[Discerning Fellowship Ties]

HEARD 4/27/04: Pal. Friend. Gotta' decide what to do. We think alike... Fellowship. Soul tie, union. I will bring this to a climax. Wash you.

HEARD: 5/04/04 I must know what I am aligning with. I told you.

[Then I turned with anointed hands to the follow Word to Ponder]:

FILTERING UNCLEAN ASSOCIATIONS 5/16/02

In the same manner that you can download viruses from attachments on the Internet, you can also download demons from attachments with evil associations. Be careful who you bond with emotionally, be careful for the pollen spreads quickly among the bees. Remember to love always, but always guard your heart. Stay alert and keep your focus upon Me and I will transform you into My image. I will filter and screen the evil from touching you.

"Or else, if indeed you do go back, and cling to the remnant of these nations--these that remain among you--and make marriages with them, and go in to them and they to you, know for certain that the LORD your God will no longer drive out these nations from before you. But they shall be snares and traps to you, and scourges on your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land which the LORD your God has given you." (Josh 23:12-13 NKJV)

HEARD 7/28/04: Yep, she's afraid. It's a soul tie. The truth shall set you free. The battle; to break through the yokes and get to the heart of the matter.

GRANDMA ANNA VISION: RELEASED FROM SOUL TIES

[Some years ago, while on my usual hike up a high hill, I was nearing the top when I had a vision] I saw myself attached to a certain person by loose straps. I had always wanted to be free of the past pain, but I also had great sorrow of being totally disconnected. I made my decision and tearfully I asked the Lord to remove the bondage. He loosed three of the straps and asked me if I was sure I wanted the remaining one removed. Such a terrible wrench came to my stomach that I could hardly stand it. But I clenched my teeth and said, "Yes, Lord." I knew my past was holding me back from total intimacy with my beloved Lord. He removed the three, but I still was held by my one arm. "Are you sure you want to be completely free?" asked the Lord again. Again, I felt such a terrible agony inside. "Yes, Lord," I said tearfully and He cut the remaining strap. Immediately I was light and free and so full of joy.

John 8:36 NKJV

"Therefore if the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed."

RIGHTEOUS AND HEALTHY SOUL TIES

Eph 4:15-16 NKJV

Christ -- from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body for the edifying of itself in love.

Joined Together NT:4883

sunarmologeo (soon-ar-mol-og-eh'-o); from NT:4862 and a derivative of a compound of NT:719 and NT:3004 (in its original sense of laying); to render close-jointed together, i.e. organize compactly:

KJV - be fitly framed (joined) together.

From NT:4862

sun (soon); a primary preposition denoting union; with or together (but much closer than NT:3326 or NT:3844), i.e. by association, companionship, process, resemblance, possession, instrumentality, addition, etc.:

KJV - beside, with. In composition it has similar applications, including completeness.

UNRIGHTEOUS MIXTURE OF SOUL TIES

1 Cor 15:33 AMP

Do not be so deceived and misled! Evil companionships (communion, associations) corrupt and deprave good manners and morals and character.

Prov 22:5 NKJV

Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse; He who guards his soul will be far from them.

1 Cor 5:6 NKJV

Your glorying is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump?

Heb 12:15 AMP

Exercise foresight and be on the watch to look [after one another], to see that no one falls back from and fails to secure God's grace (His unmerited favor and spiritual blessing), in order that no root of resentment (rancor, bitterness, or hatred) shoots forth and causes trouble and bitter torment, and the many become contaminated and defiled by it--

CONCLUSION

{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER: UNCLEAN SOUL TIES

Keep a watch care posted on the door of your soul. When you join with others who are like minded, always remember to keep your soul pure before Me. I make all things new and bring My people into My image. It is a process and until complete, wounds and soul giants taint lives with mixture.

It is for you to discern and purpose not to allow the union of your soul with their places of mixture. In these days of joining, both men and spirits are finding their common denominators for greater synergy. This is My work and a sign of the end of the age when I separate the wheat from the tares. Be sure that in your joinings, you flee compromise and stand for a life without mixture. In so doing, I shall greatly multiply your authority, boundaries and metrons. As I have spoken through My prophets, - to a people without mixture I shall pour My Spirit without measure.

Prov 16:17 NKJV

The highway of the upright is to depart from evil; He who keeps his way preserves his soul.

What Are Soul Ties?

WHAT ARE SOUL TIES? 4/13/09

Someone asked me today about soul ties. Soul ties are when you have an emotional bond with people, where your heart is open and vulnerable to them. It is also when you trust and perhaps lean on them for help instead of the Lord. The doors they have open in their lives dumps on you simply because of the ties you have in your own soul with them. It is possible to be in the world and not of the world and to love people with God's love but not be vulnerable to them with your own needs.

Soul ties can take place through the 3 kinds of love. Agape love, Philio love, and Eros love.

AGAPE LOVE

Being knit in Agape love is experiencing God's love back to Him, and this is His love that we have for one another. This is a healthy, united, affectionate love where we are knit together in God and His family. The word has its base in a logical choice to love, as in a decision.

Matt 22:37-40 NKJV

Jesus said to him, "'You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.' 38 This is the first and great commandment. 39 And the second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' 40 On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets."

Col 2:1-2 NKJV

For I want you to know what a great conflict I have for you and those in Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh, that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together {4822} in love.

KNIT TOGETHER

NT:4822

NT:4822 sumbibazo (soom-bib-ad'-zo); from NT:4862 and bibazo (to force; causative {by reduplication} of the base of NT:939); to drive together, i.e. unite (in association or affection), (mentally) to infer, show, teach:

KJV - compact, assuredly gather, intrust, knit together, prove.

AGAPE LOVE

NT:26

NT:26 agape (ag-ah'-pay); from NT:25; love, i.e. affection or benevolence; specially (plural) a love-feast:

KJV - (feast of) charity ({-ably}), dear, love.

PHILIO LOVE – Friendship, Family love, Marriage love

Philio love is a family love and a friendship love. This kind of love is emotional and has its base more in a heart choice to love more than a logical decision to love.

PHILEO LOVE

NT:5368 phileo (fil-eh'-o); from NT:5384; to be a friend to (fond of {an individual or an object}), i.e. have affection for (denoting personal attachment, as a matter of sentiment or feeling; while NT:25 (agape) is wider, embracing especially the judgment and the deliberate assent of the will as a matter of principle, duty and propriety: the two thus stand related very much as NT:2309 and NT:1014, or as NT:2372 and NT:3563 respectively; the former being chiefly of the heart and the latter of the head); specifically, to kiss (as a mark of tenderness):

KJV - kiss, love.

1 Sam 18:1, 3 NKJV

Now when he had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was knit {7194} to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul...Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

Gen 44:30-31 NKJV

"Now therefore, when I come to your servant my father, and the lad is not with us, since his life is bound up {7194} in the lad's life, it will happen, when he sees that the lad is not with us, that he will die.

Gen 2:24 AMP

Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and shall become united and cleave {1692} to his wife, and they shall become one flesh. (Matt 19:5; 1 Cor 6:16; Eph 5:31-33.)

KNIT

OT:7194

OT:7194 qashar (kaw-shar'); a primitive root: to tie, physically (gird, confine, compact) or mentally (in love, league):

KJV - bind (up), (make a) conspire (-acy, -ator), join together, knit, stronger, work {treason}.

WITH THE SOUL OF

OT:5315

OT:5315 nephesh (neh'-fesh); from OT:5314; properly, a breathing creature, i.e. animal of (abstractly) vitality; used very widely in a literal, accommodated or figurative sense (bodily or mental):

KJV - any, appetite, beast, body, breath, creature, dead (-ly), desire, {dis-} contented, fish, ghost, greedy, he, heart (-y), (hath, jeopardy of) life (X in jeopardy), lust, man, me, mind, mortally, one, own, person, pleasure, (her-, him-, my-, thyself-), them (your)- selves, slay, soul, tablet, they, thing, (X she) will, would have it.

CLEAVE

dabaq

OT:1692 dabaq (daw-bak'); a primitive root; properly, to impinge, i.e. cling or adhere; figuratively, to catch by pursuit:

KJV - abide fast, cleave (fast together), follow close (hard after), be joined (together), keep (fast), overtake, pursue hard, stick, take.

1 Sam 20:17 NKJV

Now Jonathan again caused David to vow, because he loved him; for he loved him as he loved his own soul.

2 Sam 1:25-27 NKJV

"How the mighty have fallen in the midst of the battle! Jonathan was slain in your high places. 26 I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan; You have been very pleasant to me; Your love to me was wonderful, Surpassing the love of women. 27 "How the mighty have fallen, And the weapons of war perished!"

Prov 18:24 NKJV

A man who has friends must himself be friendly, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

1 Chron 12:17-18 AMP

David went out to meet them and said to them, If you have come peaceably to me to help me, my heart shall be knit to you; but if you have come to betray me to my adversaries, although there is no violence or wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers look upon and rebuke you. 18 Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, who was chief of the captains, and he said, Yours we are, David, and on your side, you son of Jesse! Peace, peace be to you, and peace be to your helpers, for your God helps you. Then David received them and made them officers of his troops.

EROS LOVE – Erotic sexual love

Soul ties can happen in sexual relationship outside of marriage. It is important that these sins are renounced and soul ties cut off to close demonic doors.

Gen 34:1-3 AMP

NOW DINAH daughter of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob, went out {unattended} to see the girls of the place. 2 And when Shechem son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the country, saw her, he seized her, lay with her, and humbled, defiled, and disgraced her. 3 But his soul longed for and clung to Dinah daughter of Jacob, and he loved the girl and spoke comfortingly to her young heart's wishes.

ABOUT SOUL TIES AND DELIVERANCE

Soul ties can leave one open and vulnerable to demons. The following is from my book, Ministering Deliverance. The following notes are from Frank Hammond's booklet called Soul Ties, and reprinted in my book with his permission before he died.

• SOUL TIES

{From Frank Hammond's booklet, Soul Ties}

(Frank's website: <http://newwineonline.com/cbm/books.htm>)

- Soul ties are derived from the Greek words 'joined and fellowship'. They mean to cleave to, be glued or cemented. (Mat 19:6, Eph 4:16, I Cor 1:10, I Cor 6:15, I Cor 5:6,7, I Cor 6:17) OT: (Num 25:3, Ps 106: 28, Hos 4:17)

- Demons enter soul ties when the boundaries God has set for relationships are violated. Unholy soul ties occur:

- in past sexual relationships - including all levels of petting. (1 Cor 6:16)
- w/ evil companions, friends, close business relations. (I Cor 15:33, Prov 22:5)
- pets - when treated as family, or taking the place of people. (Gen 2:20)
- perverted family ties - to leave and cleave is vital. (Eph 5:31)
- the dead - there is a time limit for mourning the dead. After that, one is to let go. (Num 20:29, Deut 34:8)
- factions within the church - cliques and divisions. (1 Cor 12:24,25)

Other unholy soul ties can be indirectly related through

- ear piercing and body piercing - becomes slave to master. (Ex 21:5,6)
- tattoos - connection with the idol of the mark. (Lev 19:28)

Soul ties happen when there is an emotional bond with whomever or whatever there is an attachment. Soul ties often manifest through priorities. If the attachment is taking the place of the Lord, Who is our Source, then it reveals itself by being out of balance with the rest of life, through time, emotions and focus.

Soul Ties: Cast Out the Trouble Makers

Posted by [swauthor] May 4th 2009 - 10:0AM Posts to date: 3947

RHEMA 4/14/09 SOUL TIES: CAST THE TROUBLE MAKERS OUTSIDE

HEARD: Oyster. My pearl. Trouble makers. They are waiting outside.

PIX: I saw a hand moving back and forth on an obscure window that was in a door.

HEARD SONG: I heard the song, My baby love. It was an oldie from my teen years.

LYRICS TO MY BABY LOVE

Ooh baby love, my baby love
 I need you, oh how I need you
 But all you do is treat me bad
 Break my heart and leave me sad
 Tell me, what did I do wrong
 To make you stay away so long

'Cause baby love, my baby love
 Been missing ya, miss kissing ya
 Instead of breaking up
 Let's do some kissing and making up
 Don't throw our love away
 In my arms why don't you stay
 Need ya, need ya

Baby love, ooh, baby love

Baby love, my baby love
Why must we separate, my love
All of my whole life through
I never loved no one but you
Why you do me like you do
I get this need

Ooh, ooh, need to hold you
Once again, my love
Feel your warm embrace, my love
Don't throw our love away

Please don't do me this way
Not happy like I used to be Loneliness has got the best of me
My love, my baby love

I need you, oh how I need you
Why you do me like you do
After I've been true to you
So deep in love with you

Baby, baby, ooh 'til it's hurtin' me
'Til it's hurtin' me
Ooh, baby love
Don't throw our love away
Don't throw our love away

INTERPRETATION: People with inappropriate soul ties and also people who are unequally yoked with unbelievers have irritants that are embedded into their souls. They wrestle within themselves to find freedom from what or whom they are tied to that steals their freedom. This can become a wrestling match where one learns to literally heave off the thoughts and emotions that are tormenting them about someone or something they are tied to. Much of this wrestling is actually wrestling with someone else's demons, because the soul tie is a link to one's own soul and heart.

Num 33:55-56 NKJV

But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then it shall be that those whom you let remain shall be irritants in your eyes and thorns in your sides, and they shall harass you in the land where you dwell.

2 Cor 6:14-18 NKJV

Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For what fellowship has righteousness with lawlessness? And what communion has light with darkness? 15 And what accord has Christ with Belial? Or what part has a believer with an unbeliever? 16 And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For you are the temple of the living God. As God has said: "I will dwell in them And walk among them. I will be their God, And they shall be My people." 17 Therefore "Come out from among them And be separate, says the Lord. Do not touch what is unclean, And I will receive you." 18 "I will be a Father to you, And you shall be My sons and daughters, Says the LORD Almighty."

Re: Soul Ties: Cast Out the Trouble Makers

Posted by [swauthor] Sept 10th 2009 - 1:45PM Posts to date: 3947

CONFIRMATION: This above post came out on the QW elist 2 days ago. Today while I was waiting in a parking lot, I opened my pocket PC and turned with anointed hands to the following Word to Ponder. I was 100% positive it connected with this whole theme. I see that when people are addicted to things or people, they actually are having soul ties with the demons behind both addictions.

BREAKING CODEPENDENT ADDICTIONS 9/11/06

The dark oppression of the world's carnality is moving towards gross darkness. This is driving emotional sufferers to seek any kind of momentary help for even a brief escape from torment. Even among My own people, there are over 900 million who are unable to get through a day without the temporary fix of leaning upon an addiction.

Within the spiritual realm of any codependent relationship, there is a symbiosis where both parties must agree and come into team ship in order to have their needs met. It is like seeing half of one handicapped person connected to half of an alien body; both riding in the same wheel chair and cooperating together in order to accomplish a goal. They must partner as a team in order to find the peace they need. Dear ones, that is the description of My people when joined with the demon of their addiction.

My people receive a temporary fix for their emotional need, and the demon receives a temporary fix for his ravaging appetite. These addictions are in many forms such as chemical dependency, smoking, drinking, gluttony, reading, television, media and entertainment of all kinds. They spiral down to sexual sins of porn, masturbation, and sexual contact outside of marriage. They also relate to childhood emotions of bonding to people in codependent relationships that are destructive and abusive.

I have grieved over their torments and want My people set free from the spirit of the world that drives them to codependent addictions for comfort. These idols are taking My place as Comforter in their hearts, motives, habits and choices. These false gods provide a counterfeit peace that is a temporary escape from the oppression of the soul. I want My children to walk fully stable in their right as royal children of the King. I want them to be My vessels of glory and not demons.

This is a massive need, please lift up this intercession on a corporate level and begin to break the dominion of emotional, codependent addictions that are holding My children back from their rightful inheritance in Me.

2 Chron 7:13-15 NKJV

When I shut up heaven and there is no rain, or command the locusts to devour the land, or send pestilence among My people, if My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.

FROM I BELIEVE IN VISIONS by Kenneth Hagin Sr.

Wayne told me today at lunch about a vision that Kenneth Hagin had. Wayne did not know the posts came out recently about wrestling with people's demons through soul ties. I knew it was a confirmation.

A pastor's wife had a demon that led her into deception whereby she left her husband and eventually denied Jesus Christ. When Kenneth saw the vision, he asked the Lord if he should pray for her and cast the demon out of her.

QUOTE FROM BOOK:

"The Lord said, "No, I don't want you to pray and cast the devil out of her, because you couldn't anyway. She wants that evil spirit, and as long as she wants it, she can have it. I have shown this to you for two reasons. First, so you could see how an evil spirit will get hold of a person, even a child of God, if they will let him. Second, I want you to deal with the evil spirit that is operating through that women and harassing and intimidating the ministry of her former husband.”

“How do I do that?” I asked. The minister was in the same state I was in, but the woman was in another state.

“There is no distance in the realm of the spirit,” the Lord said. “Simply speak to that spirit and command him, in My Name, saying, ‘You foul spirit that is operating in the life of this woman, that is harassing and embarrassing the ministry of the servant of the Lord, I command you to desist in your operations and stop in your maneuvers this moment.’ In the Spirit, I said those words and immediately the spirit ceased to operate through her to intimidate that minister. From that day forward the minister was never again troubled by her or that spirit.”

{end quote}

Reaping Another's Rewards

Posted by [swauthor] July 10th 2009 - 3:40PM Posts to date: 3947

QUICKENED REVELATION: REAPING ANOTHER'S REWARDS 7/01/09

As I was working today, I suddenly had the thought about my past: As I had the opportunity to sow into a person's life, I will get to reap this person's eternal fruits. That person also sowed a great amount of time with me. It was a mutual time of giving and receiving in the Lord. We all will receive our just rewards of where and with whom we invest.

