... ." (Hebrews 4:9-11 NKJV) There is a balance in learning how to be quiet in His Presence. He is not necessarily asking us to live monk style lives, where we withdraw from people and stay buried in a prayer closet twenty four hours a day. However, when I was first learning how to hear His still small voice, I needed to withdraw from outer distractions like noise, therefore the best environment for me was a quiet separated place. BE STILL OK Lord. I've quieted my heart, I've quieted my soul.

I've laid everything down that has taken its toll.
I give You my time to be still before You.
Please open my ears to hear something new.

I wait before You at this crossroads in life
A season has closed, I let go of my strife.
Be still oh my soul and wait before Him.
His small voice will surface as noise grows dim.

Surrounded in peace as I lay upon my bed
All cares are gone as I seek Him instead.
Come oh Dove, the One Whom I seek.
Whisper Your heart, please come and speak.

Your people are troubled in masses of care.
They need extra help to know You are there.
They want a Word for the season to come.
They desire assurance from Your kingdom.

I call upon You, my heavenly Source
It's not about them, it's about You, of course
So what do You have to say, this new day?
As I lay here before You, lingering to stay.

Your peace surrounds me as we become one.
I am received as You say well done.
Please let Your Words flow to my ears
As we commune together throughout our years.

Ps 4:3-4 NKJV
But know that the LORD has set apart for Himself him who is godly; The LORD will hear when I call to Him. Be angry, and do not sin. Meditate within your heart on your bed, and be still.

1 Kings 19:11-13 NKJV
Then He said, "Go out, and stand on the mountain before the LORD." And behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind tore into the mountains and broke the rocks in pieces before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire a still small voice. So it was, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood in the entrance of the cave. Suddenly a voice came to him, and said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

1] Worship purifies & brings forth the harvest

Vision given to Pastor Dale Howell 7/5/97

While in the prayer room there was a wonderful Presence of the Lord as we all prayed together. After more than an hour of prayer and intercession I saw a vision:

I saw hot coals being scooped up in a funnel shaped scoop. Much like the ones that they scoop popcorn with at the movies. The coals were being fed into a large diameter hose that seemed to flow down from heaven to earth. Written on the side of the hose was "WORSHIP." The bottom end of the hose was positioned over the heads of people on earth who were in an attitude of worship. A hot coal was placed via the hose on top of one person and then another and then another and so on. As the hot coal touched the heads of the worshippers their flesh began to melt off of them. What was left behind was like a pillar of pure gold. When the flesh was completely gone, the gold itself became molten and began to dance like a tongue of fire. As I watched this scene, they became a large company of dancing golden fire - all the people touched by the coals, now transformed.

I then saw angels flying over the company of worshippers made pure. The angels had in their hands a small pan with a long handle. In the pans there was incense. The angels were holding the pans over the tops of the flaming pillars of gold. The incense then began to burn and a sweet smelling aroma rose up into the heavens before the throne of God. I then saw two large hands with a cylindrical container in them. The incense was being collected in the container and as it came into the container it became a solid substance. I then saw the two hands close over the opening in the container and then they shook the container and after a time the substance was thrown back down to earth. It rolled upon the face of the earth like dice. As the substance came to a stop I heard a voice cry out "Yahtzee!" I saw one die with 7 dots on the top surface. The dots were in the shape of the letter H.

Pastor Dale's possible interpretation:
As we worship the Lord we release the purifying fire of God upon ourselves. The fire purifies us and makes us worshippers in Spirit and in truth. As we are purified to worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness, the angels of the Lord come and empower our praise. Our praise then is lifted up into heaven itself and becomes the substance for what the Lord is about to do.

Yahtzee is a Hebrew word. In Strong's Exhaustive Concordance, the number is 3329 yatsiy' (yaw-tsee'). It means "coming forth" or "offspring." I believe the Lord is saying that as we worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness that He will gather the substance of our worship and cast it back down to earth and bring forth a great harvest of souls. Yahtzee is accomplished when 5 dice all have the same numeration on them. In my vision the numeration was 7. Five speaks of grace and 7 is the number of comple-tion or perfection. Dice are six sided objects and wonder-fully represent our humanity. The dice were white which speaks of His work of holiness in us. The dots were black and this probably speaks of our Adamic nature. Each dot represented a person. As I meditated on this vision later I saw the dots themselves come alive and begin to dance through the earth.

2] Worship is timely

Excerpt heard His still small voice via Grandma Anna 3/15/96
"We are going to play Yahtzee."
[I almost didn't write this down because it sounded so silly.]

3] Worship Brings the Glory of the Lord

Vivid vision given to Sandy Warner [Taken from the book 101+ Ways God Speaks (And How To Hear Him)]

This was an amazing supernatural vision where I actually experienced the entire thing including the Lord's Presence as it was happening. I was in a large non-charismatic evangelical church worshipping with a full congregation. I was in the balcony and could see everything. There was not a person in the entire place that did not feel and respond to the Presence of God. It was as though He was a giant magnet drawing out the wild and total praises of His people in this building. There were waves and waves of the Holy Spirit upon the people, and you could hear people's emotional responses and see their subsequent hands raising in unison. I felt His Presence so strong, that He was literally evoking my strong responses.

Then I saw a candlestick standing on the podium's left side, and a shadow slowly passed across it. Suddenly you could hear a pin drop, the people were so quiet in an absolute holy hush. I knew it was the glory of God just like Moses' story when he had asked to see His glory. (Exodus 33:18-23)

Later in the service I saw an old friend, who in real life saddened me by breaking off our letter writing because of differences in church doctrine. I leaned over to her and told her we were now talking the same language and were in agreement. I was speaking not just of she and I, but of the whole congregation. As I did this, there were women who had miniature little scissors in their hands, who were busy snipping tiny fragments off the dead, split ends of people's hair. Their tiny scissors were snipping so fast they were a blur. While in the dream I knew it was an allegory of the Lord cutting away the denomination splits (splitting hairs) and dead works and that these women were angels.
Still in the dream, as I was talking to someone about the awesome meeting, I also mentioned that the Lord was doing the same thing with the Catholics. Someone else mentioned Australia. When I awakened, I heard the Lord say, "Ecumenical movement. The Spirit is moving. World wide. They're done being spectators." Then I saw a picture vision of my holding the steering wheel in my car and the wheel had such a strong pull on it, that I just finally let the wheel lead the way! [I literally felt the tug of the wheel, even though this was a picture vision.] Then I heard the Lord say, "Divine direction."

By this picture, He is saying that we are coming to a time where His leading will be so strong, that it will be difficult to "drive" ourselves away from His Presence, as the tug or force in going our own way will be very tiring. This dream and subsequent Word from Him was an awesome promise of His breaking denominational barriers, where nothing else matters but worshipping Him and responding to His wonderful Presence.

4] High praise brings the glory of the Lord

Experience given to Grandma Anna - Spring 1973

During prayer, after praise and worship we all felt a stronger Presence of God than any of us had ever felt before. With about 20 teenagers in my living room sprawled all over the carpet, there was a hush for a long time. It was as though everyone was holding their breath, it was so quiet. I half opened my eyes and the entire room was filled with golden light. I was in awe. Slowly it left and we all began to move. I said, "Pastor Bob, what WAS THAT?" "We went into high praise," he said simply. Then he explained that it was a very rare occurrence where the Presence of God comes to bless because we have so blessed Him with our praise and worship. He said that wonderful things are accomplished in the heavenly realm when High Praise is entered.

5] Worship is a part of warfare

Excerpt heard His still small voice via Shirley 1/17/93

"The Army of God— requires many skills. Musicians, singers, worshippers, those trained in spiritual warfare to march in the front line. Others to march in ranks. Watchmen, some behind to repair and mend the wounded. Those to pray for victory in battle. All are needed in their place. United under the commander and chief."

6] Worship brings His power

Experience given to Grandma Anna 4/5/87

This morning in choir, as I worshipped the Lord, I trembled violently with His power. I felt charges of electricity hit the top of my head. I actually heard them.

7] Tambourine worship looses bondage

Vision seen by Grandma Anna 11/13/94

While worshipping in the Sunday service I saw myself with my tambourine making a circle around various people. Then I saw myself twirling down the aisles of the church. I knew it was warfare to break bondage. I broke free from my personal shyness and was obedient to what I saw. Afterwards a lady shared that she was set free to wave the banners for the first time, going up one aisle and down the other.

8] Worship with pure motives

Dream given to Sandy Warner 6/16/97

Scene 1: I was helping people express themselves when they were worshipping the Lord. I was wanting them to become more free in their worship. It was a small group of people, then soon it grew to a huge coliseum filled with people expressing their worship in unusual ways. I saw two people do various cartwheels and gymnastics!

Scene 2: As I saw people worshipping on the coliseum floor downstairs, I noticed the coliseum had a mall-like area on the second floor. It was filled with people walking along the walkways dressed in various "worship outfits." They were shopping for just the right outfit. The atmosphere was energized by people's zeal for public appearances. As I witnessed this, I saw an escalator going down to the main floor. I felt the lure of the 2nd floor zeal and quickly excused myself saying I needed to stay down on the main floor where people were actively worshipping the Lord.

Scene 3: As I was worshipping, I saw an angel floating above my head. She looked down at me and I began to slightly bow before her as I danced. I also displayed my hands as though introducing that she wanted to say something. I said to myself, I am not worshipping her, but giving her honor. She said to me still floating above my head so that I had to look up, "Express yourself with your hands. That's what the Lord wants." As I was worshipping with my hands I was also reminded that the Lord wanted us to use our hands to reach out and touch the children as an expression of His love.

9] Worship is pressing into Jesus

Ears opened given to Rose Crownover 2/4/96

E-mail: soundofharvest@juno.com Website: http://members.spree.com/soundharvest

During worship one day, I had an interesting experience. During the song, "Piercing the Darkness," I began to hear a loud, audible noise. It sounded like the sound of a great crowd of people, cheering. I could hear many shouts and some crying out, "Jesus, Jesus!" I looked around the room (three times I did this) to see who might be shouting and making all the noise. I could see no one doing this, in fact, there were not enough people in the room to make the kind of noise that I was hearing. It sounded like we were in a large football stadium on the playing field and a crowd was all around us, cheering for us. I began to realize that what I was hearing was the "great crowd of witnesses" spoken of in Hebrews 12. I was very blessed by this and greatly encouraged by what I heard. I stood for a long time, just listening, until I could no longer hear it.

Several songs went by and somehow I became distracted from worshipping. I began to look around the room and watch others. I was particularly blessed by the way the Lord was coming on one of the other worshippers. A friend was standing near me and I was about to lean over and point this out to her when the Holy Spirit came upon me very strongly and began to shake me. The Lord then spoke to me very clearly, saying, "No spectators on the field! I am the Goal. Keep your eyes on Me and press on!"

I then began to get some insights. I saw worship as being likened to a football game. Jesus is the goal. I saw that the great crowd of witnesses were there to cheer us on as we pressed into Jesus. I saw that there was an opposing team (satan and his demons) who were trying to keep us from the goal. Focus on the Lord and the involvement of all the members of the team are essential to us reaching the Goal.

10] Worship brings unity into the holy place

Excerpt heard His still small voice via Sandy Warner 3/16/95
"Bells. A place of worship. Music in the holy place. Ensemble. My quartet. Harmonize. Make melody. A season of trust. Fruit to the surface. Gateway. Open the doors. Harmonize."

11] Joyful worship defeats the enemy

Excerpt heard by Shirley 11/27/92

"Wait on the Lord. All you need is found in Me. Physician heal thyself. The enemy has power, but He who is in you is greater. Little foxes spoil the vines. Remember get rid of. I am all you need. Everything for you is in Me. Try joy. Praise and worship too. The enemy dwells not in joyous vessels. Weak? Put on your strength. Marine school tough. Hares fast. Turtles win the race. Voice of the turtle. This old house. Burden. Removal painful. I lead. You follow. Dancing smoothly."

12] Worship is a celebration

Excerpt heard by Shirley 11/28/92
"Lead on Oh King eternal. This is the Lord's day. Rejoice and be glad. Celebrate, I will celebrate. Sing a new song unto the Lord. Arise Oh Israel and worship your King."

13] Unified worship increases faith

Excerpt heard by Sandy Warner 7/15/95
"Corporate worship. Destiny follow Me. Union of the brothers. I will bless the Lord. It's astounding! A measurement of faith. Unified worship. Angels singing. We worship the King. Hallelujah!"

14] Worship sets us free

Excerpt heard by Grandma Anna 8/16/95
"He loves it when we send our worship in a hot air balloon and it goes sailing up to Him. Blessed are we when we are set free to worship."

15] Worship boldly

Excerpt saw & heard by Sandy Warner 1/29/97
I saw a picture vision of the word "Be bold" written on a barbecue sauce bottle. Then I heard the Lord say, "How do you worship? Establish."

16] Article: True Worship: A Journey from Law through Grace to Liberty

By Sandy Warner (March 1998)

Attending a women's conference, I was given a Word from one of the prophetic speakers. The Word penetrated my heart like an arrow. I knew it was the Lord's Word, although I did not have the understanding at that moment. She heard the Lord say, "Effortlessly." Then she elaborated, "You have been given authority over performance." Not knowing my background, she brought to the surface one of my lifelong struggles.
Walking back to my seat, I contemplated, "Lord what did You mean by performance? Why did she specifically use that word performance?" The only hint I had was her saying, "Your book is the book of Galatians. You know what it means to walk in grace. You know how to walk in the Spirit. Grace, grace, grace. You know God's grace. And you shall be used to bring others into the same liberty and freedom."

I thought of the theme of Galatians where Paul speaks about the law verses grace. He said the law was our schoolmaster to bring us to Christ. We were trained under the law, but later the law is fulfilled through Jesus, whereby we walk in the power of His grace. I could understand this, but what about that word performance? How did that connect? The Holy Spirit quickened my memories and a journey from performance via grace to liberty began to enfold. I knew there were others on similar journeys.

The Schoolmaster
At the age of eight, I began piano lessons. It requires a lot of practice to make the connections to learn the mathematical language of chords, patterns and rhythms — then transfer it to body coordination and come up with something that sounds good! Like Paul speaking about the Jewish laws, I was under the music schoolmaster through years of daily practice and learning skills. Unfortunately, after I began lessons I discovered that the purpose of music was to perform. Whether this concept was right or wrong, this is what I understood. My teacher had regular recitals and this was like a school test to perform that which I had learned under the schoolmaster. The thought of performing in recitals terrified me. I was a shy person, never raised my hand in class and rarely spoke to people. In one way this worked to my benefit, as an only and lonely child I found expression through music. It was a wonderful outlet to express emotion. But to perform such things? Yike!

Finding Grace
Performing was my first experience with the word grace. Because of my weakness, I watered every performance with desperate prayer. Depending upon God became my mainstay as I trusted Him to help me through it in spite of overwhelming fears. Throughout the first half of my life I performed many times. Somehow, after so much practice and prayer, it was no longer a big deal to perform. I had truly come into the knowledge of being able to perform by His grace. But even with His grace it was still performing. I do not know what would have happened if at the early age I had learned that the reason for music was to enjoy it, express myself with it, and the greatest of all - to worship with it. I had yet to know liberty from performing the schoolmaster's test.

Searching for Liberty

After thinking through my past with music, and seeing the connections between the Words "authority over performance" - "grace" and "bringing others into liberty" I could see how the words performance and grace tied together, because I had experienced them. But I wondered about this liberty thing. What was liberty? How did that apply to the schoolmaster?

One week later I attended a Christian dance troop concert. It was then that I saw the example of my journey of schoolmaster law through grace to liberty literally played out in front of me. The concert was held at a church known for certain freedoms in worshipping the Lord through dance and the use of instruments, various kinds of glory rings and banners.

Worshipping the Lord through dance was not foreign to me. My home church was very free even to the point of being wildly liberated in worshipping the Lord with their whole hearts, minds, bodies, and spirits. They know how to forget themselves, abandon their restraints and come into the Presence of the Lord, and into loving the Lord through the expression of music and dance. When you walk into the midst of such a place the power of the Lord's Presence is strong, and you feel it. I was really looking forward to experiencing this in the concert.

The purpose of this dance concert was to bring dance back to the church as a form of intercession and worship, and to bring people into liberty. The dancers were lovely, dressed in beautiful costumes, using sparkling glory rings, banners and tambourines. They had neat lights, a fog machine, cool music and great drums. But in spite of the beauty and the "stuff", I searched… ….for the Lord's Presence. "Lord, where is Your Presence? They are doing this unto You for a good purpose. Where is Your Spirit?" This question was on the top of my heart, because I was so experienced in dance being a form of worship and thus bringing His Presence into a meeting. This was an enigma to me.

