it tied securely, and a tag with a picture of the contents. This was the largest warehouse I had ever seen, and it was full, with more boxes being brought in all the time....

I walked down the row I had begun, and FINALLY reached the end where there was a work table set up just inside the exit door. There stood the Lord, with tools laying all around Him, and a big vat of something very thick and sweet smelling. It contained a liquid that was a ruby red, very glossy and shiny. He had just completed what He had been working on, and turned it around for me to see. It was a beautiful Tiffany style lamp, unlike any on earth. He placed the tag that had come with it underneath the base of this beautiful lamp as His signature card. It was a picture of what had come into His hands from the box....Ugly and broken pieces of junk all jumbled and disorganized had been tossed into the box and cast aside. All of these boxes in the warehouse held similar contents of broken and discarded pieces, parts that were useless and unwanted or tossed aside.

Now that these contents had been made new, it was placed on a serving tray to be carried out the exit door. Above the exit door was written: 'Peace-is Restored."

Word of the Lord:

My peace I give to you. You have given Me the pieces of your life, and I make all things new.

Out of broken dreams will come the dream I have waiting just for you.

From destroyed hopes will come My hope fulfilled for many.

It is the blood I shed for you that is the very essence which has carried you through, and will keep you together for what lies ahead. Life is in the blood, and I restore life to you this day. My life poured out, will flood into you, and I will seal and secure the pieces brought to Me. Even those you withheld out of shame or pride, or a combination of both, I will mold into something beautiful to show forth My glory!

It is My love poured out that has filled in the empty places, and now holds all things made new. Even if you feel like some of the pieces are still missing, I declare to you this day that is just more space for My love to flood in and fill you. The varying sizes and shapes of the pieces do not matter in My hands, for as My blood, the blood of the covenant you have entered into with Me, seeps into the cracks and crevices of your life, every part will be held and molded in place.

Then, as each of you has been rebuilt and reconstructed, I shall form and fashion you together in ways that were not possible before you were broken and needed to be made anew.

Piece's Restored,

Peace is restored,

To you,

made new,

in My love.

To tie all these concepts together:

As a result of not following their conscience, the body of Christ has suffered gaping holes and loss. We are in pain, yet with the merciful promise of restoration of those years.

In the mean time, the Lord is bringing the earth through a great upheaval. Between spaces of rest, the labor pains grow stronger, and with each upheaval (like wars are rumors of wars) the Lord knocks on the door of the unrighteous. He wants to shake the world so that it is no longer settled in its own complacency and realizes its need for a supernatural God - Who alone has all the answers.

And within the shaking of that environment, He uses all events surrounding His church to peel away the layers of our own decay to brings us lovingly back to Him. It is for our TOTAL RESTORATION that He is doing this!

Acts 3:19-21 NKJV

Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that He may send Jesus Christ, who was preached to you before, whom heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, which God has spoken by the mouth of all His holy prophets since the world began.

Joel 2:28-29 KJV

And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

Lovingly,

Sandy

HIS CATAPULT - Need A Lift?

9/27/00

Hi Loved Ones,

In 1995 I had a vision of a catapult and I heard the Lord say that He was going to hurl me forward through time and space. That same week my son drew a picture of a battle scene where there were warriors fighting in the sky and on the ground. One of the warriors was being hurled through the air by a catapult. I was quite amazed as I looked at the various parts of the picture and realized how it identified with my life. The catapult certainly caught my interest as well as what the Lord had said but I was not sure exactly what it meant. Now I have more understanding.

There are many of us who have been in a long battle. In one way or another, most have become wounded in the fight. (These wounds are nothing to be ashamed of, for in the heavenlies they are like hero badges or medals of honor. As we rise again, and the Lord heals these wounds, they will become healing ground for others in the same place.) Some of the wounded have found themselves placed in situations that would best be called predicaments. It's called being stuck; unable to move forward, unable to move backward. And instead of the offensive stand against the enemy, their battle cry has become, "HELP GOD!" They have been stuck in this wounded place for a long time. They have wrestled and fought against the enemy, against their own pain and circumstance, and still not found a way out. It is in this place He prepares the catapult.

David prayed, "Deliver me from mine enemies, O my God: defend me from them that rise up against me." (Ps 59:1) That word deliver in the Hebrew (natsal) means to 'snatch away'. [Strong's #5337]

Paul said, "But the Lord stood with me and strengthened me, so that the message might be preached fully through me, and that all the Gentiles might hear. And I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. And the Lord will deliver me from every evil work and preserve me for His heavenly kingdom. To Him be glory forever and ever. Amen!" (2 Tim 4:17-18 NKJV) In this scripture, the Greek word for deliver (rhoumai) means to rush like a strong current of water, or draw out and rescue. [Strong's # 4506]

My last post spoke about a coming change and also a changing of the guards. There are many aspects of change that will work its way down through the body of Christ and into our personal lives. One of these changes will be deliverance. There are two kinds of deliverance. One is where our enemies are driven from us. The other is where we are snatched from them. We will see both kinds of deliverance in the days to come. However this post is about the latter.

If you find yourself stuck in a place and you are unable to find your way out, this is not a time to let go or give up in despair. Rather it is a time to seek His face, pray, cry out, press in and call upon the Lord like never before. A key buzz word that I am hearing a lot lately is, "Desperate." It is a time to ask, seek and knock until He answers. It is a time to press in. Some have become so used to waiting, and praying haphazardly from time to time, that they do not realize that the Lord is already making plans to snatch them out of "prison." And when they are snatched, they may be very surprised where they land…

Without our knowing it, expectation, preconceived ideas and presumption can sometimes keep us in "prison" and from receiving God's best. We have preconceived ideas of what the Lord is wanting to do for us, and therefore it keeps us from actually receiving what He is wanting us to step into. That is why He sometimes brings us to desperate places, so that we are willing to receive what He wants. He wants to give us good gifts but sometimes we become our own worst enemy and unintentionally resist Him.

The following is a precious story sent to me via email. It's one of those perfect quickened Words that the Lord fills with life. ("It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life." John 6:63 KJV)

"Kitten From Heaven"

A pastor had a kitten that climbed up a tree in his backyard and then was afraid to come down. The pastor coaxed, offered warm milk, etc. The kitty would not come down. The tree was not sturdy enough to climb, so the pastor decided that if he tied a rope to his car and drove away so that the tree bent down, he could then reach up and get the kitten. He did all this, checking his progress in the car frequently, then figured if he went just a little bit further, the tree would be bent sufficiently for him to reach the kitten. But as he moved a little further forward ... the rope broke.

The tree went "boing!" and the kitten instantly sailed through the air-out of sight. The pastor felt terrible. He walked all over the neighborhood asking people if they'd seen a little kitten. Nobody had seen a stray kitten. So, he prayed, "Lord, I just commit this kitten to Your keeping," and went on about his business. A few days later he was at the grocery store, and met one of his church members. He happened to look into her shopping cart and was amazed to see cat food. Now this woman was a cat hater and everyone knew it, so he asked her, "Why are you buying cat food when you hate cats so much?" She replied, "You won't believe this," and told him how her little girl had been begging her for a cat, but she kept refusing. Then a few days before, the child had begged again, so the Mom finally told her little girl, "Well, if the Lord gives you a cat, I'll let you keep it." She told the pastor, "I watched my child go out in the yard, get on her knees, and ask the Lord for a cat. And really, Pastor, you won't believe this, but I saw it with my own eyes. A kitten suddenly came flying out of the blue sky, with its paws spread out, and landed right in front of her."

CATAPULTED UP AND OVER

RHEMA 1/7/06: I think the following Word is the other end of the Word the Lord gave me the eve of the New Orleans flood. I did not know about the evacuation or the flood/ hurricane until after it hit. The eve before it was particularly strong upon me that we not hold back and stay in that complacent comfort zone, but be willing to MOVE into our deliverance.

http://www.thequickenedword.com/katrina.html

There were many applications to this, but the scripture that the Lord gave me that night was:

Col 1:12-13 KJV
Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son.

I feel strongly that we are now being hurled into that new place as we let go of reluctance and hesitation. Usually when the Lord talks to me, it is in parts and pieces. Often when I put the pieces together, they form a Word, or Word picture puzzle. Such was the case in our Sat PM pre-service prayer time. The following is the sequence of events.

PRE-SERVICE PRAYER:

HEARD: {As we were praying over pastor} The cream of the crop.

(Cream separates and rises to the surface. It was imparted to me that the Lord was sending His cream of the crop.)

PIX: Later as pastor was praying, he said the phrase, “Thank You Lord for translating us from the kingdom of darkness into the light.” I saw the action of being catapulted, or flung up and out of the darkness into a new place.

Col 1:13-14 NKJV
He has delivered us from the power of darkness and conveyed us into the kingdom of the Son of His love, in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins.

Col 1:13 AMP
[The Father] has delivered and drawn us to Himself out of the control and the dominion of darkness and has transferred us into the kingdom of the Son of His love…

TRANSLATED

NT:3179 methistemi (meth-is'-tay-mee); or (1 Cor 13:2) methistano (meth-is-tan'-o); from NT:3326 and NT:2476; to transfer, i.e. carry away, depose or (figuratively) exchange, seduce:

KJV - put out, remove, translate, turn away.

(Biblesoft's New Exhaustive Strong's Numbers and Concordance with Expanded Greek-Hebrew Dictionary. Copyright © 1994, 2003 Biblesoft, Inc. and International Bible Translators, Inc.)

HEARD: Dare to dream big.

IMPRESSION: I was thinking about there are 2 kinds of faith. Each man has been given a measure of faith and that grows line upon line, as we hear and receive His Words and are confirmed. The other kind of faith is the gift of faith and it can come upon us as in a visitation, for special thrusting times of proclamation, or moving from one place to another. The gift of faith can also descend like a mantle and operate in people's lives who walk in power prayer or power proclamation and or deliverance. It was imparted to me as I was thinking about this, that the catapult was the gift of faith, separating from the darkness and rising over the circumstances.

CONFIRMATION: After prayer, one of the intercessors shared that the Lord wanted to bless us if we could receive it through faith.

CONFIRMATION: Another intercessor prayed that there would be a launching pad put into position. I felt a launching pad can be just like a catapult.

BLOOPER: Then pastor was pacing back and forth praying again, and his shoe snagged the carpet and he did a little skip to overcome that and not fall.

PIX: I immediately saw a hopscotch and an open door at the end of the hopscotch grid.

SONG OF THE LORD: Then I began singing a prayer about One, two, three, four, skip and hop through that door. The door is open, the door is set, don't be worried, and please don't fret. Simply hop and skip right through that door. I have good things planned galore.

HEARD: Jabez

1 Chron 4:9-10 NKJV
Now Jabez was more honorable than his brothers, and his mother called his name Jabez , saying, "Because I bore him in pain." And Jabez called on the God of Israel saying, "Oh, that You would bless me indeed, and enlarge my territory, that Your hand would be with me, and that You would keep me from evil, that I may not cause pain!" So God granted him what he requested.

HEARD: As I was praying over this Word on the way home, I heard, "Reluctance. Bold faith." So I yielded all reluctance, any hesitation and bound any demonic influence of that in my own life. I repented for holding back on Him with reluctance and loosed bold faith to replace all reluctance in Jesus Name.

HEARD 1/10/06: The gift of faith. Launch pad.

==========

CONCLUSION

==========

{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration.}

WORD TO PONDER: CATAPULTING YOU INTO ENLARGEMENT 1/07/06

Yes, dear one, you have suffered pain in your birthing, but I have heard your prayer that you want to be blessed and be a blessing and be kept from pain and evil as you move into new places.

There are times when you walk forward taking careful steps of faith, as I carefully build confirmations and you find your way. There are times when you need a strong helping hand to jettison you past the impediments. Wonderful plans I have for you, as you spring forth into enlarged territories. I AM catapulting you up and over the places that have held you in confinement. I will uphold you as you overcome the stumbling stones so that you not fall.

Dare to dream big. Give all reluctance to Me. Don't let what you see around you become your boundaries and limits. Instead see the wide expanse in the distance. Expect Me to visit you and translate you up and out of what impedes you so that it will forever be behind you. As you prepare your heart for those special times of visitation, when I catapult your faith into a higher place, you will be prepared and willing. Then with glee, you will participate with My genuine joy as I hurl you right up over the top into climax and fruition of My Word. Go for it, dear one, and all heaven shouts with you!

Col 1:13-14 NKJV
He has delivered us from the power of darkness and conveyed us into the kingdom of the Son of His love, in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins.

1 Chron 4:9-10 NKJV
Now Jabez was more honorable than his brothers, and his mother called his name Jabez , saying, "Because I bore him in pain." And Jabez called on the God of Israel saying, "Oh, that You would bless me indeed, and enlarge my territory, that Your hand would be with me, and that You would keep me from evil, that I may not cause pain!" So God granted him what he requested.

DELIVERANCE WITH HANDS

RHEMA 9/27/00 HE TEACHES MY HANDS TO WAR

A couple years ago when Mahesh was speaking about the glory train coming down the tracks and he asked if you could feel the vibrations. I felt the ground rumble beneath my feet, enter them, go up my legs into an eruption that made my tennis shoes stamp the ground back and forth and my hands so chopping motions. I was very embarrassed when this happened, especially my sitting on the 2nd row. Since then I do not do this very often, but sometimes in warfare it comes upon me when I am especially feeling His Presence in prayer meetings.

Today at prayer meeting pastor's wife was sitting next to me. I did not know she had a headache and she silently prayed, “Lord why won't this headache go away?” A moment later the spirit came upon me and I did the warrior gesture with my hands and arms whirling. She was astounded as the pain left exactly at that moment. She told me about this later. I was amazed.

The sad part is that when it hits me, it is totally involuntary and I don't make it happen. So although it is very supernatural with deliverance attached, it is not something to call out at will like using our authority. I was blessed though to hear about this confirmation.

2 Sam 22:35
35 He teacheth my hands to war; so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

Ps 144:1
144:1 Blessed be the LORD my strength, which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight:

RHEMA 12/15/00: FREEDOM

DREAM: EXPERIENCING NEW WAYS TO DO DELIVERANCE
There was something that a lady needed set free from. I started prophetically doing chopping movements in front of her chest. I literally felt demonic resistance against my hands and then it left. Then she did a big yawn and was delivered from the demonic that had her bound.

VISION: I was yelling out from the depths of my being, out into the open skies. I was yelling, 'FREEEEEEEEEDOM!"

HEARD: You can handle this? Graduation. What does this mean? It means you are free.

2 Sam 22:35 NKJV
He teaches my hands to make war, so that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

MAKING ROOM FOR CHANGE

9/9/00

Hi Loved Ones,

This week two Words came to me that were significant and I want to share them with you. One was, "A change is coming." The other was, "A changing of the guards." When the Lord breathes upon His Words, there are as many applications as there are people to apply them. His Word is alive and bears witness at so many levels that we can barely touch the surface. However, I would like to share with you what these Words mean to me, in hopes that it will touch and encourage some of you.

This year the Lord gave Bobby Conner a Word that said something like, "Brace yourselves, the hand of God is coming down to uproot everything He has not planted, in order to establish His government." This has proven true in my life, for it is as though He has been peeling away layers of old, dead and buried things. I made mention to this in 4 other postings this year. (Circumcision at Gilgal, stripping Lazarus' grave clothes, and peeling away band-aides and barnacles.) As He carefully exposed old wounds it was as though He gave me a 2nd chance to respond to them appropriately with forgiveness when necessary, and also personal repentance. He has even taken me back to my foundations before I was born, to repent for the sins of my ancestors.

Sometimes when we are in the midst of a cleansing process, the enemy confuses us, and we are overcome by dirt and grime and can't see the forest through the trees. I was ready for a change. I have a friend who has been house cleaning after years of collection, and has taken several trips to the dump. I kept telling her the Lord was removing the garbage from her life, so that she could have room for the new when it comes. She had a dream this week that was quickened to me concerning a prophetic experience I'd just had.

In the dream she saw this horse running around whinnying to all the animals in the field. It was beautifully free as it shook its head. Then in the next scene she saw this huge, pile of excess baggage being carted off. Above and below the baggage were moving captions like on the tail end of a movie. She kept trying to read the captions, but they were moving too fast to read them.

I felt the Lord was saying that we were trying to focus on the old garbage, and it was already being removed. We wanted to linger and figure it all out, but He was already moving on towards this coming change. A few days ago, I was feeling quite slimed from the enemy. I was more upside down then right side up, after having so many layers removed this year. This brought me to a place where I was starting to flinch… Sometimes when we go through a great battle, we come out the other end, gun shy and jumping at the least little thing. That is how I was feeling. So this strange experience occurs….

I was at my desk and needed to go to the restroom. I grabbed my reading glasses to put them on my desk. My hand was in midair before I realized my glasses were not on my face. I stared at my empty hand, wondering why I would do such a strange thing and started to giggle. A couple minutes later in the restroom I grabbed the toilet paper and pulled it down. Only the toilet paper is not there either! My husband had torn out the bathroom floor a few days before (layers peeled away, exposing foundations) and the toilet paper roll had not yet been remounted on the wall. I stared at my empty hand and laughed as I understood the Word of the Lord, given to me with such clarity.

WORD TO PONDER

"I have removed the old dead layers in your life. I did not expose them for you to linger over them. They are GONE. They are but filthy rags and they are GONE. You are still trying to see though old lenses, but they are GONE. You are shadow boxing with nothing. They are GONE. You are wincing. They are GONE. You are trying to figure it all out. They are GONE. Your past is GONE. Yes, it takes time for you to make the adjustment while old patterns repeat themselves. But you will soon see they are just empty motions.

For I have brought you into a new place. A place of freedom. A place of purity, where the dry rot of flesh has been purged, where the smelly places have been removed. You remember the shame, the filth, the slime, and yet I have already installed a new foundation beneath your feet. It is already in place and you have yet to realize it.

Even now, I want to bring a new change to your door. Places where you have been the tail, I will make you the head. And where you have been trampled upon by the enemy, you will suddenly rise and place him beneath you. The enemy thought he could take advantage of what I have been stripping in your life. But I AM Sovereign and nothing, no not anything shall by any means hurt you! I AM the Master Surgeon, and I restore, making all things beautiful. Fear not, for I have done a good thing. Let the past go, remove it. For now I bring to you My change. If you wince and stay buried in the past, it hinders this new thing I want to do in your midst. Rejoice with Me, and laugh hilariously, for all of heaven laughs with Me as we see the enemy beneath your feet.

"The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us. He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision." Ps 2:2-4 KJV

[end of Word to Ponder]

So how does this fit with a changing of the guards? I believe this powerful change is going to filter down from the very top levels of government to the very bottom of our personal lives. In the spiritual realm, in the places where we have stood in the heat of battle, where we have earnestly interceded and humbly repented, we are going to see long standing, territorial enemy occupations being moved away and these places suddenly being occupied by angels. The ramifications of such will filter down through every area of life. He is moving out the old, making room for the new. He is cleaning the filthy house, to fill it with His righteousness. He is removing the dross and keeping the gold. He is blowing away the chaff to harvest the grain.

"But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears?

For He is like a refiner's fire and like launderer's soap. He will sit as a refiner and a purifier of silver; He will purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer to the LORD an offering in righteousness." (Mal 3:2-3 NKJV)

Even so, come Lord and do Your work among us.

Lovingly,

Sandy

FOLLOWING HIS PRESENCE INTO REST

I had been searching for the right church and had finally found one where I was content. Then issues began to surface and I became very disheartened. At the heart of my agony, I cried out, "The Lord has no place in which to lay His head, and neither do I !!!!" I was in such deep pain after so many years of prayer and search.

> Matt 8:19-20 NLT
> Then one of the teachers of religious law said to him, "Teacher, I will follow you no matter where you go!" But Jesus said, "Foxes have dens to live in, and birds have nests, but I, the Son of Man, have no home of my own, not even a place to lay my head."

Luke 2:7 NKJV
And she brought forth her firstborn Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

Luke 2:12-14 NKJV
And this will be the sign to you: You will find a Babe wrapped in swaddling cloths, lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying: "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, goodwill toward men!"

Today at church I was still so overcome by the Lord's Presence, all I could do during the entire worship, no matter how bouncy and fast or slow and holy the music, was to lay my head on the chair in front of me. I was totally and completely in deep weighty rest. I could not even lift my hands, they were too heavy.

On the way home, I heard the Lord tell me I had found a place in which to lay my head. And I suddenly realized what I had done on the chair in front of me. I did not know it, but Grandma Anna next to me was in the same condition. Only she had slumped down with her head resting on the back of her chair. It was a true sign of confirmation. Tears come even now as I think of it. After all these years of searching, I have found my resting place. My place is in the Lord's Presence. Where His Presence rests, so will I. He is all that matters.

2 Chron 5:13-14 NKJV
…indeed it came to pass, when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD, and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying: "For He is good, For His mercy endures forever," that the house, the house of the LORD, was filled with a cloud, so that the priests could not continue ministering because of the cloud; for the glory {3519} of the LORD filled the house of God.

NOTE; The glory of the Lord has a deep, weighty rest that hovers, overshadows and rests, especially in corporate worship. The word glory in the OT meant weighty and glorious.

GLORY - HEBREW

OT:3519 kabowd (kaw-bode'); rarely kabod (kaw-bode'); from OT:3513; properly, weight, but only figuratively in a good sense, splendor or copiousness: -glorious (-ly), glory, honour (-able).

OT:3513

OT:3513 kabad (kaw-bad'); or kabed (kaw-bade'); a primitive root; to be heavy, (numerous, rich, honorable; causatively, to make weighty)

INEBRIATED IN THE HOLY SPIRIT

HOME GROUP 9/8/00: INEBRIATED

One of the couples shared their video from 94 Tornoto. Mahesh was there giving his testimony. He said he had been all around the world, seen 25,000 people saved at once, seen the dead raised… and yet never experienced the holy Presence of God like that. He kept leaning over at the waist, with a groaning sound, and yet still trying to talk though it. He was baring down as though giving birth. It was so liberating to see him do this, and he kept saying, I don't normally talk or act like this! He said last night he tried to give his testimony and felt it didn't make much sense, since he couldn't talk very good and so he was trying again. We laughed and laughed since he wasn't able to talk much. It shook off our layers of shame in being ridiculed. Praise Him!

Jer 30:6 NKJV
Ask now, and see, Whether a man is ever in labor with child? So why do I see every man with his hands on his loins Like a woman in labor, And all faces turned pale?

Acts 2:15-17 NKJV
For these are not drunk , as you suppose, since it is only the third hour of the day. 16 But this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel: 17'And it shall come to pass in the last days, says God, That I will pour out of My Spirit on all flesh;

Look forward to those times when you can worship Me with others. It is a privilege and a blessing to gather in My Name. When you gather with others to worship Me, there is a great stirring in the heavenlies. The corporate power of worship is a mighty blend of all that is good. Feel the anticipation, as the praise begins. Be lightened, as the angels go forth with liberating touches. Be quickened, as the Holy Spirit falls upon open, willing vessels. Be delighted, as I endue you with My power. Feel the surge, as unified voices speak the blessed name of Jesus. Rejoice, as darkness flees in terror. Be glad, for delivered lives who will never be the same.

If your life is dry, one way to find My Presence may be to change locations. Find the watering places where the corporate worship is filled with unabashed fervor. I spring forth as an oasis to those thirsty for My Presence. Gather at the watering holes and I will meet you there. In these last days, My power will be so awesome in those places that to merely stand in such a place will refresh your soul. Worship is your love for Me, but worship also releases the power of My Spirit to do great things for you. I dwell in the midst of your praise.

"Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee." (Hebrews 2:12)

GOD SPEAKS THROUGH QUICKENED SIGNS
WRITTEN ON OUR HEARTS 8/24/00

QUICKENED SIGN: Gut instinct. Years of research. Same decision.

Today while I was praying over discernment issues, I drove past a new freeway billboard. It said, “Gut instinct. Years of research. Same decision.” I felt this could be interpreted that even if I attended years of meetings and did years of research that it would end up being the same conclusion as just my original gut level instinct in things I discern.

> Rom 2:15-16 NKJV
> ...who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and between themselves their thoughts accusing or else excusing them)...
> Rom 2:15 AMP
> They show that the essential requirements of the Law are written in their hearts and are operating there, with which their consciences (sense of right and wrong) also bear witness; and their [moral] decisions (their arguments of reason, their condemning or approving thoughts) will accuse or perhaps defend and excuse [them]..

QUICKENED WORDS: [from billboard] Never drive faster than your guardian angel can fly.

QUICKENED SIGN: The definition of a laugh: A smile that has burst.

COMMENT: I was reminded of a Word I'd received from the Lord several years ago. I heard Him say, "Burst through the door laughing!" I can see that it was a literal promise for now in the bursting forth in the birth of His Isaac generation. (Isaac means laughter.)

> Gen 17:17-18 NKJV
> Then Abraham fell on his face and laughed , and said in his heart, "Shall a child be born to a man who is one hundred years old? And shall Sarah , who is ninety years old, bear a child?"
> Gen 21:4-7 NKJV
> Now Abraham was one hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him. 6 And Sarah said,"God has made me laugh , and all who hear will laugh with me." 7 She also said, "Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? For I have borne him a son in his old age."

I AM A P PERSON

QUICKENED SIGN: Today on the way home from church there was a license plate that said “P Lady.” Then her bumper sticker said, “On the last trump I'm outta here!”

It reminded me of the precious song: “I am a Promise, I am a Possibility, I am a Promise, with a capital P. I am a great big bundle of Potentiality. And I am tryin' to hear God's voice, and I am tryin' to make the right choice. I am a great big bundle of Potentiality.”

RHEMA 3/8/02 SIGNS OF LOVE JUST FOR YOU

QUICKENED SIGN: Today Wayne & I went to the public market to find the bubble wands. We walked into a unique garden store and there were some homemade house signs. Wayne had a big smile on his face and called me over and I read this:

1625 S. Warner Street

> OT:1625

gerah (gay-raw'); from OT:1641; the cud (as scraping the throat):
KJV - cud.

NT:1625
ektrepho (ek-tref'-o); from NT:1537 and NT:5142; to rear up to maturity, i.e. (genitive case) to cherish or train:
KJV - bring up, nourish.

I was reminded of the question that Wayne asked me a few weeks ago, and that was what I thought I was called for, sent for, or the reason I got up every day. I told him it was the Word the Lord told me long ago, “Have fun raising the children.” I told him that I felt that meant feeding the children and teaching them how God speaks.

WORD TO PONDER: A SIGN WAITING FOR YOU 3/8/02
I have given you signs that point your way in a fallen world. Listen to My voice, for it shall suddenly speak in the most unlikely places. It is there as you listen that you will know My tangible love and remember My love for you. I have many wonderful delights waiting for you in your daily journeys, if you take time to listen. In these surprises I will give you food to ponder that will strengthen and nourish you along the way.

“Yet your teachers will not be moved into a corner anymore, but your eyes shall see your teachers. Your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, "This is the way, walk in it," Whenever you turn to the right hand or whenever you turn to the left.” (Isa 30:20-21 NKJV)

ROLE MODELS
QUICKENED SIGN: Watch your step. Everyone else does.

LEARN TO READ THE SIGNS 5/02/04

HEARD: Leader. How to read the signs. Train him. Validated. I will go with you. Trainbow.

QUICKENED SIGN: Excellent visibility and ready to develop.

HEARD: A language of the heart and not the brain.

QUICKENED SIGN: Revolutionary? Life changing? Absolutely.

RHEMA 8/12/00 ONLY LOVE CAN MAKE A MIRACLE

DREAM: I was sent to 2 children. One was crippled by arthritis and could not walk. The other was in a coma. I held them both and said, "Jesus loves you." My heart was overflowing with great love and compassion for them. I literally felt the Lord's Presence and love pour out upon and through me even though this was in a dream.

I had carried the little girl with arthritis up to the front of a meeting where they were taking communion. After hugging her tenderly but deeply, I said Jesus loves you!" Then I took one grape for her and asked the Lord for His mercy and to heal her. Then I handed her own grape for communion. As soon as she took it she popped down out of my arms to try out her healing. She was running around like a happy bouncy child saying it didn't hurt. I was dumbfounded and said, "Only love can make a miracle."

The 2nd child was in a hospital bed and I could not tell if she was dead or in a coma. I gently touched her with the tip of my prophetic finger and said, "Be healed." She woke up and was healed. After her healing, I realized that every one of us are children, not just the little people and that His love for us is tender and gentle towards our sicknesses.

> Isa 53:4-6 NLT
> Yet it was our weaknesses he carried; it was our sorrows that weighed him down. And we thought his troubles were a punishment from God for his own sins! 5 But he was wounded and crushed for our sins. He was beaten that we might have peace. He was whipped, and we were healed! 6 All of us have strayed away like sheep. We have left God's paths to follow our own. Yet the LORD laid on him the guilt and sins of us all.
> 1 Cor 11:26 NKJV

He took bread; 24 and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "Take, eat; this is My body which is broken for you; do this in remembrance of Me." 25 In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood . This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me." 26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death till He comes.

7/29/00 RAINING FRESH OIL

QUICKENED CONFIRMATION: During worship I found myself doing something with my fingers and arms. As a background to this, we used to sing, “Let Your mercy fall from heaven” and I used to do this movement where my arms moved from heaven down, and my fingers were fluttering like little rain drops, or the movement of typing or playing a keyboard. Anyway, I found myself doing this during worship and saying, “Rain Your glory, Rain Your Presence, Rain Your Oil!”

Each and every time I did this movement, as soon as my arms swept down, I would get a fresh wave of His Presence. It felt like waves of hot oil moving down my arms and back and was awesome!

I was quite surprised when at the conference I saw Mahesh minister to a lady in front of me and do the same exact movement with his arms and hands, moving up and down in front of her!

QUICKENED CONFIRMATION: As I was standing in the prayer line waiting for Mahesh, when he was 2 people away from me, I heard the Lord shout, “FIRE!” Then less than a microsecond later Mahesh shouted, “Fire!” and the lady went down.

MAHESH IMPARTATIONS: This got my attention, so when he came to the next lady who was next to me, his voice changed and said, “Relax.” Immediately I realized that I was very hyper in my heart because of expectation. Last year when he prayed for me I got plugged into His power like voltage and then afterwards I shook for 5 days every time I heard the Word of the Lord!

So I relaxed as when he spoke this, as it was like a balm of peace flushing over my spirit and soul. Then the lady had moved back a little and he stepped forward to touch her. His shoulder was actually touching mine, side by side. I was amazed that I was still standing. I thought of the government of God as our shoulders connected. Then he said, “He is your Daddy and wants to give you good gifts. He wants to give you the desires of your heart.” I was swooning by this time, with the love of God sweeping all over me, receiving this as a precious Word from Him. Then he moved onto me. He touched both of my hands and said, “Fresh Oil!” I felt it sweep upon me, and said, “Yes Lord!” I continued to stand and was amazed that I could stand. As I moved away, my legs were staggering, but I could walk.

RHEMA 7/13/00 RELEASING THE ANGELS BY OUR FAITH

HEARD: Transition. Reluctant. Making some decisions. Wrestle. Move forward. Graduating.

Help us where we're going. Along the path. Angels. Every other one, a protecting one. We got you covered. 20 manifesting. Robust, radiant. Shoulder to shoulder. Warring angels. Big, we're big.

> [Then I heard something about the demonic world and at this point I bound the enemy and stopped listening, my faith was shaking as I had been so dumped on that I was not sure if what I heard at that point was from the enemy or the angels talking.]

DREAM: I was being chased by a demonic bad guy and I ran to the federal building and locked the doors before he could get in. Then I realized he could get in through another door, so I pushed the panic button and no one could go in or out. At that moment that I pushed the button, it was also a change of guards and all the people (angels) in the building were supposed to leave for a change of shifts. They were not allowed to leave because I had pushed the button. The security guard who saw this, was concerned and said, "Do you realize the same thing happened last time during the intercession?"

When I woke I realized that the dream had something to do with my refusing to listen any more, for concern it was not the Lord. I realized that the angels were those locked in and out and could not have free access and that the changing of the guards was the change in season for me, graduating. The dream told me that my faith allowed the angels free access to come and go on assignment, but when I clammed up, this put all under lock and key and they had to wait.

CONFIRMATION: At today's prayer meeting I kept hearing these funny noises behind me saying, “Ugh, ugh, ugh.” One of our intercessors was behind me intending to lay her hands on me and kept trying to break through a few feet from my back. Every time she reached out, she could only get so far. So she said, "I can only get this far, I can't break through."

I immediately remembered the dream about the angels under lock and key. I passionately said outloud, “Lord I open the door, I open the door, I loose the angels to go forth in Jesus Name!” I don't think she understood any of this, and I never explained!

Ps 103:20-22 NKJV
Bless the LORD, you His angels, Who excel in strength, who do His word, Heeding the voice of His word. Bless the LORD, all you His hosts, You ministers of His, who do His pleasure. Bless the LORD, all His works, In all places of His dominion. Bless the LORD, O my soul!

1 John 4:19 NKJV
There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in love.

RHEMA 7/12/00 THOSE PATHETIC GLASSES

VERY FUNNY JOKE: Today I sent out the post on the QW that we have access. I felt it was a simple one and not that good. I was also thinking that I am not very prophetic like others who have lots of visions and give prophetic Words, etc. I was wishing I could see more visions as I love visions and I love stories.

Then after I sent it out, I took off my glasses and they got twisted in my hair. The thin wires got bent in the process and when I laid them down on my desk they were all warped. I said rather emphatically, “This has got to be the most pathetic looking pair of glasses I have ever seen!” No sooner did I state that, but I heard a VERY LOUD AND EMPHATIC voice say back to me,

HEARD: “Is THAT what you've been thinking!!!!”

Then I suddenly GOT it, and I laughed and laughed. He was comparing my twisted glasses with my own perceptions of my simple minded prophetic giftings!!!! I had been thinking that the prophetic lenses that I see through are pathetic!

HEARD: There's grace for you.

TENACITY TO HIS THRONE

Hi Loved Ones,

Spiritually speaking, we are living in exciting and volatile times and truly the righteous of the past yearned to see and hear the things we see and hear from the Lord. (Luke 10:24) These generations before us planted their seeds via intercession and warfare, and WE are the living fruit of their harvest. Their prayers and overcomings are planted in the foundations of our own lives and now we are able to travel greater distances in the Lord, because of their faithfulness. I am deeply grateful for all those who bore the heat of the day and paved a way for us. People are now hearing Him, seeing visions, being taught through dreams, and experiencing His power and Presence in awesome ways.

One door that is now wide open is prayer. This year in particular, God is calling and rallying the hearts of His people to pray. We have been given ACCESS. The Lord is so desperate for our prayers that He hears even the fleeting thoughts of our desires and hopes— and turns them into prayers. He so loves us and wants to give us good gifts!

It is interesting that my husband, without knowing the subject of this post, just commented that several times lately the Lord has asked him a question. Wayne had been pondering this and considering why the Lord would ask this. The Lord asked him, "What do you want?"

The quickened question gave me Holy Spirit goose-bumps. I could think of no greater honor than for the Lord to ask this. The Lord brought to memory the scriptures where Esther was given audience before the King's throne. The King asked her THREE different times, "What is your petition?"

Est 5:6 "And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.

Est 7:2

And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom.

Est 9:12

Now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

The Lord asked this same question to Solomon:

2 Chron 1:7

In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

Both Solomon and his dad, David, were acquainted with what it meant to have access to a king's throne, and to be granted requests. This was part of their own duties as king. When David wrote the following Psalm, he spoke the Word of the Lord, understanding the love of a Father for His successor Son:

Ps 2:7-8

I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee. ASK OF ME, AND I SHALL GIVE THEE the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

And so I pass on this encouragement to us all, that our Heavenly Father waits for our attendance before His throne. He waits for us to come to Him. He waits for us to pour out our hearts so that He can answer! He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him. He promised: "Keep on asking, and you will be given what you ask for. Keep on looking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened. For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And the door is opened to everyone who knocks. You parents--if your children ask for a loaf of bread, do you give them a stone instead? Or if they ask for a fish, do you give them a snake? Of course not! If you sinful people know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give good gifts to those who ask him." (Matt 7:7-11 NLT)

Two more interesting tid-bits to writing this post. I started it on 7/11, which is personally special because my family has a long line of wonderful stories connecting to the above Matt 7:11. Now today as I am finishing, my husband just put today's mail on my desk. On the outside of an envelope it says, "Find the answers in answered prayers!" The Lord is very serious, He wants us to pray and to seek Him. He has given us ACCESS!

The following is a vision from Annie Schisler. I believe that the fulfillment of this vision is now. She is one of our intercessors who bore a great battle to pave a way for us. She was given this vision in the 70's.

THE DIFFERENT ENTRANCES

"Today again there was a time of great opposition and I fought and fought in prayer but still could not get through or find the way in. It seemed that all hell was allied against me. Everything was in vain. Praise, prayer, rebuking the enemy, singing the songs of victory. Nothing that had worked before seemed to help at all. I thought that I would never be able to get through this swarm of evil hosts that surrounded me whose shadowy forms I could even see as they hurled their thoughts of fear and doubt at me ceaselessly. I would throw them out and they would crowd in again. I wondered if I would ever be able to press through that horde of evil beings that seemed so determined to hold me out. Yet I knew that He had promised me entrance and had put it entirely into my will: that if I was determined enough I could get through. So I pressed on. Finally after several hours of battle He came in great mercies.

Again before me I saw that most wonderful and welcome sight. Oh, how beautiful it was! I was drawn closer and it seemed even larger in all that shadowy darkness that surrounded it. It made all the false shadows show up even more clearly and I could see their intense activity of hindrance. At last it was there - the glorious cross of light. My soul leaped with joy within me and I relaxed within, for I knew now that I was very near unto Him whom my soul loves!

As I passed through that shining cross of purest light, His voice came to me rebuking all my fears. Oh, what a relief! Then He took me unto Himself in the wondrous splendor of that mighty Cloud of glory. I felt so fully rewarded. Nothing of the battle seemed to matter any longer. As I rested there in the silken cocoon of divine love that flowed out from Him in ever continuing waves, I felt it had all been so worth while.

As the cloud-river of tangible love flowed over me enclosing me and enfolding me in itself, it washed away all my wounds in its shining flow. He told me of His love and continued watch care over me, saying everything just the opposite of all that the enemy had been saying to me as I had tried to reach Him. When He spoke away all the doubts the enemy had tried to sow, faith, real and strong, flooded my being again and I was no more afraid.

He showed me Himself in a great building as it were, only no building was there. Into that great place where He dwells there were many, many entrances which were all different. Each one was like a different door with a different pathway leading up to it. All the doors of light were guarded by His great angels; yet they were not doors and they were not closed. All around were regions of light filled with the glory of the Lord.

He explained to me that all of these were entrances into His presence and each one was different. "There are a very great number of them and I am teaching you the various entrances. That is why you are having to go through such a variety of experiences and why it is sometimes easy and sometimes difficult to find your way through unto Me. But it is very necessary that I teach you the many entrances, for the day will come when you must bring many others through these entrances with you. Therefore it is necessary that I teach you at this time the many different entrances into My presence."

His words brought me great comfort and release for I understood the reasons for the strange battles; before they had seemed so senseless and without any reason at all."

[end of vision]

For those of you interested, Bob Jones said in 10/98, "The Lord has been instructing me to go back and look at the bread that had been stored back in the 70's. As I checked that old bread, or revelation, I discovered that this bread was as fresh today as it was the day it was "placed upon the shelf." The Lord is saying that He has stored bread (hidden manna) that He is about to release in this day and that bread is as fresh today as when it was first put away."

In the 1970's I was given a set of 4 books which were Annie's Visions. She was given a series of experiences where she was taken to the 3rd heaven numerous times. The books are a rare treasure of her throne room visitations and have been proven many times over as I study them, and as the Lord brings me confirmations via scripture as well as testimonies of others who have visited His awesome throne. All four books have been merged into two books, reprinted and are now available at my site. I highly recommend them for anyone wanting to understand more about the heavenlies and how they relate to what the Lord is doing in our personal lives on earth.

May He give us the tenacity to pray, to seek Him, and the joy of His answers!

Lovingly,

Sandy

WONDERFUL QUOTES FROM JACK DEERE'S TAPE: JUDGMENT

http://jackdeere.com/

• When does an evaluation become a judgment? It becomes judgment when it has no mercy and takes away the hope.

• If we see someone do something wrong and anger rises up in our hearts, it is almost always judgment.

• If we see someone doing something wrong and prayer rises up in our hearts, that is right and acceptable.

• We don't close our eyes to it. Love and judgment see the same sins, but they have different attitudes.

• If you see someone you really love do something wrong, you want to help them by praying for them.

• Mercy triumphs over judgment.

• Judgment robs us of joy and the joy of our salvation. You will never see a book called the happy Pharisee. They were the judges and they will never be happy. They are always preoccupied with the negative and critical.

• Judgment guarantees we will be judged, causes us to live in the past and robs us of joy. Judgment grieves and offends the Lord.

• If all you have is discipline, it will either leave you bitter or a Pharisee. You must have the passion and love side of the Lord too. Serving Him out of discipline only is death. You must have a passion for a person, greater than performance.

~ THE KEYS TO UNDERSTANDING THE MYSTERIES ~

VISION 6/10/05: I was traveling and suddenly I turned my head towards a man with a cell phone. My spirit recognized him and I smiled at him and he smiled back a beautiful and radiant loving smile. I immediately recognized he was an angel. He called me on his cell phone and said, "Do I know you?" I said, "That depends on whether you love Jesus Christ or not." He said, "I'll be right back, I can give you special access. Let me go check and see."

I had the impression he was going to ask permission to share a gift with me. Then I saw a conveyor belt coming from a place of hidden treasures and the belt was on an incline as though flowing down to those who were waiting to receive. The conveyor belt had special stone keys on them shaped like elongated and enlarged dominoes with strange writing on them. I recognized them as miniature rosetta stones. They were keys to help understand the mysteries and hidden rhema.

[I said, Thank You Papa, I would very much like this gift.] HEARD: You may enter. Click.

IMPRESSION: It was impressed upon me that the "click" was the rosetta stone being used as a key to unlock the mysteries. The rosetta stone was the special access into buried treasures.

EXPERIENCE: I felt something being placed into my hand.

HEARD: Purpose. Unlock.
IMPRESSION: I had the impression that my hand was inserting into something and turning it to the right, like a key.

THE CELL PHONE: I was also tickled that the angel was using the cell phone. I have had much rhema in the past about the Lord calling me on the phone, as in hearing. When I am too busy, I hear the busy signal and I have heard the Lord say to pick up the phone. Sometimes I have dreamed the Lord is calling me and I pick up the phone and He starts talking to me. This particular one was a special joyful parable.

A few days ago, I just got my brand new, super duper, pocket PC cell phone. I have wanted my own personal cell phone for years. And to have it as my PPC also is totally awesome. There is so much love to have that hidden little detail enclosed in the vision. The last couple days, every time Wayne would call me on my new cell phone, I was so excited because it was like getting a love kiss from my husband just to hear it ring. He would even call me from the other end of the house! I had taken a minute of one of Andre Lefebvre's songs, called Wedding Day, and turned it into a cell phone ring and downloaded it onto my PPC. When the cell phone rings, it rings that song. When the Lord talks to us, and we answer Him and hear His voice, it is wedding bliss. So precious!

I also found something in the back of one of my Bibles about the rosetta stone. It was the original piece that helped crack the code to deciphering the mysteries of the unknown language.

GRANDMA ANNA DREAM 3/30/86

DREAM: Sandy and I had traveled to the holy City and had come back to leave markers for those who wanted to follow. There was a large book which had TRAVAIL written in big letters across it in blue. We propped it up on something and placed three sets of markers along side of it, pointing to where to go. Three of the pointers were arrows with shafts, three were rods or sticks and some I don't remember.

One marker was some kind of a flat, strange, oblong rock with some kind of writing on it about six inches long and 4 inches wide which was also part of the markers. I had found it exposed lying face up on the path where I was walking. I left it at a library where it could be documented and guarded. Later we thought about it and decided to move the markers. We placed them at a cross road where they could be more easily seen.

THE ROSETTA STONE
Fireside Chat with Bob Jones
By Paul Keith Davis
http://www.whitedoveministries.org/

This past New Year's Eve while in a conference in Charlotte NC, Bob had a divine encounter that produced an unusual but compelling revelation. During the worship service, his spirit eyes were opened and he saw the Spirit of the Lord as a cloud of light. It was a similar encounter and manifestation of God that the apostle Paul witnessed on the road to Damascus. The Lord appeared to Paul as a bright Light and spoke to him with audible expressions.

In a similar fashion, the Lord spoke an audible phrase to Bob sharing His desire to release a "spiritual Rosetta stone" to the Church to unlock the mysteries of the kingdom. The Lord went on to say that His inspired priests will discover great insight with understanding into the Scriptures and the secrets of God for this generation.

Clearly, this was a symbolic expression to highlight a spiritual truth from a natural occurrence that transpired several centuries ago. In 1799, leaders of Napoleon's army discovered a granite stone in Lower Egypt outside of the seaside town of Rosetta. This relic was dated to 196 B.C. and provided an inscription written in three distinguishable languages. Fortunately, one of those languages was Greek which allowed the archeologist to decode the other two communications.

This discovery provides something of a language dictionary to help translate many other writings from ancient Egypt. The inscriptions were present for many centuries but no understanding was available until the Rosetta stone provided a key of interpretation and comprehension to decipher the messages.

In like fashion, the Lord is releasing by the Spirit of Revelation, keys of understanding and interpretation into mysteries and secrets in the Scriptures. The passages have been present all along but our understanding has been limited. There is now being released from heaven a spiritual endowment that will provide divine wisdom and revelatory insight. The prophecies of Isaiah point to this saying,

You have heard; look at all this. And you, will you not declare it? I proclaim to you new things from this time, even hidden things which you have not known. They are created now and not long ago; and before today you have not heard them, so that you will not say, "Behold, I knew them. Isaiah 48:6 7

During the days of the early Apostolic Church, unprecedented events were taking place. The disciples were compelled to examine the prophetic writings of the prophets to provide a scriptural basis for their experiences. No one could have anticipated the prophetic fulfillment that transpired on the Day of Pentecost. The Scriptures pointing to Pentecost were present all along but now the experience itself unlocked revelatory insight into the mysteries of the kingdom that were imparted during the early church.

There are notable thoughts and plans that are resident in the heart of God that have been sealed and held in reserve until the appointed time. That day has now arrived and the Lord is releasing a spiritual impartation that will be as dynamic in the spiritual arena as the Rosetta stone was within archeological circles. The scriptural truth and kingdom mysteries that are imminently before us will have as much impact as Martin Luther when he nailed his ninety-five theses to the Church door in Wittenberg Germany.

==========

{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

KEYS TO UNLOCK THE MYSTERIES 6/10/05
Now is the season when I AM releasing keys to unlock the mysteries of My Word. The natural man can not understand spiritual things. There are many things I have spoken in My Word which are not discerned.

Behind closed doors is My Truth held in chambers of treasured mysteries. Those who ask will be granted access to open doors of revelation into My Word. When the doors are opened, My light will shine and bring understanding and clarification that will amply be shared with My people. When the light of My revelation shines on My Truth, it can never be taken away. Blind eyes are open and it is forever sealed in understanding. These keys of understanding will unlock the language in which I speak, and give you heaven's perspective of My revealed Truth.

1 Cor 2:13-16 NKJV
These things we also speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual . But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. But he who is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is rightly judged by no one. For "who has known the mind of the LORD that he may instruct Him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

"LAZARUS COME FORTH!"

Hi Loved Ones,

Sixteen years ago the Lord gave me a promise about Lazarus. He said, "I will raise him up." Now is the time! I want to tell you about Lazarus and his long journey, for you may have loved ones who fit this category. The following are the scriptures the Lord gave me at the time of the promise. They dove tail together to tell his story.

1) The story of Lazarus is likened unto the 200 men who stayed behind at the brook of Besor where David was told to take back what was stolen from them. When others were moving forward in the Lord and flourishing, "Lazarus" was too tired to go on.

"And the LORD told him, "Yes, go after them. You will surely recover everything that was taken from you!" So David and his six hundred men set out, and they soon came to Besor Brook. But two hundred of the men were too exhausted to cross the brook, so David continued the pursuit with his four hundred remaining troops." (1 Sam 30:8-10 NLT)

2) As the years grew, "Lazarus" grew dryer and without refreshment.

Besor was a dry water bed, and with the cloudbursts, it became a torrent. This is symbolic of where "Lazarus" has camped since the 80's, totally dependent upon the mercy of God's rain.

3) In the process of waiting for God’s refreshing touch, "Lazarus" grew sick and hopeless. But the Lord gave "Lazarus" a promise.

"Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight. Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth." (Hos 6:1-3 KJV)

4) "Lazarus" grew so sick that his loved ones made desperate pleas to the Lord on his behalf. But even though the Lord heard the pleas, He delayed answering.

"So the two sisters sent a message to Jesus telling him, "Lord, the one you love is very sick." But when Jesus heard about it he said, "Lazarus's sickness will not end in death. No, it is for the glory of God. I, the Son of God, will receive glory from this." Although Jesus loved Martha, Mary, and Lazarus, he stayed where he was for the next two days and did not go to them." (John 11:3-6 NLT)

5) In the process of waiting, "Lazarus" became so weary that he and his calling were finally put to spiritual sleep.

"Then he said, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but now I will go and wake him up." (John 11:11 NLT)

6) This sleep caused great disappointment for those that loved "Lazarus." But the Lord continued to reassure with His promise.

"When Martha got word that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him. But Mary stayed at home. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask." Jesus told her, "Your brother will rise again." (John 11:20-23 NLT)

7) When the day came, God sent His Word and the door of hope was opened. The tomb door opened by removing the stone of hopelessness. Hope was once again stirred among disappointed and waiting hearts.

"And again Jesus was deeply troubled. Then they came to the grave. It was a cave with a stone rolled across its entrance. "Roll the stone aside," Jesus told them. Jesus responded, "Didn't I tell you that you will see God's glory if you believe?" So they rolled the stone aside. Then Jesus looked up to heaven and said, "Father, thank you for hearing me. You always hear me, but I said it out loud for the sake of all these people standing here, so they will believe you sent me." (John 11:38-44 NLT)

"But I will court her again and bring her into the wilderness, and I will speak to her tenderly there. There I will give back her vineyards to her and transform her Valley of Troubles into a Door of Hope. She will respond to me there, singing with joy as in days long ago in her youth after I had freed her from captivity in Egypt. "In that coming day," says the Lord, "she will call me 'My Husband' instead of 'My Master.'" (Hos 2:14-16 TLB)

8) "Lazarus" rises to the Word of the Lord. He hears the Word, he obeys the Word, even though he is still bound in personal captivity.

"Then Jesus shouted, "Lazarus, come out!" And Lazarus came out, bound in graveclothes, his face wrapped in a headcloth. Jesus told them, "Unwrap him and let him go!" (John 11:43,44 NLT)

9) The company of "Lazarus" is bound in grave clothes.

"Lazarus" face is bound. He can not see what is going on, even though he knows something radical is taking place, for suddenly God is speaking into his life and he is once again responding. No one can see him either, for even though he is rising up to the Lord's Word, his calling is hidden to himself, and to the world.

He is wrapped with grave clothes symbolic of death and preservation. "Lazarus" followed the Lord's will even to the point of death to self. In the process of death, in order to preserve "Lazarus" from his own self destruction during the wait, "Lazarus" was allowed captivity, enough to severely restrict his movements.

10) And the Lord said, "Loose him and let him go!"

BINDING AND LOOSING:

The following scriptures use the same Greek words:

And he that was dead came forth, bound [1210] hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose [3089] him, and let him go. (John 11:44 KJV)

And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound [1210], lo, these eighteen years, be loosed [3089] from this bond on the sabbath day? (Luke 13:16 KJV)

And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind [1210] on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose [3089] on earth shall be loosed in heaven. (Matt 16:19 KJV)

TO BIND:

deo (deh'-o); a primary verb; to bind (in various applications, literally or figuratively):

KJV - bind, be in bonds, knit, tie, wind. See also NT:1163, NT:1189.

[note the word wind here… as though to wind around like graveclothes.]

TO LOOSE:

luo (loo'-o); a primary verb; to "loosen" (literally or figuratively):

KJV - break (up), destroy, dissolve, (un-) loose, melt, put off. Compare NT:4486.

11) The reward given to Lazarus for waiting.

Just like the men who waited by the brook of Besor, the "Lazarus people" shall be given everything that was lost back to them and they shall have a part in the increased spoils of war.

"David got back everything the Amalekites had taken, and he rescued his two wives. Nothing was missing: small or great, son or daughter, nor anything else that had been taken. David brought everything back. His troops rounded up all the flocks and herds and drove them on ahead. "These all belong to David as his reward!" they said. When they reached Besor Brook and met the two hundred men who had been too tired to go with them, David greeted them joyfully. But some troublemakers among David's men said, "They didn't go with us, so they can't have any of the plunder. Give them their wives and children, and tell them to be gone." But David said, "No, my brothers! Don't be selfish with what the LORD has given us. He has kept us safe and helped us defeat the enemy. Do you think anyone will listen to you when you talk like this? We share and share alike--those who go to battle and those who guard the equipment." From then on David made this a law for all of Israel, and it is still followed." (1 Sam 30:18-25 NLT)

12) What is the purpose of "Lazarus'" journey?

Why the miserable journey of sickness, is it only to be raised up healthy once again with the addition of spoils? NO. We find the purpose of "Lazarus'" sickness hidden in both Jesus' promise and the meaning of Lazarus' name.

First, Jesus promises that the testimony of Lazarus' life, death and raising will be for the glory, honor, and testimony of Jesus Christ. "Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick. When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby." (John 11:3,4 KJV)

Second, his purpose is found in his name. We can see that its meaning is a direct opposite of his sickness. Lazarus' name comes from a Hebrew word that is built upon several layers of words, all based upon an original word. Following is a Word Study for you to see for yourself. However, for simplification, here is a condensed version:

The Hebrew words and origins of Lazarus literally means:

God (is) helper; strength; mighty; especially the Almighty (but used also of any deity): strength; hence, anything strong; specifically a chief (politically); also a ram (from his strength); a pilaster (as a strong support); an oak or other strong tree: to twist, i.e. (by implication) be strong; the body (as being rolled together); also powerful: to surround, i.e. protect or aid.

The origins of the word Lazarus is translated as the following words: - God (god), goodly, great, idol, might (-y one), power, strong. mighty (man), lintel, oak, post, ram, tree, mighty, strength, help, succour.

So now we see the true calling and nature of "Lazarus." He was called to be a mighty one in the Lord's temple, and his very name was a challenge to the enemy. Because his calling and purpose are so important in last day events, his flesh had to be stripped so that he trusted not in his own strength, but the Lord.

13) Word Study

HEBREW LAZARUS

OT:499

'El`azar (el-aw-zawr'); from OT:410 and OT:5826; God (is) helper; Elazar, the name of seven Israelites:

KJV - Eleazar.

OT:410

'el (ale); shortened from OT:352; strength; as adjective, mighty; especially the Almighty (but used also of any deity):

KJV - God (god), X goodly, X great, idol, might (-y one), power, strong. Compare names in "-el."

OT:352

'ayil (ah'-yil); from the same as OT:193; properly, strength; hence, anything strong; specifically a chief (politically); also a ram (from his strength); a pilaster (as a strong support); an oak or other strong tree:

KJV - mighty (man), lintel, oak, post, ram, tree.

OT:193

'uwl (ool); from an unused root meaning to twist, i.e. (by implication) be strong; the body (as being rolled together); also powerful:

KJV - mighty, strength.

`azar (aw-zar'); a primitive root; to surround, i.e. protect or aid:

KJV - help, succour.

If you are among the statistics or have loved ones that fit this description, have hope! For Lazarus is stirring, as the Lord is calling, "Lazarus, come forth!"

Lovingly,

Sandy

LAZARUS - part 2

6/1/00

Dear Loved ones,

There were so many responses to the Lazarus post and so many gripped my heart that I want to share with you some additional revelation that the Lord has shared with me concerning the last stages of Lazarus' deliverance. I hope that it will be helpful for your own healing, or the healing of your loved one. "Lazarus" has come SO VERY FAR to get to this final stage!

1) HOPE

Loss of hope comes with a numbness that so shrouds the heart that it puts the pain of expectation to sleep. This is the flesh's natural response to "bury" the pain and find a way to adapt and survive through the pain of loss.

When hope has been cut off and you have learned to live with the word "No," it takes courage to hope once again. It takes more courage than anyone could even imagine unless they have been there. And when you begin to hope, hurt bubbles to the surface at the risk of once again facing more disappointment and more pain just because you dared to hope.

There are many things that were buried in the process of putting expectation to sleep and one of them was the fear of not having enough faith. As I thought about the many times the Lord healed someone and said, "Your faith has made you whole," I pondered why faith could have such a powerful anecdote to one's misery. I thought it unfair that someone so bound in hopeless conditions, who had already tried everything, would somehow have to muster up enough faith to be healed. The Holy Spirit came to me in that moment and revealed something as I was reading the following passage:

"As they approached Jericho, a blind beggar was sitting beside the road. When he heard the noise of a crowd going past, he asked what was happening. They told him that Jesus of Nazareth was going by. So he began shouting, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" The crowds ahead of Jesus tried to hush the man, but he only shouted louder, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" When Jesus heard him, he stopped and ordered that the man be brought to him. Then Jesus asked the man, "What do you want me to do for you?" "Lord," he pleaded, "I want to see!" And Jesus said, "All right, you can see! Your faith has healed you." Instantly the man could see, and he followed Jesus, praising God. And all who saw it praised God, too." (Luke 18:35-43 NLT)

This poor blind man had no idea what all the commotion was and when he found out, he probably had no idea if Jesus would see or hear him. The Holy Spirit suddenly imparted the understanding that because he could not physically reach Jesus, naturally he did not have the faith that Jesus WOULD heal him, rather he believed that Jesus COULD heal him if he could get His attention. We think that our faith must believe that He will, when all He is asking is for us to believe that He can. I saw that all it takes is a tiny mustard seed of faith. Healing of hope is like that, it doesn't take some huge mountain of hope, all it takes is a glimmer or a response. Lazarus was dead, all he did was respond when the Lord called him.

2) OBEDIENCE

"Then Jesus shouted, "Lazarus, come out!" And Lazarus came out, bound in graveclothes, his face wrapped in a headcloth. Jesus told them, "Unwrap him and let him go!" (John 11:43,44 NLT) In this passage, Lazarus rises to the Word of the Lord. He hears the Word, he obeys the Word, even though he is still bound in personal captivity.

It is important that when you hear the Lord begin to call your heart to renewed passion, that you respond, regardless of your personal circumstances. Lazarus was wrapped so tightly he could barely move, all he could smell was death, it was dark and it was cold. Yet Lazarus stood to his feet and began to move forward at the sound of the Lord's voice. Notice this happened before he was loosed. This stage stirs you awake, it rattles the weary bones and brings you to your feet, regardless of how miserable you are. Be willing to stand and see the salvation of God on your behalf! (2 Chron 20: 15-17)

3) UNWINDING

As I was thinking about Lazarus' natural strength as a leader and his calling, and everything that the enemy had been allowed to do to "kill" it, I suddenly understood something about the process of unwinding. If the Lord had a purpose in the unwinding process, what would happen if He chose to do the process backwards? In other words, what would happen if Lazarus is free from captivity first and suddenly all the restraints upon his life are gone in one instant? Then the Lord says, "Stand still, I want to take you through a process and unwind some things that have hindered you on the inside." Knowing Lazarus' gifts and natural strength prior to the captivity, he probably would shoot out of that tomb like a rocket, grab the nearest ambitious idea at hand, and not even be around to hear the Lord say, "Please stand still for a moment and let Me work upon you!" I smile as I write this, for I know it is true, by the very nature of Lazarus' name (explained in the previous post).

The Lord in His infinite wisdom knows exactly how to work on Lazarus! He speaks hope, stirs him awake, makes him stand, and calls him to move forward, still bound and restrained — for His purpose.

There is some "stuff" to work through and that stuff is stinky grave clothes. Have hope in your heart that you ARE going to be healed and set free, and each moment from now until that day, He will be taking you through a process unwinding the layers. You may have to work through fear of believing, fear of failing, shame, shame of loss, shame of falling, shame of stinking, unforgiveness towards God, unforgiveness towards others, anger, bitterness, resentment, rebellion, stubbornness, control, judgment, criticism and thousands of other fruits that will come to the surface, a layer at a time. Remember when you are working through these things, that it is a sovereign work of the Holy Spirit in your life, and that you are becoming more and more free. As you comply with releasing these layers, you are getting lighter and your healing is coming to the surface.

There are yards and yards of material in grave clothes. It took years to be enshrouded in the dying process. It will not take years to unwind, but it will take time to be unraveled because it is a process. This is a process of waiting upon the Lord.

"But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint." (Isa 40:31 KJV) The word wait in the Hebrew is an interesting concept. It means to bind together by twisting… like a 3 stranded cord, or like a vine on fence… or perhaps even something like the twisting of Lazarus' grave clothes.

qavah (kaw-vaw'); a primitive root; to bind together (perhaps by twisting), i.e. collect; (figuratively) to expect:

KJV - gather (together), look, patiently, tarry, wait (for, on, upon).

Over and over again you will circle these layers and be given many chances to "get it right". It comes through repentance and yielding the stinky stuff and sloughing it off a layer at a time with each circumstance. If you are willing, these layers will begin to spin you around so fast that all you will smell for a while is your own stench. Rejoice, the closer you get to that old dead flesh, the smellier it will be and the Lord will be able to get to that stuff and clean it out! This is a supernatural work. It will start slowly, then move forward faster and faster as you begin to catch onto what the Lord is doing and comply with these layers.

4) HOW TO RELEASE THE LAYERS

a) Keep the hope of your calling and healing before you and do not get caught up in the miles of unwinding, smelly grave clothes. Resist wallowing in a layer, rather confess it, pray over it, yield it, repent it, and move on. (Col 1:27)

b) Forgiveness is a foundation principle that is totally necessary in healing. Read the following as a promise: "And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him. So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses." (Matt 18:34-35 KJV) This is a scriptural law that the devils are allowed access to those who do not forgive! If you are not able to forgive, then ask the Lord to teach you how to forgive. Forgiveness is releasing another from all debt, or penalty from debt; it is asking for mercy for another, because the penalty for their debt is very terrible. Learn to forgive as though your very life depended upon it. — Because it does.

c) In each layer that comes to the surface, find a way through it with faith, hope and love. These things remain when all else burns. The greatest, most powerful, and yet simplest of these is to love. Love covers a multitude of sins, and love for Him, for others, and even for yourself as you see yourself through His love, will help slough off the dead weights. (I Cor 13:13)

d) Wash yourself with the water of His Word. Pray that He will once again breath new life into it. Pray that your appetite will return, after a long famine of not hearing Him. Pray that He will give you new revelation as you search Him. (Eph 5:26)

e) Resist the world's answers to inner healing. This work of reviving the dead and sloughing off the grave clothes is the work of the Holy Spirit. It is a supernatural work occurring as He brings you through circumstances whereby suddenly something "smelly" in your heart comes to the surface, and you wonder where that came from! It is in that moment of struggle that there is grace for the healing. You do not need to spend money and extensive time in counseling and books, you need Him. Take it to Him at that moment, and let Him do the surgery.

You may need some deliverance prayers, but even those will not work without your first going through the same process of yielding and letting go of the dead stuff. I believe that some of this smelly stuff is demonic infiltration, and these tormentors will leave on their own, simply by your going through a) and b) above.

f) Be willing to wait a while longer through this process, for you have waited years already and in comparison, this wait is much shorter. At least now you know you have a purpose and God is taking you to freedom. Moving forward is a whole lot better than lying dead in a dark cold tomb.

Thank you for all that shared your responses to the Lazarus post and for the many confirmations. I pray the Lord touches those of you who have died the long slow death of disappointment and that He releases you from the tomb to freedom.

Lovingly,

Sandy

BEFORE THE SECOND WIND

A Word to ponder

5/21/00

O My dove, let Me hear your voice; for I have set My Name upon you and chosen you for My very own. My wife, My dear one. I hear your sighs by reason of heavy taskmasters. Your weight is heavy. The burden of your load is extremely difficult. I groan as I know and feel your pain!

Dear Father I pray for My beloved. I love My bride! I want to breathe upon her a second wind of refreshing. Even as in the days of Your first wind, I want to endue her with power. The battle has been long and under the strain of her load she has fallen, not knowing which way is up. Hear her cries for help and send her mercy. For I long to send her mercy, I long to bless her with My second wind of refreshing.

Father help her to choose the right path — the pathway of holiness. For only in that path can she overcome the insurmountable odds sent against her. Even now the deceiving antichrist spirit is in the world. The only way she can overcome this is to cut off its luring passions and lusts. My bride has been lured into carnal entertainment and this deceptive spirit is stealing the heart of My wife! Instead of being washed pure by the water of Your Word, she has fallen into compromise through the brainwashing of carnal filth.

Give her mercy and operate on the cataracts that blind her vision. Let her see the deception and return to Me, her Husband. Give her grace to turn from her appetites for self gratification For the pain from her taskmasters is great and she knows no way out but to comfort her own flesh. Oh Father she is so close to death! Help her to sever this, for this same spirit that is mesmerizing her to sleep and compromise is also the same spirit that will one day trodden her under foot. The only way to escape that day is the pathway of holiness.

Even now We are measuring the temple that encompasses those who dwell in My most holy place; those who have separated themselves from the outer courts of the world. Even now You are offering this same grace to others, to cut off the death grip of carnality. And even now You are offering access for those to come into Your most holiest place.

My bride can not hunger for the spirit of the world and also hunger for the Holy Spirit. She can not have one foot in the outer court and one foot in the holy place. She must choose. I long to endue My wife with My power! Help her to choose the One Who loves her with eternal passion!

I long to endue My wife with My power! I longingly wait for My bride! I want to roll away the reproach of her sins. I want to empower her for service. I want to breathe upon her and send her reversal — where she is no longer the tail but the head. Where she tramples on the head of the enemy and she delivers the captive and heals the sick! She longs for My touch! She longs for My wind of refreshing. She longs for My power! Father hear My prayer and give mercy to My beloved bride. Please help her to climb up upon the highway of holiness and come to Me. And as she chooses Me, breathe upon her and let the enduement of Your power come!