Rev 22:12-13 NKJV

"And behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to every one according to his work. 13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last."

Matt 10:40-42 NKJV

"He who receives you receives Me, and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me. 41 He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward . And he who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward . 42 And whoever gives one of these little ones only a cup of cold water in the name of a disciple, assuredly, I say to you, he shall by no means lose his reward ."

AMAZING CONFIRMATION: I listened to Bobby Conner on God TV tonight and he confirmed this. The Lord told him that a babysitter at the church he attended, when he was first saved, had significantly sowed into his life. She volunteered to babysit their son so they could listen to the sermons without being interrupted. He was able to get the Word of God quickly into his life because of her ministry to him. She is now in heaven. The Lord said to Bobby, "All the fruit that you have, she is getting to enjoy and be a protection."

WORD TO PONDER: REAPING ANOTHER'S REWARDS 7/01/09

Yes, it is true, beloved ones, everywhere you plant, everywhere you sow and invest your life, you shall receive your reward. Remember, that the cloud of witnesses are yet waiting for their complete inheritance. Why? Because they sowed their lives into you, and the fruit you generate from their investments will also go to their own reward. Rejoice, beloved ones, not one dot or tittle will be lost from your just rewards.

Heb 11:39-40 NKJV

And all these, having obtained a good testimony through faith, did not receive the promise, God having provided something better for us, that they should not be made perfect apart from us.

Season to Repair

Posted by [swauthor] July 22nd 2009 - 9:58AM Posts to date: 3947

RHEMA 7/11/09 SEASON TO REPAIR

HEARD: We're moving you. To a better place. Wine skin. Out with the old.

HEARD: Medicine. Take us a little further into what we have learned. Season, what time is it? Season to repair. Victory.

COMMENTS: This Word may have deeper significance as to healing. However I am aware that the Lord is repairing old breaches in relationships that have had significant investments of prayer. Old lessons and the passing of time have brought about enough change that these relationships can repair when there is recognition that old mindsets are no longer the same.

Heb 12:14-16 NKJV

Pursue peace with all people, and holiness, without which no one will see the Lord: looking carefully lest anyone fall short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up cause trouble, and by this many become defiled.

What is Important

Posted by [swauthor] July 22nd 2009 - 10:31AM Posts to date: 3947

RHEMA 7/12/09 WHAT IS IMPORTANT

PIX: I saw 2 rocks being placed by a mailman in front of a screen door.

HEARD: I want you to understand something. What you see. Rock.

VISION: I was taken away from my house in the Spirit, moving fast. I went up into the stars and it was thrilling.

HEARD: People are My point. Planted.

WORD TO PONDER: WHAT IS IMPORTANT 7/12/09

Beloved ones, offenses and stumbling stones will come. Simply pick up your feet, forgive, move on and get past them. I can take you around the world and back with supernatural visions and experiences. But when you return home, you will find that what is important is people. I have planted you with loved ones. Please love them.

2 John 5-6 NKJV

And now I plead with you, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to you, but that which we have had from the beginning: that we love one another. 6 This is love, that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, that as you have heard from the beginning, you should walk in it.

Settle and Resolve

Posted by [swauthor] June 6th 2009 - 11:44AM Posts to date: 3947

RHEMA 6/01/09 SETTLE AND RESOLVE

HEARD: Finding resolutions. There you have it. As easy as one, two, three. Just talk and love one another. Bitterness. Settle the past. Keep an opened mind. Dont second guess. In the before and after.

Prov 18:2 AMP

A [self-confident] fool has no delight in understanding but only in revealing his personal opinions and himself.

WORD TO PONDER: SETTLE THE PAST WITH TALK AND FORGIVENESS 6/01/09

Find the resolutions you crave in your relationships by speaking of it all in past tense. Talk, love and release old bitter places with forgiveness. Settle the past by understanding the other's perspective and refraining from presumptuous mindsets about what is said.

Remember, that your lives have changed and past life is not now. See the patterns as old ways that you have outgrown and view the other with new eyes of understanding, mercy and improved choices. Open your eyes to see that I have the power to change what once was even through tiny baby steps.

Eph 4:30-32 NKJV

Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor, and evil speaking be put away from you, with all malice. And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you.

Go Easy on Your Relationships

Posted by [swauthor] July 28th 2008 - 9:05AM Posts to date: 3947

GO EASY ON YOUR RELATIONSHIPS

When you engage people in conversation or relationship, it should be just like flowing water. Water flows downhill and naturally finds its natural course. When you tell people to reply, ask them to, beg them to, demand them to, pester them to, you end up with a forced relationship. People can only go so far in such a place, before they cry uncle and give up. It takes 2 to have a relationship, not one that is pulling and tugging and doing all the work to keep something going.

When you apply pressure it is the same thing as control. Controlling people is not agape love. God does not demand love or relationship.

Relax a bit and not try so hard, not worry about being rejected, and not push people to respond to you. Try not to worry so much about people's opinions about you or your life, and just enjoy chatting as it comes and goes. Every healthy relationship needs breathing space.

Perhaps do some self introspection and find out why these things seem to be your pattern, and ask the Lord to do some surgery and also healing.

Lord I ask that whatever is inside of us that fears rejection, fears being slighted, fears being isolated or needs people approval will be loosed and set free in Jesus Name. Help us overcome these things and please spotlight them so that we can grow into healthy relationships that are really meaningful. in Jesus Name.

Prov 18:24 NKJV

A man who has friends must himself be friendly, But there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

Prov 27:14 NKJV

He who blesses his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, It will be counted a curse to him.

Prov 27:6 NKJV

Faithful are the wounds of a friend, But the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

How to Rebuild Trust

Posted by [swauthor] Apr 24th 2007 - 1:53PM Posts to date: 3947

RHEMA 4/22/07 REBUILDING TRUST

HEARD: How do you prove someone is trustworthy? Time.

WHAT IS TRUST?

Ps 18:30 NKJV

As for God, His way is perfect; The word of the LORD is proven; He is a shield to all who trust in Him.

Trust is a foundation in relationship. People trust God, loved ones, leaders and peers. Trust is:

- To allow without fear
- To believe in someone's reliability
- To have confident expectations of performance
- To have certainty based on past experiences
- Hope that you will not be rejected or abandoned
- Faith in someone's authenticity to be honest
- Extending credit to someone's integrity
- Reliance upon someone's commitment
- Being vulnerable with confidences
- Acceptance that a word will be backed with its deed

> The foundation of trust is based on how well you know whom you trust and their maturity. This takes time in relationship between 2 reciprocal parties.

REBUILDING TRUST

Zech 13:5 NKJV

And one will say to him, 'What are these wounds between your arms?' Then he will answer, 'Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.'

People lose trust in God, loved ones, leaders and peers. How does one rebuild trust?

- Acknowledge what happened
- Be willing to forgive yourself and the other and start over
- Own up to your part of the failings and confess your faults
- Verbalize your true remorse and suffering for breaching trust
- Be accepting of someone's best intentions
- Build a knowledge about someone
- Find insight into someone's motives
- Assess someone's fears and needs
- Give understanding to the person's weaknesses
- Develop realistic expectations about someone's performance
- Accept with unconditional love as a bridge past fear of rejection
- Build the self esteem and confidence of someone
- Be real about your level of commitment
- Be real about your lack of commitment
- Do your best to remain consistent
- Back your words with your deeds
- Deduct the person's passions in life, the key to their commitment
- See the bigger picture outside of the breach in trust

> The foundation of rebuilding trust is in how well you know the person. This takes time between two interacting parties.

> The level of someone's commitment and trustworthiness to God will be the level of their commitment and trustworthiness to you. It is a matter of maturity.

OPENED EARS 4/24/07: Today as I was thinking about the teaching on How to Rebuild Trust, the Lord opened up my ears and I literally heard the metallic grinding sound of an old ship moving forward from the docks. Whew, what an intense sound!

QUICKENED MEMORY: He brought back to memory an old post called Band-Aids and Barnacles. I had no memory of the actual message, but I remembered the awesome dream about the rusty ship that turns to gold so I just re-read it. It is sure not an old message, it is exactly on time with what the Lord is doing right now.

RESTORATION AFTER THE CLEARING AWAY

So today, 7 years after that post I marvel at the Lord's process of stripping off everything in our souls and flesh that are excess baggage. 7 is the number for completion. (Praise God!)

He is going to move into a great restoring in these last days that rebuilds His temple, His people, His kingdom on earth. He has been clearing away the rubble so that He can restore the stripped foundations. As I have been praying about the rebuilding process, one of the first things He is going to rebuild is our trust, in Him and one another. Hearing that clashing metal ship reminds me of these scriptures, "As iron sharpens iron, so a man sharpens the countenance of his friend...Faithful are the wounds of a friend, but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful." (Prov 27:6 & 27 NKJV) Hey what are friends for? Smile.

We sure can make a mess of things, but the Lord promises to redeem all our messes and rebuild all our fallen places.

Isa 61:4-6 NKJV

And they shall rebuild the old ruins, They shall raise up the former desolations, And they shall repair the ruined cities, The desolations of many generations. 5 Strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, And the sons of the foreigner shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers. 6 But you shall be named the priests of the LORD, They shall call you the servants of our God.

Acts 15:16-17 NKJV

After! this I will return And will rebuild the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down; I will rebuild its ruins, And I will set it up; 17 So that the rest of mankind may seek the LORD, Even all the Gentiles who are called by My name, Says the LORD who does all these things.'

WHEN YOUR SUPPORT SYSTEM CRUMBLES 1/06/07

Beloved ones, I understand so well how it feels to suddenly, without notice, have a support system crumble. More often than not, these are supportive relationships that can easily wreck in the stress of life. Relationship is like traveling a bridge over rough waters, it divides the sorrows and doubles the joy in life. But when that bridge crumbles it is massive chaos until help comes. I hear your cries for deliverance and healing, I AM sending My angelic helpers to build a platform over the rubble to help you see your way clear. The secret to this platform is to keep your conversation edifying, ever mindful to build one another up, encourage and lift one another in your faith.

Sometimes relationships are dysfunctional and what caused them to become that way comes from broken people having no way out of repeated abuse until all they know is to respond through that pain, no matter what they are dealt. Find ways to honor and support one another. Rebuild trust by showing a true desire for change and then walking out those changes. Find ways to express yourself differently. Create a new future and release the past as over and gone.

Keep moving, dear one, don't look back, just maneuver your way through the mess, and once away from what has crumbled, don't stuff your feelings. If you need to talk to someone about what has fallen, then share your burden. Unstuff these emotions that you have carried for so long. Pray over them. Share your burden and bring it all to prayer. Release and forgive, express your sorrow, move away from the pain as you pour out that which you have held inside. These burdens are not yours to carry alone, ask Me for help. If you feel it is too much to share with one person, then trust Me to bring you several and dispense portions of this heavy heart until you are free at last. Commit your way to Me and I will set you free.

Eph 4:29-32 NKJV

And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor, and evil speaking be put away from you, with all malice. And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you.

Tips on Building Healthy Communications

Posted by [swauthor] June 28th 2008 - 1:45PM Posts to date: 3947

TIPS ON BUILDING HEALTHY COMMUNICATIONS

Here are some healthy keys in communicating with people. These good habits will help re-build broken bridges and heal hearts.

1. Jesus told us to honor one another and esteem others higher than ourselves.

If Jesus got down on His knees to wash His friend's feet, we should do the same. That very act is basically looking up at others and serving them where they walk.

Try looking in the natural world and then bringing along the spiritual world as parables and tools to build that person's faith and relationship in the Lord. If that person won't let you in to know his natural world, then look for his spiritual gifts and build from there.

When you look up to a person, acknowledge that you are seeing and hearing Jesus in him. The part that is Jesus you are learning from, appreciating and finding joy in fellowship with Him and the other person. When you look up to a person, it is also his character in choices, motives and trials. Try to honor those qualities by letting the other person know when you have a chance.

2. Always try to build up the other person by looking for his good qualities.

Continually look for opportunities to acknowledge them to that person so he become established in that good quality.

When you are looking for good qualities, there are physical, spiritual, moral, and personality qualities. The more time building up what is most important, the more they will try to become that person on a consistent level.

When you try to build up a persons' good qualities it makes him feel loved, approved, validated, established and honored. It gives him a sense of identity and heals rejection and shame.

3. Always try to withhold any kind of negative "you" statement.

Withhold statements that point a finger and label the other person's character or behavior in any kind of negative way.

Try not to criticize, complain about or tear the other person down in any way, but instead reinforce the opposite positive behavior and choices when you recognize them.

4. Always try to accept the other person and try not to change that person.

Instead pray about the things that you feel need to change and then wait for God given opportunities to discuss them if you have a close enough relationship to warrant that.

5. Always try to refrain from being defensive when you feel falsely accused or misunderstood.

Instead look to see if the person really cares and wants to understand, then share in an educational manner so the other person can join you. If you feel your accuser is not worthy to join you, not your friend, or worth the cost to extend yourself, then just stay silent and give it to God.

6. Always try to be thankful.

When someone gives of himself to you, it costs him something each and every time. Learn to say thank you each and every time they give to you. Look for SPECIFIC things to say thank you about. Thanking someone means that you have received what they have given and it completes a circle of meaningful relationship. Without any response whatsoever, there is no completion of the gift, it simply goes into an empty hole and it becomes a one-sided relationship that basically makes one person a taker and the other person a martyr.

7. Always learn to say you are sorry when you see you have failed someone.

Always ask for forgiveness when you are sorry, and learn to be specific about where you have failed. Being sorry is not enough, asking for forgiveness is scriptural. Withholding the confession of being sorry and asking forgiveness is pride which is the opposite of a contrite heart. Confession is healthy for the soul and brings healing to both people. Confession allows the other person to feel validated that he was offended and it allows him to forgive and release judgment.

8. Always learn to forgive those who have offended you.

Forgiveness means refusing to hold onto it and asking God that it not be kept in remembrance in their heavenly account, but forgiven and erased as though it never happened.

9. Understand your personality and seek to understand others.

Find out what they need the most in relationship and make efforts to help establish and support him in what matters in his life, whether it be his family, job or life in the Lord.

10. Always stay faithful to your word, your commitments and follow through.

Ask God to help you remember when you have made promises, so that in your efforts to change and improve, you can find ways to stay faithful without hurting the other person.

If you cant do that, then forsake making promises and commitments even if the other person is dragging, nagging or pulling one out from you.

11. Always find out what the other person wants from you and discern their motive.

You may not want to comply, be able to comply or available to comply. Don't lead someone down a false path, keeping them hoping for what you will not give.

If they continue to be disappointed, have a heart to heart talk and find out what they expect.

Find the common link that you both have in building a relationship and then try to stay within those boundaries. Going outside the boundaries of that common ground forces both people to get bumped off God's prescribed path.

12. Always stay respectful in your words, attitudes, heart and motives.

Remember that Jesus is sent to you through that other person and He has something to tell you, if you will respect that person enough to listen.

1 Cor 13:4-13 NLT

Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous or boastful or proud or rude. Love does not demand its own way. Love is not irritable, and it keeps no record of when it has been wronged. 6 It is never glad about injustice but rejoices whenever the truth wins out. 7 Love never gives up, never loses faith, is always hopeful, and endures through every circumstance. 8 Love will last forever, but prophecy and speaking in unknown languages and special knowledge will all disappear. 9 Now we know only a little, and even the gift of prophecy reveals little! 10 But when the end comes, these special gifts will all disappear. 11 It's like this: When I was a child, I spoke and thought and reasoned as a child does. But when I grew up, I put away childish things. 12 Now we see things imperfectly as in a poor mirror, but then we will see everything with perfect clarity. All that I know now is partial and incomplete, but then I will know everything completely, just as God knows me now. 13 There are three things that will endure — faith, hope, and love — and the greatest of these is love.

Will be Working on Matters of Pride

Posted by [swauthor] Feb 9th 2008 - 3:10PM Posts to date: 3947

RHEMA 1/30/08 PERSONAL ATTENTION DEPENDS ON PRIDE

HEARD: Make it a simple story. How to give positive feedback. Say thank you. That's two way.

PIX: I saw a car battery lifted out of some liquid and it had been restored to brand new.

HEARD: Thanks again. I got where I needed to go. Humble and connected. Personal attention. It depends on him. Whether he gets the precious warnings of the Lord.

HEARD: We will be working on matters of pride.

VISION: I was carrying a boy away from a small fire that had started that was in danger of causing an explosion. After a while he finally turned over on his back and was content to snuggle in and be carried. I felt that turning over was significant as either in repentance or having been sifted and now turned aright.

HEARD: Made it out alive. Rescued and delivered. And the glory is passing on the other side.

VISION: I saw Bobby Conner give me a list of pull down choices as to what to do. I saw the pull down choices and I chose to use the scissors and cut a cord. Then I saw Bobby take a huge dove in his 2 hands, open palmed and throw it up into the air so it could return home.

HEARD: Set you free.

PIX: I saw 4 choices and I chose the 3rd one that was bold.

PIX: I saw the words, In the REST.

COMMENT: The Word rest was emphasized. That matches what the boy did in turning over and resting in my arms.

Heb 4:8-10 NKJV

For if Joshua had given them rest , then He would not afterward have spoken of another day. 9 There remains therefore a rest for the people of God. 10 For he who has entered His rest has himself also ceased from his works as God did from His.

Prov 16:7 NKJV

When a man's ways please the LORD, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.

WORD TO PONDER: RESIST PRIDE AND HUMBLE YOURSELF 1/30/08

Beloved one, having survived all these years in independence and by yourself, has encrusted you with a layer of pride. Be willing to break your shell of pride and connect with others in My body. I AM teaching you through hot circumstances that it matters to Me whether you are connected in fellowship. I dont want you isolated and alone any more. Repent beloved one. Humble yourself and ask for prayer, ask for help, and remember to say thank you when you receive a good gift.