We sat in the front row and I could see the dancer's facial expressions and eyes. For the most part, it was obvious their minds were very engrossed in remembering the hand motions and choreography, and staying in unison. They appeared insecure when they stepped out of line or made a mistake. Whether they felt self conscious about their beautiful costumes I did not know.

True Worship

After a long string of great songs, lovely costumes and choreography, a dance soloist emerged. She didn't have to match steps and motions with anyone; she just had her own heart to express. Her African costume was vivid and her head was covered in a turban. The African dance was well done and the movements were cute like a jack in the box, instead of smooth and graceful. She danced differently, but it wasn't just her dance. She was different.

Suddenly His Presence was there. I was immersed in the Lord's Presence as I watched her dance with all of her heart. She danced with all of her strength, and her face radiated the love of God and the love for God. I was so touched by this obvious difference I changed my question to, "Lord why did Your Presence suddenly come?" I could see the contrast was the difference between performance and worship. But I didn't know how deep this went.

After she finished, she went to the microphone. "I can not just share this dance with you without sharing my testimony." [her vocal emphasis] She said when God gives us a testimony, we better be prepared for a test. She explained how the Lord told her that if she danced this dance, He would provide her the means to go to Africa with the dance troop. So she said yes, and He provided in one week. Then she was diagnosed with 3rd stage ovarian cancer. She went through the surgery and the chemotherapy and the doctors told her if she went to Africa she would come down with some awful sickness being weakened by the chemo. She knew God told her to go and had provided, so she went and she danced with the turban on her head, having lost her hair. My heart was so touched. It was obvious why His Presence had arrived. She was worshipping the Lord through her dance, and she was joyously praising God for the strength to dance. She had known His grace through the test, and she was experiencing His grace to even be able to dance at all! The difference was the heart of the dancer. I had witnessed true worship. I had also witnessed wonderful liberty.

When she finished, more group songs followed, and again I could not discern His tangible Presence. After a couple of more hours, one more time I felt His Presence. It was an interesting contrast. This happened during a nonverbal dance drama played to some warfare music. Although I do not know the name of the song, it was a song about taking back the land through intercession and taking authority over the spirits of greed, racism, abortion and homosexuality. The song first called forth the intercessors. Two grandmothers came forward, one on each side of the altar, raising their hands and interceding with their lips moving. They were dressed in normal attire. There was a woman between them dressed in a beautiful high priests' attire. Beside the intercessors, there were two angels dressed in long flowing white gowns and glory ribbons. They danced, swirling and twirling around the intercessors.

Then out of the dark corners came two skulking, bent and crouching creatures dressed in black shrouds, with their faces covered by a black veil. They had chains in their hands and danced humped over. They circled around various other dance team members that pantomimed greed, racism, abortion and homosexuality. Suddenly, at the rise in music, the angels were sent from the intercessors. They raced to the demonic creatures, pulling out their glowing swords. Over and over again they pushed back the hideous creatures. People in the audience shouted as the creatures fell back and were defeated. Then the angels loosed the people pantomiming the various strongholds.

It was an awesome dance drama to witness - very inspiring and the Holy Spirit was there. The memory remained vivid in my mind and I carried it to bed that night. So why was this so anointed as opposed to the other "performances?" I think it was because each person had their own part to play, they did not have to match others movements. They were able to get past the concern of performance, and into the story line, the meaning of the song.

In analyzing the concert that night, I kept going back to the performance insecurities of the dancers and their focus on getting the movements right. I thought about the hours of practice they must have done, their training and how this paralleled the law and the Galatians' schoolmaster. I realized they were on a journey. It wasn't that these dancers were wrong in their desire to bring others into liberty. They just had yet to experience true liberty themselves.

"But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him." (John 4:23) True worship comes from a heart of adoration and gratefulness that bubbles to the outside. I knew that if their intentions were right, eventually they would get past their focus on performing the movements and into worshipping the Lord with joyous liberty.

What is Liberty?
Liberty is the freedom to express your heart.
Liberty is the ability to keep your focus on Jesus.
Liberty is the freedom to not need another's approval.
Liberty is the true desire to please God.
Liberty is the ability to respect others wishes so as not to cause offense.
Liberty is ambition lost.
Liberty is the ability to forget yourself.

Afterthought
I suddenly realized that throughout my years of music, whenever I prayed while "performing" or worshipped through music and dance, my heart was on Him. As a result, the performance ceased to be a performance. It had effortlessly changed to freedom and liberty. And that is the true joy of learning to walk in the grace of His Spirit and be in ministry and/or worship situations. When we get our eyes off ourselves and how we appear to others, the process of sharing what we have learned during the schoolmaster years is effortless and salted with His grace liberating others into the same freedom.
The Lord says to love Him with all of our heart, soul, mind and strength. "And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment." (Mark 12:30) I had often wondered about the strength part, but now I understand that when our fleshly strength is spent in worshipping, this releases our spirit into true worship.

The Lord is currently raising up a company of people all over the earth to dance as David danced. They have taken the journey away from the law of performance via grace, to find liberty. No matter what nation they are from, they are coming together to dance before the Lord with all of their might. The steps are not the same, nor the motions, but their hearts are united towards adoration of their Beloved King. The Holy Spirit is the choreographer, unifying the hearts into kindred and liberating worship of our Beloved.

17] Power Over Performance, How Do You Worship?
Thought to Ponder by Sandy Warner

The Pharisees....

…lived to perform the best impression.
…were perfectionists in appearances.
…prided themselves in how they performed.
…found their identify in what they produced.

Because of this, they...
…felt badly when they botched a performance.
…worried about what other's thought of their appearance.
…judged other's performances.
…lost their self worth when they were not able to perform.

Liberty is when...
…you no longer think about what you produce, but who you are in Him.
…you no longer worry about what others think, but what God thinks.
…you no longer think about other's failures, rather you humbly see your own.
…find your identity in pleasing God.

Brings unity and intimacy Jn 12:32, answers Jesus' prayer Jn 17:21

19] Worship

[Taken from the devotional book "Words to Ponder" by Sandy Warner]

Worship is not contained in a package of rules. Do not allow man's interpretation to set you askew from an honest relationship with Me. As often as you think of Me, as often as you speak of Me, as often as you sing of Me, there I AM.

It is not how you worship, rather it is why. You worship and give Me honor every time you set your heart in My direction. It is not in the outward display, but in the heart. Man can go through the display with his heart far from Me. You have allowed man's interpretation to condemn you of that which is precious to Me.
I cherish your yielded and tender heart's response to Myself. Please do not allow guilt to separate us when you do not fit into man's mold. You fit into My mold, and that's all that matters.

"...The true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth..." (John 4:23)