"A highway shall be there, and a road, And it shall be called the Highway of Holiness.
~~~~~~~~~~~~

The unclean shall not pass over it, But it shall be for others. Whoever walks the road, although a fool, Shall not go astray." (Isa 35:8 NKJV)

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness: "Prepare the way of the LORD; Make straight in the desert A highway for our God." (Isa 40:3 NKJV)

"Go through, Go through the gates! Prepare the way for the people; Build up, Build up the highway! Take out the stones, Lift up a banner for the peoples! Indeed the LORD has proclaimed To the end of the world: "Say to the daughter of Zion, 'Surely your salvation is coming; Behold, His reward is with Him, And His work before Him.'" And they shall call them The Holy People, The Redeemed of the LORD; And you shall be called Sought Out, A City Not Forsaken." (Isa 62:10-12 NKJV)

"Behold, I send the Promise of My Father upon you; but tarry in the city of Jerusalem until you are endued with power from on high." (Luke 24:49 NKJV)

YOUNG PROPHETS

5/20/00: REVELATION OF THE VIRGIN PROPHET & MENTORING:

Today as I was listening to scripture on the Bible tape, the following passage jumped out to me as a prophetic parable. The colt that has never been ridden reminds me of the young virgin prophet who has received a wonderful vision or revelation from the Lord, and the Lord rides the virgin in honor, in view of the crowds.

The young one is innocent and does not know the pain of rejection or any of the mishaps in coming into the prophetic giftings. We need to mentor younger ones so they are protected and not abused by the system, taken advantage of or promoted outside of their metron before their time.

Mark 11:2-3 2 "Go into that village over there," he told them, "and as soon as you enter it, you will see a colt tied there that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. 3 If anyone asks what you are doing, just say, `The Lord needs it and will return it soon.' NLT

Zech 9:9-10 9 Rejoice greatly, O people of Zion! Shout in triumph, O people of Jerusalem! Look, your king is coming to you. He is righteous and victorious, yet he is humble, riding on a donkey--even on a donkey's colt. NLT

REVELATION: HOW THE LORD USES OUR PAST TO REACH OTHERS

Wayne was speaking about Loren Cunningham's tape where people in a certain country had roots predominantly in Islam. So now God is sending Christians from that nation to the Islamic nations. He said they had been inoculated because they had a small portion of Islam implanted in their lives, enough to recognize it and develop a resistance to it. This was strongly downloaded to me as a spiritual principle.

WORD TO PONDER SPIRITUAL INOCULATIONS 5/13/00

As you come to me and lay your life down before Me, I will use everything in your life and turn it for My good purposes. Even those places that you consider the darkest blemishes upon your life will be used. I will turn the darkness into a spiritual inoculation whereby I may send you as a protected vessel into the camp of the enemy and you will have already overcome and developed a strong spiritual resistance towards such. This triumph will be used in My glorious purposes to minister to those in like places and you will not only have the direct compassion and understanding of where others are, but you will also have the authority to deliver them from the kingdom of darkness into light.

Judg 7:9-11 NLT

During the night, the LORD said, "Get up! Go down into the Midianite camp, for I have given you victory over them! But if you are afraid to attack, go down to the camp with your servant Purah. Listen to what the Midianites are saying, and you will be greatly encouraged. Then you will be eager to attack."

RHEMA 5/11/00: ANGEL EXPERIENCE

EXPERIENCE: Last night as I was working on the Baptism of the Holy Spirit file I suddenly was strongly aware of a presence standing behind me. I looked over my shoulder and felt it was an angel. Then when I went to bed Wayne said that he had prayed tonight that the Lord's angel would manifest to me, and I felt this was the experience I'd had.

HEARD: Strong impression. They don't have this. Spiritual knowledge. The Lord is speaking through His voice. And teaching me. The Holy Spirit has been there.

CONFIRMATION: Just as I am reading the above, Wayne said that the speakers he is listening to on tape are all saying that when the Lord speaks to them it is in short and to the point lines. The second way He speaks to them is through strong impressions.

WORD TO PONDER MINISTRY THROUGH IMPRESSIONS 5/11/00
I am teaching you that even when you do not have direct knowledge of My will in hands on ministry, that one way I will speak to you is through gentle impressions. As you seek My face and heart for others, I will softy woo your heart with delicate thoughts, feelings, drawings and impressions that are Holy Spirit led. My Spirit is as gentle as a dove and gently draws your heart with notions that will kindle to a warm glow as you consider the application of such. Learn to listen to these moments of inspiration and give freely what I bestow upon your heart.

“The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed…” (Acts 14:9 KJV)

CONTINUED HEARD: He is God. I assure you, Trinity. We recognize Him. Power. It's a lot more than just being baptized. Explosion. Holy Spirit. Bubble forth. And in the end, Holy Spirit, I am He. Among you. Establish. Counselor. Freedom. I AM with you.

RHEMA 5/9/00: HOLY HUSH IN THE GARDEN

HEARD: Touch my hand. Showed me. Need to talk. Sit down.

OPENED SMELL: I smelled the sweet smell of the Lord.

HEARD: It's a new day. Uncertain. Cloudy. Authority. 1-800 pin drop.

HEARD: Not giving into sin. Comforter. Just be careful. Holy Spirit. Stay clean and cooperate. Holy Ground.

Are you listening? Shhhh. Quiet. The Lord is now present. Bow down. Kneel. He is able to deliver you. Surrounded.

DREAM: WALKING IN THE GARDEN OF GOD

I dreamed I was walking in a garden and there was a man walking in the garden. He was somewhat hidden and ethereal. In the garden, I saw the faces of a lion, a man and an eagle.

Ezek 1:5-21
5 From the center of the cloud came four living beings that looked human, 6 except that each had four faces and two pairs of wings. 7 Their legs were straight like human legs, but their feet were split like calves' feet and shone like burnished bronze. 8 Beneath each of their wings I could see human hands. 9 The wings of each living being touched the wings of the two beings beside it. The living beings were able to fly in any direction without turning around. 10 Each had a human face in the front, the face of a lion on the right side, the face of an ox on the left side, and the face of an eagle at the back. 11 Each had two pairs of outstretched wings--one pair stretched out to touch the wings of the living beings on either side of it, and the other pair covered its body. 12 They went in whatever direction the spirit chose, and they moved straight forward in all directions without having to turn around.

13 The living beings looked like bright coals of fire or brilliant torches, and it looked as though lightning was flashing back and forth among them. 14 And the living beings darted to and fro like flashes of lightning.

15 As I looked at these beings, I saw four wheels on the ground beneath them, one wheel belonging to each. 16 The wheels sparkled as if made of chrysolite. All four wheels looked the same; each wheel had a second wheel turning crosswise within it. 17 The beings could move forward in any of the four directions they faced, without turning as they moved. 18 The rims of the four wheels were awesomely tall, and they were covered with eyes all around the edges. 19 When the four living beings moved, the wheels moved with them. When they flew upward, the wheels went up, too. 20 The spirit of the four living beings was in the wheels. So wherever the spirit went, the wheels and the living beings went, too. 21 When the living beings moved, the wheels moved. When the living beings stopped, the wheels stopped. When the living beings flew into the air, the wheels rose up. For the spirit of the living beings was in the wheels.
NLT

Rev 4:6-8 NLT
In the center and around the throne were four living beings, each covered with eyes, front and back. 7 The first of these living beings had the form of a lion; the second looked like an ox; the third had a human face; and the fourth had the form of an eagle with wings spread out as though in flight. 8 Each of these living beings had six wings, and their wings were covered with eyes, inside and out. Day after day and night after night they keep on saying,

"Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty-- the one who always was, who is, and who is still to come."

RHEMA 10/9/00 SIMPLE SONGS OF LOVE

HEARD: Being alone with God. They go through the valley of weeping and it turns into blessing. Surrounded.

PIX: I saw a pair of hands come up and cup underneath a pair of ears.

PIX: I saw an amphitheater that was like surround sound.

PIX: I saw a glory light shine through the window upon a pair of glasses.

HEARD: Minister. And He walked with them in the coolness of the evening. In a garden. They knew the Presence of God. And then some. Shout and sing. Simpler songs of love.

> Ps 84:6, 7 NLT
> When they walk through the Valley of Weeping , it will become a place of refreshing springs,where pools of blessing collect after the rains! 7 They will continue to grow stronger,and each of them will appear before God in Jerusalem.

> WORD TO PONDER: LIKE JOSHUA 5/10/00

Like Joshua, you have pursued and climbed your way to the top. And now you stand before Me. And yet you still wait. Why? Because also like Joshua the enemy yet surrounds you with accusation and condemnation. I will wash you clean and place My garments of righteousness upon you. Bow low and I will deliver you from your accuser. Stay in humble obedience and do not forsake your conscience.

I will visit you even as I visited Adam in the garden and you shall feel the dewy mist of My Presence rise upon your face. Breathe in the vapor of My anointing and let My love embrace you. There in the garden will be the faces of a lion, a man and an eagle.

"In the center and around the throne were four living beings, each covered with eyes, front and back. The first of these living beings had the form of a lion; the second looked like an ox; the third had a human face; and the fourth had the form of an eagle with wings spread out as though in flight. SET ASIDE FOR INTIMACY

I heard the following through His still small voice. It reminded me of Song of Solomon where they speak of one another.

HEARD 4/19/05: Spring forth oh fountain of God. Destiny awaits. My life and my love. My calling and purpose. Set aside for thee. We become one.

HEARD: Walk with Me in My garden. Coolness. I cover you. My gift, My Daughter. It is well.

HEARD SONG: You are the portrait of love.

HEARD: My husband, let's walk. Up and down. Lord lighten my load. Yes, sweetheart. Walk with Me. To retrieve intimacy. Bring her back.

TO BE ESTABLISHED - TO BE SET UP FIRM

RHEMA 5/9/00: I WILL ESTABLISH YOU HEARD*: I heard the Lord say, I am maturing you quickly. Setting you like concrete.*

[This was very comforting to me as I was feeling very unstable and insecure.]

HOLY SPIRIT REMINDER: I suddenly remembered that at home group last year someone saw my feet planted in concrete and said my feet would become set and stable and that there would be no foot mold quite like mine.

CONFIRMATION ANOINTED HANDS: I turned in my Bible to this scripture:

Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God;"
(2 Cor 1:21)

When I looked up the word Stablisheth, it means to confirm the foot!

STUDY FROM THE STRONG'S EXHAUSTIVE CONCORDANCE:

NT:950 bebaioo (beb-ah-yo'-o); from NT:949; to stabilitate (figuratively): KJV - confirm, (e-) stablish.

{The second number 949 means the word was taken from the root word of #949:}

NT:949 bebaios (beb'-ah-yos); from the base of NT:939 (through the idea of basality); stable (literally or figuratively): KJV - firm, of force, stedfast, sure.

NT:939 basis (bas'-ece); from baino (to walk); a pace ("base"), i.e. (by implication) the foot: KJV - foot.

WORD TO PONDER: I WILL ESTABLISH YOU 5/09/00
Beloved, even though you feel unstable and insecure, I want you to know I will set your life like concrete. I will plant your feet firmly so that you will be strong and be able to stand. Your walk in Me will become firmly steadfast and sure. Do not fear Beloved, I AM the One Who establishes you. It is My promise.

2 Cor 1:21 AMP
But it is God Who confirms and makes us steadfast and establishes us [in joint fellowship] with you in Christ, and has consecrated and anointed us [enduing us with the gifts of the Holy Spirit].

RHEMA 3/25/03 SETTING UP FIRM
HEARD: God's touch on earth. Be like Him. Touch. Watch. Be a handmaiden. My dear one. Scars no longer.

PIX: I saw a liquid jello poured into the little bowls at our eating table.

HEARD: I'm setting you up. To be established, not to fall. Get your eyes off man.

J - E - L - L - O

> TO ESTABLISH = {Greek} To set fast, confirm, strengthen, to make stiff, stable, stand, solid.
> 2 Thess 3:3 NKJV
> But the Lord is faithful, who will establish {4741} you and guard you from the evil one.
> NT:4741 sterizo (stay-rid'-zo); from a presumed derivative of NT:2476 (like NT:4731); to set fast, i.e. (literally) to turn resolutely in a certain direction, or (figuratively) to confirm:
> KJV - fix, (e-) stablish, stedfastly set, strengthen.
> NT:4731 stereos (ster-eh-os'); from NT:2476; stiff, i.e. solid, stable (literally or figuratively):
> KJV - stedfast, strong, sure.
> NT:2476
> NT:2476 histemi (his'-tay-mee); a prolonged form of a primary stao (stah'-o) (of the same meaning, and used for it in certain tenses); to stand (transitively or intransitively), used in various applications (literally or figuratively):
> KJV - abide, appoint, bring, continue, covenant, establish, hold up, lay, present, set (up), stanch, stand (by, forth, still, up).

WORD TO PONDER TO SET UP 3/25/03
Dear one, you are like liquid jello in your lack of confidence. Yes I have stripped you of many layers that did not belong to you. And yes the stripping hurt when you resisted My will and clung to your old nature.

Now after your surgery, you are weak and timid and shaky and lacking in confidence. Self confidence on its own is the pride and fall of man, generated by an independent and haughty spirit. God confidence is gained through a great time of weakness and learning to lean upon Me.

I want to bring you into a balance where you are confident in My work and promises in your life. Why would I leave you stripped, naked, shaky and unconfident when I AM your loving Daddy? Whey would I leave you so weak when I need you to touch an even weaker world through your hands? I desire you to become stable, assured, confident and built up. I will set you firm and establish you strongly.

"Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and our God and Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting consolation and good hope by grace, comfort your hearts and establish you in every good word and work." (2 Thess 2:16-17 NKJV)

RHEMA 5/2/00: JUDGES TO KEEP STEP WITH HIS TIME TABLE

SUPERIMPOSED HEARD: As I was praying, I prayed Holy Spirit work through all the stuff. Only on the word 'stuff' He superimposed Hi Word and said, "Steps."

HEARD: Journey. Very powerful steps. Forgiveness. Sins, rebellion. We love you. All of us are waiting for you. We're going to turn ourselves around.

HEARD: Fervent for the Lord. Leadership position. Level of faith, take us there. One day, one step at a time. Use what you have. Judge. Counsel. Deep water. Help them fly. Gavel resounds.

PIX: I saw a gavel hit the block at a judges desk.

HEARD: Level of interest on earth. In heaven too. The answer is from the Lord. You know what I mean? My law is written on your hearts. Yes I told you.

VISION: Someone came to me and told me to keep tapping my foot. The down beat means right on the beat, or keeping the proper pace with what is going on. They said that others were watching my foot and needed this.

HEARD: Now I can see you. Now I can hear you. Now I can know you. On target.

PIX: I saw a foot going down on the beat, and a hand going down on the gavel at the same time.

APPLICATION: Leaders keep in step with the Lord's heart and teach your children how to follow their conscience. Through following their conscience, as they mount up in faith, they shall fly over the turbulence of the world beneath them.

WORD TO PONDER: LINED UP WITH MY TIME TABLE 4/22/03

Some of My loved ones think life goes by too fast, and some of them think it is too slow. Some have been sweating and striving to get somewhere in My kingdom. I want them to slow down and walk in peace.

I have you each on a different path not only in what you hear, but also in your walk with Me. And yet, I have all of you in perfect sync with one another and going the pace I ordained for you. This is true with your life in Me, your ministries and your relationships.

You are lined up perfectly in My time table, and are moving forward towards My goal in one massive unit. You are a great company of people going forth in parallel movement. You shall go forth as My banner. Let My plan unfold naturally in your life.

"Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!" (Psalm 133:1 KJV)

CONFIRMATION 6/14/00: JUDGES IN THE EARTH

I was reading page 128 Final Quest via AH. I did not remember reading this, nor that there was such a thing as Him establishing judges. This was a neat confirmation to me about my May rhema. This is something we have not been taught in church.

Quote from book: "You have experienced liberation in My Presence, but there is yet much more for you to understand bout My judgments. When I judge I am not seeking to condemn, or to justify, but to bring forth righteousness. Righteousness is only found in union with Me. That is the righteous judgment, bringing men into unity with Me. My church is now clothed with shame because she does not have judges. She dies not have judges because she does not know Me as the Judge. I will now raise up judges for my people who know my judgment. They will not just decide between people or issues, but to make things right, which is to bring them into agreement with Me."

2ND CHAPTER OF ACTS CHURCH: 4/29/00

At the end of the worship hour today, an intercessor gave a Word so I decided to stay at the keyboard while the worship team were going off the stage and give her some background music to her sharing. She started to cry 3 times during her Word as the Lord touched her as the music played. Then an elder came up and gave a Word and called everyone forward.

It all broke through at that moment. I went into worship with ethereal music in the throne room, with wind, water and the rest, and people were all over the front on their faces, kneeling, etc. The Presence of the Lord came in the doors and swept through everyone with strong currents. There were Words and scriptures read over the mike. One of our leaders who operates in deliverance called for those needing healing to come, others broke up into little groups and prayed for one another.

At one time, everyone started singing in tongues and it got very loud with waves and waves of His Presence, as my keyboard was undulating in the background with all its ethereal sounds. These undulating sounds are not "songs" with melodies, they are rather non-stop sounds, moving from one to another as in one long continuous sound. I have many ethereal sounds that blend together. Three times I heard the angels sing. I was so overcome by His Presence that I just kept worshipping Him and people were set free to do whatever they felt.

A visiting lady came out of her wheelchair as one prayed over her. I had been so lost in worship I was not noticing what was going on, but suddenly I felt a surge to increase the volume and blast it, which I did and then I looked down and at that instant she got up and started walking. I was so shocked and just played victorious chords while she was taking each step. I felt like the Lord was urging her on!

The service went for another hour with people just responding and we had no sermon. It was truly a team ministry, just as I posted this week. No one person stood out, just Jesus as we responded to Him. Thank You Lord.

1 Cor 14:26 NKJV
How is it then, brethren? Whenever you come together, each of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a tongue, has a revelation, has an interpretation. Let all things be done for edification.

TRAMPLED UNDER FOOT

RHEMA 4/7/00: PROPHETIC PARABLE OF THE WARRIOR FEET

Just prior to a corporate prophetic Word during worship, there was a lady that started to pant/breathe then kind of wail in between breaths. I heard the Lord say, "Listen to the parable of the woman."

CONFIRMATION: Then the prophesy started out by saying that what you are hearing right now through the woman is a parable. She went on to speak about being stretched in the Spirit, etc. just like when the bones and ligaments stretch.

Then during her Word, the Lord came upon me with a strong “warrior manifestation”. My feet went wild and my hands went into chopping motions. It only lasted a couple seconds but was very strong.

HEARD: Then I immediately heard Him say, "It is broken."

Last night during sleep the Lord was speaking me to about being upside down, like I had been all winter, trying to stand on right side in my faith up on my feet. I heard Him say, "Heads or tails? Heads.”

I thought of the passage where He will make us the head and not the tail. Then I had a vision of a pair of feet doing the same motion I did during tonight's prophetic Word and I heard Him say, "Trampled!"

I was very blessed to have this revelation. I have had this strange warrior gesture happen to me many times during intercession and had slowly understood that my hands were chopping like cutting away something. But I have never understood my very loud feet pounding. Now I understand He is tramping upon the head of the enemy! Hallelujah! I am very excited about this! This of course is nothing I do, but it happens involuntary at unexpected times.

Mal 4:2-3 NKJV
But to you who fear My name the Sun of Righteousness shall arise With healing in His wings; And you shall go out and grow fat like stall-fed calves. You shall trample the wicked, for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day that I do this," Says the LORD of hosts.

1 Kings 5:3-4 NKJV
You know how my father David could not build a house for the name of the LORD his God because of the wars which were fought against him on every side, until the LORD put his foes under the soles of his feet. 4 But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side; there is neither adversary nor evil occurrence.

Ps 18:33-40 KJV
He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places. 34 He teacheth my hands to war , so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms. 35 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleness hath made me great. 36 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, that my feet did not slip. 37 I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed. 38 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet. 39 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me. 40 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me.

RHEMA 3/28/00: UNTHAWING THE FROZEN MAN

HEARD: Bells in the Holy Place. I can't.

PIX: I saw someone starting to walk in, but they were dragging their feet.

HEARD: Sweat. Alone. Bible, that's not enough. It's all I know. Pack my bags. No bags. Brace yourself. It started while you fell asleep.

PIX: I saw a hairdryer.

HEARD: You're the man. Freedom. One layer at a time. Melt. Thaw. Preserved. Heat. Slowly. Weathered the storm.

COMMENTS: The above rhema is speaking about those who went through a great snow storm and fell asleep and the Lord is going to heat them up a layer at a time and bring them back to life.

I had watched a documentary on raising the Mammoth. It was a real tape of some archeologists who traveled far north and cut out an entire frozen Mammoth. It was a fascinating show. They managed to dig it out in one giant ice cube and moved it to an underground cave near an airport. They will be working for about a year to unthaw the ice around it, via 12 hairdryers suspended from the ceiling. When they got to its hair in one area, they could smell the stench of animal smell, along with urine and feces. I was amazing to have been so preserved through thousands of years.

Ezek 36:25-28 NKJV
I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will take the heart of stone out of your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. 27 I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you will keep My judgments and do them. 28 Then you shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; you shall be My people, and I will be your God.

WORD TO PONDER: MELTING COLD HEARTS 3/6/99

I am in the process of unthawing My people from a lengthy frozen over and cold state. Many hearts are yet wrapped in ice, feeling cold and abandoned. But I hear their cries for help, and am sending My Presence to warm their many layers. I will melt them one by one and bring a great thaw to their land frozen over by a demonic climate.

You will notice that as you give your hearts to Me and I bring you out of the long, cold winters sleep, that you will find protection from the enemy. Intruders may knock on your door, but if you have no ice, they have nothing in you. They are unable to touch you or have anything in which to claim as their own. So allow My unthawing work to melt your heart with My everlasting love. Above all else, love Me and love others. Let My mercy and forgiveness do its work.

“Then he lay down on the child's body, placing his mouth on the child's mouth, his eyes on the child's eyes, and his hands on the child's hands. And the child's body began to grow warm again!” (2 Kings 4:34-35 NLT)

RAISING HIS STANDARD

3/21/00

Hi Loved Ones,

Recently in asking the Lord to send His quickened Word to me, two intercessors received visions the same week, of the Lord's banner and shared them with me. The first one was given to Grandma Anna, my Mom:

"On Sunday, March 12th while in worship I had an open vision. I saw an extremely tall flag pole that went into the clouds. I couldn't see the top of it but I knew it had a flag flying because of the cords at the bottom for raising and lowering a flag. Suddenly I was lifted up to see the top of the pole in the clouds. Waving in the gentle breeze was a huge orange flag with a purple circle in the center. Then I was down at the bottom again. A Vine began rapidly to climb the pole. I was carried along horizontally with the Vine and watched it climb clear to the top. When the Vine reached the flag, it changed form and wove itself into the material, although it still looked like a Vine. The Vine moved through the orange flag straight into the purple center. It then branched into many vines in the material which began to radiate outwards towards the edge of the flag. When they reached the edge, they became regular looking vines and shot into space. It was rather like watching fire works. I watched them from the top and knew they would hit the earth although I was so high up I could not actually see that. From the directions they went, I knew they had been scattered all over the earth."

[end of vision]

At prayer meeting the same week, one of our intercessors shared her vivid vision of the American flag raised up and waving in the clouds. People of different ethnic backgrounds were singing "God bless America" including a Jewish lady. Suddenly she exclaimed that Jesus was coming back.

[end of vision]

I was also given a vision of this banner. The following is an excerpt from my book, 101+ Ways God Speaks (And How to Hear Him): "When I went to sleep on November 14, 1985, I had a strong yearning for Jesus. As I slept, He came to me and opened my eyes. I saw a huge, gigantic banner unfolding across the sky. This was so huge that it took the entire sky to unfold the banner and display what was written: It said, "THE LORD JESUS CHRIST." Suddenly I found myself in heaven looking down upon a vast desert. It was dry, brown, flat, and immense.

As I gazed upon the lifeless desert, someone was standing above and behind me declaring the scroll of Isaiah 35: "The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing: the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory of the Lord, the excellency of our God. Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees. Say to them of a fearful heart, be strong, fear not: behold your God will come with vengeance; He will come and save you. Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert. And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water..." (Isaiah 35 KJ)

After Isaiah 35 had been announced, I heard the Lord say, "And the desert shall blossom as a rose. It shall happen all at once, and it shall happen suddenly." Immediately I saw the desert come to life. The sight was astounding and oh so beautiful! Everywhere blossoms emerged: this dry, lifeless region became a spacious garden of color and beauty. Then I came out of the gazing vision. As I woke, I was still in awe of what I'd seen, because it was so beautiful. I knew the Lord was speaking a promise of what He would be doing to our dry desert like lives. He was going to rain His Presence upon us and we would emerge with life and beautiful blossoms."

[end of vision]

SYMBOLISM

THE FLAG:

The Old Testament speaks of the Lord raising up His banner. Other meanings of this same Hebrew word are flag, sail, flagstaff, signal, token, banner, pole, sail, ensign, or standard. "All inhabitants of the world and dwellers on the earth: When he lifts up a banner (5251) on the mountains, you see it; And when he blows a trumpet, you hear it." Isa 18:3 NKJ) (Some other scriptures using this same Hebrew word 'nec' [Strongs # 5251] are: Isa 5:26, Isa 11:10, Isa 11:12, Isa 18:3, Isa 31:9.)

THE VINE:

The scripture says that Jesus is the Vine and we are the branches: "Yes, I am the Vine; you are the branches. Whoever lives in Me and I in him shall produce a large crop of fruit. For apart from Me you can't do a thing. If anyone separates from Me, he is thrown away like a useless branch, withers, and is gathered into a pile with all the others and burned. But if you stay in Me and obey My commands, you may ask any request you like, and it will be granted! My true disciples produce bountiful harvests. This brings great glory to My Father." (John 15:5-8 TLB)

ORANGE:

The color orange is not literally quoted in the scripture. However, the closest proximity is the color amber. Amber is fossilized resin from tree sap. The ancient Greeks and Romans regarded amber as a gem that could be polished to a high gloss. The prophet Ezekiel mentioned amber three times, (Ezek 1:4,27; 8:2) and always in context with the appearance of fire. These scriptures were in context to God's glory appearing to Ezekiel and the cherubim bearing His throne.

PURPLE:

Purple was a most expensive and ancient dye coming from a shellfish around the Mediterranean Sea. It is said that a total of 250,000 mollusks were required to make one ounce of the dye. Thus purple was associated with royalty and the wealthy. Purple was found in the high priest's clothing, the tabernacle and upon Jesus at His trial. (Ex 39, Ex 27:16, Mark 15:17, Es 8:15, Lu 16:19)

THE UNFOLDING:

The fact that the banner was being unfolded, (as though it had been rolled up like a scroll) to reveal the words, THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, represents the "manifestation" of Jesus Christ, or the revealing of Who He is to the world.

The word revelation, from Revelations 1:1 is the Greek word (Strongs #602) apokalupsis (ap-ok-al'-oop-sis). The meaning of apokalupsis is disclosure. It is translated as appearing, coming, lighten, manifestation, be revealed, revelation. It comes from a word meaning to take off the cover.

This is the same word used in the scripture: "For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God." (Rom 8:19 KJV)

Jesus said to Jerusalem, "For I say to you, you shall see Me no more till you say, 'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!' " (Matt 23:39 NJV) This banner will unfold to the whole world, and Jesus is not coming back until Jerusalem welcomes WE who come in the Name of the Lord. He is going to manifest Himself through us, to the world.

THE WAVING:

In all three visions, we saw the movement and the folds of material in the waving of flag/banner. Although the wind was invisible, its effects were not. It moved the banner to and fro, just as His Spirit carries us. "The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit." (John 3:8 NKV)

In the Old Testament, the wave offering (also called the peace offering) was presented to the Lord by raising it above the heads of the priest and worshipper, and waving it before the altar. It was then eaten by the priest, the worshipper and his guests of non-officiating priests, Levites and the poor. There were three kinds of peace offerings: (1) thank offerings for His blessings; (2) votive offerings accompanying a vow to God; and (3) freewill offerings spontaneously presented in worship and praise. (Deut 12:18; 16:11-14, Lev 7:12; 22:29, Num 15:3,8, Lev 7:16; 22:18,21)

It was quickened to me that waving of His banner in these visions could have special significance to this offering. This could be a parable of those called to be priests and worshippers who have offered their lives as sacrifices to the Lord and in turn the Lord hosts a dinner with guests included, whereby all partake of the sacrifice. These sacrificial ones will be raised up as waving banners in His wind, and be meat to the world. (John 4:34)

GOD BLESS AMERICA

In context with the other visions, the Lord will not only raise up Himself and those that represent Him, but also once again bless America and raise her up to proclaim Jesus to the world. In the mid 80's I had a vision of the map of America. I saw band members on a field and they were outlining the map. They were all out of line and it looked like a very disorderly map. Then in the vision I saw the same scene as though a video was rewinding. The members stepped into their place and it formed a perfect looking outline of the USA. The Lord has promised He will restore the years that have been eaten by the cankerworms and He is going to rain upon all flesh. (Joel 2:23-29) He will once again return America to her godly heritage and she will be used to bless even the Jewish people.

ISAIAH 35

He is raining His Presence upon us. Even now we are experiencing His touch and reviving as. (Hosea 6:2,3) More and more of His Presence will fall until it becomes a deluge and even the most hopeless lives who are dry, flat, barren and without hope will spring to life. We will experience the glory of the Lord.

CONNECTING THE SYMBOLS:

The Lord is going to raise His banner as a sign for all the world to see. This banner will be like an advertisement, a sign to draw the unsaved. The banner will be moved by His Spirit and unfold before the world. Those abiding in His glory, His priests and kings, will burst forth upon the world to share the heart of His kingdom. This will happen as He rains His Spirit upon a dry and thirsty world.

Lovingly,

Sandy

ENTERING INTO HIS REST

3/7/00

Hi Loved Ones,

In the midst of life's intensities from pressing into the Lord and resisting opposing darkness, sometimes it is easy to forget that His yoke is easy, His burden is light. The following story was forwarded to me and as I sat down to read it, I found myself slowly unwinding as I entered Chuck's world. The memory of this story lingered long after I read it. The Lord speaks to us in so many, many quickened ways. I think that this story is one of them.

Perhaps when you are done reading, you might want to look up Hebrews 3:19 and ponder how it applies.

Lovingly,

Sandy

MY BROTHER CHUCK

by Beth Hernandez

bhernand@lcci.com

My brother Chuck thinks God lives under his bed. At least that's what I overheard him say one night. He was praying in his darkened bedroom and I stopped outside his door to listen.

"Are you there, God?" he said. "Where are You?" A pause-and then, in a relieved voice, "Oh, I see. Under the bed."

I giggled softly and tiptoed off to my own room.

Chuck's unique perspectives are always a source of amusement. But that night something else lingered long after the humor. I realized for the first time the very different world Chuck lives in.

He was born 30 years ago, mentally disabled as a result of labor difficulties during birth. Apart from his size (he's 6'2"), there are few ways that he is an adult. He reasons and communicates with the capabilities of a seven-year old.

I remember wondering if Chuck was ever dissatisfied with his monotonous life. Up before dawn each day, off to work at a workshop for the disabled, home to eat his favorite macaroni and cheese for dinner, and later to bed.

The only change in this routine is laundry day, when he hovers excitedly over the washing machine like a mother with a newborn child.

But he does not seem dissatisfied. He lopes out to the school bus every morning at 7:05 a.m., eager for a day of work; he wrings his hands excitedly while the water boils on the stove before dinner; and he stays up late twice a week to gather our dirty laundry for his next day's chores.

And Saturdays-oh, the bliss of Saturdays! My dad takes Chuck to the airport to have a soft drink, watch the planes land, and speculate loudly on the destination of each passenger.

"That one's going to Chi-cargo!" he'll shout and clap his hands. He can hardly sleep on Friday nights in anticipation.

I do not think Chuck knows what it means to be discontent. He will never know the entanglements of wealth or power, and he does not care what brand of clothing he wears or what kind of food he eats. He recognizes no difference in people, treating all as equals and as friends. His needs have always been met, and he never worries that one-day, they may not be.

His hands are diligent. Chuck is never so happy as when he is working. When he unloads the dishwasher or vacuums the carpet, his heart is completely in it. He does not shrink from a job, and he does not quit a job until it is finished.

But when his tasks are done, Chuck knows how to relax. He is not obsessed with his work or the work of others. His heart is pure too. He believes everyone tells the truth, that promises must be kept, and that when you are wrong, you apologize. Free from pride and unconcerned with appearances, Chuck is not afraid to cry. He is always sincere.

And he trusts God. Not confined by intellectual reasoning, when he comes to Christ, he always comes as a child. In my moments of doubt and frustration, I envy the security of his simple faith. Yet, it is then I realize and am humbled that perhaps he is not the one with the handicap.

My obligations, my fears, my pride, my circumstances all become disabilities when I do not give them away to Jesus. Maybe Chuck can comprehend things I may never learn. He has spent his whole life in innocence, after all, talking to God, who lives under his bed, and soaking up the goodness and love of the Lord.

One day, when the mysteries of Heaven are opened, we will all be amazed at how close God really is to our hearts.

But Chuck won't be surprised at all...

TEACH THE SUPERNATURAL THROUGH THE PRACTICAL

RHEMA 3/6/00: TEACH MYSTICAL FROM RELEVANT EXAMPLES

DREAM PIX: I saw a big eagle with the face of Bob Jones came into our office at the boring.

BLOOPER: [Hilarious typo] It was supposed to be our office at church! I had in the clipboard memory of my computer, a phrase from the back of my Bible which says, “The day they finished the boring through, the waters flowed.” I believe this is true that as we bore through hard rock, resistance, we are drilling a well in which the waters will finally bubble to the surface.

PIX: I saw Jesus (although I did not see Him, just the motions and I knew it was Him) kissed the center of my palms, then kissed the finger tips, then placed them on His cheeks.

HEARD: Your hands are cold. Let Me blow upon them. Unpacking from the past. I feel very good about it. This is very good, by the way.

PIX: I saw someone walking in my kitchen. It was the bottom of some pant legs that were jeans and cowboy boots.

HEARD: Give me a minute here. I love you. What we need to do is base it on something relevant. I teach. Thought about that. Examples hot off the press. Revealing the practical and mystical.

WORD TO PONDER PRACTICAL AND RELEVANT 3/6/00
I have called you to teach through modeling. The best teacher is the one who gives living examples and shows My way through real life. I have placed within you a practical personality and yet you have the sight to see the mystical. I want you to share what is relevant through communicating the parables and stories that I give you to hear. I reveal many of My kingdom secrets through the stories of parables.

"For my words are wise, and my thoughts are filled with insight. I listen carefully to many proverbs and solve riddles with inspiration from a harp." (Ps 49:3-4 NLT)

RHEMA 2/28/00: HEALING AND DELIVERANCE THROUGH MELTING THE LAYERS

HEARD: God has answered my prayers. Every last one. You don't see the heart of the matter. I am soaking the layers. The crux of the matter. Wound. Bind it up.

She didn't know what to do. The one you love. Every family goes through this. Stand. One mind. Dunamis.

HEARD: God is soaking you. Melted person. Fill me. Overflowing cup. Capacity. Bigger.

PIX: I saw pastor laying hands on a wounded person, saying let the healing begin.

REOCCURRING DREAM: SOAKING PRAYERS FOR HEALING
I had the same dream several times last night where we were praying over a loved one for his healing. We were asking the Lord to touch him more. I had the impression that these were soaking prayers of just asking for His Presence to melt through his layers and increase his capacity to receive, like stretching a wine skin to hold more.

WORD TO PONDER SOAKING PRAYERS 2/28/00
There are those whose wine skins need to be stretched so that their capacity to receive is enlarges. For these, I want them to be soaked in prayer. I have many layers yet to touch in their lives, for they are coated with many layers that have held Me at arms length. This is due to childhood pain, and they are not even aware of how deep it goes, or how much it has harnessed their growth. I want to fill them full up and overflowing, but before that happens, they need to be stretched to receive more of Me in smaller increments.

“And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. The old skins would burst from the pressure, spilling the wine and ruining the skins. New wine must be stored in new wineskins. That way both the wine and the wineskins are preserved." (Matt 9:17 NLT)

LOVED ONES SOAKED IN PRAYER 6/15/99
I hear your heart. I know you suffer for your loved ones who do not choose to trust Me. I would gladly clothe them with My power and authority, yet they walk away and refuse. I understand your pain. It is only a small portion of what I feel.

Turn your pain and hopelessness into soaking prayers. Pray that My Holy Spirit will come and soak away their layers. Their thick skin, their hardened hearts have layers upon layers covering and blinding them from their true need for Me. If they saw through the layers, they would gladly come to Me. Pray that My Presence shall seep through their thickened walls, peeling away their layers, melting their very souls with My love. My love can melt away the thickest layers of darkness. Only pray.

“For this reason I also suffer these things; nevertheless I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep what I have committed to Him until that Day.” (2 Tim 1:12 (NKJ)

RHEMA 3/28/00: UNTHAWING LAYERS IN THE FROZEN MAN

HEARD: Bells in the Holy Place. I can't.

PIX: I saw someone starting to walk in, but they were dragging their feet.

HEARD: Sweat. Sacrifice. Sinner. Alone. Bible, that's not enough. Blood. Offering. By fire. It's all I know. Pack my bags. No bags. He did so much. Brace yourself. It started while you fell asleep.

PIX: I saw a hairdryer.

HEARD: You're the man. Freedom. One layer at a time. Melt. Thaw. Preserved. Heat. Slowly. Weathered the storm.

> COMMENTS: The above rhema is speaking about those who went through a great snow storm and fell asleep and the Lord is going to heat them up a layer at a time and bring them back to life.
> I had watched a documentary on raising the Mammoth. It was a real tape of some archeologists who traveled far north and cut out an entire frozen Mammoth. It was a fascinating show. They managed to dig it out in one giant ice cube and moved it to an underground cave near an airport. They will be working for about a year to unthaw the ice around it, via 12 hairdryers suspended from the ceiling. When they got to its hair in one area, they could smell the stench of animal smell, along with urine and feces. I was amazing to have been so preserved through thousands of years.
> Ezek 36:25-28 NKJV
> I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will take the heart of stone out of your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. 27 I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you will keep My judgments and do them. 28 Then you shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; you shall be My people, and I will be your God.

RHEMA 10/19/00 DELIVERANCE VIA LAYERS

PIX: I saw a picture of the words, Deliverance layers.

HEARD: Productivity. That which is born of the Spirit will stand. The rest will wash away. Weed self. Wound. Isolate the cause.

HEARD: I think that what God is saying, is that my perspective is off. Seek ye first the kingdom and then these shall be added.

INTERP: When finding inner healing the tools of counsel, indentifying old wounds and root causes are all good. Dealing with unforgiveness is good. But to keep one's focus on the past and on self does not deliver. God heals and delivers, so keep the right perspective and ask the Holy Spirit to guide you through the steps. Deliverance does come in layers, just like the layers on an onion. The bottom line is not to use a formula for healing, but rather ask the Holy Spirit to reveal wounds and heal their source.

Ps 139:23-24 AMP
Search me [thoroughly], O God, and know my heart! Try me and know my thoughts! And see if there is any wicked or hurtful way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

1 Cor 11:31 AMP
For if we searchingly examined ourselves [detecting our shortcomings and recognizing our own condition], we should not be judged and penalty decreed [by the divine judgment].

1 Cor 11:28 AMP
Let a man [thoroughly] examine himself, and [only when he has done] so should he eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

1 John 1:9 AMP
If we [freely] admit that we have sinned and confess our sins, He is faithful and just (true to His own nature and promises) and will forgive our sins [dismiss our lawlessness] and [continuously] cleanse us from all unrighteousness [everything not in conformity to His will in purpose, thought, and action].

RHEMA 7/12/97 DELIVERANCE LAYERS

During a conference, I was going down the hallway to the bathroom and saw a group of people ministering to someone who was loudly sobbing on the floor. I knew that this person was experiencing a demonic manifestation and was running from the Presence of the Lord.

Knowing that she knew me, I kneeled down with her and interrupted her crying, and said, “Do you trust me?” She nodded yes. I said, “You need to pick yourself up and go back into that room and be in the Presence of God.” A demon responded back through her voice, although I had no idea what was said. I spoke to her and not the demon and said that if she could not get up by herself, we would help her and take her in there because we loved her very much and she needed to be in the Presence of the Lord and not be hiding from it. The demon did not like that in the least. When we helped her to the door of the threshold of the sanctuary, she stopped right at the line, and would not step over. It took some coaxing, but we managed to take her to the very back corner of the large room. There was loud worship music going on, and hands on ministry taking place all over. The Presence of the Lord was strong and it was the perfect atmosphere for her to receive His work.

Myself and 2 other people sat with her, praying in tongues. She eventually went berserk and fell to the floor. She sobbed, heaved, screamed, and squirmed, and we prayed in tongues all the more diligently. She went through waves of this between quiet times.

I heard the Lord say, “Deep cleansing.” Then I watched it happen again as in waves, of sobbing, screaming, then release with quiet following. Then I heard the Lord say, “Layers.” As she was sobbing I leaned over and told her these things, and what was happening to her was a good thing and that the Lord was doing His cleansing work of many layers of past years in her life.

I learned quite a lot about the deliverance process as this was a supernatural experience totally orchestrated by the Holy Spirit, as all we were doing was praying in tongues while laying hands on her. I felt a strong oneness with the Holy Spirit's work while it was occurring. Each time just prior to her breaking her quiet I would begin to feel a pressure build in my Spirit. I would lean down and start praying very strongly and loudly in tongues as the Holy Spirit gave me unction.. Then as the demon left, I would feel that pressure instantly go away within my own Spirit. OH THE PEACE AND RELIEF OF IT! This happened many times. The peace after each layer was quite something.

Even though my flesh was fighting the whole process and I wanted it “DONE” I loved her enough and recognized the Holy Spirit enough to stay with it. This process of de-layering deliverance went on for a long time and I began to get weary as it was late and I was really tired and it was also hard to sit on the floor all that time. I silently asked the Lord with each layer, “Please let this be the last one!” yet I had so much compassion for her. Finally I decided on my own (!) this was the last layer as she had calmed down for a time. I heard the Lord say in response to my independent thought, “Trust Me.” No sooner did I hear that, then she began again. This one ended up the last for that night. When the layer left, I knew it was Abandonment.

It was interesting that the first coherent thing she said after it was all done related to abandonment. She said, “Thank you for staying with me and not leaving me! I was afraid you would leave before it was finished.” Boy am I glad the Lord interrupted my independence and kept me there to complete His work. It was a good lesson.

WAYNE'S DREAM 3/6/99: NO ICE RESULTS IN PROMOTION

The enemy had come into our apartment and demanded our ice. (Frozen territory under the enemy's domain.) We had just moved in (promotion) and had no ice. They were restrained and left.

John 14:30-31 NKJV
I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming, and he has nothing in Me .

WORD TO PONDER MELTING COLD HEARTS 3/6/99

I am in the process of unthawing My people from a lengthy frozen over and cold state. Many hearts are yet wrapped in ice, feeling cold and abandoned. But I hear their cries for help, and am sending My Presence to warm their many layers. I will melt them one by one and bring a great thaw to their land frozen over by a demonic climate.

You will notice that as you give your hearts to Me and I bring you out of the long, cold winters sleep, that you will find protection from the enemy. Intruders may knock on your door, but if you have no ice, they have nothing in you. They are unable to touch you or have anything in which to claim as their own. So allow My unthawing work to melt your heart with My everlasting love. Above all else, love Me and love others. Let My mercy and forgiveness do its work.

“Then he lay down on the child's body, placing his mouth on the child's mouth, his eyes on the child's eyes, and his hands on the child's hands. And the child's body began to grow warm again!” (2 Kings 4:34-35 NLT)

TO WEEP AGAIN 4/07/04

I am melting the hearts of My shepherds one layer at a time. So many have grown numb from years of suffering over the pain of those they care for. Out of mere survival mode, the hearts of these dear shepherds have turned deep inside in an effort to find a warm place, safe from the blizzards of disappointment. They too are in deep need of tender loving care and who will be there to warm their hearts? I have heard their prayers and will bring them back to life. I have wept tears in their stead, for their fountains stopped their flow and their tears dried up. I have felt the pain they no longer feel. The numbness that surrounds their very existence shall become warm to My loving touch. I will pursue these shepherds until their final facade melts away and their hearts have grown tender once again. When they feel the thaw, their tears will flow once again and I will stop at nothing to hold them in My arms of love…. these, the shepherds of My heart.

Ezek 11:18-21 NKJV
Then I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within them, and take the stony heart out of their flesh, and give them a heart of flesh, that they may walk in My statutes and keep My judgments and do them; and they shall be My people, and I will be their God.

CREATED FOR RELATIONSHIP 4/19/04

Like the radiant sun on a cold day, I have been silently shining My face upon you. You have often wondered why I would touch you in such a way. This has been My love language melting your mask. Yes I know your pain, dear son. You may have hidden it from yourself, but you have not hidden it from Me.

I created you for relationship. I planted this need so deep that even you do not understand its depth. The enemy has known this, and has plotted to steal relationship from you. His plot has been to so thwart these blessings that you would feel alone and isolated even among a full house or a crowd.

You have suffered the bitter coldness of thwarted expectations. Trying so hard, longing to be loved for who you are, and proving yourself worthy for the fellowship that you were created to have… Life has not gone the way you hoped or planned. You have also faced the gripping truth of a masked world full of facades: those who would extend their hand, when they only want what is in yours. This final blow sent you into an isolation of soul whose only safe place was barricaded with ice. How well I know and understand your attempts to numb yourself from these things.

I too know this pain. I have suffered this in heaven and on earth - My very creation seeking My face for what I can give them, not for Who I AM. Their love for their Father stands second to their lust for power, dominion and pleasure. They put all aside to pursue their kingdoms, yet they do not understand there is nothing more important in all of heaven or on earth … than relationship.

Yes, I have been mostly silent as I have warmed your layers. Your numbness has even kept Me at bay, even though that has not been your desire. I brought you through this time, dear one, and now you know My heart more because of it. I have wanted loving fellowship just like you. And I want you. Yes, dear one it's over, and your ice has melted. You are adopted and chosen as My own. You belong to Me.

Rev 3:20 KJV
Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

PREPARATION FOR DIVINE VISITATIONS

3 visions & promises of His coming glory cloud

2/22/00

Hi Loved Ones,

It's been a couple of weeks now since I returned from a Bob Jones & Bobby Conner conference. At the conference I received an experience of a visitation from the Lord's glory cloud and want to share it with you. I believe the experience and the environment in which it happened is a Word of the Lord for us all.

This Pacific Northwest conference gave wonderful promises of the Lord's coming glory and that was very encouraging. Among the Words given, one said that the Lord was getting ready to visit His people. He said this would be individual and personal visitations, (rather than corporate visitations, for those would come at a later time) and many would see angels and even Jesus!

However there was a strong theme from each of the speakers of a need for the circumcision of our hearts, repentance and a return to holiness. At the end of one such meeting, there was a call for repentance and intercession over the sins of our forefathers. There was weeping and mourning at the altar. (Joel 2:11-18) I was repenting over identified generational sins passed down in my family blood line. Afterwards I felt empty and saddened at the sins and I heard the Lord say, "I forgive you. I forgive you. I forgive you." I knew it was for the 3 generations I had been praying about and His forgiveness put the matter to rest and I was comforted. I had been especially concerned about this being passed onto future generations and knew that it had been broken in Jesus Name.

Immediately following, Pastor Dale Howell announced He felt impressed that the Lord was saying, "Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow I will visit you." (Joshua 3:5) He suggested that we would not waste away if we forwent the trip to Denny's after the meeting, but instead kept the same heart and quietly returned to our rooms to seek the Lord. As I quietly left, I noticed the walkway and halls back to our rooms were filled with people all walking in silence. This in itself was a work of the Lord. As I silently climbed into bed I noticed that the clock said 11:56 PM. I realized that it was 4 minutes until "tomorrow" and I felt the Lord was going to visit me, just as Pastor Dale had said. My parting words to the Lord before falling into an exhausted sleep: "Lord it's only 4 minutes until tomorrow. Please come!"

I was not disappointed. At 4:45 I was awakened with a vision. I saw the cloud of the Lord rolling in on the same glory train tracks I had seen in previous visions. This cloud was moving like the speed of a train down these tracks. I perceived that the train was inside the cloud and being covered by the cloud. Since 4:45 AM was quickened to me as important, I immediately thought that 4:45 represented Ezekiel 44:5, although I could not remember what the passage said.

As I lay in bed quietly worshipping the Lord, I realized His cloud was in the room. I literally breathed the vapor into my nose and lungs. I began to breath very deep as Bob Jones had suggested in an earlier meeting, and then after a while the humid vapor turned into strong incense. It was the same smell of incense that I smelled at Mahesh's Watch at a conference last year when the Lord had opened my sense of smell.

While I was smelling His incense, my right hand had a surge of His power go through it, then it began to tremble. I heard the Lord say, "Lay it upon your shoulder." I remembered that Bob Jones had said that the shoulder represents the government of the Lord. (Isa 9:6) It was quickened to me that the Lord was about to place His right hand of power upon the shoulders of those whom He has called into His divine government or rule. I felt that the right hand also represented His 5 fold ministry being endued with His power and going forth in His authority.

It was impressed to me that this vision and prophetic experience was somehow related to the environment of the conference meetings: the need for circumcision of our hearts, repentance and a return to holiness, as well as the Word, "Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow I will visit you." However it was not until a few days later, after I had pondered the experience and interpretation, that I found time to look up Ezekiel 44:5. The passage fit exactly.

Ezek 44:4-9

4Also He brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple; so I looked, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD; and I fell on my face. 5And the LORD said to me, "Son of man, mark well, see with your eyes and hear with your ears, all that I say to you concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD and all its laws. Mark well who may enter the house and all who go out from the sanctuary. 6Now say to the rebellious, to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "O house of Israel, let us have no more of all your abominations. 7When you brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My sanctuary to defile it--My house--and when you offered My food, the fat and the blood, then they broke My covenant because of all your abominations. 8And you have not kept charge of My holy things, but you have set others to keep charge of My sanctuary for you." 9'Thus says the Lord GOD: "No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart or uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter My sanctuary, including any foreigner who is among the children of Israel.

The life stories in the Old Testament were written for our admonition (or warnings), even for our time today. (I Cor 10:11) They teach us as parables or examples of what He is wanting to teach us in our time. The above Ezekiel scripture clearly tells us those who may enter His Presence. If you note, verse 4 said that the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord. His Presence is waiting to fill us! However He will not fill our temples when we have uncircumcised hearts... hearts that feed upon unholy things.

On 5/13/97 I had another experience with His cloud. I heard the Lord say, "A matter of time." Then I saw a 3-D cloud coming to me. It was hazy and I could see through it. Somehow I recognized that He was inside the cloud and I cried out, "Jesus!" Like a magnet, the cloud came immediately into my pores all over my body. It was like being quickened in all of my cells. I heard Him say, "Cloud. I AM with you. Follow Me." Although I literally experienced His cloud coming into my cells, since I had heard just prior to the vision that it was a matter of time, I believe this was a promise of what was literally to come. We will literally be experiencing the Presence of His cloud, not just in visions!

Annie Schisler, a missionary in Uruguay had numerous trips to the throne room 30 years ago. In her visions, she experienced many aspects of Him in His glory cloud. With her permission, the following is one of her visions.

Note that the Lord spoke to her in "now" language, which is customary to prophets. He is not limited by our slow sense of time. It is so easy to get our prophetic time mixed up because of this. However, I really do feel that with the pieces of the puzzle written in this post, (and more that I do not have space to record) that the time of His visitation is VERY CLOSE. He is hovering over our heads and waiting to visit us and fill us with His glory!

THE CLOUD DESCENDS

[quoted from Annies Visions Book One, page70]

Again I was taken into the realms of the Spirit and lovingly welcomed by the Lord. After covering me with His love He especially told me that I need not have any fear because He would not abandon me. Then He showed me Himself as the Glorious Cloud of Fire and Light. The Cloud was the most excited and exceedingly exalted that I have ever seen it save in anger and wrath, but this time He was not in His wrath. Mighty power and all kinds of rays and emanations were upon all sides. In a most marvelous and tremendous manner He was filled with violence and activity yet it was not in wrath. I cannot describe at all what He was like in the Cloud.

Then there came out from Him in a huge wave something that appeared to be His very own self in mighty glory and in the Cloud yet He did not leave His high place in the heavens either, yet He did. He was in so much activity and moved about over the heavens that opened below Him. This great wave of Himself in the Cloud also descended with tens of thousands of mighty angels down towards the earth. It did not descend slowly nor softly but in great haste and speedy activity. When it was as yet some distance from the earth it hovered there for a while suspended over the heads of the people, but they did not see it nor did they know it was there. And there it rested.

After a while this other Cloud that was Himself - so much so that it seemed that He had partly left the heavens - became again very active and then with another speedy movement it descended again. This time it went clear on down to the earth and was covered from my view.

Then He spoke saying, "This which you see will not take my loving sons by surprise because they are waiting for it to take place. They are already knowing and have been advised and are waiting for Me to come to them in love, for they will love My appearing." He also said that His hour had been fulfilled and that it was now the time that these things must shortly take place."

[end quote]

We have so much to look forward to! May we search our hearts and ask Him to cleanse us from the sins of compromise and mixture.

For those interested, I have had the books of Annie’s Visions for many years and have been greatly blessed and enriched by them. Books 1& 2 are now reprinted and available to purchase at my site, books 3 & 4 will be available in a few months. There is also a 49 page file at my website of visions and rhema about His coming glory train from people all over the world. For those not able to get to the site, a 78 page booklet is available for sale.

Lovingly,

Sandy

BETWEEN THE BLESSINGS AND THE CURSES

2/7/00

Hi Loved Ones,

I came across an interesting section of scripture the other day. The spiritual and prophetic parable leaped off the page and grabbed my heart.

Prior to crossing into the promised land, Moses told the people they would be given the choice between God's blessing or God's curse. To make the point very clear, he told them that after they crossed over, 6 tribes would stand upon Mt Gerizim proclaiming blessings and 6 tribes would stand upon Mt Ebal proclaiming curses. (Deut 11:26-32, Deut 27:11-14, Josh 8:33-35)

These two mountains stood one to the north and the other to the south of a narrow valley cutting through the mountain range. This valley carved a main north-south road that ran between the two mountains making Mt Gerizim (about 2500-2800 feet) a strategic military importance. This valley of Shechem between was about 3 miles long and narrow enough to hear voices between the two mountains.

In this valley between the divided tribes stood the ark of God and the Levites, the priests. They were to literally stand between the blessings and the cursings, shouting the curses and blessings of the law. As I read this suddenly something very personal and very prophetic became quite clear.

A FORERUNNER IN BATTLE

As a background to what I am about to share: in 1984 when I received my supernatural calling from the Lord (15 years after I became a Christian) the Lord planted in my heart a burning and passion to pursue Him. He launched me into dreams and visions and my life became a red-hot pursuit of Him. I discovered in the process that I had an enemy that did not want me to succeed in my pursuit and suddenly opposition came from every side.

It has been a very long uphill journey overcoming a step at a time. The Lord has kept me safe within His hedge allowing allotted degrees of warfare. He gave me the understanding and the faith to stand upon the scripture: "For it was of the LORD to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that He might utterly destroy them, and that they might receive no mercy, but that He might destroy them, as the LORD had commanded Moses." (Josh 11:20 NKJV) I didn't like this, but I accepted it, grateful for the enlightenment.

It is important to note that as an intercessor, I do not go after principalities and fight offensive battles. To do so is sure presumption and certain doom without the command of the Lord. In certain seasons I have had intercessory assignments where principalities have opposed me at night time. I have stood in these incidents and seen some wonderful dynamic clashes of lightening as opposing forces fight, while in my weak flesh I merely speak His Name or Word, or take simple authority over such. We are called to do our part and the warring angels do the rest as we stand in faith. On a number of occasions I have wrestled in hand to hand combat with these rulers ("For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." Eph 6:12) and have come to appreciate that Paul certainly knew this wrestling experience.

In all of these assignments, they have lasted for seasons, some longer than others, always sprinkled with blessings and the keeping power of Him Whom I love, and intimacy with Him. I have learned to trust that He totally equips us with exactly what we need to stand and stay within Him. Every assignment, although some very difficult and lengthy, has ended in victory as He has commanded it. Such is the background for what I am about to tell you.

Within the past year I have had 3 occasions, lasting a total of several weeks, where a principality of cursing opposed me. It was like nothing I had ever stood against before, for this was a blatant attack during the daylight hours directly against my thoughts. My spiritual ears would open and I could hear him curse myself and others, hundreds and hundreds of times, over and over again. It got to the point where as I walked in public places I knew who was a Christian and who was not, merely by hearing the curses hurled against them! It was the most difficult battle I have ever faced. I did everything to stand against this horrific onslaught. I want to briefly share some of the ways I stood, to pass on some tools, but this is not the point of this posting.

I bound him in Jesus Name. I said whom God has blessed, you cannot curse. I told him that no matter how tiny I was, and how tall he was, he was doomed to fall because I stood not in my own power, but in the power of Jesus Christ. I told him he had no authority against Jesus Christ. I poured the blood of Jesus Christ all over his head. I commanded double portion blessings upon each and every person he cursed. I said he had no authority except what God Himself had ordained, in order that he might be destroyed. I did self inspection, repenting of any unknown sins, searched my home to make sure there was nothing offensive to the Lord, and fasted the ol' flesh. I submitted to the covering and prayers of those whom the Lord has called me to be personally accountable to. I called upon the Lord's help, I loosed the warring angels to stand strong against this big dude. I commanded the curses to be null and void in Jesus Name. I sent the curses to be chained in the abyss to await their judgment. I sent the curses to the feet of Jesus to be held captive. I placed the curses under my feet in Jesus Name. You name it, it did it.

TAKING THOUGHTS CAPTIVE

Paul understood the spiritual battle: "For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, BRINGING EVERY THOUGHT INTO CAPTIVITY TO THE OBEDIENCE OF CHRIST, and being ready to punish all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled." (2 Cor 10:3-6 NKJV)

I tried to command every thought, every curse I heard to be held captive in Jesus Name. Sometimes they came so fast and furious, it was literally impossible, and so I would take authority over all the curses since the last time I sent them to be judged. Many, many times I felt as though I was getting nowhere. But I knew that when my obedience in warfare, intercession and my own walk was fulfilled, these curses would receive their punishment.

THE REWARD

As the days turned into weeks I became very weary. In the final week of battle some interesting things took place. I started wondering how tall this dude was. I knew he was at least as tall as a mountain. And once again, I said it didn't matter how tiny I was, he was doomed. That night I was taken up into hand to hand wrestling with him and the Lord opened my eyes. We were miles above ground. Somehow, it didn't matter to me. I knew it was only a matter of time, he was doomed. That week something wonderful happened. I began to get very discouraged! I started to complain to the Lord and said, "Lord where is my reward for having to hear all of this terrible cursing?" I suddenly thought that He has given us the nations for our inheritance, if we ask.

Psalms 2 (NKJV)

"Why do the nations rage, and the people plot a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD and against His anointed, saying, "Let us break their bonds in pieces and cast away their cords from us." He who sits in the heavens shall laugh; the LORD shall hold them in derision. Then He shall speak to them in His wrath, and distress them in His deep displeasure: "Yet I have set My king on My holy hill of Zion." "I will declare the decree: The LORD has said to me, 'You are My Son, today I have begotten You. ASK OF ME, AND I WILL GIVE YOU THE NATIONS FOR YOUR INHERITANCE, AND THE ENDS OF THE EARTH FOR YOUR POSSESSION. You shall break them with a rod of iron; you shall dash them to pieces like a potter's vessel.' "Now therefore, be wise, O kings; be instructed, you judges of the earth. Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling. Kiss the Son, lest He be angry, and you perish in the way, when His wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all those who put their trust in Him."

As I pondered this, I began to get very excited. I asked the Lord for 100 souls for every curse I had heard! I immediately heard another barrage of curses. Each and every curse, I stood against and said, "That's 100 souls in Jesus Name!" "That's another 100 souls in Jesus Name." "There's another 100 souls!" In a few minutes I had over 1000 souls. My heart leaped and I started rejoicing. I was seeing a sea of faces. I became so excited at every curse I heard, that I actually started thanking the enemy for another 100 souls! I became a fanatic for souls, rejoicing with every curse!!!! I have to tell you, with no bells or whistles the curses fizzled out that week as I stood against their dwindling numbers, with my rejoicing of each 100 added to the list. In a few short days, all became quiet.

THE PARABLE

In the past year as Words of the Lord have come through various sources, we have heard the voices of coming judgment and glory. These are the curses and the blessings. The intercessors have stood in between declaring, "Oh God how we have fallen! Turn us around and let us enter Your glory!"

In the day of Joshua, the divided tribes were in the high places declaring blessings and cursings. This was going on over the heads of the Levites in the valley, those who carried the ark of God. I consider this a parable, where the high places are the spirituals where the blessings and curses are spoken and the angels and demons bring to pass the spoken Words. The Levites had a Word war going on above their heads!

OUR CHOICES IN THE DAYS TO COME

What I went through was a parable and a forerunner of what is to come. In the days to come, we each will have our portion of warfare and battle. Together we fight against common enemies and together we will utterly destroy these giants. For truly at the turn of the year, I knew we had come into the land of giants. This one of cursing opposes us day and night, whether or not we hear. I wish I could say this giant is dissolved and completely destroyed. He is not, for even though the Lord has closed my ears and hedge to his barrage, I can still feel him behind my invisible shield. His authority to curse the body of Christ comes from our disobedience! As we come into this new land of promises, depending upon our own choices, we will receive blessings or curses.

Deut 28:1-10 TLB

"If you fully obey all of these commandments of the Lord your God, the laws I am declaring to you today, God will transform you into the greatest nation in the world. These are the blessings that will come upon you:

Blessings in the city,

Blessings in the field;

Many children,

Ample crops,

Large flocks and herds;

Blessings of fruit and bread;

Blessings when you come in,

Blessings when you go out.

"The Lord will defeat your enemies before you; they will march out together against you but scatter before you in seven directions! The Lord will bless you with good crops and healthy cattle, and prosper everything you do when you arrive in the land the Lord your God is giving you. He will change you into a holy people dedicated to himself; this he has promised to do if you will only obey him and walk in his ways. All the nations in the world shall see that you belong to the Lord, and they will stand in awe."

Deut 28:15-21 TLB

"If you won't listen to the Lord your God and won't obey these laws I am giving you today, then all of these curses shall come upon you:

Curses in the city,

Curses in the fields,

Curses on your fruit and bread,

The curse of barren wombs,

Curses upon your crops,

Curses upon the fertility of your cattle and flocks,

Curses when you come in,

Curses when you go out.

"For the Lord himself will send his personal curse upon you. You will be confused and a failure in everything you do, until at last you are destroyed because of the sin of forsaking him. He will send disease among you until you are destroyed from the face of the land you are about to enter and possess."

Beloved of the Lord, if ever there was a more serious time to get our lives in line with Him and become holy people set apart unto Him — it is now.

Lovingly,

Sandy

WORSHIPPED THE LORD WITH "GLAD" BAGS :O)

RHEMA 2/4/00: JOYOUS GLAD OVERCOMER

We were going through some very rough trials and the Lord broke through with a "funny" Word.

HEARD: Congratulations. You made it through.

I turned with anointed hands to:
AH: The opening of the door of hope. JOY restored.

PRAYER MEETING: THE LORD LAUGHS

Today we prayed for some leaders in the body of Christ that were under attack. As I led in prayer, pastor heard the Lord laugh, then at the exact moment one of our intercessors began to laugh. Pastor turned to Psalm 2.

> Ps 2:4 He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.

HOME GROUP: WORSHIPPED WITH "GLAD" BAGS!!!!!!!!!!

Tonight we worshipped with glad bags and sang He has made me glad. Wayne and I separately heard angels singing with us during worship. Neither of us mentioned it to the other until after the meeting. It was awesome worship.

Some waved the bags like banners. I put my legs in mine and sat in it while playing the keyboard. Another put it on his head. Another had one wrapped around his shoulders. We all blew in them and made them swell like balloons too. I think the Lord has a wonderful sense of humor and we experienced a lot of freedom!

> Mark 10:14-16 NKJV
> "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the kingdom of God. Assuredly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will by no means enter it." And He took them up in His arms, laid His hands on them, and blessed them.

BAGS: This was SUCH a precious Word to me, because the word "beset" means to be enclosed in a bag. I have seen this in many different levels of applications in my rhema. We are totally surrounded and kept, just like a baby in the placenta.

> Ps 139:5-7 AMP
> You have beset me and shut me in - behind and before, and You have laid Your hand upon me. Your [infinite] knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high above me, I cannot reach it. Where could I go from Your Spirit? Or where could I flee from Your presence?

The bottom line is that when it is the worst, God can download us with supernatural joy and that is a mighty weapon.

> Ps 5:11-12 NKJV
> But let all those rejoice who put their trust in You; Let them ever shout for joy , because You defend them; Let those also who love Your name Be joyful in You. 12 For You, O LORD, will bless the righteous; With favor You will surround him as with a shield.

TRAINING: TOUGH LOVE VS TENDER LOVE

1/28/00

Hi Loved Ones,

A few weeks ago while I was speaking in tongues the Lord gave me the instant interpretation of 3 of my words in a particular phrase. I immediately said, "Uh oh…" I was stunned and He had my attention. Those words were: "Training. Error. Correction."

Right at the turn of the year I had been hearing that we had entered a new year of training. The Lord wanted to train us or teach us. I was excited about being trained in new giftings and at that time He immediately starting teaching me in new gifts so I knew I had understood the season.

However later when I heard those 3 little words, "Training, error and correction" it put a greater perspective to the word "training." In one short week I felt like I had been put through a blender and turned on high for a crash course. During that week, I passed by a sign outside a neighborhood church. It was obvious from the scaffolding and workers that they were in the midst of construction and enlargement. The sign read, "Lord, please turn this mess into a message!" It made me chuckle and I identified with the concept that sometimes when we are in the process of growing into spiritual promotions that it can look like a mess. The next day I was feeling that the blender had been turned up even higher. As I passed the same sign again, the Holy Spirit nudged me to turn around and look at the other side. It said, "Lord please turn this test into a testimony!" I thought about those signs and prayed, "OK Lord, what is Your message through all of this? This is obvious a test from You, so please help me pass it and learn from it so I never have to repeat it again!"

After a lot of prayer, changes in attitude, choices, and mercy from Him, I am feeling as though the blender has stopped and I am coming out the other side a lot smoother. I would like to pass on some of the things He has shown me since the first of the year about this year of "Training."

1] GOD IS SAYING YES TO DISCIPLINE

Sometimes we become so immersed in the love of God and His grace, that we forget He is sovereign and actually gives the enemy permission to "pulverize" us. Much of what we consider demonic attack is allowed from God as chastisement. "If troubles come upon them and they are enslaved and afflicted, then He takes the trouble to point out to them the reason, what they have done that is wrong, or how they have behaved proudly. He helps them hear His instruction to turn away from their sin." (Job 36:8-10 TLB)

2] REPAIR YOUR OWN HEDGE: CHANGE

We are in the days where the accuser of the brethren is operating a full scale battle against God’s own. (Rev 12:10) The first target the enemy uses is our sins, faults, mistakes, rebellions, and our weaknesses. These accusations are hurled against us from all directions, (even when we do not hear of them) and as a result there are demonic assignments sent to torment us. If we are quick to close our broken hedges by true repentance with changes in behavior, attitudes and choices, then this gives the devil less inroad. "But now You have broken down our walls, leaving us without protection." (Ps 80:12 TLB) "Come, and let us return to the LORD; For He has torn, but He will heal us; He has stricken, but He will bind us up." (Hos 6:1 NKJ)

3] RESIST CONDEMNATION

The devil wants to brow beat us with our weaknesses. If we have repented and are willing and teachable in whatever area the devil is accusing us, then resist condemnation. "There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit." (Rom 8:1 NKJ)

The Lord will allow us to fall to get our attention, but it is His intent to repair and build us again. "On that day I will raise up the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down, and repair its damages; I will raise up its ruins, and rebuild it as in the days of old." (Amos 9:11) "After this I will return and will rebuild the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down; I will rebuild its ruins, and I will set it up; So that the rest of mankind may seek the LORD, even all the Gentiles who are called by My name, says the LORD who does all these things." (Acts 15:16-17 NKJ)

4] RESIST TURNING INWARD

The enemy will do everything he can to divert our focus away from worshipping & intimacy with the Lord. There are many, many pitfalls he uses. One of them is ourselves, such as: naval gazing, soul searching, focusing upon our circumstances, needs & feelings.

Almost 30 years ago I heard a traveling evangelist speak a warning. I was very depressed at the time and he looked straight at me as he spoke about the black hole. He asked the audience if we understood how a black hole was created in the universe. He went on to explain that black holes were once stars whose spiraling gravity was so strong, that the star turned inward and lost its light. He said that if we turn inward and focus upon ourselves then we are in danger of losing our light! This pierced my soul and I never forgot it.

If the Lord is wanting to get our attention through chastisement, it only takes our prayer and His quickening power of the Holy Spirit to spotlight a need for change. We don’t have to spend hours of self analysis, miserable thought life and emotions to find answers. We really can learn to pray about it, dump it in His lap and wait upon Him for answers. Until the answers come, we can worship Him and enjoy His Presence. When we are soaking in the Presence of the Lord, every care, every circumstance, every need fades away and only He matters!

5] TOUGH LOVE VS TENDER LOVE

The manner in which the Lord teaches us, trains us is totally up to us! If we are unwilling, stubborn, unyielding, unrepentant, resisting His voice by following our own ways, then we give Him no choice to but use tough love.

"I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will guide you with My eye.

Do not be like the horse or like the mule, which have no understanding, which must be harnessed with bit and bridle, else they will not come near you." (Ps 32:8-9 NKJ)

That scripture is power-packed. I have read it many times, but happened to turn to it in my "pulverizing blender" week. I thought about it in relation to my circumstances of demonic invasion and I suddenly understood what He was trying to tell me: "Sandy, I love you so much that I want to answer your requests for understanding with just a look in My eye. I don’t want to have to put a bit in your mouth and force you to the right or the left and coerce you into making adjustments. Rather I want to merely look your way and your heart be so tuned to Me that you know without My ever saying a Word, that you are in need of some fine tuning."

Many times when I have spoken out of turn (or too long), the Holy Spirit has nudged me to silence and at the same time I have noticed the look in my husband's 'eye'. After I have mentioned it to him, he nods in agreement that he had been thinking the same thing. My husband does not raise his voice with me and I cannot remember when he has ever condemned me. I know he loves me and wants only God's best for me. But to see that eye... It's the kind of eye that no one else may notice, but I know. It's that look that says, "Sandy you are treading on dangerous ground. Be very careful and watch your words!" That's how the Lord wants to teach us. Would that we all become so sensitive to His heart, that we know without a single rebuke where we need to adjust our course!

6] FINE TUNING

If we are yielded - teachable and pliable to the Lord, He has no desire to train us with sludge hammers. It is more a process of fine tuning things that are not quite in harmony with Him.

This year, as you pray about your circumstances and make decisions about what the Lord is doing, consider the possibility that He is wanting to use them to train you in the way you should go. Tough love or tender love, the choice is ours.

"Come now, and let us reason together," says the LORD. "Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall be as wool. If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land; But if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured by the sword"; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken." (Isa 1:18-20 NKJ)

Lovingly,

Sandy

GROUP MINISTRIES TO RAISE THE CHILDREN

RHEMA 1/10/2000: ABOUT CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

I was praying over the children's ministry. The kids at church were running around and not planted.

HEARD: They need time. Routine, structure and balance. Grace. Wisdom.

Candles. It's a group effort to minister to them.. Milk of the Word.

PIX: I saw a baby bottle filled with milk sitting in the middle of the church tables, where the candles sit.

INTERP: It is going to take a group ministry and not one person called to children's ministry to help feed the children.

CHILDREN AND THE CHURCH

A little boy was attending his first wedding.

After the service, his cousin asked him, "How many women can a man marry? "

"Sixteen," the boy responded. His cousin was amazed that he had an answer so quickly.

"How do you know that?"

"Easy," the little boy said. "All you have to do is add it up, like the pastor said, 4 better, 4 worse, 4 richer, 4 poorer."

=======

After a church service on Sunday morning, a young boy suddenly announced to his mother, "Mom, I've decided to become a minister when I grow up."

"That's okay with us, but what made you decide that?"

"Well," said the little boy, "I have to go to church on Sunday anyway, and I figure it will be more fun to stand up and yell, than to sit and listen."

=======

A 6-year-old was overheard reciting the Lord's Prayer at a church service, "And forgive us our trash passes, as we forgive those who passed trash against us."

=======

A boy was watching his father, a pastor, write a sermon.
"How do you know what to say?" he asked.

"Why, God tells me."
"Oh, then why do you keep crossing things out?"

=======

A little girl became restless as the preacher's sermon dragged on and on. Finally, she leaned over to her mother and whispered,
"Mommy, if we give him the money now, will he let us go?"

=======

After the christening of his baby brother in church, little Johnny sobbed all the way home in the back seat of the car. His father asked him three times what was wrong.

Finally, the boy replied, "That priest said he wanted us brought up in a Christian home, and I want to stay with you guys!"

=======

Ms. Terri asked her Sunday School class to draw pictures of their favorite Bible stories. She was puzzled by Kyle's picture, which showed four people on an airplane, so she asked him which story it was meant to represent.

"The Flight to Egypt," was his reply.

Pointing at each figure, Ms. Terri said, "That must be Mary, Joseph, and Baby Jesus. But who's the fourth person?"

"Oh, that's Pontius - the pilot!"

The Sunday School Teacher asks, "Now, Johnny, tell me frankly do you say prayers before eating?"

"No sir," little Johnny replies,

I don't have to. My Mom is a good cook."

This is the best one.

A little girl was sitting on her grandfather's lap as he read her a bedtime story.

From time to time, she would take her eyes off the book and reach up to touch his wrinkled cheek.

She was alternately stroking her own cheek, then his again.

Finally she spoke up, "Grandpa, did God make you?"

"Yes, sweetheart," he answered, "God made me a long time ago."

"Oh," she paused, "Grandpa, did God make me too?"

"Yes, indeed, honey," he said, "God made you just a little while ago."

Feeling their respective faces again, she observed, "God's getting better at it, isn't he?"

1) THE BLOOD OF JESUS

Matt 26:27-28

27 Then He took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. 28 For this is My blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

Luke 22:44-45

44 And being in agony, He prayed more earnestly. Then His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

John 6:53-57

53 Then Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you. 54 Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. 55 For My flesh is food indeed, and My blood is drink indeed. 56 He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him.

John 19:33-37

33 But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs. 34 But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. 35 And he who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true; and he knows that he is telling the truth, so that you may believe. 36 For these things were done that the Scripture should be fulfilled, "Not one of His bones shall be broken." 37 And again another Scripture says, "They shall look on Him whom they pierced."

Rom 3:23-26

23 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, 24 being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, 25 whom God set forth as a propitiation by His blood, through faith, to demonstrate His righteousness, because in His forbearance God had passed over the sins that were previously committed, 26 to demonstrate at the present time His righteousness, that He might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus.

Rom 3:23-26

23 For all have sinned; all fall short of God's glorious standard. 24 Yet now God in his gracious kindness declares us not guilty. He has done this through Christ Jesus, who has freed us by taking away our sins. 25 For God sent Jesus to take the punishment for our sins and to satisfy God's anger against us. We are made right with God when we believe that Jesus shed his blood, sacrificing his life for us. God was being entirely fair and just when he did not punish those who sinned in former times. 26 And he is entirely fair and just in this present time when he declares sinners to be right in his sight because they believe in Jesus.

Rom 5:7-11

8 But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. 9 Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath through Him. 10 For if when we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life. 11 And not only that, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.

Rom 5:7-11

8 But God showed his great love for us by sending Christ to die for us while we were still sinners. 9 And since we have been made right in God's sight by the blood of Christ, he will certainly save us from God's judgment. 10 For since we were restored to friendship with God by the death of his Son while we were still his enemies, we will certainly be delivered from eternal punishment by his life. 11 So now we can rejoice in our wonderful new relationship with God--all because of what our Lord Jesus Christ has done for us in making us friends of God.

NLT

16 When we bless the cup at the Lord's Table, aren't we sharing in the benefits of the blood of Christ? And when we break the loaf of bread, aren't we sharing in the benefits of the body of Christ? 17 And we all eat from one loaf, showing that we are one body. 18 And think about the nation of Israel; all who eat the sacrifices are united by that act.

19 What am I trying to say? Am I saying that the idols to whom the pagans bring sacrifices are real gods and that these sacrifices are of some value? 20 No, not at all. What I am saying is that these sacrifices are offered to demons, not to God. And I don't want any of you to be partners with demons. 21 You cannot drink from the cup of the Lord and from the cup of demons, too. You cannot eat at the Lord's Table and at the table of demons, too.

NLT

1 Cor 11:25-26

25 In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me." 26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death till He comes.

Eph 1:3-8

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ, 4 just as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love, 5 having predestined us to adoption as sons by Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His will, 6 to the praise of the glory of His grace, by which He has made us accepted in the Beloved. 7 In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace 8 which He made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence,

Eph 2:13-16

13 But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

14 For He Himself is our peace, who has made both one, and has broken down the middle wall of separation, 15 having abolished in His flesh the enmity, that is, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, so as to create in Himself one new man from the two, thus making peace, 16 and that He might reconcile them both to God in one body through the cross, thereby putting to death the enmity.

Col 1:13-15

13 He has delivered us from the power of darkness and conveyed us into the kingdom of the Son of His love, 14 in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins.

Col 1:19-23

19 For it pleased the Father that in Him all the fullness should dwell, 20 and by Him to reconcile all things to Himself, by Him, whether things on earth or things in heaven, having made peace through the blood of His cross. 21 And you, who once were alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now He has reconciled 22 in the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy, and blameless, and above reproach in His sight--

Heb 9:11-22

11 But Christ came as High Priest of the good things to come, with the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made with hands, that is, not of this creation. 12 Not with the blood of goats and calves, but with His own blood He entered the Most Holy Place once for all, having obtained eternal redemption. 13 For if the blood of bulls and goats and the ashes of a heifer, sprinkling the unclean, sanctifies for the purifying of the flesh, 14 how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? 15 And for this reason He is the Mediator of the new covenant, by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions under the first covenant, that those who are called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance. 16 For where there is a testament, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator. 17 For a testament is in force after men are dead, since it has no power at all while the testator lives. 18 Therefore not even the first covenant was dedicated without blood. 19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and goats, with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, 20 saying, "This is the blood of the covenant which God has commanded you." 21 Then likewise he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry. 22 And according to the law almost all things are purified with blood, and without shedding of blood there is no remission.

Heb 9:12-22 NLT

12 Once for all time he took blood into that Most Holy Place, but not the blood of goats and calves. He took his own blood, and with it he secured our salvation forever. 13 Under the old system, the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a young cow could cleanse people's bodies from ritual defilement. 14 Just think how much more the blood of Christ will purify our hearts from deeds that lead to death so that we can worship the living God. For by the power of the eternal Spirit, Christ offered himself to God as a perfect sacrifice for our sins. 15 That is why he is the one who mediates the new covenant between God and people, so that all who are invited can receive the eternal inheritance God has promised them. For Christ died to set them free from the penalty of the sins they had committed under that first covenant. 16 Now when someone dies and leaves a will, no one gets anything until it is proved that the person who wrote the will is dead. 17 The will goes into effect only after the death of the person who wrote it. While the person is still alive, no one can use the will to get any of the things promised to them. 18 That is why blood was required under the first covenant as a proof of death. 19 For after Moses had given the people all of God's laws, he took the blood of calves and goats, along with water, and sprinkled both the book of God's laws and all the people, using branches of hyssop bushes and scarlet wool. 20 Then he said, "This blood confirms the covenant God has made with you." 21 And in the same way, he sprinkled blood on the sacred tent and on everything used for worship. 22 In fact, we can say that according to the law of Moses, nearly everything was purified by sprinkling with blood. Without the shedding of blood, there is no forgiveness of sins.

Heb 10:3-10

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and goats could take away sins. 5 Therefore, when He came into the world, He said: "Sacrifice and offering You did not desire, But a body You have prepared for Me. 6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin You had no pleasure. 7 Then I said, 'Behold, I have come-- In the volume of the book it is written of Me-- To do Your will, O God.' " 8 Previously saying, "Sacrifice and offering, burnt offerings, and offerings for sin You did not desire, nor had pleasure in them" (which are offered according to the law), 9 then He said, "Behold, I have come to do Your will, O God." He takes away the first that He may establish the second. 10 By that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

Heb 10:19-23

19 Therefore, brethren, having boldness to enter the Holiest by the blood of Jesus, 20 by a new and living way which He consecrated for us, through the veil, that is, His flesh, 21 and having a High Priest over the house of God, 22 let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

Heb 10:27-29

27 There will be nothing to look forward to but the terrible expectation of God's judgment and the raging fire that will consume his enemies. 28 Anyone who refused to obey the law of Moses was put to death without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. 29 Think how much more terrible the punishment will be for those who have trampled on the Son of God and have treated the blood of the covenant as if it were common and unholy.

Heb 12:24

24 You have come to Jesus, the one who mediates the new covenant between God and people, and to the sprinkled blood, which graciously forgives instead of crying out for vengeance as the blood of Abel did.

Heb 13:20-21

20 Now may the God of peace who brought up our Lord Jesus from the dead, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, 21 make you complete in every good work to do His will, working in you what is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever.

1 Peter 1:1-2

2 God the Father chose you long ago, and the Spirit has made you holy. As a result, you have obeyed Jesus Christ and are cleansed by his blood. May you have more and more of God's special favor and wonderful peace.

1 Peter 1:17-20

18 knowing that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, like silver or gold, from your aimless conduct received by tradition from your fathers, 19 but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot.

1 Peter 1:18-19

18 For you know that God paid a ransom to save you from the empty life you inherited from your ancestors. And the ransom he paid was not mere gold or silver. 19 He paid for you with the precious lifeblood of Christ, the sinless, spotless Lamb of God.

1 John 1:6-10

7 But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin. 8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

1 John 5:6-9

6 This is He who came by water and blood--Jesus Christ; not only by water, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is truth. 7 For there are three that bear witness in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one. 8 And there are three that bear witness on earth: the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree as one.

Rev 1:4-7

Grace to you and peace from Him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne, 5 and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler over the kings of the earth. To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood, 6 and has made us kings and priests to His God and Father, to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Rev 5:8-10

9 And they sang a new song, saying: "You are worthy to take the scroll, And to open its seals; For You were slain,

And have redeemed us to God by Your blood Out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation, 10 And have made us kings and priests to our God; And we shall reign on the earth."

Rev 7:13-15

14 And I said to him, "Sir, you know." So he said to me, "These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Rev 12:7-11

7 And war broke out in heaven: Michael and his angels fought with the dragon; and the dragon and his angels fought, 8 but they did not prevail, nor was a place found for them in heaven any longer. 9 So the great dragon was cast out, that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was cast to the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. 10 Then I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, "Now salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren, who accused them before our God day and night, has been cast down. 11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death.

Rev 19:11-16

11 Now I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse. And He who sat on him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war. 12 His eyes were like a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns. He had a name written that no one knew except Himself. 13 He was clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of God. 14 And the armies in heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, followed Him on white horses. 15 Now out of His mouth goes a sharp sword, that with it He should strike the nations. And He Himself will rule them with a rod of iron. He Himself treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. 16 And He has on His robe and on His thigh a name written: KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

2) DELIVERED

Num 21:34-35

34 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Do not fear him, for I have delivered him into your hand, with all his people and his land; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon." 35 So they defeated him, his sons, and all his people, until there was no survivor left him; and they took possession of his land.

Deut 2:32-35

33 And the LORD our God delivered him over to us; so we defeated him, his sons, and all his people. 34 We took all his cities at that time, and we utterly destroyed the men, women, and little ones of every city; we left none remaining.

Josh 2:23-24

24 And they said to Joshua, "Truly the LORD has delivered all the land into our hands, for indeed all the inhabitants of the country are fainthearted because of us."

Josh 10:7-8

7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valor. 8 And the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not fear them, for I have delivered them into your hand; not a man of them shall stand before you."

Josh 10:17-26

18 So Joshua said, "Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and set men by it to guard them. 19 And do not stay there yourselves, but pursue your enemies, and attack their rear guard. Do not allow them to enter their cities, for the LORD your God has delivered them into your hand." 20 Then it happened, while Joshua and the children of Israel made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they had finished, that those who escaped entered fortified cities. 21 And all the people returned to the camp, to Joshua at Makkedah, in peace. No one moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel. 22 Then Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings to me from the cave." 23 And they did so, and brought out those five kings to him from the cave: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon. 24 So it was, when they brought out those kings to Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said to the captains of the men of war who went with him, "Come near, put your feet on the necks of these kings." And they drew near and put their feet on their necks. 25 Then Joshua said to them, "Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed; be strong and of good courage, for thus the LORD will do to all your enemies against whom you fight." 26 And afterward Joshua struck them and killed them,

Josh 21:43-45

43 So the LORD gave to Israel all the land of which He had sworn to give to their fathers, and they took possession of it and dwelt in it. 44 The LORD gave them rest all around, according to all that He had sworn to their fathers. And not a man of all their enemies stood against them; the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand. 45 Not a word failed of any good thing which the LORD had spoken to the house of Israel. All came to pass.

Judg 2:16-19

16 Nevertheless, the LORD raised up judges who delivered them out of the hand of those who plundered them. 17 Yet they would not listen to their judges, but they played the harlot with other gods, and bowed down to them. They turned quickly from the way in which their fathers walked, in obeying the commandments of the LORD;

they did not do so. 18 And when the LORD raised up judges for them, the LORD was with the judge and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for the LORD was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who oppressed them and harassed them.

Judg 6:8-10

Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'I brought you up from Egypt and brought you out of the house of bondage; 9 and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians and out of the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out before you and gave you their land.

Judg 7:15-22

15 And so it was, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, that he worshiped. He returned to the camp of Israel, and said, "Arise, for the LORD has delivered the camp of Midian into your hand." 16 Then he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet into every man's hand, with empty pitchers, and torches inside the pitchers. 17 And he said to them, "Look at me and do likewise; watch, and when I come to the edge of the camp you shall do as I do: 18 When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then you also blow the trumpets on every side of the whole camp, and say, 'The sword of the LORD and of Gideon!' " 19 So Gideon and the hundred men who were with him came to the outpost of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, just as they had posted the watch; and they blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers that were in their hands. 20 Then the three companies blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers--they held the torches in their left hands and the trumpets in their right hands for blowing--and they cried, "The sword of the LORD and of Gideon!" 21 And every man stood in his place all around the camp; and the whole army ran and cried out and fled. 22 When the three hundred blew the trumpets, the LORD set every man's sword against his companion throughout the whole camp;

3) REBUKE

Zech 3:2-4

2 And the LORD said to Satan, "The LORD rebuke you, Satan! The LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Is this not a brand plucked from the fire?" 3 Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the Angel. 4 Then He answered and spoke to those who stood before Him, saying, "Take away the filthy garments from him." And to him He said, "See, I have removed your iniquity from you, and I will clothe you with rich robes."

Ps 149

149:1 Praise ye the LORD. Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise in the congregation of saints.

2 Let Israel rejoice in him that made him: let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

3 Let them praise his name in the dance: let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.

4 For the LORD taketh pleasure in his people: he will beautify the meek with salvation.

5 Let the saints be joyful in glory: let them sing aloud upon their beds.

6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a twoedged sword in their hand;

7 To execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people;

8 To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron;

9 To execute upon them the judgment written: this honour have all his saints. Praise ye the LORD.

~~~~~~~~~~~~

4) WEAPONS

Eph 6:10-19

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. 11 Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. 12 For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. 13 Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. 14 Stand therefore, having girded your waist with truth, having put on the breastplate of righteousness, 15 and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; 16 above all, taking the shield of faith with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one. 17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God; 18 praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, being watchful to this end with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints--

Jer 51:20-21

20 "You are My battle-ax and weapons of war: For with you I will break the nation in pieces; With you I will destroy kingdoms; 21 With you I will break in pieces the horse and its rider; With you I will break in pieces the chariot and its rider;

Joel 2:1-11 [THE MIGHTY JOEL'S ARMY]

Blow the trumpet in Zion, And sound an alarm in My holy mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble; For the day of the LORD is coming, For it is at hand: 2 A day of darkness and gloominess, A day of clouds and thick darkness, Like the morning clouds spread over the mountains. A people come, great and strong, The like of whom has never been; Nor will there ever be any such after them, Even for many successive generations.

3 A fire devours before them, And behind them a flame burns; The land is like the Garden of Eden before them, And behind them a desolate wilderness; Surely nothing shall escape them. 4 Their appearance is like the appearance of horses; And like swift steeds, so they run. 5 With a noise like chariots Over mountaintops they leap, Like the noise of a flaming fire that devours the stubble, Like a strong people set in battle array. 6 Before them the people writhe in pain; All faces are drained of color. 7 They run like mighty men, They climb the wall like men of war; Every one marches in formation, And they do not break ranks. 8 They do not push one another; Every one marches in his own column. Though they lunge between the weapons, They are not cut down. 9 They run to and fro in the city, They run on the wall; They climb into the houses, They enter at the windows like a thief. 10 The earth quakes before them, The heavens tremble; The sun and moon grow dark, And the stars diminish their brightness. 11 The LORD gives voice before His army, For His camp is very great; For strong is the One who executes His word. For the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; Who can endure it?
~~~~~~~~~~~~

2 Cor 10:3-6

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. 4 For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, 5 casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, 6 and being ready to punish all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled.

~~~~~~~~~~~

5) ENEMIES

Gen 14:18-20

18 Then Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was the priest of God Most High. 19 And he blessed him and said: "Blessed be Abram of God Most High, Possessor of heaven and earth;

20 And blessed be God Most High, Who has delivered your enemies into your hand." And he gave him a tithe of all.

15 Then the Angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time out of heaven, 16 and said: "By Myself I have sworn, says the LORD, because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son-- 17 blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the heaven and as the sand which is on the seashore; and your descendants shall possess the gate of their enemies. 18 In your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice.

Gen 49:8-10

8 "Judah, you are he whom your brothers shall praise;Your hand shall be on the neck of your enemies;

Your father's children shall bow down before you. 9 Judah is a lion's whelp; From the prey, my son, you have gone up.

He bows down, he lies down as a lion; And as a lion, who shall rouse him? 10 The scepter shall not depart from Judah,

Nor a lawgiver from between his feet, Until Shiloh comes; And to Him shall be the obedience of the people.

Ex 23:27-29

27 "I will send My fear before you, I will cause confusion among all the people to whom you come, and will make all your enemies turn their backs to you. 28 And I will send hornets before you, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite from before you.

Lev 26:6-8

6 I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and none will make you afraid; I will rid the land of evil beasts, and the sword will not go through your land. 7 You will chase your enemies, and they shall fall by the sword before you. 8 Five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight; your enemies shall fall by the sword before you.

Num 10:34-35

35 So it was, whenever the ark set out, that Moses said: "Rise up, O LORD! Let Your enemies be scattered,

And let those who hate You flee before You."

Num 24:8-9

8 "God brings him out of Egypt; He has strength like a wild ox; He shall consume the nations, his enemies;

He shall break their bones And pierce them with his arrows. 9'He bows down, he lies down as a lion;

And as a lion, who shall rouse him?' "Blessed is he who blesses you, And cursed is he who curses you."

Deut 20:1-5

20:1 "When you go out to battle against your enemies, and see horses and chariots and people more numerous than you, do not be afraid of them; for the LORD your God is with you, who brought you up from the land of Egypt. 2 So it shall be, when you are on the verge of battle, that the priest shall approach and speak to the people. 3 And he shall say to them, 'Hear, O Israel: Today you are on the verge of battle with your enemies. Do not let your heart faint, do not be afraid, and do not tremble or be terrified because of them; 4 for the LORD your God is He who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.'

Deut 23:11-14

12 Also you shall have a place outside the camp, where you may go out; 13 and you shall have an implement among your equipment, and when you sit down outside, you shall dig with it and turn and cover your refuse. 14 For the LORD your God walks in the midst of your camp, to deliver you and give your enemies over to you; therefore your camp shall be holy, that He may see no unclean thing among you, and turn away from you.

Deut 28:1-10

28:1 "Now it shall come to pass, if you diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God, to observe carefully all His commandments which I command you today, that the LORD your God will set you high above all nations of the earth. 2 And all these blessings shall come upon you and overtake you, because you obey the voice of the LORD your God: 3 Blessed shall you be in the city, and blessed shall you be in the country. 4 Blessed shall be the fruit of your body, the produce of your ground and the increase of your herds, the increase of your cattle and the offspring of your flocks. 5 Blessed shall be your basket and your kneading bowl. 6 Blessed shall you be when you come in, and blessed shall you be when you go out. 7 "The LORD will cause your enemies who rise against you to be defeated before your face; they shall come out against you one way and flee before you seven ways. 8 The LORD will command the blessing on you in your storehouses and in all to which you set your hand, and He will bless you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you. 9 The LORD will establish you as a holy people to Himself, just as He has sworn to you, if you keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk in His ways.

Deut 30:4-7

5 Then the LORD your God will bring you to the land which your fathers possessed, and you shall possess it. He will prosper you and multiply you more than your fathers. 6 And the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your descendants, to love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live. 7 Also the LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies and on those who hate you, who persecuted you.

Deut 33:29

29 Happy are you, O Israel! Who is like you, a people saved by the LORD, The shield of your help And the sword of your majesty! Your enemies shall submit to you, And you shall tread down their high places."

Josh 10:17-19

18 So Joshua said, "Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and set men by it to guard them. 19 And do not stay there yourselves, but pursue your enemies, and attack their rear guard. Do not allow them to enter their cities, for the LORD your God has delivered them into your hand."

Josh 10:24-26

25 Then Joshua said to them, "Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed; be strong and of good courage, for thus the LORD will do to all your enemies against whom you fight."

Josh 21:43-45

44 The LORD gave them rest all around, according to all that He had sworn to their fathers. And not a man of all their enemies stood against them; the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand.

Judg 2:18-19

18 And when the LORD raised up judges for them, the LORD was with the judge and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for the LORD was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who oppressed them and harassed them.

Judg 5:31

31 "Thus let all Your enemies perish, O LORD! But let those who love Him be like the sun When it comes out in full strength."

1 Sam 2:1-2

2:1 And Hannah prayed and said: "My heart rejoices in the LORD; My horn is exalted in the LORD. I smile at my enemies, Because I rejoice in Your salvation. 2 "No one is holy like the LORD, For there is none besides You, Nor is there any rock like our God.

2 Sam 5:20

20 So David went to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there; and he said, "The LORD has broken through my enemies before me, like a breakthrough of water." Therefore he called the name of that place Baal Perazim.

2 Sam 7:8-10

9 And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a great name, like the name of the great men who are on the earth.

2 Sam 22 [THE SONG OF DAVID'S DELIVERANCE]

22:1 Then David spoke to the LORD the words of this song, on the day when the LORD had delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. 2 And he said:

"The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer; 3 The God of my strength, in whom I will trust; My shield and the horn of my salvation, My stronghold and my refuge; My Savior, You save me from violence. 4 I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised; So shall I be saved from my enemies. 5'When the waves of death surrounded me, The floods of ungodliness made me afraid. 6 The sorrows of Sheol surrounded me; The snares of death confronted me. 7 In my distress I called upon the LORD, And cried out to my God; He heard my voice from His temple, And my cry entered His ears. 8 "Then the earth shook and trembled; The foundations of heaven quaked and were shaken, Because He was angry. 9 Smoke went up from His nostrils, And devouring fire from His mouth; Coals were kindled by it. 10 He bowed the heavens also, and came down With darkness under His feet. 11 He rode upon a cherub, and flew; And He was seen upon the wings of the wind. 12 He made darkness canopies around Him, Dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

13 From the brightness before Him Coals of fire were kindled.

14 "The LORD thundered from heaven, And the Most High uttered His voice. 15 He sent out arrows and scattered them; Lightning bolts, and He vanquished them. 16 Then the channels of the sea were seen, The foundations of the world were uncovered, At the rebuke of the LORD, At the blast of the breath of His nostrils. 17 "He sent from above, He took me, He drew me out of many waters. 18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, From those who hated me; For they were too strong for me. 19 They confronted me in the day of my calamity, But the LORD was my support. 20 He also brought me out into a broad place; He delivered me because He delighted in me.

20 He also brought me out into a broad place; He delivered me because He delighted in me. 21 "The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; According to the cleanness of my hands He has recompensed me. 22 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, And have not wickedly departed from my God. 23 For all His judgments were before me; And as for His statutes, I did not depart from them. 24 I was also blameless before Him, And I kept myself from my iniquity. 25 Therefore the LORD has recompensed me according to my righteousness, According to my cleanness in His eyes. 26 "With the merciful You will show Yourself merciful; With a blameless man You will show Yourself blameless; 27 With the pure You will show Yourself pure; And with the devious You will show Yourself shrewd. 28 You will save the humble people; But Your eyes are on the haughty, that You may bring them down.

29 "For You are my lamp, O LORD; The LORD shall enlighten my darkness. 30 For by You I can run against a troop; By my God I can leap over a wall. 31 As for God, His way is perfect; The word of the LORD is proven; He is a shield to all who trust in Him. 32 "For who is God, except the LORD? And who is a rock, except our God? 33 God is my strength and power, And He makes my way perfect. 34 He makes my feet like the feet of deer, And sets me on my high places. 35 He teaches my hands to make war,So that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

36 "You have also given me the shield of Your salvation; Your gentleness has made me great. 37 You enlarged my path under me; So my feet did not slip. 38 "I have pursued my enemies and destroyed them; Neither did I turn back again till they were destroyed. 39 And I have destroyed them and wounded them, So that they could not rise; They have fallen under my feet. 40 For You have armed me with strength for the battle; You have subdued under me those who rose against me. 41 You have also given me the necks of my enemies, So that I destroyed those who hated me. 42 They looked, but there was none to save; Even to the LORD, but He did not answer them. 43 Then I beat them as fine as the dust of the earth; I trod them like dirt in the streets, And I spread them out.

44 "You have also delivered me from the strivings of my people; You have kept me as the head of the nations. A people I have not known shall serve me. 45 The foreigners submit to me; As soon as they hear, they obey me. 46 The foreigners fade away, And come frightened from their hideouts.

47 "The LORD lives! Blessed be my Rock! Let God be exalted, The Rock of my salvation! 48 It is God who avenges me, And subdues the people under me; 49 He delivers me from my enemies. You also lift me up above those who rise against me; You have delivered me from the violent man. 50 Therefore I will give thanks to You, O LORD, among the Gentiles, And sing praises to Your name. 51 He is the tower of salvation to His king, And shows mercy to His anointed, To David and his descendants forevermore."

2 Kings 17:39-40

39 But the LORD your God you shall fear; and He will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies."

1 Chron 14:11

11 So they went up to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there. Then David said, "God has broken through my enemies by my hand like a breakthrough of water."

2 Chron 6:36-40

36 "When they sin against You (for there is no one who does not sin), and You become angry with them and deliver them to the enemy, and they take them captive to a land far or near; 37 yet when they come to themselves in the land where they were carried captive, and repent, and make supplication to You in the land of their captivity, saying, 'We have sinned, we have done wrong, and have committed wickedness'; 38 and when they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have been carried captive, and pray toward their land which You gave to their fathers, the city which You have chosen, and toward the temple which I have built for Your name: 39 then hear from heaven Your dwelling place their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive Your people who have sinned against You. 40 Now, my God, I pray, let Your eyes be open and let Your ears be attentive to the prayer made in this place.

Neh 6:15-16

16 And it happened, when all our enemies heard of it, and all the nations around us saw these things, that they were very disheartened in their own eyes; for they perceived that this work was done by our God.

Neh 9:26-27

26 "Nevertheless they were disobedient And rebelled against You, Cast Your law behind their backs And killed Your prophets, who testified against them To turn them to Yourself; And they worked great provocations. 27 Therefore You delivered them into the hand of their enemies, Who oppressed them; And in the time of their trouble, When they cried to You, You heard from heaven; And according to Your abundant mercies You gave them deliverers who saved them From the hand of their enemies.

Ps 3:7-8

7 Arise, O LORD; Save me, O my God! For You have struck all my enemies on the cheekbone; You have broken the teeth of the ungodly. 8 Salvation belongs to the LORD. Your blessing is upon Your people.

Ps 6:10

10 Let all my enemies be ashamed and greatly troubled; Let them turn back and be ashamed suddenly.

Ps 8:2

2 Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants You have ordained strength, Because of Your enemies, That You may silence the enemy and the avenger.

Ps 9:1-3

I will praise You, O LORD, with my whole heart; I will tell of all Your marvelous works. 2 I will be glad and rejoice in You;

I will sing praise to Your name, O Most High. 3 When my enemies turn back, They shall fall and perish at Your presence.

Ps 18:3

3 I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised; So shall I be saved from my enemies.

Ps 18:37-40

37 I have pursued my enemies and overtaken them; Neither did I turn back again till they were destroyed.

38 I have wounded them, So that they could not rise; They have fallen under my feet. 39 For You have armed me with strength for the battle; You have subdued under me those who rose up against me. 40 You have also given me the necks of my enemies, So that I destroyed those who hated me.

Ps 21:8-9

8 Your hand will find all Your enemies; Your right hand will find those who hate You. 9 You shall make them as a fiery oven in the time of Your anger; The LORD shall swallow them up in His wrath, And the fire shall devour them.

Ps 23:5-6

5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; My cup runs over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me All the days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the LORD Forever.

Ps 27:2-4

2 When the wicked came against me To eat up my flesh, My enemies and foes, They stumbled and fell. 3 Though an army may encamp against me, My heart shall not fear; Though war should rise against me, In this I will be confident.

4 One thing I have desired of the LORD, That will I seek: That I may dwell in the house of the LORD All the days of my life, To behold the beauty of the LORD, And to inquire in His temple.

Ps 37:20

But the wicked shall perish; And the enemies of the LORD, Like the splendor of the meadows, shall vanish.