There will come a day that you will learn how to rest in being carried and in that day you will no longer be prideful or independent. You will learn that the secret of faith is leaning and resting in the arms of My Words. Many of My most precious gifts to you will come through people. These things you will never know until you learn how to connect properly.

Prov 11:2 NKJV

When pride comes, then comes shame; But with the humble is wisdom.

Prov 13:10 NKJV

By pride comes nothing but strife, but with the well-advised is wisdom.

Prov 16:18-20 NKJV

Pride goes before destruction, And a haughty spirit before a fall. Better to be of a humble spirit with the lowly, Than to divide the spoil with the proud. He who heeds the word wisely will find good, And whoever trusts in the LORD, happy is he.

Prov 29:23 NKJV

A man's pride will bring him low, But the humble in spirit will retain honor.

Mark 7:20-23 NKJV

And He said, "What comes out of a man, that defiles a man. 21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, 22 thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lewdness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride , foolishness. 23 All these evil things come from within and defile a man."

1 John 2:15-17 NKJV

Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world — the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life — is not of the Father but is of the world. 17 And the world is passing away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever.

Wow the small boy turning on his back to rest in your arms mirrored what the Lord does in my own life. There are times when it is hard for me to lie face up and vulnerable. I well remember the night I went to bed laying on my side as I began to pray.

VERY clearly I heard, " Lay on your back honey face up, arms unfolded and resting by your side. Let Me touch those deep places you have yourself curled around." "Let Me touch them and heal them." I did and remember the tears that flowed as I uncurled and let the Lord touch those deep places I didn't even know were in need of healing.

It is only as we trust that we can stop struggling and rest. And, how can we NOT trust when we see all the Lord's goodness and all His hand has given!

RESTING IN HIS GOODNESS,

Work Overload Effects Fellowship

Posted by [swauthor] Dec 26th 2007 - 11:18AM Posts to date: 3947

RHEMA 12/18/07 FELLOWSHIP DEPENDS UPON TIME AND GOALS

PIX: I saw a jump rope moving up and down, up and down.

HEARD: Fellowship. Depends upon your association.

PIX: I saw a person who had too many expectations of another that was too busy and insensitive to the need for mutual communion in God.

HEARD: Just be careful. Comfort them.

HEARD: You need to have your brain fixed. How come you didnt get to go? I had work to do. Seeing is believing.

HEARD: Parents and children. Fellowship. Watch. Two or three hours. How far apart do we want to be? Three is fine, 3 it is. That is the reason we wait so much.

WORD TO PONDER: WORK OVERLOAD AFFECTS FAITH 12/18/07

When I grow My body up into oneness, it grows through the establishing of faith. Faith comes only by hearing My Word. Beloved, if you find yourself too busy, it effects your faith and your level of belief because work overload presses fellowship with Me and those who love Me into a small corner of your life.

As you watch and wait upon Me, you may wonder why you are having to wait so long for Me to perform My Word. Some levels of faith can not be built in isolation, but through being integrated with one another in My body. Thus some of My Words are totally dependant upon the level of fellowship and intimacy you allow to reach you. The measure of your limitations is your measure dear ones.

Rom 12:1-2 NKJV

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. 2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

Rom 12:1-6 AMP

I APPEAL to you therefore, brethren, and beg of you in view of [all] the mercies of God, to make a decisive dedication of your bodies [presenting all your members and faculties] as a living sacrifice, holy (devoted, consecrated) and well pleasing to God, which is your reasonable (rational, intelligent) service and spiritual worship. 2 Do not be conformed to this world (this age), [fashioned after and adapted to its external, superficial customs], but be transformed (changed) by the [entire] renewal of your mind [by its new ideals and its new attitude], so that you may prove [for yourselves] what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God, even the thing which is good and acceptable and perfect [in His sight for you].

3 For by the grace (unmerited favor of God) given to me I warn everyone among you not to estimate and think of himself more highly than he ought [not to have an exaggerated opinion of his own importance], but to rate his ability with sober judgment, each according to the degree of faith apportioned by God to him. 4 For as in one physical body we have many parts (organs, members) and all of these parts do not have the same function or use, 5 So we, numerous as we are, are one body in Christ (the Messiah) and individually we are parts one of another [mutually dependent on one another]. 6 Having gifts (faculties, talents, qualities) that differ according to the grace given us, let us use them: [He whose gift is] prophecy, [let him prophesy] according to the proportion of his faith; every time I read your posts, I am amazed at how faithful the Lord is. When I read this mail, I realised that it was true of me - I'm am currently too busy.

Hi Sandy

The Lord however quickened a memory to me. I did not see it, by my son saw it two days ago while we were driving in the street near our house. It was a number of stallions roaming the road nearby! It is so odd as we live in a neighbourhood -although it is not too far from agriculture holdings. Someone must have let the stallions out to roam in a park nearby.

Matt 11:28-30 NKJV

Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light."

There are many times in life where our Lord shows us what He wants to do and who He wants us tied to. It is not always easy to wait for our Lord to bring something about, but wait we must. Joining together with others is a two way street. Both have to be willing and have the time to do it. Relationship is voluntary and can not be forced with good result.

THE TWISTED ROPE

Phil Russell

8/15-19/2007

When I was camping on the coast this summer something was quickened to me. I had bought a new rope to use this year as my old camping rope had long ago given to my son. I strung up this new rope as a clothesline to dry out everything that was wet. It had rained a little the night before. When I took this new rope out of the package I noted that it had paper tape wrapped around each end. I removed the tape from one end and the rope instantly began to unravel. Immediately, I thought of our church care groups and the verses about the three-strand cord.

I discovered that this new rope although it looked like the woven rope I once had, was only a twisted one.

Without the binding on the end, each of the three cords wanted to go its own way. I tied a knot in each end of the rope as I knew the tape would not last and I did not have the necessary material to properly serve the ends of the rope. I did not want the rope to self-destruct before I even had the chance to use it. I knew I would have to be careful with it.

When I was a boy in scouts, I learned some about making rope. We used lots of it. A twisted rope is faster to make than a woven rope, but when you finish twisting the rope in order to make it stay together properly, so it is usable, you have to put a strain on it. By pulling on it, or putting a load on it, the twisted cords start to become a usable rope. The individual cords take a memory or a set. They become twisted together and take on a new form. They are no longer the same, they are twisted and not straight anymore. They conform to one another.

A three strand cord is not easily broken. It is stronger than the individual cords.

In reading the verses in Eccl 4:9-12, The New King James Version lists that rope as a threefold cord. It takes more effort and time to fold lives together. But a woven rope will stand up to more work and use. It is more supple and flexible to work with. It is not so abrasive therefore it is not as hard on the hands that work with it.

Excerpt from The Marlinspike Sailor by Hervey Garrett Smith

"Except for improvements in quality and manufacturing techniques, the construction of common laid, or twisted rope is much the same as it was a thousand years ago. But despite the improvements, laid rope still has some undesirable characteristics. With extended use it tends to lose some of its twist and becomes "long-jawed." It stretches under heavy load and does not recover. It kinks or becomes fouled easily, is hard on the hands, and has a relatively short life.

Braided rope is superior to laid rope in so many respects that it is preferred by most yachtsmen. Basically, it is a braid-on-braid. -- It has 25 to 40% less stretch than laid rope, has almost no tendency to kink or become fouled, reeves through blocks with less friction, is easier on the hands, and has a much longer useful life.

OT:6960 (49 uses in OT)

qavah (kaw-vaw'); a primitive root; to bind together (perhaps by twisting), i.e. collect; (figuratively) to expect:

KJV - gather (together), look, patiently, tarry, wait (for, on, upon).

(Biblesoft's New Exhaustive Strong's Numbers and Concordance with Expanded Greek-Hebrew Dictionary. Copyright (c) 1994, Biblesoft and International Bible Translators, Inc.)

Below are a few examples of this word used in context.

Gen 49:18 I have waited for thy salvation, O LORD. KJV

Ps 25:2-5 KJV

2 O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, let not mine enemies triumph over me.
3 Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.
4 Shew me thy ways, O LORD; teach me thy paths.
5 Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.

Ps 27:14 Wait on the LORD: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the LORD. KJV

Ps 39:7 And now, Lord, what wait I for? my hope is in thee. KJV

Ps 40:1 I waited patiently for the LORD; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry. KJV

Ps 52:8-9

8 But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.

9 I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done it: and I will wait on thy name; for it is good before thy saints. KJV

It is interesting to look at the word translation which is listed in the KJV as "to wait upon" compared to the root word definition which is listed as "to bind together by twisting".

shalash (shaw-lash'); a primitive root perhaps originally to intensify, i.e. treble; but apparently used only as denominative from OT:7969, to be (causatively, make) triplicate (by restoration, in portions, strands, days or years):

KJV - do the third time, (divide into, stay) three (days, -fold, parts, years old).

(Biblesoft's New Exhaustive Strong's Numbers and Concordance with Expanded Greek-Hebrew Dictionary. Copyright (c) 1994, Biblesoft and International Bible Translators, Inc.)

Eccl 4:9-12

9 Two are better than one,

Because they have a good reward for their labor.

10 For if they fall, one will lift up his companion.

But woe to him who is alone when he falls,

For he has no one to help him up.

11 Again, if two lie down together, they will keep warm;

But how can one be warm alone?

12 Though one may be overpowered by another, two can withstand him.

And a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

NKJV

Definition: Fold - [AS. Fealdan]

1. To lap or lay in plaits or folds.

2. To lay or clasp together; to lay close to the body; as, the bird folds its wings.

3. To enclose within, or as if within, folds; to envelop; embrace; surround.

To become folded, plaited, or doubled.

1. A doubling or folding; also, a part laid over on another part; a plait.

Double Portion Stretch

PROMISES STRETCHING BETWEEN HEAVEN AND EARTH
Stretching for His Double Portioned

I recieved the following dream from a reader and I have prayed about it a few days. It is quickened to me as very prophetic.

Dear Sandy,

I had a dream recently in which myself and a friend were 'flying' high above the clouds, we were riding the wind while holding onto some ropes connected to the earth.

I could see the land at one stage with a band of riders on horses passing underneath and was watching them when I heard a 'swish' gone past us, I looked around and saw 2 horsemen with huge horses and what looked like carriages trailing behind them riding up into the heavens at a tremendous speed.

It happened so fast, I only had a glimpse of them and wanted to follow as I shouted in excitement , but I could not let go of the rope I was holding onto and knew I had to return to earth soon. it was all very exciting. wow.

{end reader dream}

QUICKENED QUOTE: The same day that the above dream was sent, my eye glanced at the bottom of an incoming email that said: "When you reach the end of your rope you will find the hem of His garment." This was my confirmation that the Lord wanted me to post this dream.

INSERT ROPE RHEMA

RHEMA 12/17/07

HEARD: Commitment. No I am not leaving you. He's a life line and you are his.

PIX: I saw the words, Rope in Word.

HEARD: Yes. Point. What's the powerful message in that? To direct. Directions, how to.

RHEMA 12/30/07

HEARD: Grace. Wound, I know it hurts. Come with Me.

PIX: I saw an arrow that was aiming to be shot. The arrow had a rope on it as though to draw or retrieve someone.

HEARD: Draw into My likeness. Character.

INSERT HYMN BLEST BE THE TIE THAT BINDS

LYRICS BY JOHN FAWCETT AND MUSIC WRITTEN BY HANS G. NÄGELI.

Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one
Our comforts and our cares.

We share each other's woes,
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain;
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.

This glorious hope revives
Our courage by the way;
While each in expectation lives,
And longs to see the day.

From sorrow, toil and pain,
And sin, we shall be free,
And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.

QUICKENED SCRIPTURE: It was suddenly quickened to me that when Elijah was taken with the horse and chariot, that his mantle was given to his student on earth. I saw that the stretching we are in right now is the great transition in hanging onto promises of His double portion from passing generations of dunamis power.

WORD TO PONDER: STRETCHING BETWEEN HEAVEN AND EARTH 4/02/08

Sometimes there is tension as you stretch between your earthly ties and your heavenly ties. Your soul becomes taunt with choices to let go and move onward into your spiritual inheritances, or hang on and bring others with you. Yes beloved ones, these ties are strong and those that are fortified by My love are My call upon your life to hang on. Those ties that are carnal and earthy, I will send the arrow of My Words through your prayers and draw all to Me and into My likeness and character. I have lassoed you and all that concerns you, My love.

If you ever feel like you have come to the end of your rope and are not able to get up, always remember that the hem of My garment is very near you. I AM in heaven, but My feet are on earth. I still walk with you everyday precious one. I understand all that has brought you to My feet.

Trust Me that all My promises of double portion mantles are ready to fall upon the earth from passing generations. Precious ones, you may have held on to My promises with your last breath. But you may very well find that the hem of that garment you cling to IS your promised mantle, waiting for you.

2 Kings 2:10-14 NKJV

So he said, "You have asked a hard thing. Nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if not, it shall not be so." 11 Then it happened, as they continued on and talked, that suddenly a chariot of fire appeared with horses of fire, and separated the two of them; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

And Elisha saw it, and he cried out, "My father, my father, the chariot of Israel and its horsemen!" So he saw him no more. And he took hold of his own clothes and tore them into two pieces. 13 He also took up the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and went back and stood by the bank of the Jordan. 14 Then he took the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and struck the water, and said, "Where is the LORD God of Elijah?" And when he also had struck the water, it was divided this way and that; and Elisha crossed over.

Finding Liberty in Your Friendships

Posted by [swauthor] Mar 17th 2008 - 1:36PM Posts to date: 3947

RHEMA 3/17/08 FINDING LIBERTY IN YOUR FRIENDSHIPS

HEARD: Distraction. How to overcome distraction? Stick like glue and yet keep your focus.

PIX: I saw someone going down a steep mountain trail on a camel.

{ Camels represent being in the wilderness of isolation. }

HEARD: Yes. You've got friends. I'm giving you friends.

HEARD: Grasping. Wont ever do that again. Freedom. It's all about release and letting go and then expecting.

WORD TO PONDER: FINDING LIBERTY IN YOUR FRIENDSHIPS 3/17/08

Beloved I AM calling you to stick with the loved ones I have given and I AM giving you even more kindred heart friends. Stick with them by being faithful in prayer and loving support. Sticking with your loved ones is being willing to remain there for the long haul, because My love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, and endures all things. My love never fails.

Understand that sticking with someone is not grasping at them. Grasping is a fleshly, coveting kind of love that pulls your souls down and away from Me. Grasping is soulish love that is a gravity upon all involved. When you grasp people, you are placing them as your source instead of Me. Grasping is a form of control and also idolatry. When I AM your Source, you can amiably serve and love one another in My freedom, where all are edified and built up. Repent beloved and offer your relationships up to Me and I will cleanse your soul and set you and your loved ones free to walk with Me and walk with one another in My love.

2 Cor 3:17 NKJV

Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

Gal 5:1 NKJV

Stand fast therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with a yoke of bondage.

Gal 5:13-15 NKJV

For you, brethren, have been called to liberty; only do not use liberty as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

1 Cor 13:4-8 NKJV

Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails.

TODAY'S CONFIRMATION: FRIENDS

March 17, 2008.

Ras Robinson

<http://www.fullnessonline.org>

Friends. My wife has always been my best friend since we first met and fell in love. Her way of showing her love for me is to do something for me. Last Saturday, she cooked all day long in preparation for a family birthday party. For the first time, we had a spiritual son and daughter and their children join with us for the family celebration of my birthday. We talked about the blessings of friendship and then shared in breaking of bread together. I noticed it was difficult for each one to finally leave for their homes. This is as it should be among friends. Actually, My whole family are my best friends. And now, God is steadily adding more and more spiritual sons and daughters How blessed are we! Friends.

1 Corinthians 4:15-16 "For if you were to have countless tutors in Christ, yet you would not have many fathers, for in Christ Jesus I became your father through the gospel. Therefore I exhort you, be imitators of me."

INSERTS CAMEL

RHEMA 3/18/07

VISION: This morning in church I saw a camel.

QUICKENED MEMORY: The Lord reminded me of the vision Bobby Conner had of the camels in the desert. They were in a group running out of the desert. When he asked what that meant, the Lord said He was taking loneliness out of the body of Christ.

BOB JONES VISION – BURNED OUT MOTIVATION FROM LACK OF FELLOWSHIP

EXCERPT FROM WHITEDOVE MINISTRIES JUNE E-NEWSLETTER

June 6, 2003

www.whitedoveministries.org

www.bobjones.org

The Road to the Greatest Show on Earth

In an allegorical prophetic experience, Bob found himself driving an automobile on a road identified as the "straight and narrow way." An automobile is often representative of a person's individual ministry. On this road Bob discovered many other automobiles traveling in like manner.

He intuitively knew that this road would take him to the "Greatest Show on Earth." The only passage way to this promised outpouring of heavenly virtue and authority is by traveling the straight and narrow way through the leading of the Holy Spirit and the revelation of the Word.

The timing for the show to take place is when the "Son" begins to shine upon the moon in pronounced brilliance to reflect and release the glory of Heaven upon the earth.

On every lofty mountain and on every high hill there will be streams running with water on the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. The light of the moon will be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter like the light of seven days, on the day the LORD binds up the fracture of His people and heals the bruise He has inflicted. Isaiah 30:25-26

In this prophetic illustration, the moon is representative of the bride of Christ. The Lord promises to share His power and authority through an overcoming body of people who are identified as His bride. Only by His presence resting in them, can the bride fulfill her prophetic destiny and the harvest of the ages.

As Bob approached the destination he could see the "tent" in the distance. The outstanding day long promised is in view. He and the others on this road instinctively knew it is the restoration of the "tent of David." At that point the Holy Spirit advised Bob to take a left turn into an area occupied by other people off the main road.