[21] The Dove and the Eagle
Vision given to Roland on 7/13/97
~~~~~~~~~~

Roland saw a vision while we worshipped the Lord in the evening service. He saw a beautiful white dove descend down into the church and land on the platform at the top of the steps. He said it was very beautiful, very gentle, and very peaceful. He then saw a huge eagle descending down toward the dove with its wings spread out. He said the wings were very large and very strong. His first impression was that the eagle was going to attack the dove but instead the eagle landed on the lower step and in front of the dove and bowed down to it worshipping it. After a while he saw the dove begin to feed the eagle with blue seeds from it mouth.

Possible Interpretation From Pastor Dale Howell:
The dove represents the Holy Spirit and the Eagle the prophetic gifting. The Holy Spirit appears as beautifully pure, gentle, and peaceful and the prophetic gifting comes across as mighty and powerful. I believe the vision was a lesson for us that move in prophetic giftings: As we worship the Dove, the Holy Spirit and Who He is, we will be fed the Word of the Lord. Blue represents heavenly things; James 1:17 "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning." "The seed is the Word of God." (Luke 8:11)

[22] Hearing the Hebrew Words for Worship

S.S. Heard on 6/28/98

I kept speaking the words tehillah and techillah during worship on Sunday morning. I did not know what these words meant and later that week, when I kept hearing the words over and over, I thought the Holy Spirit wanted me to look them up. Here are the definitions to the two words. They were speaking about worship:

TEHILLAH: 8416 tehillah (teh-hil-law'); from 1984; laudation; specifically (concretely) a hymn: KJV-- praise.

Brown Driver Briggs: praise, a song or a hymn of praise -- a) praise, adoration, thanksgiving (paid to God); b) the act of general or public praise; c) a praise-song (as a Hebrew title); d) praise (demanded by qualities or deeds or attributes of God); e) renown, fame, glory;

HALAL: 1984 halal (haw-lal'); a primitive root; to be clear (orig. of sound, but usually of color); to shine; hence, to make a show, to boast; and thus to be (clamorously) foolish; to rave; causatively, to celebrate; also to stultify: KJV-- (make) boast (self), celebrate, commend, (deal, make), fool (-ish, -ly), glory, give [light], be (make, feignself) mad (against), give in marriage, [sing, be worthy of] praise, rage, renowned, shine.
Brown, Driver, Briggs:
1) to shine
a) (Qal) to shine (figurative of God's favor),
b) (Hiphil) to flash forth light,

1) to praise, to boast, to be boastful,
a) (Qal) to be boastful, boastful ones, boasters (participle)
b) (Piel) to praise, to boast, to make a boast
c) (Pual) to be praised, to be made praiseworthy, to be commended, to be worthy of praise
d) (Hithpael) to boast, to glory, to make one's boast
e) (Poel) to make a fool of, to make into a fool
f) (Hithpoel) to act madly, to act like a madman
TECHILLAH: 8462 techillah (tekh-il-law'); from 2490 in the sense of opening; a commencement; rel. original (adverb, -ly): KJV-- begin (-ning), first (time).
Brown, Driver, Briggs: beginning, first
a) the first time
b) from the beginning, in the beginning (with a preposition)
CHALAL: 2490 chalal (khaw-lal'); a primitive root [compare 2470]; properly, to bore, i.e. (by implication) to wound, to dissolve; figuratively, to profane (a person, place or thing), to break (one's word), to begin (as if by an "opening wedge"); denom. (from 2485) to play (the flute): KJV-- begin (X men began), defile, X break, defile, X eat (as common things), X first, X gather the grape thereof, X take inheritance, pipe, player on instruments, pollute, (cast as) profane (self), prostitute, slay (slain), sorrow, stain, wound.

Brown, Driver, Briggs:
1) to profane, to defile, to pollute, to desecrate, to begin (Niphal) to profane oneself, to defile oneself, to pollute oneself; ritually, sexually
2) to be polluted, to be defiled
a) (Piel) 1) to profane, to make common, to defile, to pollute, 2) to violate the honor of, to dishonor, 3) to violate (a covenant), 4) to treat as common,
b) (Pual) to profane (name of God)
c) (Hiphil) 1) to let be profaned, 2) to begin,
d) (Hophal) 1) to be begun,
1) to wound (fatally), to bore through, to pierce, to bore,
a) (Qal) to pierce
b) (Pual) to be slain
c) (Poel) to wound, to pierce
d) (Poal) to be wounded
2) (Piel) to play the flute or pipe

[The Lord may be saying that radical praise will make a way for a new beginning in the Lord. I feel like the Lord was confirming that He truly has changed the way we "Have Church," and is commencing with an original, first time/beginning way of worship. He is "opening a wedge," beginning a new thing in our midst. Lewis was playing the flute, which is part of the Techillah root word Chalal. During this service, Pastor also was blowing the shofar. Every time the shofar would blow my ears would open. I feel like the Lord was showing me that it will be very important for us to open our ears, and HEAR what the Lord is saying, if we are to enter in and receive this "New Thing." It is going to be very important if we don't want to miss out.]

[23] Teaching - Understanding & Overcoming the Performance Spirit

By Sandy Warner 4/20/99

THE PERFORMANCE SPIRIT

A pervasive spirit sent to hinder worship and the free flow of the anointing within churches

ITS BACKGROUND:

In the world's definition, musicians are trained to perform.
To perform is merely to produce something in front of an audience.
The audience's task is to observe and to respond.
How they respond is to either appreciate or to judge.
The above concept is the basic ingredients of a world-wide spirit of performance that attacks worship teams as well as the participators in church services.

ITS INFLUENCE:

1) The worship team feels responsible to produce their gifts in such a way that they must take the people into the Presence of the Lord.
2) Because of this, they take the burden upon their shoulders to "produce."
3) If the "performing" of their gift doesn't produce the proper response, then they feel like they have failed. They are going to feel a measure of frustration. And they are going to lose a measure of confidence in their giftedness.
4) If the worship team is going through the motions and they see that the "audience" is just observing and not participating, it leaves the team feeling helpless and not knowing what to do to help the audience to enter into the desired response.
5) Likewise, if the people in the audience participate in outward visual worship and they think that other people are watching them and therefore it inhibits their participation, this is also the influence of a spirit of performance.
6) If people actually do not participate at all because they are worried that other people will be watching, then that is also the influence of a spirit of performance.
7) This influence goes beyond our traditional definition of worship. It also encompasses anyone who has a gift and is inhibited in sharing that gift, no matter what the gift.

ITS FRUIT:

The bottom line of being influenced by a spirit of performance is that we have our eyes on people and how they are or are not responding. A performance spirit gets our eyes on people and off our adoration for the Lord.
This spirit of performance quenches the anointing. It has been prophesied world-wide that the glory of God is coming and it is coming on the wings of worship and praise. God inhabits the praises of His people. We have got to overcome this spirit of performance if we want Him to inhabit our meetings.

PRACTICAL WAYS TO OVERCOME:

1) Building the progression of songs from singing about God to singing to God. This brings people's hearts into united adoration as a natural result of the flow.
2) Using transparencies enables people to enter in and not just observe.
3) Positioning the overhead projector so all can see the words to the songs.

4) Positioning the setting so people don't have to look through the worship team in order to worship and in order to see the transparencies. A stage and an audience is a natural set up towards presenting the "performer and the audience."
A while back, Don Potter, leader of MorningStar worship was trying to overcome another stronghold and that is one of worshipping the worship leader. Don had to turn his keyboard to the wall for 2 years until he could get his eyes off people and get the people's eyes off him!
5) Limiting songs that people do not know.
6) Allowing time for the Spirit of the Lord to hover in the room. After people have "spent" themselves in worship, musicians (without voices) play quietly, allowing people to rest in His Presence. The Spirit is allowed to do a deeper work than just a surface level. Many visions and hearing the Lord occur during this time of waiting upon the Lord. These deeper level experiences happen after people have finally entered in, got their eyes off of others and onto adoring and hearing the Lord.

SPIRITUAL WAYS TO OVERCOME:
1) Ask the Lord to forgive us for having our eyes on people and ask Him for help in turning our hearts towards Him.
2) Pray corporately against the spirit of performance.
3) Understand worship: Rick Joyner's newest book (The Call) shares his experience of going to the throne room. Jesus told him that one pathetic worship meeting had the capacity to touch the Father's heart like no other worship in heaven could. That is the reason why the angels love to come to earth and minister to us because they know how it pleases the Father. Rick saw this pathetic meeting and all of heaven crying because the Father was so deeply touched by the people's love and efforts to worship. He was deeply moved because in spite of all hell coming against us, still they chose to love and worship Him! We have the capacity to touch the Father like no one can in heaven. Rick could hardly wait to come down to earth and worship Him.
Worship is a matter of our expressing our heart to Him, and that is impossible when we have our eyes on others and their responses instead.

Theme of this file: Transition

Note from Sandy: We are in a historical hour, standing on the bridge of time, suspended in an interval between the old and the new. It is a place of hanging in the balance, a place of transition. History is in the making and how we respond to this transition will determine our destiny. The Lord is giving each one of us a choice!

[1] TRANSITION

By Sandy Warner (June 98)

Recently I had the hair brained idea I was going to add a mini waterfall to our mini outdoor fish pond. I somehow accomplished the feat without removing or killing the fish. They definitely knew something was up, because amidst all my commotion they were hiding as far from me as possible. After it was done, I had a beautiful mini waterfall with gorgeous, cascading, sludgy-muddy water. Have you ever tried to clean the sludge out of a fish pond without removing the fish? I did and I learned something in the process: God is in the same dilemma, and He has been using the same process to clean our ponds…Only He's a lot smarter than I was…

At first, so as to not disturb the fish, we submerged a little pump that quietly and slowly pumped the water out of their safe haven. Slowly the water level went down, and so did the fish. (I do not know if they noticed their pleasant surroundings were shrinking, they never told me.) As I peered into the murky water, I was surprised that the color pumping out was a clear green - I thought it would be dirtier than that. Slowly as the water disappeared, I could see the bottom of the pond. It was gross. How was I going to get that junk out without removing the fish? It was then that a glorious revelation occurred.

Being a professional dishwasher (what Mom isn't?) I started thinking about cleaning a bottle that is full of soap suds. The only way to clean the soap out is to pour clean water in. All the soap comes to the surface, pours out the top and if you wait long enough, the soapy water is replaced by the clean water. When the soap is gone, the bottle is clean! Marvelous! What would I do without these sudden blasts of Holy Spirit genius?

Unlike myself, my husband had thought ahead and filled 3 large buckets with water, so as to evaporate the chlorine to once again help the fish make the easiest possible transition into a clean environment. I looked at those buckets (which hadn't any time for evaporation) and grabbed the first one and heaved it in the pond with the pump still running. While my husband was running for cover, I realized I'd struck pay dirt. You should have seen the dark, forest green sludge that came out of the pump hose!!! That was truly inspiring, so I heaved the other 2 buckets in, then turned on the garden hose and let it pour in. That little ol' pump was working over time, and the poor fish… well we won't talk about the fish. At least they survived.

Later I started thinking about heaving that water in and how the Lord sometimes dumps a large portion of His Holy Spirit upon us. It stirs all kinds of things to the surface, and all the while He is pumping and pouring, pumping and pouring. I recently heard the Lord say to me, "It's going to be a wild ride." Just think if you were that fish and suddenly this huge gust of water blasts your cozy little haven and not only are you swirling and twirling around wondering what hit you, but scum also comes from everywhere at once, and you are wondering if you'll ever be able to see clearly again.

Likewise, God decided He wasn't going to take us fish out of the pond-world, rather, He was going to take the pond-world out of us. He slowly, with careful intent pumped our Holy Spirit filled swimming havens and they shrunk in size. Just about the time when some of us fish were flopping and we didn't think there was any water left in the world, in comes the Holy Spirit renewal.

But it doesn't end there. It has only begun. Our pond mentality is limited to our own lives, and at the most, to the life of our church. But God's pond is the world. Think about that a moment. It's not just our muck He's separating, it's the world's. And there's a whole lot of sludge out there. Things are going to get really stirred up before we start seeing clearly again. Therein comes the word, "transition."

Transition is an unsettling time when we desperately crave roots… a settled place of any kind… something peaceful and safe and reliable and fixed and not moving...when we crave something steady and trust-able and established where we have our feet on dry land and don't have motion sickness. Transition is like riding the Hammer at the fair, where the loose change falls out of our pockets with every loop. Anything not tied down falls away. Transition is a moving, unstable time. Transition shakes foundations.

God uses transition to compel people into making decisions. If ever there was a time to make haste and return to intimate roots with the Lord, it is now before the wild ride. Now is the time for each of us to seriously question our values, our foundations, our priorities. The Lord is clearly giving us final warnings that we still have a choice before this occurs as to how deeply this transition will affect our personal lives. If we have nothing in the world, and the world has nothing in us, His grace will sustain us and we will actually ride out whatever comes on top of the Holy Spirit wave.

If we have any roots in the world, they will be suddenly torn away and we will be left deeply shattered wondering what hit us. If we are not living holy lives, pleasing to Him, we will be caught in the muck with the rest of the world, and be suffering painful losses. No one will escape the effects of world wide losses. The manner in which the losses affect us will depend totally upon our values and our priorities.

If we can rejoice that God is actually cleaning up a very great mess, and He is actually going somewhere amongst the flurried storm of fish sludge, then we will take the wild Holy Spirit ride and go with His flow. Even in the midst of great sludge flurries, He is still God and is still in control over what touches our personal lives. He will keep us in and through it and we will rise triumphant on the other side… swimming in a nice clean pond, with glorious crystal clear water.

[3] The Corner

A Word to Ponder From the book, Words to Ponder, by Sandy Warner

Whether you have noticed or not, through the years you have been approaching a corner. Your ability to plan has become more and more limited, as your vision for the future unfolds. The reason why, is that in turning a corner, you are not able to see around the bend. The closer you have come to this bend, the shorter your ability to envision plans to come. Do not fret over this temporary inability. I give all good things in the perfect time and season. Understand that this corner is a change in direction, a change in focus. This is a major corner and many things need to culminate to bring you to this place. Trust Me to lead you when the time comes. In the mean time, do not fear your future even though in times past you have been able to see farther ahead.

"For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end." (Jeremiah 29:11)

[4] Insights into His Corner from Sandy Warner

For over 10 years, we have received rhema having to do with turning a great prophetical corner. For lack of space and extra printing cost, I decided not to print the corner rhema. Let it suffice to say that the Lord said this was a world-wide corner, a new beginning would occur after the corner, and the greatest show on earth would occur after turning the corner. Personally I have seen pictures of myself in the process of turning this corner for several years. I finally completed the turn as of February this year. I believe this is the "turn in the Spirit" Rick speaks of in the following:

[5] Quotes from Rick Joyner

Excerpt March Tape 1998

"There's another level that the body of Christ seems to be going to now. There's an intensity that's just been building for some years, but it seems like we've shifted gears again… shifting is a key word. There seems to be some kind of shift in the Spirit this year. With the joy and everything else, there's also an increased seriousness…There seems to be some kind of turn in the Spirit. One of things we believe the prophetic ministry is given to the body for, is to help us to see those turns coming up so that the church is prepared for them and can make them instead of missing… we feel like there's a major change in the Spirit, there's a turn of some type…I feel like in some ways we're getting near the end of our time of preparation. Some of the things that have been prophesied for thousands of years now really are about to come upon the world. But you know these are going to be the best of times for the body of Christ… this will be our finest hour if we are indeed heading into the times of trouble that do mark the end…we need to all be as close to the Lord as we can… Let's become addicted to the Presence of the Lord so that we just can't bear to go to bed at night without having an encounter with Him, where we have to have Him the first thing when we wake up in the morning, where we have to have Him, where we feel compelled that we have to have Him."

[6] Transition - Fear of Transformation

Author unknown

[Note from Sandy Warner: This was written by a student at LCC in the late 70's. I do not know if the writer is a Christian, but the article is so excellent I wanted to share it with you.]

Sometimes I feel that my life is a series of trapeze swings. I'm either hanging on to a trapeze bar swinging along or, for a few moments in my life, I'm hurling across space in between trapeze bars.

Most of the time, I spend my life hanging on for dear life to my trapeze-bar-of-the-moment. It carries me along at a certain steady rate, and I have the feeling that I'm in control of my life. I know most of the right questions and even some of the right answers. But once in a while, as I'm merrily (or not-so-merrily) swinging along, I look out ahead of me into the distance, and what do I see? I see another trapeze bar swinging toward me. It's empty, and I know, in that place in me that knows, that this new trapeze bar has my name on it. It is my next step, my growth, my aliveness coming to get me. In my heart-of-hearts I know that for me to grow, I must release my grip on this present, well known bar to move to the next one.

Each time it happens to me, I hope (no, I pray) that I won't have to grab the new one. But in my knowing place I know that I must totally release my grasp on my old bar, and for some moment in time I must hurtle across space before I can grab onto the new bar. Each time I am afraid that I will miss, that I will be crushed on unseen rocks in the bottomless chasm between the bars. But I do it anyway. Perhaps this is the essence of what the mystics call the faith experience. No guarantees, no net, no insurance policy, but you do it anyway because somehow, to keep hanging on to that old bar is no longer on the list of alternatives. And so for an eternity that can last a microsecond or a thousand lifetimes, I soar across the dark void of "the past is gone the future is not yet here." It's called transition. I have come to believe that is the only place that real change occurs. I mean real change, not the pseudo-change that only lasts until the next time my old buttons get punched.

I have noticed, that in our culture, this transition zone is looked upon as a "no-thing" a no-place between places. Sure, the old trapeze-bar was real, and that new one coming towards me, I hope that's real too. But the void in between? That's just a scary, confusing, disorienting "nowhere" that must be gotten through as fast and as unconsciously as possible. What a waste! I have a sneaking suspicion that the transition zone is the only real thing, and the bars are illusions we dream up to avoid the void, where the real change, the real growth occurs for us. Whether or not my hunch is true, it remains that the transition zones in our lives are incredibly rich places. They should be honored, even savored. Yes, with all the pain and fear and feelings of being out-of-control that can (but not necessarily) accompany transitions, they are still the most alive, most growth-filled, passionate, expansive moments of our lives.