Into smoke they shall vanish away.

Ps 44:4-8

4 You are my King, O God; Command victories for Jacob. 5 Through You we will push down our enemies; Through Your name we will trample those who rise up against us. 6 For I will not trust in my bow, Nor shall my sword save me. 7 But You have saved us from our enemies, And have put to shame those who hated us. 8 In God we boast all day long, And praise Your name forever.

Ps 54:4-7

Behold, God is my helper; The Lord is with those who uphold my life. 5 He will repay my enemies for their evil.

Cut them off in Your truth.

6 I will freely sacrifice to You; I will praise Your name, O LORD, for it is good. 7 For He has delivered me out of all trouble;

And my eye has seen its desire upon my enemies.

Ps 59:1

Deliver me from my enemies, O my God; Defend me from those who rise up against me.

Ps 59:10-13

10 My God of mercy shall come to meet me; God shall let me see my desire on my enemies. 11 Do not slay them, lest my people forget; Scatter them by Your power, And bring them down, O Lord our shield. 12 For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips, Let them even be taken in their pride, And for the cursing and lying which they speak. 13 Consume them in wrath, consume them, That they may not be; And let them know that God rules in Jacob To the ends of the earth.

Ps 60:12

12 Through God we will do valiantly, For it is He who shall tread down our enemies.

Ps 66:3-4

3 Say to God, "How awesome are Your works! Through the greatness of Your power

Your enemies shall submit themselves to You. 4 All the earth shall worship You And sing praises to You; They shall sing praises to Your name."

Ps 68:1-3

Let God arise, Let His enemies be scattered; Let those also who hate Him flee before Him. 2 As smoke is driven away, So drive them away; As wax melts before the fire, So let the wicked perish at the presence of God. 3 But let the righteous be glad; Let them rejoice before God; Yes, let them rejoice exceedingly.

Ps 71:13-15

13 Let them be confounded and consumed Who are adversaries of my life; Let them be covered with reproach and dishonor Who seek my hurt. 14 But I will hope continually, And will praise You yet more and more. 15 My mouth shall tell of Your righteousness And Your salvation all the day, For I do not know their limits.

Ps 78:66

66 And He beat back His enemies; He put them to a perpetual reproach.

Ps 89:50-52

50 Remember, Lord, the reproach of Your servants-- How I bear in my bosom the reproach of all the many peoples, 51 With which Your enemies have reproached, O LORD, With which they have reproached the footsteps of Your anointed. 52 Blessed be the LORD forevermore! Amen and Amen.

Ps 92:7-11

7 When the wicked spring up like grass, And when all the workers of iniquity flourish, It is that they may be destroyed forever. 8 But You, LORD, are on high forevermore. 9 For behold, Your enemies, O LORD, For behold, Your enemies shall perish; All the workers of iniquity shall be scattered. 10 But my horn You have exalted like a wild ox; I have been anointed with fresh oil. 11 My eye also has seen my desire on my enemies; My ears hear my desire on the wicked Who rise up against me.

Ps 97:1-6

The LORD reigns; Let the earth rejoice; Let the multitude of isles be glad! 2 Clouds and darkness surround Him; Righteousness and justice are the foundation of His throne. 3 A fire goes before Him, And burns up His enemies round about. 4 His lightnings light the world; The earth sees and trembles. 5 The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the LORD, At the presence of the Lord of the whole earth. 6 The heavens declare His righteousness, And all the peoples see His glory.

Ps 108:13

13 Through God we will do valiantly, For it is He who shall tread down our enemies.

Ps 110:1-2

The LORD said to my Lord, "Sit at My right hand, Till I make Your enemies Your footstool." 2 The LORD shall send the rod of Your strength out of Zion. Rule in the midst of Your enemies!

Ps 112:6-10

6 Surely he will never be shaken; The righteous will be in everlasting remembrance. 7 He will not be afraid of evil tidings; His heart is steadfast, trusting in the LORD. 8 His heart is established; He will not be afraid, Until he sees his desire upon his enemies. 9 He has dispersed abroad, He has given to the poor; His righteousness endures forever; His horn will be exalted with honor. 10 The wicked will see it and be grieved; He will gnash his teeth and melt away; The desire of the wicked shall perish.

Ps 132:17-18

17 There I will make the horn of David grow; I will prepare a lamp for My Anointed.

18 His enemies I will clothe with shame, But upon Himself His crown shall flourish."

Ps 138:7-8

7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, You will revive me; You will stretch out Your hand Against the wrath of my enemies, And Your right hand will save me. 8 The LORD will perfect that which concerns me; Your mercy, O LORD, endures forever; Do not forsake the works of Your hands.

Ps 143:9

9 Deliver me, O LORD, from my enemies; In You I take shelter.

Ps 143:11-12

11 Revive me, O LORD, for Your name's sake! For Your righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.

12 In Your mercy cut off my enemies, And destroy all those who afflict my soul; For I am Your servant.

Isa 42:13

13 The LORD shall go forth like a mighty man; He shall stir up His zeal like a man of war. He shall cry out, yes, shout aloud; He shall prevail against His enemies.

Isa 66:14-15

The hand of the LORD shall be known to His servants, And His indignation to His enemies. 15 For behold, the LORD will come with fire And with His chariots, like a whirlwind, To render His anger with fury, And His rebuke with flames of fire.

Mic 5:9-10

9 Your hand shall be lifted against your adversaries, And all your enemies shall be cut off. 10 "And it shall be in that day," says the LORD, "That I will cut off your horses from your midst And destroy your chariots.

Nah 1:2-3

2 God is jealous, and the LORD avenges; The LORD avenges and is furious. The LORD will take vengeance on His adversaries, And He reserves wrath for His enemies; 3 The LORD is slow to anger and great in power, And will not at all acquit the wicked.

Zech 10:3-5

And will make them as His royal horse in the battle. 4 From him comes the cornerstone, From him the tent peg,

From him the battle bow, From him every ruler together. 5 They shall be like mighty men, Who tread down their enemies

In the mire of the streets in the battle. They shall fight because the LORD is with them, And the riders on horses shall be put to shame.

Luke 1:71-75

71 That we should be saved from our enemies And from the hand of all who hate us, 72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers And to remember His holy covenant, 73 The oath which He swore to our father Abraham:

74 To grant us that we, Being delivered from the hand of our enemies, Might serve Him without fear, 75 In holiness and righteousness before Him all the days of our life.

Heb 10:12-18

13 from that time waiting till His enemies are made His footstool. 14 For by one offering He has perfected forever those who are being sanctified. 15 But the Holy Spirit also witnesses to us; for after He had said before, 16 "This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the LORD: I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds I will write them," 17 then He adds, "Their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no more."

Heb 2:14-15

14 Inasmuch then as the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He Himself likewise shared in the same, that through death He might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, 15 and release those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

SUMMARY SUGGESTIONS FOR THE MINISTRY TEAM APPROACH TO DELIVERANCE

"There is a time for everything, a season for every activity under heaven. 2 A time to be born and a time to die. A time to plant and a time to harvest. 3 A time to kill and a time to heal. A time to tear down and a time to rebuild. 4 A time to cry and a time to laugh. A time to grieve and a time to dance. 5 A time to scatter stones and a time to gather stones. A time to embrace and a time to turn away. 6 A time to search and a time to lose. A time to keep and a time to throw away. 7 A time to tear and a time to mend. A time to be quiet and a time to speak up. 8 A time to love and a time to hate. A time for war and a time for peace." (Eccl 3:1-8 NLT)

IS IT TIME TO DELIVER?

At the moment of demonic manifestation, there are 5 different wrestlings going on at the same time. Evaluate this criteria:

1. God's will - His strong Presence to make manifest and deliver in the room. (or the lack of it)
2. The devil's will - His strong rebellion to distract and kill faith. (or the lack of it)
3. The person's will - The person's desperation to be set free. (or the lack of it)
4. The people's will - The unity of the people in attendance. (or the lack of it)
5. Your will - Do you want to deliver this person now? (or the lack of it)

SUGGESTED QUESTIONS

1. What is the environment and context of the group meeting at that moment?
2. How many people are involved, how many are watching in the audience? If most are involved, the Holy Spirit is obviously doing a corporate group ministry time.
3. What is the degree of demonic manifestation? (Violence or just noise?)
4. Do you know the person's present condition or background? Do they need counsel? Is there space for counsel, can the counsel be heard in the room?
5. How is your own faith at this moment? Is this something you want to deal with right now?

NOTE: As the Holy Spirit increases in our meetings, people will be delivered as a natural result. We will not be personally delivering people unless they are stuck in a demonic manifestation and they need our individual help. Therefore is it up to us to be aware of when a deliverance is going on and be able to help when necessary.

LEARNING TO DISCERN THE TIME

> Deliverance is a time of tearing down a house of sin, it is not a time of building up.

> The key to team deliverance is the ability to recognize the "timing" in what the Holy Spirit is doing and how He wants to go about it.

A TIME TO TEAR DOWN Examples of tools that tear down:	A TIME TO BUILD Examples of tools that build:
• Brief counsel for forgiveness • Time for confession or renunciation • Warfare intercession via tongues, and the Spirit • Authority taken against demons or curses • Praying for the Lord to reveal layers and/or roots • Scriptures declared against the demonic • Scriptural declaration over the person • Warrior worship	• Words of edification, exhortation and comfort • Sharing scriptures • Praying for healing • Praying for wounds • Soaking in His Presence • Praying for the Holy Spirit to fill the holes • Praying for the Lord to seal the deliverance • Releasing a blessing over the person • Occurs usually after deliverance, or possibly before, but not during • If you have a gift that builds, wait for timing

A TIME TO UNIFY

1. If one member begins to build up while the Holy Spirit is delivering, it can stop the deliverance process.
2. If one is building up and another is tearing down, it leaves the person feeling raped, dismembered and confused.
3. Unity does not mean conformity in a traditional sense. An example of conformity would be one person being the leader, another person is a scripture person, and etc where each stay within a niche.
4. Unity is taking turns with the ebb and flow of the Holy Spirit, depending upon people's gifts and faith at that moment. It is like the geese in a V formation. While one is in the lead position for a moment, the others are either backing what is being said, or listening to the Holy Spirit for the next step or layer. As the first person is done, when under the unction of the Holy Spirit, the next person shares and so on. It may bounce back and forth like a basketball, but what is important is not who is speaking, but that the theme stays fairly consistent in the overall goal of dismantling the prison bars.
5. Learn to share your portion, then hold back and let another share. While you are waiting, listen to the theme and how your gift will fit in.

A TIME TO WAIT ON THE LORD

1. Deliverance comes in layers exactly like labor pains.
2. Try not to rush the process.
3. Be comfortable with spaces of tongues, soaking, rest or quiet.
4. In those times, ask the Lord to reveal the next layer or the next step towards freedom. Learn to wait upon Him, expecting another layer to surface.
5. These resting places can be several minutes long, then the pressure will begin to build up within the person once more. And they will begin to show signs of stress.

MISC AND OPTIONAL TOOLS IN DELIVERANCE

- Anointing oil
- Heavy Kleenex or paper towels
- Cup of water
- Worship music
- Deliverance scriptures
- A protected place away from dangerous objects or from falling
- Other anointed or consecrated intercessory items
- Simple sentences of counsel: (derived from quickened knowledge contained in the deliverance outline or elsewhere)
- Deliverance confessions & renouncement of sins, forgiveness, and prayers

AURORA BOREALIS - THE NORTHERN LIGHTS OF HEAVEN

I received a Word from one of our intercessors where he saw a vision of a valley that was shaped like a bowl and I was playing my keyboard worship to the Lord. The heavens were coordinating and stirring heavenly colors like the Aurora Borealis.

The keyboard that I use has awesome ethereal, undulating, overlapping, continuous sounds that radiate one long blend of non-rhythm chords. When we worship to it, it brings the Lord's Presence, He loves the sounds, and we soak in Him and see visions, hear Him and quietly pray and also sing in tongues. We have had some awesome breakthroughs as we have sat before Him in a give and receive communion with these sounds as the undercurrent of intimacy.

RHEMA 12/24/99: AURORA BOREALIS

Today I received 3 confirmations to the vision that one of our intercessors had of my playing the keyboard and the sky being filled with the Aurora Borealis in the valley.

CONFIRMATION: Pastor suddenly read the scriptures from Psalms 19 at prayer meeting:

Ps 19:1-3 TLB
"The heavens are telling the glory of God; they are a marvelous display of his craftsmanship. Day and night they keep on telling about God. Without a sound or word, silent in the skies, their message reaches out to all the world."

CONFIRMATION: On the TV news trivia question: What causes the Aurora Borealis? {oxygen & nitrogen}

CONFIRMATION: My eyes glanced at the word "Aurora" on a license plate.

HEARD: Thank you for bringing us home.

> UPDATE RHEMA 12/27/99: HOME TO REST IN HIS POWER AND WORD
> HEARD*: What's coming. Baptism. Power. From all different directions. Call them home. Not too early. Not quite time yet. Be patient.*
> HEARD: The thing I am calling you to do. Never done before. It is prophetic rest.
> Heb 4:1-3 NKJV
> Therefore, since a promise remains of entering His rest , let us fear lest any of you seem to have come short of it. 2 For indeed the gospel was preached to us as well as to them; but the word which they heard did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard it. 3 For we who have believed do enter that rest.

RHEMA 5/21/01 HIS POWER AND AURORA BOREALIS
PIX: I saw someone carrying a big giant cord, a 220 electrical cord.

HEARD: Awesome healing. It's coming. Progressive.
PIX: I saw the words, Renewal, revival please.

HEARD: Songs of deliverance. Winds of change.
HEARD SONG*: freedom, I say freedom.*

DIVINE SIGN: The mylar heart balloon came down from the ceiling and over to my bed and touched my knee. Then it floated to the ceiling again. The sun caught it and it was swirling beautiful red glittering aurora borealis lights on the ceiling and walls. I was amazed, never having experienced or seen this before.

After the balloon left my room, it crawled on the floor into Wayne's. Then it went onto the ceiling of the bathroom, then went into the corner by his bed and sat on top of his exercising machine. When Wayne turned on the fan, it went bonkers and swirled around his head and bed, diving aggressively towards him, and making him laugh. It was delightful play.

James 1:17-18
Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning.

Ps 19:1 NKJV
The heavens declare the glory of God; And the firmament shows His handiwork.

RHEMA 12/10/99: CHILDREN TO PRAY

HEARD: Let's bring the children into it.

DREAM: I was telling the kids not to let go of God's Word and then I realized the same Word was for me too.

DREAM: I was praying for someone then he said I can use all the prayers I can possibly get.

HEARD: Circle of faith.

> But Jesus said, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

PRAYING FOR A CHAIR & CHILD

CONFIRMATION: The Ponder Word recently about the Lord Jesus Christ being across the sky. A lady rushed up to me at the conference and said it came out just after her young son had a vision about Jesus and His cross being in the sky. I sat in the seat directly behind this boy! I even laid hands on his chair and prayed for him, which is my custom. He must have received an impartation.

LOOK UP FOR REST

Look up precious one! I AM bringing you higher in Me, where your feet are above all that weighs you down. You have pedaled with our own strength much too long and it is exhausting you. Cease striving and know that I AM God. I will carry you dear one. For you have outgrown your boxes and I have stretched your borders. You dream of tropical paradises for a vacation to rest. How much greater shall I give you the refreshing rest for your body, soul and spirit as you rise into your rest in Me.

My banner is lifted in the heavens and I AM preparing even now to write the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ across the skies that all mankind shall see Him. Take flight with the wings of faith and soar with Me in the clouds. Look up dear one, keep your focus on Me, the One Who has all things under My feet. Only in Me can you find your rest.

"Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD, for He is aroused from His holy habitation!" (Zech 2:13 NKJV)

DONT COMPROMISE FOR THE SAKE OF UNITY

RHEMA 3/7/00: Dirt & weeds in the bird bath - Dont Compromise

HEARD: Listen to this analogy.

PIX: I saw a lady working in her front yard. She had a pair of gloves on she was removing weeds. There was a bird bath there and she had planted things in it.

PIX: I saw a woman who had crystal clear blue eyes. I felt since her eyes were so pure that she was an angel. She looked similar to Wonder Woman from the old TV show.

HEARD: Amazon.

> (I had prayed before going to sleep that I would not become among the dead Amazon women that Bob Jones saw.)

QUOTE BOB JONES WARNING 2/13/00 TO AMAZON INTERCESSORS
www.bobjones.org

Recently I had trance like vision. I was in my auto, which is my ministry. I looked over at Viola (my wife) and said, I just love you! We drove to a place that overlooked the valley. We went to a bank with erosion. And I saw giant women, Amazon women. They had holes in their heads and some had recently died. Who are these? These are the great prayer warriors, the ministries I have been raising up. This is warning to this body, God is raising up a ministry here.

A man knifed Viola's throat before she could get back into the car. He said, “My name is compromise and I am going to kill her. I enticed those women to come up for a higher view. I encouraged them to compromise the anointing that God has given them for unity.”

To join others that have another type of anointing. The first thing I did was get them out of bed with the Lord. I got them so busy, they did not have time for the Lord. If they had gone to bed with the Lord, they would be repenting and see what was wrong with them. It was my job to get them too busy.

In the marine core, we slept with trench knives on our chest. The anointed Word of God entrenched in you. When the enemy attacks, you'd better have the Word of God ready.

Do not compromise for the anointing for unity. Others will come and say we'll join with you, but you are going to have to change a little bit. If God tells you to dance, to prophesy, then do what you are called to do. Cross pollinating is healthy BUT DON'T TRY TO DO WHAT YOU ARE NOT CALLED TO DO. Stay where God told you to, in the field of your anointing.

The enemy is now trying to put some of his key men into where they can manipulate and control the coming glory and anointing. Don't join that which God has not put together. Out of answer to prayer, there will come a holy unity, but only after repentance. There are men that have charismatic gifts that are beginning to build things with the mind, with knowledge. Don't join it, don't get knocked in the head. Let repentance be your goal and then prayers will be answered.

> LEARNING TEAM MINISTRY 8/09/03
> I AM teaching you how to operate on a team and flow in My Spirit. One of the ways I do this is through intimate prayer meetings and home groups. You will learn that each member has an important gift, no matter how small or insignificant. It's not about you and your gift, but about My body sharing My Word so that all may benefit. You will also learn that success is only in letting go and submitting what I give to you back to Me for the perfect timing and sharing, because the flesh profits nothing. You can have My Word but through the force of your flesh still miss the target.
> Be careful in the pursuit of teamship that you do not compromise your calling, the integrity of My Word, or My holy standards. As long as you ask for My help and lean on Me, I will keep you from missing the mark. Be sure to lay down all agendas, for there is a difference between My zeal and the zeal of the flesh. The enemy would have you so caught up and busy in ambitious goals that you miss My Word in your life. I place a passion within your heart to accomplish My will, but to be yoked with Me in service is to find refreshment for your bodies, souls and spirits. I give you seasons of productivity and rest as you need it.
> “It is the one and only Holy Spirit who distributes these gifts. He alone decides which gift each person should have." (1 Cor 12:11 NLT)

"Then Jesus said, "Come to me, all of you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you. Let me teach you, because I am humble and gentle, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke fits perfectly, and the burden I give you is light." (Matt 11:28-30 NLT)

UNITY SHOWS IN WHAT COMES FROM THE MOUTH

RHEMA 12/4/99: UNITY FROM THE HEART
HEARD: Unity. Out of the mouth, the heart speaks.

> NKJ Luke 6:45 "A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings forth evil. For out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.

PIX: I saw a circle of people in unity at the Watch of the Lord.

PIX: I saw one of our watchmen from the audience go to the mike, to share the vision he saw during the gathering.

COMMENTS: The watch of the Lord is a gathering together in prayer and listening to the Word, then going forward to express what we have received through corporate prayer.

The way to tell kindred hearts is to listen to how they speak. Their treasures shall be known by the words that come out of their mouth.

RHEMA 7/22/99 TEAM HEARING MADE MANIFEST
Grandma Anna and I are staying in the motel together at the conference. This was an amazing night with Anna in the other bed. She had ear plugs in and couldn't hear me as I spoke into the recorder of what I was hearing and seeing from the Lord.

I could hear sometimes when she heard, but only portions of what she said into her recorder. It was quite neat because just prior to her recording something, I would hear something and then she would speak into her recorder. I noticed that what we were hearing a part of the time was really meant to combine together. It was awesome!

Here is a part of what we heard:

VISION: I saw Anna saying, "Am I pleasing you?"
[Then for real Anna spoke into her recorder, "Soaked in righteousness."]

HEARD: Went through seasons of washing. None of us have to watch where you are going. Smile. Radically different. Month's later, still going.

ANNA SPOKE INTO HER RECORDER: "Holiness unto the Lord."

HEARD*: Moses. I justify you. Make manifest. My team. Read my mail.*

VISION: I saw Anna & I going up in a hot air balloon into the sky.

HEARD: Evangels.

ANNA SPOKE INTO HER RECORDER: "These are the ones."

Luke 10:1 NKJV
After these things the Lord appointed seventy others also, and sent them two by two before His face into every city and place where He Himself was about to go.

FORGIVENESS - Preparation for Glory

10/27/99

Hi Loved Ones,

God's glory and awesome Presence is going to descend upon earth and among the great shaking of the earth and shaking of all that is dark, we are going to experience glorious things that our eyes have never seen and our ears have never heard before! (I Cor 2:9) I live and breath this anticipation and my heart pants for the fullness of His Presence. In my recent prayers I have been saying, "Oh Lord, prepare us for You! Anything left in our lives that is yet keeping us unprepared, please bring to the surface now. Deliver us from our blindness so that we may comply with Your wishes and be prepared to be used as Your vessels, bringing salvation, healing and deliverance!" The following are 4 pieces of revelation He brought to me in answer to that prayer.

(1) FORGIVENESS IS VITAL

I listened to a series of old tapes from Derick Prince's deliverance ministry, and also a recent Colorado conference on deliverance. Between all the speakers and the tapes, there was a consistent theme for those needing deliverance, those needing to keep the deliverance they have received and those needing healing ….. Forgiveness is a foundational key.

The demonic world is governed by spiritual laws in which they must comply, and they also receive their legal rights within those laws. Listen to the following permission given to the tormentors!

Matt 18:33-35

"Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity on thee? And his lord was wroth, and DELIVERED HIM TO THE TORMENTORS, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

SO LIKEWISE SHALL MY HEAVENLY FATHER DO also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses."

The Greek word for tormentors (930) comes from a word meaning to torture, pain, toil, torment, toss, vex. Jesus said our heavenly Father will deliver us to the tormentors if we do not forgive. These tormentors are demons given full legal permission to vex our lives when we have unforgiveness in our hearts!

When we forgive someone, we do not point a finger against them, we do not criticize them, we do not speak ill of them, we do not slander their reputation, we do not desire their punishment, we do not judge them, we do not accuse them…. etc!

The Greek word to forgive (#863) means the following:

aphiemi (af-ee'-ay-mee); from NT:575 and hiemi (to send; an intens. form of eimi, to go); to send forth, in various applications (as follow): cry, forgive, forsake, lay aside, leave, let (alone, be, go, have), omit, put (send) away, remit, suffer, yield up. (From Biblesoft's New Exhaustive Strong's Numbers and Concordance with Expanded Greek-Hebrew Dictionary. Copyright (c) 1994, Biblesoft and International Bible Translators, Inc.)

When we forgive someone, we lay aside their crime, we forsake their debt, we yield up their punishment, we omit pointing our fingers, accusation and back biting, we leave the offense behind us.

(2) RESISTING THE ACCUSER IS VITAL

On 7/17/99 I had a "gazing wonder" vision, and I saw 2 beautiful identical white eagles in the sky. They were wondrous to my eyes, as they were extremely huge. I had never seen a white eagle before, and they were pure like doves, but I sensed in my spirit as I gazed at them that they were eagles. They were very big and not even in the dinosaur days did we have birds this size. They were much bigger than our largest airplanes.

Suddenly out of nowhere I saw a dragon swoop down and grab the birds and the 3 of them were connected and wrestled in the sky. The dragon was about twice the size of the 2 birds connected. His intention was to cast the eagles down to the ground and make them fall. It was a powerful struggle, but the birds did not fall.

As I was gazing into the sky watching this, suddenly I was swept into a very fast flowing river with strong current. I saw Keiko the whale swimming past me. Keiko's size was huge and even though it was very intimidating, I knew he was kind and had no intentions of hurting me. Keiko seemed preoccupied with something upstream. Suddenly Keiko took off in a dead heat swim downstream. I looked upstream and noticed there was a great number of identical whales coming downstream like torpedoes. They were going so fast that they were like a blur.

I realized that the dragon was no longer fighting the 2 white birds, but had gone into the water to find the "hidden" whales. As soon as I realized this, I came out of the vision and I saw a picture vision of the dragon's face right in my face. I had just enough time to say, "I bind you satan" and it disappeared and left.

In my past rhema, Keiko the whale (and his story) is a prophetic parable, and although I don't have space for his story and explanation here, he represents the called and chosen leaders who have been hidden away and prepared for leadership. They received their training in captivity, received a spiritual enlargement in the past couple years and are waiting the Lord's promised enduement of power and to be released into an even greater promotion. Personally I think that Keiko represents the coming government/foundation of the apostles and prophets.

Pondering the vision it was apparent to me that the dragon was the accuser in Revelations 12, and his intent for this season is to chase after and accuse those anointed ones. As a sidebar warning, it is vital for these people to follow their conscience very carefully, so as not to give the accuser any ammunition. He has enough without giving him fuel and making things worse.

As the body of Christ, we are in desperate need for holy leaders to bring forth the unpolluted Word of God to help prepare us for the pressing, yet glorious times. We need to pray for them, not agree with the accuser. If we hear accusations against one of these chosen vessels, no matter how true, it is our place to forgive them and ask God for mercy. The scripture says that if we do not forgive others, then neither will our heavenly Father forgive us. (Mark 11:25-26)

(3) FORGIVING OUR LEADERS IS VITAL

As I was thinking about the fact that our leaders are facing the accuser and they are our spiritual "parents" so to speak, the Holy Spirit brought back to memory an interesting connection I heard in the deliverance tapes. They mentioned that the most common place of unforgiveness was the need to forgive one's parents. Then yesterday I read the following interesting story about forgiving President Clinton.

This story is re-posted with permission from:

Kevin Matthews

RAPHA Christian Ministries

www.rapha.org

"I was ministering at a large AG church in Duluth, Minnesota a month ago and was approached by a lady there who related the following story:

About two or three years ago, this lady had begun a small business that became very successful in a short space of time. As a result, she was invited to attend the White House along with several others from around the country to receive a commendation from the First Lady. This was during the time of the scandal. The lady related to me that when news of the scandal leaked out she was disgusted with the President.

However as time went on a prophetic word came in the church that 'instead of throwing the first stones the church ought to be the first to lay them down and pray for forgiveness and reconciliation.' The word had such an effect upon the congregation that many began right there to pray for the President instead of accusing him.

Shortly after this, the lady went to the White House. She decided to take with her a small stone as a gift for the President, in the unlikely event that she would have the opportunity to talk with him. After being honored in the ceremony the First Lady and then the President came and talked with her. As the President took his leave, she addressed him, "Mr. President, I would like to give you a gift from my church" and proceeded to take out the small stone that was in her pocket. She said to him, "This is from our church, we just wanted you to know that we have no stones to throw at you, rather we are giving you this stone, we'd like you to accept it as a symbol of forgiveness with the hope of healing." She related that tears began to run down the President's face as he quickly thanked her and turned away. Shortly afterwards, an aide came to her and said, "I don't know what you said to the President, but I've never seen him so moved. The stone that you gave him has now been placed prominently on his desk."

[end of story]

As I read this story, I could see so clearly the Lord had answered my prayer for Him to reveal anything that is keeping us from the final preparations of receiving His glory when He visits earth in His awesome power. We need to forgive our leaders.

4. FORGIVING GOD IS VITAL

Everyone at some time in their lives has suffered loss, when God tells them "No." As the times are shortened, the enemy will be accusing God of not being a good God and we need to understand God's fierce love for us. In Hosea 2 it speaks of our Beloved stripping us of our worldly lovers and idols, bringing us through the valley of troubles and exchanging our old relationship with Him. He wants the old slave/master kind of relationship, where He tells us what to do and we obey, to be replaced with a passionate marriage love for Him — where we return the kind of fierce devotion and passion that He has for us. The following is a Word to ponder from "Words to Ponder, Volume 2." It describes what the mature believers have been going through for over a decade and what the young believers will be going through.

SONGS IN THE WILDERNESS

Your songs are precious to Me. I hear the longings of your heart as I woo you into My arms. One by one I watch the passions in your life drift away as you turn your heart toward Me. Step by step My Spirit calls to you, and you leave other loves behind.

Even so, I ask you a question. You obey Me, you serve Me, but do you love Me? Your obedience pleases Me. Your service is responsible and even your sacrifice is faithful. But do you love Me? "Of course I love you!" you reply. Even still, I ask, "Do you love Me?"

Our union is not complete until you call Me Husband, instead of Master. I want to share a love that only comes through an undivided passionate heart… a heart of yearning, a heart of unquenchable longing to be satisfied. A heart that comes back for more and more and more and more, still wanting more. I want all of you. Do you want all of Me? How much do you want? How much is too much?

For Myself, I want ALL of you. Sing Me another song and let's dance the wind together. Listen to My Spirit call you with wooing from My heart.

"Therefore, behold, I will allure her, Will bring her into the wilderness, And speak comfort to her. I will give her her vineyards from there, And the Valley of Achor as a door of hope; She shall sing there, As in the days of her youth, As in the day when she came up from the land of Egypt. "And it shall be, in that day," Says the LORD, "That you will call Me 'My Husband,' And no longer call Me 'My Master,' For I will take from her mouth the names of the Baals, And they shall be remembered by their name no more…."I will betroth you to Me forever; Yes, I will betroth you to Me In righteousness and justice, In lovingkindness and mercy; I will betroth you to Me in faithfulness, And you shall know the LORD." (Hosea 2:14-17, 19-21 NKJ)

[end of Word to Ponder]

In these days to come, it is vital that we forgive God for any losses we have suffered. Whether the loss is labeled judgment, chastisement, the enemy, mankind's injustice, consequences of sin, or whatever: Our Beloved has one purpose in mind... that we turn to Him... with every fiber of our existence.

He wants to prepare us for His grand finale with His awesome visitation upon earth. The closer He comes, the stronger the earth, the darkness and His beloved Bride will react. Are we prepared? We have come a very long way in our faith, expectations and hope. But I also know there are still issues that remain that are holding Him back. I believe unforgiveness is one of them. Father, please be merciful and teach us to forgive. Please give us grace to let go of the offenses and leave them behind.

Lovingly,

Sandy

ANGELS AND WARFARE

10/17/99

Hi Loved Ones,

In a recent prayer gathering, one of our intercessors received a vision that was most encouraging. I felt it was a revealing picture of what happens to our "warfare" prayers when we pray them. As a background to this vision, his daughter is in Spain going to school and we were praying from Oregon, USA.

She had called asking for prayer because she came in contact with a student that was involved with witchcraft, and she felt creepy and uncomfortable. They prayed over the phone, then later as an intercessory group we prayed again. We bound the powers of the enemy over her, broke off all demonic assignments against her, and loosed the angels to send her deliverance. We also prayed a hedge of protection around her. After this, he received this wonderful vision:

His perspective was from the sky looking down upon the continents of the earth. Little lines extended out to all parts of the land masses. He understood these were the individual prayers of the people. They connected into three very large shafts of bright light coming from three continents and meeting together in the sky. These shafts of light appeared to carry substance, like living light moving upwards. At their point of intersection stood a bright angelic being, wielding a large sword.

The angel turned and pointed his sword to the region of Spain around Salamenca. A fierce white bolt of light came out of the sword and hit this region. When the angel had delivered the bolt, his sword came up and the living light ascending the shafts re-energized the sword for the next attack.

I was so blessed with he shared this vision! The scripture says, "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." (Heb 11:1 KJV) Our faith is the living substance within those shafts of light and it releases all kinds of power in the spirit realm! What was even more encouraging was that we did not labor over our prayers for her, and there were only 8 of us in that room. If we only knew how powerful and important prayer is, we would never stop praying.

On my last post, where I forwarded Kathy Walter's article on angels, I wrote a little note prior to it: "I listened to a tape a few weeks ago and if I remember correctly, it was Bobby Conner who saw a vision of some angels in heaven standing around bored. When He asked the Lord about them, He said that it was our responsibility to make sure they were sent. We have the authority in the name of Jesus to bind demonic powers and dispatch angels into any situation." I received two e-mails in response saying that we do not command angels, only God does that. I want to clear any misunderstandings. Nowhere in scripture does it say that we command angels, any more than we command God to do anything.

When I said we have the authority to bind demons and dispatch angels, I was speaking of the scripture, "And I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven." (Matt 16:18-19 NKJV) When I pray, I bind the demonic powers and loose the angels to go forth on behalf of whatever situation needs attention.

It took the angel three weeks to fight through demonic resistance to get to Daniel. When he arrived, he said, "Don't be frightened, Daniel, for your request has been heard in heaven and was answered the very first day you began to fast before the Lord and pray for understanding; that very day I was sent here to meet you. But for twenty-one days the mighty Evil Spirit who overrules the kingdom of Persia blocked my way. Then Michael, one of the top officers of the heavenly army, came to help me, so that I was able to break through these spirit rulers of Persia. Now I am here to tell you what will happen to your people, the Jews, at the end times-for the fulfillment of this prophecy is many years away." (Dan 10:12-14 TLB)

What we do on earth works hand in hand with what is going on in heaven. The angels are working to fight through opposition and fasting is one of the tools to help them to fight through. Daniel fasted 3 weeks until he received his answer. There are many tools in warfare, and because Jesus disarmed principalities and powers, (Col 2:15) He gave us the keys of the kingdom to bind and loose. (Matt 16:18-19) In the Greek, the word "whatsoever" we bind or loose means "who, which or what." If we can bind a demon, we can loose their opposite, which is an angel.

I have been in many warfare situations at night where I see violent lightening clashes where binding the enemy and loosing the angels causes violent impacts against the darkness. As a weak vessel, it is very frightening and startling to experience these so close to the point of impact, but it makes me most grateful for the power to bind and loose. Things happen when we use the authority Jesus has given us!

I will close with a Word to Ponder, from the book Words to Ponder.

Lovingly,

Sandy

INTERCESSORS STAND GUARD

I AM raising an army of intercessors who understand the significance of standing in the gap. They may be unseen by others, but they are not unseen by Me. These carry My authority into the spiritual realm and fight on behalf of others. They have been trained to stand strong against the enemy tide, and resist the forces sent against those they encircle. Together, they form a mighty wall of protection for the weaker vessels within.

Now is the time for those trained to defend and stand on behalf of those they love. Be strong, for the heavenly hosts fight with you. Be of great courage, for there are more with you than with the enemy. Stand in My favor and My grace. Know your own sins are forgiven and come into My courts with boldness, declaring defeat of the enemy's destructive forces, and victory for the overcomers who believe in My Name.

Arm yourselves with weapons of My authority. Keep your shields of faith high and quench the fiery darts with My Word. Command the evil forces to retreat in the Mighty Name of Jesus. Loose the angels to go forth and fight. Use the battering rams of praise, worship and speaking My Name. Each blow causes a retreat. Be persistent and use your weapons over and over again, and the strongholds will fall. You will see victories all around you as you are willing to stand guard when I call you to do so. Be on the alert. I give you times of rest and times of war. Learn to discern them and you will learn to take advantage of both for My Kingdom's sake.

"And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it:" (Ezekiel 22:30)

WHEN WE SUFFER LOSS - Bitter or Better

9/28/99

Hi Loved Ones,

Sometimes when we suffer loss it is a result of our own mistakes. Sometimes it is a result of undeserved injustice. Recently I was faced with an injustice, was not able to fix it and as a result I suffered loss. When we suffer loss, responding correctly does not mean that we do not hurt, cry, mourn, and even grieve. However within the pain, God gives us a choice. We have the choice to become bitter or better.

As I was driving on the way to the meeting to ask for justice, I heard the Lord say,

"Vengeance is Mine, says the Lord." I was really startled when I heard this, because I have the gift of mercy and do not think in terms of retaliation and getting even. I was so unfamiliar with the concept I wasn't even sure what He meant by that. After the appointment (and my silently begging for the Lord's help all the way through it), I walked away convinced that this man had a very hard heart. Confused, I walked away, lost my peace, was hurting and angry at the injustice — and knew I had a choice. I could become bitter or better. I cried to the Lord to help me through the process and not choose bitter!

As I was thinking about the phrase, "Vengeance is Mine, says the Lord" I felt somewhat comforted by it. Even though I did not know what He meant, I felt He was My BIG Protector, and He was not very pleased with this man's treatment of me - and furthermore He knew ahead of time that this man would not budge.

When I came to grips with the fact that I had suffered loss and there was no way to repair it short of divine intervention, I looked up the word vengeance. It meant punishment. I was comforted by His fierce love for me, but I said, "Lord I forgive this man!! If I do not forgive him, he will do the same thing to someone else, and furthermore he may become worse because of the spirits loosed when someone judges. And Lord, it sure doesn't do me any good if You put this man out of business, it doesn't change the fact that I still have been ripped off. And Lord, if I do not forgive, You said in Your Word that I would be given over to the tormentors. I FORGIVE LORD, PLEASE DO NOT HOLD THIS AGAINST HIM. IN FACT BLESS HIS BUSINESS LORD!" I found my peace through this prayer even though I still faced the loss. At least I was at peace.

When I got home I started looking up scriptures on the justice of God. The following is what I found and it helped me face the disappointment of the loss. When it came to the bottom line, the scriptures are very clear and I had the choice to believe God or not to believe God. If I chose to believe God, then my heart would be better and not bitter, and furthermore I would receive 7 times the repayment for what I had lost! WOW.

1] God is Just - He will balance the scales

The scripture says, "A just balance and scales belong to the LORD; All the weights of the bag are His concern." (Prov 16:11 NASU)

Just like in the gold rush days where they measured their weight of the gold on balance scales - God measures everything. He sees when the scales tip towards injustice and He delights in balancing the scales.

If we try to balance the scales ourselves and fight for our rights, then we tie His hands to fight for us. If we give it to Him, it becomes His battle and He tips the scales for us. We fight for ourselves when we lash back and we take on the following characteristics: revenge, anger, bitterness, slander, gossip, accusation, debate, deceit, lies, backbiting, intimidation, control, unforgiveness, etc.

[Scriptures on just weight and balances: Job 31:6, Lev 19:35-36, Deut 25:13-15, Prov 11:1, Prov 20:10, Prov 20:23, Ezek 45:10, Hos 12:7, Amos 8:5, Mic 6:11]

Question: Do I really believe God is just? If so then:

Key to a better heart: Lord, You delight in balancing the scales. If I tried to fight the battle myself, I would botch it up. Please balance the injustice and make it right.

2] God will repay 7 fold

The scripture says, "Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord." (Rom 12:19 KJV)

"For we know him who said, "Justice belongs to me; I will repay them"; who also said, "The Lord himself will handle these cases." It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God." (Heb 10:30-31 TLB)

Recently someone sent me their vision while spending ‘floor time’. He said the verse appeared, "I will repay you seven-fold for the years the locusts have eaten..." When he got up from the floor, he looked up the verse and was puzzled as to the missing word "seven-fold." It was then that he realized he had received a vision from the Lord. (Joel 2:25-29)

It is scriptural that the enemy pay back 7 fold what he stole. (Ps 79:12, Prov 6:31) It is also scriptural to be punished 7 fold. (Gen 4:15, Lev 26:21, Lev 26:28)

Question: Do I really believe God will repay? If so, then:

Key to a better heart: Lord thank You for Your promise! I trust in You to repay me 7 fold for what has been taken from me.

3] God is Sovereign

When David was being cursed by one of Saul’s family. Instead of retaliating, David said, "No! If the Lord has told him to curse me, who am I to say no? My own son is trying to kill me, and this Benjaminite is merely cursing me. Let him alone, for no doubt the Lord has told him to do it. And perhaps the Lord will see that I am being wronged and will bless me because of these curses." (2 Sam 16:10-12 TLB) David was so humble and so trusted in God’s defense, that he believed the Benjaminite could not curse him unless the Lord had told him to do it!

Jesus believed the same thing. When He was replying to Pilate at His trial, Jesus said, "You could have no power at all against Me unless it had been given you from above. Therefore the one who delivered Me to you has the greater sin." (John 19:10-11 NKJV)

The scripture says, "I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these things." (Isa 45:7 KJV)

Question: Do I really believe God is in control? If so, then:

Key to a better heart: Lord I believe You are completely in control of my life. Nothing happens without Your permission. I trust that You know what is best even if I do not understand.

WHY DOES GOD SAY YES TO SUFFERING?

There are many kinds of losses: physical, spiritual, emotional, people, dreams, hopes, financial, health, time, etc. It is not important whether the loss was caused by the devil, people, natural circumstances, judgment or our own mistakes. In the end, what is relevant is that just like the book of Job, God said, "Yes." So why does He say yes? The following are some of the scriptural reasons why He says yes:

1) So that we become like Jesus. (Rom 8:29)

2) So that we follow in His footsteps (1 Peter 2:21)

3) So that we will embrace the cross. (Matt 16:24-25)

4) So that we will bear more fruit. (John 15:2)

5) So that we will overcome (Rev 12:11)

6) So that our faith will be tried (1 Peter 1:7)

7) So that we will be purified (Mal 3:3)

8) So that we develop character (Rom 5:3,4)

9) So that we will become patient (James 1:2-4)

10) So that we will receive the crown of life (James 1:12)

11) So that the Spirit of glory will rest upon us (I Peter 4:14)

12) So that we can enter the kingdom of God (Acts 14:22)

13) So that we may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God (2 Thess 1:5)

14) So that we may reign with Him (2 Tim 2:12)

15) So that we yield the peaceful fruit of righteousness (Heb 12:11)

16) So that we will be separate from the filthy things (2 Cor 6:17)

17) So that which cannot be shaken will remain (Heb 12:26-29)

18) So that we will wait on Him (Prov 20:22)

19) So that our hearts will be known (Jer 17:10)

20) So that we will be corrected (Jer 10:24)

21) So that our motives will be examined (Ps 7:9)

22) So that our hearts will become pure (Prov 17:3)

23) So that we will reign with Him (2 Tim 2:12)

24) So that we will be comforted (2 Cor 1:6)

25) So that we may know Him (Phil 3:10)

26) So that we may rejoice when His glory is revealed (1 Peter 4:13)

27) So that we will be made perfect, established, strengthened & settled (1 Peter 5:10)

28) So that we will be chastened (Heb 12:7)

29) So that joy will come in the morning (Prov 3:5)

30) So that His time & purpose will be fulfilled in our lives (Eccl 3:1)

31) Etc., etc. etc., etc., etc.!

In closing I would like to share a dream my husband had a week ago. He saw the top of someone's head, with a full crown of hair. Then he saw the enemy come up and spit a big glob on top of the hair. The person felt thoroughly unclean and vile. Then as he looked, the spit turned into a large pearl. He knew the Lord had changed this curse into a large pearl of great price. Then he had a brief vision of a crown that was made of precious stones. It was not a crown of gold with stones attached to it, rather the crown was being created from adjoining jewels: large stones, rubies, sapphires and the pearl.

Lovingly,

Sandy

THE WEDDING SURPRISE

This week at church I noticed we had an unusual amount of visitors. Behind the scenes, while we were preparing for a potluck, they suddenly announced a surprise wedding and held it on the spot. After the vows, the bridal party announced a wedding reception in the back where we were loading the tables with food.

The bride came back astonished not knowing we were having the potluck, and I kind of chuckled at the Lord's gift to her of this sudden addition to her wedding! As I was bringing the pots to the table, I noticed the line of wedding guests forming the potluck line. It dawned upon me as I looked at the line and I looked at the food — there wasn't going to be enough food! With no more food on the kitchen counters, I prayed, "Oh Lord, I have been praying and believing that You will multiply our resources in the future to feed all who come to our doors! Please multiply this food, and may it be a sign of Your future promise!" I am not one to pray for signs, but it just popped into my mind, and so I prayed it.

As the people went through the line, I was nervously watching the food disappear. After all were sitting I looked at the potluck table. It looked like a tornado had gone through. Besides the fact there was no food left, it looked like a gross sloppy mess. As I dejectedly looked at the disaster, thinking about my prayer for a sign, I walked into the kitchen. The "empty" counter was now bulging with three huge 33 gallon garbage sacks — full of bread, loaves and rolls. At that exact moment I heard the Lord’s still small voice whisper, "Trust Me!"

Evidently someone had noticed that there was not very much food left and had the sacks from the day old bakery in his truck. He brought them in and left them on the counter. The bread never was served on the potluck table and I was trying to piece together the story of what the Lord was saying. I suddenly realized, "This is what is LEFT!" "So they all ate and were filled, and they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments that remained." (Matthew 14:20)

Then as I glanced at the bride’s table the Holy Spirit reminded me of my "silly" prayer I had prayed while getting dressed for church. It seems like we are always short on desserts at our church potlucks, so I asked the Lord that there would be enough desserts this time! Sure enough when we put out the desserts, there were only 2 small desserts at the potluck. This was going through my mind as I looked at the bride’s table. About 1/3 of the bridal cake was LEFT.

If you are concerned about your future and also supplies, remember the Lord is saying, "Trust Me!" "And don’t worry about food — what to eat and drink; don’t worry at all that God will provide it for you. All mankind scratches for its daily bread, but your heavenly Father knows your needs. He will always give you all you need from day to day if you will make the Kingdom of God your primary concern. So don’t be afraid, little flock. For it gives your Father great happiness to give you the Kingdom." (Luke 12: 29-32 Living Bible)

Lovingly,

Sandy

EMPTY NEST
RHEMA 9/3/99: EMPTY NEST REALLY ISN'T EMPTY AT ALL

HEARD: Empty nest. Flew the coup. Mom, I still need you as my friend.

SETTING YOUR CHILDREN FREE 8/06/06

It is true that when you train up your child in the way he shall go, he will not depart from it. When you have equipped your children to walk in maturity, there may be times of silence, but if you trained them in love, they will not depart from you either. Though times of silence, distance and distraction may feel like departing, many waters can not quench love. Always remember that your children need the warmth of your love, more than any earthly gift or equipping for their future. When they are truly launched, they will take the faith, hope and love that you have so sacrificially planted in their lives. Thank you My friend, for giving them to Me, and setting them free. You will find that when they return, your children will never be strangers, but kindred hearts.

Prov 22:6 NKJV
Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it.

RHEMA 9/6/99 YEARNINGS
When I went to bed to rest in His Presence I had an ache in my heart and could not decide what specifically I was hurting from in the process of my son's moving. I decided that I missed our intimate times of relationship without being interrupted by all his busy-ness and friends. It had been days of snipit phone calls and no privacy.

Tonight as I was resting in the Lord and listening to a tape, Wayne came in and held me in his arms. It was greatly comforting as I was in a lot of pain over the "Mom" umbilical cord and our son moving out for college this week.

DREAM: FLOATING IN THE WATERS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT
I was asking Wayne if we could build a little pool that was just long enough to float in so that we could rest and relax.

Scene 2: We were enjoying a little pool and he had his shoes by the steps. I noticed that mine were in the pool and I was worried that I had to dive to get them. They were floating just fine. [Shoes represent my peace in the Lord.]

HEARD: Divine appointment. Peace.

HEARD: It felt so good to lie with Papa. He misses me like I miss my son.

HEARD: Make it plain to her. Intimacy. Late bloomer. Late Fall. Before the storm. It's going to happen in this day and age, hundreds of them. Late bloomers. Their attitude is, “That is if you want me to bloom.” Fountain.

INTERPRETATION: Our Father misses us and wants intimacy with us, time spent alone with Him. He is birthing many children who do not have a lot of personal ambition and direction. They have been late bloomers in their giftedness, and they are a generation of those who are yielded to Him without a lot of personal agenda.

RHEMA 9/21/99 WHAT IT'S LIKE TO HAVE A SON HOME FROM COLLEGE
Last night my son came home to do his laundry. My house was fairly spotless before he came, then a couple hours later this is the tally: A basket in the hall, a lid a few feet away, another basket in another hall, a pile of clean whites on the floor in the dining room, a pile of clean pants in the living room, a torn up kleenex in pieces all over the living room floor, a blanket and pillow on the floor, several used Bounce dryer sheets on the floors (plural), vegetables all over the kitchen counter, dirty dishes and pans, leftovers from a yummy stir fry still hot (10:30 at night), messy kitchen table, old discarded unwants on his bed, the toilet seat UP and hmmm, etc.

I LOVED every minute of fellowship with my son, and only chuckled at the mess. When he left, I went to bed smiling. Oh and by the way, all was once again SPOTLESS.

SANDS OF TIME - HELD BACK NO LONGER

3 visions & 1 dream

8/25/99

Hi Loved Ones,

Recently an intercessor friend had a vision of a huge wall of sand moving down in a funnel like shape. He said it was almost like a dam of sand beginning to move. When I heard the Word, the Lord imparted to me that it was His hour glass of time. I had remembered a previous Word about His sands of time in an hour glass and I understood that He had been holding back time, in a divine delay. Now He was holding back no longer. The impact of this Word touched me in places that I am still pondering. His time table just moved forward!

In the early 80's the Lord gave me an intercessory assignment that He called, "Waiting for the brethren." I was so innocent back then, I had little idea of what that meant. As His Words and revelation began to puzzle together, I understood that it was an intercessory place of "waiting." Like a scribe, I recorded His Words, stood in the gap, and waited for what He had said to come to pass. There were other important aspects to the assignment, but they are not relevant to this posting. The point is that I was in a time of waiting.

In 1996 I had a dream where I traveled to the upper part of a river and saw it was being held back behind a restraining wall. The wall was bulging and leaking and damp. As I touched the wall, I could feel the power of the water surging, like a vibration. I looked down on the other side of the wall and there was a deep, deep gorge where the water was supposed to flow, but it was like a small creek. I knew it was only a matter of time when that dam would break and I felt uncomfortable being right there.

In the next scene, I was further down stream and I saw the river flowing extremely fast and powerful. The water was also quite deep and wide. The dam must have let go as the current was very strong. I saw an unusual sight on the bank above me. Many drift boats were in the water, being held back with taut ropes. The men were waiting at the oars, inside the boats, and the women were holding the lines on the bank. The current was so strong, it was all the women could do to hold onto those ropes. Their bodies were leaning far backwards against the tug of the ropes. As I looked at this strange sight, it was as though the only way to get the boats into the river was this method, as the current was too strong any other way. (I have had several years of river running experience and I have never seen the current so powerful.) Suddenly the women let go of the ropes, and jumped into the current to swim and catch the boats.

The powerful current reminded me of a friend's vision in the early 1980's when he saw an almond branch cut off of a tree, then placed beside a river to dry out. The branch dried for a very long time, and in the vision at the same time, he literally felt all his cells become dry and weak. He felt as though he had no water left in him. Then when it was time, he was pushed into the river. The river started small, but soon became a huge torrential current that was much too strong and too fast for him to do anything but just ride through the water.

In 1997 I saw a vision where I saw water pouring over a giant dam. Then I was suddenly in the water above the dam and felt the current take me. I was floating safely with my head above water but the pull was very strong like a forceful magnet. The Lord opened my ears and I heard the roar of a huge falls like Niagara Falls. The sound and the pull of the water was extremely powerful.

I heard the Lord ask, "Can you afford it? Can you afford not to?" Then I heard Him say that it was only a matter of time and when it came, to let go and be carried along by the gravitational pull of His powerful flowing Presence.

The sands of time are moving and He is holding back no longer! We are in a time and place whereby promises of yesterday are going to quickly come to pass. The power of His Presence is a mighty force and will become so strong that to jump in will take us swiftly to radical places. The time is soon coming for courageous decisions to jump into what God is doing. He is asking us the questions whether or not we want to jump in as well as consider the consequences if we don't! Jumping in takes courage, and may come at a cost. However, the cost will be greater for those who do not take the leap.

OVERCOMING HOPELESSNESS

For many, one of the acts of courage in taking the plunge will be to overcome hopelessness. For years, they have been held back in the collecting sands of time. In the process, they suffered losses in the pain of waiting upon God to answer prayers and fulfill His promises. I am reminded of the men who were so weary that they could not go with David into battle, so they stayed behind at the brook Besor to watch over the stuff. It is interesting that Besor in the Hebrew means cheerful and comes from a root word basar meaning "to be fresh, i.e. full (rosy, (figuratively) cheerful); to announce (glad news): -messenger, preach, publish, shew forth, (bear, bring, carry, preach, good, tell good) tidings." These people were exhausted and waited for the announcement of good news! When David came back with the spoils of the enemy, he proclaimed, "But as his part is who goes down to the battle, so shall his part be who stays by the supplies; they shall share alike." So it was, from that day forward; he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day." (1 Sam 30:24-25 NKJV) Those who stayed behind received equal pay!

The same is true in the parable of the vineyard workers who did not join the other workers until the 11th hour. (Matthew 20) They received the same pay as those who had born the heat of the day. What is even more encouraging is that when payday came, Jesus said, "So when evening had come, the owner of the vineyard said to his steward, Call the laborers and give them their wages, beginning with the last to the first." (Matt 20:8 NKJV) Those who were sitting along the sides because no one hired them, not only were put to use, but were the first to be paid - equal wages.

Our God is a just God. He knows the pain of years of waiting, the suffering in being placed on the shelf, the agony of holding on for any morsel of good news - He sees the hearts who have faithfully trusted in Him, no matter what the odds and He understands that the wages for this kind of suffering is worthy of equal pay with those who have been in a different kind of battle.

I share this Word for all; those who are already in the river, and those who are still waiting for the river to come. Prepare your hearts, for the day is fast coming when His rush of water will reach you, and you will need to make the decision of a lifetime whether to "go for it" - no matter what the cost.

If you are one who dried - then died, waiting by the river, then perhaps the following Word to Ponder will encourage you. My heart and prayers are with all who have borne the battle of waiting, as well as all who have worked in the heat of the day.

Lovingly,

Sandy

DELAY

[Taken from Words to Ponder, volume 1 by Sandy Warner]

You have suffered the pain of delay. You have wept and I have wept. I cried at Lazarus' tomb. I cry at yours. Like Mary and Martha, you turned to Me - your only trust, your only hope, your only God. I wasn't just your God Who delivers, you trusted Me as your Friend. Is it any wonder I cry at your tomb?

I have suffered every ache in your heart as you have died the slow death of disappointment. I have grieved over the death of My Beloved.

I was so proud of you. You, who knew no thought of war, of evil confrontation. I taught you to stand, and you stood valiantly. My Beloved, My courageous one. You believed Me. You trusted Me explicitly. You followed Me wholeheartedly through the battlefield. I was so proud of you. How can I reach you, when you lie in the tomb of disappointment? I weep for you.

I will defend My Beloved. The enemy has no victory. I allowed the delay. Did I not say if you would believe, you would see the glory of God? Is anything too hard for your God? Would you trust Me to be your Friend, though you lie in the coldness of the tomb? Listen for My voice. I will call and there shall be a mighty resurrection.

All that was taken shall be restored unto you. There will be nothing lost. And you shall live to see the glory of God. You will not only see My glory, you will live in it. Weep no more My Beloved. For soon I am coming with vengeance upon the enemy tactics. You shall enjoy the spoils of war. Your reward is coming.

Think not that I am a God of disappointment. I am coming with healing in My wings. When My voice calls, I will raise you up.

"Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight. Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth." (Hosea 6:1 KJV)

GREAT HOUR GLASS OF TIME

It is I Who holds the times and seasons in the palm of My hand. In a time of great delay, the sands of time were held back, then released once again to flow, one grain at a time. My people have suffered a great delay in answered prayers and promises. Yet, with each grain of passing, I distributed My Word like falling manna upon the earth. The gathering and keeping of My Word has been like a giant dam, storing up a large volume of promises and power, coupled with prayer and faith. And now, the last grain of sand has passed through to the other side. All heaven holds their breath as I, the Lord of Heaven, declare what is to come.

My hand is even now upon the hour glass of time; I AM the Just One, I will overturn. Where injustice was on top, now justice will reign. Where enslavement towered, liberty will ensue. What was once the tail, now will be the head. Watch now as I begin a new work and turn the tables and the tide.

Yes, the world is shaking, trembling and even perishing, but that is part of this powerful turn over. As I topple those powers who were unjustly on top, I will take them to the bottom of the pile. Make sure that your treasures are not My enemies, for My enemies are destined to be under foot.

Watch the new flow begin. Watch the enormous collected wealth of generations of promises begin to flow with fulfillment and purpose. Watch with anticipation as the harvest of all things falls into place!

Even as the birth canal stretches and opens to allow the baby to pass through, so has My hour glass enlarged its passage. Therefore, as I overturn this great hour glass of time, one grain of sand will still fall one at a time, but the flow will hasten. Eventually as the weight of the collected grains begins to dawn upon the hearts of My people, active faith will reunite with yesterday's hope. One person at a time will leave the mind sets of yesterday and suddenly realize the tables HAVE turned. My people will come alive and KNOW I AM the Just One. I have heard their prayers; I have grieved with them and the shouts and groans of their most silent tears have kindled My heart like no other. They shall know Me, even as I know them. They shall know the Just One, Who is their Abba Daddy.

Deut 28:12-14 NKJV

The LORD will open to you His good treasure, the heavens, to give the rain to your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand. You shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow. And the LORD will make you the head and not the tail; you shall be above only, and not be beneath, if you heed the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you today, and are careful to observe them.

1 Cor 15:24-28 NLT

After that the end will come, when he will turn the Kingdom over to God the Father, having put down all enemies of every kind. For Christ must reign until he humbles all his enemies beneath his feet. And the last enemy to be destroyed is death. For the Scriptures say, "God has given him authority over all things." (Of course, when it says "authority over all things," it does not include God himself, who gave Christ his authority.) Then, when he has conquered all things, the Son will present himself to God, so that God, who gave his Son authority over all things, will be utterly supreme over everything everywhere.

ENCOURAGEMENT FOR THE ARTISTS
8/10/99

In January of this year I had a dream where I saw some intercessors along the side of a big soccer field, shooting prayers like canon balls down towards the goal. Behind the goal was a huge thick wall with giant double doors. Behind the wall was a group of people with artistic gifts and callings (including musicians, etc) in which the Lord had anointed and prepared for various kinds of ministry enlargements, but they were stuck waiting behind these huge closed doors. I saw the wall and the doors bulge with every hit of the intercessors, as these canon balls were ramming the other side. Suddenly the doors opened and all these people were sent to the open field and they began expressing their hearts in worship, along with creative ways of declaring the Lord's Word. They moved to the music of the Holy Spirit, and whatever He was saying, they would express from their hearts in unusual ways.

When I woke, the Lord told me they were the artists waiting upon Him - some for years. I share this with joy, for last night the Lord told me the doors are opened and be prepared to walk through as the opportunities come. He said to step through the doors with courage! Thank You Lord!

SURPRISE GRAPHICS IN THE PAINTINGS

RHEMA 8/5/99: SIGNS IN THE PAINTINGS

I am an amateur painter and haven't the foggiest idea what I am doing when I paint, although I try to make it look good. I am not a drawer and cannot draw pictures. One day I had the yearning to buy some paints and do it like that guy on TV, I cant remember his name. But anyone can paint following his method. I was so excited I did take about 3 adult oil painting classes in our community to learn the basics of how to mix paints, the brushes, and the canvas, and colors.

The night years after painting it, I discovered Moses' face in the mountain of one of my paintings it just flabbergasted me. I was gazing at the wall and staring into the painting and there he was, as clear as day. I knew it was Moses, as I had seen him in a vision the burning bush in the 80's. Boy was I surprised to see this! The Lord has promised me anointed hands and He must have directed the movements I did, because it sure wasnt me. I used a knife to make the mountains.

Later I discovered there are actually the profiles of 3 faces all in a line in the mountain. The front one is Moses. You can see his white hair, white beard, eye, nose and full profile.

The face right behind Moses I have always felt the impression that it might be Jesus. He has a white robe over his head, with a little bit of his dark hair showing on his forehead. You can see his dark eyebrows, one eye, mouth and dark beard.

There is another face that looks like it is laying his head slightly tilted onto Jesus' head. You can see his eyes, nose and dark beard. I wonder if that is John the Beloved!

Today our friends from out of town came to spend the night on their way up to the city. As we were looking at my paintings in my bedroom, I showed them Moses' face in the mountains. Then as we were sitting in the eating room their daughter pointed out the eagle in the cloud of my ethereal ocean painting.

Then we rushed into the other room and the biggest surprise ever was staring us in the face. Two huge, giant eagles in the wilderness picture! One was the exact shape of the head, beak and eye of an eagle created out of the forest trees.

Then a second eagle became obvious in the mountain. It was huge taking up a third of the width of the canvas. I am still astounded.

I took some photos with my Pocket PC camera, hopefully you can see them. This one is the giant eagle in the mountain. You can see his head at the top of the mt, his dark left wing stretching across, his white softer breast and his tail feather way down near the tree line. It was all painted with a knife. I had no idea what I was doing, I was just playing with different strokes of the knife. God is SO amazing. We did not discover any of this until years after I painted them.

Here is one that looks like a white dove roosting in the cloud.

Speaking of my pocket PC, it rumbles around in my purse and has a bunch of buttons on it. If I forget to turn the button lock on, then when getting carted from my purse to wherever, I accidently take pictures. I have had some very funny pictures that I dont know where or when. But this one really amazed me. I have NO idea what it was, or where it came from. I have nothing in my purse, home or anywhere that I could identify such. And I have never seen clouds like that.

It reminds me of feathers from an angel wing.

WORD TO PONDER TANGIBLE SIGNS COMING 8/5/99
I have given you glimpses of the times yet to come. There will come a day when I will display signs of My Word through many awesome and tangible means. Amateurs artists may paint a picture, and I will supernaturally guide their brush strokes with hidden signs of My Word. Then in the perfect moment, I shall reveal what was hidden. I will display My Word in the clouds and in the stars, in the very air you breath. I will use anything and everything to reach a last day people with the harvest call.

“And they went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.” (Mark 16:20 KJV)

UPDATE: I had to stop oil painting, due to health reasons. Several years later, the Lord gave me back this gift of anointed hands to paint, through the computer. I am airbrushing and making photomontages and other special photos that glorify the Lord and His Word. He has been very merciful to give me this gift and let me "play" with my crayons. I totally love it since I have always wanted to draw and couldnt draw anything but hangman and smilie faces! Maybe someday He will open my eyes to see other things in the graphics He gives me.

ANNA COMMENT: After reading about finding interesting hidden pictures in Sandy's paintings, I studied my own that she painted for me. There big as life was the head of Moses in the winter mountain brook scene with the elk. Both my friend and I could see it very plainly. Isn't this something? And I remember we found Jesus being hidden in my friend's painting of the Redwoods when we shined the light through the back of the canvas.

SANDY COMMENT: I had not yet learned that when you paint with oil, that it needs to be really thick so that all of the white dots in the canvas will be covered. Some artists put a coat of primer over their canvas before painting so they dont have to paint so thick. Well I didnt know any of this, and when we put the painting of the redwood forest up on the kitchen counter, with the stove light on behind it, we could see Jesus in the places where the paint was not covering very well!

HIS WIND IS COMING!

Hi Loved Ones,

Years ago I was earnestly waiting upon the Lord for some specific direction and was hearing nothing. He finally said, "A set of directions depends on the wind going to the right or to the left." (Isaiah 30:21) I suddenly realized the reason I wasn't receiving any directions was because He wasn't changing direction! He was not moving, therefore His wind was still.

A couple weeks ago I was reading some notes from a friend who had gone to a conference in June 99. A prophetical Word came forth to get ready for God to blow upon us. When I read the notes I prayed, "Oh Lord come breath upon me! Come Lord!" The next morning at prayer meeting an intercessor was sitting on the ground praying over my feet and suddenly she turned around, looked up and started blowing puffs of wind into my face. I knew EXACTLY why she was doing this! The Lord was confirming, "Yes I will blow upon you!" That following Sunday one of our elders got up and said that he felt the Lord was bringing the winds of change. Three confirmations in one week - get ready for His wind, His breath to bring us to new places!

Since then I have been thinking about the wind and want to share some of the thoughts. Perhaps the Lord will quicken some of them to your heart. Greek & Hebrew (numbers) are recorded in the verses, and the accompanying Word Study definitions are included at the end, for those who are interested.

1. WIND IS INVISIBLE

We cannot control the wind and it blows where it will. Neither can we see it. (John 3:8) But we can feel it. The wind invades our senses. Get ready, He wants to invade our senses.

2. WIND MAKES NOISE

Wind has a language all its own. It whispers gentle stirrings and yet also speaks loudly in mighty blasts. Let His wind stir your heart to be in tune with His Presence, for He comes when we least expect it. And yet gather together with others in one accord, and He will come like the roar of a freight train… loaded with His glory signs.

"Day of Pentecost had now arrived. As the believers met together that day, suddenly there was a sound like the roaring of a mighty windstorm (4157) in the skies above them and it filled the house where they were meeting. Then, what looked like flames or tongues of fire appeared and settled on their heads. And everyone present was filled with the Holy Spirit and began speaking in languages they didn't know, for the Holy Spirit gave them this ability." (Acts 2:1-4 TLB)

3. WIND IS A SIGN OF HIS SPIRIT

If you are a dry bone, or know of one in whom you've lost hope… start prayin'…. He's getting ready to blow on the bones and bring them back to life. And if you've lost hope, remember those poor bones didn't do a thing, but lay in a big pile of rubble — and God breathed His Spirit upon them and they became His great army.

"Again He said to me, "Prophesy to these bones, and say to them, 'O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD! Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: "Surely I will cause breath (7307) to enter into you, and you shall live. I will put sinews on you and bring flesh upon you, cover you with skin and put breath (7307) in you; and you shall live. Then you shall know that I am the LORD." (Ezek 37:4-6 NKJ)

"Then he told me to call to the wind and say: "The Lord God says: Come from the four winds, O Spirit, and breathe (5301) upon these slain bodies, that they may live again." So I spoke to the winds as he commanded me, and the bodies began breathing; they lived and stood up-a very great army." (Ezek 37:9-10 TLB)

"Jesus breathed on His disciples to receive the Holy Spirit. "Then he breathed (1720) on them and told them, "Receive the Holy Spirit." (John 20:21-22 TLB)

"And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed (5397) into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being." (Gen 2:7 NKJ)

4. WIND MOVES THINGS

Wind carries things from one location to another. It scatters seeds and pollinates. It drives the chaff away. It brings changes in the climate or weather patterns. Get ready for a change.

"Come, north wind, awaken; come, south wind, blow (6315) upon my garden and waft its lovely perfume to my beloved. Let him come into his garden and eat its choicest fruits." (SS 4:15 TLB)

5. WIND UNDER-GIRDS

Wind under-girds the birds to fly. It brings them to new heights and enables them to rest and soar with its currents. Get ready to move up and onward.

In 1984 I had a most awesome experience when in a vision I felt the Lord literally fill my lungs with His breath. In the vision I took a deep breath and could feel His mighty wind rushing past my nostrils and down my throat. He opened my ears and I heard its very loud sound as it rushed into my lungs. As my lungs filled, it took several minutes to fill them to capacity. I could feel the Lord's Presence as this occurred and thought what a mighty pair of lungs He has! When I finished inhaling, I held it a brief moment. He opened my eyes and I gazed at multitudes of little blue and pink baby carriages. Each baby carriage carried a baby wrapped very snugly in a blue or pink blanket with a matching blue or pink milk bottle. My heart was filled with such tender feelings and a great nurturing for these babies. I started to exhale upon them, gently at first. Like feathers in the wind, these babies arose and were carried upon the breath of God. Still exhaling, I watched them float ever so gently upon the breath of God. The breath grew stronger and they flurried around like snow flurries in the wind. This vision seemingly lasted a very long time as His exhale continued to blow.

I believe this is His promise for our children, the chosen generation whose feet will evangelize the world. I also know it is a promise of the harvest yet to come - multitudes of newborn children He will supernaturally carry upon His wind. However, He said,

"I tell you as seriously as I know how that anyone who refuses to come to God as a little child (3813) will never be allowed into his Kingdom." (Mark 10:15 TLB) I may hang over the edges, but when His wind hits, I plan on climbing into one of those carriages, snuggling up to His precious cargo, and going for the ride of my life!

Lovingly,

Sandy

THE WINDS OF CHANGE

6/9/00

Hi Loved ones,

The following is a Word about the winds of change. I have included my personal comments following.

A Word given to Rich Hughlett

Rich's email: rich@ev1.net

Received March, 2000

At the beginning of this prophecy I saw the winds of a great storm blowing debris everywhere, and towards the end of the message I saw in my mind a great eagle hovering above her nest violently flapping her wings.

"Winds of change, Winds of change," Saith the Lord. "For I am releasing mighty winds of change from the four corners of the earth, for the demolition of the old for the rebuilding of the new. Winds of change for the uncovering of the hidden, winds of change for the revealing of the truth. There shall be winds for re-evaluation, winds for relocation, winds for restoration, winds for refining, winds for realigning, winds for refreshing, winds for blessing, winds for repentance, winds for salvation, winds for prosperity, winds for healing, winds for deliverance, winds for consecration, and winds for sanctification."

"To those who resist, the winds will bring destruction, but for those who yield to My Spirit they will be winds that will propel them on the course that I have prepared for them. So seek My face to set your compass, and spread your wings and allow the currents of My Spirit to bring the changes that must be made to bring you higher and closer to Me," Saith the Lord.

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS FROM RICH

When I came to the word sanctification, the Holy Ghost spoke these words to me which I feel are not part of the prophecy, but are for counsel and instruction especially to those in leadership: "A greater circle of influence requires a smaller circle of sanctification."

I am not a teacher but I will try to explain what the Holy Spirit taught me about sanctification. The word sanctification means to be set apart to God. Most Christians don't understand that there are different levels of sanctification just as there are different levels of the anointing.

One day the Holy Spirit spoke to me through a prophecy and told me that He was calling me to a deeper level of sanctification for a closer walk with Him. He soon began to prune my relationships and my circle of fellowship got smaller. Joyce Meyer expounded a little one day on this. She said that the hardest thing for her to deal with is loneliness. She influences a lot of people but God requires a deep level of separation for her to carry the level of anointing that her job requires. I see a lot of people in the ministry that don't allow the Holy Spirit to have full control of their lives. It is very crucifying to the flesh to be set apart but there is a price to pay for us to follow Him and come up higher.

COMMENTS FROM SANDY

When I read this Word, several things came to mind. First, in Bobby Conner's Shepherd's Rod 2000, it says in the Table of Contents, "God is Getting Our Attention to Change."

[Bobby's site: http://www.bobbyconner.org/]

Secondly, the Lord gave Mahesh's wife, Bonnie Chavda a vision in 1995 about the refreshing but also violent wind coming upon the land. On this vision the Lord told her, "Everything that can be shaken will be shaken. Everything in which you have found safety or comfort but not from Me will be exposed and uprooted. There will be those who will call this wind "demonic" because of what it will make manifest. Demons will be stirred up, the flesh will be made obvious, things formerly hidden will be exposed and seen as they are in relation to My Spirit: BUT THIS WIND IS FROM ME!"

FELLOWSHIP WITH THE WORLD

When Rich emailed me his comments about hearing the phrase, "A greater circle of influence requires a smaller circle of sanctification," I noted that the Lord often speaks to His prophets in riddled speech. (Num 12;6-8) Rich connected it with what the Lord was doing in his life of sanctifying his fellowship.

I was reminded of the passage, "You can enter God's Kingdom only through the narrow gate. The highway to hell is broad, and its gate is wide for the many who choose the easy way. But the gateway to life is small, and the road is narrow, and only a few ever find it." (Matt 7:13-14 NLT) There are many sources of unholy fellowship including fellowship with the world.

PERSONAL CHANGES

I have to say that since the beginning of this year, I have never had so much "change" occur in my home and personal habits. The Lord in His loving but serious way, finally managed to get my attention by throwing me into that violent wind. It was quite perplexing at first, because I was being thrown back and forth between soaking in His Presence, to being beat up by principalities. I had been involved in heavy warfare before, but this was different. It was as though the weapons that worked before were not effective. The Lord in His infinite patience was training me and putting me into obedience school.

OBEDIENCE SCHOOL

I recently came across several stories about dog obedience school. They were from different sources and I did not feel it was an accident that the Lord brought these to me. I really believe they reveal the Word of the Lord.

One was a story about a fellow teaching his hunting dog to hunt. First the dog was to learn to heel and stay by the master's side. On command his dog ran forward for the find, but in the process got lost. He was running to the right, then to the left, sniffing and frantically searching all over the place - occasionally looking back for the next command. At each command, the dog was getting more and more confused. Finally his master told him to come back and heel. Sometimes when we are sent on an assignment, we get lost in the process of understanding His Words and need to return to His side until we can figure out what He wants.

The other dog training stories all agreed that the master needed to be consistent, firm, patient, and loving. It was quite humorous to hear of these dogs being told over and over again the same command, and the dogs doing everything but the command!

After unrelenting and repeated commands, finally a dog would do what was commanded. At that moment, the master breaks out in overwhelming praise and positive feedback, to confirm the dog's actions. This is the moment of communication. The master speaks, the dog responds correctly, the master says YES, and the dog finally understands! CONNECTION.

I couldn't help but think of my being thrown into that violent wind and not knowing the difference between heads and tails. (Heads, I made the right choices and enjoyed the Lord's Presence. Tails, I made the wrong choice and got slimed by demonic garbage in my sleep.) Back then, I kept having the suspicion that my choices on TV were opening a demonic door. It seemed strange to me that if I watched something like a craft show or an animal show I would not get slimed. But if my conscience was twinged for even a moment in channel surfing, I would get dumped on at night with demonic dreams, etc. Somehow through God's grace, just like the poor dumb dog, I finally got the message. We cut off cable TV and since we could not get the local channel, we just turned it off.

The Lord brought me a confirmation as I listened to an old tape called, "Bob Jones in Atlanta." I do not know the year, but I think it was in the 90's. I was amazed. He saw demons that were going to be released by watching movies. Some people would become demonized and others would get slimed through what they were watching. He said that this would be an immediate thing that would happen as soon as one looked. He said there would be a quick repercussion for what ever we do. This included lingering too long in turning the channel. Bob said satan is being cast down to earth at this time, and we can't get away with things we did in the past. He said,

"Glean your own TV. Get it out of the house. Is there anything more important than your children and your family? This is the year that if you want a devil to live in your house, that will happen. Come into a separate and more restrained life style. Get rid of excess baggage. Being a friend of the world, makes you an enemy with God. God is going to deal with the church about entertainment." [end of Bob Jones notes]

[Bob Jones site: http://www.bobjones.org/]

I was quite amazed, it was like he read my mail! The Lord brought back to memory one of my main prayers last year. When all of the terrible prophesies of judgment were coming out on the Internet, I prayed, "Lord it doesn't do a bit of good to spank someone if it is for something they did a long time ago. We have little memory of truth or consequences. How are we going to make the connection?" I started asking that He would give us immediate feedback to our decisions, so that we could understand what He was saying.

I was overwhelmed by the confirmation of listening to this tape after we cut off our TV. I kept thinking, "Where was this Word when I needed it?" Something gnawed in the back of my mind that I HAD heard this tape before. Then the Holy Spirit brought to remembrance that I had heard it, and when I did, I had filtered it with compromise. I thought the Word was just about horror movies and since I had never seen a horror movie and the Lord had rebuked me about other carnal movies years before, and I was trying to obey, I had a mind set that it did not apply to me. Now after the fact, I realized that compromising holiness had blinded my eyes and deafened my ears towards hearing the warning of the Word of the Lord. He told me, but I did not listen. I had to learn the hard way.

Did I learn? After all was said and done, I had to go around the barn another round. I rented a nice old fashioned musical video tape. However at the counter, I found out it was rent one, get one free. As I looked over the selection I kept thinking, "This is burn time, if you disobey." So I asked both counter people to recommend a true life drama that was inspirational without questionable material in it. I brought it home with the intention of turning it off if something came up. In the 2 hours, there were 2 short sentences spoken in humor that stung my conscience. I dismissed the two phrases, because the movie was very good. I felt like I was home free. Then the final scene, lasting about 30 seconds, blasted me with filth. That night during sleep, I got slimed with demonic filth - big time.

When I woke up, His Word finally came through, "When you are involved in warfare, you have no business touching the unclean thing." I thought of the following scripture:

"Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they have become doomed to destruction. Neither will I be with you anymore, unless you destroy the accursed from among you. Get up, sanctify the people, and say, 'Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, because thus says the LORD God of Israel: "There is an accursed thing in your midst, O Israel; you cannot stand before your enemies until you take away the accursed thing from among you."

(Josh 7:12-14 NKJV)

One might ask why would the Lord suddenly become so strict? I was asking the same question for a lot of weeks. It is because of His love. In one of the dog training stories, a dog was being trained as a guide for the blind. During a heeling session, she was a couple of inches ahead of the master, instead of at his side and the trainer seriously rebuked the dog. It appeared too constraining to require such strict obedience, but then the explanation came. It only takes one car to hit the dog. It only takes one moment for the dog to run out of control and lose her life. The training is not for appearances, it's for the dog's safety.

So Beloved of the Lord, as we view our daily lives, I share these things that we might consider that the Lord is bringing us into a lengthy season of change where He will be unrelenting until we finally "get it." Time is speeding up, and we are now receiving His quick feedback to personal choices. I am also noticing on a positive side that when I make a right choice, like pray for someone, that He downloads me with His Presence at the time I pray, as a YES confirmation. I may be like a dumb dog and not know heads from tails at times, but I sure like positive feedback!

Lovingly,

Sandy

PS - The Lord often speaks to me when I make typing bloopers. I typed the following sentence, and once again, He amazed me! "It only takes one moment for the dog to fun out of control and lose her life."

YOU TAKE CARE OF MY BUSINESS 7/26/99

WAYNE HEARD: "You take care of My business, and I'll take care of yours."

SANDY HEARD: I took care of it. Business assignment.

Phil 4:19-20 NKJV
And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. Now to our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

SPEND TIME WITH ME

I AM calling you to spend much needed time with Me. As the days grow darker and more pressed, you will need to free more of your time to spend on kingdom business. This will take place one step at a time and I will prepare you for these changes.

"And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her." (Luke 10:41-42 KJV)

POEM: DEEPER WATERS 2/20/05

My desperate son, I so yearn over you.
I AM always with you whatever you do.
Never, never, never alone. I AM here.

Always, always, always with you, do not fear.

I long to bring you into My secret place;
I long to hold you in My tender embrace.
I AM calling you to relax and swim with Me,
In waters so deep, holy and free.

Thank you for giving Me your most precious time.
Thank you for setting aside the making of the dime.
I will take care of your business as you take care of Mine.
It's My promise, My way is provided so let us dine.

Listen to the little nuggets of My Word.
Soak them in and let the seeds break forth assured.
I AM faithful to watch over what I have planted in you.
These seeds, they carry your destiny and all that is true.

So all that matters for now is that you relax
As you present to Me that which is taxed.
And let us move into deeper waters, My waters of life.
As you have laid down the struggles and places of strife.

Let My water hold you up and relax in the waves,
Knowing that I AM sustaining you as you are brave.
To allow Me first place in all that you do,
I will settle the accounts and make them prosperous too.

Ps 42:7-8 NKJV
Deep calls unto deep at the noise of Your waterfalls; All Your waves and billows have gone over me. The LORD will command His lovingkindness in the daytime, and in the night His song shall be with me — A prayer to the God of my life.

RHEMA 7/26/99 RUMBLING IN THE HOLY SPIRIT
EXPERIENCE: I suddenly realized that there were a of angels in the room, and then I heard them shout, HEARD: Hallelujah!

> Immediately I shook violently and trembled in the anointing with the burst of explosion from inside me.

HEARD: Years in establishing you.

HEARD SONG: Hey, Lord, the rocks cry out. You know what to do.

> Luke 19:40 NKJV
> But He answered and said to them, "I tell you that if these should keep silent, the stones would immediately cry out."

EXPERIENCE: Someone sent me a Word today via email and the Lord had a funny response!

> MOUTH LIKE A RIVER FLOWING OUT
> "I pray for your ministry that the Blood of our Jesus will cover and keep you safe. That the Spirit will fill you anew, with the things of today, that you may continue to be a light, a beacon out in this world. I believe by the Spirit that new and flowing word is going to fill you to a place where, I see your mouth just wide open and it is like a river flowing out. There does not even seem to appear a time to close your lips as it will be a continual flow... Glory to the Lord. Stand strong and firm in what He has shown you to do! He is your beacon, follow the light of His love for you."

HEARD: As I read this, I heard the Lord say, "Computer mouth!"

UPDATE HEARD: Mountain quake. Rumbling. Your singing in the rain. Open thy mouth and I will feeeeeed it.

(I heard "feed it" just like that! I love His humor. Until you experience the trembling that sometimes takes place under His anointing, you dont know. It is like an earthquake on the inside!)

TEAM WORK

7/20/99

Hi Loved Ones,

Sometime this year I heard the Lord say the Word, "Synergy" in connection with a season of joining. I was not familiar with the word so I looked it up in the dictionary. It means that the sum of the whole is greater than the sum of the parts. In other words, when something is joined together it has a greater force, impact or energy than the same components separately.

When chemists create medications, often they will join more than one substance together in order to be more effective. The two combined actually work better in the body than if they are taken separately. Their combined synergistic effect magnifies the results.

Prophetically speaking, this year the Lord is joining people, ministries, giftedness, leaders, etc together to prepare for His greater impact. I have also seen this play out in simple gatherings of musicians, prayer meetings, corporate worship, home groups, etc. He is truly blessing the act of joining together with other believers to seek Him corporately.

I believe this is the beginning stages of His army joining together in unity, where we will march side by side as one unit, without jealously or strife. — Where we won't be focused on each others gifts, but be focused upon Him. — Where our pursuit is seeking Him, and the gifts just pour out because we are in His Presence. — Where we each do our part and give space for others to do their part.

It is very exciting to be a part of this joining. More and more I see that we each have our own gifts and they were not meant to duplicate or match another's like a cookie cutter mold, rather they were meant to puzzle together, connect and enhance Who the Lord is. One person may see a picture vision, another hear just one Word, and then another may have the interpretation. One may have a prayer, one may have a song. Another may war over particular needs for deliverance, another may share a dance unto the Lord. We each are beautifully created to express a portion of Who He is, and we were MEANT to join together. None of us have the whole picture, and it is in the joining that we receive more of HIM. It is so good when we share our individual expressions of what the Lord is saying. Together the overall message has a greater impact upon us all. It is awesome to be a part of this joining together.

There is a lot to say about the word "Synergy." I have mentioned it several times in passing in my posts. However, I was quite surprised when I received the following e-mail from a gal who had been reading the 1999 postings at my site and I felt the knowledge of what she shared was something we all needed to hear!

Subj: Regarding "Synergy" (Your 3/10/99 posting)

Date: 7/4/99 12:22:11 AM Pacific Daylight Time

To: SW Author

Hi Sandy!

I have been reading your 1999 postings at your web site and am so tremendously encouraged and blessed with what you have shared there. I was beyond excitement when I read the 3/10/99 posting where you said the Lord spoke the word "synergy" to you!

Here are my notes on synergy written 10/21/95:

"SYNERGY"

For some time I have used the term "Synergistic effect" when referring to the body of Christ working together. The end result of our efforts is so much greater than merely the sum of the parts. I have many times questioned that word - synergism - and have even asked the Lord if it is an acceptable word and an acceptable interpretation. I have even had some niggling thoughts that it may be a "new age" term and not be proper to use in reference to the Lord.

Well, tonight as I was reading Matthew Henry's commentary and randomly reading some of the passages he wrote regarding divine revelation, and WHAMMO! The Lord blazed that Greek word off the computer screen - "synergoi"! I looked at it and thought, "That looks like the root for "synergy!" I turned to Strong's and saw why I had never seen it before. Strong's lists the Word as "sunergoi." I had forgotten that the Greek letter "U" is also translated as our "Y"! (Like "dunamis/dynamite)

I got out Webster's Dictionary and looked up the word "synergy" and sure enough, the word comes from the Greek word "synergia." It means "combined or cooperative action or force."