The Man in the Motor Home

There he discovered a man in a motor home that was disabled en route to the great tent. It so happened that this motor home also carried in it many young people. The place in which the vehicle was disabled was adjacent to numerous forms of worldly entertainment and distracting corruption attempting to entice the people from the path leading to the great tent.

Many of the young people in the motor home were being lured away from their ultimate purpose into the different places of worldly conformity and entertainment that would rob them of their destiny at the "Greatest Show on Earth." Bob was instructed to ask the man if he needed assistance since his vehicle was broken down. The man advised that he did but couldn't understand why his motor home wasn't functioning since it was relatively new.

Interestingly, Bob discovered that the fuel tank was full indicating there was an anointing present for this man's ministry to carry him to the tent. However, upon further examination he discovered there was no oil in the engine and he had burned the motor up. The Holy Spirit then indicated that he had "burned up" that which had "moto-vated" him thus far in the journey. Although he had fuel for the engine he had no oil in it to keep it running smoothly and had destroyed the motor.

The Need for the Holy Spirit's Oil

The Holy Spirit indicated that the oil needed was the "unity of the brethren" producing the anointing oil essential for this ministry to function properly. The engine had not been serviced through divine relationships, accountability and communion essential for smooth operation. He had plenty of fuel that he had received from the Lord but no oil that is generated from fraternal affection and brotherly love. As a result, his spiritual children were being enticed away from their road to destiny.

At that point the Holy Spirit directed Bob back to the main road and communicated that He simply wanted Bob to discover how one can be distracted from the high calling being released in this hour. As we are "rooted and grounded" in love, faith and truth (Eph. 3:17; Col 1:23; 1 Tim 3:15) we are made to qualify for this awesome journey. That would especially include love for the Lord and also for His people.

POEM: STRINGS 10/13/05

I see a balloon high in the sky
Having traveled miles gone by.
I once held on and grasped it tight
Against tug and pull to take flight.

The wrestling of strings are now released.
In surrender there is always peace.
Remember well to give back to God.
And all of heaven will applaud.

It hurts a mother to cut her strings.
But such delight when she sees their wings.
Flying on prayers so lovingly given,
They'll find their way for which they've striven.

Now they soar and fly in the wind.
Where they go, we see no end.
Roots and wings we give our kids.
To seek God's best, not what's forbid.

Always take time to say a prayer.
The wind will carry your heart that's there.
A mother's prayers will never cease.
On through history past deceased.

1 Sam 1:22-8 NKJV

But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, "Not until the child is weaned; then I will take him, that he may appear before the LORD and remain there forever." So Elkanah her husband said to her, "Do what seems best to you; wait until you have weaned him. Only let the LORD establish His word." Then the woman stayed and nursed her son until she had weaned him. Now when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bulls, one ephah of flour, and a skin of wine, and brought him to the house of the LORD in Shiloh. And the child was young. Then they slaughtered a bull, and brought the child to Eli. And she said, "O my lord! As your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood by you here, praying to the LORD. For this child I prayed, and the LORD has granted me my petition which I asked of Him. Therefore I also have lent him to the LORD; as long as he lives he shall be lent to the LORD." So they worshiped the LORD there.

To Have a Friend, Stay and Be Friendly

Posted by [swauthor] Oct 21st 2007 - 1:44PM Posts to date: 3947

RHEMA 10/16/07 TO HAVE A FRIEND, STAY AND BE FRIENDLY

HEARD: Trust in the relationships I provide for you. Why did you leave me? Fear.

{Pondering the fact that one way relationships are a dead end. One way communication is not a relationship. It takes 2 willing parties to relate. Thinking about the prodigal sons having moved away from fellowship and they dont realize that the Lord has not pursued them, but let them go to their own follies so that they may enlightened that they reap what they sow.}

HEARD: Good girl, keep going, give them to me. They are right on target.

HEARD: Friendly. He who would have friends, he himself must be friendly. Wise choice. You are not alone.

Prov 18:24 NKJV

A man who has friends must himself be friendly, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

2 Sam 9:1 NKJV

Now David said, "Is there still anyone who is left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?"

Prov 27:10 NKJV

Do not forsake your own friend or your father's friend, nor go to your brother's house in the day of your calamity; Better is a neighbor nearby than a brother far away.

INSERT WORD TO PONDER

"F" IS FOR FAITH, FELLOWSHIP, FAMILY AND FRIENDSHIP 8/11/06

I AM working My way through the alphabet of Focus. I have raised up My beloved ones in Faith. I have forged a Faith in them that will not quit, and I have sent them with purpose. Now I AM bringing them into a richer Fellowship, so that they adopt one another as Family. In so doing, I have the rich gift of Friendship waiting and yet to be discovered.

I have loved My Friends and have laid My life down for them. They too will know the rich bonding of laying their lives down for one another. They will marvel at how their lives will join without clash and strife. Their secret in joining is to understand that all relationship is reciprocal. It has been that way since the beginning as it is birthed from My own heart of need to fill My house with family. Truly adopted into My Family of love are rich Friendships that will last an eternity.

1 Kings 6:7 NLT

The stones used in the construction of the Temple were prefinished at the quarry, so the entire structure was built without the sound of hammer, ax, or any other iron tool at the building site.

Way To the Esther Realm

Posted by [blackopal] Aug 8th 2007 - 6:52PM Posts to date: 217

Two nights ago I had a dream that I feel is a Word from the Lord that if we strengthen, renovate, rebuild our "bridges,"our relationships, then there is a great "reward" that He has in store for us.

Dream of 08/07/07 The Way To The Esther-Realm

In the dream I was in a conference where many well known men and women of God were present. On the stage was Jeff Jansen. He received a word of knowledge about someone in the meeting who was color blind. One of my friends stood up and shared the testimony of someone in Harrisburg, PA who was 90% color blind but after receiving prayer got completely healed. It turned out that the person in our meeting was a lady. Jeff began to pray for her but nothing seemed to happen first. I was standing right there and felt that we just had to keep on praying and healing would surely come.

After the meeting we were standing in a hallway and my friend turned to me and asked me if I still had some of that breakthrough/miracle anointing left. I said yes and took a tube of white toothpaste out of my pocket. We put it on our lips and started to offer it to others. They "caught" it as they come into contact with us. Some of them didn't like it and they rushed to wash it off. Then my friend looked at me and said;" We have left the Mordecai-realm and now entered the Esther-realm.

INTERPRETATION

CHANGING THE WAY WE SEE

God's eternal purpose always has been to make His manifold- original Greek: many colored- wisdom known to all the world and all the heavenly realms through His Church. (The day before the dream I watched a short video in which Jeff Jansen was talking about the many colored gemstones appearing in meetings.)

NIV Ephesians 3:10 His intent was that now, through the church, the manifold wisdom of God should be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly realms,

Right now we all know in part. As little cells in His body we can reflect only part of Him, only some of the "colors" of His fulness.

NAS 1 Corinthians 13:9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part;

No individual/fellowship/ministry can give a full representation of Him, of His wisdom, of His ways only the WHOLE Body. If our will and purposes are really lined up with His and if we understand our own limitations then we realize that we need each other, we need to learn how to work together. We need to become one that the "picture" could be fuller and richer. This starts with seeing the different "colors" of God in those around us, recognizing the wisdom, the gifts deposited by God in them. And only the eyes of love can do this.

NAS Colossians 3:14 And beyond all these things put on love, which is the perfect bond of unity.

CHANGING THE WAY WE TALK

This love has to be "real" in our hearts and manifest itself first of all in/through our communications. NAS Matthew 12:35 "The good man out of his good treasure brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of his evil treasure brings forth what is evil.

There needs to be a cleansing of the heart and so of the lips, the words. We are allowed to speak only life to each other.

A couple of months ago Tao and I had a rhema about relationships being symbolized by teeth. [The Lord Is Our Best Spiritual Dentist & Don't Forget To Floss!] This is why the Lord used in this dream white toothpaste on lips to convey the great need for our relationships, our conversations with each other to be cleansed, purified.

As we came in contact with others they "caught" it, it was contagious! If we start treating others in love then we will be treated the same way. Unfortunately there were some who did not like it...

THE ESTHER-REALM

My friend called the toothpaste the breakthrough/miracle anointing. Even this name, but especially her last statement about entering the Esther-realm shows how important this cleansing is.

Esther was purified and anointed for a whole year before she could come before the King.

NAS Esther 2:12 Now when the turn of each young lady came to go in to King Ahasuerus, after the end of her twelve months under the regulations for the women-- for the days of their beautification were completed as follows: six months with oil of myrrh and six months with spices and the cosmetics for women--

This cleansing, anointing that probably just enhanced her natural beauty made her so desirable to the king that he chose her as his queen. So later, as a wife, trusting in her husband's love for her- and of course God's help- she dared to enter his presence with her request even in spite of the law. Mordecai, who was a faithful servant, who did great things for his king could not do that. Only Esther, the queen had access to the heart of the king.

We would like to have the same access to our Husband's heart, we would like to appear with the same confidence before our King. But He Himself warns us about something important before we would go:

NAS Matthew 5:22 "But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother shall be guilty before the court; and whoever shall say to his brother, 'Raca,' shall be guilty before the supreme court; and whoever shall say, 'You fool,' shall be guilty enough to go into the fiery hell.23 "If therefore you are presenting your offering at the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you,24 leave your offering there before the altar, and go your way; first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and present your offering.

If we walk in Him and have fellowship with one another His blood continually cleanses us from all sin A clean heart does not condemn us so we can have confidence before Him and whatever we ask we receive from Him.

NAS 1 John 1:7 but if we walk in the light as He Himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin.

NAS 1 John 3:21 Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God;22 and whatever we ask we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and do the things that are pleasing in His sight.

CONFIRMATIONS:

Quickened Clock Time: 3:41 AM (time when I woke up after the dream)

H341- to hate
G341- to renew, to renovate

NAS 1 John 4:20 If someone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for the one who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen.

NAS Matthew 5:23 "If therefore you are presenting your offering at the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, 24 leave your offering there before the altar, and go your way; first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and present your offering.

Yesterday I felt led to go to Bill Johnson's website and listen to the latest sermon of the week. It is called: Increase Through Partnership and he talks about his special relationship with Randy Clark whose ministry is in Harrisburg, PA. And with many others. In one of those last meetings where they joined together they saw besides an increased level of healings even rain coming down in the building!

The scripture that he built his whole sermon on was the following:

NAS Isaiah 65:8 Thus says the LORD, "As the new wine is found in the cluster, ..."

The new wine- anointing, power- is not an individual one but a corporate one. It's not just in one or two individual grape but in the cluster.

FRIENDSHIPS OF FAITH ARE LIKE FLYING A KITE

by Don Nori

<http://www.injesus.com/Groups/ViewMessage.cfm?MessageId=BB006N4Q&UCD=n1t>

QUICKENED: The following is an excellent portion of an article printed on InJesus by Don Nori.

Go Fly a Kite

When I was a kid, I loved to fly kites. My mom would often say to my twin brother, Ron, and me, "Boys, why don't you guys go fly a kite." So we would. We spent hours in the golden meadows and fossil beds next to our rural Pennsylvania home.

A kite is an awesome thing. Even in a shallow wind, it is determined to fly. As the wind grows stronger, the kite's paper panels stretch out as it soars for the heavens, as though never to return.

Did you ever notice that a kite never seems to be content as it responds to the wind? As it pulls the string from the one holding it on the ground, the kite goes up as though on some secret mission. The kite has no concept that there is a limit as to how far the string will allow it to go. I was often the one holding the roll of string as the kite pulled away from us on its quest to go higher. The roll burned my fingers as we heard the whiz of the string chasing the kite heavenward. The wind often carried the kite until all the string was off the roll. We could barely see the kite, now only a dot against the sun-lit sky.

I always hated when I was out of string, for it created a dilemma. It is never the kite that limits its own flight. The string is always the bad guy. When the string was out, I either had to run with the kite or pull it back down. The kite usually pulled so hard that I feared for the kite. I never really was certain how much stress the string could take before it snapped. So I would run with the kite. I would run until there was some sort of danger.

Power lines, a tree, another kite, a highway—all were hindrances to the kite's ability to soar with the wind or my ability to give it what it really wanted: more string.

All that kite wanted to do was fly, and there was no convincing it that imminent danger was ahead. The kite had captured the wind and wanted nothing more than to go with it, to yield to it, to go as far and as high and as fast as the wind dare take it. But when the string was gone, tension would mount and the exhilaration of the day quickly turned into stress as the battle to pull it back in ensued. I had to somehow work the string so as to gently bring the kite safely back to the ground. As many of you know, this is not an easy assignment. The kite is completely sold out to the wind and has no intentions of responding to someone earthbound and unable to experience the exhilaration of this kind of flight.

I can still almost hear the kite as it battled for its life: "What are you doing? I thought you loved to fly! Let me go!"

So the tension on the string grew as I called the kite back to earth. In my desire to give it string and yet protect it to fly another day, I found myself taking risks I would normally not take. I wanted it to soar on, but I did not want to lose the kite.

Although I knew the string was essential to the kite's survival, it seemed the kite was begging to be released from what it perceived as unnecessary bondage. It was as though the kite wanted to cut its only connection to the ground. The irony is amazing. As soon as the kite gets its way, is freed from the string, it is doomed to crash, usually broken beyond repair.

Who Wants to be a Kite?

God-breathed friendships are like boys flying a kite. Sometimes you are the kite and sometimes you are the guy on the ground holding the string.

I am free to be Spirit-blown into whatever God is calling me to be. I am free to catch the highest wind and go to places in the Spirit that I have never explored. But this is because I am in relationship with one or two who I know have my best interest at heart. Their only desire is for my well-being. I am convinced they have no personal agenda, no secret desires or need to profit from any success I may have. I never have to be concerned that they will become jealous or envious of how I am used of the Lord. I am at peace with the knowledge that their prayer for me is pure and their desire for my success is genuine. The counsel I get is intended to bless and encourage, not to dominate or control. Their motivation is not jealousy or envy. It is love. As in any true covenant relationship, their hands are open, willing either to release or be wrong. Their love, prayers, and support do not waver by my decisions.

Conversely, they carry in their heart the same understanding and confidence about my intentions toward them.

This kind of relationship cannot be legislated or assigned. It cannot be determined by geographic region or personality test. It is determined by a heart-to-heart covenant that is tested and proven in the crucible of trial and fire. It develops over time as men and women make a daily conscious decision to respond to others as they themselves want to be loved and cared for. This place of trust in the heart of another can never be imposed; it can only be earned.

To these folks, prayer is more than laying on of hands. To them, genuine relationship is in the laying on of the heart.

The relationship that allows you to be everything you can be is born out of mutual respect, mutual honor, and of course genuine love. These individuals believe in the calling that is on one another's life. They love, pray, trust, and give room to fly even when the skies are not so clear.

The balance is in the Body. It is not in me.

Out of String

Yes, there are times when the person on the ground is out of string. He feels the pressure of the kite pulling on his better judgment as it flies into uncharted skies. Sometimes it takes all his strength and faith to hold onto that relationship. Sometimes he will run down the street so the kite has more room to fly. When he runs out of street, he runs across the field, holding onto that kite string and praying that soon the kite will catch a smooth wind and settle in. Sometimes the way comes to an end and the strength of the string is tested to an extreme measure.

But this situation is exactly why they have been forging a strong bond of covenant all this time. The relationship can stand the test of love and commitment when the mutual sense of covenant has been seared into their hearts.

A broken string benefits no one. Without its tension, the kite falls to the ground. The very thing it wanted and desired becomes its downfall, its destruction. Instead of soaring higher and higher, it finds itself broken on the ground or torn by the limbs of a tree. The thing that gave it the power to soar is the one and same relationship that ultimately keeps it in touch with time and space.

But the kite is not the only one affected. The one on the ground never would have looked up had the kite not been flying. He never would have been challenged to peer into things he has never before seen. If he were not looking up to the kite he would never see the world as his friend sees it. He would have missed an essential element of God's heart for the nations. Because he is holding the kite, he cannot help but be affected by the wind that carries the kite heavenward.

We All Need Someone

Of course, this example will work in nearly every relationship in which we find ourselves engaged. I need the ones God puts in my life, and they need me. The prophetic slobbering of a prophet alone will drown the hearer in mystical saliva. The dusty words of a didactic teacher will choke even the most fervent believer. But when the prophet's slobber is mixed with the teacher's dusty words, they form a salve that will always open the eyes of the blind.

We must let the ones we love fly. For we will never be satisfied until we ourselves are freed to fly.

So we bathe one another in prayer with full confidence in the One who sends the wind and blows it under our wings. This is the freedom to soar.

Response to the above article:

SYNCHRONIZED KITE FLYING

Try doing this without getting into a tangled mess!

How beautiful it can be when many kites fly in synch in the sky! As I was picturing this with my inner eyes I started to think about how hard this can be in the Spirit. It is hard enough to maintain a good relationship between two souls; it's only possible if it is a three-fold cord that unites the two with the Lord Himself in it. We are connected and have "mutual pleasure" sometimes soaring up high, catching the currents of the Spirit, sometimes holding the cord to keep the soaring one safe and enjoying the thrill of the task itself. And of course the sight too!

But the Lord has a big "show" prepared, with many kites flying at the same time. There needs to be unity first of all among the "ground team," the intercessors. Those holding the strings can not just run around bumping, into each other. They need to work in synch and that will result the kites flying in synch too. They need to be able to correctly determine the direction, the speed of the wind, their own positions, how much string could be released, when to pull back, etc. I think the "show" almost completely depends on the "ground team" and the wind itself. The kites just have to yield to both and it will result in something marvellous!

NAS Colossians 3:14 And beyond all these things put on love, which is the perfect bond of unity.