And so, transformation of fear may have nothing to do with making fear go away, but rather with giving ourselves permission to "hang-out" in the transition between trapeze bars. Transforming our need to grab that new bar, any bar, is allowing ourselves to dwell in the only place where change really happens. It can be terrifying. It can also be enlightening, in the true sense of the word. Hurling through the void, we just may learn how to fly.

[7] Hanging in the Balance

A Word to Ponder from the book, Words to Ponder, by Sandy Warner

You have much concern over impending judgments, for the velocity of these judgments hang in the balance and are slippery as eels. Yes band together with other believers and stand in the gap against impending judgments. For the greater the stand against unrighteousness and the greater the commitment to Me, the lesser the judgments will be.

However, I have an announcement to make. What the enemy plotted to take advantage of this time, has been completely averted. What he planned for God's people was ultimate destruction, and that plan is completely defeated. It's over, he's defeated! The enemy has no authority to destroy My people. Already there stands a great wall against him, formed by those willing vessels who are sold out to Me. They have pushed his territory back and taken that which he sought to obliterate.

The earth must shake and tremble and go through it's impending storm. Yet I am now drawing near to hover over My people in abiding Presence. Like those in the wilderness, protected with the cloud by day and the fire by night, I draw near and protect My own. This is the time to draw near to Me and commit to My call. Pursue righteousness and you will not be caught in the storm. You will rise above it and walk through it untouched. At that point, you will no longer be hanging in the balance.

" And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night: He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people." (Exodus 13:21 & 22)

[8] Transition into Birth

Article by Shirley

The birthing process was the most rewarding experience of my 27 years as a registered nurse. I spent eighteen years of my nursing career working in labor and delivery. I never ceased to marvel each time a new babe was brought into the world. Some times the transition period was so short the babies arrived before the physician. I would be faced with bringing the baby into the world. I even was privileged to deliver one of my grandsons.

In describing the birth process, transition is the shortest phase of labor but probably the most painful, emotional and physically exhausting. The reason is the birth muscles are transitioning from one job to another. This can be very confusing as a double message is being sent to the body, by the double duty of the muscles. Strong forces are going on at once. There is a great urgency to push. Before one contraction ends another one begins. This phase of intense pressure is the time of the most pain. It is very hard to keep your muscles relaxed. When the tolerance level becomes unbearable, that seems to be when the highest hurdle is leaped.

In our walk with the Lord we go through a period of transition. — A time of change from the carnal to the spiritual man. As with the normal birthing process, for some it is a much longer and more stressful time; a change we are not always prepared for. In the delivery room many times I experienced those who screamed and fought, while others quietly worked with the contractions to bring forth birth. Likewise, in spiritual transition, some may freely give themselves to the Lord, yielding all control over the circumstances. Others may fight the process which makes the circumstances even more unpleasant.

When we allow the Spirit to work in and through us our transition can be bearable. We must relax and allow the Holy Spirit to complete the work. This is a change like we have never experienced before. We may reach a point in time when we feel that we have reached the end of ourselves. But as with the normal process of birth we are given the strength to complete the task. Many times the husband can be of great help and assistance. In our spiritual transition the Lord is that help and Assistant.

NKJ Ephesians 4:24 and that you put on the new man which was created according to God, in true righteousness and holiness. KJV Hebrews 6:1 Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; KJV Philippians 1:6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.

[9] WE HAVE A FUTURE AND A HOPE

Prophesy from Bob Jones

(Given at Cross Roads, Hamilton, Ontario March 8, 1998) The following are excerpts from the Internet via Wayne and Evelyn MacKay, International Christian Centre and Harvest Time Cafe located in Toronto, Ontario Canada (solution@arcos.org).

[Note from Sandy Warner: This prophesy gives an overall understanding of where the body of Christ has been and where we are going. It is lengthy but worth the time if you want to understand the Lord's plans. I believe this Word is very important and feel that we are privileged to have access to it. A Quick Overall Glimpse from 1950's Through the 2030's

"And so the fifties, the 19 and 50's - What goes around comes back around, you see. So the anointing of the 50's is coming back your way. So the 50's reveal My power that's coming back your way but I'll not give My power to any that have not shed the things that displease Me. And unresolved anger is one of the things that greatly displeases Me and that's what I've been doing in thee this day - To get the unresolved anger out of you that My glory might rest upon you so that no root of bitterness or anything might defile many, if I anointed thee with My glory. So the fifties revealed My power. And it came in a mighty way.

And the sixties revealed My Holy Spirit and the baptism that then began to fall and produce the mighty songs that were lifted up to Me.

And the seventies began to reveal the great teachers. And this is where many of you I began to bring forth to Me. In the seventies My teachers began to bring My Word, for My Kingdom is based upon My Word and My Spirit. These are the two pillars that I started back in the seventies.

The eighties revealed the Spirit of God and My prophets.

The nineties revealed My government. And now My government is in place and in a time of great stress I shall bring forth My next step. Toronto was a step. Brownsville was another step.

My next step will be My glory. And signs like you have never seen before. And ever since you have, you'll see, become golden among thee. You'll smell the fragrance of heaven. You'll taste the goodness of God. You'll feel the Presence of God and angels in awesome ways. You'll hear the songs of heaven and the praise. And you'll see the angels and His working mightily bringing your five senses, sanctifying them so that He can show you Himself and all of your soul your way. For what I have just described you see is your soul. So yes, He's been dealing in your spirit and He has for a while. But now He is after the rest of you; the soul, that He might use it to bring a new day. So yes, get ready for God's glory.

And the 2010's will bring, you see, the faith of God. To speak creative miracles, to change the storms, to shut up the heavens or loose up the heavens.

And the 2020's, you see, that worketh by faith shall bring a new day. And it shall be an army of love and a maturity and a brand new way. For it shall be called the family of God joined together in a unity. The most powerful force that the world has ever seen and shall ever see in all her days.

And still time will go on for you have time for your children and your grandchildren. So don't get in any hurry, for I'm not. So I'm calling thee to begin to represent Me. Be My ambassadors, be My goodwill ambassadors to all the nations upon the earth, you see.

1990's - A Glimpse of Nine Years of Judgment within the Church

'89 means the end of what God was doing in the 80's and a beginning of 9 years of literally judging His church. So you are the remnant seed because you came out of 9 years of judgment. You here tonight are the survivors. You are the remnant seed and the Lord is getting ready to sow again the remnant. So you are literally in the time of death and the remnant seed, you sow the remnant seed with travail and weeping.

For yes, My assuredly and My security is there in My Word, you see, and I put you through 9 years so that I might uproot some things out of thee, and break thee until you please Me. For, you see, brokenness without understanding brings hopelessness. Brokenness with understanding brings hopefulness. I've been breaking you and destroying your wrong nature, you see, to bring you into My family so that I might be the Father over thee. For I do say, get ready for a new canopy. It's in Isaiah 4:4, 5 and 6, you see, for I'm getting ready to purge the church with fire and to destroy the filthiness of Zion in an awesome way so that My glory might come to stay. And that My peace might rest in each one of thee.

So this is the purpose that I have been doing in these last days. These 9 years in your failure, I have destroyed your human strength and weakened you as I did My servant Jacob, you see, so that I might change your nature, and that you might be willing to wait for Me as I waited for My Father in My day. And so you have failed so much that you are coming to your own end and you are willing to wait for Me to tell you what to do and where to go and what to say. So that you would fail no longer but would be a success in Me.

For these 9 years I worked in thee was to root out the things that displeased Me. So I sent you into the desert after awaking thee and you carried all of your baggage with you. So the first couple of years you began to throw some of it away. The next couple of years you threw a little more away. You kept on going until all you had left, you see, was a couple of water jugs and your idols of gold, your ideals of what you wanted done in Me. And the last couple of years I have just been working beautifully in thee. Your golden ideals and idols lay out there in the desert, you see, and all you've got left is a water bottle and it less than a third full so I had you shedding and when you thought you were going to die out there you decided to pray and try it My way and that's where your prayer is at today. In your desperation you began to pray - not until you had to that is, not until you couldn't figure it out. So now I've called you to think it out in this last days. And now I will give you My mind and show you My way and you'll not fail any more. For I'm not in My church failures in any way.

I began to plow you as an ox does and I began to test you. And for the last few years, you see, have been plowing, for the ox is My beatitudes. And any movement that I will do will go through My beatitudes. Let My beatitudes be your attitudes. You want Me to move then let My attitudes dwell in thee. For, you see, I gave you a hunger and a thirst for Me and I kept guiding you by My Holy Spirit even both night and day in your barrenness. And so yes, I've been plowing you to bring you to a place called meekness. For the meek, they shall inherit. For, you see, meekness is teachable and those who are teachable, My Holy Spirit makes disciples out of them and begins to bring My divine nature into them.

And so you are My disciple, you see, so long as you are teachable and allow Me to show you My way. In My beatitudes in thee, I called you to be peacemakers in these last days. For they shall be called My sons and daughters. They shall be close to Me but I'm going to tell you what a peacemaker is, it's one that can confront the issues and can bring a righteous judgment, you see. And the first one that I wanted you to confront is the enemy between your eyes, that you would confront those things that does keep you from embracing Me. Only when you are peaceful within your soul can you rest so that My rest might come into thee and bring you My way so if you are not able to rest and are continually striving, then turn around and sit down and begin to love Me. And I'll bring you into that place of peace within that you might make peace with yourself. For that is what My peacemakers first do, you see, is get rid of all that garbage that the fallen nature has put on thee so that you can come forth and be that son and daughter for Me. So yes, let My beatitudes be your attitude in Me but I do say that now the plowing is coming to an end.

A Glimpse Past 1998

In Isaiah 28:24 it says that I don't plow all the time, you see. For I plowed thee for 9 years. I broke up your hard hearted nature, the clods, and I have smoothed My fields and now I am going to cast My Seeds into them - My Sperm Seed words will now come to My body and it will begin to grow harvest in different ways. Even as there are different things that I sow to bring forth into harvest, will I sow these things in thee. Different in each one of thee for I'm bringing forth the harvest of grain in people that My body might consume this grain that I'm bringing forth. So that the body can eat your lives up and become a healthy body of Christ.

And in My Word, it says that I will show you the wisdom you need for this. So yes, I'm sowing you back the remnant seed. The drought is over now in the church and it will rain and My God Sperm Seed I placed in your heart will begin to grow. By the falls of the season you will begin to come forth in an awesome harvest. And you'll begin to see that the grain is out there and it will be where My body can eat your life up and be healthy enough to go into the world and take the lands for Me.

And now He is after harvest and everyone of you is called to harvest and harvest begins with prayer. Job 22:30, He will even deliver the one for whom you intercede who is not innocent. He will be delivered through the cleanness of your hands. Job 42:7, 8. When you begin to pray and first you should begin in your own family, pray for those who are not innocent and who do not have clean hands, those that aren't saved, those that are giving you the worst words and the worst headache.

You see what Job did here. After the Lord had spoke the previous words to Job the Lord said to Eliphaz the Temanite, 'My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends. For you have not spoken of Me the things that are right as My servant Job has. Now therefore take seven bulls and seven rams and go to My servant Job and offer up for yourself a burnt offering and My servant Job will pray for you for I will accept his prayer that I deal not with them after your folly in that you have not spoken of Me what was right as My servant Job has.' So these men, did as the Lord commanded them and the Lord accepted Job's prayer and the Lord turned the captivity of Job and restored his fortune.

I'm trying to show you something here. It's time your fortune be restored to you. And the Lord turned the captivity of Job and restored his fortune, then he prayed for his friends also and the Lord gave Job twice as much as He had before.

I'm in My son's growth, in bringing him forth to inherit, you see, for even now men and women in this body in the time of exchange of great finances I'm raising him up to possess and give millions into My evangelism and into My church. I'm going to let them spoil Egypt again. Not only Egypt but the world system of marketing. Even now, I'm moving upon the minds of men and women and giving them this knowledge. And in their heart for Me, will be to see My Word exported over all the earth in these last days.

1998, The Pivotal Year - A Glimpse into the Coming World Judgments

For yes, you have now come to '98, you see, the end of My judgment and a new beginning in this last day…For I will send the rains upon thee in an awesome way and it will rain and rain upon your brain and I will heal the lame, the maimed, the cripple, the halt, and the blind that got that way in My church, in My body for I do say to thee, it is a brand new day.

I'm telling you, you are coming to the end of My church judgment and when it ends in My church it will begin in the world. And I want your light shining bright for they will be heading your way in the great night. For it is time that you rise and shine, you see. And let My glory rest upon thee. For great darkness over all the earth will be, but not in My church for it will dwell in My glory.

And like the Ark of old will it be when Noah was lifted up high and close to Me. When I closed the door in that time so that none might find Me in that time of judgment as I rained My justice upon them in that day. But this time you are My Arks and the doors of your hearts will not be closed, you see. And all those who dwell in darkness in My time of judgment can flee to thee, and find refuge in Me. And there will be no dark in My Arks. But they shall dwell continually in the noon day sun and brightly will they shine. Those who will bring forth at this time to accomplish My divine purpose and harvest, you see.

For I have a vision of youth that is awesome and mighty. And youth is My purpose but I need others to stand behind them, you see. Ones that have been wounded and healed. Ones that have suffered persecution and has had to bow to the will of Mine. But now I bring forth My will in a mighty way, so that the harvest might come and ever be - for I say this to you, yes, the trials of the earth shall increase in an awesome way. And the things of Revelation they shall be increasing and increasing until they come to that day. But what you don't understand is that the book of Revelation, you see, is a love letter to My bride in preparing her to ever be joined to Me. And you are My bride. Your soul is so beautiful to Me. And I call out to thee for you to hear My voice and to respond to My wooing and My cooing. Even this day for I come to those whose ears are open that they might hear what I have to say.

For you see, judgments will be inconsistent in these last days. They will fall on one town and not another you see. And those who hear from Me will be vacationing there, rejoicing with their children. Wrapped in the cocoon of My anointing as Noah and their children were in their day.

So I waited 6000 years for thee. Do you think that I am going to let the devil take you out in any way? For I've already had victory over him, you see. And the victory I give to thee. For do you know who you are seated with in heavenly places this day? Do you know that you have a Friend in high places — that will be there through eternity? And I seek friends that will come and talk with Me. That was the purpose you were created for, you see. So that we could be a family. For My Daddy is a family man, you see. And has great jealousy for His family — those who grew up and have come to acknowledge Him as their Daddy, and no longer stray into the darkness but stay in His light of His abode.

A Glimpse Into the Coming Shepherds

The ‘80’s revealed My prophets, you see, and the ‘90’s revealed My government and My justice even improving upon this day. But now My heart cries in another way. For I will now raise up My shepherds and My shepherds will love the sheep. My shepherds, you see, will die for the sheep, they will stand between the enemy and My body. For now I work on bringing forth My body. I have brought forth My head. My leadership I have already got upon the earth and My purpose now, you see, is for My leadership to feed My body. For My body is like a baby and My leadership is like a grown head upon a babies body. So everything I do now in My leadership will be to feed My body of Christ so that they may grow up and possess the gates of the enemy, for have I not said continually in My Word that their children would inherit the earth? And the earth in that day, when My justice comes in a mighty way will bless them, for I will only destroy the world, you see, and its corruption, but the earth will remain and I will bless it. And your children will inherit it. So you must learn My Word and believe it, you see, for have I not said, “That once I was young but now I am old, but I have never seen the righteous forsaken or His seed begging for bread.”

So I call you to a new intimacy with Me a new covenant with Me that you quit doing all those things that you are doing and do only that which you see with Me. So I’ve called you to open the eyes of your heart, and the ears of your understanding, and your discernment and your love for Me. So that our love can be upon the earth again in these last days. For, you see, My shepherds will be shepherds of love they will not harm the sheep for they have failed so much, they have learned to love. They have been broken so they know what brokenness is. And My sheep will know Me. Each one will know Me and My voice in this last day.

So the good shepherd is coming into your life, you see. To make you lay down and be still in green pastures. And make your soul be still and know that He is God. And yes, My good shepherds that are coming out of the back woods, out of the slums, out of many places, they will put to rest the troubled waters in the church. They will still the waters in the church, they will have the authority to speak against those that lie - the gossips, the slanderers, those that trouble the waters of the church, they will put them silent and they will bring the still waters. So that My sheep, My body may drink deep of Me.

A Glimpse in the Coming Power

For I say this day, that I call forth deep unto deep. And I shall bring thee by the new way that you know not. So get ready for My power to see in an awesome new way, and it will be called forth by prophecy, get ready for the creative Word of God to come forth through My prophets. This is according to scripture you see, Isaiah 48:6, 7 is what it says. For I am still a creative God and when I give My Word to My children, and to My prophets and they proclaim it upon the earth it comes to pass, you see.

For three years ago a great famine in the south west of the United States did reign over all the land. And I spoke to a prophet and I told him to command, proclaim rain. To not pray for it, you see, but to proclaim it and to command the angels to bring rain. And three times on a Sunday this was done, you see. I doubt that many understood in any way but they know this that within three days, it rained 7 inches in places that hadn't seen rain for 3 years.