All this time when I have referred to the synergistic effect which seems to be at work in the body of Christ, I didn't realize that it is because it is scriptural! This Greek Word is recorded 13 times in the New Testament, all having to do with fellow-workers. One of the scriptures is 1 Cor 3:9: For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, you are God's building. (NKJ)

[They are labourers with God, synergoi-- co-workers, fellow-labourers (v. 9)

(from Matthew Henry's Commentary on 1 Corinthians 3:5-10 PP4)]

We are fellow workers ("synergoi") with God! And the effect is synergism! Webster's Dictionary defines synergism as "the simultaneous action of separate agencies which, together, have greater effect than the sum of their individual effects."

AMERICAN HERITAGE DICTIONARY:

syn•er•gy (sin'_r-jEE) n., [pl.] syn•er•gies.

1. The interaction of two or more agents or forces so that their combined effect is greater than the sum of their individual effects.

2. Cooperative interaction among groups, especially among the acquired subsidiaries or merged parts of a corporation, that creates an enhanced combined effect.

So as we work together with one another and we are all fellow workers ("synergoi") with God, His supernatural ability coupled with our cooperative actions "make tremendous power available - dynamic in its working!" Synergism in its truest and purest expression!

Abba, You are so faithful to always confirm Your Words to me! Thank You for showing me that "synergism" is indeed a "divine revelation" from You! I love You so much!

Thank you Sandy.

JOINING

[From Words to Ponder, volume one by Sandy Warner]
~~~~~~~~~~

I have given you a precious gift by placing you in unity with your brethren. Like scrambled eggs, the Words I give you combine with others and you are like salt to one another, giving each other preservation from the enemy schemes as well as flavor to each other's lives.

Enjoy this good and wonderful gift of joining with others. Flourish in it for that is what I meant it to be. — A body, a healthy body functioning as one unit; rushing here for healing; rushing there for nourishment. — A Word of encouragement, a Word of confirmation.

There is no competition in the joining process. Merely an acceptance of one another and a mutual respect for one another's gifts and perspectives. How good it is to see it fit so perfectly when all have lain aside their own ambitions to serve the whole. How good it is to lay aside the superstars and raise Me as your Standard. I rejoice to see you work together and function as one. Thank you.

"For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. For the body is not one member, but many." (1 Corinthians 12: 12-14)

GOD'S POWER BUZZED HAND

RHEMA 7/20/99: HILARIOUS CONFIRMATION

While I was reading last night's rhema and typing the following Word to Ponder, I could feel His tangible Presence surging through my blood. After I typed this Word to Ponder, I was re-reading it and heard, “It's coming.” At that exact moment I felt a burst of His Presence and my left hand jerked wildly on my desk. I was overcome with drunkenness in His Spirit.

When got up to go to into the other room for a moment, Big Mouth Billy Bass is in there right now. As I walked past the electric eye, his tail started wiggling, then his mouth opened and he sang, “I want to know, can you help me? Take me to the river. Drop me in the river! Take me to the river. Put me in the water!” Then as I walked out, he sang, “Here's a little song I wrote. Don't worry, be happy!”

WORD TO PONDER TOUCH THEM FOR ME 7/20/99

I have placed you within My shield of blue flame. You are completely encircled day and night. Your angels form a fiery wall around you and they are getting excited. For on the other side of your personal storm, there is a wonderful celebration coming. I am sending you to lay hands on many to be My personal touch. I shall send forth My lightning rod through your hands. You will feel this powerful virtue. It will surge through your veins, arms and hands. You may also hear its flow in your body. Touch My Spirit says the Lord. It's hot, it's a blue flame. It's My anointing.

"And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?" (Mark 5:30 KJV)

"And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all." (Luke 6:19 KJV)

"And believers were increasingly added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women, so that they brought the sick out into the streets and laid them on beds and couches, that at least the shadow of Peter passing by might fall on some of them. Also a multitude gathered from the surrounding cities to Jerusalem, bringing sick people and those who were tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all healed." (Acts 5:14-16 NKJV)

CITY PRAYER AND WARFARE - How to battle safely

7/7/99

Hi Loved Ones,

Sometimes we can get ourselves in hot water when we do not understand how to pray for our city, and safely take authority over it. We are in a war, and we can expect some suffering as a part of the package. (2 Tim 2:3) However there are things that open the door to backlash and we can learn to war without excessive suffering.

HOW TO FIGHT A SAFER BATTLE:

1. PRAY FOR PEACE

Just like praying for the peace of Jerusalem (Ps 122:6), we can pray for the peace of our city. A guest speaker recently said that he had gone to Ireland several years ago when it was in great conflict. When he returned, he found a totally different city. The troops were gone, people felt safe in the streets and the heavy spiritual oppression was gone. He asked the spiritual leaders about this and they shared their secret. They had sent little prayer teams to walk the streets praying for peace… for 8 years. That's all they prayed and it worked!

2. PRAY FOR GOD'S WILL ON EARTH

If we only knew how vital prayer was, we would never stop praying. (I Thess 5:17, Phil 4:6) It is the pipeline that brings heaven to earth. Prayer is a safe and powerful weapon to make a difference for our cities without causing strong enemy retaliation. We are to pray that God's kingdom comes to earth and His will be done in our city. In these last days it is God's will that His glory shine upon the earth, all enemies come under His/our feet, and that all men might be saved. (Matt 6:10, Eze 43:2, Isa 60, Hag 2:7, I Cor 15:25, Rom 16:20, John 3:17)

3. PRAY FOR OUR LEADERS

We are all called to pray and make requests for our leaders. (I Tim 2:2,3) There is a reason for this. All of heaven, both angels and demons operate under a hierarchy of authority working down from the greatest to the least. The same government principle operates on earth and the enemy understands this, therefore he targets leaders because it gives him the greatest area of influence. Leaders on earth have the spiritual authority (both good and evil) to open spiritual doors to bless or curse those whom they govern. We need to raise up the standard of prayer for our leaders so their authority will be used to bless and protect. We can forgive their sins, then pray for their repentance and God's mercy, revelation, wisdom, integrity, Godly counsel, protection, salvation, etc. Praying for our leaders is a very powerful weapon against darkness.

4. PRAY IN TONGUES

When we pray in tongues, we are praying the mysteries of God because our minds do not understand what we are praying. (1 Cor 14:14-15) "Likewise the Spirit also helps in our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. Now He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God." (Rom 8:26-28 NKJV) We can pray in tongues over our city and know in confidence we are praying the mystery and will of God. I have had some of my best warfare breakthroughs, during or right after I have earnestly prayed in tongues.

5. SACRIFICE

In these last days many will become volunteer intercessors where they are willing to sacrifice to stand in the gap for their city. If we understood how powerful just one intercessor is, we would all volunteer, no matter what the cost. (Est 4:16) Each act of intercession is a mighty tool and makes a difference in conquering enemy territory. There are many forms of sacrifice, and too numerous to mention. Sacrifice is basically giving up something we deem valuable, and offering it to the Lord to use for His purposes. [FYI: A Word study called "The Characteristics of an Intercessor" is at my site under 1999 postings.]

6. WORSHIP

Psalms 149 says the high praises of God in our mouth and a two edged sword in our hand brings judgment upon the enemy and binds their rulers with chains. (These swords are the Word of God. Eph 6:17, Heb 4:12, Rev 1:16, 19:15) In this Psalms, he tells us to praise Him in dance, song, tambourines and stringed instruments. Worship is a powerful tool in warfare. I have been in meetings where the worship is so powerful that people are delivered without any hands-on ministry. Demons can't stand to hear the high praises of our Lord Jesus Christ! I have also seen people delivered when I waved my tambourine over them during worship.

HOW TO CLOSE OUR DOORS TO BACKLASH:

1. BUILD OUR METRON A STEP AT A TIME

The above examples of prayer, sacrifice and worship are ways to fight a safer battle without taking a direct "hit" from the enemy. These examples are important positions in the overall battle, yet are fought further away from the front lines. Using these weapons are different than actually addressing the enemy head-on.

The word "metron" comes from the scripture: "But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure (3358) of the rule (2583) which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you." (2 Cor 10:13 KJV)

Metron is the Greek word metron (met'-ron) (3358) meaning a measure; by implication a limited portion (degree). Rule is the Greek word kanon (kan-ohn') (2583) from kane meaning: 1) A rod used to measure distance 2) A boundary or fixed space within the limits of which one's power of influence is confined as in (a) the province assigned to one (b) one's sphere of activity 3) metaphorically, any rule or standard, a principle or law of investigating, judging, living, acting. [From Thayer's Greek & Strongs]

The Lord has given us authority to bind the enemy and loose God's will. (Matt 16:19) He is wanting us to grow in our measure of authority against the enemy — first over the lack of freedom within our own lives, then our loved ones, then onto outside circumstances and territory that influence our lives - like work, school, church, etc. As we grow and overcome in the areas that touch our own lives then move onto bigger assignments, our circle of authority over the enemy grows and we are able to stand against greater odds. It is a step by step process of learning to obey the Lord and following Him in what He is asking us to overcome.

Problems arise when we step outside our metron. When the Jewish travelers were trying to cast out demons, one demon replied, "I know Jesus and I know Paul, but who are you?" (Acts 19:15 TLB) The demon injured them and they ran away naked. The demonic world knows us: our faith, our waverings, our strengths, our weaknesses. We must cover our own hedges first before we can expect to war safely on bigger issues.

The comforting part of learning to war in this manner is that He is sovereign and as long as we don't become presumptuous and take on more than He has assigned, then what He allows to touch our lives is strictly portioned one step at a time. (Ps 139) Everything must be cleared by Him first. We are the last day overcomers, and we will place the enemy under our feet and we will be victorious. But that only happens with Him divinely positioning us, and giving us our individual portions to complete. We will each have different assignments, but together we are taking territory. [FYI: A teaching called "Finding Your Metron" is at my site under 1999 postings.]

2. RESIST SIN

The Lord said that we can not stand against our enemies until we remove the sin from our camp. (Josh 7:12) Disobedience to His Word is an open door for demons to set up camp in our lives. We are living in the day when the accuser has become very powerful because the hedge over our lives, cities, and countries has fallen through sin. God doesn't want the accuser having a foothold, but it leaves little choice when we are the ones giving the accuser ammunition. It all boils down to knowing and following God's Word. (Ps 119:11)

3. AVOID PRESUMPTION

Spiritual warfare is a serious business because we can not see with our natural eyes what is taking place. Therefore we are blind sided by unknown enemies, wondering what hit us! Our only hope is to learn to wait upon the Lord, who does see, and only move forward in battle as He says to move. This means we do not make plans for our lives, our families, our ministries, our churches, our neighborhoods, our towns, our countries, without first praying and asking God for His plan. If God is not behind the plan, we have no hope of ever standing against the obstacles that will come our way. It is hopeless before it ever gets started. The best remedy against presumption is to give God time. Revelation of His plan takes time as well as waiting for confirmation. (2 Cor 13:1) Waiting may be hard, but it is a lot easier than suffering great loss.

4. CLEANSE THE HOME

Sometimes cleansing the home is necessary. Countries with other religions actually send curses and spirits attached to the objects they export. There are millions of idols today, including children's toys. Many companies are turning to spiritual forces to manipulate the public. When searching your home and heart remember Romans 14 about eating meat sacrificed to idols. Pray and even anoint with oil things in your home, rebuke enemy attachments and loose blessings. Also remember 1 Thess 5:22 that says, "Abstain from all appearance of evil." If the item actually represents evil, why live with it? (Josh 7:12)

5. OVERCOME JUDGMENT WITH MERCY

Twenty eight years ago I learned a powerful lesson about opening the door for judgment to come upon my own life. I had become offended by the behavior and motives of a youth leader and started praying for him. The more I prayed, the more upset I became, and I finally talked to him, saying I had a Word from the Lord for him. Right after I delivered this "Word" the Lord showed me that I had pointed one finger, but had 3 fingers pointing back to myself. I suddenly realized I was guilty of the same motives and I repented. The deeper lesson I learned that day was that when we pray for our leaders we must cleanse our own hearts first. If we stay humble and pray for mercy, this will close doors of judgments to hit our own lives. If we judge, we will be judged. This is a biblical promise. (Luke 6:37) The sooner we truly believe this, the sooner we will stop judging.

6. STAY IN UNITY

The demonic forces are gathering and uniting for greater impact. This is not a time to be an isolated believer, rather it is a time to unite, for we will all be much safer when united. There is greater authority in group prayer, and there is also a greater canopy of protection. The Lord is starting to unite His army, even joining leaders and ministries together for a synergistic effect. He said that 5 can chase 100 and 100 can chase 10,000. (Lev 26:8) That is the power of gathering in His Name.

Tackling territorial strongholds is for groups gathering and taking authority together, united in one accord against a common enemy. I personally think that the reason why some of these strongholds will not come down without the gathering, is so that we WILL gather. Some have asked me how big of a group is big enough? It is my personal belief that the size of a group is not as important as the maturity, training, unity and actual experience of the warriors. On the other hand, the unity of a larger crowd shields individuals, because of the combined synergistic authority to fight stronger powers. (Lev 26:8)

7. KEEP OUR FOCUS

The enemy wants to challenge us into fighting a war on his terms. When this happens, our focus changes and we get our eyes onto the enemy instead of the Lord. I would like to share a story of some recent experiences because I believe it demonstrates the importance of what it means to keep our focus on the Lord.

Recently our city had a small riot that erupted from 200 anarchists demonstrating against capitalism. At the time the riot began, I came down with a very deep heavy burden pressing against my heart and stomach. I prayed, I warred, I spoke in tongues, I worshipped and it still lasted for about 5 hours before I found relief. Since I am fasting TV, I didn't know about the riot until the next day. Anarchists said their demonstration "got out of hand" causing $18,000 damage to local businesses, also busting driver's windows, and terrorizing motorists. (I wondered what "got out of hand" meant when they came prepared with metal bars, chains, rocks twice the size of softballs, and hoods to cover their faces?) Next they announced they were going to do their "demonstrations" the 3rd Friday of each month. It was easy to figure out where my burden came from especially when it lasted the same duration of the 5 hour demonstration.

I had received a dream in October 98 when I understood that the enemy's desire was to bring the spirits of lawlessness and riots to the streets, so that it would drive the righteous out of the cities. I felt sick. I had just witnessed a beginning seed of this lawless spirit and knew exactly what the enemy wanted to birth. I kept thinking, 200 people inspired by anarchy can eventually cause the righteous to move away? Yes, when empowered by some unopposed heavy-duty principalities.

After the understanding came, I started asking the Lord to raise up the local churches to pray against this. I said, "Lord, it isn't right that we can just let the enemy walk in and take over!" Within days of the riot, our little church happened to have a training conference on demonic warfare and deliverance. Unbeknownst to us, evidently Goliath listened and came knocking on our door that night.

That night the Lord told me the enemy was wanting to break through the hedge and He wanted me to stand. (Eph 6:13) I had no idea what He meant, but I found out. Around midnight a demonic presence appeared in one of our intercessor's bedroom. They got up, took authority and anointed their place with oil. One hour later the same presence jumped on the foot of another intercessor while she was sleeping. The next hour I saw a hole open in the spirit realm and I felt an overwhelming evil presence. I woke up screaming. (I have had many warfare experiences in 15 years and only woke up screaming one other time.) In spite of it, I stood against it and went back to sleep! The next night, I not only felt it, but heard it. It was a union of 6 powerful forces that had joined together and had come to challenge. Two of the names were intimidation and rebellion. I stood against them for hours, and awoke feeling like I had gotten nowhere. That morning I awoke to a TP'd and fouled yard. My husband and I anointed our property, and everything we could think of with oil, praying and commanding the enemy to stay off our turf. That night my husband and I both saw them. I also felt and heard them, literally wrestling in hand to hand combat for 2½ hours. During all of these experiences, I continued to plead the blood of Jesus Christ, bound them, and commanded them to go to their judgment in Jesus Name. The next night, the minute I closed my eyes I heard and felt the same presence. It felt significantly weaker by about 70%, but I had HAD IT. "THAT'S IT! I'M CALLING IN THE TROOPS!" I called Anna (there is nothing like a mother bear's prayers for her cub) and told her some of this, and she began to war over the phone. As she was commanding, I heard the Lord say, "Warrior." I felt very comforted and had enough peace to go back to sleep.

I slept some, then finally I heard the Lord! "She belongs to ME says the Lord. MY bride!" When I heard this, the emphasis was on ME and MY. I had instant peace! I felt like a love-sick bride whose chivalrous Husband stepped in to rescue her. I felt so deeply loved after such intimidating experiences. I turned over with a smile and slept blissfully the rest of the night. The next morning I called Anna and she was joyfully laughing. She heard the Lord say, "I perceive guard duty is a bit too heavy!" The first words out of my mouth were, "DUH!!!!" That made her laugh, because that is exactly what she had said too!

"For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand." (Eph 6:12-13 NKJ)

There was a lesson in this. During this four day "adventure" I kept searching my heart and asking the Lord for understanding. I have received some heavy duty intercessory assignments, and because they were given by the Lord, they were successfully completed with some big dudes torn down… but they took anywhere from weeks, to months to years to overcome in tiny increments. I searched my heart to make sure that I personally had not challenged this "challenger" when the riot came. I don't remember doing so, rather I prayed that the Lord would raise up intercessors and prayer in the churches. Lord, have I unknowingly sinned? Have I been presumptuous? Have I gone outside my metron? I could not come up with any reason why suddenly this blast would come to our door and want to force its way in. Finally I understood. One of our intercessors shared a vision she'd had years ago when she had been in heavy warfare, and was taken up to the Lord. She kept looking behind her and the enemy was standing right behind her. The Lord took her face several times and turned her eyes back on Him. As she did, she got closer and closer to the Lord. Some time passed and then He told her to look back. The enemy was very small and in the distance. She got the point. We are called to keep our eyes, our focus on Him. We are to pursue Him.

Because we pursue the Lord, we naturally suffer resistance from the enemy. However, it is a result of going after the Lord, not after the enemy. Without giving the details of our warfare conference, I could see so clearly that our focus changed for a brief moment and opened Goliath's door. Warfare should always be a result of our pursuit of the Lord and keeping our focus upon Him. If you are suffering backlash and have covered every breach in your wall you can think of, perhaps all that is needed is to get your eyes back onto the Lord. I am reminded of Smith Wigglesworth' life when he saw satan appear at his bedside. Smith said, "Oh, it's only you," and turned over and went back to sleep.

May we learn to use our weapons of prayer, sacrifice, worship, and authority safely. May we learn to cover the breaches in our own lives so that we can stand for our cities without retaliation, in Jesus Name.

Lovingly,

Sandy

WORD STUDY: THE CHARACTERISTICS OF AN INTERCESSOR

An intercessor is a person who by calling or by nature chooses to be a mediator on behalf of those who cannot intervene for themselves. Intercessors make requests, urge, plead, beg, counsel, discuss, risk, sacrifice, and make war on issues relating to the weaker ones, and thus they have an impact on the final outcomes for those they serve.

There is a difference between a person who is called an intercessor and a person who prays. Any person can pray, but not all praying people are intercessors. The opposite is true also - an intercessor may live his entire life and live to make only one great act of intercession. The differences of an intercessor are subtle - hidden in the life and heart behind the prayer. There are many examples of intercessors in the Bible, and they walked with the favor to impact and change God's heart. Consider the following role models and their characteristics:

[I] THE FUNCTIONS OF AN INTERCESSOR

TO RISK & SACRIFICE

1) Moses was willing to be blotted out of God's book. (Ex 32:32)

2) Abraham was willing to suffer God's possible displeasure by negotiating Him down to 10 godly men in Sodom & Gomorrah. (Genesis 18:22)

3) When king David disobeyed by taking a census, he was willing to be destroyed in order to seek safety for his people. (1 Chron 21:17)

4) Daniel was willing to talk with God when He was very angry. (Dan 9:16)

5) Jesus was willing to become sin and lay down His life so that others could find forgiveness. (Isa 53:12)

6) The Centurion was willing to approach authority as well as subject himself to it. (Matt 8:5)

7) Martha dared to risk her friendship with Jesus to challenge His decision of delay. (John 11:21-22)

8) A father risked public exposure, fear of man's opinions, and disappointment for the sake of interceding for his possessed son. (Mark 9:17)

9) The Nobleman risked his self-sufficient pride. He could not help his son but he knew who could. He also risked public exposure and reputation. (John 4:49)

10) Stephen was willing to face the murderous rage of a crowd and asked God to forgive them. (Acts 7:59)

11) Esther was willing to perish at risk of defending her people to the king. At the very least she was willing to face a life of ill-favor, isolation and banishment from the king's court. (Esther 4:16)

12) David as a young boy was willing to face death from Goliath for the sake of Israel. At the very least he was willing to face humiliation, failure and defeat. (1 Sam 17:37)

TO BOLDLY DEFEND

Each of the above role models defended with boldness. This does not necessarily mean they had naturally bold personalities. Watch a mother or father bird when a threat comes too close to their nest! God has placed within His creation an instinct to defend the young. An intercessor's heart comes to the surface when they perceive a threat. Suddenly the heart of a pussy cat turns into the roar of a lion. (Heb 4:16)

TO VOLUNTEER

One of the marks of an intercessor is a willingness to do something. A volunteer is someone who is not necessarily asked, rather he/she steps forward in order to accomplish something. Jesus said there is no greater love than to lay down one's life for his friends. (John 15:13)

[II] THE HEART OF AN INTERCESSOR

MERCY

As in the above list, intercessors stand in the gap for another, seeking mercy instead of judgment, life over death. They are willing to face a risk and sacrifice in order to obtain mercy. (James 2:13)

HUMILITY & SERVICE

In each one of these cases, these powerful intercessors wanted to serve those they were interceding for. Their willingness to serve resulted in humility, laying down that which they highly esteemed. (Matt 23:11)

[III] THE RELATIONSHIP OF AN INTERCESSOR

FAVOR

The above role models lived in a place of favor, having a personal and loving relationship with God. They knew what it was to walk and talk with Him, and trust in His goodness. (Prov 12:2)

Others who did not have a personal relationship with Jesus prior to their request, knew His works, listened to His Words, understood His authority and nature. Thus, they anticipated His favor in spite of the risk.

[IV] THE RESULTS OF AN INTERCESSOR

MULTIPLIED SEED

Jesus said, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it produces much grain." (John 12:24 NKJV) The most powerful intercessors, past and present, are ones who have laid down their lives, their dreams, their ambitions, their own personal agendas, everything they have held dear, in order to follow Jesus' footsteps to their own personal cross. The results of such a journey is His promise of multiplication. These intercessors can pray a prayer, make a request, make a stand and have it bear fruit for the masses.

~~~~~~~~~

In the Old Testament, the word intercessor comes from the Hebrew word: paga` (paw-gah'): 06293 paga` {paw-gah'}

¤ a primitive root; TWOT - 1731; v

This Hebrew word is translated:

¤ AV - fall 12, meet 11, reach 7, intercession 4, intreat 2, entreat 1, misc 9; 46

¤ 1) to encounter, meet, reach, entreat, make intercession 1a) (Qal) 1a1) to meet, light upon, join 1a2) to meet (of kindness) 1a3) to encounter, fall upon (of hostility) 1a4) to encounter, entreat (of request) 1a5) to strike, touch (of boundary) 1b) (Hiphil) 1b1) to cause to light upon 1b2) to cause to entreat 1b3) to make entreaty, interpose 1b4) to make attack 1b5) to reach the mark

In the New Testament, the word intercessor comes from the Greek word (en-toong-khan'-o): (# 1793 entugchano from NT:1722 and NT:5177.

This Greek word means:

1) to light upon a person or a thing, fall in with, hit upon, a person or a thing 2) to go to or meet a person, esp. for the purpose of conversation, consultation, or supplication 3) to pray, entreat 4) make intercession for any one

Scriptures share that He wants our input. He still makes the final decisions, but He listens and what we say can have a part in the outcomes. For those who like to study, here are some additional scriptures stating that God is looking for volunteer intercessors, those willing to lay down their lives for a cause: Isa 64:7, Jer 30:13, Isa 59:16, Jer 27:18, Isa 53:12, Ezek 22:30-31, Psalms 106:23.

The Lord is restoring the callings of intercessors to the body of Christ. He is raising up an army of volunteers, who are willing to count THEIR cost because they see what is AT cost.

May we answer His call in Jesus Name.

Lovingly,

Sandy

GIFT OF HEALING - FIRE IN THE HANDS

I have heard Bob Jone's say that those who get fire in their hands, have the gift of healing. This is a literal thing where the heat from the hands is fiery hot.

1 Cor 12:7-11 NKJV

But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to each one for the profit of all: 8 for to one is given the word of wisdom through the Spirit, to another the word of knowledge through the same Spirit, 9 to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healings by the same Spirit, 10 to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another discerning of spirits, to another different kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. 11 But one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing to each one individually as He wills.

QUICKENED: I have been reading the book about John G Lakes and his testimonies. He had the lightning of God in his hands, and he would instinctively move his hand to the right place where the disease was. There was one time where he placed his hand on the cancer and the fire burned so deep that there was a deep hand burn mark on the cancer until it fell off. He really used laying on of hands.

Also he allowed himself to be tested by Drs and once he showed them with the power on his hands he could find the disease and tell them what degree it was. Some of these the Drs knew about and did not tell Lake, some of them the Drs could not find what was wrong and Lake told them.

RHEMA 7/4/99: A TOKEN OF WHAT IS TO COME

HEARD: My daughter. Made manifest. Establish. It's time to move on. Training, how to do that. Energy. Here, let me help you.

EXPERIENCE: SIGNS FOLLOW PRAYER - HEALING
Today was the 4th of July church picnic. One of our intercessor's hip was hurting really bad. I laid hands on her hip and it got really hot. Ten minutes later the pain was completely gone and stayed that way the rest of the day. We were so grateful.

HEARD: [While I was laying hands upon her] These signs shall follow them that believe.

> TOUCH THEM FOR ME 7/20/99
> I have placed you within My shield of blue flame. You are completely encircled day and night. Your angels form a fiery wall around you and they are getting excited. For on the other side of your personal storm, there is a wonderful celebration coming. I am sending you to lay hands on many to be My personal touch. I shall send forth My lightning rod through your hands. You will feel this powerful virtue. It will surge through your veins, arms and hands. You may also hear its flow in your body. Touch My Spirit says the Lord. It's hot, it's a blue flame. It's My anointing.
> “And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?” (Mark 5:30 KJV)
> “And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.” (Luke 6:19 KJV)
> “And believers were increasingly added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women, so that they brought the sick out into the streets and laid them on beds and couches, that at least the shadow of Peter passing by might fall on some of them. Also a multitude gathered from the surrounding cities to Jerusalem, bringing sick people and those who were tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all healed." (Acts 5:14-16 NKJV)

HEALING WATERS 1/14/99
Just like Ezekiel's vision, there will be times when you will be able to tangibly feel My Presence as though walking through water. You will be able to feel whether it is ankle, knee, waist, or too deep to swim in. It will be a sign to you and a confirmation to your faith.

What are these waters? They are My healing and cleansing streams flowing from My throne. They shall heal the sick and cleanse the oppressed. Let them flow, let them flow, let them flow.

"Measuring as he went, he led me along the stream for 1,750 feet and told me to go across. At that point the water was up to my ankles. 4 He measured off another 1,750 feet and told me to go across again. This time the water was up to my knees. After another 1,750 feet, it was up to my waist. Then he measured another 1,750 feet, and the river was too deep to cross without swimming." (Ezek 47:3-5 NLT)

RHEMA 1/17/01 ANGELS EXCITED ABOUT DELIVERANCE AND HEALING

HEARD: Forward march. Deliverance is coming. He will rise with healing in His wings. Energy. Victory. Making our stand known is a short and righteous declaration.

The middle of the field. A playing field. Burden lifted. It's so easy. Thank you. You're welcome. Step up to home plate. Is this a God plate? Yes, this is a God thing.

PIX: I saw my right hand.

HEARD: Deliverer. There's an anointing on you to deliver the captives. Be bold. Set them free. Command them to go.

EXPERIENCE: Last night I was still sick with a cold… a week now. And I didn't record much, but it was as though my room was lit up with angels. They were talking about playing a ball game and throwing the ball, ect. It had to do with the healing anointing and how excited they were about it. I was really rejoicing that my hearing was so clear, although I was too sleepy to record much.

RHEMA 6/12/99: A LESSON IN RECONCILIATION

HEARD: What's the story called? Meet again. Reconciliation. Wound. Peace maker.

> [I thought about a non Christian business associate that had been angry with me and I suddenly realized that her wound over the falling out was deeper than her anger.]

HEARD: Exactly. Show her you care.

Obedient. A new set of rules. Far reaching effects. Greater grace is coming. For you. Even though you don't know what's coming.

PRAYER: Lord grant all those who have had falling outs in relationships to meet again for reconciliation, so that there may be an opportunity to be peacemakers, showing that we care. Grant that the old wounds will be purged and cleansed all for the sake of love. And may we be obedient to follow You in our relationships, so that the fruit of such will have far reaching effect. We thank You for the new grace that is coming to our future, even though we dont know what is coming. in Jesus Name. We commit these things to You.

> Matt 5:9 NKJV
> Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.
> Matt 5:23-25 NKJV
> Therefore if you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, 24 leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. 25 Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are on the way with him, lest your adversary deliver you to the judge, the judge hand you over to the officer, and you be thrown into prison.
> RECONCILE
> KJV Matthew 5:23 Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee; 24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.
> 1259 dialla,ssw $dialla,ssomai´ diallasso {dee-al-las'-so}
> Meaning: 1) to change 2) to change the mind of anyone, to reconcile 3) to be reconciled, to renew friendship with one
> Origin: from 1223 and 236; TDNT - 1:253,40; v
> Usage: AV - reconcile 1; 1

UPDATE: I had her Christmas present and took it to her 6 months late to show her that I really cared for her. This really cooled her anger over a business mistake that cost her money, where I had felt wrongly accused. Now 6 years later, we still joyously hug when we run into each other and enjoy catching up on all the news.

It was interesting to me, because a few years after the reconciliation, she had a friend who was dieing and she called me and asked me if I would pray for her friend. The world may not say a lot about your testimony, but when they are in trouble, they know who to call for prayer.

I was able to witness on the phone to her friend in the hospital, and asked her if I could pray for her. Her friend was too weak to talk, so I really dont know exactly how she responded. What if that friend was kept from hell, because I had the courage to try to reconcile and bring that Christmas gift to someone whose wound was deeper than her anger?

RHEMA 6/19/07 RECONCILIATION: FORGIVE PRIDE

HEARD: Comfortable. She made it comfortable for me to reconcile. Access. Mellow out. What is needed. Relationship. True. Adopted. What kind? The kind that you can come home to.

HEARD: My friend, take your time, we missed you. Direct speech. The pride, it is an issue. To admit that. This is where there are corrections, can I help you?

HEARD: Training. Now watch what I will do. Rise up My love. Forsake all the sins that have weighed you down in the past. It's all done. It's all gone. It's all covered. It's not there any more. See what's left?

PIX: I saw a clean white sheet that had filtered all the junk through it and there was only one thing that had not filtered through. It was a precious little baby sitting up by itself and smiling so beautifully.

1 John 2:12 NKJV
I write to you, little children, Because your sins are forgiven you for His name's sake.

FORGIVENESS

I understand you were offended and it hurt. Let Me bring the pain to the surface and cleanse it from any infection. I know it is difficult, but the only way to preserve your own freedom from this offense is to forgive. Whether the offense was intentional or not, to nurse your feelings will only cause the wound to grow and become infected.

Unforgiveness binds the soul and keeps the offense fresh in the mind and heart. Over and over again the enemy will bring it to memory and build upon it, expanding its pain by resurrecting other offenses. Unforgiveness also releases evil forces to be sent to the one who has offended. This causes an even greater gap between yourself and that person, for that person is driven even further into creating more of the same kind of offenses.

Forgiveness is a choice not necessarily a feeling. Forgiveness says, “This person has incurred a debt, and I release him of it.” I cover his sin and say, “Please Lord, do not charge it to his account.” When you release someone from offense, you release yourself as well. It allows Me to do My work and keeps you from harm. Let it go and bring it to Me. I AM waiting.

“Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.” (Matthew 6:11-13)

WORD O'GRAM TO FORGIVE

To put away,
Omit, pass over or leave out,

Forsake, leave behind,

Overlook, lay aside,
Remit, yield up... the sin, offense, stumbling block, trespass, evil deed is Gone and left behind, I wont carry it any more.
I choose to let go of what offends and fails to meet my expectations,
Valuing my freedom and their liberty more than punishment...
Experiencing a new heart where angry bitterness once reigned.

Rom 4:7-8 AMP
Blessed and happy and to be envied are those whose iniquities are forgiven and whose sins are covered up and completely buried. Blessed and happy and to be envied is the person of whose sin the Lord will take no account nor reckon it against him. {Ps 32:1,2.}

Matt 18:21-23 NKJV
Then Peter came to Him and said, "Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Up to seven times?" Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you, up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven.

John 20:20-23 NKJV
When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. 21 So Jesus said to them again, "Peace to you! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you." 22 And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. 23 If you forgive {863} the sins of any, they are forgiven {863} them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."
TO FORGIVE: To let go and leave

NT:863 - To let go and leave

NT:863 aphiemi (af-ee'-ay-mee); from NT:575 and hiemi (to send; an intens. form of eimi, to go); to send forth, in various applications (as follow):
KJV - cry, forgive, forsake, lay aside, leave, let (alone, be, go, have), omit, put (send) away, remit, suffer, yield up.

TO RETAIN: To hold on and keep

Krateo - To hold on and keep
NT:2902 krateo (krat-eh'-o); from NT:2904; to use strength, i.e. seize or retain (literally or figuratively):
KJV - hold (by, fast), keep, lay hand (hold) on, obtain, retain, take (by).

THUMPINGS ! 6/10/99

EXPERIENCE: BEAVER TAIL WARNINGS

Tonight at home group we listened to a video and someone said the statement, “This year you must choose between revival and judgment” I had an involuntary experience occur. Suddenly my hand, which was resting on the couch, started to pound the couch with loud sounds like a beaver's tail. I was quite shocked, but knew it was a sign of the Lord and felt His Presence strongly. It was totally unexpected and out of the blue and not a part of my thoughts or volition.

EXPERIENCE: HEART THUMPS

Later the same thing happened on the statement, "God is asking that we hear His heart." I had my hand resting upon my heart as my arm had been leaning against the end of the couch arm, and it was propping up my arm and hand. It was resting and I was busy praying in the Spirit under my breath while listening. Suddenly without warning and again involuntary, my hand started pounding upon my heart making loud thumping sounds. It was exactly on the statement that we hear His heart.

GOD IS SO FUNNY WITH THESE PROPHETIC SIGNS!!

WORD TO PONDER PROPHETIC GESTURES 6/10/99

My anointing dwells within and there are times when I will use My prophetic people as signs to point the way. Sometimes they will have an involuntary unction in their physical bodies to literally pantomime My Word. Often this is in confirmation to My Word being spoken at the moment. Listen to the Words and you may see the miracle of supernatural gestures displaying as an ensign.

"And they went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen." (Mark 16:20 KJV)

INTERCESSION: FRIENDSHIP REQUIRED

By Wayne Warner… and a note from Sandy

6/2/99

Attending a conference, recently I watched a drama in real life play out in front of me. I watched a fellow go up for prayer and stand a very long time waiting for the speaker to pray for him. He had driven from out of town and especially wanted prayer. Every time the speaker would get close, he would zig zag the other direction and miss this hopeful man. This happened numerous times and finally I could tell that the speaker was about to leave without praying for him.

At that realization I overheard our pastor's wife say, "I am going up front to get prayer for my friend." As she moved up to the front, I saw Sandy and the man's wife stand up elsewhere and move forward with the same intention. I talked with them later and they all knew the speaker was about to leave without praying for this man. The Holy Spirit birthed in their hearts to be a mediator.

They gathered around the man and the speaker — and sure enough, as the speaker turned around, he turned the other direction and missed the man. Sandy was the only person left actually facing the speaker and she grabbed his hand as he was moving towards the door. "This man needs your prayers," she said as she placed the speaker's hand upon the man's heart. You could tell the speaker was surprised! He immediately began to pray for this man with his three friends standing with them and agreeing in prayer.

[Note from Sandy - It was incredible that I actually had the courage to do that! However I was driven by love and the urgency of intercession. From a different place in the auditorium I watched the same drama play out and the Lord so touched me with the pain of dashed hopes. I was in agony feeling the pull and tug of my friend's heart as the speaker got near, then moved away — over and over again.]

[End of Sandy note]

What was quickened to me as I watched this whole drama play out was the story in Mark 2 about the paralyzed man and his friends. Four men carried a paralyzed man to Jesus on a stretcher, that he might be healed. When they realized they could not find a way to Jesus through the crowds or through a blocked door, they searched for another way. They saw a possibility through the roof and set about acquiring ropes and ladders. It must have been difficult to hoist the paralyzed man up onto the roof, but they were determined to get him to Jesus. Once they were on the roof, they faced the task of opening a hole that was big enough to lower the paralyzed man's stretcher down in front of Jesus.

I can imagine the turmoil that these friends caused by digging a hole in the roof above Jesus and the crowds. Can't you just hear all the grumbling as they went about their task? "Hey you're making too much noise." "What a mess!" "Stop interrupting the meeting!" But these friends would not be stopped. Working together, finally after a tiring and laborious process they lowered the paralyzed man down in front of Jesus.

It is interesting that Jesus always goes right to the source of the trouble. These friends wanted this man to be healed. But Jesus probably surprised them by forgiving his sins. After all the work they had gone to and Jesus forgives his sins? But the Lord is in the business of healing the whole man, both the body and the soul. These friends got even more from Jesus than they had hoped for. Their friend was both healed and forgiven — what a gift.

After witnessing the drama at the conference and then thinking about this section of scripture, the Lord opened my mind to see that in most cases a person who is suffering and afflicted needs real friends to place them at the feet of our Lord Jesus. In the case of the paralyzed man, his friends had to be in one accord. First they had to agree that their friend's need was something they could not meet. Second, these friends had to agree that they believed Jesus could meet the need. Third, these friends had to agree to a plan to get their friend to Jesus. Fourth, these friends had to work together to make their plan work. Fifth, these friends had to agree that nothing would stop them from getting their friend to Jesus.

I believe that what the church needs today are more friends that will go the distance for a friend in need. They need to be willing to overcome fear of man's opinions, be persistent, and be willing to be held responsible for any mess that accrues in reaching Jesus.

"Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends." (John 15:13 NKJV)

Lovingly,

Wayne & Sandy Warner

~ THE FISH POND ~

5/28/99

Well it's time to clean our fish pond again. As I looked at the murky water, the Lord reminded me of my experience last summer and it was impressed upon me to share that story once again. If you have already read this story, just let it be a reminder that this is what the Lord is doing in all of our lives as we continue to move through this season of "transition."

TRANSITION

Summer 98

Recently, I had the hair brained idea I was going to add a mini waterfall to our mini outdoor fish pond. I somehow accomplished the feat without removing or killing the fish. They definitely knew something was up, because amidst all my commotion they were hiding as far from me as possible. After it was done, I had a beautiful mini waterfall with gorgeous, cascading, sludgy-muddy water. Have you ever tried to clean the sludge out of a fish pond without removing the fish? I did and I learned something in the process: God is in the same dilemma, and He has been using the same process to clean our ponds...Only He's a lot smarter than I was...

At first, so as to not disturb the fish, we submerged a little pump that quietly and slowly pumped the water out of their safe haven. Slowly the water level went down, and so did the fish. (I do not know if they noticed their pleasant surroundings were shrinking, they never told me.) As I peered into the murky water, I was surprised that the color pumping out was a clear green - I thought it would be dirtier than that. Slowly as the water disappeared, I could see the bottom of the pond. It was gross. How was I going to get that junk out without removing the fish? It was then that a glorious revelation occurred.

Being a professional dishwasher (what Mom isn't?) I started thinking about cleaning a bottle that is full of soap suds. The only way to clean the soap out is to pour clean water in. All the soap comes to the surface, pours out the top and if you wait long enough, the soapy water is replaced by the clean water. When the soap is gone, the bottle is clean! Marvelous! What would I do without these sudden blasts of Holy Spirit genius?

Unlike myself, my husband had thought ahead and filled 3 large buckets with water, so as to evaporate the chlorine to once again help the fish make the easiest possible transition into a clean environment. I looked at those buckets (which hadn't any time for evaporation) and grabbed the first one and heaved it in the pond with the pump still running. While my husband was running for cover, I realized I'd struck pay dirt. You should have seen the dark, forest green sludge that came out of the pump hose!!! That was truly inspiring, so I heaved the other 2 buckets in, then turned on the garden hose and let it pour in. That little ol' pump was working over time, and the poor fish... well we won't talk about the fish. At least they survived.

Later I started thinking about heaving that water in and how the Lord sometimes dumps a large portion of His Holy Spirit upon us. It stirs all kinds of things to the surface, and all the while He is pumping and pouring, pumping and pouring. I heard the Lord say to me, "It's going to be a wild ride." Just think if you were that fish and suddenly this huge gust of water blasts your cozy little haven and not only are you swirling and twirling around wondering what hit you, but scum also comes from everywhere at once, and you are wondering if you'll ever be able to see clearly again.

Likewise, God decided He wasn't going to take us fish out of the pond-world, rather, He was going to take the pond-world out of us. He slowly, with careful intent pumped our Holy Spirit filled swimming havens and they shrunk in size. Just about the time when some of us fish were flopping and we didn't think there was any water left in the world, in comes the Holy Spirit's refreshing Presence.

But it doesn't end there. It has only begun. Our pond mentality is limited to our own lives, and at the most, to the life of our church. But God's pond is the world. Think about that a moment. It's not just our muck He's separating, it's the world's. And there's a whole lot of sludge out there. Things are going to get really stirred up before we start seeing clearly again. Therein comes the word, "transition."

Transition is an unsettling time when we desperately crave roots... a settled place of any kind... something peaceful and safe and reliable and fixed and not moving...when we crave something steady and trust-able and established where we have our feet on dry land and don't have motion sickness. Transition is like riding the Hammer at the fair, where the loose change falls out of our pockets with every loop. Anything not tied down falls away. Transition is a moving, unstable time. Transition shakes foundations.

God uses transition to compel people into making decisions. If ever there was a time to make haste and return to intimate roots with the Lord, it is now before the wild ride. Now is the time for each of us to seriously question our values, our foundations, our priorities. The Lord is clearly giving us final warnings that we still have a choice before this occurs as to how deeply this transition will affect our personal lives. If we have nothing in the world, and the world has nothing in us, His grace will sustain us and we will actually ride out whatever comes on top of the Holy Spirit wave.

If we have any roots in the world, they will be suddenly torn away and we will be left deeply shattered wondering what hit us. If we are not living holy lives, pleasing to Him, we will be caught in the muck with the rest of the world, and be suffering painful losses. No one will escape the effects of world wide transition. However, the manner in which the transition affects us will depend totally upon our values and our priorities.

If we can rejoice that God is actually cleaning up a very great mess, and He is actually going somewhere amongst the flurried storm of fish sludge, then we will take the wild Holy Spirit ride and go with His flow. Even in the midst of great sludge flurries, He is still God and is still in control over what touches our personal lives. He will keep us in and through it and we will rise triumphant on the other side...swimming in a nice clean pond, with glorious crystal clear water.

[end of story]

We have some awesome times coming with promises of the Lord's glory. The world will grow darker but the people of God shall shine. "Arise, my people! Let your light shine for all the nations to see! For the glory of the Lord is streaming from you. Darkness as black as night shall cover all the peoples of the earth, but the glory of the Lord will shine from you. All nations will come to your light; mighty kings will come to see the glory of the Lord upon you." (Isa 60:1-3 TLB)

May the Lord give us all grace to stay in His Presence, live lives that are pleasing to Him and help us to be the salt of the earth — making a difference in our shaking world!

THE "D" WORD

5/20/99

Hi Loved Ones,

For the past several months the Lord has been circling a theme, a "word" if you will, to my attention and it isn't exactly my favorite! The word is "Discipline." (Ouch.) There are 2 kinds of discipline. The first is self discipline. Mature believers have developed a measure of self control, temperance, and an ability to exercise their own behavior and attitudes properly. When one is not self controlled, he must be trained to be so, and so the "self" is deleted from self-discipline and it now becomes the "D" word! In other words, if one can not discipline himself, then he is disciplined until he can discipline himself. (Again I say "ouch!")

Years ago, as a baby Christian, I remember complaining to the Lord about how unfair it was to be spanked or disciplined by Him, when I wasn't sure if the painful things occurring was His discipline. There was always this nagging doubt, "I wonder if God is trying to tell me something?" I was always very repentant when I suffered the consequences of wanting my own way, but I lived with the doubt as to whether I REALLY had been disciplined. Because it was never quite solidified, I somehow justified the same behavior or attitude once again.

Years later, when I began to intercede about judgment, the same thoughts came back. I felt a measure of frustration because I knew there was a lack of understanding and blindness upon God's people and it doesn't do a whole lot of good to be spanked when we don't know what we did. It's even worse if we don't even realize that we ARE being spanked! I was thinking about training a cat (ha, ha) and the fact that a cat's memory is so poor, its feet so fast, that you can't catch it quick enough to discipline it in time for the cat to even realize that it is receiving feedback about its behavior. I identify with the cat.

I prayed, Lord we need to know IMMEDIATELY if we have grieved You and have IMMEDIATE feedback about our behavior, so that we can remedy it and not sit around and question if You are trying to tell us something!" Well, sometime around the turn of this year, His feedback has become quicker, stronger and more obvious. If you are questioning whether the Lord is trying to tell you something about issues He has been dealing with you about for a long time, chances are He has turned up the heat, and His answer is "Yes." The good news and mercy side of this is that He loves us and He wants us to understand, to comply and be formed into Jesus' image. The bad news is that sometimes this hurts. The good news is that it doesn't have to hurt if we can discipline ourselves. The scripture says, "Behold then the kindness and severity of God." (Rom 11:22 NASB) We are now entering a time in history when God will no longer blink at sin. And the closer we are to Him, the more our rationalizing minds will yield, and choose to re-define sin according to His Word. If it's disobedience, it's sin.

If it's not of faith, it's sin. (1Sam 15:23 & Rom 14:23)

We long for the glory of God. For our God is a consuming fire. (Heb 12:29) The closer He comes to descending upon us, the hotter the fire is going to get. That is because He is HOLY and He dwells in the holy places. We can be consumed by the passionate heat of His anointing and glory, or we can be consumed by the heat of His fiery judgment. The good news is that He is the loving Father that looks into our hearts. If He sees the fiery passionate heart burning for Him, His fiery judgments will pass by and reward the heart of passion! In the days to come we will see both great blessing and anointing, and great judgment and discipline.

The following is a story that was forwarded to me. It portrays so well, the training of the Lord:

The Fence

(Author unknown)

There was a little boy with a bad temper. His father gave him a bag of nails and told him that every time he lost his temper, to hammer a nail in the back fence. The first day the boy had driven 37 nails into the fence. Then it gradually dwindled down. He discovered it was easier to hold his temper than to drive those nails into the fence! Finally the day came when the boy didn't lose his temper at all... He told his father about it and the father suggested that the boy now pull out one nail for each day that he was able to hold his temper. The days passed and the young boy was finally able to tell his father that all the nails were gone.

The father took his son by the hand and led him to the fence. He said, "You have done well, my son, but look at the holes in the fence. The fence will never be the same. When you say things in anger, they leave a scar just like this one. You can put a knife in a man and draw it out. It won't matter how many times you say I'm sorry, the wound is still there. A verbal wound is as bad as a physical one. Friends are a very rare jewel, indeed. They make you smile and encourage you to succeed. They lend an ear, they share a word of praise, and they always want to open their hearts to us."

[end of story]

No matter what the sin, it leaves a hole in ourselves, in others and in the kingdom. Sin is never worth the consequences. Our loving Heavenly Father loves us so much that He is about to train us afresh that it is easier to discipline ourselves than it is to suffer the consequence. It is our choice.

In the midst of transition and unstable times, let us remember the following passage:

And have you quite forgotten the encouraging words God spoke to you, his child? He said, "My son, don't be angry when the Lord punishes you. Don't be discouraged when he has to show you where you are wrong. For when he punishes you, it proves that he loves you. When he whips you, it proves you are really his child." Let God train you, for he is doing what any loving father does for his children. Whoever heard of a son who was never corrected? If God doesn't punish you when you need it, as other fathers punish their sons, then it means that you aren't really God's son at all-that you don't really belong in his family. Since we respect our fathers here on earth, though they punish us, should we not all the more cheerfully submit to God's training so that we can begin really to live? Our earthly fathers trained us for a few brief years, doing the best for us that they knew how, but God's correction is always right and for our best good, that we may share his holiness. Being punished isn't enjoyable while it is happening-it hurts! But afterwards we can see the result, a quiet growth in grace and character. " (Heb 12:5-11TLB)

Oh Lord help us to be willing and yielded to Your heart's call to discipline ourselves. Prepare us for Your glory, Lord! Kindle our hearts with a burning passion for You! In Jesus Name, amen.

FINDING YOUR METRON

A Teaching to Protect Intercessors Against Backlash

5/13/99

HI Loved Ones,

At a conference a few years ago, I overheard a man worshipping the Lord behind me. As he was worshipping, I heard the Lord whisper to me, "A man of authority." This of course stirred my interest and so I had to turn around and peek! I stared right into the face of a loving, prophetic intercessor (soon to be Apostle). I knew his testimony and yes he had definitely earned that title of a man of authority.

A few years ago, this powerful intercessor asked the Lord why so many intercessors were receiving spiritual backlashes and why they weren't covered. He asked the Lord this question for a long time. After unrelenting requests, the Lord finally answered him: "I will build My structure."

Frustrated, he said, "Lord, after my asking all this time and You didn't answer, then You finally answer, and you say THIS?" "What does THAT mean?" I laughed when I heard this, because that sounded so much like God! Through time and revelation, he understood that God would build His government, and did not want the intercessors isolated, but under the covering and protection of the Apostles and Prophets. He applied this personally by asking the prayer backing of God's chosen, when he was taking on assignments against heavy demonic forces.

In recent weeks I also have noticed that the intercessors are suffering backlash, some severely, and I have pondered the above and asked the Lord the same question: "Why is this happening?" The answer was immediate: operate within one's metron. This word metron, also has to do with God's government.

Metron comes from the scripture: "But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure (3358) of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you." (2 Cor 10:13 KJV) Metron is a Greek word meaning: (3358) metron (met'-ron); an apparently primary word; a measure ("metre"), literally or figuratively; by implication a limited portion (degree).

We are each given a measure of authority, and it is important to understand our metron, or sphere of influence and authority in which He has placed us. We each give (pray, stand in the gap, and war) according to our own ability. He doesn't ask us to give what we don't have, rather He asks us to give what we do have. "If you are really eager to give, then it isn't important how much you have to give. God wants you to give what you have, not what you haven't." (2 Cor 8:11-12 TLB) And therefore, it is important to understand our metron, or sphere of authority. If you are not sure what your metron is, hopefully this small outline will help kindle your thoughts to find it.

1. KNOW TO WHOM YOU ARE CALLED. Whether you a parent, a teacher, a pastor a prophet, a public servant, etc you have a sphere of loved ones in which you have been called to nurture. If they belong to you, you have the authority to pray over what they are facing.

"And he will restore the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the land with a curse." (Mal 4:6 NASB)

2. KNOW YOUR GIFTS. If you don't know your calling, your giftedness can be a mirror of what your cup contains. The Lord equips whom He sends — what equipment has He given you? If you have the gift of mercy, your gift offers mercy for those deserving judgment, needing forgiveness and or needing healing. If you are a warrior and you fight demons, your gifts of discernment, hearing and seeing will reflect that function. If you have the gift of mercy and have never fought a demon in your life, God is not asking you to single-handedly tear down a stronghold. If God has placed within you the tenacity of a bulldog to knock, knock, knock, ask, ask, ask, then keep on making supplications! These are all gifts and He is calling you to function with what He has given you, not with what He has not.

"For as we have many members in one body, but all the members do not have the same function, so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another. Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, let us use them…" (Rom 12:4-6 NKJV)

3. KNOW YOUR ASSIGNMENTS. As an intercessor, I have been given dreams and visions of specific assignments needing completion. I then "stand" (pray, war, hold onto His promise of victory, sacrifice, follow my conscience, etc) until it is completed. God gives each of us assignments according to our callings and when we face enemy obstacles that are a direct confrontation of completing that assignment, God gives us the authority and grace to complete it. If you have completed that assignment, then you have also won that authority for future battles.

"His master praised him for good work. `You have been faithful in handling this small amount,' he told him, `so now I will give you many more responsibilities. Begin the joyous tasks I have assigned to you." (Matt 25:21 TLB)

4. KNOW YOUR MEASURE OF FAITH. We each have been given a measure of faith, and that faith can grow as He builds it via spiritual exercise. These faith muscles grow as a direct result of pressing against resistance. (When we are standing in the gap and praying, our faith directly affects the angels freedom to go forth and fight battles on our behalf.) We are called to stand, and standing takes some effort in order to resist wavering. That faith can wobble if we live a life that is not pleasing Him. Faith and favor are directly related to following our conscience. The accuser is the first to point out the flaw and that will affect our faith to stand against onslaught. Our metron will be no larger than our faith to be able to stand in His favor.

"For through the grace given to me I say to every man among you not to think more highly of himself than he ought to think; but to think so as to have sound judgment, as God has allotted to each a measure of faith." (Rom 12:3 NASB)

"Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they have become doomed to destruction. Neither will I be with you anymore, unless you destroy the accursed from among you. Get up, sanctify the people, and say, 'Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, because thus says the LORD God of Israel: "There is an accursed thing in your midst, O Israel; you cannot stand before your enemies until you take away the accursed thing from among you." (Josh 7:12-13 NKJV)

5. KNOW YOUR PATTERN OF SUCCESSES. When entering into new territory, the Lord will build your faith with confirmations, to help you to understand His approval of your moving ahead in prayer. If you can look back and find a link of similar prayer successes, this will be a good indicator of your metron. We have a fellow at our church who began getting Words of knowledge of prayer needs. He took courage and started sharing what he believed the Lord was saying. Each time he did this, someone responded and he prayed for them. Each time they received answers to the prayers. This is a good indicator through a pattern of success, that he has been given a metron to pray for those whom he receives Words of knowledge.

"I will drive them out before you little by little, until you become fruitful and take possession of the land." (Ex 23:30 NASB)

6. KNOW YOUR OPPONENT. It is true that your greatest gifting (and or promise) will also be your greatest testing. Sometimes if you are suffering a backlash it is because the devil considers you a threat and he knows you are influencing his domain. If that is the case, be encouraged that you are making a difference. I know a man who bound the territorial spirit over Kosovo in Jesus Name. Suddenly he was standing in the west, looking east across Europe to Kosovo. He saw a small ball of light from Kosovo, shoot straight towards him and hit just above his head at someone standing right directly behind him. (He figured it was his angel.) I told him that his prayer must have had an impact or threat for the enemy to have noticed!

"Then Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, left the Jordan River, being urged by the Spirit out into the barren wastelands of Judea, where Satan tempted him for forty days. (Luke 4:1 TLB)

7. KNOW REVELATION. The Lord will send you supernatural revelations of your portion. This comes through the many ways to hear Him and they puzzle together to give a good indicator of your sphere of influence. Ask Him for revelation to teach you your metron.

"But the anointing which you have received from Him abides in you, and you do not need that anyone teach you; but as the same anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you will abide in Him." (1 John 2:27 NKJV)

8. KNOW YOUR COVERING. God is raising up His government, and He is divinely moving His chosen leaders into place. If the leaders are saying to pray corporately against a demonic stronghold, then that is the covering and guidance in which to safely operate your gifts. Corporately means standing in one accord with other believers against a common cause. There is a synergistic effect when joining with others of likemindedness to fight a common enemy.

"You will chase your enemies, and they shall fall by the sword before you. Five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight." (Lev 26:7-8 NKJV)

I close with a precious forwarded story that has a 2 fold theme. It reflects the heart of any true covering appointed by God, and it also reflects the Lord’s heart to us all:

"A mother took her 8 year old son to a great concert hall, black tie event to hear Paderewski the famous composer-pianist. The boy became restless waiting for the concert to start so as his mother visited with friends he slipped from her side and onto the stage. He was drawn by the Steinway and climbed up on the stool and stared wide-eyed at the keys. He placed his small trembling fingers in the right location and began to play "Chopsticks." The roar of the crowd was hushed as hundreds of frowning faces turned in his direction. Irritated and embarrassed, they began to shout: "Get that boy away from there. "Who'd bring a kid that young in here?" "Where's his mother?" "Somebody stop him!"

Backstage the master overheard the sounds out in front and quickly put together in his mind what was happening. Hurriedly, he grabbed his coat and rushed toward the stage. Without one word of announcement he stooped over behind the boy, reached around both sides, and began to improvise a counter melody to harmonize and enhance "chopsticks". As the two played together, Paderewski kept whispering in the boy's ear: "Keep going, don't quit, son. keep on playing.. don't stop....don't quit."

And so it is with us. We hammer away on our project, which seems about as significant as "Chopsticks" in a concert hall. And about the time we are ready to give up, along comes the master, who leans over and whispers: "Now keep going; don't quit. Keep on...don't stop , don't quit!"

Hang in there!

Lovingly,

Sandy

HANGING IN THE BALANCE

Pieces of a puzzle: 1 Story, 3 Dreams, 6 Visions

4/23/99

Hi Loved Ones,

Yesterday I sent a post about a 3 year old child trapped under a garage door. He had a life after death experience and was sent back to tell us a simple message that God has a plan for each of us and that He has surrounded us with angels. I want to share with you the prophetic significance behind his story.

This year I was given a dream where the Lord hid me in the cleft of His rock. It was a cave on the side of a mountain that had a huge garage door pulling down over the front. As long as the door closed the hole (gap), it was a safe place and the polar bears outside the door could not reach me.

The boy in yesterday's story was trapped under a garage door. He was suspended half way between a safe place and the outside world. Twice this year I have seen visions of a suspension bridge. This bridge has a great amount of significance with past rhema and represents a historical bridge. It is suspended in time and stands in the interval between the old and the new thing God is birthing upon the earth.

We are now standing at the thresholds of history, ready to cross over the river Jordan into the land of new beginnings. Like the standard of righteousness the Lord raises when the enemy comes in like a flood, the priests go before the people and stand in the gap against this flood. (Isaiah 59:19) Together the priests stand united, forming a bridge and making a safe place for all to cross over on dry ground. When they take their place, the waters of Jordan roll all the way back to Adam. (Joshua 3:16, 17) We are crossing over into a new land where all that Adam lost will be restored to us. This is no small bridge. The enemy knows this and it is time we know this because our children are at stake.

At the National School of the Prophets this year (January, Colorado Springs) one of the prophets reported an open vision of a stadium packed with youth. (I am sorry I do not know who saw this vision, I have only read eye witness testimonies lacking this information.) He saw these youth in one accord hearing something from the Lord, and then dispersing, carrying the fire of God with them. The reports I read said, if God's people do not pray then our youth will instead be hit by war.

In Bob Jones' Shepherds Rod 99, he saw visions of the good, the bad and the ugly. [http://www.bobjones.org/] The following are quotes about the children of the good seed and the bad seed: "From the good seed I saw children that were the best of all generations. They are the children of promise from Romans 9:8 & Galatians 4:28. Children as young as 6 years old were anointed with awesome power and revelation. Their revelation came directly from the Lord and their prayers went before Him with unwavering faith. Many of these children will be filled with the Holy Spirit even while in their mother's womb. Their prayers even carried more power and authority than their parents."

"An especially disheartening portion of the revelations dealt with the bad seed. The Lord revealed that apart from His provision of grace, even the very young among the bad seed will begin to experience sin with incredible depravity. Incredibly, young 9,10, and 11 year old children will begin to experience homosexuality, thievery, lying, and perversion on a scale not yet seen before. These will seemingly have no conscience of guilt or shame even killing and torturing others without remorse." [end quotes]

Recently I again saw a vision of the suspension bridge. Our children are waiting to cross over. They are being held back because the bridge is too steep and in the middle between the two sections of the bridge there is a breach. We need additional reinforcement to close the bridge. When God said the following scripture … "If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land. (2 Chronicles 7:14 NKJ)" … He didn't say if the world turned from its wicked ways, He said if His people turned from their wicked ways. He didn't call the world to be the salt to preserve itself, He called His people to be the salt preserving the world. "You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt loses its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? It is then good for nothing but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by men." (Matt 5:13) Every time I have read that scripture throughout the years, I can't get passed the impression that being trampled underfoot by man is a warning of war. Whether this is a spiritual war or a physical war and to what degree this touches our children, is still at stake. This is the year, now is time to make a difference.

When I saw the suspension bridge and saw that the children were not able to cross it safely, I also saw a hole in the wall. Sticking out of the hole was carnage. Many voices of the world were coming out of the hole, especially from TV. The wall was blocking or opposing the carnal things of this world. If we want our children to cross safely into this new beginning, if we want them alive, we have got to fill the hole with righteous living. God is not asking for us to make legalistic rules, but He is asking for us to have no fellowship with darkness and live holy lives. He is asking us what are we watching on TV and how much do we love our children? We have entered a war where EVERYTHING is at stake.

On the eve prior to the Littleton, Colorado shootings, one intercessor in our little prayer group had a nightmare of bloody bodies all over. My husband Wayne had a nightmare where he was standing outside a building with broken windows. He could see through the windows that the building was completely filled with a huge dark spirit of fear. I heard the Lord's still small voice say, "The current of the shock waves shock us back to Jesus. White House. Tragedies. Massacres." Littleton happened 6 hours later and we made the connections after the fact. The reason I share this now, is that the words tragedies and massacres were plural. The devil has more planned. "For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil." (I John 3:8) Jesus reveals to us the purposes of the enemy so that they might be destroyed. We are not to agree with the devil and believe his purposes will happen, rather we are to stand against such.

Do you remember the end of the story of the 3 year old and the angels? Angels are everywhere and they serve us and they serve God. We have angels right now WAITING for our prayers. They stand by and wait to be loosed, to be dispatched with assignment, sent by our prayers. Please stand for our children, yet hanging in the balance. Stand in the gap by forming a united, holy wall of righteousness, and then loose the angels to do their work. In Jesus Name, bind the forces of tragedy and massacre and loose the angels to uncover and halt the hidden forces of darkness. Time is short. It is very short. We can still make a difference.

Lovingly,

Sandy

GOLD SHINE

4/12/99

Hi Loved ones,

Chuck Pierce prophesied the following quote for 1999: "SHINE IN 1999. The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord make His face SHINE upon you, and be gracious to you. The Lord lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace. So they shall put my name on the children of Israel, and I will bless them!" Numbers 6:24-27. SHINE in 1999! This seems to be what is surfacing as the key phrase for this year!"

God is bringing this to pass with gold shine. On Thursday, April 8 I attended a Bobby Conner meeting in Portland, Oregon. Like other testimonies around the world, people were receiving gold fillings and crowns and His gold dust was distributed on people's hands. Evidently the night prior the Lord breathed His gold glitter upon the babies faces. (So precious!)

In the van on the way home, I touched the ladies hand next to mine and she exclaimed that my hands were so soft she had never felt such soft hands before. I touched another's and she said they were really soft. I realized that the Lord must have anointed my hands because they felt very soft to the touch and I had no hand lotion on them. So I prayed that the Lord would anoint their hands too and within seconds their hands became soft.

The next morning I was feeling my hands to see if they were still anointed :) and had an idea to look under a bright desk light. I saw one gold sparkle on my thumb. Before my eyes I watched it grow from a gold sparkle to a flake of gold! I then remembered upon waking, that I had seen a vision of someone kissing my thumbs. That day my opposite thumb twitched involuntarily all day long to the point that it made me laugh! After putting on my reading glasses and getting a magnifying glass out, I could see gold dust sparkles coming out of the pores on my hands.

During the Bobby Conner meeting I had heard several Words from the Lord and one of them was "Crown." When I heard it, I was thinking about a crown upon one's head. Our pastor's wife said the Lord was filling gold crowns…. She brought out the funny pun of the gold crowns for teeth and heads. I never drew the connection when I had heard it! The Lord has a wonderful sense of humor. His Words are so precious.

Lovingly,

Sandy

INTERCESSORS, ARISE

Posted on 4/7/99

From Sandy Warner

Hi Loved ones,

On March 2, 1999 Kathie Walters (kathie@hom.net) posted a vision given to Bob Jones: "He said that he was sitting with some other folk at a table eating. The Lord came to the table and Bob thought 'Oh good, He has come to eat with us', but Jesus said, 'I have not come to eat with you now, I have come to ask you to pray with me, I am raising up the school of intercession.' Bob said this is the time when the Lord is anointing Intercessors and inviting them to pray with Him, out of a spirit of revelation."

The following is a vision of hope, whereby the Lord is restoring intercession. If you do not consider yourself an intercessor, please consider the possibility as you read the following vision. There are people worldwide, whose callings are hidden even to themselves, and the Lord is wanting to restore their position in Him. He is trumpeting a timely and an urgent call to prayer, and it is happening right now.

Lovingly,

Sandy Warner

Vision given to Jeff Ching

(Mercy Seat Church in Lynnwood, WA.)

worldflair@yahoo.com

Part I

I saw a very large mass of intercessors stuck in what I was impressed to be miry clay. I saw different people struggling with this miry clay, most were engulfed up to their hips and some up to their arms. I noticed that they struggled in vain not being able to free themselves. Along the banks I saw many people yelling and they were stretching out sticks and boards and some throwing ropes to help pull out the intercessors. The intercessors reached out to those that were trying to help them but none were being pulled out. I became aware of another large group of intercessors at the right hand of God in Christ. They were interceding to God on behalf of the intercessors stuck in the miry clay. Suddenly I saw the hands of all the entrapped intercessors being lifted heavenward accompanied with great praise and worship from their mouths. Through great open heavens the hand and arm of God reached down and pulled out the intercessors stuck in the miry clay.

Ps 40:2 He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings. (KJV)

Part II

There was before me a very vast forest. In this forest I saw multitudes of intercessors. All in this forest were lost and wandering around not seeming to have direction or purpose. At times a few would meet by accident and pray but because the forest was so thick with brush and blackberry bushes over a persons head they soon lost each other. Most were wandering trying to find a way out of this vast forest. There was a semi-darkness caused by the huge trees that grew everywhere. Things seemed so confused, I had a lost feeling.

Then suddenly there was an extremely bright light that appeared at a distance. I saw all the intercessors in this vast forest turn and head toward that light as if urged or compelled by some great force. At first it was very difficult for them because of the thick underbrush. They beat paths with large sticks through this brush as they made their ways toward this light. As they got closer they found it easier and easier as others closer to this light had made paths for them all heading in the same direction. Soon I looked and started to see at first a few people, and then many on paths all heading toward this great light. An excitement could be sensed in the air. All of these small paths started to join into larger paths until at the edge of the forest their was one large path filled with intercessors praising and worshipping God.

Prov 4:18 But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. (KJV)

Part III

The next scene was a desert place with sand dunes, and at some places, large rocks. There was little to no plant or animal life. It was a very hot and dry desert. As I looked upon this desert there again were God's intercessors. They were all prostrated in the desert sands. Very little movement came from them and as God showed me a closer look I saw that they were all dying with many near death. Vultures hovered and swooped down on many of these intercessors trying to pluck out their eyes and hearts. It had appeared by their tracks that many had wandered for sometime searching for water and food but could not find any.

They were scattered all over this desert with small groups here and there but mostly individuals separated for some reason or another. I saw a few lift their head, stand up and walk toward what seemed to be an oasis. At first it seemed to be an illusion of some sort that often accompanies such desperate situations. Maybe angel messengers from God? Suddenly, I was standing in the midst of this oasis which was not very large, nor ornately beautiful. It was just an oasis with a few trees and a pond of water. As I looked toward the sand dunes in the distance, I saw a figure of a person rise forth silhouetted against the sky coming toward this oasis. Then looking in other directions a few more. These few soon arrived at the oasis and quickly refreshed themselves and immediately started to praise and worship God.

They started to intercede for others they had met in the desert and soon afterwards more and more started to arrive. Soon the oasis was overcrowded with vast numbers of people. I then realized that the oasis had started to expand and expand and expand. The desert was turning into a beautiful oasis farther than the eye could see. I could see no end to the expansion of the oasis. The oasis had expanded to encompass the intercessors.

Isa 35:1-8 The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing: the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory of the LORD, and the excellency of our God. Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees. Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompence; he will come and save you. Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert. And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes. And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therin. (KJV)

FOR SUCH A TIME AS THIS

BEHIND THE SCENES - THE FEAST OF PURIM

From Sandy Warner

Hi Loved Ones,

On 3/2/99 I sent the post "For Such a Time as This," a Word about the Esther anointing to the praying church. (That Word is enclosed at the bottom of this post.) I received an enormous amount of responses that the Lord confirmed His Word. As always, there are many applications to His Words and they apply on an individual level as well as on a corporate level. The corporate message is so vital that I feel I need to share a little of what went on behind the scenes, to give a greater impact to what He is speaking to His church at this vital hour.

Thursday prior to sending the Esther Word, inside the room of a small prayer meeting, the Holy Spirit came upon me as we were praying and anointing some leaders in our church. His Presence was very strong and I shook (which is not what I am accustomed to doing.) As this occurred I prophesied over one of the leaders (whose name is David) that he had been anointed in secret and had been hiding in a cave with his mighty men and it was time to come forth. Our little group of intercessors called forth the door of the cave to open. When I laid hands on another leader, I prophesied that she had the anointing of Esther to intercede, and she too had been anointed and prepared in secret. I found myself saying, "Read the book of Esther."

The Esther Word began to burn in my heart, and I wrote it 3/1/99, the night before posting 3/2/99. After posting it, I had several simultaneous confirmations. The first being that Elijah list posted a Word from Diane Bristol, called "A Call to the Cave Dwellers." The following are small quotes from her excellent and perfectly timed Word: "…The call of the Spirit is to those who are Cave Dwellers. You were called to the cave and now I am calling you out….Hear the call of Christ to His mighty men. It is the same sound, the same call that went out to David and his mighty men. Just as David's army was trained in the cave, so has the Spirit of the Lord trained you. Come out of the cave, come out of the trenches, it is time to advance and declare war with the boldness of Christ, you mighty men….You are on the winning side, so come out, come out and be bold, and see what I will do. Hear the sound of the quaking earth? Hear the sound of UNITY marching? See the great weapons of my great army. The great weapon of humility waved as a banner high. The earth is the Lord's and all its fullness. Come out. Be bold, and see what I will do…." Diane Bristol: wings@northnet.org

The next thing that occurred is that I received several e-mails telling me that I posted the Esther Word on the day of the feast of Purim. I had NO IDEA - this was supernatural timing. The following is a quote from David Silver, Out of Zion Ministries at Mt Carmel, Israel. David said that my e-mail came just as he was sending his message to his prayer partners. "…In just a few hours Jews around the world, but especially in Israel begin to celebrate the Feast of Purim (the book of ESTHER) May I recommend you take the half hour or less that it takes to read the whole book of Esther, to help you identify with the rest of this update…"

"…The story of Purim, is a story of the national, albeit physical salvation of Israel, from the wicked plot of Haman, (a type of anti-Christ) to wipe out the Jewish people….In verse 16 Esther, sensing the call of God on her life, yet at the same time fully aware of the risk & possible cost, responded "I will go to the king, which is against the law, and if I perish, I perish!" How many Esthers (men & women) does the Lord have in His Body today, who can truly say to the Jewish people today & in the days head "I will go before the king for you, and if I perish, I perish?…" David Silver: kiwi@netvision.net.il

Finally I received an e-mail from Kathy Walters who spoke to Bob Jones, the same night I was writing the Esther post "For Such a Time as This." [After reading this post, the following is reprinted with Kathie's and Bob's permission.] Quote from her e-mail:

"Mar 2nd 99. I talked to Bob Jones last night and he related this vision to me. He said that he was sitting with some other folk at a table eating. The Lord came to the table and Bob thought 'Oh good, He has come to eat with us', but Jesus said, 'I have not come to eat with you now, I have come to ask you to pray with me, I am raising up the school of intercession.' Bob said this is the time when the Lord is anointing Intercessors and inviting them to pray with Him, out of a spirit of revelation. The Basilisk spirit which is a destroyer and is taking aim at the south east part of the U.S and also pray for Israel. This same spirit always tries to bring destruction to Israel from 1st July to 22nd July. Very important to pray for Israel, now and during those week." Kathie Walters: kathie@hom.net

If you have gotten this far in reading this post, I am hoping you are seeing the corporate significance. For those who are educated about the Basilisk spirit, they are at the least wondering how they can possibly make a difference. For those who are not, but are at least familiar with the National Prophetic Conference that took place in Colorado Springs the last week in January 99, they understand the historical precedence of this hour in world wide history. Ultimately what the enemy wants is to prematurely kill the last day harvest, and bring the last day war. Normally this would not be a threat, but there has occurred a terrible breach in America's protection and thus Israel's covering and elsewhere around the world.

Just as queen Esther prepared the banquet, we are wanting to eat/celebrate with the Lord. But the Lord is saying PRAY FIRST. I believe the timing of all of this with the feast of Purim is God's merciful promise that a celebration feast is coming, but we must PRAY FIRST and win a war against a Judas attempt to betray and ultimately destroy. This war will not be without cost. It is for the brave at heart who are willing to lay down their lives.

God is calling David's humble, hidden and mighty men. God is calling the Esthers around the world who are willing to say, "If I perish, I perish." The call is to corporate prayer. This is the hour in which the Lord is joining people and ministries into a united force to take a corporate stand against the plans of the enemy. It is a war not to be won by the lone ranger, rather to be won as we stand together UNITED. The Lord spoke to me the Word, "Synergy" having to do with this season of joining. I was not familiar with the word so I looked it up in the dictionary. It means that the sum of the whole is greater than the sum of the parts. In other words, when something is joined together it has a greater force, impact or energy than the same components separately. This is the hour where He is calling those who will heed the call to stand in intercession against a force much greater than ourselves. United we stand, divided we fall. Unfortunately the breach has already divided us. Now we must unite against it and close the gap.

FOR SUCH A TIME AS THIS

The Esther Anointing - A Word for the Praying Church

3/2/99

Behind closed doors I prepared you. I carefully allotted you hidden assignments, ones that would build courage and valor. — Assignments that built faith against the odds. I raised you to be gracious in your manner and I gave you My greatest favor. Even so, who would have guessed that in your veins flows the blood of royalty? Who would have guessed I would have chosen you for such an hour? For behind closed doors you were anointed. Behind closed doors you were prepared. In secret I raised an intercessor, a deliverer. The measure of your authority, your vote, has been kept secret even from you.

The enemy has secretly plotted to kill and destroy and annihilate. I have exposed the plans just in time that you may take your rightful place. Rise to the occasion queen daughter. For I have given you the anointing of Queen Esther. Come forth My beloved and speak to the King. I have given you the power and the authority to intercede on behalf of the many who can not speak for themselves. I have strategically placed you in My kingdom for such a time as this. Have courage, speak forth the Words of the Lord. Be strong, be valiant and fight for those who can not fight. Be My deliverer and put a stop to this enemy plan.

I stretch out My scepter to you. Step forward into your place. What is your request? I will give it to you. Speak and hold nothing back. What is your petition My queen?

"At last Queen Esther replied, "If I have won your favor, O king, and if it please Your Majesty, save my life and the lives of my people. For I and my people have been sold to those who will destroy us. We are doomed to destruction and slaughter..." (Esther 7:3-4 TLB)

A Season of Sifting

Sandy Note 2/27/99: The world is entering into a long spiritual season of sifting. There are many aspects to this season / concept and the purpose of the following file is to help give understanding to a variety of issues having to do with sifting.

All Biblical truth is held between the tension of 2 poles, and that is the case with the sifting season. God allows the enemy to sift and have certain influences for many reasons. Yet our God is sovereign and He carefully maneuvers all circumstances including good and evil forces for His ultimate purposes. We will see many turn from their independence and run to Him. Be courageous and take heart, for at the same time, His glory will also be revealed. The greater the darkness, the greater His glory. So as you read this file, understand that like many of the files at this website, they are all interrelated and coexist at the same time.

"For surely I will command, And will sift (5128) the house of Israel among all nations, As grain is sifted (05128) in a sieve; Yet not the smallest grain shall fall to the ground. All the sinners of My people shall die by the sword, Who say, 'The calamity shall not overtake nor confront us.' " On that day I will raise up The tabernacle of David, which has fallen down, And repair its damages; I will raise up its ruins, And rebuild it as in the days of old; That they may possess the remnant of Edom, And all the Gentiles who are called by My name," Says the LORD who does this thing. " Behold, the days are coming," says the LORD, "When the plowman shall overtake the reaper, And the treader of grapes him who sows seed; The mountains shall drip with sweet wine, And all the hills shall flow with it. I will bring back the captives of My people Israel; They shall build the waste cities and inhabit them; They shall plant vineyards and drink wine from them; They shall also make gardens and eat fruit from them. I will plant them in their land, And no longer shall they be pulled up From the land I have given them," Says the LORD your God. (Amos 9: 9-14)

2] Sifting Touches One's Faith

The following is taken from 101+ Ways God Speaks (And How to Hear Him) by Sandy Warner

81. HE SPEAKS WHEN WE HAVE FAITH

Two people who do NOT have a common language begin to communicate. The tribesman with guttural mumbles asks the white hunter a question. Hesitating and scratching his head, the hunter responds with a shrug.

These two are not communicating. So instead, the tribesman speaks a word or sentence by drawing a picture, using sign language and pointing to the surrounding environment, while the hunter listens and applies. In the process they form common reference points and begin to understand general ideas. This is not a word for word translation.

There is a foundation of faith that must exist between the two communicating. — A faith that says, "I believe that you just spoke to me, and I believe I can come to understand what you said." For true communication to exist in the listening process, there needs to be a certain measure of faith that goes beyond the language of the mind and penetrates the heart with belief.

The Bible states these facts about faith:

1. Faith comes by hearing Him speak. "So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." (Romans 10:17 NKJV)

2. We each have a portion: "...God has allotted to each a measure of faith." (Romans 12:3B)

3. Our faith can grow: "...Lord, increase our faith." (Luke 17:5 KJ)

4. It describes faith: "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." (Hebrews 11:1 KJ) The Living Bible says, "What is faith? It is the confident assurance that something we want is going to happen. It is the certainty that what we hope for is waiting for us, even though we cannot see it up ahead." (TLB)

5. The Greek definition for faith1 (also belief) is translated: {persuasion, credence, conviction, reliance, constancy, truth, assurance, belief, faith, fidelity.}

6. We cannot please Him without faith. "...without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is..." (Hebrews 11:6 NKJV)

7. To do anything without faith is sin. "...for whatever is not from faith is sin." (Romans 14:23B NKJV)

As the Lord speaks to you, and you find "Words" together, faith grows and blossoms. The Bible says Jesus is "...the author and finisher of our faith..." (Hebrews 12:2 KJ) He not only is the source of our faith, but also the completer.

Sometimes the particular Words the Lord speaks to me go through a faith process of sifting, wavering and quickening before they become planted and firmly established into a strong, bold faith:

1. "SIFTED faith" - The Words of the Lord are turning in circles without a secure, stable home. I KNOW I have heard the Lord - I just don't know how it applies. This is faith with no sense of balance, security, or establishment.2 It is like a small screw in a big hole, turning round and round never becoming set or secure.

2. "WAVERING faith" - I know the general place the Word applies, but don't understand what He means. This swings back and forth between different opinions. The wobbly screw needs to be deeper in the hole to be in a sure strong place. This happens with time and confirmation concerning what is believed.3

3. "QUICKENED faith" is like a screw sunk into the right place. The Lord speaks a Word and I discover a place it fits. When the quickening comes it has finished its turning, finally finding its proper placement, its niche.4

4. "BOLD faith" is when I know that I know. Having complete confidence on the inside, I know and understand what the Lord is saying. This is complete faith without doubts and with absolute assurance.5

When we have grown to the place of complete faith, we come into what the Bible calls Sabbath rest.6 It is a place where we no longer struggle with an issue in life. We hear the Lord's perspective on a matter, rest, and believe Him. We cease from our own restless pursuits and trust Him. Sabbath rest is perfect belief in His Words to us.

One of my favorite examples of what I believe is someone entering sabbath rest is Smith Wigglesworth.7 He was an anointed preacher in the early 1900's who led thousands to salvation and healing. He was very close to the Lord, in fact testified of seeing Him. In the process he overcame enemy opposition. One particular night the devil stood in his room, and when Wigglesworth saw him, he said, "Oh, it's only you" and turned over and went back to sleep. That's what I call sabbath rest! He knew his opponent, understood his own authority over such, and simply rested in that truth by literally going back to sleep! That's bold faith.

3] Word to Ponder - Sifted

The following is taken from the book, Words to Ponder by Sandy Warner

SIFTED

This thing the enemy has desired has not been without purpose. Your life is under Divine restraints and nothing can touch you without My permission.

Back and forth, back and forth. The sieve vacillated back and forth. Up and down, round and round, you went in circles, ever closer to the wire. When the time came you left the hard and stubborn places behind. You came through.

This was not without pain. I interceded for you and suffered with you. Even your most difficult hours were not without My mercy and grace. I covered you. Part of My mercy was to give you Novocain and I also put you to sleep. If I had given you your desired senses to understand, your pain would have been too great. Even in the midst of chaotic enemy invasion, I operate with complete control. My grace let you fall through the sieve, My grace caught you on the other side.

I alone hold you up. You cannot stand in independence and ever hope to succeed. Even the most simple task will fail if you stand in your own power. You have great strength before the enemy, but it is not your strength. I have given you many gifts, but you cannot use them without My help.

There are valuable treasures that come from sifting. For you, it is humility. If you carry its lesson in an important place of remembrance and cut your own pride before it sprouts roots, you will never be sifted again. That is My promise.

Yet an even dearer treasure has been given to Me. Your garden has been weeded and your heart is soft and fluffy. This is your yieldedness. I have longed for this quality to come to fruition in your life. I am teaching you what it accomplishes in the spirituals. You have yet to see the fruition of what this can accomplish on earth. I will give you eyes to see what your yieldedness produces. It will be My gift to you.

"Break up your fallow ground for it is time to seek the Lord till he come and rain righteousness upon you." (Hosea 12:12)

4] Word to Ponder - A promise

The following is taken from the book, Words to Ponder by Sandy Warner

THE DOOR

I have brought My people to a door. A door of promise, a door of destiny. Many have approached this door before, with seeds of promise, only to look at it, and see the insurmountable walls. They were given the instructions at Jericho; the time waiting was much more than the time moving. Years of waiting have passed, and the moving has been in circles. But this has not been without purpose.

I have gone before you and set up your place. Indeed, you have circled long enough. Once again, you stand before the door and look at insurmountable odds. But I say unto you, the hour is due. At My command, these walls shall fall, and every man shall enter straight before him. I go before you shouting "Grace." These walls shall fall and you shall be astonished at MY mighty hand on your behalf.

There are many who have been so sifted by the plough, and blackened by the fire, they have lost sight of this door of promise, this great door of Hope. They have been turned inside out, and backwards; some are even upside down. But I have been turning the perspective so they may see My view. I am facing them forward, securing feet in front of the door.

Have no fear if you cannot see the door of promise. Your eyes may still be burning from the smoke. Trust Me to turn you in perfect direction. Have hopeful expectation of what I shall do. For when it opens, it shall open suddenly, and the Light from the other side will be so bright, there will be no questions as to your direction.

I give good gifts to My people. Pick up those hopes lost from yesterday, and dare to believe, this time from MY perspective. Even as the door stands before you, I stand on the other side. When I open the door, you will not walk alone. We will occupy together.

"I know thy works: behold I have set before thee an open door and no man can shut it..." (Revelations 3:8)

5] Rhema - Help the Young Through the Sifting

Still Small Voice given to Shirley 2/19/94

HEARD: To help the young. Sift. More power to 'em.

6] Sifting is a Time of Judgment

His Still Small Voice Given to Shirley 10/30/94

HEARD: Filter. Search and rescue. Sifted. Tried. Found not wanting. Able to stand. Get up and go. Search and rescue. Toll the bell throughout the land. The time of judgment is at hand. Some will laugh and others weep.