NAS John 17:22 "And the glory which Thou hast given Me I have given to them; that they may be one, just as We are one; 23 I in them, and Thou in Me, that they may be perfected in unity, that the world may know that Thou didst send Me, and didst love them, even as Thou didst love Me.

MIRRORS: One Way or Two Way Communication

Posted by [swauthor] Aug 3rd 2006 - 5:02PM Posts to date: 3947

REVELATION ABOUT COMMUNICATION: IS IT A ONE WAY OR TWO WAY MIRROR?

What words did you see in the graphic? If you did not notice that each word also had an opposite word embedded, then read them again, before moving on...

One side is Good, and the other is Evil. When you look through Me, you see YOU. The word Learn reflects what you Teach. And the grass is greener on the other side - is an Optical Illusion. (smile)

VISION 7/07/06: I had a vision of two people. I saw a blond girl with a pony tail, meeting eyeball to eyeball with a black man. They were exactly the same size and stature. They had both their hands on each other's shoulders facing one another. When I looked at them, they appeared opposites. I saw the parable between the colors of black and white, the male and the female and the two different cultures they represented. As I was pondering this, I heard the Lord speak to me.

HEARD: Shake it out. Not in the least. A way to meet in the middle: To trust. The important ingredient: To understand.

I realized that the Lord was speaking about the communication gaps that happen between people. Some of these are simple language barriers. The other day I posted a word about a jaw breaker machine, which looks like the gum ball machines, only with giant round candies called jaw breakers. Well a gal from the other side of the world read the Word and could not imagine what it was speaking about with the "Jaws of Life" tool that emergency crews use to pull people out of car wrecks! I thought that was a great example of language and cultural differences. They do have jaw breakers on the opposite side of the world, but they name these all day candies, 'Gob Stoppers.' (smile)

In this vision, the two people were eye to eye, facing one another. Their hands on the shoulders could be interpreted 2 ways. The first interpretation is that they were mutually reaching out to one another's government authority/ gifts (which is represented in the shoulders.) And the other interpretation is that they were having a mutual stand off, holding one another at a distance.

A while back, someone sent me an email about how to recognize a 2 way mirror. If there is NO gap between where you touch the mirror, and the reflection of your finger, then it is a 2 way mirror. That means that there is someone behind the mirror looking at you!

If you touch the mirror with the tip of your finger and there IS a gap or a space between your real finger and the reflection of it, then it is a one way mirror. Evidently a one way mirror has a backing on it and the gap that you see between your real finger and the reflection is the thickness of the glass with the reflective backing they put on the back of glass. A two way mirror has no backing, it is see-through glass.

God says that we each are a vital member of His body, and each member has different gifts and perspectives. Even if facing one another in opposite view points, if we are of one accord, it is a two way mirror. There is no gap when you reach out your hand to touch the 'reflection' of truth. The two way mirror is a flow of mutual humility and listening, in order to find understanding that does build trust.

1 Cor 13:11-13 NKJV

When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things. For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known. And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

When we are in division, it is a one way mirror. There is a gap between what we say and the reflection back to us. The gap is the back drop of childish accusation, criticism, judgment, negative words that boomerang back to us. Always when we point a finger, there are 3 fingers pointing back to us, a real reflection of our own hearts. For we can not see what we have not already personally known, and we only trust others to the same degree that we trust our self...

Titus 1:15 NKJV

To the pure all things are pure, but to those who are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure; but even their mind and conscience are defiled.

When we learn to be mutually transparent with one another and learn how to bow low and really listen to another's view point, we become men and no longer children. When we hear the Lord in that seemingly opposite viewpoint, we have learned to embrace the various reflections of every truth and we become transformed.

2 Cor 3:18 NKJV

But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord.

When we point a finger and speak the truth in judgment, but have 3 fingers pointing back at our own identical image, then we hear truth but are not doers of that truth. We forget it is a mere reflection of ourselves and we depart unchanged.

James 1:22-24 NKJV

For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man observing his natural face in a mirror ; for he observes himself, goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was.

POEM: LOOKING INTO THE MIRROR 7/07/06

So when you look in a mirror what do you see?
Do you see good or evil pointing at thee?
When you look past culture and into the heart,
Do you see me or Jesus painting some art?

Are your words to build, comfort and encourage?
Or do they lack kindness, and even discourage?
What you teach is what others will be learning.
Optical illusions or truth discerning?

Understanding finds ways to build a strong bridge.
Together you overcome all sacrilege.
When you keep hearing the heart of the other,
Then you'll be learning how to trust your brother.

Each has a portion of a united whole.
The other has your part of what has been stole.
So reach to a shoulder and be transparent.
The real reflection will become apparent.

Ps 119:130 AMP

The entrance and unfolding of Your words give light; their unfolding gives understanding (discernment and comprehension) to the simple.

WORD TO PONDER: WHEN YOU HAVE MISCOMMUNICATION 7/07/06

There are many reference points that filter what people hear. Most come from past experience and the environment that is brought to memory from that experience. When opposite perspectives are triggered, such as good and evil, optimist and pessimist, black and white, male and female, or contrasting cultures, it becomes even harder to bridge the gap. The bridge to span the gap is called Understanding. Trust is the most important ingredient and the way to build trust is to find ways to understand the other person. Listen and ask questions, listen and apply. Pray.

Prov 17:17 NKJV

A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

Prov 18:24

A man who has friends must himself be friendly, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

Prov 27:6 NKJV

Faithful are the wounds of a friend, but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

More on Mirrors

DREAM: DON'T LET YOUR PAST DETERMINE YOUR FUTURE

A boy I knew was in a gown and ready to graduate. In the midst of his friends I prophesied over him. I said he was graduating and the Lord says, "I am very proud of you." Then I said, "You have just reached a corner in your life and you are in the process of turning it now." I told him about my "headlight/rear view mirror" story where I had been feeling sad about something in my past then drove past a sign that said, "You can't go forward when you are looking through the rear view mirror." I finished by telling the boy, "God says don't let your past determine your future."

HEARD: I want a rear view mirror. My advice, pray about it. Some of this is old stuff.

QUICKENED STATEMENT: Wayne read a sign on the back of a truck outloud: "Objects in the mirror are closer than they appear."

INTERESTING CONFIRMATION: Today someone also sent me the following information about how to recognize a 2 way mirror. If there is NO gap between when you touch the mirror, and the reflection of your finger, then it IS a 2 way mirror:

FYI. A policewoman who travels all over the US and gives seminars and techniques for businesswomen passed this on.

Simple test: Place the tip of your fingernail against the reflective surface of any mirror and if there is a GAP between your fingernail and the image of the nail, then it is a GENUINE mirror. However, if your fingernail DIRECTLY TOUCHES the image of your nail, then BEWARE, FOR IT IS a 2-WAY MIRROR!

WORD TO PONDER: MUCH CLOSER THAN YOU KNOW

I AM so deeply connected with the yearning of your soul over those you love and carry. I hear every sigh and every prayer. I hear your doubts and wrestling over circumstances and cutting words as you watch those you love strive with Me. My beloved, thank you for not letting go!!! Your prayers DO cover, they DO make a difference, and I AM working behind the reflections of what you see. Your intercessions cover and protect and are like doors that open and close to the demonic, including allowing discipline, mercy and favor. I have given you this authority.

Please hear Me, dear one of My heart. The gap between you and the ones you carry is much less than you think. The gap narrows every day as I work through mind-sets, rebellions and opinions, sin and destruction. The gap narrows as you hang on in love. My love NEVER fails. Do not give up hope, do not. Your loved ones are much closer to Me and also to you than you really know. Yes, their pride wont admit this, but when you really love, it really melts away all the barriers.

1 Cor 13:12-13 AMP

For now we are looking in a mirror that gives only a dim (blurred) reflection [of reality as in a riddle or enigma], but then [when perfection comes] we shall see in reality and face to face! Now I know in part (imperfectly), but then I shall know and understand fully and clearly, even in the same manner as I have been fully and clearly known and understood [by God]. And so faith, hope, love abide [faith — conviction and belief respecting man's relation to God and divine things; hope — joyful and confident expectation of eternal salvation; love — true affection for God and man, growing out of God's love for and in us], these three; but the greatest of these is love.

PRECIOUS CONFIRMATION!!!!!!

PRECIOUS WORD: A few days later I was uploading my Word to Ponder book file at the book publishers and wanted to double check that the font was coming through accurately. I kept zooming in with the magnifying glass to be able to see it on the pdf file. I zoomed in and zoomed in and zoomed in. I just started laughing when I read the title of the Word to Ponder - It was the above Word to Ponder. 😊

THE THREE WAY MIRROR
www.thequickenword.com

If but once in a while we could stop and see
Reflections in the mirror of person's three.
Circling the front, the sides, the back panorama.
Revealing the face of the whole melodrama.

Looking straight on may be more to the point
But to see one side puts our nose out of joint.
For we see only through our own filter
Lacking perspective, putting all off kilter.

As you join the mirror and give reflection
I see better viewpoints, a more clear direction.
But if I look at you and you look at me,
Some One is missing from the person's three.

Face to face is not always the best choice.
Candidly naked with eyes and a voice
Face to face is only two way at best.
Still lacking completion with Him as our Guest.

As we are mirrors reflecting each other,
Consider the One Who is our Brother.
He stands in our mirror within easy reach.
Hiding Himself through third person speech.

Metaphors and parables with downcast eyes
Lest we see His flame and really realize.
He speaks so clearly if we would but listen
As He states His truth in clear third person.

He knows how to speak so that we will receive
Giving our wincing and owies a kind reprieve.
Orientals have a way of speaking tongue in cheek.
Lest the person run away and totally freak.

Polite, restrained, holding back inside boundaries
Lest tapping a heart beat that is floundering
Might trigger a response that would crack the mirror
Of reflections and perspectives spoken too clear.

A tongue in cheek mirror is really not so bad.
There's laughter, medicine making hearts glad.
There's stories that speak the truth quite profound
Bringing balance, correction in voice without sound.

So next time you think He gave you a promise
With flame from His heart speaking assurance.
Only to leave you alone feeling abandoned,
Living a life of choices seemingly at random.

Consider well as you look in the mirror.
Ponder three ways the truths that are there.
I will never, never leave, you are not alone.
I AM with you always, through every seed that you've sown.

Look in the mirror and what do you see?
I see His face through you and through me.
When we look carefully in our 3 way mirror
We will understand oneness with nothing to fear.

1 Cor 2:10-16 NLT

But we know these things because God has revealed them to us by his Spirit, and his Spirit searches out everything and shows us even God's deep secrets. No one can know what anyone else is really thinking except that person alone, and no one can know God's thoughts except God's own Spirit. And God has actually given us his Spirit (not the world's spirit) so we can know the wonderful things God has freely given us. When we tell you this, we do not use words of human wisdom. We speak words given to us by the Spirit, using the Spirit's words to explain spiritual truths. But people who aren't Christians can't understand these truths from God's Spirit. It all sounds foolish to them because only those who have the Spirit can understand what the Spirit means. We who have the Spirit understand these things, but others can't understand us at all. How could they? For, "Who can know what the Lord is thinking? Who can give him counsel?" But we can understand these things, for we have the mind of Christ.

The easiest formula for humility is to point a finger and suddenly realize that on the same hand 3 fingers are pointing back. If the Lord opens ones eyes to see a mirror reflecting the same "Words" back, then there is temperance in finger pointing. And then when one becomes convinced they must say something in the Name of the Lord, they do it with great fear and trembling ... knowing the God in Whom they speak.

If you can't see me in my mirrors, I can't see you. {truck}

MY FRIENDS LISTEN

Posted by [swauthor] May 18th 2006 - 1:17PM Posts to date: 3947

MY FRIENDS LISTEN

John 15:20-21 NKJV

Remember the word that I said to you, 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they kept My word, they will keep yours also.

QUICKENED: The truth was stirring inside me today that those who are my friends, will treasure and keep the rhema that He gives me. What an astounding thought! Truly He chooses His friends differently than the world does. In today's world, how little we listen, and how little we trust the word of another.

QUICKENED PHRASE: I had this phrase pop into my mind: A man is known by the Words he keeps.

TREASURED WORDS

Today I was given the offer to read a friend's book. It was not a new book, but a used book. It was not just any book, but the one which my friend had sipped from and received straight from Jesus. As I opened it, I saw all the markings, lines, stars; it brought tears to my eyes. Papa downloaded His heart into my own as I skimmed through the pages.

I saw how He feels when we treasure His Words. He sees every stopping place as we cherish and linger over what He says to us. He watches as we highlight them so as to hold on a bit longer before we move on. Each line so lovingly drawn - to capitalize upon their importance; their markings linger on and become treasuries of discovery for yet another time when we are drawn to open up the storehouse. This is but a token of how we keep His Word and hold onto it for another day. And then I saw a greater truth even more precious. Throughout history and time, He holds onto our love for Him in the same way. He records our words. They are in the great library of heaven.

Ps 139:16-18 AMP

Your eyes saw my unformed substance, and in Your book all the days [of my life] were written before ever they took shape, when as yet there was none of them. How precious and weighty also are Your thoughts to me, O God! How vast is the sum of them! [Ps 40:5.] If I could count them, they would be more in number than the sand. When I awoke, [could I count to the end] I would still be with You.

WORD TO PONDER: MY FRIENDS LISTEN 4/09/05

A man is known by the Words he keeps. My friends listen to My Words and treasure them. He who hears and heeds you, My servant, also hears and heeds Me. If he treasures My Word, his heart is with Me. If he treasures your Words as being My servant, his heart is also with you. By this My friends are being increasingly known and manifested to each other. You shall know them and they shall know you. There will come a day when you will choose your friends as I do.

Luke 10:16 AMP

He who hears and heeds you [disciples] hears and heeds Me; and he who slights and rejects you slights and rejects Me; and he who slights and rejects Me slights and rejects Him who sent Me.

John 15:20-21 NKJV

Remember the word that I said to you, 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they kept My word, they will keep yours also.

EXPERIENCING INTIMACY IN FELLOWSHIP

EXPERIENCING INTIMACY IN FELLOWSHIP

[The Transparency of Seeking the Giver and His Gift]

TRANSPARENTLY EXPERIENCING HIM

Mark 12:30-31 NKJV

And you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart , with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.' This is the first commandment. And the second, like it, is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these."

Having tasted the experiences of intimacy with the Lord, some feel guilty when they seek Him for more of the experiences. The taste awakens a passion inside to pursue Him and they develop an appetite and hunger which needs to be filled. He uses these experiences to draw us to Him and continues to use them that we pursue experiencing life with Him.

The truth is that when we pour out our love for the Lord with all our strength, heart, will, soul, body, spirit... He returns the same love. When we love Him with our whole being, with nothing held back, it is impossible to NOT experience Him as He returns that love and communion. It becomes a 2 way street where experience with Him becomes and IS our intimacy with Him.

We were lied to all these years to put love in a box and say it is just a choice. Man is a living soul, and part of his soul is his volition and choice. But that is only part of the picture of what it means to love Him and love others. Yes, love IS a choice, but it is so much deeper than that once you get into intimacy, it is an experience. And yes, we do become addicted to Him and we also become addicted to having fellowship with others. Because having tasted the real, we discover there is nothing else that can take its place within the world. God created man for fellowship, with Him and with others.

The key to experiencing genuine fellowship with the Lord is transparency. Transparency is allowing His light to shine on every area of our life and coming into agreement with that light. Dark places within our soul, body and spirit must leave as we yield to the truth of what His light makes manifest. We release those things that do not line up with Him and ask Him to cleanse them, consecrate them, and re-establish new holy and God-given habits... in our decisions and emotions, through temperance over our fleshly appetites, and purity in our spirits through abiding in Him. When we face Him we want to be a pure reflection of Who He is. This only happens as we remove the veils from our own lives and no longer hide.

EXPERIENCING OTHERS

John 17:11-12 NKJV

Holy Father, keep through Your name those whom You have given Me, that they may be one as We are.

As we love Him like that, He also draws us to want to connect with others to share the same love with them. It is true that our level of intimacy and love for others is directly related to our level of intimacy with Him. It is impossible to separate the two. It is His passion over us to experience not only heaven, but heaven on earth. There is coming a day, when flocks of God's people will be experiencing His love and oneness as He meant real fellowship to be on earth and in heaven. He is planting this seed in a few brave souls even now and that is the deep yearnings of His Spirit. It is the kind of love where we think nothing of laying our lives down for one another. It is the same oneness of communion and transparency in fellowship that they experience in heaven.

Right now the body of Christ is threatened and runs away from such love and oneness/unity. It is overpowering and becomes perverted without intimacy with Him Who is the continual fountain to sustain such. He is the Source of all intimacy, it is impossible to experience it without Him. The deeper our intimacy with Him, the deeper our intimacy will be with kindred hearts. The depth of our maturity to sustain and stay connected with Him, will be our depth of ability to stay connected with one another.

Genuine fellowship is His gift for those few who know Him. The closer one becomes to Him, the more rare it becomes to find others of the same level of intimacy. It will not always be like that. God has planted the seed of yearnings for greater depths of fellowship and this is going to produce wonderful fruit in the next generation. For those brave souls who have tasted of transparent fellowship of true kindred heart spirit and agape love, it has become a flaming torch deep inside and will spread like wildfire when intimacy with Him is birthed and sustained on earth as it was meant to be. We have some radical years ahead of us!

{ Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. }

POEM TO PONDER: TO FIND KINDRED HEARTS

To find the fellowship that I so desire
Has become my passion, my earnest fire.
Walking by myself these many years
Has put away most of my belittling fears.

Yet when I stand without kindred hearts
Places me at risk, and sets me apart.
Yes, the call of God is strong upon my life.
As He grants me Words written in penknife.

Yet without some friends both near and far
I wonder at my life, it seems ajar.
Is it so bad to long for relationship?
Will He grant me kindred-heart fellowship?