That's proclaiming, you see, that's agreeing with God and speaking His Words that He wants proclaimed. So yes intercede, seek God — but once you hear, proclaim, command, so when you drive your streets in your cities pray over them and wait for My Word to come to thee. So that you might speak into the heart of that city and bring forth life. And so this has happened often lately, but it shall happen even more now that the times have become even more severe, you see. So if you don't like the tornado coming your way, loose the angels and command it to split. And this has happened before, you see, so it's time that My church rise up and become My body - My body of Christ that takes the authority that I've given, you see. For I didn't make you pussy cats, I made you lions. I made you to take the prey in these last days. I made you to take those who are your enemies to fall away to thee when I give you the Words.

I'm getting you ready for My fire and the baptism of fire which is a Spirit of holiness, which is the fruit of the Spirit maturing you up. For you do not cry out for revival but you cry for more and more every day for My mercy and My grace and My light. For I have come to this area to stay. I didn't come for My glory to pass away and fade as it has in past days. I've come for My glory to abide upon thee continually and to rest upon your children in eternity.

For it is the last days but it is not immediately. You'll see the 2000's, the 2010's, 2020's, 2030's. So make long range plans. Yep. For I tell you, you're not going to fly away right away. But you're coming and going to raise up the body of Christ that will inherit, and that My glory will abide upon thee. And sickness, sin and poverty will not be able to stand in your presence, you see. And the gods that men have worshipped will fall down and bow down to thee including doctors and lawyers and psychologists and philosophers, they shall come to acknowledge Me in thee.

A Glimpse into the Next Move

And so the next move of the Spirit you'll see will be the eagle. And My Rhema Words falling in thee. Get ready for vision like you have never seen before. Get ready for My picture. For I'm getting ready to give My vision to My body. So that they no longer perish but each and every one of you have a picture, a vision for your life and a purpose in Christ.

All of you join neatly together for when I crush My grain to feed My body, you can't tell one from another. I'm going to mix you that well so that you'll just have to say, "We're just a part of the body of Christ and we are literally ministry without a face and the face you'll see, is the face of Christ."

Yes, now is My seasons and My eagle, you see, is in Mark 16. For I've been going throughout all the earth, preparing My people to go and obey My commandment. For as I have been bringing you into that meekness so that I could sow you, then so will I send you as I did My Son. So send I you into the world that you will begin to fulfill My great commission and go into all the nations, into all the ethnic groups of which are right here in this city. Start there, and that you might begin to make disciples of all of the ethnic groups. For I will tell you this, My Son didn't die on the cross needlessly for the whole world to glorify death and sin in the last days. I am going to have the mightiest church you have ever seen and over a billion souls will come in one great wave. And all who will can come and find both bread and wine. So I am going to begin to give the revelation, especially the revelation of My true common union communion. For My body had been fragmented, broken apart and now I will begin to bring it back together. For I will begin to pour My wine upon My broken fragmented body and begin to bring it again into one body, one lump.

And I say this to you, it won't be grape juice I pour upon it, because grape juice has no spirit in it. It will be the best of My wine with real spirit in it, a wedding wine, a unity wine. And I shall join My body together by My Spirit. And My blood shall flow through their veins.

For this is the inheritance of the saints, you see, to not be defeated in the last day. I'm not coming for a bride that has been pinched by the devil on the backside, and bruised and defeated and crying out to Me. I won't come until that bride does say, "The Holy Spirit and I are ready." And then it will be no surprise for My body for they will be the ones who will send for Me and it will be because they are victorious in every way. And put on all of My nature and so it will only be a surprise to the world, you see, but it won't be a surprise to My body.

I'm not going to cut anything off in the last days. For it grows darker and so shall it grow lighter in thee. And My light shall shine greater and farther in thee. For I am calling forth My body of Christ to walk upon the earth where the very earth itself does tremble at their footsteps. And to where the heathen does tremble at their Words because they will have power over life and death, over storm and fire and all the things of nature, and by their Word, by their Word, that they speak, as they mature in Me, will there be life or death as they do say, 'rain or drought'. That's what will happen as they learn to literally loose My prayers in a brand new way.

But now after you I say, a new anointing of My Rhema, and binding and loosing shall shortly be on thee and you shall begin to loose the yoke of bondage of religion that has held you back in these last days. For a religious spirit is legalism, opinion, debate, judgment and criticism. And none of that is of Me for I am of love and they are of works. So these things I do say. You don't have any right to any of these, you have only a right to love and to dwell in My Presence both night and day. So yes, a door I open to thee, so walk in it and live your life for Me and possess everything that your foot does walk on in these last days."

[10] Prophesy - His Still Small Voice

Given to Grandma Anna on 4/5/89

DREAM: The Lord came to me in a vision as a young man, very, very excited, happy and vibrant, saying, "I'm blowing the trumpet little one!" I literally heard His voice as though He were in the room with me. Then later I heard His still small voice say the following:

Hear ye, Hear ye, Soon it comes.

Off comes the cover. Dazzling. Amazing.

Hear ye, Hear ye. Off it comes.

Will you not know it? Will you not see it?

A ha! Will you not hear it?

What hath God wrought? What is this?

My son. My son. Hear ye him.

My son. My son. Hear ye him.

Yes, I shall have a generation.

I shall have a seed.

Hear ye, Hear ye, Off it comes.

No more cover over My glory.

Hear ye. Hear ye. My son.

Yea, it's My generation. Yea, it's My seed.

To him give you heed.

For he shall speak wondrous things.

He shall do wondrous things.

He is he. He is Me. He is them.

A city on a hill cannot be hid.

Jerusalem, Jerusalem, My Bride.

Glorified. Glorified.

It's done. It's done. My victory is won.

Hear ye. Hear ye. The victory's won.

Hear ye, Hear ye, The victory is won.

What do you think? What do you see?

A people. A generation.

My people. My generation. All of Me.

The victory is won. Your will is done.

Finished. Completed.

The enemy at My feet. Nothing to impede.

Soon I’m coming to your side.

Wait little one. Soon. It’s here.

Be of good, good cheer.

Make merry and be glad. No longer be sad.

This is the day.

This is the hour.

Awake! Awake!

Put on your beautiful garments.

The sword is furbished.

It is also ready.

A two edged sword in the hands of My saints.

This is the hour. This is the gain.

The victory is coming now. Come Lord Jesus.

Come with Your power. No more delay.

This is the hour. Blow the trumpet in Zion, Zion.

Sound the alarm in My Holy Mountain.

Sound the trumpet in Zion, Zion. Sound the alarm.

The snow. It’s covered My mountain.

A ha! It melts. Down come the rushing torrents.

The streams thereof shall make glad.

Rejoice O ye hills. This is the mountain where I desire to dwell. The name of that city shall be “My God is there.”

Surely God is in thee. A city on a hill cannot be hid.

A faithful scribe writing my words.

Surely I do nothing before I reveal it to My prophets.

A new thing do I declare. A new thing on this earth.

A people born. A holy nation.

A holy nation do I declare.

All changed. All made new.

Death come to life. Begin anew.

A new thing on the earth.

Off comes the lid. Nothing is hid.

It's My glory. Been there all along.

But you couldn't see it. Now sing a new song.

The earth is full of My glory.

Bright shining after rain.

The former and latter rain. Altogether.

Yea Joseph shall have two portions.

My servant among them.

Turning the heart of the children to the fathers.

A victorious day. Nothing. No, nothing shall stand in its way. Satan taken to the pit by a mighty stand. Satan taken to the pit when My glory fills the land.

A people strong and mighty. Running as a troop.

My army. My army. My very own group.

I have done a work under the hill.

Its brightness and glory. No longer hid.

[11] Dream from Cherie - June 15, 1995

Cherie - Cornerstone Church

A group of us (believers) were on an island, We were attempting to establish something for the Lord. In the midst of our efforts we were divinely warned of a rising opposition and we were to prepare ourselves. We didn't get any weapons, such as guns or arrows or anything like that, we found our defense in standing together. Things seemed to be going well, then a thick fog fell over the entire land mass around us. We couldn't see each other but we were linked by kindred spirits. When one of us fell into doubt or worry, whomever was closest would pull that person in closer and speak encouragement and prophetic truth (like the angel spoke to Gideon).

As we were standing in anticipation of the opposition, the beach became visible and I could see a huge wave approaching. It was like a tsunami, I called to the others to stand firm, that our strength together could withstand it's force. I looked again and saw there were three consecutive waves of the same size. They were at equal distance from each other. The waves began to hit the beach, there was tremendous destruction, most of us were able to hold on where we were, some were swept away, others were weakened, but held on. As the second wave was about to hit I saw a change in the pattern of waves. The first three had been spaced apart enough that we had time to check in with each other and make quick assessments of damage. However, following the first three waves came a set of waves, close together and equal in size to the previous three single waves.

It was then I saw the fog lift from around the entire land mass. I could see a mobile home type building hidden behind some trees, near the beach. I knew it was the headquarters of Satan and his team. They had been camped among us all along and we'd never noticed their camp, or their workers. I was momentarily disheartened to think that we had been deceived, we didn't have a clue they had been here since the beginning of this endeavor. Now it seemed too late to campaign against them. How foolish we had been. Then the Lord drew my attention back to the coming set of waves. I could see the spirit in charge of this campaign riding above the waves mocking us and calling on more power to destroy us. I sent sent word through the kindred spirit for us not to be distracted, or to divide our attention toward the enemies camp. That would be taken care of, I knew God had exposed it for our benefit, not our demise.

As the set of three waves hit one after another, there was great destruction and some of us were separated from our kindred spirit. One by one we reestablished communication. There was a lot of damage, all that we had built was destroyed. Some of the people were swept away, most of them remained. We saw the evil one who was in charge, we grabbed hold of him. When we touched him, his strength began to dissipate. We took him to the beach, he was weak and unable to resist us. Some wanted to kill him, but I stopped them. I had all who were able to help, carry him near the surf. We laid him down, I told him, and the others, that we were to let the surf, which he had empowered to destroy us, carry him away to his own destruction. We walked away and left him lying on the sand, knowing he was unable to escape.

Later, as the evening came, we had all been working to salvage what we could of the structures and grounds of our settlement. Our kindred spirit was once again strong, but it had changed. We were all doing individual tasks and yet, there was a sense of singlemindedness, one to another. Our hearts weren't connected in the same way as they were during the battle. I saw a young woman, sitting alone, outside the courtyard of our colony. I made my way over to her. As I came close to her, I could see she was reading her Bible but she was not happy, not sad, rather numb. As I came closer, I came to the back corner of a building and as I moved forward the dimness of the area got lighter and a dark figure, I knew to be a demon, immediately flew away. I realized there was a danger in any of our people spending time alone, isolated from the rest. It was imperative that we stay united, not only in our kindred spirit, but in our practical duties. Some were not strong enough to stand alone, and as I had seen the enemies' camp emerge from the fog in our midst during battle, truly none of us were strong enough to stand alone.

[12] SHAKE, RATTLE, AND ROLL WITH THE PUNCHES

Article By Sandy Warner 12/98

1998 was a shaking year for me. For over ten years, the Lord had said that the body of Christ was approaching a corner. With certainty I knew God is a good God and therefore I was looking forward to it with great faith. I must admit when I turned that corner in February of 1998, I didn't like what I saw. In fact, it was only the beginning of a great shaking in my foundations as He began to unravel the mysteries of what I had heard in past rhema.

Do you remember the Springfield Thurston High School shooting in May 98? My son was 5 feet away from the nearest bullet, and Teresa, the most seriously wounded fell at his feet. Shocking, yes. Shaking, yes. I learned a lot about preparation during those days. I discovered that if you aren't prepared for shaking times, it is very hard to find your peace AFTER the fact. I understood this because I was prepared, and yet I still struggled. I kept wondering, "How can anyone go through a shaking without a deep and abiding trust in God?" If I struggled and I was prepared, what about others who aren't?

I was so grateful I had heard the Lord BEFORE if happened - that He was protecting my son. One week prior to the shooting, I had even heard the Lord speak about a murderer. I took it all in stride, thinking the Lord was speaking in riddled or metaphoric speech, and not literally... that is until AFTERWARDS. When I went back and read what He had said, I understood He was trying to prepare me and let me know He was very much answering my constant prayers for His protection over my son. In my past writings, I have used the cliché that when people get wounded they become "gun shy" and flinch when someone comes near their wound. I never thought of that having a literal meaning. As it turned out, my faith became stronger for the experience, and so did my son's. But that doesn't mean I didn't struggle at first to rise above the shaking. I had to settle it with His peace and really believe that He will CONTINUE to stay on active duty! So much for May 1998.

The next thing that happened is I am minding my own business when suddenly I saw a picture vision of our empty freezer. I heard the Lord say, "Just to make the matter of interpretation clear." Then He tells me that I need to stock pile some staple food. Now, unless you've read the story in my book about building the ark for winter… (there's a picture beside it of a fellow with his head stuck in the ground like an ostrich - that's me) … then you wouldn't know this: I am the LAST person to jump on the band wagon about such issues. Years ago, I had heard the Lord tell me to build an ark for winter and after much struggle with interpretation and stock piling, I gave it all away and chose to build a spiritual ark. Do it all again? NO WAY. I guess that is why the Lord had to tell me point blank.

Wake Up Call

I started to read about Y2K. In a nutshell, the world is predicting a computer problem that will potentially shut down the electrical power grid on January 1, 2000. The electrical power grid sustains the basics for our survival and some say it will bring us to a crippling halt. Among the pile of statistics I read was that it takes 3 days for our grocery stores to empty without being re-stocked.

Regardless of what degree Y2K affects us, I believe that the world's Y2K alarm is the mercy of the Lord to alert everyone for coming dark times. The world certainly is reacting. Most of the Internet shipping of bulk staple foods are backlogged for months and yet Y2K is another year away.

In obedience to hearing about the staple food, I completed the task and landed right back in the same 2 arks I had built in the early 80's. The first being a literal one. After prayer and hearing no specifics on how much for how many, since the Lord had spoken to me about Noah's ark in the past, I prepared for 8 people (Noah's family of eight - I Pet 3:20) for 1 winter. In the natural I realized this was a simple amount of preparation for what could come. Logically I knew there was no way I could prepare for every contingency. When it comes down to the bottom line - what am I going to trust in; a large stock pile of food and then worry about having to defend it? Or am I going to trust that God takes what little we have and multiply it for all who come to our door? I am really glad that I chose the spiritual ark all those years ago. That's the only reservoir that will last.

During the following months, I began to hear tidbits from the Lord about things like the financial collapse of Wall Street, families moving in with families due to being homeless, and 7 years of Pharaoh's grain at great cost. (Genesis 47:19) He also brought Words from the established prophets like Bob Jones, Rick Joyner, Bobby Conner and Paul Cain. They all agreed judgment is coming. My understanding was that Y2K is only the beginning, and no matter what Y2K yields the devil will take advantage of it. If Y2K is all we would have to suffer, I would choose it - even the worst of what it could offer - than what is to come by way of judgments and enemy destruction.

Reluctantly I swallowed the fact that the USA is coming under judgment and the world is coming to a very dark time. So dark, that nothing in history compares to it. That is not exactly good news. I had to do some heavy scrambling to catch up after turning this corner. Suddenly everything I had heard, as well as trusted rhema of others, had to be re-assimilated (interpreted) via a different set of lenses. The adjustment wasn't in the hearing and seeing, but in the timing and the understanding of how it all fits.

Yes, God is a good God and some absolute awesome times are coming for those who are prepared and trust in Him. The book of Acts is nothing compared to the glory of what we will actually live and experience. The glory of God will descend upon earth and we are going to take back our lives, our earth, the air waves, the atmosphere, and defeat the devil. But not without a fight. And the earth is going to take the brunt of that fight.

Everything that can be shaken will be shaken. The scripture says, "See that you do not refuse Him who speaks. For if they did not escape who refused Him who spoke on earth, much more shall we not escape if we turn away from Him who speaks from heaven, whose voice then shook the earth; but now He has promised, saying, "Yet once more I shake not only the earth, but also heaven." Now this, "Yet once more," indicates the removal of those things that are being shaken, as of things that are made, that the things which cannot be shaken may remain. Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace, by which we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear. For our God is a consuming fire. (NKJV Hebrews 12: 25-29) The bottom line of the shaking to come is so that only the "unshakable" will remain. In my estimation that means that everything temporal gets touched so that only the eternal will remain. I see no in between.

Many of us alive today are actually going to live to see everything in the Bible fulfilled. That being the case, we have a whole lot of livin' to do between now and then. Bob Jones says we have at least until 2030, and I believe him. But that is still a very short time to raise up an entire harvest. And a third or more of the world may be obliterated before then, depending upon how one reads prophesy. I don't know how it all fits together, and most of us only have bits and pieces that the Lord has told us. It was only after my shaking that I began to re-think those things He has shared with me.

I have many promises, and they are all wonderful. But the one that has been ringing in my ears is a Word: "Gentlemen, we shall rebuild." That has been in my heart as a Word from the Lord for many years, and given the rebuilding of His tabernacle (Acts 15:16) it certainly fit nicely into my safe pre-conceived package. But I now screen it through different lenses. What if it literally means, "Gentlemen, we shall rebuild." I am now considering that a possibility. Another promise the Lord has continually spoken to me in many different settings, is the term "new beginnings." He is going to do a new thing. What if that is also AFTER a shaking, and along with the rebuilding? It's a definite possibility.

So therein is my "awakening" for the year of 1998 and I now filter everything through a different set of lenses. However, I didn't come through the year unscathed. After 3 pages, I now introduce the reason for this article: beware of critters lurking in dark places, eating your food and making little messes…

There's Mice in the House

It all began when I attended a Y2K meeting. Whether I agreed with the world's prediction or not, I had already been obedient to gather food for a winter, and so I attended the meeting to see what others were doing. I came home full of anxiety and lost 3 hours of sleep that night. Terrific.

This emotional response didn't make sense to me, because I was already prepared. I had to re-search my heart. I didn't have the money or the space to stock pile for 7 years, which is what I believed to be the need. Even if I did, it wouldn't last because I would not turn people away. I had obeyed the phrase, "prepare an ark for winter." My trust just couldn't abide in a literal ark, it would never float. The anxiety I was feeling was a spirit. That night I had such distracting spirits I could not even concentrate on the Lord in prayer. I bound anxiety, care, fear, and the inability to focus in Jesus Name.