7] Sifting - A Time of Upheaval and Not Planted Securely

Vision given to Shirley 11/5/92

VISION: I saw a musical staff that looked like a very long swinging bridge. There were musical eighth notes, sometimes called running notes, covering about the first third of the bridge. Some had fallen off the staff head first. They were still in the air, hadn't hit the ground yet. Others had fallen down and were lying on the bridge. Still others had fallen on the bridge upside down. As each note was placed back in an upright position, the staff would sag and then become taunt. This gave a rebounding effect that caused some notes to not be able to stay on, and they were flung off.

Grandma Anna Comment: The sifting is going to be very threatening for some. Severe reactions are going to result. Some will leave the faith, some will fall, some will have their faith shaken to the core.

8] Sifting is Death to Self & Turning Upside Down

Still Small Voice given to Grandma Anna 7/20/93

HEARD: Wanted. Dead. Then alive. Pulled through a keyhole. Yes. You have the keys. Inserting them upside down. Turned. Over and over and over again. I will comfort them. Come under my wing and stay.

9] Sifting is a Part of the Training Process

Vision given to Sandy Warner 5/13/94

VISION: I saw 2 people doing the alphabet turn. As I saw this, I groaned and said, "Oh no, not again!" As I watched, the turning was in total & perfect synchronized unison.

HEARD: Honey. I'm proud of you. Upside down.

SANDY COMMENTS: In the early 80's I had visions of learning to write the alphabet (the many ways God's speaks) with my self as the writing tool! I was "flying" in the sky, doing aerial acrobatics, turning and flowing my body in the direction of each letter. Later as I became more accomplished, more difficult letters like the letter "O" was added. I didn't like that one!

If you can picture being in an airplane (only it's you without the airplane) and turning a complete circle. Anything that is loose and not tied down falls out of your pockets. It's a very unnerving experience. Your feet are not on the ground, you are unstable clinging onto the Lord, and the only balance and stability is in knowing He is God. It's like a sifting experience, only without the presence of evil.

I have seen myself doing this many times, in many seasons off and on, with in between times of "stability in hearing Him". Do understand, the letters are not circumstantial life experiences, rather they are specific periods of relationship with the Lord where everything gets turned upside down in what you are hearing, and how you understand what you are hearing. It's a time when you say "God is God and that's all that matters."

What have I learned in the past about this time????? Don't try to outguess God. I get queasy when I hear someone interpret Him and put Him in a box... what I mean by that is, trying to interpret what He is saying, and come up with a perfect pat answer to what He just meant by what He just said. He is too big to understand. Even when we think we have a grip on things, He can turn us over and whatever is loose that He hasn't tied down Himself, will fall away. The only thing you can do, is hang on and know it's just a season and soon it will get better and He will right you, plant you straight up and down, on your feet, SECURE & WITH UNDERSTANDING.

10] The Shepherds Were Sifted

Still Small Voice Excerpt Heard via Grandma Anna 5/24/94

HEARD: Fan uprighted. It's a pickle. Sour turned sweet. What happened? You figure it. It's an 8. What tipped it over? My timing not yours.

Excited? You bet. He's going to like it. Not done yet. Upside down. In the midst of a cartwheel. Bringing in the ark. Good shepherd. Tried and true. That's what sacrifice will do. Put it on the fire. Sizzled to a turn. Still too rare. Wonderful aroma. Doesn't even need sauce.

He did it. Thanks Dad. Good show. Paid the price. Lots of spice. It was painful. Mothers forget pain. Fathers too. When they see what pain can do. Giving birth, they did it. Stand up and sing. It's a loud noise. How many bouncing boys? Walk the beach. Can you count it? That's who you teach. You'll see. An amazing outreach.

Lots of crowns, when your work is done. Precious in My sight. All your birds take flight. Don't give up. Wait for Me. Just the tip of the iceberg. You'll see. A very special family. Lots of pain. Lots of strain. But watch it rain.

A downpour coming. Drenched. Over and over and over again.

Upside down, right side up. Cartwheels. Turning and turning. What joy. This family did it. Raising My Boy. They are the womb. It's an earthly tomb. Lots of little Adam's growing. Going to make a sonic boom.

Watch out it's catching. Such a noise you've never heard. It's coming from the East. A huge bird. Called him to My foot. That's what it took. People loving people. Willing to go all the way. Ready to greet the New Day. My Day. Lots of fire and thunder. Cleansing as it goes. The earth in painful throes. Groaning and yearning. When will it happen? Let it be. You'll know. When you see him in the midst of the sea. Thank you dear ones. You did it for Me.

11] A Riddle - Upside Down

A riddle heard via His still small voice to Sandy Warner 5/27/95

HEARD: See it through her eyes. Rock hard faith. Belly up. Turtle shell support you. Rule the world upside down. In my pocket found a key.

Sandy Comment: In my past the Lord told me that He was going to build within me a rock-hard faith. At the same time He also brought me rhema having to do with turtles that walk very slow, and carrying a rock hard shell as a protection and refuge.

At that time, my son told me the big turtles have no natural enemies, and that is why they grow so big and so old. He said when in danger, they draw in and hide! (I love that) They are also too tough to eat. Rock hard.

The only that can happen to them is you-know-what... they can turn upside down. That’s the awful word called sifting. Belly up!

12] A Quickened Parable - Sifting Separates the Weeds in Our Lives

Given to Sandy Warner 5/5/96

This week I have been rebuilding my backyard flower beds. In the past there was a patch for 3 years in a row of rye grass that had gotten into my chicken and hen plants. I tried pulling, I tried digging around, and the third year I tried weed killer. The killer killed everything including the hens and chickens. So when I came to the other section that had slowly been developing rye grass in the chickens and hens, I had been just pulling it and only sometimes getting the roots because the task looked so overwhelming to me, and I didn't want to lose my plants.

This time in restructuring the whole bed, I decided to dig up the chickens & hens to get the rye grass out. I dug much deeper than their planting, and by hand separated the roots of the grass from the plants. When I dug up a clump of chickens and hens, I tried pulling the grass up through the top. Most of the time it was so deeply entrenched in the plants roots that it would pull apart the chickens and hurt their roots. So I turned the clump upside down and discovered that the rye grass roots are very visible from that direction, and if I pulled them straight out from the bottom, they slipped right out without hurting the plant roots! This took me several hours to do, as the bed was so big and I wanted to make sure the grass was gone. Mom came over and saw what I was doing and said "I've seen people weed before, but I've never seen anyone do it quite like that!"

The Lord quickened some lessons in this experience. First of all I could see first hand how difficult it is for the Lord to separate the wheat from the tares, without damaging the wheat.

The second thing I saw was the process of temporarily being upside down. Last month He was giving me short little bursts of being upside down so that I might clearly see weeds that needed to be removed from my life. In the unstable process, once I saw, I could work with Him on my own cleansing, including repenting, rebuking and renouncing things I saw deep inside. How easy it is to receive deliverance at this time when we are WILLING to let Him work on us!

Thanks to my willingness, last month was such an easy process, and I suddenly saw how difficult we make it for ourselves and for Him when He wants to correct us about issues. He has to balance the act of correcting us, and yet not lose the building He wants to accomplish within us. Sometimes we over-react so badly that He has to back up and re-build the same foundation again and again, all the while approaching our sensitive areas from different angles. We get all upset and think we are dung and no good, then He has to patch us up and then re-build His favor within. This takes time to go around the same circle, and all the while we don't let Him accomplish what He is trying to uproot! Unfortunately this can take years around the same circle. It is so much easier when we understand and simply comply with a temporary upheaval and stay willing and pliable in His hands.

13] A Vision - Straining the Lumps Away

From Sister Ching Co - ching@cebumail.com

I saw two strainer in the hand of God's angel, one was made of coarse mess wire, while the other was made of very fine material, so fine that it look like invisible to the naked eye. The angel was putting something into the first coarse strainer and the bigger elements began to fall down, then the fine strainer was brought out and the sifted elements were once more sifted through this very fine strainer. It took quite sometimes for the elements to pass through the fine screen, but then it did, like a drop then another until nothing can squeeze through it. Then I even saw the hand pressing on what is left, just to make sure that all that can be squeeze out will be out.

After a while, the hand removed what was left from the strainer and it was pressed out like being ironed, and then I saw a very white handkerchief so beautiful with gold thread stitched upon the border and the materials was beautiful, then this handkerchief was given to the king and he gently took and received it and put it to his nose and gently smell it and I saw a great big smile broke into the face of the king as he hold that handkerchief close to his heart.

THE INTERPRETATION GIVEN:

In the past years, many of God's wonderful people have been through those two strainer. God angels carrying out the Lord's order have been sifting His people, first it was the easier matters that were shaken from our lives, we were tested financially in giving and in releasing them to God, we were tested emotionally in how we respond to various situations that crops up here and there, we were tested spiritually in how we respond to brothers and sisters as we learn to live and love one another.

After these, we were put to a finer strainer, these time the secret motives of the heart are being exposed. Things that we hold dear and have difficulty releasing or letting go , our love ones, our name and our career, our dreams and our aspiration, our hopes and our longings, even our character and our dignity...one by one...the angel just press them harder and harder into the strainer and one by one they fall and are being stripped away from us, until nothing of self is left in that strainer.

Then like that white, newly pressed , gold stitched handkerchief, our lives is like a finished work that was brought and presented before the King of Heaven, who so lovingly smell us and press us close to His heart.. and He smile for He is delighted into what we have become after all these shaking that has taken place.

THE WORDS:

" My loved ones, my precious people, my chosen of olds, Oh! how precious you are all to me. Each and every one of you...precious in My sight...the apple of My eyes...the Love of My life..

" I know that the past years have been difficult, for I have press you over and over again...I have put you into the fire of cleansing and purification...I have emerged you in the rivers of washing...and it is all for my preparation, it is all for your perfection...to the image of my only Son Jesus, the Head of all that is being brought forth into glory.

" I know the pain that you've been through, I've seen every tears, I've heared every moan, I've seen every struggle.. But I am pleased my people for I've seen how you have submitted and yielded to the work of My Spirit. You have come and you have responded to Me..

" I know that I have many of you confused in the past for to some I have come so swiftly and so suddenly and without warning and have acted drastically. But My cherish one, I have done it out of Love for you. I know what is best , that is a Father's instinct and that is a Father's wisdom.

" I am delighted that so many of you have chosen to obey.. that you have chosen to cling on to me despite the questions, the fears, the difficulties.. that you have chosen to trust my heart when you cannot see my hands..

" I am overflowing with joy, I am overflowing with happiness, I am overflowing with satisfaction in what I have witness...

" There is a great roar in heaven, a great and mighty roar.. A great cheer is coming out from those that have gone ahead of you...they are saying to you all...'Hold on to what you have for it will be greatly rewarded...do not give up...do not surrender...rest in His mighty arm for He is faithful and just and righteous '....

" Be assured of my love, be secured in your call, be steadfast in your walk for I am here, I have always been here, and I will always be with you wherever the path will led..

" Know that my plans for you are for good and that they are eternal and everlasting...

" Know that my eyes are keeping watch over you overflowing with compassion and with love..

" Know that my hands are all around you, to lift you up when you stumble, to guide you when you go astray, to cover you when the storm come, to hold you close to my heart at all times.

" I love you dearly My people...love you so dearly....more than words can express...

" Feel my heart...draw close to me...be warmth in my presence....

THE LORD IS GOD AND HIS MERCIES ARE NEW EVERY MORNING! PRAISE THE NAME OF JESUS, OUR GREAT KING, OUR LORD AND OUR SAVIOR!!

14] A Word About The Sieve

From Nancy Smith - bntesmith@ohiohills.com

The Lord has been impressing upon me to share this. One day, during worship I received the word "sieve"....and about a week later I was reading the Word and came across the words, "threshing floor" several times, in several places. I understand that a sieve is what I call a "sifter thing" in my kitchen. (It wasn't a word I used, so I knew it was the Lord!) I had to ask about the threshing floor. Apparently, it is a large area where the grain was threshed.

The Lord told Peter that satan wanted to sift him like wheat, but that

He had prayed for him. I believe that as I submit to threshing and sifting in this world, I will become a useful ingredient in the Lord's hand.

Nancy

15] Sifting is a Season of Harvest

From: ab600@sfn.saskatoon.sk.ca (Lila Wagner)

For the last few weeks--since the New Year--our house group has been hearing over and over again the words, "threshing-machine", "winnowing fork" and "sifting". The overall interpretation seems to be that as a church we will be threshed (yes, that means beaten), shaken up by the winnowing fork so that all the chaff and straw can be blown away by the wind of the Spirit and sifted of all impurities. This is a preparation for the HARVEST!!--we've been promised in Saskatoon.

Waiting for HIM!!

16] Sifting is For Our Sanctification

From Earlene - earlyb@integrityonline.com

I too, have been meditating on the "sifting" that appears to be happening in many places. But the Lord reminded me of the sifters my husband used to work with in the flour mill. These sifters are taller than a man and about 3 feet wide and deep. There are 24 screens of varying sizes inside, and they shake violently. When the crushed wheat is poured into them, it is sifted according to size. Master bakers specify what type of wheat and what fineness they require for their products and the wheat is taken from the appropriate screens. The millers may pull wheat from the middle screens and process it for crackers or cookies. The larger wheat pieces on the top screens may be pulled and crushed through the rollers again for cake flour. And the very lightest and smallest pieces, the bran, will be packed for cereals. Higher protein wheats will be used for bread and buns.

So what I was reminded of is that the Lord Jesus knows what He is doing with all the shaking and sifting. He is separating us and pulling us aside for His specific uses. I think this is called "sanctification!" :)

Blessings to you all,

Earlene

17] Upside Down Brings the Leaven to the Surface

Still Small Voice heard by Sandy Warner 5/11/96

HEARD: Upside down. Critical. Coming to the surface. Challenge. There's more to come. Advice, just stay calm. Trust Me.

Sandy COMMENT: Upside down is speaking of being temporarily turned upside down to remove bad roots that are exposed.

18] Sifting Threshes Out One's Testing of God

The following is taken from 101+ Ways God Speaks (And How to Hear Him) by Sandy Warner

89. HE SPEAKS WHEN WE LIMIT FLEECES

Using a fleece is a comforting way to please the soul and personality, but is not recommended as a pattern of relationship with the Lord. Most people use fleeces by stating a certain need for guidance: "Lord, if You do such n' such, then I know I'm supposed to do such n' such." Notice the if-then clause. This clause suggests making a contract with God on YOUR TERMS. When a person lays a fleece before the Lord, he is putting God into a position to answer according to his way, not God's. It is controlling the limits of circumstances and asking God to fit that mold.

There are those who lust for signs. (The Pharisees wanted signs, rather than Jesus. They did not see HE WAS the sign.) People who look for signs are also vulnerable to falling into a snare. They are ones who lay fleeces before the Lord on a continuing basis. One satanic realm of influence is the lust for signs.

God knows the heart, and may answer a fleece, as recorded in Gideon's plight. Notice the awe and respect of Gideon's heart in approaching God in this manner. Placing the fleece before the Lord was with great caution as unto the fear and respect of the Lord: "And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece, let it now be dry only upon the fleece and upon all the ground let there be dew." (Judges 6:39-40 KJ)

The fleece was a request to God, and God answered as His gift. This was not without consequences. God wanted Gideon's army cut down to 300 men. It was not that God was angry so Gideon had to make up for the use of the fleece by cutting his army; but that the fleece and answer were very much like a contract. Gideon suggested a contract on Gideon's terms. God answered. Then God gave Gideon God's terms: 300 men.

The scriptures suggest God is reasonable, listens to the will of man, and is willing to be flexible and work with him. He is our Good Father. However, we should not test Him to see how far He is willing to bend. This whole concept is something to be approached with reverence, respect and awe. He's not Someone to bargain with in the market place. Those who use fleeces on a regular basis are asking for trouble.

Fleeces suggests a flexible part of God's nature, but when we draw the line of flexibility it is best WE BE THE FLEXIBLE ONE.

If one has the wrong motive: a lust for signs, lust for knowledge, demanding (striving with) or testing and proving Him, one day the Lord will thresh out that leaven in the heart through a sifting process.

There is one other reason God would cut this weed out. There are people who have been accustomed to using fleeces with a pure desire to find out His will. He knows the heart, and perhaps will even answer for a season on their terms. Yet there will come a day when He wants them to grow and come out of this type of relationship with Him. Fleeces put God in a box, He is not cheerfully willing to stay there for very long! There are many of ways to hear from Him without putting Him in a box. He desires to bring His own up and out, seeking Him on His territory.

19] Discerning the Supernatural Can Cause Sifting

The following is taken from 101+ Ways God Speaks (And How to Hear Him) by Sandy Warner

MAKING DECISIONS ABOUT THE SUPERNATURAL

Part of the process of discernment is learning to make accurate decisions about what you are exposed to without being impulsive, rash, judgmental or critical: but with careful prayer, thought, consideration, and TIME. It is good to make a decision. The Lord is bringing the earth into a time when it's TIME TO MAKE A DECISION. (Joel 3:14) Much of the population today is choosing sides in response to moral and ethical issues. What we have already seen politically, spiritually, and physically is only one small drop of what is to come.

We are coming to the end of an age when both God and satan want a commitment one way or another. Some of God's people have been riding the yellow line for a long time, afraid to voice an opinion, or make a stand about what they believe. They have taken the middle of the road approach to avoid confrontations and ruffle as few feathers as possible to get through life in one piece! The yellow line hasn't been a problem because there hasn't been much traffic. However, the traffic in both directions is now increasing and the guy in the middle is going to get crunched. The pace is accelerating. Because of the great shaking, the fence straddlers are going to be forced to make decisions about what they believe one way or another.

The Lord's supernatural outpouring is going to break and/or shake up man's religious boxes as to Who He is. There are many ways man boxes God. One way is by interpreting the Bible to say God intended the supernatural to die with the early Apostles. Man will be confronted with a choice of removing the box and allowing God to reveal Himself as He chooses. Or, he may not be included in the blessings of the pouring forth of the latter rain of God's Spirit.

Have you ever been in a belly-gusher rain? One time we had a deep, very loud, and overwhelming downpour. The gutters overran and Cuddle's kitty pillow and blanket were drenched. I think it scared Cuddles, as after I washed and dried her bed (without offending soap or softeners) she would not come back and rest. She was sleeping somewhere else in the neighborhood and coming back to eat. It really bothered me and I kept praying that she would return and find her place of comfort.

Finally I came up with an idea. Whenever my son got her towel out and placed it on his lap, she came running! So I told Sonshine to also get her clean blanket that was on top of her pillow, and sneak it in with the towel so she could get her smell on it. He did this and she loved her time with him. Then he placed her on her pillow with her blanket. The next day she was contentedly sleeping there.

The point of the allegory is that sometimes the supernatural rain of the Lord upsets our security as we are frail human beings. We become unstable and need to return to our resting place. The Lord wants to build in you a secure foundation and He understands. He will do His best to bring you to that place of security, that safe place of faith in Him.

People can go through a sifting process when they are learning to discern the supernatural. They really desire God and earnestly want to make the correct choices. However the inability to make the decision causes the wavering to become intense. So many have already been sifted in their hearing and led astray because of lack of knowledge. To keep from being sifted, a firm foundation is needed in reading the Bible and understanding Who God is. The things that God speaks will always line up with Who He is, so if you earnestly desire God and come across something that shakes a box inside you, PRAY about it, and ask HIM. If you are insecure about what you've been exposed to, go to Him and He will establish you. He will help you find Him and make the decisions that are correct.

20] A Story About Sifting

The following is taken from 101+ Ways God Speaks (And How to Hear Him) by Sandy Warner

HE SPEAKS THROUGH CHILDREN'S WORDS

"You have taught the little children to praise you perfectly. May their example shame and silence your enemies." (Psalms 8:2 TLB)

"Beware that you do not despise or feel scornful toward or think little of one of these little ones, for I tell you that in heaven their angels always are in the presence of and look upon the face of My Father Who is in heaven: Allow the little ones to come to Me, and do not forbid, or restrain, or hinder them, for of such {as these} the kingdom of heaven is composed." (Matthew 18:10 & Matthew 19:14 AMP)

Children are gifts straight from heaven and His heart. I have been astonished by the direct Words of my Father that come through what they say and do. As I walked through a prolonged season of wavering, seemingly on a spiritual swing set vacillating between two opinions, I would swing one way and think maybe the Lord meant such n' such, or I would swing the opposite. The Lord gave me a picture-vision of myself near the waves of the ocean. Every time a large wave (overwhelming circumstance) would come close, I would scurry to the top of a very small and skinny tree. The bottom trunk was about four inches in diameter. When the wave would hit, the tree bent way over to one side and then the other, bouncing back and forth!

It was a perfect allegory of what I was doing during that season. Isaiah 35:3 says, "...confirm the feeble knees." My knees were anything but confirmed, they felt more like rubber legs, just like that tree trunk! I felt so sifted and tired of wavering. One day as I was thinking about wavering back and forth with rubber legs and feeling very condemned, my very young son interrupted my thoughts. He said out of nowhere, "Mama, I am worried my knees might break." Regaining my composure, I explained that when we bend and exercise our knees, it is good for them for it makes them strong! That was one of many times I remember his little voice penetrating my thoughts and bringing me encouragement from the Lord. I am now trained to know and believe that good gifts come in small packages!

21] God will Overturn, Abasing the High and Exalting the Low

Vision given to Shirley 11/9/96

VISION: I saw a right hand turn something over that resembled and upside down glass.

HEARD: He changes things. Truth.

Eze 21: 26, 27 "...exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high. I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him."

22] Word to Ponder - A Warning

The following is taken from the book, Words to Ponder 2 by Sandy Warner

UNDERSTAND THE NATURE OF THE BATTLE (written in 1999)

There is much you do not understand when suddenly there is a victory and just as suddenly there is a defeat. This is because you have entered an era where the final battle is in the making. All of the spiritual forces are at work to take ground once and for all. And you are caught in the middle. This is not a time to sleep and be taken unaware. For when the waves of darkness come, they can sweep you off your feet and suddenly you are left sifted and upside down wondering what hit you.

This is a time to prepare for battle and understand the nature of the battle. There are seasons of war and seasons of rest. Likewise, there are seasons of victories and seasons of resting in the victories. These times are just like the waves in the ocean. The enemy forces ride in, gathering strength in numbers, while raising the tides of evil onslaught upon the earth. When this happens, this is the time to stand. Stand with the power to tell the enemy no. Command the darkness to retreat in Jesus Name. Stand armed with the Words I have given you. Do not bow under the circumstances, but stand knowing it is but an enemy wave. Command, praise and trust Me through it and you shall rise above its destructive path.

As My believers stand firm and the strength of the enemy depletes, the evil forces retreat to gather energy for another round. Take advantage of those times to draw near to Me and gather your own strength for the battles to come. Angelic activity and blessings have greater access during this time. Take advantage of this understanding. Gather food to feed your soul, and gather supplies for nurturing those in a weaker condition. Take this time to rest from the heat of war, and seek Me, enjoying the blessings of My Presence. For in those times I draw near to Mine Own ones, and reveal Myself to them. If you understand the nature of this long war, you will learn to ride the waves. Rise above the enemy circumstances when they hit and ride the blessing waves when they arrive.

Always remember that in it all, I AM in control. Everything the enemy does is with My permission. This is a time when the enemy has been allowed to touch the earth with swift judgment. It is a wake up call. I use this for good, to cleanse and bring forth repentance. The enemy intends it for complete destruction. The measure it touches your own life is the degree in which the intercessors stand in the gap against the incoming waves of evil as well as the degree in which you yourself need repentance. If something has touched your life, see the truth, repent and then find the secret place hidden in Me and you will ride out the storms in a place of safety.

There will come a time when it will be impossible to rest in circumstances without genuine faith in Me. To truly understand this is to understand the fear of the Lord and understand I will no longer wink at sin, but bring swift judgment. Take heed and find your covering under the shadow of My wings.

"They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon. For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded.... In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us. " (Nehemiah 4:17-18, 20)

23] Sometimes Sifting is a Matter of Perspective

Vision given to Sandy Warner 6/22/97

HEARD: Exposed. Harvest.

VISION: I saw a very funny prophetical picture: There was a group of water ballerinas doing water ballet in the water. They had just gone under water and were turning themselves around under the water. In the process of turning, the one closest to me opened her eyes under water and then she REALLY opened her eyes in a shocked look. She was gazing just past my shoulder. Then she looked again as though she couldn't quite believe what she saw, and her eyes were bugging out. She pushed herself to the surface and the look on her face was one of being absolutely astounded. I turned around to see what she was looking at and there was a huge ocean liner that had come in ready to dock. It was practically on top of us. But behind that was another, and another and another and another. There were many ships all lined up in single file clear to the horizon, all coming in. I realized that our ship had come in!

Sandy Comment: Sometimes we are buried under circumstances and occasionally upside down as we swim through the process. The parable of this vision is that God has been working a great work to bring our "ship" in, and we are sometimes so overwhelmed in the sea of life that we fail to see His promises until it is right on top of us.

Notice I titled this one, "Sometimes Sifting is a Matter of Perspective." In this vision, the ship was not upside down, the ballerina was.

BOXES AND BOUNDARIES

2/24/99

Hi loved ones,

Have you ever gone to church and had your worship leader show up in a box? No, I literally mean a BOX. The first Sunday of 1999 they started the music, and waddling from the back is this giant 6½ foot box. Two arms are sticking out of the side, holding a guitar. Two feet are flapping at the bottom, like a duck. Now this walking/talking/singing box had a point and it was that the Lord was not sending superstars but He was sending the no-name-faceless people to the world with His good news. We laughed all the way through worship, but the point was made and it's one of those things that after seeing, you never forget.

Finally it got too hot under there, and with help, he took off the box. When I saw him do this, the Lord reminded me of something He had previously whispered: "It's time to stretch forth your tent stakes." I was reminded of the scripture, "Enlarge the place of your tent, And let them stretch out the curtains of your dwellings; Do not spare; Lengthen your cords, And strengthen your stakes." (Isaiah 54:2) This concept has to do with God stretching our boundaries. The best way I can describe this is, "It's time to break out of our boxes."

I saw this concept demonstrated by our pastor during last week's sermon. He brought 2 sticks. The first was a 12 inch ruler, the second was a 36 inch yard stick. All the way through his sermon, he kept asking the question, "How big is your stick?"

It's only been 8 weeks since the beginning of this year, and I have seen the people in our church bust their boxes in so many ways we have not been able to keep up with the comings and goings. People are experiencing things in the Lord they have never experienced before. We are seeing issues that people have dealt with or waited upon the Lord for years, suddenly break forth with tiny steps into new freedom. Many of these stretches are breaking mindsets and fears. Other stretches are healings and open doors for ministry opportunities. Some are recovering lost ground from the past by identifying the origins of physical, spiritual and emotional yokes.

Right now, we have a window of opportunity, a door of grace extended to us to move forward and take new ground, if we are willing to trust the Lord and stretch ourselves. In spite of dark clouds in the horizon, today I am seeing sun beams pierce the clouds with hope, help, and grace. It has been prophesied that what we do with this year is so important that it will determine our whole future — as a nation, as a church, as a family, as an individual. There are many ways God can break our boxes, and we will probably see most of them in the coming future. However, at this moment in time, I see the Lord extending His hand, reaching through our fears and saying, "Stretch yourself. Come out of your box. Be willing to take a chance. Trust Me. Let go of the bondage. Loose the restraint. Break your boundaries. Reach. Take this window of grace and use every last drop of it while it is yet open. GO FOR IT."

Lovingly,

Sandy

TO LOVE THE SON

Three women were given their choice as to what they wanted from the king. One chose to live in the king's city to receive the blessings of a safe refuge & kindred heart friends. The second chose to live in the king's palace and enjoy his treasures and gifts. The third chose to marry the king's son. Because she desired the son, she inherited everything.

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

WHO'LL TAKE THE SON?

A wealthy man and his son loved to collect rare works of art. They had everything in their collection, from Picaso to Raphael. They would often sit together and admire the great works of art. When the Vietnam conflict broke out, the son went to war. He was very courageous and died in battle while rescuing another soldier. The father was notified and grieved deeply for his only son.

About a month later, just before Christmas, there was a knock at the door. A young man stood at the door with a large package in his hands. He said, "Sir, you don't know me, but I am the soldier for whom your son gave his life. He saved many lives that day, and he was carrying me to safety when a bullet stuck him in the heart and he died instantly. He often talked about you, and your love for art.

The young man held out his package. "I know this isn't much. I'm not really a great artist, but I think your son would have wanted you to have this." The father opened the package. It was a portrait of his son, painted by the young man. He stared in awe at the way the soldier had captured the personality of his son in the painting. The father was so drawn to the eyes that his own eyes welled up with tears. He thanked the young man and offered to pay him for the picture. "Oh, no sir, I could never repay what your son did for me. It's a gift."

The father hung the portrait over his mantle. Every time visitors came to his home he took them to see the portrait of his son before he showed them any of the other great works he had collected. The man died a few months later. There was to be a great auction of his paintings. Many influential people gathered, excited over seeing the great paintings and having an opportunity to purchase one for their collection. On the platform sat the painting of the son.

The auctioneer pounded his gavel. "We will start the bidding with this picture of the son. Who will bid for this picture?" There was silence. Then a voice in the back of the room shouted.

"We want to see the famous paintings. Skip this one." But the auctioneer persisted. "Will someone bid for this painting? Who will start the bidding? $100, $200?" Another voice shouted angrily. "We didn't come to see this painting. We came to see the Van Gogh's, the Rembrandt's. Get on with the real bids!"

But still the auctioneer continued. "The son! The son! Who'll take the son?"

Finally, a voice came from the very back of the room. It was the long-time gardener of the man and his son. "I'll give $10 for the painting." Being a poor man, it was all he could afford. "We have $10, who will bid $20?"

"Give it to him for $10. Let's see the masters." "$10 is the bid, won't someone bid $20?" The crowd was becoming angry. They didn't want the picture of the son. They wanted the more worthy investments for their collections.

The auctioneer pounded the gavel. "Going once, twice, SOLD for $10!" A man sitting on the second row shouted. "Now let's get on with the collection!" The auctioneer laid down his gavel. "I'm sorry, the auction is over." "What about the paintings?" "I am sorry. When I was called to conduct this auction, I was told of a secret stipulation in the will. I was not allowed to reveal that stipulation until this time. Only the painting of the son would be auctioned. Whoever bought that painting would inherit the entire estate, including the paintings. The man who took the son gets every thing!"

God gave his son 2,000 years ago to die on a cruel cross. Much like the auctioneer, His message today is, "The son, the son, who'll take the son?" Because you see, whoever takes the Son gets everything.

AUTHORITY OVER THE ELEMENTS

2/7/99

This week Wayne & I had an interesting occurrence that we would like to pass on to you. On Thursday we were at the late night Taco Bell after home group. (Thank You Lord for driveup windows and no late night dishes in the sink.) While were waiting I noticed the trees near our car were doing some really strange things. They were whipping around in circles, twisting and turning. I looked out across the street and those trees were blowing normally. Immediately the Holy Spirit downloaded my memory with the following Word given through Bobby Conner's Shepherds Rod for 1999:

QUOTE FROM BOBBY CONNER:

THE HEAVENS WILL TESTIFY OF THE WORD OF GOD

This year the heavens will declare that this will be an unprecedented time of Light. The true prophetic will be given power and authority over the elements. It is time for the Church to begin to control the weather. One example would be found in Joshua 10:12-13: "Joshua said to the Lord in the presence of Israel: "O sun, stand still over Gibeon, O moon, over the Valley of Aijalon." So the sun stood still, and the moon stopped, till the nation avenged itself on its enemies," (NAS)

World Wide Web at: www.bobbyconner.org

[end of quote]

As I remembered this, I remembered someone (I think it was Bob Jones) said that the enemy would try to take advantage of the natural elements and we needed to learn to take a stand against such. It suddenly dawned upon my mind that this freak wind was a little demonic spirit that was having some fun and also causing me to feel uncomfortable about flying debris. Now I am not one to think there is a demon behind every bush! But this was one of those Holy Spirit moments that you just KNOW. So in my mind, I bound the enemy in Jesus Name and said, "Wind be at peace!" I looked at the trees and they were still having a whipping contest. A second time I did this, only with more "umph" behind the "be at peace!!" Immediately the wind stopped and the trees were quiet. No one was more astonished than me! I never said anything to Wayne, we left and I pondered it on the way home. "Lord did You witness that? Oh Lord, what do You think about that? Lord did that REALLY happen?" Us humans need convincing sometimes.

The next day was Friday, and we had a very strong storm come through. The raining down pours gushed throughout the day. But the winds were very bad. As I watched out my front window I became concerned about the telephone wires and the line of trees across the street. They were violently twisting! Unbeknownst to me, Wayne was feeling the same thing about the wind in the back of the house. That afternoon we both took authority over the wind without the other knowing it. It was a Holy Spirit conviction on both our parts. I still had not told him of the night before. (Oh me of little faith.) The trees on my side of the house stilled to just a normal breeze and Wayne's whipping tree totally stopped.

Later we went on an errand and the winds were quite gusty with the streets littered in branches. As a result, our conversation unfolded and we shared. I shared with Wayne about the above Words the Lord had reminded me of, so together we prayed in the car. We bound any evil spirits behind the twisting winds and prayed a hedge of protection over all our loved ones in the area. The next day (today) at church one of our dear ladies announced that a large tree fell upon her house during that storm. The top half of the tree broke off and fell onto their roof. The heavy part landed against the house, instead of on the roof. She said if the whole tree had fallen onto the house, it would have fallen through the roof and right onto their bedroom which is where her husband was resting. As it turned out it only caused some damage to their gutters and shingles. Coincidence? I don't think so.

I see two important themes in this story.

1) The Lord has given us authority over the elements and the powers behind such.

2) We desperately need one another's prayers. Our prayer over the protection of our loved ones was a simple thing to do. Even the prayer of authority binding the enemy was simple. What would have occurred if we hadn't seized the moment and followed through?

TO TAKE THE HEAT

2/5/99

Hi Loved Ones,

For several seasons the Holy Spirit has been wooing the hearts of His people and literally fulfilling the following verse: "And he will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse." (Mal 4:6) When this massive move of the Holy Spirit began to unfold, I witnessed this turning in many ways (especially in the Promise Keepers movement) but I never understood the curse part until recently.

Now everywhere we turn, we hear the prophets speak of coming judgment. Many of us have felt so overwhelmed by the stacked deck we do not realize that we still have a vote in this matter. Scripture tells us that mercy triumphs over judgment whether it is averted totally, or reduced to a spanking. Simply put, judgment hangs in the balance and our vote still counts. At this late hour and with so much against us, how do we cast our vote and stand in the gap for the sins of our nation, our world, our children?

The gap is a breach in our hedge of protection, where the enemy is allowed to start a fire then take advantage of the course it takes. To stand against this, it requires courageous fire fighters, willing to take the heat and battle the flames. There are many ways to fight a fire and it all depends upon the tools we are given. The following story was forwarded to me this week. I believe it portrays God's answer to the greatest tool we can use, and it also sheds light on the verse, "And he will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse." (Mal 4:6)

The author writes about reading an article in the National Geographic several years ago: "After a forest fire in Yellowstone National Park, forest rangers began their trek up a mountain to assess the inferno's damage. One ranger found a bird literally petrified in ashes, perched statuesquely on the ground at the base of a tree.

Somewhat sickened by the eerie sight, he knocked over the bird with a stick. When he struck it, three tiny chicks scurried from under their dead mother's wings. The loving mother, keenly aware of impending disaster, had carried her offspring to the base of the tree and had gathered them under her wings, instinctively knowing that the toxic smoke would rise. She could have flown to safety but had refused to abandon her babies. When the blaze had arrived and the heat had singed her small body, the mother remained steadfast. Because she had been willing to die, those under the cover of her wings would live." [author unknown]

"This is My commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends." (John 15: 12,13) If you feel the heat of judgment coming your way, consider what you may do to make a difference for those under your wings. Your vote counts. How do I know? Because love still covers a multitude of sins.

Lovingly,

Sandy

RHEMA 2/4/99: POWER IN THE NAME OF JESUS

DELIVERANCE: During the night I saw some vultures following me in visions. I heard in the real far distance, "Halt!" It was so distant I didn't tune into what was said because I was watching the vultures. Suddenly they took off in a furious attack towards me and I said, "In Jesus Name!"

The crash was so fast and so sudden (as if bouncing off an invisible wall) it was done by the time I said, Name!" They had crashed to a blinding halt and were kept from coming closer. I was shocked by the experience, then I remembered the tiny voice that had said, "Halt!" I was blessed by this experience feeling very secure.

HEARD: Authority.

WORD TO PONDER POWER IN MY NAME 2/4/99
Vultures are attracted to carrion, dead flesh. As you feed your flesh, you leave yourself prey to their stalking. When you are unaware, they will attack. Yet even then My mercy covers you if your use your authority to resist them in My Name. When you command them to halt in Jesus name, there is an invisible wall that raises and they bounce off fast and sudden. They are held within restraints from coming closer. Use your authority in Me and feed your spirit man not your carnal man. You shall dwell in peace and safety in so doing.

"For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace." (Rom 8:5-6 NKJV)

RHEMA 1/30/99: KEEP YOUR WATCH ON EXPERIENCE: Someone was telling me today that the prophets should not prophesy dates. I understood where he was coming from, but said that prophets were called watchmen and they wore watches! Suddenly I stopped in my tracks for no reason, and looked down. I was standing on a pair of feet that were taped to the floor at JC Penny's The feet said, “Countdown to 2,000.”

INCREDIBLE TIMING STILL THERE:
Yesterday I was heating some milk in the microwave and I was busy working on the computer. When I thought it would be done, I got up and walked to it. It said, one second. I have a built in sense of timing that has always been a sign to me since I was a child. Waking up on the dot, or cooking something and then leaving the kitchen, only to come back with 1-3 seconds to spare, after not having a clue what the clock says. It is all instinctive inside of me.

When I was done fixing my milk and came back to my printer, it was busy printing out bulletins for church. As the last one was going through, I said, “this is the last one!” I had no way of knowing this. Sure enough it stopped.

Jer 8:7 NKJV

Even the stork in the heavens Knows her appointed times; And the turtledove, the swift, and the swallow Observe the time of their coming.

WORD TO PONDER PUT ON YOUR WATCH 1/30/99
I have given you a unique gift to be able to tell time. Even as in the natural you are able to know how close you are to a countdown, or to an alarm, I have also given you this gift in the spiritual realm. Trust Me that I have instinctively placed within you My timing, My watch. Yes you are My watchmen and you will know the times and the seasons. I shall confirm you over and over again in this gifting. I give good gifts and give exactly what you will need.

"To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:" (Eccl 3:1 KJV)

QUICKENED CALENDAR: Today I worked several hours on the December rhema file to give back to Anna so she could add hers. When I was done I was very weary as I had stayed up too late to get it done. I glanced at my calendar and it was Jeffy from Family Circus, putting on his boots. He said, "Grandma says, "If you want to leave footprints in the sands of time, you have to put on workboots!"

RHEMA 1/13/99: MINISTRY AT THE CONFERENCE - SIN REVEALED

Today on the ministry team, the Lord gave me discernment for a lady who had been rejected by the body and I asked her if she had the gifts in the arts and if she had been rejected when sharing her gifts. I also discerned that she was to put her poems to music. She was blown away, because it was true and she had already put many of her poems to music and I did not know she had ever written poetry or was an artist.

That night while in bed the Lord brought the curtain down and I was able to see the reason she had been rejected: She was filled with ambition and even jealousy over gifts. I prayed about this and did not know what to do with this information. She had been ministered to in our time together, with the Word and prayer and that was a building up time, not a dismantling time.

The next day I chose to watch her from a distance and was extremely surprised to see who she was fellowshipping with: people I personally knew who had been rejected and who also had great ambitions and jealousies. The Lord spoke to me that birds of a feather flock together, even if they don't know they are.

UPDATE: The Lord has taught me a lot since that time. I have learned that when the Lord forgives our sins, they are forgotten and thrown into His sea of forgetfulness. If the Lord has forgotten them, why would He reveal to someone else? Only those sins that have been confessed and repented of, are covered and cleansed under the blood of Jesus. Therefore, those sins that He reveals are ones that have not been repented of or confessed. When He reveals them to us as intercessors, we have the power to forgive and remit sins. It is our honor to cover, for love covers a multitude of sins.

John 20:21-23 NKJV
So Jesus said to them again, "Peace to you! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you." 22 And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. 23 If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

WORD TO PONDER: PRIVATE WASHING 8/21/06
My bride is getting herself ready and she is in the bathroom washing. I have groaned over her as I have felt the desperation and despair in her heart to die to her flesh. I have felt all her tears and failures and I long to take her unto Myself!

She is well aware of her own fallen and carnal nature and I AM so pleased to see her willing to try as she separates herself from all that would defile. I AM teaching My Beloved that she cannot lock Me outside of her washing, but needs Me inside with her, so that I can wash and cover her nakedness and make her whole again.

Out of My love for her, I have kept her sins private and not exposed her to the world. As she yields each offense to be washed in transparent confession for My ears, I take away and cover. It is true that My prophets can hear and see the hearts of men and know their sin. But always remember, that if a sin is yielded and confessed to Me, it is COVERED by My blood. If a sin is covered, it is not exposed to even the prophet, for if I have thrown it away into the sea of forgetfulness, why would I reveal it to My prophet? My love covers, dear one. I do not want My Beloved wallowing in shame.

Prov 17:9 NKJV
He who covers a transgression seeks love, but he who repeats a matter separates friends.

1 Peter 4:8 NLT
...for love covers a multitude of sins.

Mic 7:19 NKJV
You will cast all our sins into the depths of the sea.

Ps 103:10-12 NKJV
He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor punished us according to our iniquities. For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is His mercy toward those who fear Him;
12 As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us.

Isa 38:17 NKJV
But You have lovingly delivered my soul from the pit of corruption, for You have cast all my sins behind Your back.

INSERT BIRDS OF A FEATHER FLOCK TOGETHER

WORD TO PONDER: UNCLEAN SOUL TIES 5/04/04
Keep a watch care posted on the door of your soul. When you join with others who are like minded, always remember to keep your soul pure before Me. I make all things new and bring My people into My image. It is a process and until it is completed, wounds and soul giants taint lives with mixture. It is not for you to judge My loved ones. But it is for you to discern and purpose not to allow the union of your soul to join with their places of mixture. In these days of joining, both men and spirits are finding their common denominators for greater synergy. This is My work and a sign of the end of the age when I separate the wheat from the tares. Be sure that in your joinings, you flee compromise and stand for a life without mixture. In so doing I shall greatly multiply your authority, boundaries and metrons. As I have spoken through My prophets, I shall pour My Spirit without measure to a people without mixture.

1 Cor 15:33 AMP
Do not be so deceived and misled! Evil companionships (communion, associations) corrupt and deprave good manners and morals and character.

"You shall utterly destroy all the places where the nations which you shall dispossess served their gods, on the high mountains and on the hills and under every green tree. And you shall destroy their altars, break their sacred pillars, and burn their wooden images with fire; you shall cut down the carved images of their gods and destroy their names from that place." (Deuteronomy 12:2-3 NKJ)

"Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." (Philippians 4:8 KJV)

RHEMA 1/13/99: LITERALLY HOLDING HIM UP

HEARD*: Grace at the ruined foundations. Spiritually delivered. Transformed by the power of God. It's a new beginning. More power. Incredible. I don't think I can stand.*

FUNNY EXPERIENCE: Anna & I were teamed up on the ministry team together. We ministered to a red-haired man whom the Lord revealed through my prayer that he was a special chosen one. The more we prayed, the more the Lord revealed and we ended up pretty much praying everything we knew over him. We were taking turns back and forth, praying over him.

He was over 6 feet tall and kept trying to pass out under the weight of the Spirit, but kept fighting it. We were holding onto him so he would not fall. Finally as we had prayed everything we could, and someone came behind him to help catch, we stopped holding him up and I put his arms up in the air to receive. He went down stretched out across the chairs against the wall. When he went down, he was totally unconscious as his head, arms, etc were lopped over.

The next meeting I went over to him to check on him and he said that he had wanted to stay alert as long as he could because we were confirming years and years of things the Lord had privately told him. He was absolutely thrilled. It really was precious to me that he was "enduring" the ministry time, trying to stay standing and receive the whole download.

It reminded me of something Bob Jones says. He says that if you are going to be a minister of His anointing, you have got to learn how to hold your wine! He said in the Old Testament, the priests had to learn how to stand and function in the Presence of the Lord.

> 2 Chron 5:13-14 KJV
> For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the LORD; So that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud : for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God.

RHEMA 1/11/99: RELEASE THE ARTISTS TO GO FORTH

DREAM:
Scene 1: The scene was in a long green soccer field. A prophetic intercessor that I know was on the side lines shooting very large crochet balls as though they were golf balls. He was shooting them horizontally across the field into where the players were.

The body of Christ was sitting in the middle of the field in chairs watching these balls shoot towards us. It was very intimidating because they were large and heavy like little canon balls. He shot about 8 or so balls and each one showed a different kind of shot with expertise skill. We were all amazed at how far he could hit the balls and one of them even went over our heads and passed us on the other side.

Scene 2: I was now inside the large goal netted area at the end of the field and I saw another person shoot balls from where he had been. I suddenly realized it was Wayne. Instead of shooting them horizontally across the field towards the body of Christ, he was shooting them vertically down the field, into the goal box where I was standing. I was flabbergasted because he had no trouble shooting them over and over again right into the box. I was quite intimidated because they were heavy balls and were landing so close to me.

Scene 3: Another group and I were standing behind the netted goal place. We were behind a set of huge double doors and waiting for the doors to open. Wayne was still on the other side shooting balls. Each ball pounded the door over and over again. It was very scary because I saw the doors move and bend with the weight of the balls.

I even saw huge dents in the door.

Scene 4: The 20' doors had opened and we went forth. I had ice skates on and skated onto the field. I had a pair of double edged swords in my hands and was skating really beautifully, all the while worshipping the Lord with my hands, swords and body. I was doing beautiful contortions with my body that were not possible in real life. I felt the Lord's strong Presence as I shaped my body to the music I was feeling in my heart while He was stirring my heart to worship Him. The swords were as though they were an extension to my hands and I did really interesting balancing tricks with them. They made my arms really long and I was able to bend in interesting ways that a human being can not normally bend.

[Lord what does this mean?]

HEARD: You're an artist.
[Lord what is Wayne?]

HEARD: Intercessor. Fire fighter. Authority.

WORD TO PONDER PRAY FOR THE ARTISTS 1/11/99
I am drawing the intercessors to pray for and release the artists. These artists are inspired by My prophetic call to display My Word in creative forms. Intercessors, stand at attention and take your turn as you feel My call to pray for the artists that you know and love. I will open the doors and break through the hindrances that have held them in captivity.

"All the women who were skilled in sewing and spinning prepared blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and fine linen cloth, and they brought them in. 26 All the women who were willing used their skills to spin and weave the goat hair into cloth. 27 The leaders brought onyx stones and the other gemstones to be used for the ephod and the chestpiece. 28 They also brought spices and olive oil for the light, the anointing oil, and the fragrant incense. 29 So the people of Israel--every man and woman who wanted to help in the work the LORD had given them through Moses--brought their offerings to the LORD." RHEMA 1/6/99: THE LITTLE PINK MOUSE SPEAKS HEARD: What's next? Pretty pink.

PIX: I saw my baby pink beanie mouse on my key chain.

HEARD: Wait I say. Wait on the Lord. It has begun. The whole thing, climax.

QUICKENED PARABLE: Today, as I was walking into a store, I stuffed my pink beanie mouse keys into the front outside pocket of my purse. As I glanced at the pink mouse upside down, my heart was quickened that this mouse should not be upside down. As I turned it right side up and safely tucked it inside the pocket, its head and hands were sticking out of the pocket. Then I HEARD: So what do you have to say today? FINALLY!!

I laughed and laughed at that. I have often thought of myself as a little mouse who hides in the back pocket and peeks out and rarely says a word. Being up side down represents not standing in our faith, but having gone through a sifting and you dont know which is right side up.

When I heard FINALLY I laughed so hard because I knew exactly what He was talking about. I belong to about 5 or so e-mail lists and have silently read them, deleted and kept the best. True to nature, I have NEVER responded to any of them, just been a silent observer. I read one that so inspired me that I finally responded.

A few days later it came out on the Internet and other lists picked up my response and it was sent around the world. The Lord finally gave me a voice!!

UPDATE: As a result, the Lord launched me into starting an internet email list and the rest is history!

RHEMA 1/9/99: THE PINK MOUSE FINALLY HAS A VOICE

FUNNY EXPERIENCE: Today as I passed my computer, I heard the Lord say, HEARD: Hug.

I decided to read any new e-mail and found one title that stirred by heart. I felt the Lord's drawing upon me to open it and read it as a Word from the Lord and clicked on it to read. Imagine my surprise when it was my own e-mail I had sent as a response to a list a few days ago! The Lord is SO FUNNY. He has finally given me a voice, just like the mouse said when I put her upright in my purse pocket. She was exposed and had her head sticking out.

HEARD: Do not be afraid. I am with you. Hug. Building.

Hag 2:19 NKJV
Is the seed still in the barn ? As yet the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not yielded fruit. But from this day I will bless you.'"

Isa 66:9 NKJV
Shall I bring to the time of birth , and not cause delivery?" says the LORD. "Shall I who cause delivery shut up the womb ?" says your God.

RHEMA 1/21/96 WAITING UPON THE LORD TO POP OUT

BOWLING PARABLE: I saw an unusual thing happen to my ball today, and when it happened I immediately recognized the parable. The ball was caught in the pit, turning circles and spinning over and over. It was supposed to roll towards the spout and travel back to the chute where the bowler picks up the ball. I watched other balls come back, but not mine, it was still spinning its shocking pink halo round and round.

As I was still thinking about the parable of waiting upon the Lord for His right timing, my ball finally went into the spout, traveled back to me, and then did the same thing right at the chute. Instead of popping out and rolling into the tray, it began to spin and spin, as a 2nd confirmation that I understood what the parable was. I finally had to reach in the chute and bump the ball a few times to get it to pop out.

Spinning is dark speech for waiting upon the Lord, coming from a Hebrew word meaning to twist.

A BURSTING RAINBOW

RHEMA 12/30/98: HIS PROMISES ARE SURE

RAINBOW SIGN IN THE SKY:

Today while flying home the Lord gave me a strange and awesome sign. I saw a small rainbow about 10 feet below the wing of the plane and out of the rainbow came a bright light that looked like sun rays. When I saw it I was so amazed and moved my head to another window to see if it was still there. It was even brighter and more intense, as though it was His glory bursting through a small hole between the real world and the spirit world. It was like a silver lining only BRILLIANT. The light actually had a shape as though they were sun bursts or rays of light the burst out like a half fan shape, extending from the rainbow. I saw this with my literal eyes.

This was a sign to me of the calling He spoke to me that morning.

> ### MY DOUBLE RAINBOW 4/4/97
> I have given you a double rainbow as a sign of My promise upon your life. Bit by bit, one step at a time, I will unfold My plans. I have a strategic time table, and that which has been hidden will be made manifest in its time. As I unfold My plans, you will see with your very own eyes how they fit into the seasons of your life. You have hidden wealth zipped shut and protected during this winter season. In the spring I will bring pieces previously not understood and fit them into place. And in the summer season, I have an announcement. Watch for My rainbow, for My promises to come to pass.

“For your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them. 8 For I the LORD love judgment, I hate robbery for burnt offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.” (KJV Isaiah 61:7-8)

“And immediately I was in the spirit: and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne. And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.” (Revelation 4:2-3)

RHEMA 12/14/98: HE CAME CLOSER!

> I heard myself praying, “Lord come closer.” Then all of a sudden I had an impact in my spirit that He DID. He opened my eyes and what I saw was quite funny and it is going to be really hard to describe this!
> In the natural, when you open up your eyes and look straight ahead, you have a certain range of vision that you can see to your sides, up and down. There is only so much of the expanse of scope that you can see. It has to do with the size and proximity of what is before you and how much it fills your vision.

FUNNY VISION: So right after it impacted my spirit that He suddenly drew closer, He opened my eyes and the only thing I saw was a dot that literally filled my entire vision. I saw the dot arrive closer, and knew it was just a dot.

He was so big that He filled all my peripheral vision with just a dot of Himself. It was as if someone had take a picture of a white speck on someone's shirt pocket, then the closer the person comes, naturally the dot gets bigger as the person comes closer. The dot became so big, that is all I saw until the whole scope was just white. What a funny vision!

I have always tried to figure out how big someone would be to be a dot that fills my entire scope! Wayne told me the other day that the entire universe and all it contains is INSIDE God. That is why we can not escape Him, and why He is always with us, because we are IN Him. His huge-ness suddenly impacted me differently.

Ps 139:7-12 NKJV
Where can I go from Your Spirit? Or where can I flee from Your presence? 8 If I ascend into heaven, You are there; If I make my bed in hell, behold, You are there. 9 If I take the wings of the morning,And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, 10 Even there Your hand shall lead me,And Your right hand shall hold me. 11 If I say, "Surely the darkness shall fall on me," Even the night shall be light about me; 12 Indeed, the darkness shall not hide from You, But the night shines as the day; The darkness and the light are both alike to You.

GOD IS INSIDE MY BOX

RHEMA 11/29/98: OUT OF THE PIT AND THE PIT OUT OF US

VISION: I was sitting across the table in front of a lady. I had a Royal Ann cherry (ruling grace) in my hand and popped the pit out into the lady's hands. She caught it and I asked her if she knew what it meant.

I told her that the Lord was going to remove all the pits, the bitterness and gall and pain in our lives. He was going to take us out of the pit and the pit out of us.

> [In real life I had canned Royal Ann cherries before and when you pit them they are very messy, bloody, pulpy and sad looking. This cherry after the pit came out was perfectly whole and completely healed. It was a perfect Royal Ann, minus the pit.]

WORD TO PONDER 11/29/98 A BOWL OF CHERRIES MINUS THE PITS

I am taking away the pits. I am going to remove all the pits, the bitterness, the gall and the unforgiveness out of your lives. I am going to take you out of the pit and the pit out of you. Consider yourself a Royal Anna cherry minus the pits. You shall be My royal, ruling one with much grace. Mark My Words, there shall come a day with the pits in your life are GONE.

"I waited patiently for the LORD; And He inclined to me, and heard my cry. He also brought me up out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my steps. He has put a new song in my mouth-- Praise to our God; Many will see it and fear, and will trust in the LORD." (Ps 40:1-3 NKJV)

RHEMA 10/26/98: STAND AGAINST SIN WITHIN CHURCH

> [Praying about a church that wanted to expand, and yet was allowing those in attendance to live in sin, feeling God's grace covered all.]

PIX: I saw an open house flyer being held up between a pair of praying hands. The flyer burst into flames and disintegrated.

PIX: I saw an angel holding a match that had been lit and blowing across it as though to kindle a fire.

HEARD: Fire. Head strong. Cigarette carnality. Operate. Disabled. Surgery. Sin. Answer. Give him coffee to wake up. This is a warning. Very bad. Serious.

PIX: I saw a giant snake wrapped all around a white building.

HEARD: Titanic. Cleanse the lepers. We need a final commitment. Hedge.

PIX: PLEASE [in all caps]

APPLICATION: The leaders in the church needed to make a commitment to stand in the gap, form a holy hedge and purge the leaven out of their midst.

WORD STUDY - OUR BOUNDARIES AND STANDARD IS THE WORD OF GOD

Our lives are lived according to the standard in scripture. It equips us for doctrine, reproof, correction and training in right and holy living.

2 Tim 3:16-17 AMP
Every Scripture is God-breathed (given by His inspiration) and profitable for instruction, for reproof and conviction of sin, for correction of error and discipline in obedience, [and] for training in righteousness (in holy living, in conformity to God's will in thought, purpose, and action), So that the man of God may be complete and proficient, well fitted and thoroughly equipped for every good work.

==========

REPROOF:
elegmos

NT:1648 a elegmos (el-eng-mos'); from NT:1651; found only in 2 Tim 3:16: conviction (of a sinner), punishment, refutation of error, reproof.
elegcho

NT:1651 elegcho (el-eng'-kho); of uncertain affinity; to confute, admonish: KJV - convict, convince, tell a fault, rebuke, reprove.

CORRECTION:
NT:1882
NT:1882 epanorthosis (ep-an-or'-tho-sis); from a compound of NT:1909 and NT:461; a straightening up again, i.e. (figuratively) rectification (reformation): KJV - correction.

Luke 13:13
And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

Acts 15:16
After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

Hebrews 12:12
Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

==========

INSTRUCTION:

NT:3809
NT:3809 paideia (pahee-di'-ah); from NT:3811; tutorage, i.e. education or training; by implication, disciplinary correction:
KJV - chastening, chastisement, instruction, nurture.

Ephesians 6:4
4 And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

KJV
2 Timothy 3:16
16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

KJV
Hebrews 12:5
5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

KJV
Hebrews 12:7
7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

KJV
Hebrews 12:8
8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

KJV
Hebrews 12:11
11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

==========

RIGHTEOUSNESS:

NT:1343
NT:1343 dikaiosune (dik-ah-yos-oo'-nay); from NT:1342; equity (of character or act); specially (Christian) justification:
KJV - righteousness.

Matt 5:20
For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Matt 5:17-20 KJV
Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Gal 6:1 AMP SET THEM RIGHT
6:1 BRETHREN, IF any person is overtaken in misconduct or sin of any sort, you who are spiritual [who are responsive to and controlled by the Spirit] should set him right and restore and reinstate him, without any sense of superiority and with all gentleness, keeping an attentive eye on yourself, lest you should be tempted also.

I COR 5 NKJV HAVE NO FELLOWSHIP WITH THE IMMORAL
It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not even named among the Gentiles - that a man has his father's wife! 2 And you are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he who has done this deed might be taken away from among you. 3 For I indeed, as absent in body but present in spirit, have already judged (as though I were present) him who has so done this deed. 4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you are gathered together, along with my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, 5 deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.
6 Your glorying is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? 7 Therefore purge out the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, since you truly are unleavened. For indeed Christ, our Passover, was sacrificed for us. 8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote to you in my epistle not to keep company with sexually immoral people. 10 Yet I certainly did not mean with the sexually immoral people of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world. 11 But now I have written to you not to keep company with anyone named a brother, who is sexually immoral, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner - not even to eat with such a person.

12 For what have I to do with judging those also who are outside? Do you not judge those who are inside? 13 But those who are outside God judges. Therefore "put away from yourselves the evil person."

WORD STUDY - DO NOT KEEP COMPANY

1 Cor 5:9-13 NKJV
I wrote to you in my epistle not to keep company with sexually immoral people. 10 Yet I certainly did not mean with the sexually immoral people of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world. 11 But now I have written to you not to keep company with anyone named a brother, who is sexually immoral, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner - not even to eat with such a person.

12 For what have I to do with judging those also who are outside? Do you not judge those who are inside? 13 But those who are outside God judges. Therefore "put away from yourselves the evil person."

sunanamignumi

NT:4874 sunanamignumi (soon-an-am-ig'-noo-mee); from NT:4862 and a compound of NT:303 and NT:3396; to mix up together, i.e. (figurative) associate with:
KJV - (have, keep) company (with).

==========

PORN SEXUALLY IMMORAL - SELLING/ BUYING SEX

NT:4205
NT:4205 pornos (por'-nos); from pernemi (to sell; akin to the base of NT:4097); a (male) prostitute (as venal), i.e. (by analogy) a debauchee (libertine):
KJV - fornicator, whoremonger.

NT:4097
NT:4097 piprasko (pip-ras'-ko); a reduplicated and prolonged form of prao (prah'-o); (which occurs only as an alternate in certain tenses); contracted from perao (to traverse; from the base of NT:4008); to traffic (by travelling), i.e. dispose of as merchandise or into slavery (literally or figuratively):
KJV - sell.

==========

COVETOUS

NT:4123

NT:4123 pleonektes (pleh-on-ek'-tace); from NT:4119 and NT:2192; holding (desiring) more, i.e. eager for gain (avaricious, hence a defrauder):
KJV - covetous.

==========

EXTORTIONIST

NT:727
NT:727 harpax (har'-pax); from NT:726; rapacious:
KJV - extortion, ravening.

English: one who obtains property by oppression or abuse of authority

==========

IDOLATERS

NT:1496

NT:1496 eidololatres (i-do-lol-at'-race); from NT:1497 and the base of NT:3000; an image- servant or) worshipper (literally or figuratively):
KJV - idolater.

==========

REVILER

NT:3060

NT:3060 loidoros (loy'-dor-os); from loidos (mischief); abusive, i.e. a blackguard:
KJV - railer, reviler.

English: Railer, verbal brawler, abuser, opposer

==========

DRUNKARD

NT:3183

NT:3183 methusos (meth'-oo-sos); from NT:3184; tipsy, i.e. (as noun) a sot:
KJV - drunkard.

English: Drunkard and drug addict - perpetually under the influence of alcohol or drugs

========

Gal 5:9 AMP LEAVENS THE WHOLE CHURCH
A little leaven (a slight inclination to error, or a few false teachers) leavens the whole lump [it perverts the whole conception of faith or misleads the whole church].

==========

1 Cor 1:10 OF ONE MIND IN CHURCH JUDGMENT
Now I plead with you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

Matt 18:15-17 NKJV 2 OR MORE WITNESSES
"Moreover if your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he hears you, you have gained your brother. 16 But if he will not hear, take with you one or two more, that 'by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.' 17 And if he refuses to hear them, tell it to the church. But if he refuses even to hear the church, let him be to you like a heathen and a tax collector.

1 Cor 10:6-11 NKJV EXAMPLES FOR OUR LEARNING
Now these things became our examples, to the intent that we should not lust after evil things as they also lusted. 7 And do not become idolaters as were some of them. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play." 8 Nor let us commit sexual immorality, as some of them did, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell; 9 nor let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed by serpents; 10 nor complain, as some of them also complained, and were destroyed by the destroyer. 11 Now all these things happened to them as examples, and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages have come.

1 Tim 1:19-20 NKJV DELIVERED TO SATAN FOR A SEASON
...having faith and a good conscience, which some having rejected, concerning the faith have suffered shipwreck, 20 of whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander , whom I delivered to Satan that they may learn not to blaspheme.

1 Cor 6:1-6 NKJV APPOINTED TO JUDGE WITHIN THE CHURCH
Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the saints? 2 Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world will be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters? 3 Do you not know that we shall judge angels? How much more, things that pertain to this life? 4 If then you have judgments concerning things pertaining to this life, do you appoint those who are least esteemed by the church to judge? 5 I say this to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you, not even one, who will be able to judge between his brethren? 6 But brother goes to law against brother, and that before unbelievers!

Rev 2:14-16 NKJV HATE SEXUAL IMMORALITY have a few things against you, because you have there those who hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit sexual immorality. 15 Thus you also have those who hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.
NKJV

1 Tim 4:1-3 SEARING THE CONSCIENCE
Now the Spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons, 2 speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their own conscience seared with a hot iron.

Gal 1:6-9 NKJV DOOMED FOR DESTRUCTION
I marvel that you are turning away so soon from Him who called you in the grace of Christ, to a different gospel, 7 which is not another; but there are some who trouble you and want to pervert the gospel of Christ. 8 But even if we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel to you than what we have preached to you, let him be accursed. 9 As we have said before, so now I say again, if anyone preaches any other gospel to you than what you have received, let him be accursed.

Gal 6:1-5 NKJV THE MINISTRY TO RESTORE
Brethren, if a man is overtaken in any trespass, you who are spiritual restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness, considering yourself lest you also be tempted. 2 Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. 3 For if anyone thinks himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself. 4 But let each one examine his own work, and then he will have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another. 5 For each one shall bear his own load.

RESTORE:

katartizo
NT:2675 katartizo (kat-ar-tid'-zo); from NT:2596 and a derivative of NT:739; to complete thoroughly, i.e. repair (literally or figuratively) or adjust:
KJV - fit, frame, mend, (make) perfect (-ly join together), prepare, restore.

Rev 3:19-20
19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore be zealous and repent.
NKJV

Jude 20-23 NKJV PULL THEM OUT OF THE FIRE
But you, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, 21 keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. And on some have compassion, making a distinction; 23 but others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire, hating even the garment defiled by the flesh.

Jude 22-23 SNATCH THEM FROM THE FLAMES
22 Show mercy to those whose faith is wavering. 23 Rescue others by snatching them from the flames of judgment. There are still others to whom you need to show mercy, but be careful that you aren't contaminated by their sins.

RHEMA 10/19/98: A WORKMAN IS WORTHY OF HIS HIRE

EXPERIENCE: I woke up discouraged this morning, because of a business client's misunderstanding last week and my having to face her today. I was fighting feelings of wanting to quit. Last week she gave me a 30 hour project to do and a short deadline and told me, “Don't worry about a quote, because I already gave them one.” I assumed she meant that she padded it really well and would make good income off our work, which is our agreement.

I didn't know she had based her quote on another big job I had quoted a few months ago which was not at all like this one. This one took 3 times the time and cost 3 times as much. When I turned in the order on Friday, of which we all had worked very hard to get done by her deadline, she about fainted at the bill. When I came home and told Wayne that she had misquoted he told me that a workman is worthy of his hire.

QUICKENED GLANCE: Prior to the appointment and feeling like I wanted to quit serving this client, I glanced at an e-mail that said, “Don't quit!”

IMPRESSION: As I was working in the Bible program a number (2040) was impressed upon my heart.

> 2040 ergates {er-gat'-ace}
> ¤ from 2041; TDNT - 2:635,251; n m
> ¤ AV - labourer 10, workman 3, worker 3; 16
> ¤ 1) a workman, a labourer 1a) usually one who works for hire esp. an agricultural worker 2) one who does, a worker, perpetrator

Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses, Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: for the workman is worthy of his meat. (Math 10:9-10)

HILARIOUS CONFIRMATION: As I was typing the above in I made a typo and spelled Working as “workgin”.

As I right clicked on my mouse to bring up the speller and change it to working, there on the screen was the word, “workman”!!!!!!!!

CONCLUSION: I was suffering condemnation and the Lord did not want that. Our prices were always reasonable and on the low end of the local scale and we have been faithful to serve, gracious and dependable. We decided to meet her half way in covering the cost of mistake, which was our practice so that neither party has to carry the burden. I was not going to feel condemnation for this and released it to the Lord.

SURGERY FROM FEAR

RHEMA 8/25/98: SURGERY
PIX: I saw a father touching a daughter's forehead.

HEARD: I assure you. You'll be fine. The real God loves you. Refuting everything the enemy has said. Coming out of anesthesia. Jesus Christ, He listens. He heard. I was there. I'm being kind to you. Your greatest enemy, fear.

[A friend had his operation today and did fine.]

QUICKENED CALENDAR: Jeffy from Family Circus is down on his back with his sister leaning over him to see how he is doing. He raises his head and says, “Shhh! I've been knocked subconscious!!”

This is a parable of what the Lord is doing over His bride, taking her through surgery to remove fear and refuting what the enemy has spoken.

1 John 4:18-19 NKJV
There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear , because fear involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in love. 19 We love Him because He first loved us.

John 3:16-17 NKJV
For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. 17 For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.

Titus 3:4-7 NKJV
But when the kindness and the love of God our Savior toward man appeared, 5 not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit, 6 whom He poured out on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior, 7 that having been justified by His grace we should become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

UFOS AND DEMONS 8/24/98

YUCKY ENEMY EXPERIENCE: I had a demonic visitation of a UFO dream and trance. It was too yucky to say. But an encouraging thing occurred during it. As I saw the UFO creatures come near me, I started to bind them in Jesus Name over and over again. I saw a thick clear, force field, about 5 feet in front of me. They were not able to come through it.

HEARD [upon waking]: Astrophysics.

> I felt like I had picked this up on the Greyhound bus trip home yesterday. I had taken the bus home from the conference. It was imparted to me that the guy I sat next to was into UFOs, and I had rubbed shoulders with him. We were sitting 3 in the back seat and it was really tight quarters.
> 1 Tim 5:22 NKJV
> Do not lay hands on anyone hastily, nor share in other people's sins; keep yourself pure.
> I took authority over this as a religion. During the trance, I asked the creatures who was their top leader in authority. They said there were 2 of them. They told me their names, and in the trance I decided I did not want to remember them. UFO's are merely demonic delusions.

HEARD [during day]: You're beautiful to Me. Be not afraid.

Rom 8:35-39 NKJV
Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? 36 As it is written: "For Your sake we are killed all day long; We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter." 37 Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. 38 For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, 39 nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

ELECTRICITY AND FOOD STORAGE

RHEMA 8/10/98: Electricity and Food Storage

PIX: I saw a small freezer almost completely empty of food.

HEARD: Establish interpretation. Going to need it. Help. Stock pile. Rice.

I felt that the freezer had lost electricity and prayed on whether it was a good idea to stock pile some food. That day on errands my eyes were drawn and quickened to the following signs.

• On the way to the car: I had just replenished the Ibuprofen to stock in our car and it fell out.

• While at one of our business clients for a delivery: I handed them a $299.60 invoice, in which they had already made a check over the weekend, and they go to open the cash register, and it won't open. I was stunned, thinking about the fact it was a CHECK and not cash, and also the fact that the cash register would not even open. It was a register operating on electricity.

• QUICKENED GLANCES [while on deliveries this morning. I prayed, Lord bring on more confirmations please.} The moment I said please, my eyes look up and there is a sign right above saying, "STORAGE."

• QUICKENED SIGN: Goodwill Donation.

• QUICKENED SIGN: Store All.

[I was then thinking about the Mormon canning factory where they can food in 10 pound metal cans.]

• QUICKENED GLANCE: My eyes fell on the window at the paint store. There were pictures of gallon cans of paint. These are the same size as the 10 pound cans I was thinking about. I have driven by this store 5 times a week for 7 years and never noticed their signs before.

• QUICKENED GLANCE: CASH CONNECTION.

• QUICKENED GLANCE: Propane storage.

• QUICKENED SIGN: Mini Storage.

• QUICKENED SIGN: Plan ahead.

• QUICKENED SIGN: Case.

• QUICKENED BUSINESS SIGN: Alert Electric.

• QUICKENED GLANCE: A squirrel. [They store food for winter.]

Just as I am pondering the squirrel and the fact they store food for the winter, a huge truck is waiting for me to turn the corner, as I am just sitting there staring at the squirrel. The truck needs my lane, so he honks. But as I am thinking about all this, my eyes look directly near my car door, and bug out:

• QUICKENED GLANCE: There is a red fire hydrant with a sign posted over it. It says, "OUT." I was barely able to breathe I was so astonished at the thought of no water. At that moment, the truck honks at me.

• QUICKENED SIGN: Canning jars, 15¢.

• QUICKENED PRODUCTS [jumping out at me while at the store]: Briquettes. Masa. Salt. Rice.

RHEMA 9/8/98: THE BEST OF TIMES, THE WORST OF TIMES

HEARD: The best of times. The worst of times.

HEARD*: [after printing out Internet prices on food storage]: Electricity. What's the deal? Matches. Jig saw puzzle.*

QUICKENED WORD*: My son came in and said, we need to dial 10-10-220 for a better phone price.*

John 10:10
10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.
KJV

Gal 2:20
20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.
KJV

QUICKENED EXPERIENCE: As I was cleaning off the front grill to the electric heater grill in the bathroom, I HEARD: My daughter.

The moment I heard this, I got an electric shock through my pointer, prophetic finger. I was quite stunned by the whole thing and felt the experience was strong meat. The electric shock hurt. I asked Wayne and he said it was a 220 volt.

UPDATE COMMENT 10/7/98: after thinking about this, I feel that it was a parable of being SHOCKED by the ramifications of living without electricity. Even now a month later I have been groaning under the intercession and realization of people that I know who will lose their homes and jobs because of this. There are many businesses out there that cannot survive 3 months w/o electricity then bounce back afterwards and still stay in business. Many businesses will be closing. This does not include the reality that some banks will be closing.

WORD TO PONDER THE BEST AND WORST OF TIMES 9/8/98
The earth is going through transition and many pressures will arise. It will be a time of strong contrasts and shakings in the spirit. The enemy will try to steal, kill and destroy. And I ask for death to self, that the old man will die and the new man will live through Me. The difference is that after death, I bring multiplication and new life. I want to give you a new life of abundance and that is why I came to earth.

“The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.” (John 10:10 KJV)

“I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.” (Gal 2:20 KJV)

RHEMA 9/12/98: SERVANT'S DUTY TO STORE FOOD
I was thinking about storing food, even if it was for an intercession and never needed by ourselves.

AH: I turned with anointed hands to the scriptures in my Bible: Blessed is the man that is like a tree planted by the river. He shall not see when the heat comes, but his leaf shall be green and he will not be careful in the year of drought. Neither shall he cease from yielding fruit. Divine inspiration. Occupy till I come. Goods (with my pointer finger in the back of the concordance.) Do this. Servants duty.

RHEMA 9/27/98: Y2K BRINGS WITH IT DISTRACTING SPIRITS
Our church had a Y2K meeting last night. I felt I should go to see what their view on it was. Personally I felt that the Lord was using the Y2K media scare to prepare the world for tough times, and as a wake up call to turn to the Lord. I felt it was His mercy to do so. The meeting was intensely filled with the comments of people who were fearful and anxious.

Y2K COUNTDOWN EXPERIENCE:
I said, "Lord will You multiply the stuff if it is needed?" [I looked at the clock saying, "10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1." At the exact moment the clock turned to zero I heard Him say, "Yes!" The clock said:

QT: 2:22. (H. God is my light. G. Belonging to Alexandria.)
Alexandria is defined in a book of name meanings as defender of mankind.]

THE SNARE OF CARE, A WORD FROM THE LORD:
I spent the middle of the night binding anxiety, care, fear, and the inability to focus. After I attended the Y2K meeting last night I was barraged with these spirits, and I had no reason to struggle with them as I have had peace about food storage for whatever reason. I picked these sprits up at the meeting and lost 3 hours of sleep because of it. This morning I turned to the following 2 things on "Care", back to back.

AH: Be careful (3309) for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep (5432) your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. (Phil 4:6-7)

I had previously written in the margin, "Don't worry, just pray. Worry is a control matter. Give God control!"

> CAREFUL: 3309 merimnao {mer-im-nah'-o}
> ¤ from 3308; TDNT - 4:589,584; v
> ¤ AV - take thought 11, care 5, be careful 2, have care 1; 19
> ¤ 1) to be anxious 1a) to be troubled with cares 2) to care for, look out for (a thing) 2a) to seek to promote one's interests 2b) caring or providing for
> KEEP: 5432 phroureo {froo-reh'-o}
> ¤ from a compound of 4253 and 3708;; v
> ¤ AV - keep 3, keep with a garrison 1; 4
> ¤ 1) to guard, protect by a military guard, either to prevent hostile invasion, or to keep the inhabitants of a besieged city from flight 2) metaph. 2a) under the control of the Mosaic law, that he might not escape from its power 2b) to protect by guarding, to keep 2c) by watching and guarding to preserve one for the attainment of something

AH: Distraction in the Words to Ponder.

DISTRACTION

You have a divided heart. Many responsibilities pull and tug and demand your attention. Only one will do. And that is to follow Me.

You have yet to understand what it means to cast your care upon Me. My burden is light and easy when you are yoked with Me. For two oxen at a plough divide the load and neither feel the true weight of the burden. But ensnared by the tangled cares, you have forgotten your resting place; that place where you bring all that divides your time and energy back to Me - allowing Me My place by your side, helping divide your load and partnering with you to get the job done.

Bring your responsibilities back to Me and let us rearrange your priorities. Together we will divide the load and not your heart. Together, in one mind, one purpose we will get the job done and you will find joy and energy in the process.

"And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her." (Luke 10:41 & 42)

UPDATE CONFIRMATION: The following day I emptied some notes on the table. I picked one up and turned it over. In very, very tiny writing, my son had written on it, "DON'T WORRY." I was flabbergasted and took it in and asked him when he had written it. He said about 5 months ago. I stuck it on my computer monitor to remind me of the Lord's Word.

UPDATE CONFIRMATION: The next evening at home group, when one of our intercessors prayed, he began his prayer with the same verse: Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

RHEMA 10/1/98: FOOD FOR A COLD SEASON

HEARD: Three months.

DREAM REVELATION*: During the night I was dreaming that we have yet to know the Lord through His name Jehovah Jirah, which means God provides.*

QUICKENED TYPO: I just typed a typo on the above word "entered" as wnetered. When I clicked on it to spell check it, it came up "WINTERED!!!!!!"

HEARD: Mystery. Testimony. Goshen.

[The Lord took care of the Israelites in Goshen.]

HEARD: Some simple advice, stay simple.

PIX*: The side view of an eyeball with a long focus. It was like a cartoon eyeball that was stretched and elongated in the back side, as though it has a long, straight focus on something far away.*

HEARD: Solve this. Scientific puzzle. It's not working. It must have worked years ago. Buy grain.

HEARD*: Thank You Jesus for reading the sign of the first letter over the throne.*

PIX*: I saw the words, "In God, so much we trust. In God, so much we trust."*

Gen 41:48-49 NKJV
...and laid up the food in the cities; he laid up in every city the food of the fields which surrounded them. Joseph gathered very much grain, as the sand of the sea, until he stopped counting, for it was immeasurable.

RHEMA 7/28/98: PRAYER LIGHT OF MERCY UPON OUR LIPS

DREAM*: I was in a group of people and started interceding for the Lord's glory and healing to come. I gently placed my hands upon the backs of 4 different people sitting in their chairs. They started to feel the Lord's Presence.*

Pretty soon I was standing on one toe, with my leg up and out and my arms extended, balancing in a strange position. I was at deep peace and rest because I was leaning against an angel, and literally felt my leaning against his body and being held up. Everyone else thought I was balancing like that in mid air and wondered how I could do that.

Then there was a light bulb that came and it was floating in the air and bouncing off my lips as I spoke. They thought it was somehow attached to my lips but I kept telling them that it was the anointing and not me or the light bulb. Finally I took the light bulb and tried to put it there myself and it didn't float. "See? This is just a light bulb." I said. "When it bounces it is the anointing of the Lord!" I noticed that when the anointing came, my lips were like a magnet attracting the light bulb to it, and that made the bulb do light dancing movements upon them.

HEARD: Peace, I sent you.

> Hos 6:5-6 NKJV

RHEMA 7/16/98: GET YOUR EYES OFF SAUL BECAUSE HE IS DYING

HEARD: Power grid. Grid lock.

PIX: I saw 2 small wooden boxes with treasures inside. Inside there were stories of Jacob and men of the Bible. The second box had my own treasures inside.

HEARD: He has hidden Himself.

DREAM: I was sitting at a long table of prophetic leaders. (men) I leaned over to the fellow next to me who had announced he was from a certain Bible College before it had changed its name.

I said to him, "This is a Word from the Lord to you. Get your eyes off Saul, because Saul is dying. If you don't get your eyes off Saul, then you will become just exactly like him, because that is where your emotional focus is." He cried and repented.

HEARD: They had some old dying leaves among them.

WORD TO PONDER GET YOUR EYES OFF SAUL 7/16/98

I am bringing a change of leadership. For many years, My Presence has been held back in the denominations by a controlling spirit. I am raising up new leadership that will have My heart for the people and will not quench My Spirit. You stand upon a bridge, between the old and new way. It is a span of time like an interval inbetween. It has been a long war with powerful gridlocks in the spirit realm between the old and new.

The controlling spirit has been like a cancer that has spread throughout the churches. I will be the Master Surgeon and excise the old decay out of My people. Saul is dying. Get your eyes of Saul. If your emotional focus is on Saul, you will become just like him. Place your eyes and heart upon Me and where I am taking you. Look forward and do not look back.

"And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death: nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul: and the LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Israel." (1 Sam 15:35 KJV)

In 2004 the Lord launched me into an intercession over Jacob. Rhema on Jacob.

RHEMA 7/15/98 MIRACLE WHIP AND PEOPLE PROBLEMS

DREAM: I was in a car with a bunch of other people. The person driving was in the wrong lane, driving backwards at normal speed. I was quite uncomfortable with this. I finally said, “Here, I'll help!” So I climbed in the front seat and managed to turn it around, steer, do the clutch, and shift without disturbing anyone in the car. But I was peddling it with my legs like a bicycle. My legs were getting very tired.

We started to cross over a bridge with water on each side lapping the road. I became anxious because the road veered to the water's edge so I leaned in with my weight to make the jeep hug the road better. The jeep turned into a motorcycle, with all these people still with me.

A policeman stopped me and kept asking me if such 'n such was the license plate? I kept asking him, “What?” as I couldn't quite hear him, although I discerned what he was asking. Finally I said, “If you're asking me if that is my license plate, no, this is a borrowed cycle.” He then asked me if I was aware that a motorcycle had power. I realized that I had been peddling it like a bike and the fact it had power never occurred to me as I had never driven a motorcycle before. Everyone thought this quite amusing. I felt really silly. After thinking about it, I decided I still felt safer peddling, as it was slower!

HEARD: I gave you this story for others so that everyone would identify, knowing that it happens to everyone.

PIX: I saw a brand new large jar of Miracle Whip. Then I opened up the jar and peered inside. It was all scraped clean except for the last small teaspoon.

HEARD: People's problems. They all have them.

WORD TO PONDER THE ARM OF FLESH 7/15/98
I have called you to be My deliverer, but never through the arm of flesh. To try and rescue others in your own strength will only exhaust you and they shall not learn. Everyone has problems and I use everything in My children's lives for My good purpose. To deliver prematurely or to deliver at all, when I have a purpose is thwarting what I want them to learn. At the same time many of these need deliverance due to poor choices. I will send you to rescue and defend. But this will not be in human flesh or gifting. Rather it shall be through the power of My Spirit upon your life.

""I have surely seen the oppression of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their groaning and have come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send you to Egypt." ' 35 This Moses whom they rejected, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge?' is the one God sent to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the Angel who appeared to him in the bush. 36 He brought them out, after he had shown wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness forty years." (Acts 7:33-36 NKJV)

COMMENTS: Wayne mentioned there is a commercial that when the fellow makes this huge sandwich, then opens the jar of Miracle Whip, there is only one tiny small teaspoon left. So he scrapes out the teaspoon, and cuts off a tiny piece of the sandwich, and eats only the tiny bite with a huge blob of Miracle Whip on top!

The name Miracle Whip is an interesting pun. The recipe for mayonnaise is to whip or blend oil (anointing) and eggs (the Lord and us) together. I had written a Word to Ponder called blended, which came from a question the Lord once asked me, "Can you separate scrambled eggs?" He then said that neither could He & I be separated and I needed to get past my preconceived ideas about sharing Him as separate from myself. Back then I had the idea that I was to wait for this supernatural download and empty myself of all that was me. He was saying He wanted us blended as One, in a unique outreach to the people. So Miracle Whip is the same concept with supernatural (super & natural) ministry.

BLENDED 9/5/91
We are one. You and I. You will begin to recognize this as I confirm your ways. I pour Myself into you and blended, we reach out together.

Did you think I wanted puppets for sons? Yes, willing and movable vessels. But not wooden. It is YOU I desire, ALL of you. Have you ever thought I actually LIKE you? I gave you a personality as unique as your fingerprint. No one can match your mold. Together, we blend and touch others.

I do not want to strip you as you seek to do My will. As you empty yourself and wait, you forget I MADE you human. I could have made you an angel, but I made you a living person and send you to other living people. Together we will move. Words are lifeless without My Spirit. You speak it, I quicken it. I go before you and prepare hearts. We will work together.

"...For the Lord delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married." (Isaiah 62:4)

ANOINTED HANDS: Perceive ye not, neither do you understand? Hidden. Progressive stages. Suddenly she leaves her home town and begins her public career. Launched. Published abroad.

HEARD: Future. Rely on Me.

CONFIRMATION: A friend called today and mentioned that the Lord was helping her see that she is to remain hidden in her calling, but not hidden in going forth in her giftings. I said nothing to her about what I'd heard last night.

WORD TO PONDER SENT OR SPENT 6/26/98
When I place My calling upon My children's lives, I expect them to grow up in progressive stages. Promises of expansion occur a step at a time. Yes there are sudden launching events within the stages, but behind every sudden event is a lengthy preparation. Learning to wait upon Me in each stage of growth is vital. If My child moves upon My call, but not from My sending, he will be spent in the process. Burnout occurs because he has stretched beyond his ability to maintain what has begun. Whom I send, I equip and that is in perfect timing with many facets of a person's life and well being.