Where are the ones whose hearts are on fire
With passion and yearnings and earnest desire -
For gifts of His Spirit and to sit at His feet,
That love just His Presence for a reason to meet?

Dear ones, be gathered and come to feast.
Find one another and share with the least.
It's time to discover the joys of one another.
It's time to embrace the heart of your brother.

Hold each other and listen so well
And call upon Him about the stories you tell.
Within each story is a life and a heart
Broken and frayed from lives torn apart.

It's time to heal, it's time to mend.
Come my beloveds, come follow His wind.
He's stirring the yearnings to gather in Him
All that remains not torn from the limb.

Just as Job was restored from such a great loss

As he prayed for his friends, who brought such cost
Bringing pain and shame of no small amount;
His prayers for his friends, they settled the account.

So tell your stories and be tender to hear
As you bare a burden, as you dry a tear.
The bowels of mercy are groaning to heal
What comes to the surface of all that you feel.

Run not away from a heart that is frayed,
From hope that is lost, from prayers delayed.
You will find as you hold the heart of another
That your turn is coming to be held by your brother.

It is true that He made us both joint and marrow
To bear the load and to carry the sorrows.
Together we stand united as one
Healthy and happy let the burdens be gone.

That's His will you see, that we stand not alone.
Yet unique and special, not ever a clone.
The cover of our story is so different by itself.
Yet so similar in pages along life's bookshelf.

We all have hearts that yearn deep and shallow
From broken lives and dreams laid fallow.
So search far and wide for kindred heart friends
As we start new beginnings waiting to mend.

We call forth our friends as though they are
We declare our joining even though afar.
United we stand, as one yearning man
To bond together and say that we can.

Eph 4:16 NLT

Under his direction, the whole body is fitted together perfectly. As each part does its own special work, it helps the other parts grow, so that the whole body is healthy and growing and full of love.

BUILDING LASTING FRIENDSHIPS

BUILDING LASTING FRIENDSHIPS

While going to church during an intense season when the Lord was doing various surgeries from past wounds of soul, I stood at the back wondering where I would sit. My husband was too sick to attend and this was a new church for me. The church I had called family for several years had gone through so many church splits there was nothing left to split. They chose to close their doors. As I gazed over the audience, I saw a few people I could sit by, but a huge ache surfaced in my heart. I just plunked down right in the back row. Then I heard the voice of the Lord say very, very clearly, "I created you for fellowship." Oh my how that pierced my soul! It comforted me in one way because it validated the fact that I was longing for fellowship so deeply, but it also lanced a deep, deep wound that took months to overcome.

During this season, I had an Internet friend who told me about the time when he spent daily worship and prayer with a buddy. They experienced marvelous times when the Presence of the Lord filled their workplace and side by side they vertically experienced the Lord. But they did not really experience a meaningful horizontal relationship where they became friends throughout the process. When his prayer buddy moved away, this deeply grieved my friend, because of the lost opportunity to build something more lasting between them.

Through that time in his life he came to the conclusion that most intercessors are relationally underdeveloped. We spend our time standing beside one another in vertical relationship with God, but are empty in horizontal relationships with one another. It took the Lord the next 6 months to prove to me that I too had become emotionally handicapped when it came to building friendships. Sometimes we withhold ourselves on purpose. We get burnt by relationships so we isolate ourselves and withhold our hearts from others. I would like to share with you the wisdom the Lord taught me during this time in my life.

RESTORING TRUST THROUGH REAL CHANGE

{Show your intentions and motives, then follow through}

Proverbs 17:17 NLT

A friend is always loyal, and a brother is born to help in time of need..

The state of relationships within the body of Christ have sadly fallen and are in need of repair. This pattern emerges in marriages, children with parents, leadership with their flocks, friendships and just relationships in general. The primary cause is the wound of betrayed trust. This is when one side places themselves in a vulnerable spot and trusts another, and for whatever reason that trust is broken. All friendships must be based upon trust.

At first, unless someone is badly wounded, trust starts as a gift of faith. Just look at the innocence of children who trust their parents without thought, that is until that trust is broken too many times. It is the same with brand new spiritual children who dare to share their dreams and promises only to see them given to the wolves as they share in innocent joy. After that, trust is broken, trust is no longer given as a gift. How do we repair trust that has been broken? There is only one way. Trust must again be earned.

Surely the beginning of restoring trust is forgiveness; wiping the slate clean of all that has taken place and being willing to start over and try again. In forgiving, it is also important to release all expectations based upon their past performance as to how they will behave in the future. That is easier said than done when there are definite patterns that have repeated over and over in the relationship.

The bottom line of rebuilding trust is proving through time that there is genuine change. Change builds trust. One way this proof can be established is by making promises of intentions and following through on them.

Trust can also be re-established by communicating ones motives and intentions along side of establishing expectations. For instance, "I have an important appointment this afternoon and I will not be available to answer the phone. This does not mean I am ignoring you if you call. Please leave a message and I will check my messages and get back to you ASAP." This is going the extra mile to re-establish trust and expectations and set some kind of boundaries in which to offer proof of intentions to change.

Or perhaps a parent has an anger problem. If in the moment of crisis they have self restraint, they can prove their change by saying something like this, "Son, I am really angry right now over this incident. But rather than losing my temper and yelling at you, I just want you to know that I am very angry and I am going to take some time to cool down, pray about this and then you and I can talk about it. OK?" This states the obvious that you are willing and wanting to change, regardless of the fact that you have an anger problem. It rebuilds a hope in the child that there may be a way to have a relationship with you outside of getting in trouble and being yelled at all the time.

RESTORING TRUST THROUGH GUARDING PRIVACY

Prov 17:9 NKJV

He who covers a transgression seeks love, but he who repeats a matter separates friends.

Another important aspect to building trust is guarding the privacy and dignity of another. That especially includes relationships between parents and their children. Often parents do not consider their children as people, let alone honor their dignity and reputation.

Building trust in a relationship through guarding privacy requires self discipline not to gossip, as well as being sincere in carrying that person's weaknesses to prayer. It means being a defense when that person's walls are down. It means protecting their heart even when they are kicking enough to possibly hurt you should you get too close. When they come back and say they are sorry, it releases a humility in them to realize you have stood by them and earned their trust, in spite of the pain it cost you.

The foundation of trust needs time to be built, layer upon layer. Gossip, judgment, criticism, accusation, lies, slander, cheating, manipulation, control, unfaithfulness, anger, sin, etc are sledge hammers that erode the foundation of trust. In contrast, the building stones of trust are love, faith, hope, long suffering, kindness, prayer, burden bearing, a listening ear, praise and encouragement, comfort, forgiveness, joy over truth, truth given in love, righteous living, etc! If a relationship develops too quickly, the foundation of trust has not had a chance to develop and this will begin to manifest down the road. Trust is a vital pillar to any stable and loving relationship. Take time to build it carefully.

RESPECTING BOUNDARIES

Prov 18:24 NKJV

A man who has friends must himself be friendly, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

All people have certain boundaries in which they feel safe and comfortable in sharing their lives. No two people's boundaries are the same. Like for instance, these boundaries may include: sharing their spiritual beliefs and faith, knowledge, emotions, expectations, hopes and dreams, troubles, degrees of commitment, availability for relationship, needs for privacy, affection, dignity and even things like how language is appropriated between genders and in questions people ask one another.

Most often people do not openly talk about their boundaries. They are usually understood by treading lightly and checking for a response. It is kind of like walking with blind eyes and shuffling your feet forward so that you do not stumble over a rock or worse yet, a cliff. Few people are candid enough to share their various levels of comfort zones. It takes time to listen to people's cues, body language and comments to pick up on their comfort zones for establishing a friendship.

A COMMITMENT TAKES TWO

1 Sam 18:3 NKJV

Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

A relationship takes two people. It is based upon mutual exchange and agreement. Sometimes it takes a while to find out exactly where that agreement meets. Sometimes it takes years of 2 steps forward and 1 step backwards in order to find a common ground where both learn to know and respect the other one's differences. Others seem to connect and find common ground and mutual commitment quickly.

The bottom line of finding agreement between two people is willingness to be transparent, up front and candid. Without a willingness for both parties to be so, it takes a long time to build agreement. Most often transparency has to do with one's level of emotional maturity and comfort zone in being a real person with real joys and sorrows. Most disappointment in building life long friendships comes from a lack of communication on things that really matter. This takes time and of course, trust.

HEALING THE BROKEN HEARTED

Prov 27:6 NKJV

Faithful are the wounds of a friend, but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

Proverbs 27:9 NLT

The heartfelt counsel of a friend is as sweet as perfume and incense.

The Lord is wanting to bring together and develop friendships that will help heal the brokenhearted. This will be His divine work for that purpose. There is a deep bonding that takes place between people when they share their wounded places. Such a thing can only happen in a safe refuge of integrity and trust.

Something to remember in being used as a vessel to help heal... doctors diagnose but God heals. Sometimes a person can evaluate what is shared and hone in on the exact problem. That is helpful because they say identifying the real problem is half the battle. But sometimes the evaluation is no more than a judgment about the truth and this only accentuates the wound. Always try to tell the truth in love and without criticism of the wounded one when they are being so open and vulnerable so as to trust you.

After a diagnosis of identifying the problem, then the way to heal is through prayer. Take time to pray with that person. Don't just say you will pray for them, instead ask them if you may pray for them right then. If it is on the phone, then pray on the phone. If it is in the parking lot, then pray with them in the parking lot. If it is via email, then write the prayer. Loving prayer touches and cleanses a wound like no other balm.

PRAYER:

Abba, You have promised us new friends, new fellowship and enlarged families. I know that this season has begun and I ask that You draw our hearts to be open for this blessing in our lives. Many are so lonely and isolated due to betrayed trust. I ask that You begin to connect people all around the world that are kindred hearts, having wonderful and loving gifts to offer one another. May Your time of healing the wounded souls for friendship flourish and build the foundation You have so chosen to bring Your people into oneness. Even so, Lord, release Your angels to establish divine connections in Jesus Name. amen.

John 15:13 NKJV

Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends.

INTERCESSION FOR FRIENDSHIP

INTERCESSION FOR FRIENDSHIP

HEARD 11/03/04: Psychological package. Do you understand what I am saying? Lonely. Needs a friend. Each friend bares a part of the burden.

VISION: I was crouching at the stump of the tree that was cut down to make the cross of Jesus. I looked over and saw the Lord Jesus laying on the ground on the wooden cross, before they had nailed His hand. I watched them take the mallet hammer and pound the nail into His palm. I knew that He was on the cross in my stead and it was so very painful to see this.

HEARD: Your need for a friend, I bore that weight. Bore your pain. Every living soul I took upon Myself. My daughter I bore your shame. I know how it feels to get wounded. Thoroughly alone, abandonment. I bore that too. The need to belong, that too. I did this so you may heal. Wound, too deep to understand. The weight of your wait. I carried you. All the way down through history, I saw your face. All alone. I took your place.

HEARD: A Friend, I'm still here, I never left you. I am your Friend. You've got Me. All of Me. I wholly and freely give Myself to you. I am here 24/7 abiding with you. I want to hear what you have to say. It's you I want. All of you.

HEARD 11/09/04: Destiny. Bridge of faith. You're going to need a friend. Humility. Look to other's needs, don't look to yourself. Bonded, can you accept that?

QUICKENED EYE GLANCES: After hearing the above, as I was connecting to the internet to download emails, my eye dropped onto the word "Connecting" and then immediately it moved to the column on the left onto the directory called "Friends."

HEARD: You brought yourself before the holy God. You petitioned for a friend.

VISION: I saw the word "Friend" balanced on a pair of balance scales.

HEARD: My friend for life. Wow. Humility.

ANOINTED HANDS: I opened the Bible and turned to the following scripture: "Be humble and gentle. Be patient with each other, making allowance for each other's faults because of your love. Always keep yourselves united in the Holy Spirit, and bind yourselves together with peace." Eph 4:2-3 NLT

ANOINTED HANDS: I opened one of the Words to Ponder books to this one:

STAY HUMBLE 10/24/95

A worm is about the only thing that can not fall down. The quickest way to be blessed is to stay humble.

"Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the LORD, and thy redeemer, the Holy One of Israel." (Isa 41:14 KJV)

HEARD: Gathered together. Fragrant. That's the gift of faith. Arise! Fellowship union. Grafted in. Idiosyncrasies? Not this time. Founded. I will establish them. Simple faith. My joy. I assure you. Met your needs. All of them.

{ Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. }

WORD TO PONDER: PETITION ME FOR FRIENDS 11/09/04

Dear heart, how humble you have become, laying low before Me! Yes, a worm is just about the only thing that can not fall, so fear not, oh worm Jacob, I will help you. I have heard your petitions to connect you with kindred-heart friends. I have placed your concerns and miserable failings upon My balance scales and am bringing justice to what you have lost. I will connect you and grant you the desires of your heart, dear one. Yes, life long and eternal friends. You will see with your own eyes what I have ordained for you. I will make heavenly arrangements, and set them in an orderly manner; yes, all that I have appointed and determined to set into your life. These are My good gifts, fragrant and pure, holy and true. I gladly give you the pure bonds of fellowship.

Always remember that even though you do not see Me, I AM your Friend. I will never, never leave you. I AM wholly yours, longing to abide in constant fellowship with you twenty four hours, day and night. I looked down upon My cross and all the way through history, I saw you, My Beloved. I heard your cries for friendship and I groaned for you and carried your pain. I took your wounds upon Myself so that you might be healed. I died so that you might receive pure and lasting friendship, never to feel abandoned again. Join with Me, My love, and join with those I have ordained for you. Rejoice!

Acts 2:42-43 NKJV

And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in prayers.

Eph 4:2-3 NLT

Be humble and gentle. Be patient with each other, making allowance for each other's faults because of your love. Always keep yourselves united in the Holy Spirit, and bind yourselves together with peace.

RESTORING THE SOUL OF MARRIAGES - pt 1

{ Words of Wisdom to Men About Their Wives }

Hi Loved Ones,

The Holy Spirit is wanting to heal the souls of wounded people. Today, there are many, many marriages so wounded that they are just going through the motions like empty shells. The Lord wants to pour healing into these deeply wounded places.

SIDE NOTE TO THE VISION BELOW: In my past I have had several visions whereby I was being used in intercession via dance. Some of these dances have actually been up in the sky where I am swooping and moving to the nuances of His expressive heart. Each sway and move was perfectly in tune and in one accord with what He was yearning over His people. These experiences are often filled with deep feelings of emotions but they are totally expressed through body movement.

VISION: In this particular vision I was in a private ballroom. The Holy Spirit began to play the music of His heart and just as in the other visions in the sky, I had great yearnings to respond to Him. I began to dance to the music, going through all the motions to the rise and fall and the sweeping of the music. Every movement of my hands, body and feet were in one accord with Him.

When the dance was complete, I left this private chamber of yearnings and entered a ballroom where husbands and wives were dancing to the same expressive music and being in one accord with each other. They were doing so in church! I felt so lost and alone looking at all the couples dancing and then my eye looked up and there was my husband waiting for me. He was a watchman on the balcony overlooking the couples and had been courteously waiting for me to finish my intercession in the private chamber. As our eyes locked upon each other, I had the secure feeling that he knew me very, very well and I felt a great comfort of as he descended the stairs to welcome me into his arms.

HUSBANDS, UNDERSTAND YOUR WIVES

1 Peter 3:7 NKJV

Husbands, likewise, dwell with them with understanding, giving honor to the wife, as to the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life, that your prayers may not be hindered.

Gen 3:16 NKJV

Your desire (#8669) shall be for your husband, and he shall rule over you."

Part of the bondage of the soul within a woman is that her heart is destined to stretch towards her husband through a 'yearning, longing and running after' him. (Hebrew word "desire" #8669) This desire is expressed so beautifully by the Bride in "Song of Solomon 1:4. Draw me, we will run after thee:"

When the husband is ignorant of understanding these yearnings, the wife feels disappointed, loses trust, feels betrayed, and ultimately rejected and abandoned because she feels these yearnings are not being reciprocated or even understood. She begins to fulfill these yearnings through other sources and this ultimately forms within her an independent spirit of rebellion with a cold heart.

So what can a husband do to help satisfy his wife's yearnings and longings?

Answer: Touch and communication.

The practical thoughts below - are just that - practical. It is important that a heart of nurturing love behind these things is communicated. Without a heart behind such, they stay mechanical at best.

Try to touch her with physical affection several times a day with no sexually related motives. This means tangible affection like hugs, kisses, back scratches, back rubs, foot massages, holding hands, combing her hair, putting on lotion, washing her back, even washing her hair - any kind of affectionate, physical, tangible pampering. When you finally come together for sexual intimacy, go slow and take time to hold her and caress her.

Learn to communicate with her on an emotional level. It is difficult for men to get in touch with their feelings let alone communicate them. But at least try. Give her an opportunity to express her own by asking her questions and really listening to her. She is usually infinitely filled with more words than you are, so don't even try to compete, just listen to her tell you the whole story, - the long way around the barn. Most women work through the pains and joys of life by talking them out. The bottom line of her yearning towards her husband is to have meaningful conversation, about things that really matter and touch her heart.

Let her works praise her in the gates of your home. (Prov 31) Tell her how much you value her as a person. Think of all the things she means to you, things she does which are worthy of note, both in character and deed. Praise her, and thank her as often as you can. Pray with her and tell the Lord in front of her how much she means to you. Let her know how much her friendship means to you. Build up the Christ like characteristics and Godly integrity that she displays in your home and community.

THE GOD SPOT

I have seen many single women have a hard time finding a mate because they do not find a husband like Jesus. He is their standard and role model and no man compares. Some never do marry. This bonding to be married to Jesus is a deep, deep yearning within a female. It is a normal and practical part of her makeup to be the bride of Christ. It is how God created her.