When I turned in my Bible, it fell open to the verse: Be careful (Strong's 3309) for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep (Strong's 5432) your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. (Phil 4:6-7 KJ) I had previously written in the margin, "Don't worry, just pray. Worry is a control matter. Give God control!" The word careful in the Greek means to take thought, be anxious, be troubled with care, and it has its root in a word meaning to divide. I was experiencing a divided heart and mind. The Greek meaning of those words careful and keep is that when we give the anxious care to God, He keeps our hearts and guards them from hostile invasion! I decided the Lord had my attention, He didn't want me anxious. Next I grabbed my Words to Ponder devotional book next to my bed. This is what I turned to!

Word to Ponder - Distraction

"You have a divided heart. Many responsibilities pull and tug and demand your attention. Only one will do. And that is to follow Me.

You have yet to understand what it means to cast your care upon Me. My burden is light and easy when you are yoked with Me. For two oxen at a plough divide the load and neither feel the true weight of the burden. But ensnared by the tangled cares, you have forgotten your resting place; that place where you bring all that divides your time and energy back to Me — allowing Me My place by your side, helping divide your load and partnering with you to get the job done.

Bring your responsibilities back to Me and let us rearrange your priorities. Together we will divide the load and not your heart. Together, in one mind, one purpose we will get the job done and you will find joy and energy in the process.

"And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her." (Luke 10:41 & 42 KJ)" (From Words to Ponder by Sandy Warner)

The next day I was making labels for a notebook and emptied the few I had left on the table. With the previous sleepless night still burning on my heart, and the Lord's admonition to stop worrying, I picked one up and turned it over. In very, very tiny writing, my son had written on it, "DON'T WORRY." I was flabbergasted and took it in and asked him when he had written it. He said about 5 months ago. I stuck it on my computer monitor to remind me of the Lord's Word. Then later as I glanced up at it, I had the revelation that the location was now my COMPUTER. Interesting.

The following night we attended home group and when a friend prayed for our car problems, he began his prayer with the same verse: Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God! Am I getting the point?

Bob Jones Word

Following that evening I read an e-mail that contained a Bob Jones vision. The following is a copy as written by Keith Davis: "Another vision was given to Bob that emphasized the importance of Joshua 1:9. In this vision Bob observed a small evil spirit whose mannerisms were similar to that of a child. In an inconsiderate manner this spirit frolicked across Bob's toes. When Bob chastised the evil spirit he saw that its name was "Anxiety". Anxiety then declared that he was going to get his father to deal with Bob.

As this smaller spirit returned, Bob saw that his gigantic father came with him. This spirit was seemingly 50 feet tall and was named "Panic". Panic had just returned from killing 1,000 people that day and threatened to do the same to Bob if he chastised "anxiety" again. Bob knew that if the Lord did not intervene, panic was capable of making good on his promise. Panic then retrieved his cousin named "Thief" and together they intended to destroy Bob and steal his goods.

When fear and panic seemed that they were going to overwhelm him, Bob heard the Holy Spirit say, "Why don't you call the law on these thieves". Bob then went to the telephone and instead of dialing 9-1-1, he dialed 1-0-1-9— Luke 10:19. "Behold, I have given you authority to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall injure you. (NAS) Not only did the law shackle anxiety, panic, and the thief, the law also required a seven fold return of all that had been stolen.

Anxiety and panic have gripped the world and even many in the church. One of the signs of the last days is that men's hearts will fail them for fear. These evil spirits rob the people of God of their peace and joy and impart fear, the greatest enemy of our faith. The Lord is commanding us to be strong and of good courage for He is imparting the reality of Luke 10:19. Because of the great victory of the cross, we need not fear nor be dismayed for the Lord has delegated to us His authority over all the power of the enemy.

The Lord is going to anoint His people with courage and valor to demonstrate to the world His dominion over fear and panic and all the power of the evil one. A courageous generation with resolute determination and anointing shall arise to uproot the enemies of the Faith that have kept us from the Promises of God. Once the Church takes it rightful position in the "promised land" the Glory of God will shine upon her as a testimony to the whole Earth of God's salvation and deliverance.

God be gracious to us and bless us, {and} cause His face to shine upon us - Selah. That Thy way may be known on the earth, Thy salvation among all nations. God blesses us, that all the ends of the earth may fear Him. (NAS) Psalms 67:1-2,7" (End Bob Jones Word)

After reading Bob's vision, I finally got the point. This was no little bitty demon I was fighting. We're talking a big hunk of a dude. I got the picture. It's time to put on the battle fatigues under the wedding dress. So I really take this thing seriously and determine to rise above it and put it behind me. Every thought captive to the obedience of Christ. OK Lord I've got the picture. Three weeks I battle this, trying to find my peace. Nuclear fall out? Living in Goshen, as promised by God. Famine? Behind me satan, my God shall supply. Pestilence? Under the blood of Jesus. Natural disasters? Sealed by God.

Did anyone notice I titled this section, "There's mice in the house?" During this 3 week ordeal, one day my son said, "I think we have a mouse." We soon forgot about it. (The Lord said to listen to our children, they are prophetic!) Then one day as I was playing the piano, I kept hearing scratching sounds inside the wall. I walked over there and it was either in the wall or behind the fireplace. Either way, it was loud. I made little taps on the wall, and it wasn't even intimidated. More scratches. Louder taps, still more scratches. Finally I pounded on the wall and the scratches stopped. AH HAH! A critter among us. My husband put out the trap. Before night fell, mouse number one takes a nose dive.

Trap number 2 is set before going to bed. In the morning trap number 2 has a mouse. My husband is truly inspired. He goes to Fred Meyers and buys some more mouse traps. He puts them inside the fireplace downstairs. He puts them beside the wood stove in the other room. He puts them in the cupboard. Bam. Bam. Bam. They all catch mice with more coming.

Then another e-mail comes. Listen to THIS one! It is from a Marsha Burns, whom I have never heard of. "October 21, 1998: Mice in the house! Spiritual rodents that nibble and chew at the children's food. They gobble up the seed of the Word. They are annoying creatures of the night that lurk in darkness and scurry silently about as thieves. What are their names? Worry and anxiety, dissatisfaction, discontentment, irritation, trouble. They have come to rob you of peace and your confidence in the Lord. Eradicate these pests! Rise up against them in faith. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Otherwise, they will multiply and grow and become a plague against you!"

Did I get the point??????? Yes!!! I was very busy battling to find my peace, and rebuking every negative thought that was against the Word of the Lord. All the time we kept catching mice! I was never so glad to catch mice in all my life. (The last time we caught a mouse I was pregnant and I ran away crying because I felt sorry for it.) One day I had lasting peace and I also happened to notice the traps stopped catching the mice. They were GONE.

Later I had a friend coming over who likes caffeine, so I was looking in our pantry for some caffeine tea. I pulled out a box and noticed all these little black things on the shelf. More boxes, more black things. I ran for the magnifying glass and GROSS, IT WAS MOUSE DROPPINGS. The mice were gone, but they left behind a mess and I had to it clean up. Did I get the point? Yes, it cost me a whole day in scrubbing. The only glory was thinking about that wonderful prophesy from a lady I never heard of, warning about little critters stealing the Lord's Word in the night. I took the point to heart and decided to put my combat boots on under my pajama's. It worked. A little elbow grease and determination wins the peace of the Lord, and enables one to hear Him clearly once again. Do you have anxiety over the future? Try a change of clothing. Oh yah, and buy a few mouse traps.

[13] Transition - Standing at the crossroads

A Word to Ponder from the book, "Words to Ponder" by Sandy Warner

Crossroads

Arriving at the crossroads, your future is before you. Four choices are in the making: back where you came from, back where you think you should have come from, forward on the same path, or forward on a new path.

The new path is the least understood. That is because it is new. It looms in front of you, unknown and unsure. But rest assured, My plans are so well fitting your life, that they will fit like a glove. This new path is My destiny for you, but it remains your choice.

You need to understand the seriousness of the crossroads. The choice will be final, as the direction you walk will be swallowed behind you, with no turning back. You can not cut corners and return to this place again. It is a true destiny choice. So give heed to the call and do not make this decision lightly. I will tell you this much, that choosing this path is not for the fearful. It will require courage and a brave heart. It will require complete trust in Me. But what have you to loose? It's only everything to lose or only everything to gain. It's a matter perspective. Yours or Mine.

"Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth." (Hosea 6:3)

[14] Transition - Make a Decision

A Word to Ponder from the book, "Words to Ponder" by Sandy Warner

Decision

You stand at the cross road of decision. Waiting. Standing. Wavering. Waiting. Reluctant to move, reluctant to wait. A wavering vessel receives nothing. You must chose. I will not walk it for you. I told you it was time to move, I told you I gave you a green light. Why do you hesitate? Egypt knocks on your door and would pull you back to its magnetizing grip.

I need your willing heart to leave Egypt's memories, Egypt's habits. They will forever hinder if you bring them with you. Let it go and seek a new life and all it encompasses. Make no association with the bricks and burdens of yesterday. Only in letting go will you move freely in all I have prepared. One Master, not two. One destiny, not two. The roads cross and separate. You must choose one.

[15] Transition - Leaving the Wilderness School of Circles

A Word to Ponder from the book, "Words to Ponder" by Sandy Warner

Wilderness Training

For years you have wandered in the wilderness. Circling with endless paths, seemingly going nowhere. Personal ambitions too heavy to carry have dropped by the way. Dear possessions gone by the way side too. Like the pioneers of old, your path is scattered with what was left behind. Graves of dead and buried treasures.

What you did not see during those seemingly wasted years is the beauty of character that formed in the making of such a journey. You see what was lost, I see what was gained. My image is pressed upon your heart. Pure and simple, you have become more like Me.

It is not all lost. I have had a destination in mind. Even now I am bringing you to the river Jordan to occupy a new beginning, a new land. Are you ready? Would you cross over? It's there, waiting for you when your time comes. Think about it.

"As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place." (Proverbs 25:8)

"...The law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness..." (Romans 2:15)

[16] Transition - Crossing over into a new land

A Word to Ponder from the book, "Words to Ponder" by Sandy Warner

Crossing Over

You stand before the river Jordan, wringing your hands in indecision. Your heart knows the risk, it feels the unseen dangers. Yet I AM on the other side beckoning you to come. Come. Come. Here My voice like the wooing of the dove, calling you to follow Me into a land of new beginnings.

In order to cross over, you must let go of all that is precious to your heart. Every last thing, person, dream and goal on earth. You must leave it all behind and pray only that of eternal value follow you over to the other side. Be willing to give it all up if need be to follow Me.

I AM there on the other side, willing, wishing, wanting you to come. But the decision remains yours. No one can make this decision for you. It is My gift of choice to you, for I only want those who will serve Me in love. I do not want obedient robot-like slaves, but dedicated, willing, desirous hearts to be one with Mine. Will you partner with Me in what I long for on this earth? Will you be a part of that which I have prepared and ready to usher in on earth? There is a place for you if you want to join Me.

Crossing over the river Jordan is 100% commitment. Total dedication. Total surrender to the One Who love and cherishes you, but also has a last day plan to defeat all the works of the devil. There will be sacrifices to be made. I would not ask My children for such without their own desire to be so. Understand this is totally your choice. And no condemnation will upon you either way. None whatsoever. You will always belong to Me. I treasure you exactly as you are.

"Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ." (1 Peter 2:5)

RHEMA 3/03/07 MYSTERIES IN HEARING

PRAYER: Lord I would like to understand more about Your still small voice when I hear words like "You, I, etc" or people. It is like speaking in 3rd person, and not directly from You to me, but somehow about others. Can you please explain? The only thing You have told me before is that it is Your Word speaking to me and discerning the thoughts and intents of the heart:

> Heb 4:12-13 NKJV
> For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

DREAM: I had this green plant that was connected to my outer lip somehow and I pulled it off my lip and then noticed my whole head and shoulders were canopied with green leaves from this plant. I saw the root system of the plant, etc. When I pulled it out and off my lip, I saw a tiny root like thread stringing from it to my ear and it went down into my ear. I was not grossed out by it by quite puzzled as to what it meant, especially the thread like root that went into my ear.

PIX: I saw my son sitting in the corner of the kitchen counter in the dark and he was puzzled about how I heard the Lord in His still small voice.

PIX: I saw my 2004 rhema book on the kitchen counter sitting next to the fridge.

[Of all the years I have heard the Lord, 2004 was by far the most stretching I had ever experienced in hearing His still small voice.]

HEARD: It's not all that bad.

[Lord who IS it when I heard "I"?]

HEARD: It's YOU. It's what you say to Me in tongues. Interpretation.

CLOCK TIME: 12:38 {to pour out as a fruitful vine; a diadem or crown}

OT:1238
OT:1238 baqaq (baw-kah'); a primitive root; to pour out, i.e. to empty, figuratively, to depopulate; by analogy, to spread out (as a fruitful vine):
KJV - (make) empty (out), fail, utterly, make void.

NT:1236
NT:1238 diadema (dee-ad'-ay-mah); from a compound of NT:1223 and NT:1210; a "diadem" (as bound about the head):
KJV - crown. Compare NT:4735.

1 Cor 14:13-19 NKJV
Therefore let him who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret. For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful. What is the conclusion then? I will pray with the spirit , and I will also pray with the understanding. I will sing with the spirit , and I will also sing with the understanding. Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how will he who occupies the place of the uninformed say "Amen" at your giving of thanks, since he does not understand what you say? For you indeed give thanks well, but the other is not edified. I thank my God I speak with tongues more than you all; yet in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I may teach others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

MY
NT:3450
NT:3450 mou (moo); the simpler form of NT:1700; of me:
KJV - I, me, mine (own), my.

SPIRIT
NT:4151
NT:4151 pneuma (pnyoo'-mah); from NT:4154; a current of air, i.e. breath (blast) or a breeze; by analogy or figuratively, a spirit, i.e. (human) the rational soul, (by implication) vital principle, mental disposition, etc., or (superhuman) an angel, demon, or (divine) God, Christ's spirit, the Holy Spirit:
KJV - ghost, life, spirit (-ual, -ually), mind. Compare NT:5590.

1 Cor 14:22-25
Therefore tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe but to unbelievers; but prophesying is not for unbelievers but for those who believe. Therefore if the whole church comes together in one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those who are uninformed or unbelievers, will they not say that you are out of your mind? But if all prophesy, and an unbeliever or an uninformed person comes in, he is convinced by all, he is convicted by all. And thus the secrets of his heart are revealed; and so, falling down on his face, he will worship God and report that God is truly among you.

[WOW. So to try this out, I spoke a sentence in tongues]

HEARD: I am trying and I need help understanding this process.

CONFIRMATION: JUST LOOKED UP CLOCK TIME WHEN I HEARD THE ABOVE SENTENCE

CLOCK TIME: 12:43 {To seek out; a distinction}

> OT:1243
> OT:1243 baqqarah (bak-kaw-raw'); intensive from OT:1239; a looking after: - seek out.
> NT:1243
> NT:1243 diairesis (dee-ah'-ee-res-is); from NT:1244; a distinction or (concretely) variety:
> KJV - difference, diversity.

EXPERIENCE VISION: As I was standing at the kitchen counter, an angel touched me very gently on the back of my left shoulder in a goodbye gesture as to say he was leaving me now and I would be fine sorting these things out in my rhema.

WORD TO PONDER: WHEN YOU HEAR MY VOICE IN THIRD PERSON SPEECH 3/03/07

As you grow up into maturity of hearing My voice, you will encounter new and stretching Words. Sometimes when you hear My still small voice, you may hear heaven talking about you with you being a third party just listening in to what is spoken about you. Sometimes when you hear, you will hear conversations that are not heaven talking about you, but are interpretations of your tongues, the mysteries that you speak to Me. Sometimes they are manifestations shining My light upon the intents and motives of men's hearts. Dear one, try not to be puzzled over who is speaking what, merely allow My Spirit to flush through and quicken how it applies to your situation. Sometimes this takes prayer, and waiting upon Me to cause the understanding to manifest in My timing. What matters is that you stay plugged into My Spirit and remain at your post and abide in Me.

Heb 4:12-13 NKJV
For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

HOW MAY I HELP YOU?

[A Revelation About the Holy Spirit]

Many times this past year I have heard the phrase, "How may I help you?" At first I wondered if there was something that I wasn't doing that needed to be done. I wondered if I needed to pray more. Then I began to hear the phrase more often and I wondered if I was hearing the angels ask me this question, because angels are sent to serve us as heirs of His kingdom.

This week I heard the simple phrase again during the night. "How may I help you?" The flash of the following scripture came to mind. It was the Holy Spirit that had been asking me that!

John 14:16-18 NKJV

And I will pray the Father, and He will give you another Helper, that He may abide with you forever -- the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees Him nor knows Him; but you know Him, for He dwells with you and will be in you. I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you.

I was reduced to tears. The powerful Lord God of the universe had humbled Himself so much, as to come in the form of the tiny, still small voice and ask a simple handmaiden a simple question. I went to bed with a heart full and no answer. I was overcome and deeply humbled. With all His power in the world, all I could think of was the humble heart of a Servant asking me this question.

AUDIBLE VOICE [2/17/04]

A few hours later, in the early hours after midnight, from the vicinity of the foot of my bed, I heard the very cheerful, audible voice of a Man who said, "Good Morning!" I could not see Him, but I knew He was the Holy Spirit. Then in His still small voice He spoke to me. Here is an excerpt of what I heard Him say:

HEARD: I AM a Person. Just like you, with feelings. This is where I belong.

VISION: I saw an identical picture of what I was literally doing. I was laying on my side, with my head on my pillow, and my hand resting upon my cheek.

HEARD: Pillow talk. Resting beside you. Where I belong. On that side too.

[I laughed out loud! I had just turned over on my other side in bed with my hand in the same exact position! How precious He is!]

HEARD: Inside of you. I wait every day. To commune.

Acts 7:49 AMP

Heaven [is] My throne, and earth the footstool for My feet. What [kind of] house can you build for Me, says the Lord, or what is the place in which I can rest?

John 14:23 AMP

Jesus answered, If a person [really] loves Me, he will keep My word [obey My teaching]; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our home (abode, special dwelling place) with him.

CONFIRMATIONS