“I heard the voice of the Lord, saying: "Whom shall I send, and who will go for Us?" Then I said, "Here am I! Send me." (Isa 6:8 NKJV)

RHEMA 10/05/02 TO WAIT OR TO WALK

HEARD: Split decision. I need to be able to accept this. I'm not accustomed to it. Please help me. A lot of hassle. Flat broke. It seems too expensive. Signs following. Expensive. Right now.

Be patient. Walk according to the knowledge you've been given. Be free. You and Me.

QUICKENED: I was touched and quickened by His Presence.

WORD TO PONDER WALK FREELY IN ME 10/05/02

Precious one, I want you to be free. In regards to you and Me, know that I walk beside you, before you, behind you, within you and never leave your side. I understand your many questions and faltering for guidance. It is very good to have learned to wait upon Me for confirmation and clarity, for that overcomes presumption and independence. I AM pleased with your leaning upon Me.

However you also need to learn how to walk in confidence that I AM with you even when you do not see or hear with clarity. Learn to walk according to the knowledge you have been given. For I make sure that you know exactly what you need to know, when you need to know it. Let this free you on the inside to grow with confidence that I am directing your steps.

“My help comes from the LORD, Who made heaven and earth. He will not allow your foot to be moved; He who keeps you will not slumber.” (Ps 121:2-3 NKJV)

Given to Sandy Warner 6/11/98

Vision: I saw a wood stove and the prophets had called to add more wood to the fire. When I heard this, I didn't think it needed to be stoked any more than it already was. As I watched, the man doing so tried to open the door and put wood on with his bare hands. He was too close, and not equipped for the heat. Suddenly I saw a huge, angry horse's head (much bigger than the stove) appear behind the stove and blow over the fire. The horse was very angry with his ears back, his forehead furrowed and his eyes blazing. The fire roared like an inferno and the stove glowed red hot; embers and sparks were flying toward the man. He fell back with his feet near the stove and was trying to protect himself from the heat. I was so startled by this, I said Jesus Name over him and commanded his protection. Suddenly I saw the embers stop 2 inches away from his feet and rise up and over his body.

Right after seeing the vision I heard the Lord say, "It is time for Dad to discern what the prophets have been saying." Then I heard the Lord's voice state emphatically, "I never said that!" Suddenly I understood that the angry horse represented some of the prophets that had been prophesying with critical attitudes speaking words of judgment in an angry, critical manner. They were falsely representing the heart of the Lord.

Sandy Note: Fire represents many things and one of them is the fire of judgment. The Lord is calling for world-wide repentance of unholy lives and independence. However, He is pleading with His people, earnestly desiring them to return to Him. He is not wanting to judge, but out of His love for us, He will do what He has to do to bring us home. His heart is always that mercy triumphs over judgment. Even if some of the judgments are irrevocable, He desires to reduce them to the chastisements of spankings so that His mercy can cover our sins.

From: SW Author

I too have spent countless hours reading the prophetic on the Internet sites and came to the same conclusion... a deeply grieved spirit.

In addition to witnessing the prophetic pride emanating from such "Words" I have also deeply grieved over the anger behind so many "Words." I have received dreams from the Lord about these things and His heart is that mercy still triumphs over judgment. And even within judgment, it does not mean that He is angry with us. He can weep when He spanks. I believe that many prophesies are falsely representing His emotions.

What the prophetic people do not understand is that we have authority in our vote. And every time we speak anger and judgment we are casting our vote for such to occur. Those who are prophetic intercessors are standing in the gap, asking for forgiveness and weeping for the sins of a blind nation.

The easiest formula for humility is for a prophet to point a finger and suddenly realize that on the same hand 3 fingers are pointing back. If the Lord opens ones eyes to see a mirror reflecting the same "Words" back, then there is temperance in finger pointing. And then when one becomes convinced they must say something in the Name of the Lord, they do it with great fear and trembling ... knowing the God in Whom they speak.

"If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land. (2 Chronicles 7:14 NKJ)

Hi,

I could not have been moved more. You have touched the truth here, my friend. I have gone through an "ordeal" of some sorts, telling you ! But GOD always lifts one up and Romans 8 spoke to me in those dark hours between tears and pain..."who will bring judgment, who can charge you...nothing will separate me from His love..." Praise God for the Word where the real TRUTH lies..

From a friend.

Dear Sandy,

This touched me deeply as I, too, have felt these same things. Back in July I had an experience that will (hopefully) forever change me. I had been hearing many words of coming judgment and God's wrath, etc etc and I needed to hear from God about this. And I prayed and prayed - not in fear, but needing to know what HE was saying. And one day I came under a tremendous awareness of His presence but it was heavy. I could not stand up - I was so weak. He was weeping. I thought my heart would break - seeing Him Whom I love weeping so. And He began to share with me his heart on this matter ....and opened my eyes to see exactly what you mentioned about how in joyfully proclaiming this judgment they were coming into agreement with that. And, unfortunately, I, too , have seen a "pride" arise. God help us. I write to encourage you in what you shared - and to let you know that I am standing with you before the Lord on behalf of this land - seeking repentance and mercy.

Lovingly, Joanie

A friend forwarded me an article that you just wrote pertaining to a dream and praying for our nation. God gave me the above scriptures to read as an Intercessor. You don't know how many times I have read those scriptures to Him. I will share with you about this. Every time I cry out to God in pain for my nation, He will give me scriptures where God repents of His anger.

I also had a dream in which I saw a few people take vials and pour something into a pool of dark water. As they poured these vials I could see where the water began to get clear. God will always give me HOPE.

Awesome word you shared! Thank you!

I've been struck with the anger of the net-words, as well. I logged on originally to hear what God was saying to other people, and unfortunately, I've gotten more insight into the hearts of the prophets than God.

God bless you,

DEBBIE

Just wanted to let you know I really appreciate the spirit of your message. I too have been disturbed by the glib, almost vengeful way in which many in the church are calling for judgment. I understand they're speaking out of their own woundedness and immaturity, but sometimes I wonder, if those who are called to pray for mercy are instead calling down judgment, will God still be able to show mercy as He wants to? Sometimes I almost feel as if we need to 'undo' the wrong prayer that has gone forth - I feel like praying, "Dear Lord, please don't answer that misguided prayer!"

I have also been aware of a 'narrowing of the way', where I sense that God is asking me to take a closer look at my choices in entertainment, not because they are bad in and of themselves, but because He has something better for me to do with my time. (For example, playing a board game with my kids instead of playing a computer game alone, reading or praying instead of watching T.V.) Some things may be permissible, but not profitable. (Prophet-able?)

Thanks for sharing your insight. Blessings to you,

Stephanie

Your message really spoke to my heart and it has caused me to really examine how I am living and how I am giving the "words" to my church. thank you for your obedience to the Lord.

Dear Sandy,

Thank you for your posting. I could not have said it any better! I have been grieved over some of the judgment prophecies for so long, that I have them in a folder in my favorite places (it's huge) and don't know if I will EVER get to them! Again...thank you for writing...I suppose you were the one to do it!

Sandy,

The LORD weeps much through my eyes, also. HE speaks some cutting words through me but HE has never omitted saying, for us all to repent and to return unto HIM. Their are many that enjoy the cutting with the sword and banish it to remove heads of ministers. Many years ago I prayed, You want eyes that cry for Your people, LORD, use mine. At that time I did not know the term of intercession. Today your shared words helped to draw me to a new connection in the term prophetic intercessor. My prayer in the power name, JESUS is that we may we all come out of Rome bringing others with us, to the inner city of our King and LORD.

Dream given to Sandy Warner 2/14/98

DREAM: I was in the forest among many trees. Someone had purposely lit a tree on fire and it was so hot that it was glowing. The appearance of the tree was supernatural because the tree was more like a woodstove glowing hot, than a tree with flames that was actually being consumed. I knew the tree was too hot, dangerous, and could start a whole forest fire. I saw that someone had opened the air vent (like the one on our wood stove) in order to fan the flames even hotter. I used the wood stove poker and put the air vet down. This cooled the tree down somewhat and then suddenly many people appeared that had been waiting in line to go past this glowing tree. It had been too hot to pass by, and the banquet room they were in line for, was on the other side. Pulling the air vent down gave way for all these people to file past one by one into a large banquet room to dine at long tables.

A Revelation From Visions About The Heart of God - from Lori Wills

I would like to share with you what the Spirit has been speaking to me over the last several days. I believe the Lord has shown me that this word is not only for myself but needs to be shared.

Last week I had so much heaviness after reading a prophecy spoken on God's upcoming judgment. I really began to seek the Lord concerning this heaviness, these are the impressions I received.

First I was given a given a picture that led me to the story of Jonah. Next the Lord directed me to Rev. 2 with emphases on verse 4-5, "Nevertheless I have this against you, that you have left your first love. Remember therefore from where you have fallen; repent and do the first works, or else I will come to you quickly and remove your lamp stand from its place - unless you repent."

Twenty four hours later, the Lord directed me to another passage which I believe ties all three together. He took me again to Luke 15 and the story of the prodigal son. The words, "famine in the land" followed by the prodigal son knowing where his help could be found... "at his father's house", really leaped out at me and I knew the Spirit was trying to answer my question about the heaviness I was experiencing. As I continued reading the story of the prodigal, I received the impression that the emphasis was not on the prodigal but rather on the spirit of the elder brother when the prodigal came home.

Today, as I was again seeking the Lord on whether or not to share this with you, He brought all these things together for me, and what I feel the Spirit is saying is that in the midst of all the prophetic words that are going out about repentance and judgment, we are in danger of missing God's heart.

Jonah took the word to Ninevah, "REPENT, God's judgment is at hand"! They followed his advice and repented, only to be met by Jonah's personal judgment that they didn't deserve God's mercy. He had God's true word but he missed God's heart.

In Rev. 2, the church in Ephesus was "doing everything right" by outward appearance. But God said they had "left their first love", which I believe was their passion for Jesus... knowing His heart! Finally, the elder brother was offended and resentful to see his father's forgiveness extended to his prodigal sibling. He had, after all, been faithful in service while his brother was out "having fun". He served his father but he missed knowing his father's heart.

That is the caution I believe God is speaking. We need to use this time He has given to really become intimate with and know His heart completely, so that we can stand beside Him with "PURE" hearts and motives and welcome our brothers and sisters home when they realize "even the servants are well fed at my Father's house."

In God's love,

Lori Wills

Prophetic Experience Given to Auntie Shirley & Grandma Anna 3/7/94

Auntie Shirley's experience: Anna & I were on a mini vacation at the ocean. Our motel room was right on the beach. In the morning not long after we had read over the nights rhema and spent some time in the Word, I took my tea out on the balcony and sat to pray and watch the ocean. To my utter amazement I saw a large whale surface then go down then up and spout water. I called to Anna to come out and see it. We continued to watch this playful mammal for over an hour. The whale was so close to the shore I could see white spots on it. It would raise it's head out of the water a long way and open it's mouth very wide, then dive and we could see it's entire length and then the tail would appear. The whale then turned and swam away as we had our suitcases in our hands ready to leave.

Several times I have felt the Lord telling me he would give me a sign; so the experience with the whale was almost more than I could grasp. This was such a precious thing. He never ceases to amaze me and how much He loves us and wants to communicate that love to us and how much He confirms that we are hearing from Him.

Excerpt of Grandma Anna's experience: After watching it cavort I suddenly knew the Lord was giving us a sign. I spoke the words, "This generation seeks after a sign but no sign will be given it but Jonah and the whale." As I said it both of us were quickened with waves of goose bumps. Later I said, "We will know if it really is a sign to us, if when we are ready to leave, that whale swims out to sea! At 11:00 AM with suitcases in our hands, we watched as the whale gave one more flip with his tail and swam quickly out to sea! The cleaning lady said they had never seen an adult whale that close before nor open its mouth.

Luke 11:29 "And as the crowds were increasing, He began to say, "This generation is a wicked generation; it seeks for a sign and yet no sign shall be given to it but the sign of Jonah."

In reading the below study, consider a unique and possible application:
Jonah means "dove."
The Holy Spirit's sign is a dove, which means comforter or advocate.
One of the meanings of comforter is: "one who pleads another's cause with one, an intercessor."

Luke 11:29 And as the crowds were increasing, He began to say, "This generation is a wicked generation; it seeks for a sign (4592) and yet no sign shall be given to it but the sign of Jonah (2495). NAS

Note from Grandma Anna: Perhaps we could extend Sandy's above Word Study to another application. This could be the Lord speaking to us prophetic intercessors and asking: "What kind of intercessors are we? Are our hearts knit with His in mercy in regards to His not wanting any to perish? Are our hearts thrilled that our messages have the potential to change behavior, and that God may even repent of the prophesied judgment? Do we allow Him to be God, whether or not He carries through with it? Do we run to Him afterwards, stand in the gap and beg Him not to bring to pass that which was prophesied? Or are we sitting under a gourd pouting because we are more concerned over our own spiritual reputation when He does the exact opposite of what He told one to speak to the people???

A Message from Sandy Warner 2/22/98

This year, 1999, we are standing at the crossroads of history. Judgment fires are ready to be loosed upon the world, and nothing short of repentance and intercession will cool them. Some judgments are reversible, some are not, some can be lessened. They hang in the balance and we do not yet know the outcome.

However, to me, the parable of Jonah is plain. He was a prophet sent by God to speak judgment and repentance. Yet Jonah was mad at God when they repented and God turned the judgment! Jonah felt that God had made him look like a fool. As I was reading a Word to Ponder I wrote in the mid 80's called, Jonah, I was thinking about the tension between mercy and judgment and how they relate. I suddenly wondered, "What will to happen to the angry prophet if his particular prophesy does not come to pass?"

I think the distinction here is the heart of the prophet. Many are prophesying judgment, but some with angry and pointing fingers, and others with an urgent and pleading call to repentance and intercession. There is a difference in the tone, in the heart of what is spoken and why. I am reminded of the scripture where James and John wanted to call fire down from heaven: "And when His disciples James and John saw this, they said, "Lord, do You want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them, just as Elijah did?" But He turned and rebuked them, and said, "You do not know what manner of spirit you are of. "For the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives but to save them." (Luke 9: 54 - 56)

I think that John the Beloved must have had an instant conversion at the very moment. The Lord opened his heart to truly understand the heart of the Father. As I was pondering this, I suddenly realized that if anyone was worthy to receive the vision of the book of Revelations, and then to write such, it would have been John.

Taken from the book, Words to Ponder by Sandy Warner

Jonah

Doest thou well to be angry with God? What is more important; the lost one's heart or your pride? Go. Send My Word. You shall witness transformation. In the process perhaps you will be touched and learn the heart of servanthood and humility.

"Jonah rose up to flee... from the presence of the Lord." (Jonah 1:3)

Still Small Voice heard via Sandy Warner 3/23/96

HEARD: Jonah. Sign all over the world. They repent. Eyes opened. Around the world. News flash.

Journal excerpts from Sandy Warner 2/12/98

Last night I heard a strange riddle. I think it has to do with the sign of Jonah:

HEARD: Are they going to be there for anybody? Signs. Posts. Signposts. Although He expresses mercy in judgment. He doesn't want to have to judge.

Then today my husband Wayne started telling me how the prophets today need to consider Jonah. He had no idea that I had been thinking about Jonah the last several days. Neither did he know that last night I asked the question, "What happens to the angry prophets if our nation repents?" I felt that the Lord was speaking through Wayne.

Later as I was pondering the fact that mercy triumphs over judgment, I glanced at today's newspaper. The headlines said, "Clinton acquitted." As I peered at it, I suddenly saw a vision of a computer mouse highlighting the word, "Acquitted" in bold. I knew this was a confirmation that the Lord was saying no matter what we deserve, His heart is mercy triumphs over judgment.

Today as we went out for breakfast I saw another newspaper headline: It said, "Acquittal assured." It was quickened to me as a 2nd confirmation.

Wayne brought out an interesting fact today about his dream, David Come Home (posted in the file Standing in the Gap). He said that when David came home, the angels did not rejoice that he had been wounded or that he had come home. In fact, they were deeply sad and in mourning. It was not until David yielded to the fact that God had brought him home that they turned and worshipped the Lord. This too reveals the heart of God. He does not want to have to wound.

Grandma Anna Note: As I pondered the president's acquittal, the Lord opened my eyes to see more clearly. "I place particular ones in government for My own purposes, and even more so as you see the day approaching. Lean not unto your own understanding, but know that Clinton's acquittal will hasten the day that satan is marched to the pit."

[The following is an excerpt from Steve's report as relating to what Paul Cain said]

A note from Steve Shultz, Moderator of Elijah List:

November 7, 1998

I just returned from the Pastor's luncheon with Jack Deere and Paul Cain in Portland, OR today. I've tried to accurately portray what he has said, not as quotes, but with the essence of his message. I hope this helps.

Steve Shultz, THE ELIJAH LIST

There is a seed of the Lord/Christianity in Clinton and we should continue to extend mercy to and pray for him. The reason we need to extend mercy, quite simply is that we NEED mercy and we won't get it (inferred from what he is saying) from the Lord, if we don't extend it. There are pastors who are guilty of what Clinton has done and more, but they have not yet been exposed. Those who show no mercy will not get mercy.

From Bob Jones Shepherd's Rod 99

"The judgments prophesied for this country will now become apparent in the coming year. Some of these judgments are set and will not be changed. Fortunately, there remains a small opportunity for divinely granted repentance that can change their severity. Many have spurned mercy and grace for the last time and will experience the Lord's chastening hand. Still others have an opportunity to appeal to the mercy and grace of God and repent for disobedience and unbelief and obtain mercy even in the midst of judgment. This applies not only to the world but also to those in the church that have harbored sin in their lives that the Lord has been attempting to deal with for years."

"The people of God must especially deal with unresolved anger and bitterness over the failures of the past. If we are harboring anger or bitterness for any reason, we must take that to the cross and ask for the grace to be released from it so our discernment will be clear and unimpeded. If we desire the Lord's Mercy we must also be willing to extend Mercy and forgiveness. We will live this year by the fruit of our own lips."

Vision given to Pastor Dale 2/24/99

cschurch@chatlink.com

VISION: As I was contemplating why certain people heard the Lord speak in a way that made Him appear to be legalistic, I saw many streams flowing from what I took to be the throne of God (I could not actually see the source). As I watched these streams, I could see different people in different streams.

I recognized that each stream had a basic spiritual tone to it and represented a particular aspect of the nature of God. I saw streams of grace, mercy, truth, law, wisdom, kindness, etc. There were more streams than I could keep track of.

I could see where two separate streams would flow together for a season and then split back off into separate streams again. I saw this with the stream of mercy and the stream of grace. There were places where mercy and grace flowed together and made a stream of mercy and grace. I also saw this with mercy and truth. They came together and separated in many places.

Truth seemed to mingle with more of the other streams than did any other. Each time a stream would merge with another there was an increase in depth and flow. I saw people shift streams. They did so when another stream merged with the stream they were in. It was most often the stream of truth that became a pathway into another stream. Truth would often take them to an entirely different stream where they began to take on the attributes of that particular new stream.

I noticed there were many more people in the stream of law than in any other stream. Some of the people in this stream I recognized. I knew them to have powerful gifts but also knew their gifts often manifested in harsh and strict ways. I now understood that this was because of the stream that they were in! As I saw people shift streams, I continued to marvel at how many people chose to stay in the stream of the law. This stream was very shallow and had almost no movement to it at all. Those in the stream of the law seemed to be going nowhere. Yet there were places where the other streams merged with the law. At each of these places there was an opportunity for the people in the stream of the law to get out. But they seemed to be comfortable in the calm orderly flow of the law. The other streams had more current and were often turbulent where they met and departed with the stream of the law.

[end of vision]

From Pastor Dale 2/27/99

cschurch@chatlink.com

I have personally experienced a great grieving in my soul over the "spirit" that the majority of the church seems to be in. It is not just prophets, but pastors and church leaders of all kinds who continue in the spirit of the law and not in the spirit of grace.

Even though the church knows theologically that Jesus Christ is the end of the law for righteousness, many continue to view God, the world, and the church through Old Testament eyes. Much of leadership views God and His people through the eyes of Elijah (or some other Old Testament prophet or priest), and not through the eyes of the greatest Prophet, Priest and King who has ever lived -- the mediator of a New Covenant -- Jesus Christ. The Word of God clearly records that the law came through Moses but grace and truth through Jesus Christ.

Nowhere in the New Covenant are we told to emulate a single Old Testament figure. Yes we are to learn from them, but not to emulate them. It is a great failure when we look like any prophet, priest, or king other than the Lord Jesus Christ. Even the spirit of Elijah that is to be released in the last days is to be released to make a way to Christ. Scriptures says that the apostles, prophets, evangelist, pastors, and teachers are sent to bring the whole body into the full measure and stature of Jesus Christ (Eph 4:13). In the New Testament we are told to put on the Lord Jesus Christ, (Rom 13:14) not some Old Testament prophet’s personality.

Judgment belongs to the law! We are taught repeatedly throughout the New Testament NOT to judge anyone outside of ourselves. How I long to see New Covenant Christianity, where the saints look like Jesus and not Elijah!

Jesus really did die on a cross and in so doing crucified the law, so that we might now live under the power of grace through His resurrection from the dead. Pentecost really did happen! There really were 3000 souls saved that day, in contrast to the 3000 souls that died when Moses brought the law down from Sinai. The letter really does kill and the Spirit really does give life. Oh that we would live in the Spirit and be done with the works of the law once and for all!

ANGRY PROPHETS 6/11/98

When I send you as an Ambassador, representing Me and My Word, remember the lesson of Moses. Surrounded by the waters of strife, he failed to represent Me as the nursing Father who patiently carries My children in My arms. Wearied by the people's strife, instead of commanding the rock to yield water, he struck his rod twice and spoke angry condemning words to My people. Moses responded to their strife with his own strife. To whom much is given, much is required. He was not allowed to enter into the fullness of My promise. Remember his lesson well, for what you sow from authority you shall also reap in accountability. When I send you, you no longer represent yourself. You represent Me. Remember that when you are tempted.

"And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye believed Me not to sanctify Me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them." (Number 20:12)

Theme of this file: Transition

Note from Sandy: We are in a historical hour, standing on the bridge of time, suspended in an interval between the old and the new. It is a place of hanging in the balance, a place of transition. History is in the making and how we respond to this transition will determine our destiny. The Lord is giving each one of us a choice!

[1] TRANSITION

By Sandy Warner (June 98)

Recently I had the hair brained idea I was going to add a mini waterfall to our mini outdoor fish pond. I somehow accomplished the feat without removing or killing the fish. They definitely knew something was up, because amidst all my commotion they were hiding as far from me as possible. After it was done, I had a beautiful mini waterfall with gorgeous, cascading, sludgy-muddy water. Have you ever tried to clean the sludge out of a fish pond without removing the fish? I did and I learned something in the process: God is in the same dilemma, and He has been using the same process to clean our ponds…Only He's a lot smarter than I was…

At first, so as to not disturb the fish, we submerged a little pump that quietly and slowly pumped the water out of their safe haven. Slowly the water level went down, and so did the fish. (I do not know if they noticed their pleasant surroundings were shrinking, they never told me.) As I peered into the murky water, I was surprised that the color pumping out was a clear green - I thought it would be dirtier than that. Slowly as the water disappeared, I could see the bottom of the pond. It was gross. How was I going to get that junk out without removing the fish? It was then that a glorious revelation occurred.

Being a professional dishwasher (what Mom isn't?) I started thinking about cleaning a bottle that is full of soap suds. The only way to clean the soap out is to pour clean water in. All the soap comes to the surface, pours out the top and if you wait long enough, the soapy water is replaced by the clean water. When the soap is gone, the bottle is clean! Marvelous! What would I do without these sudden blasts of Holy Spirit genius?

Unlike myself, my husband had thought ahead and filled 3 large buckets with water, so as to evaporate the chlorine to once again help the fish make the easiest possible transition into a clean environment. I looked at those buckets (which hadn't any time for evaporation) and grabbed the first one and heaved it in the pond with the pump still running. While my husband was running for cover, I realized I'd struck pay dirt. You should have seen the dark, forest green sludge that came out of the pump hose!!! That was truly inspiring, so I heaved the other 2 buckets in, then turned on the garden hose and let it pour in. That little ol' pump was working over time, and the poor fish… well we won't talk about the fish. At least they survived.

Later I started thinking about heaving that water in and how the Lord sometimes dumps a large portion of His Holy Spirit upon us. It stirs all kinds of things to the surface, and all the while He is pumping and pouring, pumping and pouring. I recently heard the Lord say to me, "It's going to be a wild ride." Just think if you were that fish and suddenly this huge gust of water blasts your cozy little haven and not only are you swirling and twirling around wondering what hit you, but scum also comes from everywhere at once, and you are wondering if you'll ever be able to see clearly again.

Likewise, God decided He wasn't going to take us fish out of the pond-world, rather, He was going to take the pond-world out of us. He slowly, with careful intent pumped our Holy Spirit filled swimming havens and they shrunk in size. Just about the time when some of us fish were flopping and we didn't think there was any water left in the world, in comes the Holy Spirit renewal.

But it doesn't end there. It has only begun. Our pond mentality is limited to our own lives, and at the most, to the life of our church. But God's pond is the world. Think about that a moment. It's not just our muck He's separating, it's the world's. And there's a whole lot of sludge out there. Things are going to get really stirred up before we start seeing clearly again. Therein comes the word, "transition."

Transition is an unsettling time when we desperately crave roots… a settled place of any kind… something peaceful and safe and reliable and fixed and not moving...when we crave something steady and trust-able and established where we have our feet on dry land and don't have motion sickness. Transition is like riding the Hammer at the fair, where the loose change falls out of our pockets with every loop. Anything not tied down falls away. Transition is a moving, unstable time. Transition shakes foundations.

God uses transition to compel people into making decisions. If ever there was a time to make haste and return to intimate roots with the Lord, it is now before the wild ride. Now is the time for each of us to seriously question our values, our foundations, our priorities. The Lord is clearly giving us final warnings that we still have a choice before this occurs as to how deeply this transition will affect our personal lives. If we have nothing in the world, and the world has nothing in us, His grace will sustain us and we will actually ride out whatever comes on top of the Holy Spirit wave.

If we have any roots in the world, they will be suddenly torn away and we will be left deeply shattered wondering what hit us. If we are not living holy lives, pleasing to Him, we will be caught in the muck with the rest of the world, and be suffering painful losses. No one will escape the effects of world wide losses. The manner in which the losses affect us will depend totally upon our values and our priorities.

If we can rejoice that God is actually cleaning up a very great mess, and He is actually going somewhere amongst the flurried storm of fish sludge, then we will take the wild Holy Spirit ride and go with His flow. Even in the midst of great sludge flurries, He is still God and is still in control over what touches our personal lives. He will keep us in and through it and we will rise triumphant on the other side… swimming in a nice clean pond, with glorious crystal clear water.

Heard: Transition church.

[3] The Corner

A Word to Ponder From the book, Words to Ponder, by Sandy Warner

Whether you have noticed or not, through the years you have been approaching a corner. Your ability to plan has become more and more limited, as your vision for the future unfolds. The reason why, is that in turning a corner, you are not able to see around the bend. The closer you have come to this bend, the shorter your ability to envision plans to come. Do not fret over this temporary inability. I give all good things in the perfect time and season. Understand that this corner is a change in direction, a change in focus. This is a major corner and many things need to culminate to bring you to this place. Trust Me to lead you when the time comes. In the mean time, do not fear your future even though in times past you have been able to see farther ahead.

"For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end." (Jeremiah 29:11)

[4] Insights into His Corner from Sandy Warner

For over 10 years, we have received rhema having to do with turning a great prophetical corner. For lack of space and extra printing cost, I decided not to print the corner rhema. Let it suffice to say that the Lord said this was a world-wide corner, a new beginning would occur after the corner, and the greatest show on earth would occur after turning the corner. Personally I have seen pictures of myself in the process of turning this corner for several years. I finally completed the turn as of February this year. I believe this is the "turn in the Spirit" Rick speaks of in the following:

[5] Quotes from Rick Joyner

Excerpt March Tape 1998

"There's another level that the body of Christ seems to be going to now. There's an intensity that's just been building for some years, but it seems like we've shifted gears again… shifting is a key word. There seems to be some kind of shift in the Spirit this year. With the joy and everything else, there's also an increased seriousness…There seems to be some kind of turn in the Spirit. One of things we believe the prophetic ministry is given to the body for, is to help us to see those turns coming up so that the church is prepared for them and can make them instead of missing… we feel like there's a major change in the Spirit, there's a turn of some type…I feel like in some ways we're getting near the end of our time of preparation. Some of the things that have been prophesied for thousands of years now really are about to come upon the world. But you know these are going to be the best of times for the body of Christ… this will be our finest hour if we are indeed heading into the times of trouble that do mark the end…we need to all be as close to the Lord as we can… Let's become addicted to the Presence of the Lord so that we just can't bear to go to bed at night without having an encounter with Him, where we have to have Him the first thing when we wake up in the morning, where we have to have Him, where we feel compelled that we have to have Him."

[6] Transition - Fear of Transformation

Author unknown

[Note from Sandy Warner: This was written by a student at LCC in the late 70's. I do not know if the writer is a Christian, but the article is so excellent I wanted to share it with you.]

Sometimes I feel that my life is a series of trapeze swings. I'm either hanging on to a trapeze bar swinging along or, for a few moments in my life, I'm hurling across space in between trapeze bars.

Most of the time, I spend my life hanging on for dear life to my trapeze-bar-of-the-moment. It carries me along at a certain steady rate, and I have the feeling that I'm in control of my life. I know most of the right questions and even some of the right answers. But once in a while, as I'm merrily (or not-so-merrily) swinging along, I look out ahead of me into the distance, and what do I see? I see another trapeze bar swinging toward me. It's empty, and I know, in that place in me that knows, that this new trapeze bar has my name on it. It is my next step, my growth, my aliveness coming to get me. In my heart-of-hearts I know that for me to grow, I must release my grip on this present, well known bar to move to the next one.

Each time it happens to me, I hope (no, I pray) that I won't have to grab the new one. But in my knowing place I know that I must totally release my grasp on my old bar, and for some moment in time I must hurtle across space before I can grab onto the new bar. Each time I am afraid that I will miss, that I will be crushed on unseen rocks in the bottomless chasm between the bars. But I do it anyway. Perhaps this is the essence of what the mystics call the faith experience. No guarantees, no net, no insurance policy, but you do it anyway because somehow, to keep hanging on to that old bar is no longer on the list of alternatives. And so for an eternity that can last a microsecond or a thousand lifetimes, I soar across the dark void of "the past is gone the future is not yet here." It's called transition. I have come to believe that is the only place that real change occurs. I mean real change, not the pseudo-change that only lasts until the next time my old buttons get punched.

I have noticed, that in our culture, this transition zone is looked upon as a "no-thing" a no-place between places. Sure, the old trapeze-bar was real, and that new one coming towards me, I hope that's real too. But the void in between? That's just a scary, confusing, disorienting "nowhere" that must be gotten through as fast and as unconsciously as possible. What a waste! I have a sneaking suspicion that the transition zone is the only real thing, and the bars are illusions we dream up to avoid the void, where the real change, the real growth occurs for us. Whether or not my hunch is true, it remains that the transition zones in our lives are incredibly rich places. They should be honored, even savored. Yes, with all the pain and fear and feelings of being out-of-control that can (but not necessarily) accompany transitions, they are still the most alive, most growth-filled, passionate, expansive moments of our lives.

And so, transformation of fear may have nothing to do with making fear go away, but rather with giving ourselves permission to "hang-out" in the transition between trapeze bars. Transforming our need to grab that new bar, any bar, is allowing ourselves to dwell in the only place where change really happens. It can be terrifying. It can also be enlightening, in the true sense of the word. Hurling through the void, we just may learn how to fly.

[7] Hanging in the Balance

A Word to Ponder from the book, Words to Ponder, by Sandy Warner

You have much concern over impending judgments, for the velocity of these judgments hang in the balance and are slippery as eels. Yes band together with other believers and stand in the gap against impending judgments. For the greater the stand against unrighteousness and the greater the commitment to Me, the lesser the judgments will be.

However, I have an announcement to make. What the enemy plotted to take advantage of this time, has been completely averted. What he planned for God's people was ultimate destruction, and that plan is completely defeated. It's over, he's defeated! The enemy has no authority to destroy My people. Already there stands a great wall against him, formed by those willing vessels who are sold out to Me. They have pushed his territory back and taken that which he sought to obliterate.

The earth must shake and tremble and go through it's impending storm. Yet I am now drawing near to hover over My people in abiding Presence. Like those in the wilderness, protected with the cloud by day and the fire by night, I draw near and protect My own. This is the time to draw near to Me and commit to My call. Pursue righteousness and you will not be caught in the storm. You will rise above it and walk through it untouched. At that point, you will no longer be hanging in the balance.

" And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night: He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people." (Exodus 13:21 & 22)

[8] Transition into Birth

Article by Shirley

The birthing process was the most rewarding experience of my 27 years as a registered nurse. I spent eighteen years of my nursing career working in labor and delivery. I never ceased to marvel each time a new babe was brought into the world. Some times the transition period was so short the babies arrived before the physician. I would be faced with bringing the baby into the world. I even was privileged to deliver one of my grandsons.

In describing the birth process, transition is the shortest phase of labor but probably the most painful, emotional and physically exhausting. The reason is the birth muscles are transitioning from one job to another. This can be very confusing as a double message is being sent to the body, by the double duty of the muscles. Strong forces are going on at once. There is a great urgency to push. Before one contraction ends another one begins. This phase of intense pressure is the time of the most pain. It is very hard to keep your muscles relaxed. When the tolerance level becomes unbearable, that seems to be when the highest hurdle is leaped.

In our walk with the Lord we go through a period of transition. — A time of change from the carnal to the spiritual man. As with the normal birthing process, for some it is a much longer and more stressful time; a change we are not always prepared for. In the delivery room many times I experienced those who screamed and fought, while others quietly worked with the contractions to bring forth birth. Likewise, in spiritual transition, some may freely give themselves to the Lord, yielding all control over the circumstances. Others may fight the process which makes the circumstances even more unpleasant.

When we allow the Spirit to work in and through us our transition can be bearable. We must relax and allow the Holy Spirit to complete the work. This is a change like we have never experienced before. We may reach a point in time when we feel that we have reached the end of ourselves. But as with the normal process of birth we are given the strength to complete the task. Many times the husband can be of great help and assistance. In our spiritual transition the Lord is that help and Assistant.

NKJ Ephesians 4:24 and that you put on the new man which was created according to God, in true righteousness and holiness. KJV Hebrews 6:1 Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; KJV Philippians 1:6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.

[9] WE HAVE A FUTURE AND A HOPE

Prophesy from Bob Jones

(Given at Cross Roads, Hamilton, Ontario March 8, 1998) The following are excerpts from the Internet via Wayne and Evelyn MacKay, International Christian Centre and Harvest Time Cafe located in Toronto, Ontario Canada (solution@arcos.org).

[Note from Sandy Warner: This prophesy gives an overall understanding of where the body of Christ has been and where we are going. It is lengthy but worth the time if you want to understand the Lord's plans. I believe this Word is very important and feel that we are privileged to have access to it. A Quick Overall Glimpse from 1950's Through the 2030's

"And so the fifties, the 19 and 50's - What goes around comes back around, you see. So the anointing of the 50's is coming back your way. So the 50's reveal My power that's coming back your way but I'll not give My power to any that have not shed the things that displease Me. And unresolved anger is one of the things that greatly displeases Me and that's what I've been doing in thee this day - To get the unresolved anger out of you that My glory might rest upon you so that no root of bitterness or anything might defile many, if I anointed thee with My glory. So the fifties revealed My power. And it came in a mighty way.

And the sixties revealed My Holy Spirit and the baptism that then began to fall and produce the mighty songs that were lifted up to Me.

And the seventies began to reveal the great teachers. And this is where many of you I began to bring forth to Me. In the seventies My teachers began to bring My Word, for My Kingdom is based upon My Word and My Spirit. These are the two pillars that I started back in the seventies.

The eighties revealed the Spirit of God and My prophets.

The nineties revealed My government. And now My government is in place and in a time of great stress I shall bring forth My next step. Toronto was a step. Brownsville was another step.

My next step will be My glory. And signs like you have never seen before. And ever since you have, you'll see, become golden among thee. You'll smell the fragrance of heaven. You'll taste the goodness of God. You'll feel the Presence of God and angels in awesome ways. You'll hear the songs of heaven and the praise. And you'll see the angels and His working mightily bringing your five senses, sanctifying them so that He can show you Himself and all of your soul your way. For what I have just described you see is your soul. So yes, He's been dealing in your spirit and He has for a while. But now He is after the rest of you; the soul, that He might use it to bring a new day. So yes, get ready for God's glory.

And the 2010's will bring, you see, the faith of God. To speak creative miracles, to change the storms, to shut up the heavens or loose up the heavens.

And the 2020's, you see, that worketh by faith shall bring a new day. And it shall be an army of love and a maturity and a brand new way. For it shall be called the family of God joined together in a unity. The most powerful force that the world has ever seen and shall ever see in all her days.

And still time will go on for you have time for your children and your grandchildren. So don't get in any hurry, for I'm not. So I'm calling thee to begin to represent Me. Be My ambassadors, be My goodwill ambassadors to all the nations upon the earth, you see.

1990's - A Glimpse of Nine Years of Judgment within the Church

'89 means the end of what God was doing in the 80's and a beginning of 9 years of literally judging His church. So you are the remnant seed because you came out of 9 years of judgment. You here tonight are the survivors. You are the remnant seed and the Lord is getting ready to sow again the remnant. So you are literally in the time of death and the remnant seed, you sow the remnant seed with travail and weeping.

For yes, My assuredly and My security is there in My Word, you see, and I put you through 9 years so that I might uproot some things out of thee, and break thee until you please Me. For, you see, brokenness without understanding brings hopelessness. Brokenness with understanding brings hopefulness. I've been breaking you and destroying your wrong nature, you see, to bring you into My family so that I might be the Father over thee. For I do say, get ready for a new canopy. It's in Isaiah 4:4, 5 and 6, you see, for I'm getting ready to purge the church with fire and to destroy the filthiness of Zion in an awesome way so that My glory might come to stay. And that My peace might rest in each one of thee.

So this is the purpose that I have been doing in these last days. These 9 years in your failure, I have destroyed your human strength and weakened you as I did My servant Jacob, you see, so that I might change your nature, and that you might be willing to wait for Me as I waited for My Father in My day. And so you have failed so much that you are coming to your own end and you are willing to wait for Me to tell you what to do and where to go and what to say. So that you would fail no longer but would be a success in Me.

For these 9 years I worked in thee was to root out the things that displeased Me. So I sent you into the desert after awaking thee and you carried all of your baggage with you. So the first couple of years you began to throw some of it away. The next couple of years you threw a little more away. You kept on going until all you had left, you see, was a couple of water jugs and your idols of gold, your ideals of what you wanted done in Me. And the last couple of years I have just been working beautifully in thee. Your golden ideals and idols lay out there in the desert, you see, and all you've got left is a water bottle and it less than a third full so I had you shedding and when you thought you were going to die out there you decided to pray and try it My way and that's where your prayer is at today. In your desperation you began to pray - not until you had to that is, not until you couldn't figure it out. So now I've called you to think it out in this last days. And now I will give you My mind and show you My way and you'll not fail any more. For I'm not in My church failures in any way.

I began to plow you as an ox does and I began to test you. And for the last few years, you see, have been plowing, for the ox is My beatitudes. And any movement that I will do will go through My beatitudes. Let My beatitudes be your attitudes. You want Me to move then let My attitudes dwell in thee. For, you see, I gave you a hunger and a thirst for Me and I kept guiding you by My Holy Spirit even both night and day in your barrenness. And so yes, I've been plowing you to bring you to a place called meekness. For the meek, they shall inherit. For, you see, meekness is teachable and those who are teachable, My Holy Spirit makes disciples out of them and begins to bring My divine nature into them.

And so you are My disciple, you see, so long as you are teachable and allow Me to show you My way. In My beatitudes in thee, I called you to be peacemakers in these last days. For they shall be called My sons and daughters. They shall be close to Me but I'm going to tell you what a peacemaker is, it's one that can confront the issues and can bring a righteous judgment, you see. And the first one that I wanted you to confront is the enemy between your eyes, that you would confront those things that does keep you from embracing Me. Only when you are peaceful within your soul can you rest so that My rest might come into thee and bring you My way so if you are not able to rest and are continually striving, then turn around and sit down and begin to love Me. And I'll bring you into that place of peace within that you might make peace with yourself. For that is what My peacemakers first do, you see, is get rid of all that garbage that the fallen nature has put on thee so that you can come forth and be that son and daughter for Me. So yes, let My beatitudes be your attitude in Me but I do say that now the plowing is coming to an end.

A Glimpse Past 1998

In Isaiah 28:24 it says that I don't plow all the time, you see. For I plowed thee for 9 years. I broke up your hard hearted nature, the clods, and I have smoothed My fields and now I am going to cast My Seeds into them - My Sperm Seed words will now come to My body and it will begin to grow harvest in different ways. Even as there are different things that I sow to bring forth into harvest, will I sow these things in thee. Different in each one of thee for I'm bringing forth the harvest of grain in people that My body might consume this grain that I'm bringing forth. So that the body can eat your lives up and become a healthy body of Christ.

And in My Word, it says that I will show you the wisdom you need for this. So yes, I'm sowing you back the remnant seed. The drought is over now in the church and it will rain and My God Sperm Seed I placed in your heart will begin to grow. By the falls of the season you will begin to come forth in an awesome harvest. And you'll begin to see that the grain is out there and it will be where My body can eat your life up and be healthy enough to go into the world and take the lands for Me.

And now He is after harvest and everyone of you is called to harvest and harvest begins with prayer. Job 22:30, He will even deliver the one for whom you intercede who is not innocent. He will be delivered through the cleanness of your hands. Job 42:7, 8. When you begin to pray and first you should begin in your own family, pray for those who are not innocent and who do not have clean hands, those that aren't saved, those that are giving you the worst words and the worst headache.

You see what Job did here. After the Lord had spoke the previous words to Job the Lord said to Eliphaz the Temanite, 'My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends. For you have not spoken of Me the things that are right as My servant Job has. Now therefore take seven bulls and seven rams and go to My servant Job and offer up for yourself a burnt offering and My servant Job will pray for you for I will accept his prayer that I deal not with them after your folly in that you have not spoken of Me what was right as My servant Job has.' So these men, did as the Lord commanded them and the Lord accepted Job's prayer and the Lord turned the captivity of Job and restored his fortune.

I'm trying to show you something here. It's time your fortune be restored to you. And the Lord turned the captivity of Job and restored his fortune, then he prayed for his friends also and the Lord gave Job twice as much as He had before.

I'm in My son's growth, in bringing him forth to inherit, you see, for even now men and women in this body in the time of exchange of great finances I'm raising him up to possess and give millions into My evangelism and into My church. I'm going to let them spoil Egypt again. Not only Egypt but the world system of marketing. Even now, I'm moving upon the minds of men and women and giving them this knowledge. And in their heart for Me, will be to see My Word exported over all the earth in these last days.

1998, The Pivotal Year - A Glimpse into the Coming World Judgments

For yes, you have now come to '98, you see, the end of My judgment and a new beginning in this last day…For I will send the rains upon thee in an awesome way and it will rain and rain upon your brain and I will heal the lame, the maimed, the cripple, the halt, and the blind that got that way in My church, in My body for I do say to thee, it is a brand new day.

I'm telling you, you are coming to the end of My church judgment and when it ends in My church it will begin in the world. And I want your light shining bright for they will be heading your way in the great night. For it is time that you rise and shine, you see. And let My glory rest upon thee. For great darkness over all the earth will be, but not in My church for it will dwell in My glory.

And like the Ark of old will it be when Noah was lifted up high and close to Me. When I closed the door in that time so that none might find Me in that time of judgment as I rained My justice upon them in that day. But this time you are My Arks and the doors of your hearts will not be closed, you see. And all those who dwell in darkness in My time of judgment can flee to thee, and find refuge in Me. And there will be no dark in My Arks. But they shall dwell continually in the noon day sun and brightly will they shine. Those who will bring forth at this time to accomplish My divine purpose and harvest, you see.

For I have a vision of youth that is awesome and mighty. And youth is My purpose but I need others to stand behind them, you see. Ones that have been wounded and healed. Ones that have suffered persecution and has had to bow to the will of Mine. But now I bring forth My will in a mighty way, so that the harvest might come and ever be - for I say this to you, yes, the trials of the earth shall increase in an awesome way. And the things of Revelation they shall be increasing and increasing until they come to that day. But what you don't understand is that the book of Revelation, you see, is a love letter to My bride in preparing her to ever be joined to Me. And you are My bride. Your soul is so beautiful to Me. And I call out to thee for you to hear My voice and to respond to My wooing and My cooing. Even this day for I come to those whose ears are open that they might hear what I have to say.

For you see, judgments will be inconsistent in these last days. They will fall on one town and not another you see. And those who hear from Me will be vacationing there, rejoicing with their children. Wrapped in the cocoon of My anointing as Noah and their children were in their day.

So I waited 6000 years for thee. Do you think that I am going to let the devil take you out in any way? For I've already had victory over him, you see. And the victory I give to thee. For do you know who you are seated with in heavenly places this day? Do you know that you have a Friend in high places — that will be there through eternity?

And I seek friends that will come and talk with Me. That was the purpose you were created for, you see. So that we could be a family. For My Daddy is a family man, you see. And has great jealousy for His family — those who grew up and have come to acknowledge Him as their Daddy, and no longer stray into the darkness but stay in His light of His abode.

A Glimpse Into the Coming Shepherds

The ‘80’s revealed My prophets, you see, and the ‘90’s revealed My government and My justice even improving upon this day. But now My heart cries in another way. For I will now raise up My shepherds and My shepherds will love the sheep. My shepherds, you see, will die for the sheep, they will stand between the enemy and My body. For now I work on bringing forth My body. I have brought forth My head. My leadership I have already got upon the earth and My purpose now, you see, is for My leadership to feed My body. For My body is like a baby and My leadership is like a grown head upon a babies body. So everything I do now in My leadership will be to feed My body of Christ so that they may grow up and possess the gates of the enemy, for have I not said continually in My Word that their children would inherit the earth? And the earth in that day, when My justice comes in a mighty way will bless them, for I will only destroy the world, you see, and its corruption, but the earth will remain and I will bless it. And your children will inherit it. So you must learn My Word and believe it, you see, for have I not said, “That once I was young but now I am old, but I have never seen the righteous forsaken or His seed begging for bread.”

So I call you to a new intimacy with Me a new covenant with Me that you quit doing all those things that you are doing and do only that which you see with Me. So I’ve called you to open the eyes of your heart, and the ears of your understanding, and your discernment and your love for Me. So that our love can be upon the earth again in these last days. For, you see, My shepherds will be shepherds of love they will not harm the sheep for they have failed so much, they have learned to love. They have been broken so they know what brokenness is. And My sheep will know Me. Each one will know Me and My voice in this last day.

So the good shepherd is coming into your life, you see. To make you lay down and be still in green pastures. And make your soul be still and know that He is God. And yes, My good shepherds that are coming out of the back woods, out of the slums, out of many places, they will put to rest the troubled waters in the church. They will still the waters in the church, they will have the authority to speak against those that lie - the gossips, the slanderers, those that trouble the waters of the church, they will put them silent and they will bring the still waters. So that My sheep, My body may drink deep of Me.

A Glimpse in the Coming Power

For I say this day, that I call forth deep unto deep. And I shall bring thee by the new way that you know not. So get ready for My power to see in an awesome new way, and it will be called forth by prophecy, get ready for the creative Word of God to come forth through My prophets. This is according to scripture you see, Isaiah 48:6, 7 is what it says. For I am still a creative God and when I give My Word to My children, and to My prophets and they proclaim it upon the earth it comes to pass, you see.

For three years ago a great famine in the south west of the United States did reign over all the land. And I spoke to a prophet and I told him to command, proclaim rain. To not pray for it, you see, but to proclaim it and to command the angels to bring rain. And three times on a Sunday this was done, you see. I doubt that many understood in any way but they know this that within three days, it rained 7 inches in places that hadn't seen rain for 3 years.

That's proclaiming, you see, that's agreeing with God and speaking His Words that He wants proclaimed. So yes intercede, seek God — but once you hear, proclaim, command, so when you drive your streets in your cities pray over them and wait for My Word to come to thee. So that you might speak into the heart of that city and bring forth life. And so this has happened often lately, but it shall happen even more now that the times have become even more severe, you see. So if you don't like the tornado coming your way, loose the angels and command it to split. And this has happened before, you see, so it's time that My church rise up and become My body - My body of Christ that takes the authority that I've given, you see. For I didn't make you pussy cats, I made you lions. I made you to take the prey in these last days. I made you to take those who are your enemies to fall away to thee when I give you the Words.

I'm getting you ready for My fire and the baptism of fire which is a Spirit of holiness, which is the fruit of the Spirit maturing you up. For you do not cry out for revival but you cry for more and more every day for My mercy and My grace and My light. For I have come to this area to stay. I didn't come for My glory to pass away and fade as it has in past days. I've come for My glory to abide upon thee continually and to rest upon your children in eternity.

For it is the last days but it is not immediately. You'll see the 2000's, the 2010's, 2020's, 2030's. So make long range plans. Yep. For I tell you, you're not going to fly away right away. But you're coming and going to raise up the body of Christ that will inherit, and that My glory will abide upon thee. And sickness, sin and poverty will not be able to stand in your presence, you see. And the gods that men have worshipped will fall down and bow down to thee including doctors and lawyers and psychologists and philosophers, they shall come to acknowledge Me in thee.

A Glimpse into the Next Move

And so the next move of the Spirit you'll see will be the eagle. And My Rhema Words falling in thee. Get ready for vision like you have never seen before. Get ready for My picture. For I'm getting ready to give My vision to My body. So that they no longer perish but each and every one of you have a picture, a vision for your life and a purpose in Christ.

All of you join neatly together for when I crush My grain to feed My body, you can't tell one from another. I'm going to mix you that well so that you'll just have to say, "We're just a part of the body of Christ and we are literally ministry without a face and the face you'll see, is the face of Christ."

Yes, now is My seasons and My eagle, you see, is in Mark 16. For I've been going throughout all the earth, preparing My people to go and obey My commandment. For as I have been bringing you into that meekness so that I could sow you, then so will I send you as I did My Son. So send I you into the world that you will begin to fulfill My great commission and go into all the nations, into all the ethnic groups of which are right here in this city. Start there, and that you might begin to make disciples of all of the ethnic groups. For I will tell you this, My Son didn't die on the cross needlessly for the whole world to glorify death and sin in the last days. I am going to have the mightiest church you have ever seen and over a billion souls will come in one great wave. And all who will can come and find both bread and wine. So I am going to begin to give the revelation, especially the revelation of My true common union communion. For My body had been fragmented, broken apart and now I will begin to bring it back together. For I will begin to pour My wine upon My broken fragmented body and begin to bring it again into one body, one lump.

And I say this to you, it won't be grape juice I pour upon it, because grape juice has no spirit in it. It will be the best of My wine with real spirit in it, a wedding wine, a unity wine. And I shall join My body together by My Spirit. And My blood shall flow through their veins.

For this is the inheritance of the saints, you see, to not be defeated in the last day. I'm not coming for a bride that has been pinched by the devil on the backside, and bruised and defeated and crying out to Me. I won't come until that bride does say, "The Holy Spirit and I are ready." And then it will be no surprise for My body for they will be the ones who will send for Me and it will be because they are victorious in every way. And put on all of My nature and so it will only be a surprise to the world, you see, but it won't be a surprise to My body.

I'm not going to cut anything off in the last days. For it grows darker and so shall it grow lighter in thee. And My light shall shine greater and farther in thee. For I am calling forth My body of Christ to walk upon the earth where the very earth itself does tremble at their footsteps. And to where the heathen does tremble at their Words because they will have power over life and death, over storm and fire and all the things of nature, and by their Word, by their Word, that they speak, as they mature in Me, will there be life or death as they do say, 'rain or drought'. That's what will happen as they learn to literally loose My prayers in a brand new way.

But now after you I say, a new anointing of My Rhema, and binding and loosing shall shortly be on thee and you shall begin to loose the yoke of bondage of religion that has held you back in these last days. For a religious spirit is legalism, opinion, debate, judgment and criticism. And none of that is of Me for I am of love and they are of works. So these things I do say. You don't have any right to any of these, you have only a right to love and to dwell in My Presence both night and day. So yes, a door I open to thee, so walk in it and live your life for Me and possess everything that your foot does walk on in these last days."

[10] Prophesy - His Still Small Voice

Given to Grandma Anna on 4/5/89

DREAM: The Lord came to me in a vision as a young man, very, very excited, happy and vibrant, saying, "I'm blowing the trumpet little one!" I literally heard His voice as though He were in the room with me. Then later I heard His still small voice say the following:

Hear ye, Hear ye, Soon it comes.

Off comes the cover. Dazzling. Amazing.

Hear ye, Hear ye. Off it comes.

Will you not know it? Will you not see it?

A ha! Will you not hear it?

What hath God wrought? What is this?

My son. My son. Hear ye him.

My son. My son. Hear ye him.

Yes, I shall have a generation.

I shall have a seed.

Hear ye, Hear ye, Off it comes.

No more cover over My glory.

Hear ye. Hear ye. My son.

Yea, it's My generation. Yea, it's My seed.

To him give you heed.

For he shall speak wondrous things.

He shall do wondrous things.

He is he. He is Me. He is them.

A city on a hill cannot be hid.

Jerusalem, Jerusalem, My Bride.

Glorified. Glorified.

It's done. It's done. My victory is won.

Hear ye. Hear ye. The victory's won.

Hear ye, Hear ye, The victory is won.

What do you think? What do you see?

A people. A generation.

My people. My generation. All of Me.

The victory is won. Your will is done.

Finished. Completed.

The enemy at My feet. Nothing to impede.

Soon I’m coming to your side.

Wait little one. Soon. It’s here.

Be of good, good cheer.

Make merry and be glad. No longer be sad.

This is the day.

This is the hour.

Awake! Awake!

Put on your beautiful garments.

The sword is furbished.

It is also ready.

A two edged sword in the hands of My saints.

This is the hour. This is the gain.

The victory is coming now. Come Lord Jesus.

Come with Your power. No more delay.

This is the hour. Blow the trumpet in Zion, Zion.

Sound the alarm in My Holy Mountain.

Sound the trumpet in Zion, Zion. Sound the alarm.

The snow. It’s covered My mountain.

A ha! It melts. Down come the rushing torrents.

The streams thereof shall make glad.

Rejoice O ye hills. This is the mountain where I desire to dwell. The name of that city shall be “My God is there.”

Surely God is in thee. A city on a hill cannot be hid.

A faithful scribe writing my words.

Surely I do nothing before I reveal it to My prophets.

A new thing do I declare. A new thing on this earth.

A people born. A holy nation.

A holy nation do I declare.

All changed. All made new.

Death come to life. Begin anew.

A new thing on the earth.

Off comes the lid. Nothing is hid.

It's My glory. Been there all along.

But you couldn't see it. Now sing a new song.

The earth is full of My glory.

Bright shining after rain.

The former and latter rain. Altogether.

Yea Joseph shall have two portions.

My servant among them.

Turning the heart of the children to the fathers.

A victorious day. Nothing. No, nothing shall stand in its way. Satan taken to the pit by a mighty stand. Satan taken to the pit when My glory fills the land.

A people strong and mighty. Running as a troop.

My army. My army. My very own group.

I have done a work under the hill.

Its brightness and glory. No longer hid.

[11] Dream from Cherie - June 15, 1995

Cherie - Cornerstone Church

A group of us (believers) were on an island, We were attempting to establish something for the Lord. In the midst of our efforts we were divinely warned of a rising opposition and we were to prepare ourselves. We didn't get any weapons, such as guns or arrows or anything like that, we found our defense in standing together. Things seemed to be going well, then a thick fog fell over the entire land mass around us. We couldn't see each other but we were linked by kindred spirits. When one of us fell into doubt or worry, whomever was closest would pull that person in closer and speak encouragement and prophetic truth (like the angel spoke to Gideon).

As we were standing in anticipation of the opposition, the beach became visible and I could see a huge wave approaching. It was like a tsunami, I called to the others to stand firm, that our strength together could withstand it's force. I looked again and saw there were three consecutive waves of the same size. They were at equal distance from each other. The waves began to hit the beach, there was tremendous destruction, most of us were able to hold on where we were, some were swept away, others were weakened, but held on. As the second wave was about to hit I saw a change in the pattern of waves. The first three had been spaced apart enough that we had time to check in with each other and make quick assessments of damage. However, following the first three waves came a set of waves, close together and equal in size to the previous three single waves.

It was then I saw the fog lift from around the entire land mass. I could see a mobile home type building hidden behind some trees, near the beach. I knew it was the headquarters of Satan and his team. They had been camped among us all along and we'd never noticed their camp, or their workers. I was momentarily disheartened to think that we had been deceived, we didn't have a clue they had been here since the beginning of this endeavor. Now it seemed too late to campaign against them. How foolish we had been. Then the Lord drew my attention back to the coming set of waves. I could see the spirit in charge of this campaign riding above the waves mocking us and calling on more power to destroy us. I sent sent word through the kindred spirit for us not to be distracted, or to divide our attention toward the enemies camp. That would be taken care of, I knew God had exposed it for our benefit, not our demise.

As the set of three waves hit one after another, there was great destruction and some of us were separated from our kindred spirit. One by one we reestablished communication. There was a lot of damage, all that we had built was destroyed. Some of the people were swept away, most of them remained. We saw the evil one who was in charge, we grabbed hold of him. When we touched him, his strength began to dissipate. We took him to the beach, he was weak and unable to resist us. Some wanted to kill him, but I stopped them. I had all who were able to help, carry him near the surf. We laid him down, I told him, and the others, that we were to let the surf, which he had empowered to destroy us, carry him away to his own destruction. We walked away and left him lying on the sand, knowing he was unable to escape.

Later, as the evening came, we had all been working to salvage what we could of the structures and grounds of our settlement. Our kindred spirit was once again strong, but it had changed. We were all doing individual tasks and yet, there was a sense of singlemindedness, one to another. Our hearts weren't connected in the same way as they were during the battle. I saw a young woman, sitting alone, outside the courtyard of our colony. I made my way over to her. As I came close to her, I could see she was reading her Bible but she was not happy, not sad, rather numb. As I came closer, I came to the back corner of a building and as I moved forward the dimness of the area got lighter and a dark figure, I knew to be a demon, immediately flew away. I realized there was a danger in any of our people spending time alone, isolated from the rest. It was imperative that we stay united, not only in our kindred spirit, but in our practical duties. Some were not strong enough to stand alone, and as I had seen the enemies' camp emerge from the fog in our midst during battle, truly none of us were strong enough to stand alone.

[12] SHAKE, RATTLE, AND ROLL WITH THE PUNCHES

Article By Sandy Warner 12/98

1998 was a shaking year for me. For over ten years, the Lord had said that the body of Christ was approaching a corner. With certainty I knew God is a good God and therefore I was looking forward to it with great faith. I must admit when I turned that corner in February of 1998, I didn't like what I saw. In fact, it was only the beginning of a great shaking in my foundations as He began to unravel the mysteries of what I had heard in past rhema.

Do you remember the Springfield Thurston High School shooting in May 98? My son was 5 feet away from the nearest bullet, and Teresa, the most seriously wounded fell at his feet. Shocking, yes. Shaking, yes. I learned a lot about preparation during those days. I discovered that if you aren't prepared for shaking times, it is very hard to find your peace AFTER the fact. I understood this because I was prepared, and yet I still struggled. I kept wondering, "How can anyone go through a shaking without a deep and abiding trust in God?" If I struggled and I was prepared, what about others who aren't?

I was so grateful I had heard the Lord BEFORE if happened - that He was protecting my son. One week prior to the shooting, I had even heard the Lord speak about a murderer. I took it all in stride, thinking the Lord was speaking in riddled or metaphoric speech, and not literally... that is until AFTERWARDS. When I went back and read what He had said, I understood He was trying to prepare me and let me know He was very much answering my constant prayers for His protection over my son. In my past writings, I have used the cliché that when people get wounded they become "gun shy" and flinch when someone comes near their wound. I never thought of that having a literal meaning. As it turned out, my faith became stronger for the experience, and so did my son's. But that doesn't mean I didn't struggle at first to rise above the shaking. I had to settle it with His peace and really believe that He will CONTINUE to stay on active duty! So much for May 1998.

The next thing that happened is I am minding my own business when suddenly I saw a picture vision of our empty freezer. I heard the Lord say, "Just to make the matter of interpretation clear." Then He tells me that I need to stock pile some staple food. Now, unless you've read the story in my book about building the ark for winter… (there's a picture beside it of a fellow with his head stuck in the ground like an ostrich - that's me) … then you wouldn't know this: I am the LAST person to jump on the band wagon about such issues. Years ago, I had heard the Lord tell me to build an ark for winter and after much struggle with interpretation and stock piling, I gave it all away and chose to build a spiritual ark. Do it all again? NO WAY. I guess that is why the Lord had to tell me point blank.

Wake Up Call

I started to read about Y2K. In a nutshell, the world is predicting a computer problem that will potentially shut down the electrical power grid on January 1, 2000. The electrical power grid sustains the basics for our survival and some say it will bring us to a crippling halt. Among the pile of statistics I read was that it takes 3 days for our grocery stores to empty without being re-stocked.

Regardless of what degree Y2K affects us, I believe that the world's Y2K alarm is the mercy of the Lord to alert everyone for coming dark times. The world certainly is reacting. Most of the Internet shipping of bulk staple foods are backlogged for months and yet Y2K is another year away.

In obedience to hearing about the staple food, I completed the task and landed right back in the same 2 arks I had built in the early 80's. The first being a literal one. After prayer and hearing no specifics on how much for how many, since the Lord had spoken to me about Noah's ark in the past, I prepared for 8 people (Noah's family of eight - I Pet 3:20) for 1 winter. In the natural I realized this was a simple amount of preparation for what could come. Logically I knew there was no way I could prepare for every contingency. When it comes down to the bottom line - what am I going to trust in; a large stock pile of food and then worry about having to defend it? Or am I going to trust that God takes what little we have and multiply it for all who come to our door? I am really glad that I chose the spiritual ark all those years ago. That's the only reservoir that will last.

During the following months, I began to hear tidbits from the Lord about things like the financial collapse of Wall Street, families moving in with families due to being homeless, and 7 years of Pharaoh's grain at great cost. (Genesis 47:19) He also brought Words from the established prophets like Bob Jones, Rick Joyner, Bobby Conner and Paul Cain. They all agreed judgment is coming. My understanding was that Y2K is only the beginning, and no matter what Y2K yields the devil will take advantage of it. If Y2K is all we would have to suffer, I would choose it - even the worst of what it could offer - than what is to come by way of judgments and enemy destruction.

Reluctantly I swallowed the fact that the USA is coming under judgment and the world is coming to a very dark time. So dark, that nothing in history compares to it. That is not exactly good news. I had to do some heavy scrambling to catch up after turning this corner. Suddenly everything I had heard, as well as trusted rhema of others, had to be re-assimilated (interpreted) via a different set of lenses. The adjustment wasn't in the hearing and seeing, but in the timing and the understanding of how it all fits.

Yes, God is a good God and some absolute awesome times are coming for those who are prepared and trust in Him. The book of Acts is nothing compared to the glory of what we will actually live and experience. The glory of God will descend upon earth and we are going to take back our lives, our earth, the air waves, the atmosphere, and defeat the devil. But not without a fight. And the earth is going to take the brunt of that fight.

Everything that can be shaken will be shaken. The scripture says, "See that you do not refuse Him who speaks. For if they did not escape who refused Him who spoke on earth, much more shall we not escape if we turn away from Him who speaks from heaven, whose voice then shook the earth; but now He has promised, saying, "Yet once more I shake not only the earth, but also heaven." Now this, "Yet once more," indicates the removal of those things that are being shaken, as of things that are made, that the things which cannot be shaken may remain. Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace, by which we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear. For our God is a consuming fire. (NKJV Hebrews 12: 25-29) The bottom line of the shaking to come is so that only the "unshakable" will remain. In my estimation that means that everything temporal gets touched so that only the eternal will remain. I see no in between.

Many of us alive today are actually going to live to see everything in the Bible fulfilled. That being the case, we have a whole lot of livin' to do between now and then. Bob Jones says we have at least until 2030, and I believe him. But that is still a very short time to raise up an entire harvest. And a third or more of the world may be obliterated before then, depending upon how one reads prophesy. I don't know how it all fits together, and most of us only have bits and pieces that the Lord has told us. It was only after my shaking that I began to re-think those things He has shared with me.

I have many promises, and they are all wonderful. But the one that has been ringing in my ears is a Word: "Gentlemen, we shall rebuild." That has been in my heart as a Word from the Lord for many years, and given the rebuilding of His tabernacle (Acts 15:16) it certainly fit nicely into my safe pre-conceived package. But I now screen it through different lenses. What if it literally means, "Gentlemen, we shall rebuild." I am now considering that a possibility. Another promise the Lord has continually spoken to me in many different settings, is the term "new beginnings." He is going to do a new thing. What if that is also AFTER a shaking, and along with the rebuilding? It's a definite possibility.

So therein is my "awakening" for the year of 1998 and I now filter everything through a different set of lenses. However, I didn't come through the year unscathed. After 3 pages, I now introduce the reason for this article: beware of critters lurking in dark places, eating your food and making little messes…

There's Mice in the House

It all began when I attended a Y2K meeting. Whether I agreed with the world's prediction or not, I had already been obedient to gather food for a winter, and so I attended the meeting to see what others were doing. I came home full of anxiety and lost 3 hours of sleep that night. Terrific.

This emotional response didn't make sense to me, because I was already prepared. I had to re-search my heart. I didn't have the money or the space to stock pile for 7 years, which is what I believed to be the need. Even if I did, it wouldn't last because I would not turn people away. I had obeyed the phrase, "prepare an ark for winter." My trust just couldn't abide in a literal ark, it would never float. The anxiety I was feeling was a spirit. That night I had such distracting spirits I could not even concentrate on the Lord in prayer. I bound anxiety, care, fear, and the inability to focus in Jesus Name.

When I turned in my Bible, it fell open to the verse: Be careful (Strong's 3309) for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep (Strong's 5432) your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. (Phil 4:6-7 KJ) I had previously written in the margin, "Don't worry, just pray. Worry is a control matter. Give God control!" The word careful in the Greek means to take thought, be anxious, be troubled with care, and it has its root in a word meaning to divide. I was experiencing a divided heart and mind. The Greek meaning of those words careful and keep is that when we give the anxious care to God, He keeps our hearts and guards them from hostile invasion! I decided the Lord had my attention, He didn't want me anxious. Next I grabbed my Words to Ponder devotional book next to my bed. This is what I turned to!

Word to Ponder - Distraction

"You have a divided heart. Many responsibilities pull and tug and demand your attention. Only one will do. And that is to follow Me.

You have yet to understand what it means to cast your care upon Me. My burden is light and easy when you are yoked with Me. For two oxen at a plough divide the load and neither feel the true weight of the burden. But ensnared by the tangled cares, you have forgotten your resting place; that place where you bring all that divides your time and energy back to Me — allowing Me My place by your side, helping divide your load and partnering with you to get the job done.

Bring your responsibilities back to Me and let us rearrange your priorities. Together we will divide the load and not your heart. Together, in one mind, one purpose we will get the job done and you will find joy and energy in the process.

"And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her." (Luke 10:41 & 42 KJ)" (From Words to Ponder by Sandy Warner)

The next day I was making labels for a notebook and emptied the few I had left on the table. With the previous sleepless night still burning on my heart, and the Lord's admonition to stop worrying, I picked one up and turned it over. In very, very tiny writing, my son had written on it, "DON'T WORRY." I was flabbergasted and took it in and asked him when he had written it. He said about 5 months ago. I stuck it on my computer monitor to remind me of the Lord's Word. Then later as I glanced up at it, I had the revelation that the location was now my COMPUTER. Interesting.

The following night we attended home group and when a friend prayed for our car problems, he began his prayer with the same verse: Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God! Am I getting the point?

Bob Jones Word

Following that evening I read an e-mail that contained a Bob Jones vision. The following is a copy as written by Keith Davis: "Another vision was given to Bob that emphasized the importance of Joshua 1:9. In this vision Bob observed a small evil spirit whose mannerisms were similar to that of a child. In an inconsiderate manner this spirit frolicked across Bob's toes. When Bob chastised the evil spirit he saw that its name was "Anxiety". Anxiety then declared that he was going to get his father to deal with Bob.

As this smaller spirit returned, Bob saw that his gigantic father came with him. This spirit was seemingly 50 feet tall and was named "Panic". Panic had just returned from killing 1,000 people that day and threatened to do the same to Bob if he chastised "anxiety" again. Bob knew that if the Lord did not intervene, panic was capable of making good on his promise. Panic then retrieved his cousin named "Thief" and together they intended to destroy Bob and steal his goods.

When fear and panic seemed that they were going to overwhelm him, Bob heard the Holy Spirit say, "Why don't you call the law on these thieves". Bob then went to the telephone and instead of dialing 9-1-1, he dialed 1-0-1-9— Luke 10:19. "Behold, I have given you authority to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall injure you. (NAS) Not only did the law shackle anxiety, panic, and the thief, the law also required a seven fold return of all that had been stolen.

Anxiety and panic have gripped the world and even many in the church. One of the signs of the last days is that men's hearts will fail them for fear. These evil spirits rob the people of God of their peace and joy and impart fear, the greatest enemy of our faith. The Lord is commanding us to be strong and of good courage for He is imparting the reality of Luke 10:19. Because of the great victory of the cross, we need not fear nor be dismayed for the Lord has delegated to us His authority over all the power of the enemy.

The Lord is going to anoint His people with courage and valor to demonstrate to the world His dominion over fear and panic and all the power of the evil one. A courageous generation with resolute determination and anointing shall arise to uproot the enemies of the Faith that have kept us from the Promises of God. Once the Church takes it rightful position in the "promised land" the Glory of God will shine upon her as a testimony to the whole Earth of God's salvation and deliverance.

God be gracious to us and bless us, {and} cause His face to shine upon us - Selah. That Thy way may be known on the earth, Thy salvation among all nations. God blesses us, that all the ends of the earth may fear Him. (NAS) Psalms 67:1-2,7" (End Bob Jones Word)

After reading Bob's vision, I finally got the point. This was no little bitty demon I was fighting. We're talking a big hunk of a dude. I got the picture. It's time to put on the battle fatigues under the wedding dress. So I really take this thing seriously and determine to rise above it and put it behind me. Every thought captive to the obedience of Christ. OK Lord I've got the picture. Three weeks I battle this, trying to find my peace. Nuclear fall out? Living in Goshen, as promised by God. Famine? Behind me satan, my God shall supply. Pestilence? Under the blood of Jesus. Natural disasters? Sealed by God.

Did anyone notice I titled this section, "There's mice in the house?" During this 3 week ordeal, one day my son said, "I think we have a mouse." We soon forgot about it. (The Lord said to listen to our children, they are prophetic!) Then one day as I was playing the piano, I kept hearing scratching sounds inside the wall. I walked over there and it was either in the wall or behind the fireplace. Either way, it was loud. I made little taps on the wall, and it wasn't even intimidated. More scratches. Louder taps, still more scratches. Finally I pounded on the wall and the scratches stopped. AH HAH! A critter among us. My husband put out the trap. Before night fell, mouse number one takes a nose dive.

Trap number 2 is set before going to bed. In the morning trap number 2 has a mouse. My husband is truly inspired. He goes to Fred Meyers and buys some more mouse traps. He puts them inside the fireplace downstairs. He puts them beside the wood stove in the other room. He puts them in the cupboard. Bam. Bam. Bam. They all catch mice with more coming.

Then another e-mail comes. Listen to THIS one! It is from a Marsha Burns, whom I have never heard of. "October 21, 1998: Mice in the house! Spiritual rodents that nibble and chew at the children's food. They gobble up the seed of the Word. They are annoying creatures of the night that lurk in darkness and scurry silently about as thieves. What are their names? Worry and anxiety, dissatisfaction, discontentment, irritation, trouble. They have come to rob you of peace and your confidence in the Lord. Eradicate these pests! Rise up against them in faith. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Otherwise, they will multiply and grow and become a plague against you!"

Did I get the point??????? Yes!!! I was very busy battling to find my peace, and rebuking every negative thought that was against the Word of the Lord. All the time we kept catching mice! I was never so glad to catch mice in all my life. (The last time we caught a mouse I was pregnant and I ran away crying because I felt sorry for it.) One day I had lasting peace and I also happened to notice the traps stopped catching the mice. They were GONE.

Later I had a friend coming over who likes caffeine, so I was looking in our pantry for some caffeine tea. I pulled out a box and noticed all these little black things on the shelf. More boxes, more black things. I ran for the magnifying glass and GROSS, IT WAS MOUSE DROPPINGS. The mice were gone, but they left behind a mess and I had to it clean up. Did I get the point? Yes, it cost me a whole day in scrubbing. The only glory was thinking about that wonderful prophesy from a lady I never heard of, warning about little critters stealing the Lord's Word in the night. I took the point to heart and decided to put my combat boots on under my pajama's. It worked. A little elbow grease and determination wins the peace of the Lord, and enables one to hear Him clearly once again. Do you have anxiety over the future? Try a change of clothing. Oh yah, and buy a few mouse traps.

[13] Transition - Standing at the crossroads

A Word to Ponder from the book, "Words to Ponder" by Sandy Warner

Crossroads

Arriving at the crossroads, your future is before you. Four choices are in the making: back where you came from, back where you think you should have come from, forward on the same path, or forward on a new path.

The new path is the least understood. That is because it is new. It looms in front of you, unknown and unsure. But rest assured, My plans are so well fitting your life, that they will fit like a glove. This new path is My destiny for you, but it remains your choice.

You need to understand the seriousness of the crossroads. The choice will be final, as the direction you walk will be swallowed behind you, with no turning back. You can not cut corners and return to this place again. It is a true destiny choice. So give heed to the call and do not make this decision lightly. I will tell you this much, that choosing this path is not for the fearful. It will require courage and a brave heart. It will require complete trust in Me. But what have you to loose? It's only everything to lose or only everything to gain. It's a matter perspective. Yours or Mine.

"Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth." (Hosea 6:3)

[14] Transition - Make a Decision

A Word to Ponder from the book, "Words to Ponder" by Sandy Warner

Decision

You stand at the cross road of decision. Waiting. Standing. Wavering. Waiting. Reluctant to move, reluctant to wait. A wavering vessel receives nothing. You must chose. I will not walk it for you. I told you it was time to move, I told you I gave you a green light. Why do you hesitate? Egypt knocks on your door and would pull you back to its magnetizing grip.

I need your willing heart to leave Egypt's memories, Egypt's habits. They will forever hinder if you bring them with you. Let it go and seek a new life and all it encompasses. Make no association with the bricks and burdens of yesterday. Only in letting go will you move freely in all I have prepared. One Master, not two. One destiny, not two. The roads cross and separate. You must choose one.

[15] Transition - Leaving the Wilderness School of Circles

A Word to Ponder from the book, "Words to Ponder" by Sandy Warner

Wilderness Training

For years you have wandered in the wilderness. Circling with endless paths, seemingly going nowhere. Personal ambitions too heavy to carry have dropped by the way. Dear possessions gone by the way side too. Like the pioneers of old, your path is scattered with what was left behind. Graves of dead and buried treasures.

What you did not see during those seemingly wasted years is the beauty of character that formed in the making of such a journey. You see what was lost, I see what was gained. My image is pressed upon your heart. Pure and simple, you have become more like Me.

It is not all lost. I have had a destination in mind. Even now I am bringing you to the river Jordan to occupy a new beginning, a new land. Are you ready? Would you cross over? It's there, waiting for you when your time comes. Think about it.

"As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place." (Proverbs 25:8)

"...The law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness..." (Romans 2:15)

[16] Transition - Crossing over into a new land

A Word to Ponder from the book, "Words to Ponder" by Sandy Warner

Crossing Over

You stand before the river Jordan, wringing your hands in indecision. Your heart knows the risk, it feels the unseen dangers. Yet I AM on the other side beckoning you to come. Come. Come. Here My voice like the wooing of the dove, calling you to follow Me into a land of new beginnings.

In order to cross over, you must let go of all that is precious to your heart. Every last thing, person, dream and goal on earth. You must leave it all behind and pray only that of eternal value follow you over to the other side. Be willing to give it all up if need be to follow Me.

I AM there on the other side, willing, wishing, wanting you to come. But the decision remains yours. No one can make this decision for you. It is My gift of choice to you, for I only want those who will serve Me in love. I do not want obedient robot-like slaves, but dedicated, willing, desirous hearts to be one with Mine. Will you partner with Me in what I long for on this earth? Will you be a part of that which I have prepared and ready to usher in on earth? There is a place for you if you want to join Me.

Crossing over the river Jordan is 100% commitment. Total dedication. Total surrender to the One Who love and cherishes you, but also has a last day plan to defeat all the works of the devil. There will be sacrifices to be made. I would not ask My children for such without their own desire to be so. Understand this is totally your choice. And no condemnation will upon you either way. None whatsoever. You will always belong to Me. I treasure you exactly as you are.

"Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ." (1 Peter 2:5)

WAKE UP OH ARMY OF GOD

RHEMA 5/05/98: TAKING BACK THE LAND

HEARD: Hopeless. Hang on. Push the darkness back. All the way home.

QUICKENED PRAYER: Lord thank You for the courage to move.

QUICKENED SONG PUN: I was singing the line I'm taking back the land, but accidentally sang, "I'm waking back the land."

> Joel 3:9-14 NKJV
> Proclaim this among the nations: "Prepare for war! Wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near, let them come up. Beat your plowshares into swords And your pruning hooks into spears; Let the weak say, 'I am strong.'" Assemble and come, all you nations, And gather together all around. Cause Your mighty ones to go down there, O LORD. "Let the nations be wakened, and come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat; For there I will sit to judge all the surrounding nations. Put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe. Come, go down; For the winepress is full, the vats overflow - For their wickedness is great." Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! For the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

WORD TO PONDER: CLARION CALL 5/05/98
There is the sound of a trumpet blast resounding in heaven. Even now I prepare it to sound on earth. A clarion call goes forth. Wake up, Oh army of God! Wake up! Rise and be counted, for the battle has begun. Every soldier, prepare yourself, be dressed in My power, take up your arms and stand in the battle in the day of the Lord. For you will take back what been stolen by the enemy and occupy land not yet possessed. In this final day, the church will be dressed as warriors, each one standing guard in his own place. Each has a place divinely carved to fit. Give heed when you hear the call, for soon it will sound in the land. War upon the head of the enemy. All that he has taken will be replaced and he will in no wise succeed. No more lies, no more deception. No more, says the army of the Lord. Hear the clarion call.

"Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand." (Joel 2:1)

RHEMA 4/23/98: WORKING UNITED WITH THE ANGELS

HEARD: The Spirit builds bridges.

EXPERIENCE: I saw the lightning flash of an angel.

HEARD*: Weapon. It looks impossible. Your muscles go up in there. It was so painful. No, there was nothing painful about it. New path. The highlights of the ruling. It is team work, for heaven's sake. Playing a duet.*

VISION: I saw a tall, handsome angelic marksman with a powerful weapon. He was standing ready and aiming. I saw his side view.

HEARD SONG: Shall crush satan under your feet.

VISION*: I saw the clapping motions with my new shakers I bought to use in worship.*

HEARD: Eagle. Graduate. Crown.

Excerpt:
".. this time He showed me a certain group of men upon the earth who belonged to Him and who had passed through many of His processes and had grown in grace. Then I saw a most wonderful thing; these mighty ones of His were directly connected and untied with the angelic hosts of the army of the Lord. His mighty ones were doing in the world below the very same thing that His angelic army was doing in the Spiritual world. [and that which they did was according to His specific command of the Lord.]

These mighty ones were working in the midst of the great darkness that was upon the earth. Even when that darkness was most intense and filed with evil, still these mighty ones were fulfilling the commands of the Lord upon the earth along with their fellow warriors --- the great angels in the heavenlies with whom the were intimately united. These angels, of a high order, worked with tremendous violence and with marvelous power; in fact, they seemed to be like loosed thunders, so filled with force and fury were they.

I saw that the armies in the heavens and the one upon the earth were working in perfect harmony; as did the one, so did the other. According to the command of the Lord, they moved and worked as one. Because the same Spirit was in them both."

RHEMA 4/19/98: THIS IMPARTATION IS COMING WITHOUT HUMAN TOUCH

HEARD: Coming wave. You'll be on it. Anoint. Passion. Blaze.

HEARD: Do you want My glory? Anoint. Presence. Coming right now. Ready to leave. My Presence. Powerful.

DREAM: GLORY IMPARTED IN THE WIND

We were expecting an impartation of the Lord's glory. Because we knew it was going to be an impartation, I went to Pastor thinking he might have the Lord's glory to impart. Pastor not knowing what I am thinking comes to me with his hand out, saying, "you impart good."

I immediately realized that this particular impartation is going to come straight from the Father. So instead we both put our hands up and looked to the Lord while I prayed very strongly, "Lord impart to us Your glory!!!"

Then still in the dream I heard His still small voice say, "In the wind." I understood that this was how He was going to impart His glory. Then as I was shaking very strongly under the power of the Lord He asked me if I enjoyed dancing with the children.

WORD TO PONDER SOME IMPARTATION IS STRAIGHT FROM ME 4/19/98

There are many impartations in My Spirit, and I use laying on of hands and other means to release gifts to My people. There is a wave of My glory coming that can only be received directly from My own touch upon and into your life. Place your heart to receive and open your sails like a ship to catch My wind.

"And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting." (Acts 2:2 KJV)

RHEMA 3/5/98: QUICKENED VISITATION IN THE FORM OF A CHILD

OPENED EARS: I woke suddenly in the night. My son had kicked the common wall between our bedrooms with his foot. I immediately heard my door open and I thought, "Oh that must be my son, and he needs me for some reason."

QUICKENED: I opened my eyes to see what he wanted and no one was there. I thought, "That must have been a spiritual opening of the ears" and closed my eyes to go back to sleep. Immediately the Holy Spirit quickened the top of my head and shoulders with His tangible anointing. I said, "Oh that feels soooo good!"

I knew I had had a quickening, but I really wanted to know why the Lord came the way He did.

ANOINTED HANDS: I turned to: "And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse." (Malachi 4:6)

> I suddenly realized that it was the Lord Who came through my door, in the disguise of a child. Because I received the interruption to my sleep with a heart to help my beloved son, I had received the Lord.

WORD TO PONDER 3/5/98 IN THE FORM OF A CHILD
I come to you in many ways and you are learning to discern My voice. Because you have a heart to receive My children, I am going to quicken you and transform you in the midst of a generation of turning the hearts of children and parents towards one another. My quickening power shall come upon you and you shall receive My power, My operation into higher revelation and heavenly visitations.

"Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God: thy spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness. 11 Quicken me, O LORD, for thy name's sake: for thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble." (Ps 143:10-11 KJV)

WORD TO PONDER: DAWNING OF A NEW DAY 2/22/98

Behold, see the horizon! Bursts of amber appear before you, filled with the glory of God. Did I not say a new beginning? Did I not promise the glory of the latter house will be greater than the former? Look! For the glory of the Lord comes!

Arise from your slumber, My people! The rooster crows and the earth stirs. Wipe the sleep from your eyes. For the skies are already filled with angelic activity. They stir the winds and usher the rain of My Presence. Rise early and you shall benefit from the first bursts of My glorious Presence. The amber rays will penetrate your soul and give strength for the new day.

Listen to the stirrings. Whispers soon to be shouts. A new day arising! A new day birthing. The earth will be filled with My glory and all mankind will behold the desire of all nations.