It is important for husbands to know that within their wives is a God spot that no matter how hard they try, husbands can not fill. Often a wife will be struggling over an issue in which she is waiting upon the Lord and her wrestling is with God, not her mate. For the husband to understand this, brings relief from expectations. Then he is able to come along side her and support her in prayer in the midst of her quest to fill that God spot. A simple prayer is one of the most meaningful ways a husband can love his wife, which also helps her to find God in a deep and meaningful intimacy. Every night before I go to sleep, my husband washes me with prayer. He always asks that the Lord speak to me, because that is my deepest desire. He understands my needs and my weaknesses, he gives me honor as an equal to him in our marriage and his prayers are not hindered. His prayers carry great authority in the kingdom. The ministry of The Quickened Word is the long term fruit of my husband's prayers over his beloved wife.

PRAYER TO PONDER:

Lord it is Your will to heal the wounded souls of marriages. I ask that You begin to open the eyes of the husbands to ways they can connect with their wives in tangible affection and heart to heart communications. I ask in Jesus' name, that where they have not dwelled with their wives in understanding, that they be forgiven and be given a second chance to win the hearts of their wives back again.

I also ask, Lord, that You grant the wives grace to forgive, and release their disappointments, hopelessness, bitterness, rebellion and independent spirits. Cause their husbands to come into the place where they dwell with their wives in understanding. I ask that You will do Your divine surgery and move into the very hearts and souls of wives and melt them with Your love and their husband's love. Lord, please bring the hearts of the wives back once again to their husbands, that they may be held and cherished and honored. In Jesus Name I pray..

RESTORING THE SOUL OF MARRIAGES - pt 2

{ Words of Wisdom to Women About Their Husbands }

WIVES BE A REFUGE FOR YOUR HUSBAND'S HEART

Prov 31:12 NKJV

Who can find a virtuous wife? For her worth is far above rubies. The heart of her husband safely trusts her; So he will have no lack of gain. She does him good and not evil all the days of her life.

Wives, your husbands need to be able to trust you with their hearts. It is hard for them to open up and communicate in the first place. And when they do, they need to know they will not be judged, criticized, or opposed. They also need to trust that what they share will be kept in confidence and not spread to others. They need a safe place.

Many times wounded souls happen because the wives are not receiving the touch and communication they need from their husband, so they turn to nurturing their children instead. Mothers are created for touching and talking to their children, but a problem emerges when they look to their children for their own emotional needs. It places the husband at the bottom of the list, along with his own strong nurturing needs of his heart and soul. The children come first, and the husband gets what is left over, if anything. With that priority out of order, the husband does not have a safe refuge for his heart. He remains outside looking in at the thriving family life going on without him. The basic needs of his soul are isolated and abandoned.

WIVES APPRECIATE YOUR HUSBAND'S LABORS

Ecc1 5:18 NKJV

Here is what I have seen: It is good and fitting for one to eat and drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labor in which he toils under the sun all the days of his life which God gives him; for it is his heritage.

The most common way that a man shows his love for his wife is through doing something for her related to the work of his own hands. Because of his toil to provide for his family, his soul is often caught up in being productive. He needs to feel appreciated, valued and praised for his efforts.

Wives, discover all the traits in your husband that are praiseworthy in what it takes to take care of his family, day after day, year after year. Appreciate him for these, build him up and believe in him. Comfort him when he produces less than his aspirations and let him know how valuable he is as a person outside of what he produces. Comfort his soul, be a refuge. Build up the Christ like characteristics and Godly integrity that he displays in your home and community. Thank the Lord in front of your husband, for all that your husband means to you.

WIVES BE A SHELTER FOR YOUR HUSBAND'S SEXUAL NEEDS

Gen 1:27-28 NLT

So God created people in his own image; God patterned them after himself; male and female he created them. God blessed them and told them, "Multiply and fill the earth and subdue it.

Men's most basic physical drive is to create offspring. God placed within the man the sexual drive to be the instigators and the women to be the receivers. It is important to the husbands that their wives really want to receive this intimate gift God gave them. This means expressing heartfelt joy in emotional and physical response, whereby the wife not only loves and enjoys the advances of her husband's intentions, but also adores his spirit and soul through the process. Sexual intimacy was meant to be more than skin deep. God created sexual intimacy to be a pleasurable refuge for the two of them - joined as one; body, soul and spirit.

WIVES BE THE JOY OF COMPANIONSHIP FOR YOUR HUSBAND

Gen 2:18-19 NLT

And the LORD God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a companion who will help him."

Dear ones, your husbands are lonely and most of them will never tell you this. Companionship is abiding along side of one another. Abiding is a very precious experience that does not need words, but only your supportive presence along side of your husband. You may not be able to take vacations together very often. And even though they are nice, the companionship of abiding is best expressed through simple daily life. For instance, if he needs to run to the bank, or go get gas - ride along with him. You may find your best times are just side by side. Go to the dentist with him and wait with him in the waiting room. Meet him for a lunch date. Go with him to a sport outing. Surprise him and jump in the shower with him. Run errands with him. Just BE there for him. He may not want all the problems of the world dumped on his shoulders in deep emotional talk, but he wants you and the joy of your being with him.

PRAYER TO PONDER:

Lord I thank You that You are highlighting the healing of our souls at this time and especially our relationships. As wives turn to You to reach their husband's hearts, I ask that Your Words of wisdom be planted deep within. I pray that You will bring the wives into repentance where they have not guarded the hearts of their husbands. I pray that you will change the substitute places where they have sought to meet their needs for touch and intimate communication. I ask that these places be brought back to their husbands as their first priority. I ask that You will bring Your God ordained balance back into family life.

I ask that You will bring healing to the wounded souls in marriages back to health. I pray that You restore life committed husbands and wives back to being soul mates, buddies and deepest intimate lovers. And Lord, I also ask that as partners yearn over their spouses, that You will multiply their prayers for all the marriages that are in such deep pain and isolation. I ask in Jesus Name with all my heart. Amen.

Healthy Relationships

Posted by [swauthor] Feb 11th 2006 - 3:54PM Posts to date: 3947

A friend sent me this quote, I thought it was really good, although I have not read the book.

QUICKENED QUOTE ON HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS

A book entitled "Listening for Heavens Sake: Building Healthy Relationships with God, Self and Others," by Dr. Gary Sweeten, Dave Ping, and Anne Clippard. The book says that "to be effective in communicating at any level the person seeking information or trying to help the other person must demonstrate three basic core characteristics:

1. warmth (communicating caring love – mostly nonverbal: subtle mannerisms, actions, facial expressions, touch),
2. empathy (communicating accurate understanding through active, reflective listening), and
3. respect (communicating value or worth).

"Healthy relationships are built and sustained on a foundation of these three skills." Other, tougher, attributes come into play later, but these three are foundational. Without these, the other person shuts down.

BOB JONES AND KATHIE WALTERS: "THE WOODSHED" AND "HUSBANDS, LOVE YOUR WIVES, SISTERS, AND DAUGHTERS"

BOB JONES ON "WOODSHEDS":

Recently, I (Kathie Walters) was telling Bob Jones about the Woodshed word (see word below) that God gave me. Well, he started laughing. He said, "Some of the best times in my life, I spent in the woodshed with Papa. That means you're special (giggles again). It's only sons He gets in there. (Laughs again) It's the place of your security."

"HUSBANDS, LOVE YOUR WIVES, SISTERS, AND DAUGHTERS"

This is about the strangest word I have ever had--I'm a grace, grace, and more grace person. But this morning, after researching an article about St. Valentine--a Godly priest who was persecuted and beheaded for his faith on February 14th 270 AD--the Lord spoke to me: "To the woodshed." Well being of English background, the woodshed reference was a new one for me. I asked my son-in-law what it meant. I asked him if it was an American expression. He laughed and said, "Yes, it means go to the woodshed for a spanking."

Daddy's Girls

Well, this is an encouragement word although it doesn't sound like it at first. But it's for the guys, i.e. husbands, brothers, fathers, sons. God has let some things come to the surface today. Your daughters, mothers, wives, sisters, and aunts are DADDY'S GIRLS. You are going to have to treat them right--not only right, but special. Treat them like a queen; honor them, and God will honor you. Sorry, but some of you are going to the woodshed for a spanking from Dad. So maybe do some repenting and changing--it is time.

It dawned on me afterwards that I was about to leave for a conference in Charlotte called "Daddy's Girls." I did help to host this conference and the only speaker is a real Papa in the spirit to many of Daddy's Girls. Well, that wasn't a coincidence was it?

This is not an anti-male article--I love the guys. I love them in the meetings, especially when they are like hungry puppies who can't get enough of God.

God's Princesses

Sure, there are mean women out there--but this day is not about them; it's about Daddy's Girls, so you will have to take that up with God. As I said, this is about the strangest word I have ever had, and it does sounds like I am being one-sided, but I'm not. God will get us too, I'm sure, just not today.

So there it is--treat your wives, sisters, daughters, mothers, grandmothers, and aunts etc., like princesses because they are GOD'S PRINCESSES. You are a prince--why not behave like one?

I love you brothers, fathers, grandfathers, pastors, preachers, teachers, so be really sweet--to your womenfolk (that's southern isn't it? Well, I do live in Georgia).

WARNING: Divorce

Posted by [swauthor] Dec 8th 2005 - 12:02AM Posts to date: 3947

DREAM 11/05/05: I had a dream where one of the pastor's wives at our church got up and shared that the enemy was wanting to plant divorce in the hearts of women. It was divorce not only in marriages, but godly relationships and also in leaving churches.

CONFIRMATION: At church tonight the same pastor's wife that I dreamt of came to our pre-service prayer meeting. She had never been there before, since she was always involved elsewhere at church before services. She announced her concern at prayer meeting about the need to pray for marriages. Not only that, but another pastor's wife announced the same thing. That was 3 confirmations.

UPDATE CONFIRMATION: Just since then in just 2 days, I have had an alarming number of women write me saying they were ready to give up on their marriages, and an equal number of women say they are emotionally attached to a male father/ shepherd figure and need prayer to break this. I have been in this ministry for 8 years and never had women like this bubble up these issues. I wrote nothing in a Word to Ponder that would have suddenly inspired these women to make these confessions. It is the Lord Himself that is bringing this to light and wanting to heal hurting hearts.

He does not want a severing of relationships, actually He is wanting a healthy balance of loving connection and support structure established in the body of Christ, due to the fact the days grow darker and we really are going to need one another for fortification. He wants to connect people into a healthy family of loving support and communications.

Women have a deeper emotional need to connect to people than men do. When I say people, I mean connect to men, father's, pastors, brothers, sisters, children, female friends, and life in general. Women are simply God's expression of emotions.

There is also a part of the curse that is functioning here too. When Eve fell in the garden, the Lord said, "And her desire shall be for her husband." Single women spend a strange amount of time yearning for a husband to fill some kind of emotional need, and then once they get married they discover that need, what ever it is, is still not met. Many women can spend their whole lives looking to meet that desire and never find it.

Part of that is because as a general norm, men are more emotionally distant then women are. Men simply are not able to understand or connect on that level. Part of it is cultural, they are taught not to connect on that level, being raised by emotionally distant fathers.

I believe the only answer is to be married to the Lord. And that can wreck havoc on a marriage, if both partners are not equally passionate about their pursuit and time with Him. This "desire shall be for her husband" goes really deep, right into the heart of our heavenly Father, Who also yearns with unrequited love over His children. He longs to have 2 way relationship on a much deeper level then we are able to give Him, or we want to give Him.

On the other side of this issue, is a woman's need to be cared for and feel safe. She needs a shepherd figure to let her know she is OK, and things are going to be OK. This is a normal female emotional need that should be met by godly fathers. But when the father is distant, this need to be adopted is very strong. And if this need is not met within a marriage, the need is even stronger. And if this need is not met by a shepherd within a church family, it is paramount. The worse case scenario is if this need is not only not met, but the woman has been rejected by all these male fatherly figures, the emotional need goes off the charts.

In simple terms, it is a need to be adopted. Women need family, a sense of belonging and they need it emotionally. If they dont have it in their own birth family and dont have it in their own marriages, they seek it at church. And if they have it there, they keep seeking.

One of the key Words that the Lord is going to be highlighting this year, is the Word adoption. He wants to adopt us, and He wants us to adopt one another. He wants us to shepherd one another and get those deepest places of rejection and longing healed.

Jer 3:14-15 NKJV

"Return, O backsliding children," says the LORD; "for I am married to you. I will take you, one from a city and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion. And I will give you shepherds according to My heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding.

Here are some comments from a male's perspective:

Hi Sandy,

This is indeed a big struggle right now. Our Lord is calling every one to intimacy with Him. There is a void that the Lord is filling and wanting to fill. The Lord uses desperate need to bring us to where He wants us to be.

Men feel it too! They may not express it the same way and or may not feel safe in expressing it or exposing themselves. Or even know how. The men have not been shown how to express their feelings a lot. Also it has not been a safe environment to do so, especially not in the church.

Pastors and leaders in the church have this problem too! In the British army the leaders are taught to be separate from those they are leading. They are not to have any contact except as a leader. Stay separate! They have even been taught that if you are hated by your men it is all the better. Our army is patterned after the British one. I think that our Bible colleges were started by military men. It might have trickled down that way.

An interesting observation is where do men feel safe sharing their feelings and experiences. A place that seems safe for men to share is in a bar when they are drinking, or on the battlefield in a fox hole facing the enemy and death. It has always been interesting to me to hear the stories of the war veterans. Their experiences and remembrances and how connected they are with their buddies that they went through the war with.

Those are my hidden and camouflaged feelings. Men can talk about things as a topic, but you don't often share what you have been through to bring you to your opinions and feelings. Too much negative feedback. The ladies can be right up front and say what they are going through, then maybe stop and explain what they may think about it, or what they have learned through it.

As we go through things, as the pressure grows more severe, we are in a good place and frame of mind and spirit to PRAY for what Our Lord is birthing. God, Give us the desires of our hearts and Yours.

Miracle Egg

Posted by [swauthor] Sept 1st 2005 - 4:38PM Posts to date: 3947

RHEMA 4/28/03 MIRACLE EGG

Today I was making angel eggs and praying over my husband. At the same moment I sliced open an egg and heard the Lord say, "Equally yoked." I was flabberghasted as I looked inside. Here is picture of the egg!

WORD TO PONDER MY YOKE IS EASY

Beloved, I hear your heart beats of care. When you are yoked with Me, what I ask you to carry is light and easy. Place the cares of your loved ones in My capable hands and let Me bear the weight. I shall lighten your load with angelic help and you shall find rest for your souls. I will even sprinkle your days with a few chuckles along the way.

"Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light." (Matt 11:29-3 KJV)

POEM: NEED A FRIEND?

Posted by [swauthor] Aug 19th 2005 - 12:44AM Posts to date: 3947

You find yourself feeling empty inside
And you try to cover your pain with your pride
Like the sad clown who paints a smile on his face
And cheers those around him but can never erase
The emptiness that haunts him and taunts him always You've learned from life that You've got to be tough
You've got to be strong when the going gets rough
You've hardened your heart in self defense
And you're afraid you'll be hurt if you take another chance
But deep inside is a tender child who still longs to dance

You wander through life going nowhere
Sometimes you get weary and just sit and stare
Is there an answer to why you're here?
Are you just meant to suffer and then disappear?
Is there anyone out there who possibly cares?
You've been hurt by so many wrongs
You just can't let go, the pain's been there too long
Disappointment is your closest friend
And loneliness lurks around every bend
If this is life who cares if it ends?

Well, THERE IS someone who cares that you hurt
He knows how it feels to be treated like dirt
He's been put down and hated, criticized and abused
He suffered rejection and betrayal too

He was stripped of his dignity and stripped of his clothes
 Abandoned by his friends and seized by his foes
 He's been lonely and weary and hungry and cold
 He never married, He had no one to hold
 "Who in the world would care?" you may say
 Well, his name is Jesus and he's alive today
 He's waiting to hear you call out his name
 He'll fill you with love and heal your pain
 He walked this earth in the body of a man
 So he could really understand
 Our hopes, our joys, our fears, our pain
 He felt it all, his loss was our gain
 Call out for grace and mercy too
 And receive the joy that waiting for you!

PROMOTION TO SOAR WITH FRIENDS

Posted by [swauthor] Aug 12th 2005 - 10:59AM Posts to date: 3947

PARABLE: It is said that if a kite goes into a tail spin and starts to fall, the way to help it recover is to give it a longer line, instead of trying to pull the string in with a shorter line.

HEARD: More string. For I am with you. Set you free. More string, dont let go. Freedom to love and with passion. United. It is so cool to be gracious and to send friends. It's My gift, the gift of prayer.

VISION: I saw a large angelic man who was looking down at me. He had blond wavy hair with a radiant and loving smile.

HEARD: Who is that? Watchman. My bride. No worries, I've got you covered. So what do you think? Wanna come? It's all about prayer.

VISION: I saw an extension cord being plugged in and added to the kite string to make it longer.

[The extension cord not only add more room to soar, but it also dispatches power.]

WORD TO PONDER: FREEDOM TO FLY

I have given you many flying lessons. A step at a time, I have carefully built within you a faith to soar.

What lessons? Every time you called out to Me for help, you took flight. Every time you trusted Me while you waited for the answer, you soared. And every time I answered, you landed with your feet back on solid ground. These little lessons started in simple matters with quick answers. The stronger your wings of faith became, the longer you waited and soared. Soon it did not matter whether your feet were planted or your feet were soaring. Both were the same to you because you understood the Source of your stability.

It's time to graduate, My love. I have built within you a great gift to soar above it all. You have before you an open door, it's yours, dear one. I will help you to walk through it and take flight. I will carry you on the winds of My Spirit. I have heard your bellows of freedom. It rings in the heavens, it rings on earth. Let the mighty of the Lord shout and say so, for the redeemed of the Lord are set free to soar.

"Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done this wondrous thing. Shout, O earth! Break forth into song, O mountains and forests and every tree! For the LORD has redeemed Jacob and is glorified in Israel." (Isa 44:23 NLT)

BRAVE INTERCESSORS

Posted by  [swauthor ] Aug 12th 2005 - 10:51AM Posts to date: 3947

QUICKENED CALENDAR QUOTE: Parents are the world's greatest actresses. We have to act as if our heart isn't breaking when our child comes home from school crying because he doesn't have any friends. We are the most overworked and underpaid occupation there is, and yet we are the most important.

Gal 4:19 KJV

My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you,

POEM: BRIDGE BETWEEN THE OLD AND THE NEW

I am here laying face down in the sky.

Stretching out hands and toes as though to fly.

Suspended in air, I know You are there.

I can feel Your wind whisking through my hair.

I view the earth rotating day and night.

All those children are Your very delight.

You watch over them with such loving care.

Yet many still don't know that You are there.

My life passes by as I declare Your Word.

To counterbalance what's become absurd.

You comfort me as I hang in this space.

I comfort those who are also displaced.

I silently watch Your kids come and go.

Running in and out, passing to and fro.

Their lives blur by in fast forward motion.
 Mine is suspended in slow devotion.

Their journey takes them up upon my back.
 As I balance between judgment and lack.
 With hands on Your mercy and toes that grip
 Closing through time the breach that was ripped.

Let nothing be lost of their destinies.
 Futures not stolen of their life in Thee.
 I wait upon You to fulfill Your Word.
 Tarry not in recompense, Oh my Lord!

I groan in my soul, weary of the wait.
 The hour grows dark, the time is quite late.
 Like a bridge over time spreading my wings.
 I will not despair, setting heart to sing.

Before the sun's up, were covered in dew.
 In transition between the old and new.
 The dew of Your Presence hovers on us.
 Canopying our lives, assuring our trust.

Hold onto me, as I hold onto them.
 They will cross over time searching for gems.
 They pass over that bridge You built through love.
 High above the hordes, floating from above.

Walk on through to your destiny My child.
 Your way is prepared, links are compiled.
 One by one, making your steps assured.
 What once was lame will now be cured.

I sa 35:8-10 NLT

And a main road will go through that once deserted land. It will be named the Highway of Holiness. Evil-hearted people will never travel on it. It will be only for those who walk in God's ways; fools will never walk there. Lions will not lurk along its course, and there will be no other dangers. Only the redeemed will follow it. Those who have been ransomed by the LORD will return to Jerusalem, singing songs of everlasting joy. Sorrow and mourning will disappear, and they will be overcome with joy and gladness.

PETITION FOR FRIENDS

Posted by  [swauthor ] Aug 12th 2005 - 10:30AM Posts to date: 3947

QUICKENED EYE GLANCE: As I was going on line today, my eye glanced at the screen where it said, "Connecting." Then my eye was drawn and immediately jumped over to the directory list in my email program. It landed upon the one called "Friends."

HEARD: I am well aware of your concern. You brought yourself before the holy God. You petitioned for a friend.

VISION: I saw the word "Friend" upon a pair of balance scales. The scales were balanced.

HEARD: My friend for life. Wow. Humility.

AH: Eph 4:2-3 NLT

Be humble and gentle. Be patient with each other, making allowance for each other's faults because of your love. Always keep yourselves united in the Holy Spirit, and bind yourselves together with peace.

WORD TO PONDER: PETITION ME FOR FRIENDS 11/09/04

Dear heart, how humble you have become in laying low before Me! Yes, a worm is just about the only thing which can not fall, so fear not, oh worm Jacob, I will help you. I have heard your petitions yearning to have kindred heart friends. I have placed your concerns and miserable failings upon My balance scales and am bringing justice to what you have lost. I will connect you and grant you the desires of your heart, dear one. Yes, life long and eternal friends. You will see with your own eyes what I have ordained for you. I will make heavenly arrangements, and set them in, in an orderly manner; yes, I will do this with every single thing I have appointed and determined to place into your life. These are My good gifts, fragrant and pure, holy and true. I gladly give you the pure bonds of fellowship.

Always remember that even though you do not see Me, I AM your Friend. I will never, never leave you. I AM wholly yours, longing to abide in constant fellowship with you twenty four hours, - day and night. I looked down upon My cross all the way through history, and I saw you, My Beloved. I heard your cries for friendship and I groaned for you and carried your pain. I took your wounds upon Myself so that you might be healed. I died so that you might receive pure and lasting friendship, never to feel abandoned again. Join with Me, My love, and join with those I have ordained for you. Rejoice!

Acts 2:42-43 NKJV

And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in prayers.

Eph 4:2-3 NLT

Be humble and gentle. Be patient with each other, making allowance for each other's faults because of your love. Always keep yourselves united in the Holy Spirit, and bind yourselves together with peace.

TO REACH OUT

Posted by  [swauthor ] Aug 12th 2005 - 10:17AM Posts to date: 3947

PIX: I saw someone reaching out and touching a shoulder and shaking right hands.

CONFIRMATION: A couple weeks later I was attending a graduation. I was totally taken with the last administrator in line who shook hands with each graduate as they passed by. He reached out his right hand to shake, and then at the same time, he reached out to touch them with the other hand. Sometime he would touch their shoulder, or forearm. As I watched him over and over and it was quite interesting. It was as though that extra touch from the other hand was not expected and was like an invitation. It was the reception of the kid's as to whether the action of his other hand ended up drawing them into a warm hug, or just a pat, or a warm touch as an extra affirmation.

As I pondered this, I felt the Lord's yearning to reach out and touch us. And in so doing, that we become His "reach out and touch" to others.... Drawing them into warm embraces.

APPLICATION: In ministry, it is appropriate to understand the wisdom of the parable and application from this true-to-life analogy. Someone may reach out past the natural expectations or boundaries of another person, but what brings the connection is that person's ability to receive. It is wise to give just a gentle approach or invitation for an open door. That person will naturally respond to that invitation according to their own boundaries of receptivity. Learn to be sensitive to their cues, along with the cues coming from the Holy Spirit.

WORD TO PONDER: INVITING OTHERS

I want to use you to knock on the doors of hearts. Learn to listen to My Spirit's drawing of warmth and compassion. Learn to listen to the cues from those who need My touch. Learn to listen to their boundaries for receiving. Learn to be sensitive to the timing of these special invitations. You will do well to listen, as I teach you how to knock on the hearts of men.

Prov 18:24 NKJV

A man who has friends must himself be friendly, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

Rev 3:20 NKJV

Behold, I stand at the door and knock . If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me.

PASSION AND FELLOWSHIP

Posted by  [swauthor ] Aug 12th 2005 - 8:37AM Posts to date: 3947

HEARD: My daughter, access. She thinks I've left her. Strengthen her. My bride. She's My resting place, I abide in her. I'm going to speak with her on these matters. I am always with her, never leaving her, ever. My joy.

PIX: I saw a pair of hands holding something.

HEARD: I have anointed you with oil. My daughter. Grafted in for fellowship. You and I.

My dear daughter. My daughter from up here. Heavenly glow. I feel this. I can see you from up here, do you understand this?

[No Lord, what is the heavenly glow?]

You are, it is your passion. Truth.

[Can You see my passion also Lord?]

Always. So very dear to Me. Your heart. Grafted in for fellowship. Pure. Grafted in for fellowship, they too are grafted into Me.

PIX: I saw one of my friends respond to me on IM, as soon as I went on line.

POEM: THESE ARE MY SERVANTS ACROSS THE WORLD

Wild in enthusiasm, brave in your touch.

Wild in your passion, I need you so much.

I am growing you up - to be holy bold,

So that you will do - what you are told.

It's a fact and it's a must.

It's all of you for heaven or bust.

Heaven's great treasures,
in you to full measure.

These are the ones who are sold out for Me.
With their hearts in their hands for all to see.
Come free My people and delight their way.
Using nuggets of humor and they will stay.
I am watching you all from heaven above.
You delight My heart and My heavenly dove.

It's all in the keeping, of My power to do so.
Wave your right hand and say that you know.
That you will trust Me in every way.
As I move you forward from this very day.
Now take a rest, in what I do best.
Don't simmer and stew, just say a big whew.

Be kind and not gruff.
Be bold and not tough.
I will weave it all in
To teach you My stuff.
Bring Me your troubles and bring Me your cares
Untangle the fetters and the snares.

Communicate what's on your heart to say
This will keep you from being led astray.
Wisdom is sure and will build her house.
From the meek one who wanted to remain a mouse.
From a mouse to a lion from a child to a man.
It's My glorious work multiplied all over the land.
He's My man and you are the plan.
To move into position at My right hand.

Holy Spirit breathe upon our letters.
Tenderize our hearts and remove the fetters.
We welcome You into our midst
Please abide with us and be our guest.
We lean upon You to provide our meal
Our hearts are humble, before You we kneel.

2 Cor 3:2-3 NKJV

You are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read by all men; clearly you are an epistle of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink but by the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of flesh, that is, of the heart.

FRIEND'S CONFIRM

Posted by [swauthor] Aug 12th 2005 - 8:33AM Posts to date: 3947

HEARD: Greatly confirmed. The way that you are supposed to act. Invite one another.

WORD TO PONDER: A UNIQUE RECIPE, CANDID TALK

There are times to beat around the bush and there are times to press through to completion. You have been beating around the bush too long, dear heart. It is time to press in. Tell it like it is. Speak it forth. Don't hold back. Go for it. I have called you to be My witness of what you have seen and heard. It is now the time when your God of Justice will back your words with the power to change lives. This is not for the timid part of your soul, but for the other part of you that I have been building within you for a long time.

Knock, knock, knock. I AM knocking on the shell of your past timidity and calling you to just say it like it is. Be yourself, be transparent, be candid, and do not hold back when My unction is upon you to speak.

Acts 4:29-30 NKJV

Now, Lord, look on their threats, and grant to Your servants that with all boldness they may speak Your word, by stretching out Your hand to heal, and that signs and wonders may be done through the name of Your holy Servant Jesus."

REVELATION ABOUT FINDING FRIENDS

Posted by [swauthor] Aug 12th 2005 - 8:27AM Posts to date: 3947

QUICKENED SCRIPTURES

I read this series of scriptures and suddenly saw them connected as God's wisdom in choosing intimate friends.

Luke 10:16 AMP

He who hears and heeds you [disciples] hears and heeds Me; and he who slights and rejects you slights and rejects Me; and he who slights and rejects Me slights and rejects Him who sent Me.

John 15:20-21 NKJV

Remember the word that I said to you, 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they kept My word, they will keep yours also.

John 14:23-24 NKJV

Jesus answered and said to him, "If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our home with him. He who does not love Me does not keep My words; and the word which you hear is not Mine but the Father's who sent Me.

WORD TO PONDER: MY FRIENDS LISTEN

A man is known by the Words he keeps. This is a hard truth dear ones, but understand the meaning. My friends listen to My Words and treasure them. He who hears and heeds you, My servant, also hears and heeds Me. If he treasures My Word, his heart is with Me. If he treasures your Words as being My servant, his heart is also with you. By this My friends are being increasingly known and manifested to each other. You shall know them and they shall know you. There will come a day when you will choose your friends as I do.

Luke 10:16 NLT

Then he said to the disciples, "Anyone who accepts your message is also accepting me. And anyone who rejects you is rejecting me. And anyone who rejects me is rejecting God who sent me."

FRIENDS ARE KNIT TOGETHER IN LOVE

Posted by [swauthor] Aug 12th 2005 - 8:21AM Posts to date: 3947

HEARD; A tree of love. Thank you.

PIX: I saw an email address.

HEARD: Bonded.

Col 2:7 NKJV

For I want you to know what a great conflict I have for you and those in Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh, that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, and attaining to all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the knowledge of the mystery of God, both of the Father and of Christ, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. Now this I say lest anyone should deceive you with persuasive words. For though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good order and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving.

FRIENDS SHARE WHAT THEY HEAR FROM THE LO

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you." (John 15: 13-15)

WORD TO PONDER: RELATIONSHIP

This is not the first time you've heard this. There is nothing more precious on earth or in heaven than relationships. If this is so, then why do you run from such? Why do you hide your heart, your feelings, your self behind closed doors and barricaded walls? Open up, for in the opening others will smell the sweet perfume of a fragrant flower bearing its petals. I AM a God of relationship. Share yourself.

"And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me." (Matthew 25:40)

OUR FRIENDS IN HEAVEN

Posted by  [swauthor ] Aug 12th 2005 - 8:14AM Posts to date: 3947

CONFIRMATION: I had just told a lady yesterday that now her parents were in heaven, they truly knew her as they had never been able to on earth. And that I hoped it would be a real comfort to her how much they loved her. This morning, my friend shared his dream:

A FRIEND'S DREAM: He saw his Dad in heaven and they hugged each other and cried on each other's shoulder. For the first time, they truly had a kindred heart time where they totally understood the pain they had suffered on earth. There was only love and compassion and no criticism or disappointment or judgment.

Heb 12:1-2 NKJV

Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

WISDOM IN TRANSPARENCY

Posted by  [swauthor ] Aug 12th 2005 - 8:06AM Posts to date: 3947

HEARD: Keeping you grounded, settled and safe. Transparent, just hold back a tad. Not much, but just a tad. Choose a better framework. Emotions and humility.

COMMENTS: I have found that in my own personal journey of inner healing that I do not share everything with each and every person. I only share that which is quickened according to the person involved. I have learned that people have different boundaries (especially among genders) and it is important to feel those out and step carefully.

One of my most favorite things that I seek in my friends is open transparent candid talk. I don't wince about much of anything. In heaven there is nothing hidden at all. But some people just dont work that way. I have found that the deeper we know the Lord, the more transparent we become and the harder it is to find real friends on that level. But we also learn in the same way the difference between casting pearls where they become misunderstood and stumbling stones.

WORD TO PONDER: COMING OUT OF HIDING

I have made you My transparent vessel, so that My children will see the beauty of genuine realness. I have made you bold, able to publish your life, and come out of hiding so that others may see your worship of Me through it and be set free to be transparent themselves. The beauty of your transparency goes deeper than the mind, straight into the heart. Thank you dear one, it is true worship as you lay yourself bare without shame before My Presence. Always remember that you are at complete liberty to share or withhold anything you choose. To share out of your private life is a sacrifice and I receive it as a sweet smelling savor.

"For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known." (1 Cor 13:12 KJV)

REVELATION ABOUT GOD'S FRIENDS

Posted by  [swauthor ] Aug 12th 2005 - 7:59AM Posts to date: 3947

WORD TO PONDER: MY FRIENDS

Some will betray Me. Some will compromise and some will be faithful all the way. Yes My love, it has been that way since the beginning...

And even when I already knew the outcomes, I chose to love. And even so it is the same with My gifts and callings. They are irrevocable...

Yes precious one, now you know. I have given you a glimpse into Mine own heart. How I long for friends, just like you do! How I long to be one of those, just as you call them. - kindred hearts. How it melts My heart when I see them suffer because they love Me and continue to choose to love Me no matter what. I AM all powerful, all knowing and always present. I always was and always will be. And yet only you can give Me volunteer love. And now you know. How I feel.

John 15:13 NKJV

Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends.

COMMUNICATING IS IMPORTANT

Posted by  [swauthor ] Aug 12th 2005 - 7:56AM Posts to date: 3947

HEARD: Strong medicine. Sandy you've been doing this for a very long time. Communicating. I think that's important. It's all about love. Let us love one another.

VISION: I saw the phrase, Sandy's friends.

POEM: FRIENDS ARE FOREVER

To know your story and walk with you
Is such a gift, such a blessing too.
How much you have overcome this day
To have walked your path in faithful ways.

I hear your heart as you have trusted God.
Such courage to walk in feet well shod.
I see you overcoming each day,
Distractions that cause your soul to sway.

I see you start your days with such tears,
Leaning on Him, putting away your fears.
Scattered, broken pieces of your past
You cling to Him for only what lasts.

He is your Source, He is your means,
To find your path, on Him you lean.
To pray with you and support your stand
Is an honor and a gift, never a demand.

You have given me more than you know.
 Of courage and strength to face the foe.
 Your life is a light to all that do see
 His good purpose and power in thee.

I thank My God for You, His good gift.
 In your own prayers, the angels are swift.
 How blessed I am to have walked with you.
 Into your future, His hope brand new.

Thank you for sharing your life with me.
 That I might see the work of God in thee.
 To see Him move and see Him walk
 To hear His voice and hear Him talk.

You, my friend, are His precious treasure.
 You are His gift, beyond great measure.
 You see it not through your brokenness.
 But you shine on earth as His dear touch.

I am glad there are no good-byes in heaven.
 No sin, no evil, nothing is leavened.
 Tears and sorrow are remembered never.
 As we rejoice that friends are forever.

James 2:23-24 NKJV

And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness." And he was called the friend of God.

SYNERGY

Posted by  [swauthor ] Aug 12th 2005 - 7:39AM Posts to date: 3947

HEARD: Kingdom issue. I will establish you. How I will keep you in freedom:

PIX: I saw a picture in the newspaper called synergy.

HEARD: We will keep you connecting together for a greater impact. I will be with you daily.

TEAM WORK

If I AM planting you in a team, why fight it? You are very gifted, but much more so as you join with others. For their strengths also become yours and together you build a strong house. In cooperation to My Spirit, you give the needed feedback and balance to one another, and I AM joining you for greater works than you can do by yourself.

This is the time to recognize My joining and truly rest in its comfort and fortitude. I give good gifts and this is one of them. Let go of your doubts, and trust Me. This is My work and I AM making it solid. The pieces fit, so let them. Enjoy the overall picture.

"Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!" (Psalm 133:1)