Right after that night I received 2 emails. One lady said, "Can I help you in some way?" The very next day another wrote and said, "Is there anything I can do to help? What are your needs?" With the same beautiful and humble hearts as the Holy Spirit, this was the Voice of My Lord speaking to me. Once again I was overcome and wordless at the heart of this King Who is a Servant.

John 13:3-9 NLT

Jesus knew that the Father had given him authority over everything and that he had come from God and would return to God. So he got up from the table, took off his robe, wrapped a towel around his waist, and poured water into a basin. Then he began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel he had around him. When he came to Simon Peter, Peter said to him, "Lord, why are you going to wash my feet?" Jesus replied, "You don't understand now why I am doing it; someday you will." "No," Peter protested, "you will never wash my feet!" Jesus replied, "But if I don't wash you, you won't belong to me." Simon Peter exclaimed, "Then wash my hands and head as well, Lord, not just my feet!"

CONCLUSION

==========

{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration.}

WORD TO PONDER: COMMUNION

My love, how I long for our fellowship and communion! I so long for when you will awaken to My voice. I earnestly wait for our quiet times when all distractions are set aside. I love to bring you good cheer and speak My Words to comfort you and put strength into your being.

Your first training ground to hear My voice has been at night time when the distractions of the day are forgotten. I live within you and also along side of you as you toss and turn in your bed. PEACE. I AM there, dear one! I AM making my resting place within you and along side of you. A day is fast approaching when you will be at such rest in Me that you will be able to hear My still small voice even during the busiest of days. All shall grow out of our intimate times of communion.

John 16:7-15 NKJ

"Nevertheless I tell you the truth. It is to your advantage that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but if I depart, I will send Him to you. And when He has come, He will convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: of sin, because they do not believe in Me; of righteousness, because I go to My Father and you see Me no more; of judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged. I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come. He will glorify Me, for He will take of what is Mine and declare it to you. All things that the Father has are Mine. Therefore I said that He will take of Mine and declare it to you.

DREAM ABOUT SPOCK

RHEMA 6/15/02 STONY HEARTS TO FLESH
When we read scriptures, we often read it through our own mindsets and perspectives. So recently I asked the Lord to share with me what He meant when He said He would take the heart of stone out of our flesh and give us a heart of flesh. “I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will take the heart of stone out of your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you will keep My judgments and do them.” (Ezek 36:26,27 & 11:19 & 20)

I couldn't quite get the language of taking out the stony heart of flesh but then replacing it with a heart of flesh. I was stuck on the semantics of the word flesh and it didn't make sense to me. He answered my prayer very quickly and I thought what He shared was very interesting.

DREAM ABOUT SPOCK OF STAR TREK
I had a dream where I saw some leaders of a church who were meeting and closeting themselves before the Lord to hear the Word of the Lord, and to see who had the Lord's heart and message for this time. As they came out, I heard a voice ask, “Who has the Word of the Lord? Who has the heart of the Lord?” And I looked over at a lay man in the congregation. Believe it or not, he was Spock of StarTrek. Spock stood up and led the congregation in a processional of worship and parade, by going forward to the platform, then turning around in the opposite direction. The people followed him to the platform, then turned around with him and walked in the opposite direction. As I woke from this strange dream, I heard phrases about changing the mind and humility.

WHO WAS SPOCK?
Spock was a character in the TV series StarTrek. He was half human, half vulcan. He believed that to be human was to be weak, emotional, and unpredictable. He tried to suppress all humanity within him, and instead be a vulcan which was to think, communicate and respond with a highly developed sense of being logical, unemotional, calculating, and predictable. Spock was the epitome of what physiologists call left brained. He represented the mathematical, logical view of life. However in spite of his best efforts to present a perfect model of intellectualism, he still managed to show a little humanity once in a while and he was a lovable character.

As I pondered the fact that Spock went to the podium, then turned around in the opposite direction with a procession following him, I realized that this was a parable of the word repentance. Repentance means to think differently and have a change of heart or mind, turning around in the other direction. It takes a humble heart to admit one's falling short and it takes a humble heart to turn around and change.

RELIGION FROM THE HEAD
As I was pondering the character of Spock, I remembered a “sermon” from Heidi Baker. As she was asked to speak at some conference, the Lord spoke 4 Words through her. She repeated them over and over again. “Too big. Too small. Too big. Too small. Too big. Too small.” From what I could tell, she must have been pointing to her head, then to her heart as she spoke these words. The Lord's Word is that our heads are too big, and our hearts are too small.

When we approach a relationship with the Lord from our heads, it leads to an intellectual study of the scriptures and circumstances, a calculating and logical view of Who He is and what He is saying. It leads to formulas, rigid, inflexible, predictable behavior and routine. It buries personal emotions and presents a cold, hardened front. It turns the perspective off the subjective self and capitalizes on the objective viewpoint. I have known many Spocks in my life and I am sure you have too. However I think that within every human being is a little of Spock.

RELATIONSHIP FROM THE HEART
The opposite side of the coin is a relationship with the Lord that becomes so transparent, there is nothing to hide. Instead of burying the humanity side of our nature, we allow it expression. Things like emotion comes to the surface. And with every emotion is a bundle of unpredictable warm, bubbly good stuff and also unclear, muddy yuck. Instead of analyzing everything the Lord might be saying, we respond. Instead of intellectualizing it, we do things like “perceive” and “feel” and we react with some kind of an “intuitive instinct.”

Have you ever had someone ask you in the middle of a spiritual experience, “What is the Lord saying to you, how are you feeling?” HUH???

I have had many visitations where the Lord has promised, then fulfilled the impartation of an anointing/ enduement in my life. All of them have been fulfilled differently and a surprise. The one I am thinking of right now was when a visiting evangelist came to town. I rarely if ever fall when traveling speakers come through. It always seems as though they go through the prayer line and dominoes fling all around me. But me? I am the lone tree still standing. (The priests must learn to stand and minister in His Presence.) But this particular time, the evangelist whizzed through the line, and I went flying backwards. “And what was the Lord saying to me? And how was I feeling?” You've got to be kidding!

I was a bundle of hysterical laughing, then deep heavy sobs and tears, then back to laughing so hard I could hardly contain myself with more tears to follow. I would say it must have been quite a display between emotional bliss and sludge. And my body? It was violently shaking with my heavy tennis shoes pounding the floor very loudly. It was like currents of supernatural electricity surging through all my cells. And how was I feeling? It must have been something like ecstasy, but I was too busy responding to think about it. For three days every time I heard the Word of the Lord, I shook. It was like every cell in my body was being re-tuned to His sync. I would lay in bed at night and hear Him say even one Word in His still small voice, and my body would shake so strong that the whole bed vibrated. And then the laughter and the tears. Another Word, more shaking. I loved it!! Understand it? Not a bit. Embarrassing? When it feels that good, you don't care.

It has been several years now since that experience and I remember it fondly. Now I am back to being the lone tree while the dominoes fly, but I am changed from the inside out. There is a deep, residing ability to sense the Holy Spirit's Presence. It is like He strikes His tuning fork, and I line up and resound with the same pitch. Explain it? Understand it? No, but I sense Him, feel Him, and my heart responds. It has the ability to go with the flow and move where it will… just like His wind.

HARD BRICK OF CHEESE, OR SOFT FRESH CHEESE

I was still pondering the Spock dream and comparing it with repenting of an intellectual religion, a fellow shared 2 Words at church. He shared a “verse” out of The Message bible in I Thess 4. “…keep on doing what we told you to do to please God, not in a dogged religious plod, but in a living spirited dance.” The Words religious and dance were quickened to me and I came home and tried to find the verse in every translation I could think of. Finally I called him and he told me it came from the Message. I thought that kind of funny, because the only part that was quickened to me of the “verse” (The Message Bible has no verses) was the part that was the editorialized paraphrase that had nothing to do with the original Greek. I thought, that certainly is a humorous parable of religion vs life.

Then he explained that he had seen a picture vision at church of a little bit of cheese, some oil, and the glass dome that covers the cheese to keep it fresh. He felt it had something to do with keeping us fresh. That had my attention. That morning I had done a study on the word stony and flesh, while looking up the scripture, “I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will take the heart of stone out of your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you will keep My judgments and do them.” (Ezek 36:26,27 & 11:19 & 20)

The word stony means “to build” as like a mason. Masons build with hardened bricks, usually made out of hardened clay. The word flesh means “flesh” as from its “freshness” or even “nakedness” of body. Without the sealing of His Holy Spirit, we can become exposed like old cheese, and become hardened to life. The layers keep piling on so as to protect the hearts from yet another of life's disappointments. But when He places His anointing upon us, it seals us and keeps the “cheese” of our hearts, soft and pliable and fresh for use.

RECIPES FOR HEARTS OF FLESH

There are many ways the Lord takes our hearts of stone away, and replaces them with soft, tender hearts of flesh. As mentioned above, the anointing of His Presence is one way.

Another way is through our sufferings. Tribulations, persecutions and afflictions all take their toll upon the hard places as we lean upon Him. Somewhere in the mystery of this process, the heart becomes tender and all the stony places break off in the fiery furnace.

> Rom 8:35-39 NLT
> Can anything ever separate us from Christ's love? Does it mean he no longer loves us if we have trouble or calamity, or are persecuted, or are hungry or cold or in danger or threatened with death? (Even the Scriptures say, "For your sake we are killed every day; we are being slaughtered like sheep.") No, despite all these things, overwhelming victory is ours through Christ, who loved us. And I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from his love. Death can't, and life can't. The angels can't, and the demons can't. Our fears for today, our worries about tomorrow, and even the powers of hell can't keep God's love away. Whether we are high above the sky or in the deepest ocean, nothing in all creation will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord.

God's discipline is also another way He removes our hearts of stone. He knocks, and we resist, hoping that if we wait long enough, He will change His mind. He knocks again and we resist more. For some, it is years of layered resistance towards heeding His Word. And so the spankings come. The prayer lines grow but the pain remains. Finally what was perceived as evil opposition, is finally relented and the word “chastisement” comes into focus. Yes, He does chastise those He loves. Sometimes He runs out of time, and He loves us so much that He does not want us to miss out on the joys that are soon coming… and so He brings us to that painful place where we can no longer close the door and resist His voice.

> Ps 119:67 NLT
> I used to wander off until you disciplined me; but now I closely follow your word.

And it does hurt and the tears do flow. Every tear becomes a watering pool to soften the heart. Adam was made of dust. Through the years, he became hardened clay. Our tears soften the bricks and somehow the stony heart melts and it is replaced with the heart of flesh.

SUMMARY

Our relationships with the Lord are more complex than the pendulums of pursuing Him with our minds versus pursuing Him with our emotions. Jesus told us, “…love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your mind, and all your strength." (Mark 12:30 NLT) And so we pursue Him with all of our beings. May He continue His good work among us and may we not resist His voice when He calls.

HEARING THE HEART OF ALL LIVING THINGS

RHEMA 3/27/01 ABBA HEARS THE HEART OF ALL LIVING THINGS

HEARD: Missionary. God loves me. Face to face. Witnesses to the King. Of what they have seen and heard. Ordained. Life line. Pour out Your zealousness and Your mercy.

> [Lord will You please help me understand how I hear. I get so mixed up with all the pronouns of Who is speaking to me?]

HEARD: It's YOU. I never knew that before. Abba Daddy. He loves her with an everlasting love. That's a long time. Hearing the heart of all living things. A very rare gift.

INTERP: As we are plugged into the Father through the Holy Spirit, we will hear what

He hears, to whatever degree He chooses to make manifest in His light.

Heb 4:12-13 NKJV
For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. 13 And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

1 Cor 4:4-5 NKJV
Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the counsels of the hearts.

Jer 17:10 NLT
But I know! I, the LORD, search all hearts and examine secret motives.

1 Cor 4:5 NLT
When the Lord comes, he will bring our deepest secrets to light and will reveal our private motives.

1 Chron 28:9 NKJV
for the LORD searches all hearts and understands all the intent of the thoughts.

2 Chron 6:30 NKJV
then hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and forgive, and give to everyone according to all his ways, whose heart You know (for You alone know the hearts of the sons of men),

Ps 44:21 NKJV
Would not God search this out? For He knows the secrets of the heart.

Rev 2:23 NKJV
I am He who searches the minds and hearts. And I will give to each one of you according to your works.

RHEMA 2/1/00 HEARING THE INTENT AND MOTIVES

DREAM: HEARING THE HEART OF ALL LIVING THINGS
I was considering a trip to rescue someone. I had a very rare gift in which I could read or hear the hearts of all living things. I met someone else who had a similar gift, although not identical. I was so blessed to know that someone else heard the Lord in a similar manner.

As I was explaining to some accuser about this gift, they said, “Well if that is the Lord, then do this with the Word.” The Words were on the wall and they did something with them that made them like sticky glue. I said, “No, you need to listen very carefully. I chose my words very carefully. I said I can hear the HEARTS of all living things.” I explained that the whole earth was the Lord's. This was true whether or not it was under demonic influence or not. Therefore, I could hear the hearts of all living things, including good and bad. It was a very rare gift.

NOTE: This gifting is not selective where I can turn it on and off at will. It occurs when the Lord wants to bring something to my ears and only then. For years I struggled with pronouns being juggled and struggling with who the speaker is or whom it is speaking of. I finally understood that most of the time when I hear it is corporately. Many times "she" means His bride. And "he" means the chosen sons, etc.]

The emphasis was on the word HEART. That means that when I hear it is the heart, motive, desires, etc and not the actual words of a person. That gifting is kind of like the interpretation of tongues, not necessary word for word, but the intent of the message. Although I have occasionally heard specific words too and it is prophetic to do so.

> 2 Kings 6:12 NKJV
> And one of his servants said, "None, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom ."
> 1 Cor 14:24-25 NKJV
> But if all prophesy, and an unbeliever or an uninformed person comes in, he is convinced by all, he is convicted by all. 25 And thus the secrets of his heart are revealed; and so, falling down on his face, he will worship God and report that God is truly among you.
> Jer 23:23-24 NKJV
> "Am I a God near at hand," says the LORD, "And not a God afar off? Can anyone hide himself in secret places, So I shall not see him?" says the LORD; "Do I not fill heaven and earth?" says the LORD.
> Dan 2:22 NKJV
> He reveals deep and secret things; He knows what is in the darkness, And light dwells with Him.
> Dan 2:28-30 NKJV
> But there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and He has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what will be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head upon your bed, were these: 29 As for you, O king, thoughts came to your mind while on your bed, about what would come to pass after this; and He who reveals secrets has made known to you what will be. 30 But as for me, this secret has not been revealed to me because I have more wisdom than anyone living, but for our sakes who make known the interpretation to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your heart.
> Dan 2:47 NKJV
> The king answered Daniel, and said, "Truly your God is the God of gods, the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, since you could reveal this secret."
> Dan 4:9 NKJV

"Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, because I know that the Spirit of the Holy God is in you, and no secret troubles you, explain to me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation.

Eph 5:11-13 NKJV
And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather expose them. 12 For it is shameful even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret. 13 But all things that are exposed are made manifest by the light, for whatever makes manifest is light.

MANY VOICES 8/13/05
Tonight while on IM (instant message) I chose the audibles called: "Echo, echo, is anybody there?" A couple hours later I turned on a tape of Howard Morgan:

"There are voices all over. Voices of the world, voices of counterfeit, voices of the demons, voices in the body of Christ. And many of you are here tonight wanting to hear what God is saying to you and you are hearing echoes.

And I tell you that if you put yourself where the Holy Spirit wants you to be - the amplifications of those echoes will reside and resonate inside of you. So that you will know what the Holy Spirit is saying uniquely and specifically to you. Because there is inside your spirit a receptor to the echo of God as He is speaking broadly to the body of Christ."

RHEMA 3/13/07 THANK YOU FOR LISTENING

[Holy Spirit good morning.]
HEARD; Good morning friend.

HEARD; First you need to check with the radio. I dont know about you, but I LIKE the radio.

COMMENTS: For years I wrestled with the Lord in how I hear in different pronouns. He calls my hearing Him being tuned to His frequency like a radio.

Many times it overlaps as a 3-way mirror where it represents my heart, His family's heart and the Lords heart at once. It is a true blend of oneness. I know that I am on the forefront of this and it is all related to becoming one in Him. In heaven people hear one another's hearts. It is not necessarily thoughts or speech, but hearts. This will be common place in the millennium when we will be one with Him and one another. It truly is a 3 way mirror as I read so much of how I have heard for so many years.

I know this will eventually overlap into hearing creation. Bobby Conner has mentioned several times about hearing the bird talk to him in His still small voice, when he was sitting on his deck. It was fully backed up with what the bird did each time the bird spoke. And I have a lot of rhema about animals talking to me in dreams and visions. Bob Jones says that in heaven everything has a voice and a song. Even the flowers and rocks.

Luke 19:40 NKJV
But He answered and said to them, "I tell you that if these should keep silent, the stones would immediately cry out."

Rom 8:22-23 NKJV
For we know that the whole creation groans and labors with birth pangs together until now. Not only that, but we also who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for the adoption, the redemption of our body.

RHEMA 7/12/07 PHONE OPERATOR

DREAM: I had a brand new job working for a company called Cat. I am a phone operator and dont know how to use the switch board yet. I saw a huge double loaded truck pull around the building and getting ready to dump gravel or something for building. There was a man who was showing me how to type in this key pad to connect all the voices I was hearing on the switchboard, and connect them properly. He told me I would be learning the process in no time at all and showed me with his hand how fast I would be typing on this pad, making the connections. His hand was going really fast on the keys. I knew he was an angel.

Then someone sent me to Steindecker's desk to get some white feathers that were just recently purchased.

COMMENTS: In my dark speech vocabulary Cat sometimes means many tongues, which is a riddled word for speaking mysteries and many languages. Cats stay clean by licking themselves. We wash ourselves when we speak in tongues and let His Spirit flush out our wells and prime our pipes with His living water.