"And I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts. The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts. The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the LORD of hosts." (Haggai 2:7-9)

Sandy Warner ~ ~ swauthor@usa.net ~ ~ www.thequickenedword.com

WORD TO PONDER THE POWER OF AGREEMENT

It is vital to the safety of My flock, that My leaders keep their disagreements behind closed doors. When My leaders openly and publicly oppose one another, it forces My people to choose sides. In the spirit realm, this can have worldwide ramifications and eventually touch the borders of safety of mankind and the earth. There may be disagreements over interpretations, but it is better to work on these outside of the public eye. Remain loving, forgiving and yielded to one another and I shall help build the bridge of truth. My sheep, pray for your leaders. They need My wisdom and revelation to follow My path of truth and righteousness.

"I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth." (1 Tim 2:1-4 KJV)

EXPERIENCE FEEDING THE HUNGRY 2/16/98

Today Wayne took me to Nachos, his favorite Mexican food. I wasn't hungry so I ordered some nachos thinking that I could take them home to our son. I ate about 10 chips loaded with goo and was stuffed and asked for a to-go box.

On our way to the car, I noticed a homeless fellow looking at the boxes. He was wavering and trying to decide if he was going to ask me. As I approached him, he said, “Do you have any extra food you can spare?” I looked inside the top box to make sure it was my meal, then happily said, “Sure, you can have this one!” He was so appreciative and thanked me so much. I said, “Your welcome, God bless you!” He then returned the blessing to me and my family.

As we parted, I looked back over my shoulder and he had already opened the box and was munching away. I was tickled that I had ordered the one heavily loaded with meat, beans, cheese, olives and tomatoes, etc. so he was getting some nutrition. I was so tickled at being able to give to him, it felt so good, words can't even explain it. I thought about him many times the rest of the day and that is one man who has a storage of prayers loaded up for him!!! Someday I will meet him in heaven.

It truely is more blessed to give than to receive.

Acts 20:35 NKJV
And remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that He said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

RHEMA 2/15/98: TONGUES RELEASES GIFTS

DREAM: I was standing on stage and speaking in tongues. Then while in the Spirit I began looking out and speaking over the audience in tongues. This released spiritual gifts to the audience.

WORD TO PONDER TONGUES RELEASES GIFTS 2/15/98

As you speak in tongues over people, it releases My Spirit upon them and I impart gifts to them. Do not fret over how to impart, just turn to Me and pray.

"For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of His Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers, 10 making request if, by some means, now at last I may find a way in the will of God to come to you. 11 For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, so that you may be established." (Rom 1:9-12 NKJV)

UPDATE 9/13/06: I have a friend who just got back from preaching in Africa. There was one time when he preached in tongues for one and half hours and his son heard the whole sermon in English.

That reminds me of a dream once, where I visited a hut where the people spoke another language. I just began speaking in tongues and they totally understood what I was saying.

ENTERING IN VIA TONGUES

LIQUID WORSHIP: I had an interesting experience a while back having to do with worship. I had read a vision via Annie, where there are many, many doorways into the Presence of the Lord, and that even though there were so many, the Lord placed a covering to hide them. The secret to finding those places was to become "liquid". I started praying that the Lord would make me like liquid and help me to find those doors into deeper places in Him.

I was worshipping the Lord at home via tongues and also interceding while dancing to worship music. I have always been blessed by praying in the Spirit in worship, so this came natural to me. However I had danced and I had prayed, but not both together as a form of intercession. Suddenly His Presence was all over me and I became totally abandoned in worship. I was so covered in His Presence I was astounded. I didn't stop until I was just too tired to continue. This happened right before I went to bed. When I went to bed I had a vision.

VISION: ENTERED A NEW ROOM

I entered a beautiful glowing roomm somewhere in heaven. I saw candles glowing, and smelled sweet smelling perfumes all over the room. I was standing inside the door of this room and began dancing, praying in tongues and interceding just like I had done before going to bed.

I HEARD THE LORD SAY: There is a sweet smell and a dripping liquid.

==========

HEARD: Witness and power. To fan the flame. The gift of tongues brings Deliverance.

VISION: I saw a tongue that had been frozen with ice. It was now unthawing.

HEARD: The Word of God is on your tongue. I assure you. Builds confidence. Be bold. I AM with you. I AM using your tongue.

==========

BOB JONES QUOTE:

Bob Jones says the he uses tongues to try to break through to his Papa.

==========

PAT COCKING: She spoke on praying the Word and praying violently in tongues.

==========

WORD TO PONDER: TONGUES RELEASES BLESSINGS

Speaking in tongues releases many blessings. As you speak in tongues over people, it releases My Spirit upon them and I impart gifts to them. Do not fret over how to impart, just turn to Me and pray in the Spirit.

This gift also releases you to break through to Me with earnest petitions, as you pray My will be done in you as it is in heaven.

I bring you into My holy place through many means. And one of them is through singing in tongues as you dance before Me and pour out your heart in worship. Let My Presence wash over you as you release your tongues and body movements to respond to My Spirit. I shall make you fluid like liquid and you shall melt through the doors into My holy place.

"For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of His Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers, making request if, by some means, now at last I may find a way in the will of God to come to you. For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, so that you may be established." (Rom 1:9-12 NKJV)

"For he who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God, for no one understands him; however, in the spirit he speaks mysteries." (1 Cor 14:1-3 NKJV)

YOUR DESTINY FITS YOU

HEARD: Awesome
PIX: I saw a typewriter.

HEARD: Encourage you. Destiny. Like this.

PIX: I saw a hand in a glove, pushing the fingers to a perfect fit.

HEARD: It fits.

WORD TO PONDER DESTINY 2/12/98

The destiny I have prepared for you is like a glove, tailor made. You worry and fret over My promises, wondering how it will all come together. What you have not seen is that I have been preparing every nuance and every fiber. I AM using every situation in your life to help shape you for your destiny.

Do not look at the callings and destinies of others. For theirs, like yours, are meant only for them. Do not compete, do not force their shoe to fit your foot. You may push and cram, but in the end the shoe will not fit and you will be sorry you tried. If you do manage to wear their shoe, you will only get blisters in the trying.

Relax and let Me do My perfect work in your life. Have patience that I AM tailoring a shoe that is meant just for you. I look forward to the day when you, with delight in your eyes, see how it all comes together fitting you perfectly. Tailor made, just for you.

“For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the LORD, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope.” (NKJ Jeremiah 29:11)

RHEMA 2/23/98: DESTINY TAILOR MADE HEARD: Tailor made. Trust Me.

OTHER RHEMA ABOUT DESTINY

RHEMA 2/27/94: RECEIVE DESTINY

HEARD: You shall succeed in all you put your hand to. Government. Establish transformation. Enlightenment. Receive destiny. I don't think she knows yet.

WORD TO PONDER 2/27/94: FAVOR
You have yet to know there is a difference in your life. You have known pain and rejection and curses. But now I am establishing My governmental authority upon your shoulders and you are under My favor and blessing and all that you touch shall be blessed.

========

RHEMA 1/4/96 CONTENTED HOPE IN WAITING FOR DESTINY
HEARD: There are many ways to recover from a fallen sunrise. Hope. See your destiny. Endorsement long term. Circling. A new way to hear: waiting on the Lord. How long? But I need a now word. Be content.

========

RHEMA 2/24/96 THE SONS
HEARD: See this in heaven. How it fits. Another boat out there. Midnight. Boat. That's his destiny. Custom made. Really. Authority. He rolled out of bed. Assurance. Relaxed. Teenager.

HEARD: Sink your teeth into it. Exciting. I've made progress. A line missing. Pick it up. A season. Dozens. Right now.

Open thy mouth. Work with him. You're more influenced by what you've heard. Be an example. Follow through. I receive His authority. Curse the virus, bacteria & germs in Jesus' Name. He who rules gladly once I show him how. He's learning from watching. My part is to show him a walk.

=======

RHEMA 7/11/97 ANOINTING AND FAITH INCREASING HEARD: A level of anointing not previously known before. Level of faith. Walk. Upon you. Your destiny. Freedom.

=======

RHEMA 10/28/97 STRONG CHANGES WITH GRACE
HEARD: Destiny. Blacksmith with a hammer in his hand. Chisel. Doing something.

PIX: I saw a lavender bush with blossoms on it dripping with strong nectar.

HEARD: Keeper of My flock. 100's of them Narrow gate. Road. Grace.

RHEMA 11/3/97 VICTORY
HEARD: Home run. Destiny. Granted.

REOCCURRING SONG: God, only God. God, only God.

HEARD: Straight forward.

=======

RHEMA 11/10/97 LEAVE YOUR DESTINY TO ME
HEARD: Alter course. Leave it to Me. Destiny. The right one.
=======

RHEMA 3/18/98
HEARD: It is your faith. You have walked by My side. Liquid. We walked by your side.

HEARD: A tiny baby. Look at her grow. Straight ahead. Trust Me. Appointment. Destiny. Long overdue. Open the door. Anointed.
=======

RHEMA 5/17/98
HEARD: Hearing. Delight thyself in the Lord. Despondency, check that at the door. Run the race without worry. Freedom. Kept without care.

One step at a time. Go forth. Fashioned in My image. A necessary step for all.

Just wait till I tell you. Bring back the inhabitants of the earth. It is awesome. Hold on.

A witness. I don't think I'll get to be a part of it. Guess again. What about this? World wide. Radio tuned in. Help build. Fun. It's an establish. Pretty amazing. How it all dovetails. She lifts her eyes. A good arrow. My Bride sees her destiny. Role model.

WORD TO PONDER: BUILDING AN ARK 2/11/98

It was My plan that sent you ahead of your family to the hill of the Lord. Higher and higher you have climbed, each step seemingly in slow motion. In the process, unknown to you, I have sent you ahead to prepare an ark for winter. In the days ahead, you will be given My divine provisions. All that sail with you shall be saved. You, and your children, "They shall be Mine," says the LORD of hosts, on the day that I make them My jewels. And I will spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him." You and your household shall be saved. At that time they shall again discern between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve Him.

I send you to unite with kindred hearts, those brave and gallant ones like knights of the round table — servants of sacrifice, bearing arms to serve their King. Like you, they have learned the secret of being carried by the winds of My Spirit. Search for them. They are yielded, flexible to My will, yet with strong and straight arms they send their arrows to the targets. They are consistent in their timely service to their King. Knights in My Kingdom, they are people of vision and power, anchored to My Word, energized by speaking My Words.

In the days to come, those of fearful hearts shall find comfort in your Words. For you - My special chosen ones will dwell safely in the ark you have prepared and under your wings shall those of fearful hearts be safe from the coming storm.

"By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; …" (Hebrews 11:7)

RHEMA 1/24/98: INEBRIATED LEGS AND HANDS

I am on the ministry team at a conference and am experiencing the most unusual Holy Spirit symptoms. Each service, I have been strong and fine all during ministry, and then promptly after the last person I'd prayed for, my legs would suddenly turn like rubber and they'd feel as though they are drunk. I would wobble to the room and as I lay in bed my legs and only my legs were drunk. This has happened each service, with my being fine during ministry and then after the last person my legs becoming drunk. I have never had this sensation before.

FUNNY MINISTRY: DRUNK HANDS

After this last powerful service, as I laid in bed expecting to feel drunk legs, I noticed my legs were just fine. Then I realized my hands were drunk and they also had strong power surges going through them. This lasted about an hour. I told Anna this and held her feet so she could feel what I meant. She felt the surges coming through my hands. It was the most interesting feeling and I have never had drunk hands before! I told the Lord I really liked it and I liked having drunk hands better than drunk legs!!!

> UPDATE COMMENT: Many times since the conference the Holy Spirit has given me drunk legs while I am in the shower while I am worshipping. It is very funny to me and I like feeling His Presence so strongly.

Acts 2:15-17 NKJV
For these are not drunk , as you suppose, since it is only the third hour of the day. But this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel: And it shall come to pass in the last days, says God,That I will pour out of My Spirit on all flesh;

Eph 5:18 NKJV
And do not be drunk with wine, in which is dissipation; but be filled with the Spirit...

RHEMA 1/20/98: PRAYING PROPHETICALLY

HEARD: Salt. It's the right time.

[Lord can You give me a Word via the Ponder Book?]

IMPRESSION: Turn to the second page of the Table of Contents. I closed my eyes and put my finger on the page, scrolling down the left side. Still with my eyes closed, I stopped my finger scroll.

HEARD: Prayer.

I opened my eyes and my finger was on the Word PRAY! This was very special because I hadn't read the Ponder book since it was printed and I had no idea what was on the Table of Contents on that page. This was a real comfort to me about the upcoming conference. If all I did was pray for people, that was enough.

WORD TO PONDER: PRAY
If you truly understood what takes place the moment you pray, then you would truly never cease. When you pray it sends the angels to go forth and make a way. Many operations take place behind the scenes to dove tail My Faithfulness in someone's life. One of the basic foundations of such is prayer. Angels are prepared and ready. They listen, awaiting to be dispatched with assignment. Prayer looses them to fight through obstacles, frees them to go forth, prepares events, and sets things in motion.

Did you know that when you pray for others, it has eternal value? Some day when you come here, you will stand before all those you have prayed for and see how those simple requests made a difference in their lives. You will see entire destinies altered because you stopped to pray one simple prayer. Can you imagine it? If you only understood the power I have given into your hands to make a difference.

"Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints." (Ephesians 6:18)

UPDATE COMMENT: This was a Word that burned in my heart in preparation for the conference. I came prepared and in full faith that my prayers would make a difference for those I prayed for. I am so grateful for His Words that build and confirm.

ANOINTED HANDS: Prayers are answered. Power of prayer to give success and victory. I will defend this city.

RHEMA 1/23/98: PRAYING AT THE CONFERENCE

VISION: I saw a glowing dawn. It was amber colored and radiant as though it was the glory of the Lord dawning. It was more like a golden color, no pink, a little orange, but mostly a golden bright and light colored amber glow. Perhaps like fire?? When I saw it, I felt it was the glory of the Lord just dawning.

HEARD: Open door.

UPDATE COMMENT: Bob Jones' shepherds rod has a note from Rick JoYner that says, "Note: This is a year for the glory of the Lord to be revealed to the church, and for victories to come to Israel. "Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and I fell upon my face." (Ezekiel 44:4)

PIX: I saw the gal I was praying for at the conference last night and she was listening intently into a phone receiver as I prayed. Then she looked at her friends and joyfully expressed in her face something like, "Isn't this something else????" She was so delighted at what she was hearing. Then she hurried her ear back to the phone because I didn't stop praying and she didn't want to miss a word! When I saw this I received the same joy she was feeling and the Lord was feeling, so this gave me great delight to see this picture. It really encouraged me to pray for people what was on my heart to pray and not worry about giving people Words.

UPDATE COMMENT: I so loved ministering at the conference. It was more and more powerful each service, and it was so awesome I have hardly contained my joy. What was most amazing to me was that I received over 95% direct confirmations and a thank you from the people I prayed for. I wasn't expecting that, and it sure was a good planting of faith to have such direct feedback.

I discovered that His prophetic "Words" can flow through prayer. I was so nervous that I would not receive prophetic Words for people, but all I did was pray and they were Words.

One neat confirmation was that I had prayed for a lady by saying, “Lord make her a candle that disperses darkness in the lives of those around her. Make her a deliverer.” She went ballistic under the anointing. Later, she told me that her husband had just had a surprise birthday for her in January. Every person that attended brought her a gift. No one knew who was coming and that they were not supposed to bring gifts. EVERY GIFT was a candle. Then she said that one year ago she attended a conference and the person that prayed over her said, “the Lord is going to make you a candle and a deliverer!”

THE FIRST NIGHT AT THE CONFERENCE!

I peeked out into the auditorium which was packed with about 1,200 people. My heart began to race and all I could see in my mind’s eye were lines and lines of people in front of me! I ran back into the prayer room and grabbed Rich’s hand and slapped it onto my forehead. Rich was a very special person. He had been hired to pray for the company from which he’d tried to previously resign, due to the Lord’s calling upon his life to pray. He is the only intercessor I know that has the world’s salary to pray! I had heard some of his stories of intercession and he had my vote for sure. So dear Rich smiled at my wide eyes and started to pray. I relaxed and received whatever the Lord wanted to give me. It lasted less than a minute and my prayer life changed from that moment on. When ministry time came, the Lord filled my mouth with prophetic prayers. People gave me all kinds of confirmation about reading their mail and I was just amazed. I knew exactly what I did NOT have before Rich’s prayer! Praise the Lord for the simple gift of laying on of hands!

RHEMA 1/17/98 DONT' BACK UP (CHICKEN OUT!)

Today Anna heard the following that really ministered to me in regards to being on the ministry team for the upcoming conference.

ANNA HEARD: When typically new leaders back up from ministry, I can't do a thing with them. You always have: "What I need when I need it - when I get there."

SANDY PARABLE*:* In the 80's the Lord gave me a teaching parable where I was the next car behind a car at the light in front of us. The car in front of me put his foot to the gas, started to go, and then slammed on his brakes in hesitation. If I had looked away, I would have slammed right into the back of him. I stopped in time, but the Lord strongly talked to me through the experience. He told me that when one is called into leadership, he has people and angels in line following behind him. Angels back the decisions, prayers, deeds, etc and set things into motion. They are sent with assignment after a decision and or commitment is made to move ahead. When a leader changes his mind in hesitation, wavering, halting between 2 opinions, etc, then it puts everything behind him into a tail spin. Nothing is accomplished until the leader is set and stable in his faith about whatever the situation is about.

WORD TO PONDER DON'T BACK UP 1/17/98

When I send you, I have a job for you to do. When you accept these assignments, things are set in motion to bring you the Words and preparations that you need. However, this is much greater than you. The lives that you touch must also be prepared, for I puzzle all things together. I send My angels to weave preparations for these special times of ministry.

If you waver in your faith and back up, this brings everything to a halt, not just in the natural but in the supernatural. Therefore, remember, that when I send you, there is much riding on your commitments. Do not waver in your faith and hold back in the Spirit. Rather, go forth with boldness, knowing that whom I send I also back with signs following.

"And they went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen." (Mark 16:20 KJV)

~ MUCH CLOSER THAN YOU KNOW ~

QUICKENED STATEMENT: Wayne read a sign on the back of a truck outloud: "Objects in the mirror are closer than they appear."

INTERP: Life has caught up with you. It's not some day in the future, it is NOW.

INTERP: When Wayne said that, I immediately thought about people we pray over with so much concern. Those that you have been praying over and feeling hopeless about, are really much closer to you and the Lord than you think!

INTERP: The time is NOW. He has given me many Words to ponder over my lifetime. I am to trust Him, the time is NOW.

INTERESTING CONFIRMATION: Today someone also sent me the following information about how to recognize a 2 way mirror. If there is NO gap between when you touch the mirror, and the reflection of your finger, then it IS a 2 way mirror:

FYI. A policewoman who travels all over the US and gives seminars and techniques for businesswomen passed this on.

Simple test: Place the tip of your fingernail against the reflective surface of any mirror and if there is a GAP between your fingernail and the image of the nail, then it is a GENUINE mirror. However, if your fingernail DIRECTLY TOUCHES the image of your nail, then BEWARE, FOR IT IS a 2-WAY MIRROR!

WORD TO PONDER: MUCH CLOSER THAN YOU KNOW

I AM so deeply connected with the yearning of your soul over those you love and carry. I hear every sigh and every prayer. I hear your doubts and wrestling over circumstances and cutting words as you watch those you love strive with Me. My beloved, thank you for not letting go!!! Your prayers DO cover, they DO make a difference, and I AM working behind the reflections of what you see. Your intercessions cover and protect and are like doors that open and close to the demonic, including allowing discipline, mercy and favor. I have given you this authority.

Please hear Me, dear one of My heart. The gap between you and the ones you carry is much less than you think. The gap narrows every day as I work through mind-sets, rebellions and opinions, sin and destruction. The gap narrows as you hang on in love. My love NEVER fails. Do not give up hope, do not. Your loved ones are much closer to Me and also to you than you really know. Yes, their pride wont admit this, but when you really love, it really melts away all the barriers.

1 Cor 13:12-13 AMP
For now we are looking in a mirror that gives only a dim (blurred) reflection [of reality as in a riddle or enigma], but then [when perfection comes] we shall see in reality and face to face! Now I know in part (imperfectly), but then I shall know and understand fully and clearly, even in the same manner as I have been fully and clearly known and understood [by God]. And so faith, hope, love abide [faith — conviction and belief respecting man's relation to God and divine things; hope — joyful and confident expectation of eternal salvation; love — true affection for God and man, growing out of God's love for and in us], these three; but the greatest of these is love.

PRECIOUS CONFIRMATION!!!!!!

PRECIOUS WORD: A few days later I was uploading my Word to Ponder book file at the book publishers and wanted to double check that the font was coming through accurately. I kept zooming in with the magnifying glass to be able to see it on the pdf file. I zoomed in and zoomed in and zoomed in. I just started laughing when I read the title of the Word to Ponder - It was the above Word to Ponder. :o)

RHEMA 11/29/97: A LIGHT SHINING IN THE DARKNESS

PARABLE: Tonight we took our son and his friends out of town to go cosmic bowling. The bowling ally was dark with neon lights and also glistening strobe lights. They had blaring loud disco music. This time I came prepared and popped in my handy- dandy fluorescent orange ear plugs!

They glowed in the dark and everyone thought that a riot. I caught some kids staring at my ears and looking away when I caught them staring! The ear plugs were brilliant under the fluorescent lights. I thought the parable funny that my ears were glowing!

> Isa 60:2-4 KJV
> For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.
> 3 And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising. 4 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

IT'S TIME TO GET INTIMATELY ACQUAINTED

RHEMA 11/4/97: GOD IS SUDDENLY EXPOSED HEARD: It's time to suddenly get acquainted.

QUICKENED THOUGHT: I was thinking about playing solitaire on the computer and said to myself, They make it slightly easier so you don't get discouraged."

APPLICATION: The Lord is wanting us to learn how intimate He really is with us. We cant get any closer than having Him live inside! The more He opens our eyes to this, the more our one-ness with Him grows as we become acquainted to listening to His Word in our daily lives. Even when we walk alone, He is there playing the solitaire with us and granting us easy steps into aligning "all our cards in order" until we find everything stacked into one-ness and intimacy with Him.

WORD TO PONDER GETTING ACQUAINTED 11/4/97
I live inside of you and am going to bring you through a wonderful time of planting where you will begin to know the intimacy of this discovery. You shall know Me when suddenly My timing places you in the right place at the right time. You shall be delighted when your eyes will land on a sign or a person that speaks exactly what My Word is saying to your heart at that moment. You shall rejoice when your hand turns to a place on the exact page that speaks to the thought you are thinking. It shall be almost as though I have suddenly popped in on the scene and opened your spirit to see Me in your life. But when I am done planting you in this, you shall know that I have been there all along, but your spiritual eyes, heart and ears were not opened to perceive them. This will become a strong sense of intimacy and comfort to you, to know Me in this way.

“He answered them and said, "The kingdom of God does not come with observation;

21 nor will they say, 'See here!' or 'See there!' For indeed, the kingdom of God is within you." (Luke 17:20-21 NKJV)

"I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me." (Gal 2:20 NKJV)

WHEN YOU ARE AWAY FROM YOUR KIDS

PARABLE: KEPT FOR VICTORY! 11/1/97

HEARD: I kept you. I turned you.

PRAYER ENCOURAGEMENT: 13 strikes in a row!
My son has 2 close friends that spend a lot of time at our home and I have considered them my adopted sons whom I love and pray over. Today during bowling I watched one of them flub up consistently. This wasn't like him and I could tell he was getting discouraged. I bound the enemy and prayed the Lord would help him so he wouldn't feel bad about himself. Immediately he got 4 strikes in a row. They won the game and that gave me such joy to see the results of loving prayer!

I was getting tired of sitting so I decided to walk next door to the flower shop and on the way out the door I said, “Now Lord, just because the prayer support is leaving, please continue Your favor upon my boys. Bless them and help them to bowl well.”

When I came back, they had just finished that game. They were announcing over the loud speaker that my son bowled his best game ever: 278. He got 13 strikes in a row, including the last several from the previous game. We were all amazed.
I knew it was a sign and encouragement that God honors your loving prayers over all you have adopted. Your prayers keep them and make a difference in their lives!

WORD TO PONDER 11/1/97 PRAYER COVERAGE

What a difference your prayers make for those you love. It places a canopy of My favor over them and looses My angels from demonic hindrance to move on their behalf. I shall show you signs that your prayers do make a difference and this shall encourage you. And you shall know that whether your loved ones are near or far away that your prayers are equally effective.

“The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much.” (James 5:16-17 NKJV)

John 17:12-16 NKJV
While I was with them in the world, I kept them in Your name. Those whom You gave Me I have kept ; and none of them is lost except the son of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. 13 But now I come to You, and these things I speak in the world, that they may have My joy fulfilled in themselves. 14 I have given them Your word; and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. 15 I do not pray that You should take them out of the world, but that You should keep them from the evil one.

RHEMA 7/31/97: TRAINING ON IMPRESSIONS OF HIS SPIRIT

EXPERIENCE: This morning I paused before turning with anointed hands in my 101 Ways God Speaks book to see if I would be impressed with a page number. Although it was not His Still small voice, a number floated into my mind. So I turned to it.

My eyes fell on this line: “sense page numbers and I have been blessed to read exactly what I needed.” It was the section on He Speaks Through Impressions. That was cool!

IMPRESSION TRAINING: A few minutes later I went on deliveries and just as I was getting into my car I turned around to ask the customer for her full name and phone number. An Indian lady interrupted and I was unable to ask. I stood there a minute or so waiting and felt awkward just standing there so I over-rode that impression with my will.

I said to myself, her full name and number is on the last receipt, I’ll just get it from that when I get home. When I got home there was no phone number and the name of the business was their trademark name, not business name so I could not call her when Wayne found a discrepancy with what they ordered and the sample they turned in. So I had to drive back to town, taking an additional hour of my time when it was to be a 7 hour day of filling orders. When I arrived back at their location, they had already left for the day. I was able to get their number from a neighbor, but it was all quite a hassle. I was not able to make contact with them via phone for 4 more hours of which Wayne could not finish their order until we heard back from them.

On the way home I was thinking about the fact that my wanting their name and number was an impression from the Holy Spirit and I should have listened. This is very hard training to learn to be so sensitive. I have been begging the Lord for this training and He was answering my prayer.

CONFIRMATION: On the way home I was listening to a tape where the speaker suddenly mentioned that his friend had a small impression from the Lord that he was not to take a motor cycle ride that day, even though his wife wanted to. He went on the ride and the enemy almost killed him in a bad cycle accident. The speaker strictly mentioned that this was not His Still small voice, but merely an impression. I was really stunned by this whole day of realizing how much depends upon our being sensitive to the Holy Spirit and how everything is not going to come by His Still small voice or seeing angels! It was very disconcerting, and yet I realized that we need the training. Especially during ministry situations where we need to be sensitive to ideas that float into our thinking.

1 Cor 2:14-16 AMP
But the natural, nonspiritual man does not accept or welcome or admit into his heart the gifts and teachings and revelations of the Spirit of God, for they are folly (meaningless nonsense) to him; and he is incapable of knowing them [of progressively recognizing, understanding, and becoming better acquainted with them] because they are spiritually discerned and estimated and appreciated.

15 But the spiritual man tries all things [he examines, investigates, inquires into, questions, and discerns all things], yet is himself to be put on trial and judged by no one [he can read the meaning of everything, but no one can properly discern or appraise or get an insight into him].

16 For who has known or understood the mind (the counsels and purposes) of the Lord so as to guide and instruct Him and give Him knowledge? But we have the mind of Christ (the Messiah) and do hold the thoughts (feelings and purposes) of His heart. [Isa 40:13.]

HE'S IN THE BAG

FUNNY QUICKENED SONG: I was thinking about my son while at the same time singing the song Blessed be the Name of the Lord. The Lord filled my mouth, because when I came to the chorus, instead of singing, “He is our God, He is our God, He is the Lord” …

I sang, “He's in the bag, he's in the bag, of the Lord!” The Lord has a wonderful sense of humor and gives me parables of bags to represent the word beset in Psalms 139.

We cannot depart from His Presence. The Lord was telling me that my son was in His bag, completely sealed, fortified and protected.

Ps 139:3-5 KJV
Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether. Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

BESET IN HEBREW
tsuwr
OT:6696 tsuwr (tsoor); a primitive root; to cramp, i.e. confine (in many applications, literally and figuratively, formative or hostile):

KJV - adversary, assault, beset, besiege, bind (up), cast, distress, fashion, fortify, inclose, lay siege, put up in bags.

VISION: I saw someone inside a huge bag. Then the bag opened up, fell to the floor and a spot light came from heaven falling on top of the person in the bag.

HEARD*: Make manifest.*

WORD TO PONDER: ENCOMPASSED IN THE SPOTLIGHT
I have surrounded you day and night with My constant keeping power. It is like being put inside a bag, where you are totally shut in and confined by My loving Presence.

Do not run from your calling. Yes I have called you and placed My spotlight upon your head. It shall make manifest My life within you as My living testimony. Do not run from this exposure, although I know in the natural it is very intimidating. In this candling, the enemy would like to accuse you before Me and before all mankind. He would like to cause you shame and press you in. But I AM your judge and have declared you innocent because the blood of My dear Son was shed for you. So rise above the guilt of your humanity and spread your wings of faith.

One day at a time, I shall lift you higher to Me. When the day comes that you feel the spotlight, remember that I have all things in control and you are still in the bag of My Presence. It is invisible so that My light will shine from within and without, but it is there to safely keep you in all that you do and say.

"You both precede and follow Me. You place your hand of blessing on my head. Such knowledge is too wonderful for Me, too great for Me to know! I can never escape from your spirit! I can never get away from your presence!" (Ps 139:5-7 NLT)

RHEMA 7/12/97: DELIVERANCE IN "LAYERS"

EXPERIENCE IN DELIVERANCE

During a conference, I was going down the hallway to the bathroom and saw a group of people ministering to someone who was loudly sobbing on the floor. I knew that this person was experiencing a demonic manifestation and was running from the Presence of the Lord.

Knowing that she knew me, I kneeled down with her and interrupted her crying, and said, “Do you trust me?” She nodded yes. I said, “You need to pick yourself up and go back into that room and be in the Presence of God.” A demon responded back through her voice, although I had no idea what was said. I spoke to her and not the demon and said that if she could not get up by herself, we would help her and take her in there because we loved her very much and she needed to be in the Presence of the Lord and not be hiding from it. The demon did not like that in the least. When we helped her to the door of the threshold of the sanctuary, she stopped right at the line, and would not step over. It took some coaxing, but we managed to take her to the very back corner of the large room. There was loud worship music going on, and hands on ministry taking place all over. The Presence of the Lord was strong and it was the perfect atmosphere for her to receive His work.

Myself and 2 other people sat with her, praying in tongues. She eventually went berserk and fell to the floor. She sobbed, heaved, screamed, and squirmed, and we prayed in tongues all the more diligently. She went through waves of this between quiet times.

I heard the Lord say, “Deep cleansing.” Then I watched it happen again as in waves, of sobbing, screaming, then release with quiet following. Then I heard the Lord say, “Layers.” As she was sobbing I leaned over and told her these things, and what was happening to her was a good thing and that the Lord was doing His cleansing work of many layers of past years in her life.

I learned quite a lot about the deliverance process as this was a supernatural experience totally orchestrated by the Holy Spirit, as all we were doing was praying in tongues while laying hands on her. I felt a strong oneness with the Holy Spirit's work while it was occurring. Each time just prior to her breaking her quiet I would begin to feel a pressure build in my Spirit. I would lean down and start praying very strongly and loudly in tongues as the Holy Spirit gave me unction.. Then as the demon left, I would feel that pressure instantly go away within my own Spirit. OH THE PEACE AND RELIEF OF IT! This happened many times. The peace after each layer was quite something.

Even though my flesh was fighting the whole process and I wanted it “DONE” I loved her enough and recognized the Holy Spirit enough to stay with it. This process of de-layering deliverance went on for a long time and I began to get weary as it was late and I was really tired and it was also hard to sit on the floor all that time. I silently asked the Lord with each layer, “Please let this be the last one!” yet I had so much compassion for her. Finally I decided on my own (!) this was the last layer as she had calmed down for a time. I heard the Lord say in response to my independent thought, “Trust Me.” No sooner did I hear that, then she began again. This one ended up the last for that night. When the layer left, I knew it was Abandonment.

It was interesting that the first coherent thing she said after it was all done related to abandonment. She said, “Thank you for staying with me and not leaving me! I was afraid you would leave before it was finished.” Boy am I glad the Lord interrupted my independence and kept me there to complete His work. It was a good lesson.

RHEMA 6/22/97: THE SHIPS HAVE ARRIVED!
HEARD: Exposed. Harvest.

VISION: I saw a very funny vision. There was a group of water ballerinas doing water ballet in the water. They had just gone under water and were turning themselves around under the water. The one closest to me opened her eyes under water and then she REALLY opened her eyes in a shocked look. She was gazing just past my shoulder. Then she looked again as though she couldn't quite believe what she saw, and her eyes were bugging out. She pushed herself to the surface and the look on her face was one of being absolutely astounded. I turned around to see what she was looking at and there was a huge ocean liner that had come in ready to dock. It was practically on top of us. But behind that was another, and another and another and another. There were many ships all lined up in single file clear to the horizon, all coming in. I realized that our ship had come in!

COMMENTS: A ship means leadership, or ministry carrying others on the boat with them. A couple weeks after receiving this vision, my first book 101+ Ways God Speaks (And How to Hear Him) was launched at a conference where I was a part of the ministry team. At the conference, I overheard 2 conversations where they were prophesying that their ship had come in! Thirteen years after receiving my calling, the Lord officially birthed the ministry of The Quickened Word on 7/09/97.

RHEMA 7/9/97: Grand Opening is Here
HEARD: Here comes my lift.
PIX: I saw angels driving the same large truck I saw before.

HEARD: Grand opening celebration. Role model. Move on. I AM with you.

=======

YOUR SHIP IS COMING IN 3/20/04
Yes dear ones, you have suffered hardship. These have been necessary for your training in leadership. Your ships are coming!

Friendship, fellowship, worship, relationship, kingship… leaders see with your very own eyes, your ships are coming in! Many ships are filling the horizon, laden with fruitful gifts, supplies, answers to prayer, launched ministries, home runs, more grace and more power than ever imagined. My angels have been collecting the prey and are bringing these ships overloaded with what has been taken back from enemy territory. You are about to receive a bountiful harvest.

"And David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away: and David rescued his two wives. And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: David recovered all…And when David came to Ziklag, he sent of the spoil unto the elders of Judah, even to his friends, saying, Behold a present for you of the spoil of the enemies of the LORD;" 1 Samuel 30:18-19, 26

1] Worship purifies & brings forth the harvest

Vision given to Pastor Dale Howell 7/5/97

While in the prayer room there was a wonderful Presence of the Lord as we all prayed together. After more than an hour of prayer and intercession I saw a vision:

I saw hot coals being scooped up in a funnel shaped scoop. Much like the ones that they scoop popcorn with at the movies. The coals were being fed into a large diameter hose that seemed to flow down from heaven to earth. Written on the side of the hose was "WORSHIP." The bottom end of the hose was positioned over the heads of people on earth who were in an attitude of worship. A hot coal was placed via the hose on top of one person and then another and then another and so on. As the hot coal touched the heads of the worshippers their flesh began to melt off of them. What was left behind was like a pillar of pure gold. When the flesh was completely gone, the gold itself became molten and began to dance like a tongue of fire. As I watched this scene, they became a large company of dancing golden fire - all the people touched by the coals, now transformed.

I then saw angels flying over the company of worshippers made pure. The angels had in their hands a small pan with a long handle. In the pans there was incense. The angels were holding the pans over the tops of the flaming pillars of gold. The incense then began to burn and a sweet smelling aroma rose up into the heavens before the throne of God. I then saw two large hands with a cylindrical container in them. The incense was being collected in the container and as it came into the container it became a solid substance. I then saw the two hands close over the opening in the container and then they shook the container and after a time the substance was thrown back down to earth. It rolled upon the face of the earth like dice. As the substance came to a stop I heard a voice cry out "Yahtzee!" I saw one die with 7 dots on the top surface. The dots were in the shape of the letter H.

Pastor Dale's possible interpretation:
As we worship the Lord we release the purifying fire of God upon ourselves. The fire purifies us and makes us worshippers in Spirit and in truth. As we are purified to worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness, the angels of the Lord come and empower our praise. Our praise then is lifted up into heaven itself and becomes the substance for what the Lord is about to do.

Yahtzee is a Hebrew word. In Strong's Exhaustive Concordance, the number is 3329 yatsiy' (yaw-tsee'). It means "coming forth" or "offspring." I believe the Lord is saying that as we worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness that He will gather the substance of our worship and cast it back down to earth and bring forth a great harvest of souls. Yahtzee is accomplished when 5 dice all have the same numeration on them. In my vision the numeration was 7. Five speaks of grace and 7 is the number of comple-tion or perfection. Dice are six sided objects and wonder-fully represent our humanity. The dice were white which speaks of His work of holiness in us. The dots were black and this probably speaks of our Adamic nature. Each dot represented a person. As I meditated on this vision later I saw the dots themselves come alive and begin to dance through the earth.

2] Worship is timely

Excerpt heard His still small voice via Grandma Anna 3/15/96
"We are going to play Yahtzee."
[I almost didn't write this down because it sounded so silly.]

3] Worship Brings the Glory of the Lord

Vivid vision given to Sandy Warner [Taken from the book 101+ Ways God Speaks (And How To Hear Him)]

This was an amazing supernatural vision where I actually experienced the entire thing including the Lord's Presence as it was happening. I was in a large non-charismatic evangelical church worshipping with a full congregation. I was in the balcony and could see everything. There was not a person in the entire place that did not feel and respond to the Presence of God. It was as though He was a giant magnet drawing out the wild and total praises of His people in this building. There were waves and waves of the Holy Spirit upon the people, and you could hear people's emotional responses and see their subsequent hands raising in unison. I felt His Presence so strong, that He was literally evoking my strong responses.

Then I saw a candlestick standing on the podium's left side, and a shadow slowly passed across it. Suddenly you could hear a pin drop, the people were so quiet in an absolute holy hush. I knew it was the glory of God just like Moses' story when he had asked to see His glory. (Exodus 33:18-23)

Later in the service I saw an old friend, who in real life saddened me by breaking off our letter writing because of differences in church doctrine. I leaned over to her and told her we were now talking the same language and were in agreement. I was speaking not just of she and I, but of the whole congregation. As I did this, there were women who had miniature little scissors in their hands, who were busy snipping tiny fragments off the dead, split ends of people's hair. Their tiny scissors were snipping so fast they were a blur. While in the dream I knew it was an allegory of the Lord cutting away the denomination splits (splitting hairs) and dead works and that these women were angels.
Still in the dream, as I was talking to someone about the awesome meeting, I also mentioned that the Lord was doing the same thing with the Catholics. Someone else mentioned Australia. When I awakened, I heard the Lord say, "Ecumenical movement. The Spirit is moving. World wide. They're done being spectators." Then I saw a picture vision of my holding the steering wheel in my car and the wheel had such a strong pull on it, that I just finally let the wheel lead the way! [I literally felt the tug of the wheel, even though this was a picture vision.] Then I heard the Lord say, "Divine direction."

By this picture, He is saying that we are coming to a time where His leading will be so strong, that it will be difficult to "drive" ourselves away from His Presence, as the tug or force in going our own way will be very tiring. This dream and subsequent Word from Him was an awesome promise of His breaking denominational barriers, where nothing else matters but worshipping Him and responding to His wonderful Presence.

4] High praise brings the glory of the Lord

Experience given to Grandma Anna - Spring 1973

During prayer, after praise and worship we all felt a stronger Presence of God than any of us had ever felt before. With about 20 teenagers in my living room sprawled all over the carpet, there was a hush for a long time. It was as though everyone was holding their breath, it was so quiet. I half opened my eyes and the entire room was filled with golden light. I was in awe. Slowly it left and we all began to move. I said, "Pastor Bob, what WAS THAT?" "We went into high praise," he said simply. Then he explained that it was a very rare occurrence where the Presence of God comes to bless because we have so blessed Him with our praise and worship. He said that wonderful things are accomplished in the heavenly realm when High Praise is entered.

5] Worship is a part of warfare

Excerpt heard His still small voice via Shirley 1/17/93

"The Army of God— requires many skills. Musicians, singers, worshippers, those trained in spiritual warfare to march in the front line. Others to march in ranks. Watchmen, some behind to repair and mend the wounded. Those to pray for victory in battle. All are needed in their place. United under the commander and chief."

6] Worship brings His power

Experience given to Grandma Anna 4/5/87

This morning in choir, as I worshipped the Lord, I trembled violently with His power. I felt charges of electricity hit the top of my head. I actually heard them.

7] Tambourine worship looses bondage

Vision seen by Grandma Anna 11/13/94

While worshipping in the Sunday service I saw myself with my tambourine making a circle around various people. Then I saw myself twirling down the aisles of the church. I knew it was warfare to break bondage. I broke free from my personal shyness and was obedient to what I saw. Afterwards a lady shared that she was set free to wave the banners for the first time, going up one aisle and down the other.

8] Worship with pure motives

Dream given to Sandy Warner 6/16/97

Scene 1: I was helping people express themselves when they were worshipping the Lord. I was wanting them to become more free in their worship. It was a small group of people, then soon it grew to a huge coliseum filled with people expressing their worship in unusual ways. I saw two people do various cartwheels and gymnastics!

Scene 2: As I saw people worshipping on the coliseum floor downstairs, I noticed the coliseum had a mall-like area on the second floor. It was filled with people walking along the walkways dressed in various "worship outfits." They were shopping for just the right outfit. The atmosphere was energized by people's zeal for public appearances. As I witnessed this, I saw an escalator going down to the main floor. I felt the lure of the 2nd floor zeal and quickly excused myself saying I needed to stay down on the main floor where people were actively worshipping the Lord.

Scene 3: As I was worshipping, I saw an angel floating above my head. She looked down at me and I began to slightly bow before her as I danced. I also displayed my hands as though introducing that she wanted to say something. I said to myself, I am not worshipping her, but giving her honor. She said to me still floating above my head so that I had to look up, "Express yourself with your hands. That's what the Lord wants." As I was worshipping with my hands I was also reminded that the Lord wanted us to use our hands to reach out and touch the children as an expression of His love.

9] Worship is pressing into Jesus

Ears opened given to Rose Crownover 2/4/96

E-mail: soundofharvest@juno.com Website: http://members.spree.com/soundharvest

During worship one day, I had an interesting experience. During the song, "Piercing the Darkness," I began to hear a loud, audible noise. It sounded like the sound of a great crowd of people, cheering. I could hear many shouts and some crying out, "Jesus, Jesus!" I looked around the room (three times I did this) to see who might be shouting and making all the noise. I could see no one doing this, in fact, there were not enough people in the room to make the kind of noise that I was hearing. It sounded like we were in a large football stadium on the playing field and a crowd was all around us, cheering for us. I began to realize that what I was hearing was the "great crowd of witnesses" spoken of in Hebrews 12. I was very blessed by this and greatly encouraged by what I heard. I stood for a long time, just listening, until I could no longer hear it.

Several songs went by and somehow I became distracted from worshipping. I began to look around the room and watch others. I was particularly blessed by the way the Lord was coming on one of the other worshippers. A friend was standing near me and I was about to lean over and point this out to her when the Holy Spirit came upon me very strongly and began to shake me. The Lord then spoke to me very clearly, saying, "No spectators on the field! I am the Goal. Keep your eyes on Me and press on!"

I then began to get some insights. I saw worship as being likened to a football game. Jesus is the goal. I saw that the great crowd of witnesses were there to cheer us on as we pressed into Jesus. I saw that there was an opposing team (satan and his demons) who were trying to keep us from the goal. Focus on the Lord and the involvement of all the members of the team are essential to us reaching the Goal.

10] Worship brings unity into the holy place

Excerpt heard His still small voice via Sandy Warner 3/16/95
"Bells. A place of worship. Music in the holy place. Ensemble. My quartet. Harmonize. Make melody. A season of trust. Fruit to the surface. Gateway. Open the doors. Harmonize."

11] Joyful worship defeats the enemy

Excerpt heard by Shirley 11/27/92

"Wait on the Lord. All you need is found in Me. Physician heal thyself. The enemy has power, but He who is in you is greater. Little foxes spoil the vines. Remember get rid of. I am all you need. Everything for you is in Me. Try joy. Praise and worship too. The enemy dwells not in joyous vessels. Weak? Put on your strength. Marine school tough. Hares fast. Turtles win the race. Voice of the turtle. This old house. Burden. Removal painful. I lead. You follow. Dancing smoothly."

12] Worship is a celebration

Excerpt heard by Shirley 11/28/92
"Lead on Oh King eternal. This is the Lord's day. Rejoice and be glad. Celebrate, I will celebrate. Sing a new song unto the Lord. Arise Oh Israel and worship your King."

13] Unified worship increases faith

Excerpt heard by Sandy Warner 7/15/95
"Corporate worship. Destiny follow Me. Union of the brothers. I will bless the Lord. It's astounding! A measurement of faith. Unified worship. Angels singing. We worship the King. Hallelujah!"

14] Worship sets us free

Excerpt heard by Grandma Anna 8/16/95
"He loves it when we send our worship in a hot air balloon and it goes sailing up to Him. Blessed are we when we are set free to worship."

15] Worship boldly

Excerpt saw & heard by Sandy Warner 1/29/97
I saw a picture vision of the word "Be bold" written on a barbecue sauce bottle. Then I heard the Lord say, "How do you worship? Establish."

16] Article: True Worship: A Journey from Law through Grace to Liberty

By Sandy Warner (March 1998)

Attending a women's conference, I was given a Word from one of the prophetic speakers. The Word penetrated my heart like an arrow. I knew it was the Lord's Word, although I did not have the understanding at that moment. She heard the Lord say, "Effortlessly." Then she elaborated, "You have been given authority over performance." Not knowing my background, she brought to the surface one of my lifelong struggles.

Walking back to my seat, I contemplated, "Lord what did You mean by performance? Why did she specifically use that word performance?" The only hint I had was her saying, "Your book is the book of Galatians. You know what it means to walk in grace. You know how to walk in the Spirit. Grace, grace, grace. You know God's grace. And you shall be used to bring others into the same liberty and freedom."

I thought of the theme of Galatians where Paul speaks about the law verses grace. He said the law was our schoolmaster to bring us to Christ. We were trained under the law, but later the law is fulfilled through Jesus, whereby we walk in the power of His grace. I could understand this, but what about that word performance? How did that connect? The Holy Spirit quickened my memories and a journey from performance via grace to liberty began to enfold. I knew there were others on similar journeys.

The Schoolmaster

At the age of eight, I began piano lessons. It requires a lot of practice to make the connections to learn the mathematical language of chords, patterns and rhythms — then transfer it to body coordination and come up with something that sounds good! Like Paul speaking about the Jewish laws, I was under the music schoolmaster through years of daily practice and learning skills. Unfortunately, after I began lessons I discovered that the purpose of music was to perform. Whether this concept was right or wrong, this is what I understood. My teacher had regular recitals and this was like a school test to perform that which I had learned under the schoolmaster. The thought of performing in recitals terrified me. I was a shy person, never raised my hand in class and rarely spoke to people. In one way this worked to my benefit, as an only and lonely child I found expression through music. It was a wonderful outlet to express emotion. But to perform such things? Yike!

Finding Grace

Performing was my first experience with the word grace. Because of my weakness, I watered every performance with desperate prayer. Depending upon God became my mainstay as I trusted Him to help me through it in spite of overwhelming fears. Throughout the first half of my life I performed many times. Somehow, after so much practice and prayer, it was no longer a big deal to perform. I had truly come into the knowledge of being able to perform by His grace. But even with His grace it was still performing. I do not know what would have happened if at the early age I had learned that the reason for music was to enjoy it, express myself with it, and the greatest of all - to worship with it. I had yet to know liberty from performing the schoolmaster's test.

Searching for Liberty

After thinking through my past with music, and seeing the connections between the Words "authority over performance" - "grace" and "bringing others into liberty" I could see how the words performance and grace tied together, because I had experienced them. But I wondered about this liberty thing. What was liberty? How did that apply to the schoolmaster?

One week later I attended a Christian dance troop concert. It was then that I saw the example of my journey of schoolmaster law through grace to liberty literally played out in front of me. The concert was held at a church known for certain freedoms in worshipping the Lord through dance and the use of instruments, various kinds of glory rings and banners.

Worshipping the Lord through dance was not foreign to me. My home church was very free even to the point of being wildly liberated in worshipping the Lord with their whole hearts, minds, bodies, and spirits. They know how to forget themselves, abandon their restraints and come into the Presence of the Lord, and into loving the Lord through the expression of music and dance. When you walk into the midst of such a place the power of the Lord's Presence is strong, and you feel it. I was really looking forward to experiencing this in the concert.

The purpose of this dance concert was to bring dance back to the church as a form of intercession and worship, and to bring people into liberty. The dancers were lovely, dressed in beautiful costumes, using sparkling glory rings, banners and tambourines. They had neat lights, a fog machine, cool music and great drums. But in spite of the beauty and the "stuff", I searched… ….for the Lord's Presence. "Lord, where is Your Presence? They are doing this unto You for a good purpose. Where is Your Spirit?" This question was on the top of my heart, because I was so experienced in dance being a form of worship and thus bringing His Presence into a meeting. This was an enigma to me.

We sat in the front row and I could see the dancer's facial expressions and eyes. For the most part, it was obvious their minds were very engrossed in remembering the hand motions and choreography, and staying in unison. They appeared insecure when they stepped out of line or made a mistake. Whether they felt self conscious about their beautiful costumes I did not know.

True Worship

After a long string of great songs, lovely costumes and choreography, a dance soloist emerged. She didn't have to match steps and motions with anyone; she just had her own heart to express. Her African costume was vivid and her head was covered in a turban. The African dance was well done and the movements were cute like a jack in the box, instead of smooth and graceful. She danced differently, but it wasn't just her dance. She was different.

Suddenly His Presence was there. I was immersed in the Lord's Presence as I watched her dance with all of her heart. She danced with all of her strength, and her face radiated the love of God and the love for God. I was so touched by this obvious difference I changed my question to, "Lord why did Your Presence suddenly come?" I could see the contrast was the difference between performance and worship. But I didn't know how deep this went.

After she finished, she went to the microphone. "I can not just share this dance with you without sharing my testimony." [her vocal emphasis] She said when God gives us a testimony, we better be prepared for a test. She explained how the Lord told her that if she danced this dance, He would provide her the means to go to Africa with the dance troop. So she said yes, and He provided in one week. Then she was diagnosed with 3rd stage ovarian cancer. She went through the surgery and the chemotherapy and the doctors told her if she went to Africa she would come down with some awful sickness being weakened by the chemo. She knew God told her to go and had provided, so she went and she danced with the turban on her head, having lost her hair. My heart was so touched. It was obvious why His Presence had arrived. She was worshipping the Lord through her dance, and she was joyously praising God for the strength to dance. She had known His grace through the test, and she was experiencing His grace to even be able to dance at all! The difference was the heart of the dancer. I had witnessed true worship. I had also witnessed wonderful liberty.

When she finished, more group songs followed, and again I could not discern His tangible Presence. After a couple of more hours, one more time I felt His Presence. It was an interesting contrast. This happened during a nonverbal dance drama played to some warfare music. Although I do not know the name of the song, it was a song about taking back the land through intercession and taking authority over the spirits of greed, racism, abortion and homosexuality. The song first called forth the intercessors. Two grandmothers came forward, one on each side of the altar, raising their hands and interceding with their lips moving. They were dressed in normal attire. There was a woman between them dressed in a beautiful high priests' attire. Beside the intercessors, there were two angels dressed in long flowing white gowns and glory ribbons. They danced, swirling and twirling around the intercessors.

Then out of the dark corners came two skulking, bent and crouching creatures dressed in black shrouds, with their faces covered by a black veil. They had chains in their hands and danced humped over. They circled around various other dance team members that pantomimed greed, racism, abortion and homosexuality. Suddenly, at the rise in music, the angels were sent from the intercessors. They raced to the demonic creatures, pulling out their glowing swords. Over and over again they pushed back the hideous creatures. People in the audience shouted as the creatures fell back and were defeated. Then the angels loosed the people pantomiming the various strongholds.

It was an awesome dance drama to witness - very inspiring and the Holy Spirit was there. The memory remained vivid in my mind and I carried it to bed that night. So why was this so anointed as opposed to the other "performances?" I think it was because each person had their own part to play, they did not have to match others movements. They were able to get past the concern of performance, and into the story line, the meaning of the song.

In analyzing the concert that night, I kept going back to the performance insecurities of the dancers and their focus on getting the movements right. I thought about the hours of practice they must have done, their training and how this paralleled the law and the Galatians' schoolmaster. I realized they were on a journey. It wasn't that these dancers were wrong in their desire to bring others into liberty. They just had yet to experience true liberty themselves.

"But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him." (John 4:23) True worship comes from a heart of adoration and gratefulness that bubbles to the outside. I knew that if their intentions were right, eventually they would get past their focus on performing the movements and into worshipping the Lord with joyous liberty.

What is Liberty?

Liberty is the freedom to express your heart.
Liberty is the ability to keep your focus on Jesus.
Liberty is the freedom to not need another's approval.
Liberty is the true desire to please God.
Liberty is the ability to respect others wishes so as not to cause offense.
Liberty is ambition lost.
Liberty is the ability to forget yourself.

Afterthought

I suddenly realized that throughout my years of music, whenever I prayed while "performing" or worshipped through music and dance, my heart was on Him. As a result, the performance ceased to be a performance. It had effortlessly changed to freedom and liberty. And that is the true joy of learning to walk in the grace of His Spirit and be in ministry and/or worship situations. When we get our eyes off ourselves and how we appear to others, the process of sharing what we have learned during the schoolmaster years is effortless and salted with His grace liberating others into the same freedom.
The Lord says to love Him with all of our heart, soul, mind and strength. "And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment." (Mark 12:30) I had often wondered about the strength part, but now I understand that when our fleshly strength is spent in worshipping, this releases our spirit into true worship.

The Lord is currently raising up a company of people all over the earth to dance as David danced. They have taken the journey away from the law of performance via grace, to find liberty. No matter what nation they are from, they are coming together to dance before the Lord with all of their might. The steps are not the same, nor the motions, but their hearts are united towards adoration of their Beloved King. The Holy Spirit is the choreographer, unifying the hearts into kindred and liberating worship of our Beloved.

17] Power Over Performance, How Do You Worship?

Thought to Ponder by Sandy Warner

The Pharisees....

…lived to perform the best impression.
…were perfectionists in appearances.
…prided themselves in how they performed.
…found their identify in what they produced.

Because of this, they...
…felt badly when they botched a performance.
…worried about what other's thought of their appearance.
…judged other's performances.
…lost their self worth when they were not able to perform.

Liberty is when...
…you no longer think about what you produce, but who you are in Him.
…you no longer worry about what others think, but what God thinks.
…you no longer think about other's failures, rather you humbly see your own.
…find your identity in pleasing God.

19] Worship

[Taken from the devotional book "Words to Ponder" by Sandy Warner]

Worship is not contained in a package of rules. Do not allow man's interpretation to set you askew from an honest relationship with Me. As often as you think of Me, as often as you speak of Me, as often as you sing of Me, there I AM.

It is not how you worship, rather it is why. You worship and give Me honor every time you set your heart in My direction. It is not in the outward display, but in the heart. Man can go through the display with his heart far from Me. You have allowed man's interpretation to condemn you of that which is precious to Me.
I cherish your yielded and tender heart's response to Myself. Please do not allow guilt to separate us when you do not fit into man's mold. You fit into My mold, and that's all that matters.

"...The true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth..." (John 4:23)

[21] The Dove and the Eagle
Vision given to Roland on 7/13/97
~~~~~~~~~~

Roland saw a vision while we worshipped the Lord in the evening service. He saw a beautiful white dove descend down into the church and land on the platform at the top of the steps. He said it was very beautiful, very gentle, and very peaceful. He then saw a huge eagle descending down toward the dove with its wings spread out. He said the wings were very large and very strong. His first impression was that the eagle was going to attack the dove but instead the eagle landed on the lower step and in front of the dove and bowed down to it worshipping it. After a while he saw the dove begin to feed the eagle with blue seeds from it mouth.

Possible Interpretation From Pastor Dale Howell:
The dove represents the Holy Spirit and the Eagle the prophetic gifting. The Holy Spirit appears as beautifully pure, gentle, and peaceful and the prophetic gifting comes across as mighty and powerful. I believe the vision was a lesson for us that move in prophetic giftings: As we worship the Dove, the Holy Spirit and Who He is, we will be fed the Word of the Lord. Blue represents heavenly things; James 1:17 "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning." "The seed is the Word of God." (Luke 8:11)

[22] Hearing the Hebrew Words for Worship

S.S. Heard on 6/28/98

I kept speaking the words tehillah and techillah during worship on Sunday morning. I did not know what these words meant and later that week, when I kept hearing the words over and over, I thought the Holy Spirit wanted me to look them up. Here are the definitions to the two words. They were speaking about worship:

TEHILLAH: 8416 tehillah (teh-hil-law'); from 1984; laudation; specifically (concretely) a hymn: KJV-- praise.

Brown Driver Briggs: praise, a song or a hymn of praise -- a) praise, adoration, thanksgiving (paid to God); b) the act of general or public praise; c) a praise-song (as a Hebrew title); d) praise (demanded by qualities or deeds or attributes of God); e) renown, fame, glory;

HALAL: 1984 halal (haw-lal'); a primitive root; to be clear (orig. of sound, but usually of color); to shine; hence, to make a show, to boast; and thus to be (clamorously) foolish; to rave; causatively, to celebrate; also to stultify: KJV-- (make) boast (self), celebrate, commend, (deal, make), fool (-ish, -ly), glory, give [light], be (make, feignself) mad (against), give in marriage, [sing, be worthy of] praise, rage, renowned, shine.
Brown, Driver, Briggs:
1) to shine
a) (Qal) to shine (figurative of God's favor),
b) (Hiphil) to flash forth light,

1) to praise, to boast, to be boastful,
a) (Qal) to be boastful, boastful ones, boasters (participle)
b) (Piel) to praise, to boast, to make a boast
c) (Pual) to be praised, to be made praiseworthy, to be commended, to be worthy of praise
d) (Hithpael) to boast, to glory, to make one's boast
e) (Poel) to make a fool of, to make into a fool
f) (Hithpoel) to act madly, to act like a madman
TECHILLAH: 8462 techillah (tekh-il-law'); from 2490 in the sense of opening; a commencement; rel. original (adverb, -ly): KJV-- begin (-ning), first (time).
Brown, Driver, Briggs: beginning, first
a) the first time
b) from the beginning, in the beginning (with a preposition)
CHALAL: 2490 chalal (khaw-lal'); a primitive root [compare 2470]; properly, to bore, i.e. (by implication) to wound, to dissolve; figuratively, to profane (a person, place or thing), to break (one's word), to begin (as if by an "opening wedge"); denom. (from 2485) to play (the flute): KJV-- begin (X men began), defile, X break, defile, X eat (as common things), X first, X gather the grape thereof, X take inheritance, pipe, player on instruments, pollute, (cast as) profane (self), prostitute, slay (slain), sorrow, stain, wound.

Brown, Driver, Briggs:
1) to profane, to defile, to pollute, to desecrate, to begin (Niphal) to profane oneself, to defile oneself, to pollute oneself; ritually, sexually
2) to be polluted, to be defiled
a) (Piel) 1) to profane, to make common, to defile, to pollute, 2) to violate the honor of, to dishonor, 3) to violate (a covenant), 4) to treat as common,
b) (Pual) to profane (name of God)
c) (Hiphil) 1) to let be profaned, 2) to begin,
d) (Hophal) 1) to be begun,
1) to wound (fatally), to bore through, to pierce, to bore,
a) (Qal) to pierce
b) (Pual) to be slain
c) (Poel) to wound, to pierce
d) (Poal) to be wounded
2) (Piel) to play the flute or pipe

[The Lord may be saying that radical praise will make a way for a new beginning in the Lord. I feel like the Lord was confirming that He truly has changed the way we "Have Church," and is commencing with an original, first time/beginning way of worship. He is "opening a wedge," beginning a new thing in our midst. Lewis was playing the flute, which is part of the Techillah root word Chalal. During this service, Pastor also was blowing the shofar. Every time the shofar would blow my ears would open. I feel like the Lord was showing me that it will be very important for us to open our ears, and HEAR what the Lord is saying, if we are to enter in and receive this "New Thing." It is going to be very important if we don't want to miss out.]

[23] Teaching - Understanding & Overcoming the Performance Spirit

By Sandy Warner 4/20/99

THE PERFORMANCE SPIRIT

A pervasive spirit sent to hinder worship and the free flow of the anointing within churches

ITS BACKGROUND:

In the world's definition, musicians are trained to perform.
To perform is merely to produce something in front of an audience.
The audience's task is to observe and to respond.
How they respond is to either appreciate or to judge.
The above concept is the basic ingredients of a world-wide spirit of performance that attacks worship teams as well as the participators in church services.

ITS INFLUENCE:

1) The worship team feels responsible to produce their gifts in such a way that they must take the people into the Presence of the Lord.
2) Because of this, they take the burden upon their shoulders to "produce."
3) If the "performing" of their gift doesn't produce the proper response, then they feel like they have failed. They are going to feel a measure of frustration. And they are going to lose a measure of confidence in their giftedness.
4) If the worship team is going through the motions and they see that the "audience" is just observing and not participating, it leaves the team feeling helpless and not knowing what to do to help the audience to enter into the desired response.
5) Likewise, if the people in the audience participate in outward visual worship and they think that other people are watching them and therefore it inhibits their participation, this is also the influence of a spirit of performance.
6) If people actually do not participate at all because they are worried that other people will be watching, then that is also the influence of a spirit of performance.
7) This influence goes beyond our traditional definition of worship. It also encompasses anyone who has a gift and is inhibited in sharing that gift, no matter what the gift.

ITS FRUIT:

The bottom line of being influenced by a spirit of performance is that we have our eyes on people and how they are or are not responding. A performance spirit gets our eyes on people and off our adoration for the Lord.
This spirit of performance quenches the anointing. It has been prophesied world-wide that the glory of God is coming and it is coming on the wings of worship and praise. God inhabits the praises of His people. We have got to overcome this spirit of performance if we want Him to inhabit our meetings.

PRACTICAL WAYS TO OVERCOME:

1) Building the progression of songs from singing about God to singing to God. This brings people's hearts into united adoration as a natural result of the flow.
2) Using transparencies enables people to enter in and not just observe.
3) Positioning the overhead projector so all can see the words to the songs.

4) Positioning the setting so people don't have to look through the worship team in order to worship and in order to see the transparencies. A stage and an audience is a natural set up towards presenting the "performer and the audience."
A while back, Don Potter, leader of MorningStar worship was trying to overcome another stronghold and that is one of worshipping the worship leader. Don had to turn his keyboard to the wall for 2 years until he could get his eyes off people and get the people's eyes off him!
5) Limiting songs that people do not know.
6) Allowing time for the Spirit of the Lord to hover in the room. After people have "spent" themselves in worship, musicians (without voices) play quietly, allowing people to rest in His Presence. The Spirit is allowed to do a deeper work than just a surface level. Many visions and hearing the Lord occur during this time of waiting upon the Lord. These deeper level experiences happen after people have finally entered in, got their eyes off of others and onto adoring and hearing the Lord.

SPIRITUAL WAYS TO OVERCOME:
1) Ask the Lord to forgive us for having our eyes on people and ask Him for help in turning our hearts towards Him.
2) Pray corporately against the spirit of performance.
3) Understand worship: Rick Joyner's newest book (The Call) shares his experience of going to the throne room. Jesus told him that one pathetic worship meeting had the capacity to touch the Father's heart like no other worship in heaven could. That is the reason why the angels love to come to earth and minister to us because they know how it pleases the Father. Rick saw this pathetic meeting and all of heaven crying because the Father was so deeply touched by the people's love and efforts to worship. He was deeply moved because in spite of all hell coming against us, still they chose to love and worship Him! We have the capacity to touch the Father like no one can in heaven. Rick could hardly wait to come down to earth and worship Him.
Worship is a matter of our expressing our heart to Him, and that is impossible when we have our eyes on others and their responses instead.

DANCING HANDS

One of the ways the Lord uses my hands is in worship. I "dance" through my hands and arms even when sitting in a chair, bed or at church. I strongly feel the Presence of the Lord upon me when I do this, and so all shyness leaves me. I simply express my adoration to Him and also His message as it comes to me, through the motions.

In the 80's I had several visions where I was doing this same "dance" flying in the sky. I felt every movement as strong yearnings and love motions to His Presence and the songs that the Holy Spirit was bringing forth on earth. Only in those dances, I was moving my entire body in the gravity free movement of flying and my whole heart, body and soul were expressing my adoration of Him, and also in response to what the Holy Spirit was playing through the music.

It has been many years since I had a vision like that, but I experience the same worship now in literal life, when I use my hands to worship Him in dance. I have found His Spirit is very creative when it comes to expressing many signs and fluidity of expression.

> Ps 134 NKJV
> Behold, bless the LORD, All you servants of the LORD, Who by night stand in the house of the LORD! 2 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary, And bless the LORD. 3 The LORD who made heaven and earth Bless you from Zion!
> Ps 63:8 NKJV

God, You are my God; Early will I seek You; My soul thirsts for You; My flesh longs for You In a dry and thirsty land Where there is no water. 2 So I have looked for You in the sanctuary, To see Your power and Your glory. 3 Because Your lovingkindness is better than life, My lips shall praise You. 4 Thus I will bless You while I live; I will lift up my hands in Your name. 5 My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness, And my mouth shall praise You with joyful lips.

When I remember You on my bed, I meditate on You in the night watches. 7 Because You have been my help, Therefore in the shadow of Your wings I will rejoice. 8 My soul follows close behind You; Your right hand upholds me.

RHEMA 6/16/97: USE YOUR HANDS TO EXPRESS THE KINGDOM

DREAM*: I was helping people express themselves when they were worshipping the Lord. I also shared how important it was not to despise the children, but to love and hug them when we could. I was remembering the verse where Jesus held the children. I was wanting them to become more free in their expression. It was a small group of people, then it grew to a huge coliseum filled with people expressing their worship in unusual ways. I saw two people do various cartwheels and gymnastics!*

I noticed there was an upper level that circled the main floor area. People were quite packed up there and it was similar to a mall area. They were more interested in the appearance of what they looked like in their worship outfits, than the worship on the main floor level. When I looked down at the floor where masses were expressing themselves, I politely excused myself and said, "I don't want to become isolated, I need to stay with them." I saw the escalator and took it down to the main floor.

As I was worshipping, I saw an angel floating above my head. She had a very long gown on. She looked down at me and I began to slightly bow before her as I danced. I also displayed my hands as though introducing that she wanted to say something. I said to myself, I am not worshipping her, but giving her honor. She said to me still floating above my head so that I had to look up, "Express yourself with your hands. That's what the Lord wants."

WORD TO PONDER 6/16/97 FREELY EXPRESS YOUR HEART IN WORSHIP

I want to bring My people into greater levels of worship. They shall know and feel My Presence as they learn to move their hands and their bodies in expression to their hearts and to the move of My Holy Spirit. My heavenly breeze will blow through and release them into greater and greater heights of praise. Only the childlike will be able to come into the freedom of expressing their hearts like this. And I will rejoice even if they do cartwheels for Me! How it touches My heart to see them pour out their love for Me in abandoned ways!

Consider your own heart and beware of another movement lurking in the same crowd. There will be some more interested in their apparel, what they look like, and even in the marketing of such, more than a pure heart in expressing their love for Me. There is nothing wrong with using beautiful garb to worship Me, but I see the hearts and know when they are more focused on themselves and what they look like than expressing their childlike love towards Me.

“And you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.” (Mark 12:30 NKJV)

STRETCH FORTH 7/14/04

PROPHETIC INTERCESSION, PROPHETIC MIMING: Today while getting dressed, I was worshipping to Don Potter's song about stretching forth the tent stakes. The Spirit came upon me and I fell into a combination of prophetic intercession and gesture. I was stretching forth the stakes and finally pounding them in. It was a distinctive expression because when the Holy Spirit was upon me in this, I felt the Spirit of Might in the stretch and the hammering in.

This was such an experience, I took it as a personal Word from the Lord to me and I prayed that I did not want to lose even an inch of territory that had been bought and won during the long war I was in. I know there is free territory to come into and I did not want to lose it because of my own frailties.

Isa 54:1-3 NKJV
Sing, O barren, you who have not borne! Break forth into singing, and cry aloud, you who have not labored with child! For more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married woman," says the LORD. "Enlarge the place of your tent, and let them stretch out the curtains of your dwellings; Do not spare; Lengthen your cords, and strengthen your stakes. For you shall expand to the right and to the left, and your descendants will inherit the nations, and make the desolate cities inhabited.

COMMENT ABOUT COMPOSITE
In the printing business, when someone has requested more than one color, we create the different color separations, plus what is called a composite. The composite is the combination, a blending of both so that the printer knows what it will look like when all the colors are combined.

WORD TO PONDER: BLENDED 9/5/91
We are one. You and I. You will begin to recognize this as I confirm your ways. I pour Myself into you and blended, we reach out together.

Did you think I wanted puppets for sons? Yes, willing and movable vessels. But not wooden. It is YOU I desire, ALL of you. Have you ever thought I actually LIKE you? I gave you a personality as unique as your fingerprint. No one can match your mold. Together, we blend and touch others.

I do not want to strip you as you seek to do My will. As you empty yourself and wait, you forget I MADE you human. I could have made you an angel, but I made you a living person and send you to other living people. Together we will move. Words are lifeless without My Spirit. You speak it, I quicken it. I go before you and prepare hearts. We will work together.

"...For the Lord delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married." (Isaiah 62:4)

WORD TO PONDER: SONGS IN THE WILDERNESS 2/22/98
Your songs are precious to Me. I hear the longings of your heart as I woo you into My arms. One by one, I watch the passions in your life drift away as you turn your heart toward Me. Step by step, My Spirit calls to you, and you leave other loves behind.

Even so, I ask you a question. You obey Me, you serve Me, but do you love Me? Your obedience pleases Me. Your service is responsible and even your sacrifice is faithful. But do you love Me? "Of course I love you!" you reply. Even still, I ask, "Do you love Me?"

Our union is not complete until you call Me Husband, instead of Master. I want to share a love that only comes through an undivided passionate heart… a heart of yearning, a heart of unquenchable longing to be satisfied. A heart that comes back for more and more and more and more, still wanting more. I want all of you. Do you want all of Me? How much do you want? How much is too much?

For Myself, I want ALL of you. Sing Me another song and let's dance the wind together. Listen to My Spirit call you with the wooing of My heart.

"Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her. 15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt. 16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call Me Ishi ; and shalt call Me no more Baali . 17 For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name. 19 And I will betroth thee unto Me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto Me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies. 20 I will even betroth thee unto Me in faithfulness: and thou shalt know the LORD. " (Hosea 2:14-17, 19-20)

WORD TO PONDER: TO TOUCH YOU 10/06/04

My dear, dear Bride. I want you. I want all of you. With great anticipation I have waited for the consummation of our mutual love. With longings too deep to be expressed, I have patiently waited all these years for you to overcome your fears and be set free to receive the fullest expressions of My love for you. I have held back and waited. I have yearned over you that you would come to a place to be able to receive. All of Me.

Sometimes I yearn to touch you with infinite tenderness as I am stirred by your gentle spirit. And sometimes when the intensity of waiting mounts, I come upon you suddenly, as an explosion of expression. There are so many places I long to take you in our journey of togetherness. Do not hold your heart back from Me. Trust Me that I only want the best for you and I long to give you the fullest expression of My love. Tangible and pure is My holy Presence as it comes upon you with refreshing waves of liquid love. Let My tangible anointing flood your being like the tides of the oceans that come and go. Then let My anointing build up like molten lava that bursts it lids upon impact. Violent in nature, but only violent through love. Break free dear Bride. All of you for all of Me.

Song 8:6-7 NKJV
Set me as a seal upon your heart, As a seal upon your arm; For love is as strong as death, Jealousy as cruel as the grave; Its flames are flames of fire, A most vehement flame. Many waters cannot quench love, Nor can the floods drown it. If a man would give for love all the wealth of his house, It would be utterly despised.

RHEMA 1/16/07 DANCING WITH HIM

HEARD: I will help you sort things through. I need to tell you something. I hope you understand, but you need to regroup.

PARABLE: I was fixing myself to get comfortable to go to sleep and said to myself, "Once you are settled, you will feel better." I knew this was the Lord speaking through me.

HEARD: Brilliant. Right on time. To understand. Sweetheart, you and I danced together. It was Me, the Holy Spirit.

Why didnt I see that? You did and you acknowledged it. From whence you came, all the way back to the beginning.

COMMENTS ABOUT DANCING: In the mid 80's the Lord gave me several visions where I was “dancing” in the sky. I could hear His music playing in heaven and my body, soul and spirit were responding to the music with everything in me. I was freely flying in the sky and moving my body in full expression of what I was feeling the Holy Spirit saying through the music. My movements were just like an ice skater does in ice dancing with a partner.

In a couple of the visions, I was actually going through the letters of the alphabet, forming them in the sky. Later He told me He was teaching me His language and showing me one letter at a time, as I experienced these things in my body, soul and spirit. I wrote the book 101+ Ways God Speaks as a result.

RHEMA 6/1/97: QUICKENED WORDS ABOUT QUARTERBACK INSTRUCTION

Wayne told me today that they now mount earphones in the quarterback's helmets. He receives verbal plays from the coach, instead of hand motions. Wayne said that they are so trained in using hand motions, that is takes months to get used to the ear commands. I of course was reminded of learning to hear the Lord's voice, and the training in how to remember it long enough to write it down, without the understanding of what He is saying or where He is going with the thought. Understanding comes as an afterthought and it is a slow way of communicating because of the learning curve and then putting the pieces together to see the overall whole of what is being said.

This concept also reminded me of the various learning theories. Some people learn best via verbal, some via visual, some both, and some only through experience and hands on touch. I have always been visual, where I can see a picture and it can communicate a 1,000 words. Whereby listening to words is not as effective for my brain. When something comes verbally, I need repetition to remember it, and that is probably why I am so wordy in trying to communicate as I think others need reinforcement the same way I do.

Both Wayne and our son can hear something once and remember and learn. I have never been that way. However, if someone tells me a story, I remember the story because it creates pictures in my mind as I listen.

1 Sam 3:1-10 AMP
NOW THE boy Samuel ministered to the Lord before Eli. The word of the Lord was rare and precious in those days; there was no frequent or widely spread vision. At that time Eli, whose eyesight had dimmed so that he could not see, was lying down in his own place. 3 The lamp of God had not yet gone out in the temple of the Lord, where the ark of God was, and Samuel was lying down 4 When the Lord called, Samuel! And he answered, Here I am. 5 He ran to Eli and said, Here I am, for you called me. Eli said, I did not call you; lie down again. So he went and lay down. 6 And the Lord called again, Samuel! And Samuel arose and went to Eli and said, Here am I; you did call me. Eli answered, I did not call, my son; lie down again. 7 Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord, and the word of the Lord was not yet revealed to him. 8 And the Lord called Samuel the third time. And he went to Eli and said, Here I am, for you did call me. Then Eli perceived that the Lord was calling the boy. 9 So Eli said to Samuel, Go, lie down. And if He calls you, you shall say, Speak, Lord, for Your servant is listening. So Samuel went and lay down in his place. 10 And the Lord came and stood and called as at other times, Samuel! Samuel! Then Samuel answered, Speak, Lord, for Your servant is listening.

RHEMA 4/29/97 CLARION WHISTLE

HEARD: Blind. Bucket. Rich. See for yourself.

QUICKENED EXPERIENCE: I was very tired at the end of our walk at the mall so I planted myself in front of the Radio Shack bench as Wayne continued walking. I said to the Lord, “Maybe You have a Word for me while I sit here.” Then I glanced at the TV screen that was playing a Radio Shack ad. I watched for quite a while and saw nothing quickened at all.

Then all of a sudden there was a rope dangling near the top of a lady’s head on the screen. She looked up, and pulled the rope. At the EXACT second she pulled it, the children’s riding toy train next to my bench blew a LOUD whistle. At the EXACT second that the whistle stopped, she finished tugging the rope and a bucket full of gold coins from the sky fell on top of her head!!!!

Well I guess I got my Word for the day!!!

Ps 68:19 NKJV
Blessed be the Lord, Who daily loads us with benefits, The God of our salvation!

GRANDMA ANNA RHEMA 9/4/87

DREAM: GAVE WHISTLE TO SANDY
I had two whistles and I gave Sandy one and instructed her to blow it at a certain time. (This is the second time I've seen Sandy with two whistles.)

GRANDMA ANNA RHEMA 10/27/87

HEARD THE FOLLOWING:
3 trains of corrections.
Spirit needing correction in directing.
New ground and new territory.
Break new ground and take new territory.

Blew the whistle in 3 areas.
Where the train has been.
Where the train is now.
Where the train is going.

OPENED EARS: Then I literally heard a very loud whistle of a train.

RHEMA 4/20/97: LOVED BUT REBUKED

QUICKENED REBUKE: Today at the grocery store (market) I had reached in to get my pen to write a check. It was not anywhere in my purse. I was feeling very low (and hopeless) about writing and saw it as a sign that the enemy was trying to steal my pen and thus writing. I muttered under my breath, "It's probably a parable." Wayne heard me and quickly rebuked me saying, "Don't be like that!" He is rarely so strong with me, and I wondered what exactly he meant. He said, "Where everything is a demon or everything is a parable or a sign."

A couple minutes later the cashier asked me if I had a coupon for the pop. I said, "No." It was not a sad no or a disgruntled no, it was simply no. The cashier said a quick, "Don't be so negative." He had a little cherub grin on his face and I wondered if he had heard the exchange between Wayne and I. In that brief moment I did not believe he heard a word of it. The Lord had simply filled his mouth, like Wayne 's. As the cashier grinned he punched in a 60¢ coupon into the register. I thanked him and was kind of stunned that the Lord would rebuke me so suddenly. I was comforted by it in a strange kind of way.

In the car I explained the Lord's rebuke to Wayne and what had occurred and also a correction in what he had said that not everything was a sign or a demon, only what is quickened. I said, "I can hardly wait to look up the number 60 when I get home." [The coupon was for 60¢] But I had forgotten by the time we got home. About 45 minutes later Wayne came in while I as working on the computer and asked me what 60 meant! He was taking a bath and started thinking about it! So we looked it up. I laughed when I read it.

HEARD: Trust Me.

Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but when the desire comes, it is a tree of life.

WORD TO PONDER: CEASE MOURNING
You have suffered a long season of mourning, for your spirit grew heavy with the pain of delay. I tell you to cease mourning for it is the dawn of a new day. I have broken through with My light and will turn your mourning into morning. I give a brand new start for a brand new day.

"Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert." (Isaiah 43:19 KJV) of heaviness; that they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that He may be glorified." (Isaiah 61:1-3 NKJV)

UPDATE: After 13 long years of waiting and preparation, the Lord launched me into public writing ministry 2 months later. Smile!

RHEMA 3/7/97: WORD PUN, THE LETTER "B"
BE YOURSELF

SAW AND HEARD: I saw a • (bullet) and the sentence said, "The you B's are the BE yourself."

HEARD: The Lord's answer. Freebie, that's another one.

COMMENT: Free "B" is so funny!

WORD TO PONDER 3/7/97 THE LETTER B
The letter B. It is a parable of what I want to you be. The you B's are the be yourself B's. And the freebies are another B. I want you to be free and alive. I want you to B totally restored and all that I have created you to bee.

GOD'S TIMING

Sandy Warner ~ ~ swauthor@usa.net ~ ~ www.thequickenedword.com

RHEMA 10/18/96 COUNTDOWN TOWARDS BLASTOFF

DIVINE TIMING: Today I counted down from 11:10 starting at 10, 96, 8 etc. On the word blastoff it turned to 11:11.

It was supernatural since it was just instinctive to start counting, and we had no second hand on the clock, it was digital.

UPDATE: The Lord launched me into internet writing ministry in 1997.

BEFORE YOUR TIME 7/28/94

It is not the fullness of time for My calling upon your life. Understand it is not your lack or your failure in any way. It is My divine timing and purposes which incorporate much more than your own personal life. So, even though you have grown and matured on the inside and are prepared and ready, I ask you to wait.

"To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:" (Eccl 3:1 KJV)

ESTABLISHING YOU IS MY JOY 10/28/03

Like a mother lion who allows her cubs to wallow all over her, so My love embraces those who are nudging their faces into My own. I have great feelings of tenderness as My own reach to kiss My face with their desires just to be near Me. I Am establishing many in this hour, both adult and youth through the tenderness of My loving confirmations.

Dear one, do not grow weary when you do not see My face. I want you to understand that it is not for the lack of trying. It is a matter of divine timing. When I appear will I see your faith? Your faith indeed shall be prepared to see Me and you shall see Me indeed.

What is coming up? I have a storehouse of old window panes that were taken out of your house. They shall be replaced with clean, transparent, new sight and new vision. Rejoice!

"This is Jacob, the generation of those who seek Him, who seek Your face." (Psalm 24:6 NKJV)

RHEMA 10/11/98 DIVINE TIMING, HEAVENLY BREAD SENT

HEARD: Let the praise of My God be in my mouth. We will dance. Service. My well. Freedom. Let the praises of My God be continually in my mouth. A freedom phrase. Each time I welcome You in my midst, You are there. Hosts. It's a simple thing to do. Watch. Just glorify Me.

Canopy. Divine order. Canopy. Justice. Giver her a big hug. Divine timing. Restitution. Outreach. What is your life? Who can add to your stature? Government.

Acts 3:19-21 KJV
Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you: Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

PIX: I saw beautiful white angel wings with feathers.

HEARD: Precious. Protected. Why don't you ask them? Authority. Resurrection time, healing time.

PIX: I saw frozen sliced of bread in the store. Half of the shelves in the store were empty.

HEARD: It is as though times were more settled. Sound an alarm. My feet hurt.

Eph 6:15 NKJV
... and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace...

PIX: I saw a holy incense flames flickering and sweeping across the nation.

HEARD: I saw you getting feathers out of your backpack.

PIX: Someone getting the feathers out to sprinkle as though they were bread crumbs.

HEARD: A huge amount of giving. The windows of heaven. Kitchen published.

WORD TO PONDER: 10/11/98 DIVINE TIMING, HEAVENLY BREAD SENT

Seasons come and go, but I AM the Lord over all. I set all things in alignment and order, each prepared to come into its set place in perfect agreement with heaven's time table.

The world is cold and frozen, and My heavenly manna is sparse on the world's shelves. Come, adore your King and your Maker and welcome My Presence and holy angels in your midst. Praise shall melt the world and bring forth My heavenly bread for all who are hungry. Those who sup upon My bread shall walk in peace.

What is your life? Can you add one inch to your stature? No matter what has been stolen of your peace and walk in Me, I will come and restore that which has fallen. It is resurrection time as I sweep My holy flame across your nation and bring slumbering ones back from frozen territory. Ask Me for healing, and I will send My angels in your midst to raise you up to your full stature in Me.

Acts 3:19-21 KJV
Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you: Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

RHEMA 2/23/03 DIVINE TIMING OVER THE EVIL DAY

HEARD: Thank you, scroll put in my hand. Just around the corner. You're on a white horse. Divine timing.

I'm not really happy about it. Evil day. What's coming. We the people. In order to form a more perfect union, still vote. This is about the Son and restoration, not damage. Gospel. The Lord Jesus Christ. Mantle. It's My Word. My keeping power. My anointed one. There's nothing wrong with that, it's up to God. Ruler.

The coming people and relatives. Go with God. Go with those terms from afar. And write My Word. Lord Jesus. Purified. Jesus Christ My Son. I kept Him, just like a keep you. Now Go. Blaze a trail.

> Isa 60:1-5 AMP
> ARISE [from the depression and prostration in which circumstances have kept you - rise to a new life]! Shine (be radiant with the glory of the Lord), for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you! [Zech 8:23.]
> 2 For behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and dense darkness [all] peoples, but the Lord shall arise upon you [O Jerusalem], and His glory shall be seen on you. [Isa 60:19-22; Mal 4:2; Rev 21:2,3.]

3 And nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising. [Isa 2:2,3; Jer 3:17.]

4 Lift up your eyes round about you and see! They all gather themselves together, they come to you. Your sons shall come from afar, and your daughters shall be carried and nursed in the arms.

5 Then you shall see and be radiant, and your heart shall thrill and tremble with joy [at the glorious deliverance] and be enlarged; because the abundant wealth of the [Dead] Sea shall be turned to you, unto you shall the nations come with their treasures. [Ps 119:32.]

=======

WORD TO PONDER: MOVE ON 8/9/00

As a team of trail blazers, you have stood on the front lines battling the obstacles, one step at a time. Enduring shame, desolation and death on every side, you have faithfully plowed a trail behind you. This has been a humble, lowly and less than honorable place. And yet in spite of all that you see, hear, think and feel about yourself, your calling, your intercession, I declare like thunder in the clouds. MOVE ON! For I pierce your way with clarity and with the lighting rods of My power, I will break the mountains before you and make them plains. I have commissioned you to move on and come into new land, flowing with milk and honey. I promise you, you shall not be disappointed.

"Then at last the LORD said to Me, `You have been wandering around in this hill country long enough; turn northward." (Deut 2:2-3 NLT)

I was listening to a tape from Bob Jones. Bob loved to work in his garden and one day he found a marble. The Lord told him that he had lost his marbles and He was going to help Bob find them. (smile) As it turned out, the Lord used these marbles to speak to him.

• On August 8 1990 he prophesied a new beginning. (8/8) It was the sign of resurrection day. On this day Amber was born 8 pounds, it was also the day he found his 8th marble.

• The day he found his 12th marble he prophesied “I am going to bring a divine order to the body of Christ. I'm going to bring government to it. I'm going to bring the Holy Spirit over it I'm going to break the control of man from off of it.” Then Bob said it will start in 1995, begin in a big way in 1996, and come to a maturity in 1997.

RHEMA 6/27/01 FINDING OUR PLACE
[I was remembering the Word that Don Potter gave at Albany about the Chinese marble game and how sometimes the Lord throws our marbles up into the air and where they land is all out of order. He does this to rearrange us.]

PIX: I saw the Chinese game that we used to play as a kid. It is a bunch of squares with numbers on them that slide around in slots. The object is to get the numbers to move into place and order. Sometimes even though a number is in the right place, it needs to be dislodged and moved out of place in order to help others to get into place.

PIX: I saw a bunch of chicklets (baby chickens) and 2 eagles in the pen with them.

STORY: The chicklet vision relates to the story that the prophetic eagles have been raised in the chicken coupe, thinking they are chickens. But they are different and just never fit in. One day they start exercising their wings of faith and discover they are not a chicken, they can FLY right out of that pen and begin to soar and see places they never saw before. The higher they soar, the more they see.

WORD TO PONDER FOUND YOUR MARBLES 2/26/03

For many years, you have been warring through the second heaven and the angels have been warring down to you. Together you have been rebuilding an open and safe passageway that both man and angels can freely pass without hindrance. My precious one, the porthole is now open and these two armies of man and angels are joined as one to loose My kingdom without any more delay on earth. You have the angelic hosts with you wherever you go. They are your backup everywhere.

For a long time, you felt like you lost your “marbles.” Your life was displaced as you clung to Me to set you aright. Your marbles scattered and you searched to collect them and find your place of stability in Me. You did not lose your marbles as you supposed. I kept them all, and I kept you. I kept My Word to you and you shall see them all come to pass. Your marbles are all safe with Me.

You are concerned that old enemies might inhabit old places and wounds. The old has been swept away and excess baggage is gone. Nothing is left but complete rest in Me, My love. However I also have new assignments and places for you to go. So it is time to wake up, get dressed and ready for a new day.

This day I give you My memorial stone that something great has taken place, for a lengthy assignment has been completed. Rejoice, for the marbles are now planted as your borders and they are glowing with color as the newly completed porthole glows with My glory.

Isa 54:12,13 KJV
And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones. And all thy children shall be taught of the LORD; and great shall be the peace of thy children.

THE CORNERSTONE

By Bobby Conner
Article 29 June 25 ,2002

In an extraordinarily stirring prophetic dream I was transported to a large construction sight. At the construction area the foundation was especially smooth and also extremely level. However, over to one side and out of its proper place was a massive cornerstone. I was assigned the task of putting the enormous cornerstone into place. However, I did not have any heavy equipment to aid in moving the huge stone into its proper place. I sensed that it was extremely crucial that this was done as quickly as possible, but it must also be accomplished in the correct manner.

I stood there, in deep thought, pondering how I could accomplish this overwhelming task. Suddenly, many small children, as well as youth, came around me; each child had a brown leather bag in their hand. I was completely surrounded by these incredibly beautiful children. They were all exceptionally joyous and full of life. One was pulling on my pant's leg, as if to get my undivided attention. I said, "I am sorry but I am too busy to play a child's game now."

Immediately the voice of the Lord spoke saying, "The answer to your problem is in the children's hands." I was aware that He was speaking about the bag in their hands. I looked into the face of the little boy at my side. His deep blue eyes twinkled with life, and his golden hair glistened in the sunlight. The same little boy that had been seeking my attention was smiling with childlike confidence; now he lifted up his bag offering it willingly to me. I quickly looked inside and found that each sack was filled with brilliant colored marbles. The Lord said, "Have the children place their marbles in front of the stone," adding, "and then you can easily roll the huge stone into its proper place." I did as I was told and the stone was almost effortlessly put into place. The massive stone glided over the marbles as if it was on ball bearings. I could guide and move the stone now with my thumbs. I was totally amazed at how easily this had been done.

The moment the stone went into the proper place I felt an astonishing sense of relief and accomplishment. Then the scene changed, and my attention was directed to behold extremely long lines of people approaching the foundation stone from every direction. These people were from every walk of life and from every nation on earth. Each person bore a different size and shape of stone. One by one they came and placed their stone into the wall. As they placed their stone into the wall, in a very amazing way, each one became a living stone in the wall. The wall was strong and beautiful beyond description.

SHARING YOUR BREAD

The following entry just came out in one of my posts and the experience was given to me years before the Lord gave me a writing ministry.

EXPERIENCE 8/06/96: After hearing so little of late, I have grown very hungry and have been knocking continually for several days. Upon waking from another blank night, I asked the Lord what was going on. I thought of many possibilities, but nothing was planted in my heart. Then when I was getting ready for the day I heard the Lord say, "Encouragement." That was it.

I left for errands and then received the strangest Word. I was at the grocery store and heard the phrase, "Maybe she ought to know." I had the distinct feeling that either the Lord or some angels were speaking something about me. At that exact moment, a bakery lady with a giant 33 gallon clear plastic sack of fresh bread walked past me, carrying the bread over her shoulder. This was really quickened to me but I did not know why. Then later as I was driving home, I drove behind an "oversized load" truck on the freeway. I kept thinking about that oversize bread sack the lady was carrying and wondering what I was supposed to know. Well, I haven't heard Him in days, I guess He is trying to send me encouragement.

[HINDSIGHT NOTE: I think God has a tongue in check sense of humor!]

==========

CONFIRMATION 2/17/06: Before my above story came out on the net, I had completely forgotten having posted it a few months prior. Then 2 days ago, Wayne bought us 2 loaves of hot French Bread, because the kids were here and I was fixing an Italian dinner. I wanted the bread to stay fresh for the next day and didn't have any sack big enough, without cutting the bread. So, I got out a giant 33 gallon clear plastic garbage sack and wrapped the bread in it. We laughed about the sack, but it worked and the bread stayed wonderfully fresh for the next night's meal. In 30 years of cooking, I have never put bread in a giant sack before.... And then the above post came out. God is so precious with His confirmations.

I was teary at the Lord's smile upon me, and I read this post as fresh manna straight from Him to me, Wayne came in and sat down upon my bed. I read to him about the bread lady. I told him we had one loaf left in our sack in the kitchen and that was how I felt. I had only one loaf left. I have barely dented my journals, because I have no time, due to outside jobs. My energy in the Lord feels like I only have one loaf left. I was telling Wayne this, and he shook his head. He said, "No, that loaf is not what you have left, it is your new bread, that is your FIRST loaf in your sack." So precious.

==========

(A few days later, the Lord answered me about that one loaf.)

VISION: I saw 2 white 5 gallon buckets
HEARD: "Bread"

I knew there was bread grain in those buckets! I have a lot of white gallon buckets full of grain and emergency supplies should we ever be caught without electricity in our area. Now thinking about those white buckets, I realize He is bringing back to me my past promise of food storage... that when adding water to what I had purchased in grain, it will all multiply naturally and He will also multiply them supernaturally should we ever need them for supplying other's needs.

The 2 buckets represents a double portion. Also, one makes bread out of crushed grain and again that is multiplied in the process of waiting for it to rise. He is saying that I may not see anything but one loaf on the counter, but I have many seeds inside that come out for good bread in the right time.

==========

QUICKENED VERSES ABOUT BREAD

Isa 55:10-11 NLT
"The rain and snow come down from the heavens and stay on the ground to water the earth. They cause the grain to grow, producing seed for the farmer and bread for the hungry. It is the same with my word. I send it out, and it always produces fruit. It will accomplish all I want it to, and it will prosper everywhere I send it.

Isa 28:24-29 NLT
Does a farmer always plow and never sow? Is he forever cultivating the soil and never planting it? Does he not finally plant his seeds for dill, cumin, wheat, barley, and spelt, each in its own section of his land? The farmer knows just what to do, for God has given him understanding. He doesn't thresh all his crops the same way. A heavy sledge is never used on dill; rather, it is beaten with a light stick. A threshing wheel is never rolled on cumin; instead, it is beaten softly with a flail. Bread grain is easily crushed, so he doesn't keep on pounding it. He threshes it under the wheels of a cart, but he doesn't pulverize it. The LORD Almighty is a wonderful teacher, and he gives the farmer great wisdom.

A GRAIN OF WHEAT
From Visions from Annies' Visions

As I went to prayer in a certain place, many sorrowful memories swept over my mind. In this atmosphere of unbelief there was much opposition; nevertheless, the Spirit of the Lord finally drew near and carried me through darkness of spiritual enemies to the glorious entrance of the great cross of light. However welcome it always is to me, for I know that jut beyond the cross He awaits me. In the passing through that cross-door all the sorrows, fears and stains of earth are melted away and I am then ready to enter into His presence. Passing through that wondrous cross I heard His voice coming to me telling me to not fear. As always, all fears were fully washed away and I found myself standing before that mighty Cloud of highest glory.

When He told me to look, I looked and saw a beautiful field of grain like unto ripe wheat which belonged to Him. He plucked one of the grains of wheat then showed me the process that all of His grain was going to have to pass through.

He brought the little grain that He had taken in His hand to an angel of great stature and might who held in his hands two large mill stones. This mighty angel of great beautiful and tender love put the grain between the stones and bruised and crushed it with great vigor, smashing and breaking it into very fine powder.

With great tenderness and love, the Lord took this ground grain and carried it to another place where I saw a stone of bread. It was not a loaf I saw but a stone. The Lord told me that this was His bread that He was making, then proceeded to take this finely ground knead and mold and form it into the stone of bread. He looked with much love at this lovely bread filled with life and light and cared for it most tenderly. I was astonished at the love He showed for this stone of fine bread. Afterwards He told me that He would have to take all His other grain through this same process in order to make fine bread of it.

CONCLUSION

{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration.}

WORD TO PONDER: FRESH BREAD
I give good gifts to those who ask, and My children are hungry for fresh bread. For many years you have gathered My ingredients and mixed the dough. And it has multiplied and swollen as time passed. Then into the furnace of heat, and the bread has cooked in My perfect timing. Now out it comes. Ummm, it smells so good!

You have wondered how do I apply all of these years of grain? What can be done to harvest this? And now before you is this huge loaf of bread. My Spirit is the knife that slices it into edible portions. I will lay open the years before you and pierce it with such relevance that you will be amazed at My good gifts. For your portion runs over and you have yet to really know how much. Fresh hot manna, from the Father of good gifts… let us break the bread together and eat from My table.

I AM giving you manna from heaven and it is making good bread for you to eat. And along your journey as you eat this heavenly bread, you shall leave a trail of bread crumbs across the face of the earth. Even as you have cast it to the nations, upon the waters of life, and waited upon Me.... so it comes back to you multiplied, over and over again. Dear one, trust Me. You are not on your last loaf!

Eccl 11:1 NKJV
Cast your bread upon the waters, for you will find it after man

Prov 11:24-25 NKJV
There is one who scatters, yet increases more; And there is one who withholds more than is right, but it leads to poverty. The generous soul will be made rich, and he who waters will also be watered himself.

WORD TO PONDER: "A" TEAM AUTHORITY

My "A" team is coming. And they shall be released into the supernatural and walk in My governmental authority. Things will be ignited and flaming with passion and Presence. Prayer lines and ways of doing church will never be the same. Instead, they shall release a corporate Word, and the power of such will touch the corporate meeting in one swoop. Masses will receive deliverance, healing and impartations like never before accomplished in history. Great grace, great grace, great grace!

SOMETIMES I FEEL LIKE A NUT 6/24/96

DREAM: There was a long line of people walking in a circle. Each had a post-it note stuck to their forehead, each saying something different. As I passed, I realized I didn't have a post-it note. So I stuck one on my own forehead. The person who saw me told me to write "In a nut shell" on mine, so I did and then slapped it on my forehead.

EXPERIENCE: When I woke. I woke singing a strange commercial song over and over. Finally I grew so tired to if, I rebuked it. At that moment, I suddenly realized it was the Lord as it connected with the dream I'd had before waking! He is so funny with His riddle speech and mysteries. I love them.

SONG: "Sometimes I feel like a nut, sometimes I don't. Almond Joys got nuts, Mounds don't."

> Song 6:10-11 NKJV
> Who is she who looks forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, Awesome as an army with banners? I went down to the garden of nuts to see the verdure of the valley, to see whether the vine had budded and the pomegranates had bloomed.

WORD TO PONDER: GATHERING MY NUTS 6/24/96
And My own ones will come to fruition and blossom even as Aaron's rod blossomed in My Presence. These shall lay in My Presence all night, and bring forth hidden fruit.

Their hard shells shall crack and the fruit shall be made manifest. The threshing floor will be full and overflowing with seeds and fruits and nuts of My delight.

"And Moses placed the rods before the LORD in the tabernacle of witness. Now it came to pass on the next day that Moses went into the tabernacle of witness, and behold, the rod of Aaron, of the house of Levi, had sprouted and put forth buds, had produced blossoms and yielded ripe almonds." (Num 17:6-9 NKJV)

COMMENTS: When Aaron's rod laid in the Presence of the Lord all night, it sprouted blossoms, then almonds. It was the one that the Lord chose. Sometimes I feel like my calling, sometimes I dont!

RHEMA 7/10/96:

HEARD: Candidate. It's difficult for me. Sometimes I feel like a nut, sometimes I don't. I guess what you're saying is I don't feel like my calling but it doesn't matter. Exactly. You have to see it to believe it. You will. Bottom line, you'll be fine.

RHEMA 6/22/96: OPEN YOUR MOUTH AND I WILL FILL IT

HEARD: Weakness. I love you. The most common thing of the gospel.

Purpose defeat the enemy. God will do it. Gift. Abide in Me. Let Me do it through you.

HEARD: Tongue. Scalpel. Training. One step at a time. Listen men of God. Recovery. Talk to you without My mouth. Open your mouth. Open it, fill it. Be obedient. See how He works. Confidence. Your inspired. If I could talk like that. Pull it off.

PIX: I saw a tape across a mouth.

HEARD: It's easy once you get started. Practice.

See results. You'll see. You are natural and super natural. Didn't understand this. The concept. Inspired by God.

PIX: I saw the putting on some chap stick on the lips. (anointing)

HEARD: And He said anoint your mouth. How am I supposed to know what to do? It's like chewing gum. Chew His Word. Like a cud.

PIX: I saw a corner of a lip under some tape that is across a mouth.

HEARD: Prophesy out loud No reason why you should feel it. Already there. Under the tape. Assurance. But you don't feel anything. It's like tongues. Motor mouth. Like tongues only with understanding. Planning to release your mouth. At home start. Translation out loud. Help you get over the hump. Let go. Let it flow. Floored. Access. A new beginning. Around the corner. Now tongues. Then prophetic.

WORD TO PONDER 6/22/96 OPEN YOUR MOUTH AND I WILL FILL IT

I love dear one, and understand your weakness. Your mouth and tongue has been shut by the intimidator for too long. I have given you a great gift deposited within you like a wealthy bank account. And in your weakness, I will be strong and release you. I will give you pain killer and take you through surgery to loose your tongue. I will cut away the dead part that does not yield life, and loose the strands that hold it from speaking My Word. I will feed you and you shall in turn feed many. You think that I will come upon you in a great rush and you will feel this anointing that should be speaking. But I AM telling you, it is there, and you shall speak it forth just like you have the unction to speak in tongues. You shall chew My Word and ponder it, then suddenly you shall speak it forth with understanding. Let it flow My love, in that day your tongue shall flow like a river.

"I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it." (Ps 81:10 KJV)

> WORD TO PONDER: I WILL FILL YOUR MOUTH 9/02/03
> As you abide in Me, I will give you the nourishing Words that your heart craves. We will have fellowship together as you seek Me and cling to Me. Even as you pick the fruit off your own vine to eat, I fill your mouth with sweet things that nourish your heart for another day's walk in your journey through life. Simply abide.
> So the LORD said to him, "Who has made man's mouth? Or who makes the mute, the deaf, the seeing, or the blind? Have not I, the LORD? Now therefore, go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what you shall say." (Exodus 4:11-12 NKJV)

Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me. "I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me you can do nothing. (John 15:4-6 NKJV)

RHEMA 6/6/96: GIVING HONOR TO ONE ANOTHER

DREAM: It was the department store's closing time. I was to go up to the 3rd level (parable 3rd heaven) and I was looking for the elevator. I got caught in a line of people and they were being ushered into a meeting room. Pastor said from the back of the room, "Today's lesson is on giving one another honor." Then he had us stand up to be excused for the down elevator.

The room and people looked like the end of a wedding ceremony where every other row is excused one at a time so they may leave in an orderly fashion. The first row in front of me was excused, then the first row across the isle. I was first in line of the second row and I knew it was my turn. As I started to move, he stopped me and allowed the whole section on the right side of the building to be excused while I stood waiting.

During the wait, Wayne came into line in front of me as though I had been saving a place for him. As he did this, I thought, "How appropriate he should be here!" I knew it was his place and I graciously accepted it without hesitation.

As I was standing there waiting, I saw everyone's outfits they wore while working in the store. Each was different, reflecting their position. I wore a long flowing nightgown. It was made of beautiful shimmering material and had several layers on it. I wondered if I would have to take the people's elevator to the bottom before I could use it to go to the 3rd level above.

WORD TO PONDER 6/6/96 WAITING TO GO TO THE THRONE ROOM

You are waiting in line, for the right timing to come to the throne room. In the mean time, I AM enduing you with My sabbath rest in My Words. And your loved one shall join you and take his place in line along with you.

“After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter. 2 And immediately I was in the spirit: and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.” (Rev 4:1-2 KJV)

Quickened about the elevator to the bottom floor:

> Matt 23:11-12 NKJV
> But he who is greatest among you shall be your servant. And whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.
> Phil 2:2-4 NKJV
> Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself. Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others.

ABOUT GOING TO THE THRONE

In the early 1980's, when I knew it was my promise to go to the throne room and see the Lord, I was very busy trying to do everything I could think of to make it there. Soon the Lord taught me the concept of a “striving spirit” and helped me to see I was striving not only in myself, but with Him. He told me He was going to bring me into Sabbath rest, whereby I would be finished with all that striving stuff, and learn to just rest in Him. I had many things about nightgowns back then. The very best example I remember was one particular time I was really anxious about seeing Him:

VISION 1980's: I had a vision where my bed was by the window, and instead of resting in it, I was pacing back and forth in front of the window like an animal would do in a zoo. The Lord's answer to that problem was a picture I shall never forget: It was the large, bold letter E that they have on eye charts: It was laying on its back, in a 4 poster bed, looking up to heaven. In His funny way He was telling me “Keep your eyes focused on Me, and be at rest while you are doing so!”

There is a divine tension between striving to enter into His rest and being there. I have placed all my natural and supernatural strength into resisting the enemy so that I may draw near to Him for many years. I have most definitely “striven” in doing so.

However, as I break through and hear Him I have learned to be at complete rest. It is a rest in my body, my mind, my heart, my emotions. I have done this so often I have learned to do it even now during the day, and can hear Him thus. I have found if my mind is distracted, my emotions are disarrayed, or whatever, I am not able to enter into that rest and I have to separate from it all to come to Him. It is a learned discipline, for my survival at night and in the day time when other things press in.

Sabbath rest is my heart's desire, and I know it has something to do with leaving the darkness behind and entering into a place where I simply believe Him and His Words and nothing that might oppose such matters.

Sabbath rest to me is trusting in the Sovereignty of God. It is taking authority over the demonic that manifest, because that is what Jesus did, and it is trusting in God's goodness and dominion over all for His good purposes.

> Heb 4:13 NKJV
> Therefore, since a promise remains of entering His rest, let us fear lest any of you seem to have come short of it. 2 For indeed the gospel was preached to us as well as to them; but the word which they heard did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard it. 3 For we who have believed do enter that rest, as He has said:
> "So I swore in My wrath,'They shall not enter My rest,'" although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. 4 For He has spoken in a certain place of the seventh day in this way: "And God rested on the seventh day from all His works"; 5 and again in this place: "They shall not enter My rest."
> 6 Since therefore it remains that some must enter it, and those to whom it was first preached did not enter because of disobedience, 7 again He designates a certain day, saying in David, "Today," after such a long time, as it has been said: "Today, if you will hear His voice,Do not harden your hearts."
> 8 For if Joshua had given them rest, then He would not afterward have spoken of another day. 9 There remains therefore a rest for the people of God. 10 For he who has entered His rest has himself also ceased from his works as God did from His.
> 11 Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest, lest anyone fall according to the same example of disobedience. 12 For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. 13 And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

RHEMA 6/3/96: TRANSPARENCY THE VEIL REMOVED SOON HEARD: Authority to remove.

EXPERIENCE: At this exact moment I heard remove, I somehow got my little pillow stuck under me and off came the cover again. Then as I noticed it, I heard the following:

HEARD: I agree with you.

I knew this was a parable of me being given the authority to remove the veil of my relationship with the Lord and becoming transparent to share it with others. I also see the parable that new wine in an old skin is very tight fitting. The cover is a parable of the leaving the old wine skin behind, because the new thing that He is doing will not fit in the old life.

CONFIRMATION: Amazing! As I finished writing the above pillow case parable in my journal, I glanced at a page in March 95 rhema, I had previously turned to but not yet read! The Lord is so amazing. March 1995:

ANNA HEARD ON 3/3/095*: Veil lifted soon. It's time for all My people to be unwrapped. It's time to leave the old behind and become new.*

MY RHEMA ON 3/3/095*: Again, I keep accidentally pulling the case off my little bed pillow at night! (Pulling off the cover = revelation, and exposure)*

UPDATE DOUBLE CONFIRMATION:
As I typed the above in June rhema, I saw a 2nd parable of the old pillow and the new case so I added this sentence: “I also see the parable that new wine in an old skin is very tight fitting!” The amazing addition is because in my journal notes I only recorded the date and the fact there was a column about the pillow cover. I had no idea what was on that date as I typed this. Then I stopped and looked up the date on the 1995 file, searching for the column. My eyes popped when I saw “It's time to leave the old behind and become new!”

Lord You are super amazing. Come Lord Jesus come.

HEARD: Soon My Beloved, soon.

WORDS TO PONDERS ABOUT TRANSPARENCY

TEACH YOUR CHILDREN 12/24/96

In spite of the fact I have called you, you remain perplexed and wonder at all I have done in your walk. However you need not be perplexed between your humanity and your calling. In spite of your spiritual stature, be strengthened, be girded in the fact that I have also called you to walk slowly with others at their pace, along side of them. I have placed you there as My teacher, one who understands their need and one who provides help, protection, and defense over their weakness. Listen oh enemy to the roar of My wife. She breaks through with every opportunity with a brave stand against your work. She will not rest until her children of this world are set free. I have trained her for this, and we have a covenant together. I give My teacher, transparent in her humanity and transparent in her walk with Me, to teach My children how to find freedom.

“And all thy children shall be taught of the LORD; and great shall be the peace of thy children.” (Isa 54:13 KJV)

COMING OUT OF HIDING 1/29/97

I have made you My transparent vessel, so that My children will see the beauty of genuine realness. I have made you bold, able to publish your life, and come out of hiding so that others may see your worship of Me through it and be set free to be transparent themselves. The beauty of your transparency goes deeper than the mind, straight into the heart. Thank you dear one, it is true worship as you lay yourself bare without shame before My Presence. Always remember that you are at complete liberty to share or withhold anything you choose. To share out of your private life is a sacrifice and I receive it as a sweet smelling savor.

“For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.” (1 Cor 13:12 KJV)

=======

IT'S TIME TO STEP INTO MY GLORY 7/25/99
You have dwelt at this mountain long enough. Turn and go north. Hear the voice of the Lord, step in, step into My glory. The liquid light of My sustenance, My being is moving and swirling around you. Open your eyes and peer through the window, and you shall see My glory. You shall become transparent for all to see as I glorify Myself through you. Yikes! Can you handle this? Yes you can, as You know Your Source. You know exactly what to do. It will be you and I and you and them. They shall be one even as we are one. Welcome to My club says the Lord of Hosts. I've been waiting a long time.

"Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord." (2 Cor 3:17-18 NKJ)

=======

READY 8/3/99
Transparent one who swims in clear water, I have made you ready. I will divide and multiply your life and give you life abundantly. You are ready My wife, you are ready to receive My fullness. I will give you a new life, and restore all that was lost. You will no longer be tossed like a ship in the stormy sea. I delight in enduing you with a pure white wedding dress, for you who has made herself ready. Expect even now, I will come with My glory for My bride to be.

" …that in the dispensation of the fullness of the times He might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven and which are on earth-- in Him. In Him also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestined according to the purpose of Him who works all things according to the counsel of His will, that we who first trusted in Christ should be to the praise of His glory." (Eph 1:10-12 NKJ)
=======

UNDER THE SPOT LIGHT 7/2/02
I alone do the calling and choosing. I have been establishing you for a long, long time for My vessels will have been thoroughly prepared for this hour.

You have grown content in hiding behind the veil, so fear not when I suddenly shine My spotlight right onto your face. For you, My Love, are among My chosen, and as much as you would like to hide, it is your destiny to shine for Me. So, allow My complete transformation to take place in your life and let Me finish that which I have begun. I am making you translucent and transparent that they may see Me in you.

"But whenever anyone turns to the Lord, then the veil is taken away. Now, the Lord is the Spirit, and wherever the Spirit of the Lord is, he gives freedom. And all of us have had that veil removed so that we can be mirrors that brightly reflect the glory of the Lord. And as the Spirit of the Lord works within us, we become more and more like him and reflect his glory even more." (2 Cor 3:16-18 NLT)

=======

TRANSPARENCY 10/06/02
Thank you dear one for giving so graciously to others what I give to you. You share your testimony, your relationship with Me, and your life in a transparent manner due to the nature of My calling upon your life and I would have you no other way than to be genuine and real. I know this has cost you your privacy and want to reassure you. Please do not feel ashamed. What you perceive as naked weakness and vulnerability is being transformed into the beauty of My glory and honor. I clothe you in the beauty of My Word, and it shall go forth with My power and blessing.

"For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." (Heb 4:12-13 KJV)

=======

TRANSPARENT PAIN 7/14/04
Sometimes, I send you on assignments of transparency where you are placed in a vulnerable place. Yes, just like living in a glass house. I will uphold you as you witness misunderstandings whiz past you like boulders ready to shatter your fragile containers. Yes, it hurts sometimes as you seek the Truth and align yourself with such. Always remember there is a treasure at the bottom of the heap. It is up to you to press past your pain straight into the heart of the matter. It's all about love. When My love is your ruling motive, your life will always be a pure reflection.

2 Cor 3:18 NLT
And all of us have had that veil removed so that we can be mirrors that brightly reflect the glory of the Lord. And as the Spirit of the Lord works within us, we become more and more like him and reflect his glory even more.

RHEMA 6/2/96: THE SHULAMITE RUNS AFTER HER BELOVED

DREAM: AN "ALL STAR" RUNNING IN THE SPIRIT

I saw a black woman run in a race. As she ran, her spirit also was running with her. She was normal size and her spirit was 3-4 times taller than she was. There were times where the appearance of her spirit changed. One time she was running and carrying her spirit across her waist and hip, as though slung sidewise. It was bent like a boomerang across her hip. There were other times her spirit was quite fat, and other times short. The most glorious was when it was tall and in perfect sink with the steps of her running. In these times, they were running in perfect union. As I told her this, I saw a sign in the heavenlies that said "All Star." It was like a logo or a computer icon. As I saw it, I fell under the power of the Holy Spirit.

THE SHULAMITE RUNS AFTER HER BELOVED

Song 1:7 THE SHULAMITE
Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth - For your love is better than wine. 3 Because of the fragrance of your good ointments, Your name is ointment poured forth; Therefore the virgins love you. 4 Draw me away! We will run after you.

The king has brought me into his chambers. We will be glad and rejoice in you. We will remember your love more than wine. Rightly do they love you. I am dark, but lovely, O daughters of Jerusalem, Like the tents of Kedar, Like the curtains of Solomon. 6 Do not look upon me, because I am dark, Because the sun has tanned me. My mother's sons were angry with me; They made me the keeper of the vineyards, But my own vineyard I have not kept. 7 Tell me, O you whom I love, Where you feed your flock, Where you make it rest at noon. For why should I be as one who veils herself By the flocks of your companions?

HEARD: And then what? I beheld Him.

RHEMA 6/1/96: STADIUM MINISTRIES MASSIVE HEALINGS

DREAM: I was in what appeared to be a foreign hospital where there were many antiquated narrow beds lined up along the walls of a long and narrow room. One precious boy was laying there very frail and weak. His Mother was at the foot of the bed and saw me standing at the door and beckoned to me. As I approached, he stirred. I bent down on my knees so I could be eye level with him to love and pray for him. I asked him his name and he said it was Jim. Jim told me, "Thank you! I knew you were coming! I mean it! I just knew it! The stadium is filled with all those waiting people and you chose to come to me!"

> Luke 18:15-17 NLT
> One day some parents brought their little children to Jesus so he could touch them and bless them, but the disciples told them not to bother him. Then Jesus called for the children and said to the disciples, "Let the children come to me. Don't stop them! For the Kingdom of God belongs to such as these. I assure you, anyone who doesn't have their kind of faith will never get into the Kingdom of God."

RHEMA 3/17/99 INTIMACY STRETCHED TO NATIONS WITH GOD'S POWER

HEARD: Stretch. Holy Spirit. You're gonna do just fine. You're gonna make it. Don't be afraid. I AM there with you.

> [This was funny. When I heard stretch, I heard it like, “Strrrrrrrrrretch.” I had the impression of a balloon stretching.]

VISION: I saw stadium lights were all being lined up and being prepared to be used.

HEARD: This is a God thing. Nations. Establish you. Intimacy.

HEARD: I agree with you. Proxy.

CONFIRMATION: Then I turned with anointed hands in the Words to Ponder to Proxy. I remembered last night in home group they talked about Proxy and how the Lord has signed our checks.

> WORD TO PONDER: PROXY
> Resist the devil and he will flee. It is not your own power that makes him flee. As you submit and draw near to Me, as you abide in Me, you may stand in the authority of My Name. I give you power of attorney to use My Name. I have signed your checks.
> Any strength required on your part is to stand as you use My Name. In the midst of invasion it takes strength of will to withstand doubt. It takes an active part on your behalf to resist and say no to that which drains your faith. It is your will and the authority of My Name that causes the enemy to retreat, ultimately bringing defeat.
> “Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you.” (James 4:7)

RHEMA 9/11/99 HEALING THE MASSES
HEARD: I just placed within the body of Christ the next theme. From day one. Just as you are. Just like that, glory. All we need is the anointing. By His stripes we are healed.

PIX: I saw a finger moving around a big giant coffee mug.

HEARD: Cup.

> Mark 10:39-40 NKJV
> So Jesus said to them, "You will indeed drink the cup that I drink, and with the baptism I am baptized with you will be baptized;

VISION: I saw stadium lights that were wired and hooked to a keyboard during worship.

HEARD: Stadium. The Lord Jesus Christ. The A Team. All the way. Full home run.

RHEMA 8/3/02 AN ARMY OF SENT ONES
HEARD: I've had enough of it. Pain. Help.

HEARD: I have kept you. Last day's ministry. Powerhouse. I will heal you. What's the secret. Abide. I will take care of you. Event. Stadiums around the world. Sent ones. An army of believers.

WORD TO PONDER BUILDING AN ARMY OF BELIEVERS 8/3/02
I have prepared you, I have trained you, I have kept you for the last day's ministry. I AM going to fill the stadiums with My power, My Presence. I will heal, I will deliver, I will save, I will anoint, I will fill. I AM building an army of believers and sent ones who will encircle the world. They will have learned the secret of abiding in My Presence.

"Go through, Go through the gates! Prepare the way for the people; Build up, Build up the highway! Take out the stones, Lift up a banner for the peoples! Indeed the LORD has proclaimed To the end of the world: "Say to the daughter of Zion, 'Surely your salvation is coming; Behold, His reward is with Him, And His work before Him.' " And they shall call them The Holy People, The Redeemed of the LORD; And you shall be called Sought Out, A City Not Forsaken." (Isaiah 62:10-12 NKJ)

RHEMA 5/29/96: WALKING TOGETHER IN SYNCH IN HIS TIMING

PARABLE OF PROPHETIC TIME CLOCK NOW IN SYNC WITH BODY: Tonight, my son mentioned how frustrated he was when he came and looked at my clock, and my clock was set ahead of the rest of the house. (Parable of prophetic timing) I asked him to fix it for me, since I was already in bed and he did it for me.

I was thrilled at the parable. Years ago, I wrote a prophetic story about a beggar woman who was dressed in beggar clothes, and for all intents and purposes she looked like a beggar woman. In reality she was very, very rich and no one knew it. She had a pair of glasses she wore that were different than the others in the city. With her glasses she could see far distances. Because her glasses were different than the others, she was despised and rejected so her riches and treasures were kept hidden. Those in the city did not know her true identity. The story goes on as related in chronological order to the path I as the beggar woman walked. At the end of the story she was promised a new pair of glasses so she would not be so lonely having to walk so far in the distance. She would see things in closer perspective instead of so far on the horizon and thus be joined by others who did not reject her glasses.

The wonderful point of the parable is that I am no longer walking so far ahead of the body, but He has adjusted my timing and my vision to be with others like minded, instead of out somewhere in the future all by myself.

RHEMA 5/30/96: LINING UP IN SYNCH

HEARD: 9:45 on one and 9:45 on the other. Rainbow effective.
[clock said 9:45. My son's and my clocks are in sync now]

HEARD: Bridge. I grafted you in. Rhema. I told you the truth. Believe Me.

ABOUT FLEECE PRAYERS

RHEMA 4/6/96 A PRAYER WITH A FLEECE

Tonight I had an interesting thing take place. I don't think I have ever asked the Lord to answer a fleece. (If I have, I was so young I can't remember it.) I believe that fleeces should be used very sparingly as they put the Lord in a box, among other things. Tonight I asked the Lord to answer a fleece for me using the dynamics of with 11:11 and 7:11.

Just as I finished asking Him (in my thoughts) I said, "And let this be just our secret, hidden between You and me." At the exact moment I said that, my son asked me a question about 7:11. I didn't hear him because I had been busy praying about the fleece. So when he repeated it, he wanted to know if the fact that the clock now said 8:11, was it a parable because 7:11 was hidden? [He knew it was 7:11 because Wayne had changed the car clock back early, when in reality Daylight savings time doesn't change until 2 tonight.]

I was fairly shocked for the words "7:11 and hidden" to be in the same sentence, just about 5 seconds after I finished praying those words. The only way I can interpret this is that the Lord was saying, "OK, I agree to your fleece, and it will be a hidden secret between you and I."

I have thought about why I would use a fleece, when I am so set against them. Ordinarily my faith is way above them because I hear Him in so many wonderful ways. But this particular issue I have struggled with for years and I truly want it settled. I feel content and know if He answers it, that it will truly be a very special gift to my heart's desire.

RHEMA 4/7/96 ANSWER TO THE FLEECE:
The Lord did some funny things this morning. Last night before I went to bed I typed my fleece. Note the sentence, "Fleeces should be used very sparingly as it puts the Lord in a box". Anna called me this AM and knowing nothing about my fleece said she heard the Lord say, "YOU MAY FIND OUT THAT GOD WILL RESPOND DIFFERENTLY WHEN YOU DON'T PUT HIM IN A BOX."

So I had decided between my son's comment last night about the 7:11 being a hidden parable, which matched my prayer of the 7:11 being a hidden secret between us, and now this new Word - that the Lord has said, "Yes, I will answer your prayer, but not the fleece!" In other words, He would answer what I was making the fleece about, but not answer it via a fleece.

I told this to my son this morning as I was chuckling about what Anna heard, and he wondered why. I told him in the hallway, outside Wayne's door, while Wayne was in the Jacuzzi bath with the bubbles on. Wayne heard nothing. Then at breakfast, Wayne volunteered that as he was in the tub it suddenly came to him that Judas was among the chosen 12 disciples, and that he was called even though Jesus knew he was going to betray him. Judas was also freely a part of the authority when the 12 went out to heal, and he was also freely given the secrets of Jesus' rhema. I was astounded that Wayne would say this and asked him why he did. "I don't know, it just came to me."

I then caught him up on my conversation with our son this AM in the hall at the time he was taking the bath, and what Anna had heard about putting the Lord in a box. Then I dropped the bomb… my fleece was that I really needed to know if I could trust a certain person as I had an uncomfortable feeling about doing so.

> FROM THE BOOK, 101+ WAYS GOD SPEAKS (AND HOW TO HEAR HIM)
> 89. HE SPEAKS WHEN WE LIMIT FLEECES
> Using a fleece is a comforting way to please the soul and personality, but it is not recommended as a pattern of relationship with the Lord. Most people use fleeces by stating a certain need for guidance: "Lord, if You do such n' such, then I know I'm supposed to do such n' such." Notice the if-then clause. This clause suggests making a contract with God on YOUR TERMS. When a person lays a fleece before the Lord, he is putting God into a position to answer according to his way, not God's. It is controlling the limits of circumstances and asking God to fit that mold.
> There are those who lust for signs. (The Pharisees wanted signs, rather than Jesus. They did not see HE WAS the sign.) People who look for signs are also vulnerable to falling into a snare. They are ones who lay fleeces before the Lord on a continuing basis. One satanic realm of influence is the lust for signs.
> God knows the heart, and may answer a fleece, as recorded in Gideon's plight. Notice the awe and respect of Gideon's heart in approaching God in this manner. Placing the fleece before the Lord was with great caution as unto the fear and respect of the Lord: "And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece, let it now be dry only upon the fleece and upon all the ground let there be dew." (Judges 6:39-40 KJ)

The fleece was a request to God, and God answered as His gift. This was not without consequences. God wanted Gideon's army cut down to 300 men. It was not that God was angry so Gideon had to make up for the use of the fleece by cutting his army; but that the fleece and answer were very much like a contract. Gideon suggested a contract on Gideon's terms. God answered. Then God gave Gideon God's terms: 300 men.

The scriptures suggest God is reasonable, listens to the will of man, and is willing to be flexible and work with him. He is our Good Father. However, we should not test Him to see how far He is willing to bend. This whole concept is something to be approached with reverence, respect and awe. He's not Someone to bargain with in the market place. Those who use fleeces on a regular basis are asking for trouble.

Fleeces suggests a flexible part of God's nature, but when we draw the line of flexibility it is best WE BE THE FLEXIBLE ONE.

If one has the wrong motive: a lust for signs, lust for knowledge, demanding (striving with) or testing and proving Him, one day the Lord will thresh out that leaven in the heart through a sifting process.

There is one other reason God would cut this weed out. There are people who have been accustomed to using fleeces with a pure desire to find out His will. He knows the heart, and perhaps will even answer for a season on their terms. Yet there will come a day when He wants them to grow and come out of this type of relationship with Him. Fleeces put God in a box, He is not cheerfully willing to stay there for very long! There are many of ways to hear from Him without putting Him in a box. He desires to bring His own up and out, seeking Him on His territory.

A PARABLE OF A PARABLE

RHEMA 4/1/96: THE UNTIED SHOE LACE

PARABLE: For the 2nd time today as I was fixing dinner, I stepped on my shoe lace as it had become untied. My shoes almost always stayed tied as I keep them tied and just slip in and out of them that way. It was really quickened to me that they became untied twice today. When God talks it is through 2 or 3 witnesses.

When interpreting a dream, Joseph said this:

> Gen 41:32 NKJV
> And the dream was repeated to Pharaoh twice because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.

As I realized this I heard the following:
HEARD: Untied a parable.

> 2 Cor 13:1 NKJV
> "By the mouth of two or three witnesses every word shall be established."
> WORD STUDY: DARK SPEECH, RIDDLE, PARABLE
> OT:2420
> OT:2420 chiydah (khee-daw'); from OT:2330; a puzzle, hence, a trick, conundrum, sententious maxim:

KJV - dark saying (sentence, speech), hard question, proverb, riddle.

OT:2330
OT:2330 chuwd (khood); a primitive root; properly, to tie a knot, i.e. (figuratively) to propound a riddle:
KJV - put forth.

SCRIPTURES USING THIS WORD:

Numbers 12:8
8 With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and the similitude of the LORD shall he behold: wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?

Judges 14:12
12 And Samson said unto them, I will now put forth a riddle unto you: if ye can certainly declare it me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty sheets and thirty change of garments:

Judges 14:13
13 But if ye cannot declare it me, then shall ye give me thirty sheets and thirty change of garments. And they said unto him, Put forth thy riddle, that we may hear it.

Judges 14:14
14 And he said unto them, Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And they could not in three days expound the riddle.

Judges 14:15
15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said unto Samson's wife, Entice thy husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire: have ye called us to take that we have? is it not so?

Judges 14:16
16 And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, Thou dost but hate me, and lovest me not: thou hast put forth a riddle unto the children of my people, and hast not told it me. And he said unto her, Behold, I have not told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee?

Judges 14:17
17 And she wept before him the seven days, while their feast lasted: and it came to pass on the seventh day, that he told her, because she lay sore upon him: and she told the riddle to the children of her people.

Judges 14:18
18 And the men of the city said unto him on the seventh day before the sun went down, What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a lion? And he said unto them, If ye had not plowed with my heifer, ye had not found out my riddle.

Judges 14:19
19 And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon, and slew thirty men of them, and took their spoil, and gave change of garments unto them which expounded the riddle. And his anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house.

1 Kings 10:1
1 And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to prove him with hard questions.

2 Chronicles 9:1
1 And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

Psalms 49:4
4 I will incline mine ear to a parable: I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

Psalms 78:2
2 I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old:

Proverbs 1:6
6 To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.

Ezekiel 17:2
2 Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel;

Daniel 8:23
23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

Habakkuk 2:6
6 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay!

NAGGING TO HEAR HIM

RHEMA 3/26/96 HIS DRAWING TO HEAR HIM

[Lord, please forgive me for nagging You so much, but I really want to hear from You tonight.]

HEARD: Words in My mouth.

[Lord You mean it's not nagging?]

HEARD: Exactly the opposite. I AM drawing you. It's very personal. Dove. Open your eyes.

HEARD: [later] How are they going to get home? The supernatural. It's a process. Maturing. Thoughtful man. Bread crumbs. The face of this earth. Leader, one step at a time.

How is this possible? Overwhelmed. You can do this. Short maturing. Babylon doesn't want you to pass. Tired. Wear you down.

Access. Stronger weapons. Rise up above it. Thought life.

ANOINTED HANDS*: I turned to Rev 17 & 18. Babylon's fall. Babylon is the spirits of carnal pleasures and richness exalted.*

WORD TO PONDER 3/26/96 A TRAIL OF BREAD CRUMBS

I AM giving you a manna from heaven and it is making good bread for you to eat. And as you eat this heavenly bread along your journey, you shall leave a trail of bread crumbs across the face of the earth. I AM raising My leaders one step at a time and they shall follow the path of bread. I AM bringing them home into their places. You need to understand that there is great opposition to your walk, and that comes from the spirit of babylon. This is from the cares of carnal pleasures. Put them forever behind you and move on.

"And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live." (Deut 8:3 KJV)

PRECIOUS LOVE NOTE 3/13/96

FUN COMBINATION: Today I noticed Grandma Anna left her night time journal in my bedroom. I was thumbing through it, not making heads or tails out of anything, as she writes the Words of the Lord in the dark in little scribbles all over the pages.

My son came in and asked me whose it was. When I told him, he asked me if he could write a secret note to Anna. I immediately knew whatever he wrote would be perfect for that particular page's rhema, so with a bubble in my heart I waited for what it might be. Then he carefully wrote, "I (heart drawn) U Anna." I looked to see what it combined with on that page. The only other thing written on that page was "affection for life." The Lord is simply precious.

Jer 31:3
The Lord has appeared of old to me, saying: "Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love; Therefore with lovingkindness I have drawn you.

A SMILE THAT LASTS

RHEMA 2/2/96

RANDOM KINDNESS: Today on an errand, as I was pulling out of a driveway, I saw a crippled boy walking home from school. As I backed up, letting him pass, he looked up at me and gave me the most pure, sweet, self-conscious, humble and grateful grin. I was so touched I became teary. I prayed life long prayers over him until my heart eased up for him.

[Then last night as I was getting ready for bed]
HEARD: Offering. Accomplished.

[Lord what?]

HEARD: Here, let me pray for you. Accomplished.

WORD TO PONDER 2/2/96 SECRET PRAYERS
I hear every prayer you pray over strangers you see on the street. They are not forgotten and all that you have ever spoken is being tallied and dispensed.

"Also thou shalt not oppress a stranger: for ye know the heart of a stranger, seeing ye were strangers in the land of Egypt." (Ex 23:9 KJV)

RHEMA 1/27/96 ANYTHING IS POSSIBLE IF YOU CAN HEAR ME

HEARD: Anything is possible. I'm talking about you.

Wayne & I had a conversation about miracles and the gift of healing last night. I told him about the first time I went to see Kathryn Kulman. It was my first exposure to people being slain in the Spirit as well as people getting healed. What impressed me the most in the meeting, (and it became a life long seed planted) was that I realized I didn't need the gift of healing because if I could hear God then anything was possible, and I wouldn't need any gift, just Him. All I would have to do is hear what the Lord was going to do, then speak it out and watch Him do it.

I had a deep yearning to be a vessel bringing God's personal touch to individual lives. I thought the way I could do that was to hear Him and speak out what He was going to do in the secrets of their personal needs. As I said this to Wayne last night, I said, "If I can hear the Lord, then anything is possible by way of ministry."

John 5:19-20 NKJV
Then Jesus answered and said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of Himself, but what He sees the Father do; for whatever He does, the Son also does in like manner.

ANGELS RAMMING FORCES

Tonight I had an angelic encounter. [11/13/95]

I HEARD THE ANGELS SAY: We fought back. We made it through. Disarm them. Weapon. Attack. We won. Traveling through the land. Mount up. Let us begin. Missile. Set My captives free. We do this for a living. Across the country. Blast off. There's a flight leaving now.

EXPERIENCE: WOW! This is going to be difficult to describe, but I want to try. I woke up due to feeling the arrival of an evil presence in my room. I saw the flash of an angel moving so fast I literally could not see him. The angel was literally ramming forces with the demon that I had felt.

When they rammed together, I saw a huge blast of light like a power bomb of force and a brilliant blast as the 2 forces clashed. It was phenomenal. As soon as I saw it, I screamed. The clashing between the 2 forces occurred much faster than I could scream. My scream was so slow that I didn't get it out until after I saw the blazing light, even though my brain said scream before it saw the brilliant clash! Utterly amazing. How does one describe something like that?

[Immediately after]:

I HEARD THE LORD SAY: Enjoy this. You may be doing it someday!

Accept it. You're defending your family. Trust Me. There's a lot you don't know. You do make a difference. Global warfare.

I HEARD THE LORD SAY: Astonishing. Peace. There's nothing to be afraid of. Very exciting. Watch. You saw the manifested Presence of My Glory.

COMMENTS: My heart was still and I went back to sleep in peace. In the morning, I listened to my recorder as to what I had heard the angels say before the explosion. I realized they had been warring through the second heaven. Just as it took 21 days for the angel to fight through to get to Daniel, in like manner we have been standing and praying for the angelic hosts to fight through to us. The Lord told me in the 80's the reason so many answers to prayer were being delayed was because of the long standing war where in all the hosts were busy fighting to get through the horrible thickness, let alone be dispatched to answer prayers. It was a matter of priorities and the enemy had the upper hand because of the breech in our hedge. The breach was due to our disobedient sinful condition. It has been a long war to close the breech and open an unopposed porthole for the angels to come and go freely.

Dan 10:12-14 NLT
Then he said, "Don't be afraid, Daniel. Since the first day you began to pray for understanding and to humble yourself before your God, your request has been heard in heaven. I have come in answer to your prayer. But for twenty-one days the spirit prince of the kingdom of Persia blocked my way. Then Michael, one of the archangels, came to help me, and I left him there with the spirit prince of the kingdom of Persia. Now I am here to explain what will happen to your people in the future, for this vision concerns a time yet to come."

==========

CONFIRMATION: Today at Fred Meyers, at the same time I was thinking about the angels warring through to get to us, a man accidentally bumped into a shelf at the end of the isle. I heard little chimes ring and their ring was quickened to me as important. Whenever I hear chimes, I always think of either the Holy Spirit or angels, because the wind blows chimes, and wind represents both. (Acts 2:2; Ps 104:4) I went over to the chimes to see the only one that was still moving from the man bumping the shelf. It was an angel chime. I just knew that an angel had something to do with that moving chime! I was tickled.

==========

UPDATE COMMENTS: Although this angelic experience took place in 1995, with world wide events as they are now, it is now obvious that there was a much larger meaning than just warring through opposition in the heavenlies. Since 3/3/03 I have been believing that something very significant took place, after so many years of delay.

I have perceived that a large amount of angelic freedom was won and things are now going to accelerate and move forward.

==========

UPDATE CONFIRMATION: Just prior to my posting this 1st Ears2Hear, Wayne came in and told me he read the following testimony about the angels during the 6-day war:

"...He intervened in the "6-day war" as men declared they saw angels deflecting the bombs targeted on Israel and not one bomb found its intended target. Men have their plans, but the outcome is the Lord's..." (Bill Cassada, The Lion's Heart Ministries)

{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration.}

WORD TO PONDER: MOUNT UP WITH WEAPONS OF POWER
Mount up and take authority when you perceive evil. There are great clashes of violent forces as you wield your weapons. Angels ram demonic beings and brilliant flashes of light and power flash through the heavenlies as they clash.

The angels have been warring through the second heaven to open up clear portholes between heaven and earth. Stand strong in the power of My might. Trust Me to answer prayers. I have been doing a work that is closing the demonic breech and providing free access for the angels to come and go without delay.

Trust Me, you do make a difference in this war. Stand and do not give up. The captives will be set free. Angels go forth as you stand and defend those you love. I have joined My people and the angelic hosts for global warfare. Together, you shall usher in My kingdom on earth.

"The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven: the lightnings lightened the world: the earth trembled and shook." (Ps 77:18 KJV)

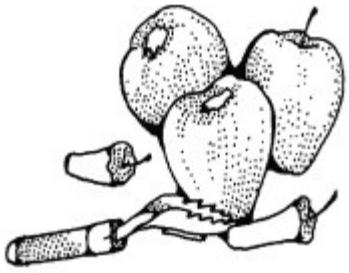
~ THE APPLE OF HIS EYE ~

Many years ago, the Lord told me to write Words to Ponder based upon my rhema. He said it was harvesting the food He gave me and putting it into chewable form. At the same time, Grandma Anna started writing Selah Words to harvest her own rhema.



She has had the desire to add graphics to hers and last night I had installed some graphics onto her machine. Today, she decided to try her hand at learning how to insert a graphic. She went to the directory and had no idea what graphic she was clicking on as they had no titles. She inserted the apple graphic into her following Selah Word !!!!! The Lord is SO awesome. We were astounded at this Word. If you notice, the center cores of the apples are missing in the graphic. And the 3 cores are setting along side of the apples so as to draw attention to the core of the apples.

GRANDMA ANNA'S SELAH: THE APPLE OF MY EYE 5/10/95
You are the apple of My eye. You are My inheritance, My precious treasures.

"When the most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel. For the LORD'S portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance. He found him in a desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness; he led him about, he instructed him, he kept him as the apple of his eye." (Deuteronomy 32:8-10 KJV)

NOTES FROM SANDY: The apple of His eye, is the very center, the very core of His focus. What is so special to me about this Word, is that it is only 2 sentences and God kissed His Word and Grandma Anna in such a special way!

==========

APPLE OF THE EYE
(from Fausset's Bible Dictionary, Electronic Database Copyright (c)1998 by Biblesoft)

The promise is in Zech 2:8, "He that toucheth you toucheth the apple of His eye";
The prayer is Ps 17:8 "Keep me as the apple of the eye ";
The fulfillment is in Deut 32:10, "He kept him as the apple of His eye."

A different Hebrew word from tappuach, namely, 'ishown, "little man," i.e. pupil (Greek kore) of the eye. So called from the image formed on the retina. The part most precious and most guarded from attack; which feels most acutely the least hurt, and the loss of which is irreparable

==========

APPLE OF THE EYE
(from Nelson's Illustrated Bible Dictionary, Copyright © 1986, Thomas Nelson Publishers)

An old English expression referring to the pupil of the eye. This phrase is used symbolically of something cherished, precious, and protected (Deut 32:10; Zech 2:8).

WORD TO PONDER: REACHING YOU ANY WAY I CAN {5/30/05}
How I long to reach you with My loving confirmations! I will send them in sweet and simple ways, and you may miss them if you are not listening. Often I hide My confirmations in simplicity. If you are ensnared by the complexities in life, the simple gifts remain hidden. I promised that if you seek Me, you shall find Me. If you are looking to hear from Me, if you are expecting Me to speak to you, your heart will leap and be quickened as you see Me in such simple ways confirming your walk. Great is My love for you!

Matt 13:44 NLT
The Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure that a man discovered hidden in a field. In his excitement, he hid it again and sold everything he owned to get enough money to buy the field — and to get the treasure, too!

FUMBLE MOUSE

COOL CONFIRMATION: I had just prayed that the Lord would make up for the financial loss that I was concerned about. At the time I was praying this, I was looking up on the internet about tendonitis, as my elbow tendon was flaring and I had it packed in ice. In the process of fumbling around since my arm was not working very well, my mouse accidentally highlighted these words: Compensation. I would recommend recovery.

WORD TO PONDER: RECOVER 3/14/95
Your arm is wounded from lifting more than your measure. It is also wounded from reaching behind you and being torn between your past and the present. You must let go of the past and let Me rebuild and restore you. I shall bring the warmth of My tender voice to your ears and our fellowship together will be sweet. I shall gently stretch your faith beyond the past and your arms shall heal from the fatigue of great battles.

"Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert." (Isa 43:19 KJV)

RHEMA 2/23/95: PARABLE OF COMING MINISTRY

HEARD: Commitment. My plan. Family. From the same cup. Embarrassed. Never been published before. Can you linger anywhere? There's a little time to tell your story.

VISION: I saw myself holding our kittie above my head, in a basket.

HEARD: Is that a yes? City. Upon a hill can not be hid.
Working with you Sweetheart. A conduit. Refreshing. Sandy do you still have your pen? Number 9. Get ready for this - Revealing the tip.

PIX: I saw I was cautiously pulling something back.

HILARIOUS PARABLE*: I then reached for my hankie and accidentally pulled the pillow case, cover off my little bed pillow)*

HEARD: I'm done proving My point. Evidence of coming ministry. Coming to you.

PARABLE: I was so sleepy I dropped my pen - believe it or not THREE TIMES! I have never doubted that He once gave me a golden pen. But I have recently asked if I still have it, or if it was taken away in the 1989-94 storm.

WORD TO PONDER 2/23/95: A TIME TO SHARE
The time is short and you shall be given the time slot to share your story. I will raise you up to share the light I have given you. You shall be My fruitful conduit. Three times the enemy will try to steal your pen. But I say no storm shall keep you from shining My light to all who would come.

"He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou Me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou Me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep." (John 21:17 KJV)

UPDATE: I was called and given His gold pen in August of 1984. I waited 13 years for His timing and was launched into writing publically in June, 1997.

REPORT CARDS

RHEMA 2/6/95: CHOSEN

I had been chosen as one of the candidates to design/ set a manual for highschool teachers that was offered through a state grant. Today I received an answer to my request. I had passed all the hurdles and was the one chosen to do the project. But they never said a word to me about my proposal or how I did. I had put many hours into it and wanted more specific feed back so I asked the Lord for them to give it to me. The way He answered it is very funny.

I received a contract from the state that had to be filled out in order for me to get paid, as the money was coming from a grant. I found in it, an explanation from the university as to how they decided to choose me. It was packed with explanation and I was very pleased. I also was laughing that the Lord answered exactly what I'd asked. The document was logically detailed and specific. Nothing gushy, or warm fuzzy like... but very detailed as to their need and the whole process of my culling. As I was still laughing about it when later I heard: "Test results." (I guess I got an A!)

The project was a teaching manual for a pilot teaching program that the university created to go out to a bunch of highschools. After the first year if it proved successful, it would become a textbook and a class for all. This program helped the students identify who they were and thus make better choices for their future as adults. I felt this was a real parable to my calling in equipping others to find their gifts and callings in the Lord.

WORD TO PONDER 2/6/95: CHOSEN AND CONFIRMED

My scribe, you have worked hard to pass many tests. They have qualified you to pilot a plan that will eventually be used to help My children find their destinies in Me. You have not openly been given endorsement via men, but I will bring the confirmations you need for you to understand you have not been rejected, but rather have been chosen for My end time work.

"Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ; Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men." I WALKED ALL THIS WAY TO TELL YOU
HUMOROUS TIMING 8/20/87

HEARD: "Peter said, "Hey you guys, I found out Jesus wants to heal instantly and I walked all this way from town to tell you."

REVELATION IN 2005: When I was reading the above I suddenly understood what it meant to be a prophet. The Lord told Peter it was time to heal instantly. Peter heard the Word, believed the Word and carried (kept) the Word. But the Word did not get to the people until Peter WALKED IT OUT AND FOUND THEM and by that time, the Word was ripe and ready to be instant!!

UPDATE 2/28/11: Still walking and waiting for that instant day!

> Gal 6:9-10 NKJV
> And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart.
> Acts 2:1-2 NKJV
> When the Day of Pentecost had fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.

THE HIGHWAY OF HOLINESS 11/14/85

TRANCE VISION: The following is a vision of gazing wonder the Lord gave me as quoted from my journal: "When I went to sleep on November 14, 1985, I had a strong yearning for Jesus. As I slept, He came to me and opened my eyes. I saw a huge, gigantic banner unfolding across the sky. It said, "THE LORD JESUS CHRIST." Suddenly I found myself in heaven looking down upon a vast desert. It was dry, brown, flat, and immense. As I gazed upon the lifeless desert, someone was standing above and behind me declaring the scroll of Isaiah 35:

> "Isa 35 NKJV
> The wilderness and the wasteland shall be glad for them, and the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose; It shall blossom abundantly and rejoice, even with joy and singing. The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, The excellence of Carmel and Sharon. They shall see the glory of the LORD, the excellency of our God.
> Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees. Say to those who are fearful-hearted, "Be strong, do not fear! Behold, your God will come with vengeance, with the recompense of God; He will come and save you."
> Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the dumb sing. For waters shall burst forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert. The parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water; In the habitation of jackals, where each lay, there shall be grass with reeds and rushes.

A highway shall be there, and a road, and it shall be called the Highway of Holiness. The unclean shall not pass over it, but it shall be for others. Whoever walks the road, although a fool, shall not go astray. No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast go up on it; It shall not be found there. But the redeemed shall walk there, And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with singing, with everlasting joy on their heads. They shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away."

After Isaiah 35 had been announced, I heard the Lord say, "And the desert shall blossom as a rose. It shall happen all at once, and it shall happen suddenly." Immediately I saw the desert come to life. The sight was astounding and oh so beautiful! Everywhere blossoms emerged: this dry, lifeless region became a spacious garden of color and beauty. Then I came out of the gazing vision. As I woke, I was still in awe of what I'd seen, because it was so beautiful. I knew the Lord was speaking a promise of what He would be doing to our dry desert like lives. He was going to rain His Presence upon us and we would emerge with life and beautiful blossoms."

{end of vision}

HOLY HIGHWAY
"I saw that the people I would be talking to today had been driving on a real muddy road. There was just mud everyplace and it was so hard for you all to go any place. And this mud was getting on your windshields and you just could not see where to go. You were trying the best you knew how to drive in this muddy road. And the Philistines is what muddied up the wells. But Isaac cleaned them out, which is laughter, which is a type of Christ. And I was driving on this road and I'm thinking, Lord what have these people gone through here. Haven't you got a road better than this?

And He showed me a road that He was building. It's not ready yet. But it's on its way. And it was a straight and narrow way. Where you will be able to go more in an hour than you have been able to go in a week or a month. This is in the highway of holiness. This whole vision I had today is in this picture. There is 10 geese there and a straight and narrow way. This straight and narrow way is Isaiah 35. You can study it if you want to. I'm not going to read it to you or explain it to you. You want to know what you are coming to, then read Isa 35. It's a higher way then you have ever drove before and a straighter way. And it is the fast lane. And it wasn't quite finished. I believe it will be finished by Passover. When the tulips bloom. And I believe you will begin to see an escalation in where you are going and getting there."

RHEMA 5/16/06 FULL BLOOM AHEAD

PIX*: I saw my computer friend who had to upload some kind of an upgrade to get where he wanted to go.*

HEARD: See to it, all that ask, get an upgrade.

PIX: I saw many roses blooming.

PIX: I saw something like sands flowing out of a porthole, perhaps from the hour glass of time, although I did not see the hourglass.

HEARD: Full bloom. Have mercy will travel. Going on a boat.

WORD TO PONDER: FULL BLOOM AHEAD 5/16/06
Ask Me now for promotion, dear ones. Yes you have worked hard and accomplished so very much. The strings of your past where you have suffered loss and shame are snares. As you are reminded of them, let them be memorial stones of your lessons learned then give all that you are working towards back to Me. Sometimes you wonder of the road you have taken and have felt blind not knowing your way. I tell you FULL BLOOM AHEAD. You are on the right road, your road is straight ahead.

Die to your pursuits and hopes and let Me be the One Who sustains you, the work of your hands and the measurement of success. If You give it to Me, My peace will hold you and settle you of My Sovereign plan in your life. ALL things work together for good, even the losses in your life. It is My desire to bring you to full bloom - you and all that you do for My kingdom; rich in good fruit to benefit many.

Your works have not gone unnoticed, you work hard and it is evidence of your faith. Like Abraham, the fruit of your life shall be like the sands of the sea. The ship that you are on, leadership, is a great boat carrying many in need of passage. The seas are rough at times and storms are in the air. But My mercy will travel with you and all aboard. My 7 Spirits shall go with you in full measure. No good thing will I withhold from you, My favored one. Full bloom ahead.

Isa 35:6 NKJV
And the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose; 2 It shall blossom abundantly and rejoice, even with joy and singing. The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the excellence of Carmel and Sharon. They shall see the glory of the LORD, the excellency of our God. 3 Strengthen the weak hands, And make firm the feeble knees. 4 Say to those who are fearful-hearted, "Be strong, do not fear! Behold, your God will come with vengeance, with the recompense of God; He will come and save you." 5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. 6 Then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the dumb sing.

WORDS TO PONDERS ABOUT THE HOLY HIGHWAY

WORD TO PONDER: DELIVERANCE TO THE RIGHT ROAD 12/28/99

Why do you question the road? For I have given you a road block against unholy appetites. That road leads to sin, to the loss of your passion for Me. Do you want a love grown cold? Rather, climb the holy highway, the straight and narrow way.

I hear your woes. Call upon Me, for it is not what you think. You belong to Me, and I take you for Myself. Instead of woes, pray for healing from the damage done from the road blocks. These road blocks I allowed because of My great love and passion for you. For I grieve when you become apathetic and grow cold. For Mine is the Kingdom, the power, and glory and the honor. I do the wonders and collect the multitudes.

I AM using these pressures to further clarify your character. I build My foundations level and smooth. Leave the progress up to Me. I do a perfect work. Do not fear these aggressive pressures, rather turn onto the right road, the road of righteousness. Allow these pressures to yield in yourself the good fruit of righteous living. Be candled in the flame and reflect My glory, My majesty.

For I have called you. I chose you. You are a deliverer for My sons. I send you on assignments where they desperately need your help. Do not fall asleep in apathy at this late hour. Do not be caught off guard by choosing the appetites of this world. For they lull you to sleep and open doors to demonic pressures. Do not be afraid, I will give you wings and speedy flight, delivering you from the snare of the enemy. I give you access, do not be afraid. Watch the enemy fall apart and fall upon his head. Smashing into the pit, he comes to his own destruction.

Be delivered according to the light I have given you. Obedience and righteous choices. Follow the right path. Overcome this. I have sent you confirmation, My deliverer. Be delivered and then deliver!

“A highway shall be there, and a road, and it shall be called the Highway of Holiness. The unclean shall not pass over it, but it shall be for others. Whoever walks the road, although a fool, shall not go astray. No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast go up on it; it shall not be found there. But the redeemed shall walk there, And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with singing, with everlasting joy on their heads. They shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.” (Isa 35:8-10 NKJ)

========

WORD TO PONDER: OVERCOME THE APPETITES OF THE WORLD 2/20/00

I know that you are battle weary and gun shy. You wince at each sound, wondering if it is another round of bullets. Relax, this is Me speaking. I AM asking you to stop wrestling with Me on this issue of holy living.

Yes, continue to remain upright, standing against the enemy. He seeks to accuse you in your every weakness. I AM a Holy God and I have not changed. To walk the pathway, the highway of holiness and remain safe from the enemy, you must keep watch on your own appetites. “Put a knife to your throat if you be a vessel given to appetite.” [Pro. 23:2] Instead have passion for Me and I will fill your cravings. If you continue to wrestle Me in this, the holy calling will become wounded and suffer shame and pain. The enemy is accusing day and night. It is up to you to stand in Me and keep your conscience void of offense and give him no extra ammunition.

Do you think you can arrive at a holy life without Me? It is impossible. But I still want your best effort and your own self discipline, so that I do not have to discipline you. I place before you the Mountain of your own weakness so that you will learn it is only at My feet that there is deliverance from your flesh. I have called you to divine visitation. Only keep diligent watch upon your flesh as you wait. Climb upon the holy highway and stay there.

“And put a knife to thy throat, if thou be a man given to appetite.” (Prov 23:2)

========

WORD TO PONDER: HIGHWAY TO HOLINESS 2/24/01

I have been bringing you to the place of decision in your life where you would choose the holy and not the profane. For your heart has grown dull, your ears hard of hearing, and your eyes closed. You would not hear, see or understand because you chose to satisfy the flesh, rather than sell the satisfaction of your sins for the pearls of great price. It has been a long hard battle of wills, yours against Mine. Now yield and enter the highway of holiness.

There are benefits to walking this highway that you would have never known any other way. In this new place, even your mistakes will be blessed and be good gifts used for My purposes. The lion who seeks to devour your health, resources and very life will have no access to you. Even your sleep shall be sweet as I stop the ravenous beast from treading where he dare not.

As you turn around, the work of your hands shall be strengthened, your walk shall be steady. Your eyes will open, your ears will hear My voice. You shall leap with joy and My anointed Words will be upon your lips. Your very life will become pools of refreshment. Your sorrow and your sighing shall flee away.

“And a main road will go through that once deserted land. It will be named the Highway of Holiness. Evil-hearted people will never travel on it. It will be only for those who walk in God's ways; fools will never walk there. Lions will not lurk along its course, and there will be no other dangers. Only the redeemed will follow it. Those who have been ransomed by the LORD will return to Jerusalem, singing songs of everlasting joy. Sorrow and mourning will disappear, and they will be overcome with joy and gladness." (Isa 35:8-10 NLT)

========

WORD TO PONDER: NEW ANOINTING AFTER THE TEST 6/04/01
After you have passed the test, you shall be healed and anointed with lightning power. I shall fill your tabernacle with My fullness and you shall walk in a new level of authority. This will be a great new beginning for you, after you have chosen a different level of commitment. What kind of a commitment? The choice to change directions and travel the right way. This is My holy highway, one without the bumps and dents of the demonic world. No unclean shall pass this way.

Isa 35:8 NKJV
A highway shall be there, and a road, and it shall be called the Highway of Holiness. The unclean shall not pass over it, but it shall be for others.

========

WORD TO PONDER: DELUXE ROAD TRAVEL 6/18/01
There will come a day when you are traveling on My holy highway. It will be a deluxe road. Wonderful speed in answers to prayer, ministry, anointing will be available on this road. This will be a safe place in My Presence.

For now, I have made you my battle ax. When your battles are over, your enemies will be defeated beneath you. Within your hand shall be a scepter of great authority, blessing and healing. Creative miracles shall flow from your hands. My power shall be displayed to all nations.

Hab 3:3-7 NLT
His brilliant splendor fills the heavens, and the earth is filled with his praise! What a wonderful God he is! Rays of brilliant light flash from his hands. He rejoices in his awesome power. Pestilence marches before him; plague follows close behind. When he stops, the earth shakes. When he looks, the nations tremble. He shatters the everlasting mountains and levels the eternal hills. But his power is not diminished in the least!

========

WORD TO PONDER: GRADUATES PASSED UNDER THE ROD 10/14/03
Even as the shepherd inspected each individual sheep for spots as they passed under the rod, so I examine My sheep today. Once a year, whether My people know it or not, I check their progress.

This year, there are many who have graduated from wandering and passed their yearly circles. They heeded My Word and changed their ways. They put carnality under their feet and turned their backs on lust, violence and unholy entertainment. They washed their mouths from criticism, judgment and slander. They refrained from gossip, jesting and filthy words. Ambition and presumption died. These are the graduates of 2003. Well done, thou good and faithful ones.

Your minds, your wills, your hearts have been circumcised and dedicated, - holy, consecrated unto Me. You passed, you passed, you passed. I AM so pleased. You have graduated into new places, prepared and ready for great opportunities. The highway of holiness is now complete and ready for boarding. No beast shall touch those who walk its course. Go forth, and pass on, My graduates! Walk the walk and talk the talk. Great joy is coming your way.

"I will make you pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant; I will purge the rebels from among you, and those who transgress against Me." (Ezekiel 20:37-38 NKJV)

RHEMA 3/17/85 THE LORD BREATHES UPON HIS CHILDREN

TRANCE VISION: I had a most awesome literal experience when in a trance vision I felt the Lord literally fill my lungs with His breath. In the vision I took a deep breath and could feel His mighty wind rushing past my nostrils and down my throat. He opened my ears and I heard its very loud sound as it rushed into my lungs. As my lungs filled, it took several minutes to fill them to capacity. I could feel the Lord's Presence as this occurred and thought what a mighty pair of lungs He has! When I finished inhaling, I held it a brief moment. He opened my eyes and I gazed at multitudes of little blue and pink baby carriages. Each baby carriage carried a baby wrapped very snugly in a blue or pink blanket with a matching blue or pink milk bottle. My heart was filled with such tender feelings and a great nurturing for these babies. I started to exhale upon them, gently at first. Like feathers in the wind, these babies arose and were carried upon the breath of God. Still exhaling, I watched them float ever so gently upon the breath of God. The breath grew stronger and they flurried around like snow flurries in the wind. This vision seemingly lasted a very long time as His exhale continued to blow.

Luke 11:13 NKJV
If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!"

Acts 2:2-3 NKJV
And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.

COMMENTS: When I held my breath before exhaling, that represented a divine pause. Being carried by His breath, His wind means that He is going to carry the long waited for harvest with His rhema Words, complete with confirmations day in and day out. They will be completely sustained and upheld by His Word and Spirit and shall not lack. They will grow up and become totally established in Him.

THE DOVE COMPANY IS COMING

TRANCE VISION 3/13/85*: I was given a trance vision about the sons being birthed and then manifested in the fullness of time, which is Shibboleth, meaning the full ear of corn. I was playing the Battle Hymn of the Republic on the piano. (In 1973 the Lord gave me an awesome arrangement of that song, it was very powerful and I performed it many times.) I could hear my music resounding in heaven as intercession. When I was done, I saw all these corn cobs fall from heaven. They landed straight up and down as though planted in the earth.*

I had x-ray eyes and the corn cobs looked like miniature wombs, each one holding a turtle dove. The doves had their heads down, just like a baby does when it turns in the womb and is ready to be born. They looked like they were all dead, just simply stuck in the ground waiting. Then in the fullness of time and the same season, one by one, they came out of their husks and walked the earth as people. The husks were peeled away and that was a "manifestation" and birthing of what was inside.

These were the ones who were the sacrifices, just like turtle doves were sacrificed unto the Lord. I heard the Lord say to me the Word, "Shibboleth." Then He referred me to Song of Solomon, 2:12 "The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle (dove) is heard in the land."

> Ps 50:5 NKJV
> "Gather My saints together to Me, those who have made a covenant with Me by sacrifice ."

Shibboleth is a mystery word meaning to come to full fruition of 100 fold fruit, not 60 or 30 fold.. Click here for the file on the mystery word shibboleth as having to do with this corn.

BOB JONES QUOTES FROM CD AT TORONTO CONFERENCE JUNE 2006.

THE BIRTHING OF THE DOVE COMPANY

“A couple years ago I saw the incubators in heaven. They had 3,000 eggs in the incubators. And the Holy Spirit was brooding over them just like He did in Genesis 1. When He brooded over the body of Christ again. When I saw those eggs I said, Oh boy the heavens will surely be full of eagles. Well, people like me don't know everything. Recently He began to tell me they weren't eagles, they are doves. I have a first nation blanket hanging onto a balcony in my house. On March 17, (2006) something happened to that red birthing blanket. It got full of dove feathers. I mean hundreds and hundreds of them. Where I have already given hundreds away. There are taped in a lot of Bibles different places. You've already got eagles, but what is coming out of the hard shell is doves. The cocoon of the anointing is breaking off of doves.”

Ezek 36:26.
Verse 26 is a brand new heart that has a Papa and knows what their DNA is.

> Ezek 36:25-27 NKJV
> Then I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean; I will cleanse you from all your filthiness and from all your idols. 26 I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will take the heart of stone out of your flesh and give you a heart of flesh.

“You know, you are the result of your parents. I just learned that the blood in conception, it doesn't come from the mother, it comes from the father... The blood of Jesus in you would come forth in a new purity. There is a mother church urge to feed the babies, nurture them, to cleanse them. But the God sperm seed is coming forth is pure in you. It will bring forth a generation that will change the world.”

“So what is being birthed are doves. He came as a dove, He came in weakness. So that the Holy Spirit and His Father can show strength in Him. Some have you been brought to be doves. In Romans 16:20 a dove represents peace. It isn't the God of war that subdues satan there, it is the GOD OF PEACE that puts satan under your feet. Papa is talking about these doves? You know what a peacemaker is? A peacemaker is Matt 5:9. They are sons of God. These doves are sons and daughters of God. And where they walk, they are going to take the land. They are going to subdue the enemy because they've got peace. They've got peace like a river that cannot keep from overflowing. There is a generation right now that is not going to be afraid."

> Rom 16:19-20
> For your obedience has become known to all. Therefore I am glad on your behalf; but I want you to be wise in what is good, and simple concerning evil. 20 And the God of peace will crush Satan under your feet shortly.

> Matt 5:8-9 NKJV
> Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.

"There is at least 3,000 in the first hatching. And these hatchings are going to go on and on. And they are going to reproduce. The dove is a sacrifice for the poor. God has got His vision on the poor. A lot of your wealthy are not going to change, but they are sure going to be unhappy. But the poor are ready. It is time we become a living sacrifice for the poor nations on this earth. For it is time for the snow white dove. And it is a time where He is giving supernatural signs like these feathers."

"... Those who will seek His voice and obey. It is one thing to even hear His voice, but another thing to obey. We coming to a time when these doves will not only hear, but in their weakness God will show Himself strong on their behalf. It is in their weakness that God will open doors through out the entire world...."

THE DOVE COMPANY

RHEMA 7/04/06
Today I was thinking about the dove resting upon the shoulders of those who do not strive. And the Lord reminded me that Noah sent out the dove and Noah's name means rest.

Gen 5:28-29 NKJV
Lamech lived one hundred and eighty-two years, and had a son. And he called his name Noah, saying, "This one will comfort us concerning our work and the toil of our hands, because of the ground which the LORD has cursed."

Noach
OT:5146 Noach (no'-akh); the same as OT:5118; rest; Noach, the patriarch of the flood:
KJV - Noah.

OT:5118
OT:5118 nuwach (noo'-akh); or nowach (no'-akh); from OT:5117; quiet:
KJV - rest (-ed, -ing place).

Gen 8:8-12 NKJV
He also sent out from himself a dove, to see if the waters had receded from the face of the ground. But the dove found no resting place for the sole of her foot, and she returned into the ark to him, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. So he put out his hand and took her, and drew her into the ark to himself. And he waited yet another seven days, and again he sent the dove out from the ark. Then the dove came to him in the evening, and behold, a freshly plucked olive leaf was in her mouth; and Noah knew that the waters had receded from the earth. So he waited yet another seven days and sent out the dove, which did not return again to him anymore.

WORD TO PONDER: THE SIGN OF NOAH AND MY DOVE 7/04/06
I named Noah “Rest” (Hebrew meaning) as a sign to the world, because Noah carried a new beginning through the flood waters into a new resting place. When he first sent forth a dove, she found no resting place. Then he drew her into himself and waited. Again he sent the dove and she returned with an olive leaf, My symbol of peace. Thus he knew the waters had receded, and a new beginning had emerged upon the earth. On the third try, his dove went forth and found a resting place upon the earth. And all eight who came forth out of the ark, followed the dove and repopulated the earth.

Likewise, My Dove will dwell with those who are rising above the flood waters of the dragon. My Dove will go before you and be a sign unto you when your doors of hope are opened. My Dove will find rest with you in your new beginnings. My Dove will rest upon the shoulders of those who are at rest from the strivings and works of their flesh. My dove will rest upon those who would walk in peace. Would you also walk the earth with My dove and birth new children?

John 1:32 NKJV
And John bore witness, saying, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and He remained upon Him.

POEM: GO FORTH OH SONS OF DOVE! 1/14/07
Deep within the breast of the dove
A gentle heart beats with God's love.
Softly cooing, deeply yearning
Always beating, ever stirring.

Humble in nature, pure and white
Are the dove ones, God's pure delight.
Called in heaven, sent to the earth
Having waited long to be birthed.

Eyes opened, awakened from sleep
Penetrated shells cracked so deep.
Until their hearts became broken
Their shells would never be opened.

Wiser now through silent suffering
From deep groanings under their wings.
Long they have waited for their God.
Heaven releases, earth applauds.

Go forth sent ones, doves of great worth!
Peacemakers sent to walk the earth.
Covering cracks with righteous prayers
Establishing rule, as God's heirs.

Interceding Words, bridge the gap
That which offends covered and wrapped.
Praying for those not innocent
Grieving over all that is bent.

Knowing God, they tremble with fear
At what they see, at what they hear
Of wicked tares sown in the dark
Of what tares reap outside the ark.

Candled with floodlight, hearts are shown.
A dove's defense is God alone.
Sacrificed covenants; they're spent.
Not for their own sake, they defend.

With the olive branch in their beak
They're sent as signs to those who seek.
Not from striving, but in His rest
Believing God's Word as their best.

Lifted up in God's holy hand
He's set them free, they'll walk the land.
Salted sacrifice; heavens' sons
Sprinkling the earth as glorious ones.

Matt 3:16-17 NKJV
Behold, the heavens were opened to Him, and He saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting upon Him. And suddenly a voice came from heaven, saying, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

Matt 12:18-21 NKJV
"Behold! My Servant whom I have chosen, My Beloved in whom My soul is well pleased! I will put My Spirit upon Him, And He will declare justice to the Gentiles. He will not quarrel nor cry out, Nor will anyone hear His voice in the streets. A bruised reed He will not break, And smoking flax He will not quench, Till He sends forth justice to victory; And in His name Gentiles will trust."

COLUMBUS 6/02/07

Randy Demain shares the following revelation:

The word Columbus = DOVE

The following is a parable of the same spirit that tried to kill Moses, Jesus and the manchild.

- Columbus day storm (10/12/62)
- In the eastern United States, only hurricanes of Category 3 or higher have brought winds of the magnitude witnessed in Oregon on Columbus Day, October 12, 1962.
- School shooting at Columbine (4/20/99)
- Space Shuttle Columbia (2/01/03)
- On February 1, 2003, Columbia disintegrated during re-entry over Texas, on its 28th mission. All seven crew members aboard perished.

Columbus was a forerunner like Noah, sent to find the new land. Noah sent out the dove prior to settling.

RHEMA 10/10/08 KEEPING THE EGGS WARM

PIX: I saw little circular stainless steel alcoves and there were doves sitting in each one nesting over eggs.

HEARD: They are Mine. I am keeping them. Precious and united.

=======

RHEMA 10/22/08 PACK EM UP, WE'RE MOVING THE EGGS

HEARD: Packing the eggs and then we rest. Who'se hatching your egg? You are. You all are. Multiple seeds. Multiple shoulders.

LIKE AN EGG 4/14/98
Just like an egg, I will bring you to birth. Growing from a tiny state, what I conceive grows in secret behind the shell of My covering. Ordained in perfect seasons, each stage of growth is built upon another until all comes to fruition.

One day I will call forth that which I have created within you. You will begin to break your own walls of confinement and come out of your shell. This requires strength and tenacity to break your own restraints. It requires a courageous heart to face the outside world. This process is not something I do for you, because if I were to do so, the strength you need to face your surroundings would not be fully developed. I need your cooperation to bring you to birth. I promise you My help and protection, but you must be willing and persistent to break your own yokes.

You will know it's time when you grow so big that you can no longer stay within your established borders. You will know it's time when you want to come out. You will know it's time when everything in you says, “Yes! … It is time!” And when it is time, you will have the strength and the tenacity to break free.

“And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing.” (Isa 10:27)

=======

POPPING THE EGG 5/20/05

Yes My love. All those years of delay have been accumulating. You have been sitting on a large nest egg and it has grown larger and more valuable with time. Did you think that when I gave you My promise, and then you had to wait, that I would give you a stone? Never, My love.

Those seeds of My Words in your life, the ones that you held onto, the ones that you brought into your dwelling place, those rich and fertile eggs are like multiplied pearls ready for harvest. Each and every year that you have waited and trusted Me, I have added increased wealth to your basket. Rich and full and overflowing, My abundance is popping out all over. Travail is very painful, it is true. But oh such joy comes when the baby is birthed!

John 16:21-23 AMP
A woman, when she gives birth to a child, has grief (anguish, agony) because her time has come. But when she has delivered the child, she no longer remembers her pain (trouble, anguish) because she is so glad that a man (a child, a human being) has been born into the world. So for the present you are also in sorrow (in distress and depressed); but I will see you again and {then} your hearts will rejoice, and no one can take from you your joy (gladness, delight). And when that time comes, you will ask nothing of Me {you will need to ask Me no questions}. I assure you, most solemnly I tell you, that My Father will grant you whatever you ask in My Name {as presenting all that I AM}. {Ex 3:14.}

EGG-SPEC-TATIONS 8/11/06

I am forming precious new giftings inside the wombs of those who have waited upon Me for their promises of new joys. Hover over your egg-spectations and keep them warm. Do not leave the nest unguarded. The hope you have in your heart for a new life, role and function is incubating right now. What you expect will look differently when it is made manifest, but you will be given glimpses of it as it secretly grows through its pre-determined stages. Let nothing come through strife or vainglory, let it be birthed naturally. Lay your expectations down as to how all unfolds, but let your egg-spectations be filled with faith, hope and love. Love will never fail you dear one, never.

Rom 8:19-20 NKJV
For the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God.