At other times Cat to me represents a nurturing mother as I have had a lot of fun rhema about the cat we adopted who had kittens in our barn. She was a coddling mother and nursed them 3 months, instead of weeks. She taught them how to hunt for food and stay safe.

Cats are represent small lions and Jesus is the Lion of Judah.

Stein is German for stone. Maybe all of the rocks in the truck were the stumbling stones I had picked up and overcome in the words I heard for years and the Lord was going to use them to build. I need some white feathers (angelic help) to give me the connections for what I hear. I understand most of it, and receive daily confirmations to the point my faith is solid. But there is still much I dont understand and want to learn. Stones also represent us, His living stones.

1 Peter 2:4-8 NKJV
Coming to Him as to a living stone , rejected indeed by men, but chosen by God and precious, 5 you also, as living stones, are being built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. 6 Therefore it is also contained in the Scripture,

"Behold, I lay in Zion a chief cornerstone, elect, precious, And he who believes on Him will by no means be put to shame." 7 Therefore, to you who believe, He is precious; but to those who are disobedient, "The stone which the builders rejected Has become the chief cornerstone," 8 and "A stone of stumbling And a rock of offense." They stumble, being disobedient to the word, to which they also were appointed.

READER QUESTION
I received the following question and I am sure others continue to wonder also.
Sandy,

I love these. They teach me so much. Would you mind telling me what you mean when you say: Heard:?????

Did someone say it? or did you hear this in the Spirit?

Please explain as I want to learn all I can about how to hear and understand what the Lord is saying.

Thank you,
{Name}

SMILE, that is not an usual question!

It is the Lord's still small voice. He hears people's hearts, motives, souls, spirits, thoughts, angels, and all living things. He is ONE with who He has created. The closer we come into Oneness with Him, the more we will hear the snip-its of what He hears and thinks about what He hears.

Heb 4:12-13 NKJV
For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. 13 And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

RHEMA 3/03/07 HEARING HIS STILL SMALL VOICE

PRAYER: Lord I would like to understand more about Your still small voice when I hear words like “You, I, etc” or people. It is like speaking in 3rd person, and not directly from You to me, but somehow about others. Can you please explain? The only thing You have told me before is that it is Your Word speaking to me and discerning the thoughts and intents of the heart:

Heb 4:12-13 NKJV
For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

DREAM: I had this green plant that was connected to my outer lip somehow and I pulled it off my lip and then noticed my whole head and shoulders were canopied with green leaves from this plant. I saw the root system of the plant, etc. When I pulled it out and off my lip, I saw a tiny root like thread stringing from it to my ear and it went down into my ear. I was not grossed out by it by quite puzzled as to what it meant, especially the thread like root that went into my ear.

PIX: I saw my son sitting in the corner of the kitchen counter and he was puzzled about how I heard the Lord in His still small voice.

PIX: I saw my 2004 rhema book on the kitchen counter sitting next to the fridge.

[Of all the years I have heard the Lord, 2004 was by far the most stretching I had ever experienced in hearing His still small voice.]

HEARD: It's not all that bad.

[Lord who IS it when I heard “I”?]

HEARD: It's YOU. It's what you say to Me in tongues. Interpretation.

CLOCK TIME: 12:38 {to pour out as a fruitful vine; a diadem or crown}

OT:1238
OT:1238 baqaq (baw-kah'); a primitive root; to pour out, i.e. to empty, figuratively, to depopulate; by analogy, to spread out (as a fruitful vine):
KJV - (make) empty (out), fail, utterly, make void.

NT:1236
NT:1238 diadema (dee-ad'-ay-mah); from a compound of NT:1223 and NT:1210; a "diadem" (as bound about the head):
KJV - crown. Compare NT:4735.

1 Cor 14:13-19 NKJV
Therefore let him who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret. 14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful. 15 What is the conclusion then? I will pray with the spirit , and I will also pray with the understanding. I will sing with the spirit , and I will also sing with the understanding. 16 Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how will he who occupies the place of the uninformed say "Amen" at your giving of thanks, since he does not understand what you say? 17 For you indeed give thanks well, but the other is not edified. 18 I thank my God I speak with tongues more than you all; 19 yet in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I may teach others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

MY
NT:3450
NT:3450 mou (moo); the simpler form of NT:1700; of me:
KJV - I, me, mine (own), my.

SPIRIT
NT:4151
NT:4151 pneuma (pnyoo'-mah); from NT:4154; a current of air, i.e. breath (blast) or a breeze; by analogy or figuratively, a spirit, i.e. (human) the rational soul, (by implication) vital principle, mental disposition, etc., or (superhuman) an angel, demon, or (divine) God, Christ's spirit, the Holy Spirit:
KJV - ghost, life, spirit (-ual, -ually), mind. Compare NT:5590.

1 Cor 14:22-25
Therefore tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe but to unbelievers; but prophesying is not for unbelievers but for those who believe. 23 Therefore if the whole church comes together in one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those who are uninformed or unbelievers, will they not say that you are out of your mind? 24 But if all prophesy, and an unbeliever or an uninformed person comes in, he is convinced by all, he is convicted by all. 25 And thus the secrets of his heart are revealed; and so, falling down on his face, he will worship God and report that God is truly among you.

[WOW. So to try this out, I spoke a sentence in tongues]

HEARD: I am trying and I need help understanding this process.

CONFIRMATION: JUST LOOKED UP CLOCK TIME WHEN I HEARD THE ABOVE SENTENCE

CLOCK TIME: 12:43 {To seek out; a distinction}

OT:1243
OT:1243 baqqarah (bak-kaw-raw'); intensive from OT:1239; a looking after:
-seek out.

NT:1243
NT:1243 diairesis (dee-ah'-ee-res-is); from NT:1244; a distinction or (concretely) variety:
KJV - difference, diversity.

EXPERIENCE VISION: As I was standing at the kitchen counter, an angel touched me very gently on the back of my left shoulder in a goodbye gesture as to say he was leaving me now and I would be fine sorting these things out in my rhema.

PIX: I saw a pile of laundry. They were all wet and had been washed. I was separating the shocking pink clothes from the whites. The pinks were my clothes. I did not see the whites and dont know whose they were, I only knew that was what I was separating the pinks out of.

HEARD: Shocking. Approval.

QUICKENED MEMORY: I had prayed recently that the Lord would grant me a brand new gift, something I had never known before.

UPDATE CONFIRMATION 3/13/07: I had just glanced at this above entry and was pondering that some of the words I hear are interpretation of tongues, then as I got up, I glanced at my rhema books on the shelf. My eye glanced at the purple one and I reach out and touched it. There are 9 books there, I could have chosen any one, but my eye glanced at the purple one, then noticed it was the 2004 rhema book. Later when I returned, I noticed that book was the same one I saw in the vision above. I had not even remembered I saw this vision when I was pondering it. It was very special to me because I had asked for confirmation of this new revelation.

WORD TO PONDER: WHEN YOU HEAR MY VOICE IN THIRD PERSON SPEECH 3/03/07

As you grow up into maturity of hearing My voice, you will encounter new and stretching Words. Sometimes when you hear My still small voice, you may hear heaven talking about you with you being a third party just listening in to what is spoken about you. Sometimes when you hear, you will hear conversations that are not heaven talking about you, but are interpretations of your tongues, the mysteries that you speak to Me. Sometimes they are manifestations shining My light upon the intents and motives of men's hearts. Dear one, try not to be puzzled over who is speaking what, merely allow My Spirit to flush through and quicken how it applies to your situation. Sometimes this takes prayer, and waiting upon Me to cause the understanding to manifest in My timing. What matters is that you stay plugged into My Spirit and remain at your post and abide in Me.

Heb 4:12-13 NKJV
For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

RHEMA 9/17/00 GOD TALKING!

GOD TALKS ANY WAY HE WANTS: This was really precious to me. This morning at prayer meeting I asked pastor if he had seen any pictures. He often sees them and then doesn't share because he gets worried they may not be the Lord since he doesn't understand them. The Lord so far has always given me a clear gift to interpret them for the body.

Pastor's wife heard the Lord say, “What leg?” She felt she was supposed to ask me that question. It hit me between the eyes as I put the pieces together.

The first piece: I heard the Lord today during a nap. He said, "Language and boxes." Lately I have been wrestling with the Lord about how I hear Him. I hear the strangest things and I can piece them together, but sometimes they apply to several people all at once, and each mean something different. I know that sounds OK, but the phrases are sometimes really strange until you think them through. I have just wanted to hear Him in normal every day language and have it be a nice conversation... but it is in dark speech and sometimes I wonder if it is the Lord until after it is confirmed.

Bobby Conner said tonight that we put God in a box and try to make Him talk like we want Him to!!!! God told him, “I CAN TALK ANY WAY I WANT TO.” I was blown away when he said that. Then Bobby said, we are the clay, He is the Potter. I get that scripture all the time about arguing with the potter and have been wondering what I have been arguing about!!!

So God, in His hilarious and strange way, says to Pastor's wife, "What leg??????" That is PERFECT language for how He talks to me!!!! The answer is. NO LEG. I do not have a leg to stand on in how He chooses to speak to me.

WORD TO PONDER: RIDDLES SOON TO BECOME CLEAR
For years, I have heard your prayers and your longings for a deeper walk with Me. I know you have wanted to know My heart and to hear Me more clearly. It has been a long road and we have traveled a great distance together. I have spoken to you in parable form, for it was all that you could bear.

It was exactly the same when I shared My secrets with the disciples. At times I told them plainly, and yet they still were unable to hear the truth until after My Words came to pass. After the fulfillment, they were able to look back as My Spirit taught them with light and clarity all that I had spoken to them. Nothing was lost, and neither shall My Word be lost in your life.

There are many reasons why I have spoken in a strange language of bits and pieces, with dreams and even Words needing interpretation. Knowledge has a power all its own, and can lead to independence. Every part of a relationship with Me needs your utter dependence upon Me, to not only hear My Word, but to also understand it, then apply it.

I promise that I shall soon come and confirm that you have been hearing Me, and you will know that you have followed My pathway and listened as I have walked beside you. At that time, I will begin to open My Words plainly to you, and you shall have your heart's desire, which is clearer revelation and face to face intimacy. Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but when the desire comes, it is a tree of life.

“Jesus always used stories and illustrations like these when speaking to the crowds. In fact, he never spoke to them without using such parables. This fulfilled the prophecy that said, "I will speak to you in parables. I will explain mysteries hidden since the creation of the world." (Matt 13:34-35 NLT) went when you brush your teeth with Sandy mint?"

So I asked, "What exactly IS Sandy mint?"

He replied, "I wonder what Sandy meant?"

PILLOW TALK: INTIMACY WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT 10/08/10

PRECIOUS PARABLE: Last night in his SOS meeting, Paul Keith said that we can have these awesome revelations and experiences but the most intimate one is listening to His still small voice where we lay our heads upon the Lord's breast. I was totally amazed because when Paul Keith was saying this, I had my lap top literally touching my ear to be able to hear what Paul Keith was saying!

I was in the kitchen where the water distiller was making too much noise and I had wanted a cup of tea but didn't want to miss what Paul Keith was saying. So I was holding my lap top to my ear!

1 Kings 19:11-13 NKJV
Then He said, "Go out, and stand on the mountain before the Lord." And behold, the Lord passed by, and a great and strong wind tore into the mountains and broke the rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a still small voice*. So it was, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood* in the entrance of the cave*.*

opened and he heard a huge water drop inside a cavern… fall into a pool of water.

SANDY RHEMA 2/17/04 AUDIBLE HOLY SPIRIT

HEARD: How may I help you?

> John 14:16-18 NKJV
> And I will pray the Father, and He will give you another Helper, that He may abide with you forever -- the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees Him nor knows Him; but you know Him, for He dwells with you and will be in you. I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you.

AUDIBLE HEARD: I heard a literal man's voice that said, "Good Morning!" This of course startled me but I knew it was the Holy Spirit waiting to talk to me.

CT: *1:40 AM {*lord of rising; to make a choice}

HEARD: Sleepy head. My friend. Full grown adult, I assure you. The Holy Spirit wants to show you how to live...

HEARD: My baby, how I love her. My friend. Like that, very much. My assignment. Watch...

...Campers walk with God. What a joy to have you here.

PIX: I saw someone knocking 4 times on a glass door.

HEARD: I AM a Person. Just like you, with feelings. This is where I belong.

PIX: I saw an identical picture of what I was literally doing with my hand. I was laying my head on my pillow, with my hand resting upon my cheek.

HEARD: Pillow talk. Resting beside you. A little notebook...

HEARD: Where I belong. On that side too.
[I just turned over on my other side with my hand in the same position and when I heard that, I laughed out loud in the middle of the night.]

HEARD: Inside of you. A perfect match. What a catch. Grin. All three, My family. Me. Both the same.

PIX: I saw books that were identical on 2 separate shelves. I saw a pair of hands reaching for each book and taking them out at the exact same time...

HEARD: I wait every day. To commune...

HEARD: You can see Him, can't you? With the windows of your heart.

HEARD: My bride, equip. Tell them..
HEARD: You are the message on My heart. Come Holy Spirit. Tender one. My love just got birthed. My bride. Doesn't know a thing about herself. Ruler. Voice. Double blessing. It's an honor. Fellowship. What's happening? See it from My point. Married. I like that. Pretty soon you won't be able to tell a difference between us. One. No more notes. Only when I tell you.

PRAYER: Oh Lord we LONG to hear You every day - day in and day out, day up and day down. Day and night, morning, noon and night! Come Holy Spirit, You are very welcome in our lives. Open our ears and commune with us! Bring us Your comfort and good tidings. Bring us Your affection and whispered secrets! Precious and most Beloved Holy Spirit, may our lives so live to please You that we never quench You, never grieve You, never strive with You and never resist You. Choose us oh Lord to be Your bride and may our One-ness forever change us and change the world, in Jesus Name.

John 10:3-5 NKJV

CROSSING OVER INTO HIS POWER

7/14/99

Hi Loved Ones,

In my last post about graduation, I shared several pieces of a "Graduation" puzzle, including my vision from the 80's of seeing graduates from the tallest to the shortest line up on a field. I also shared, "As I pondered the idea of graduating, I have come to understand this is no small graduation. Three generations have been circling the wilderness for 40 years and those who are left of Generation X, the Baby Boomers, and their parents, are preparing to cross over and possess their promises." I received many wonderful responses to this post. However, one in particular was so encouraging I felt the Lord wanted this testimony to be shared with us all. I will share my insights after you read this from Bud Peterson, who is (almost) 70 years old. :)

7/1/99

Dear Sandy,

Thank you for sharing your puzzle pieces. I was truly gripped when I read this piece!

I am almost seventy years of age, and am now experiencing many things here and now that the Lord shared with me in dreams and visions 20 to 25 years ago. I have been wanting to graduate for a long, long time; and spiritual Canaan looks better than I could have ever imagined.

Over the past two months I have had an extended series of sequential experiences in fellowship with the Lord before His throne. During one of the more recent ones, the Lord asked me to stand up, then spoke that I had "Graduated." The experience occurred during the worship time at an area conference, during the evening session on May 28, 1999. I came into the Presence of the Lord Who was sitting on a throne in 'The Wheel in a Wheel.' He stepped down and touched the fingers of my right hand, which was raised in worship, with His raised left hand. Then, with His right hand, He spun me like a top. When I stopped spinning I faced one way, and He said He could send me that way. He spun me around again and I stopped, facing another way. He said He could also send me that way and I would go. He spun me once again and I faced a third way. He said He could send me wherever He wanted to, and that I would go that way.

Then He sat me down like a student in a classroom and said, "Rest, rest, rest." He then waited, once again sitting on His throne. Suddenly He said, "Come up here." I came, and in a swift ceremony with robes and all, He said that I had "Graduated." Then I sat down and rested again.

Again He called me up and I knew I was to hold out my empty hands. He stood and placed a large leather purse that was tied shut with a leather thong, into my hands and sat back down. As I studied the appearance of the gift, the thong seemed to untie itself, and before my eyes the bag began to open. Up and out of the purse, gold coins began to overflow into and out of my hands and onto the floor beneath. There seemed to be an endless supply of His provision flowing out of it! Again He spoke, saying "Pray it in. Speak it! All that you need supernaturally..... Then, GIVE IT AWAY!"

After that experience, a few weeks ago He asked me to come and lodge overnight at the Jordan River and prepare myself for the next day. He showed me His hands and there was blood flowing from the wounds. He fully touched the two sides of my face with them, and I had the freedom to take His wrists in my hands and slide His hands up onto my head. The blood then flowed down over my head and shoulders; then He stepped back. I was able to cross my arms in front of my chest and rub the blood over my shoulders and onto my back, then down my chest (like I would lather my body with soap in the shower) until I felt as though I was covered in His blood, and I had never felt so good and clean in my whole life. Then He took me across and told me to rest!

[I have been instructed in this experience - one of a sequence of almost a dozen - to rest, over and over again. I have sensed that the rest I am in is directly related to my being more like Him, so that I can live a more supernatural life, and as Jesus did, only work where the Father is working.]

The next day He warned me to stand back because He was going up before me. Then He came and escorted me across the Jordan on dry ground, giving me a stone out of the midst of it. As I stepped onto the bank He surrounded me with a pillar of blue that extended about one foot beyond me wherever I stepped in Canaan. He spoke that I was to sit down and rest, because He was bringing others across.

I then looked at the stone and was joyfully surprised by what was written on the other side of it. I have met about seventeen other people that have had some type of crossing experience since then, and one other mentioned a stone as well!

Sandy, this is a NEW DAY for me, and I am experiencing a NEW LIFE in my daily walk with Him. I never dreamed that I could relate to Him in such a fashion and still be alive in the flesh. The Lord has also accompanied these experiences with some physical healings in my body, so that I feel physically younger than I have for many years. There have been some special times of anointing while ministering to people after meetings, often involving strong manifestations on their part, including many opportunities to give away to them something the Lord is offering. I have felt the Lord was clearly showing me that the gold coins represents His wisdom, and that it is abundantly available in His presence to meet any need. There is abundance of wisdom for prayer, for healing, for discernment, anything according to His word to us.

I hope that some of what I have shared contains a piece or two of the puzzle too! Many blessings on you and your household.

Love, Bud Peterson

COMMENTS FROM SANDY: There were three things that really encouraged me as I read Bud's experiences. Foremost, is that the Lord is already graduating people and bringing them across the river Jordan - that which we have been prophesying about for so long! (I wrote about crossing over in the mid 80's.) It's available NOW. Now is the time to press into the Lord like never before. Remember, "Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you." (James 4:8)

Secondly, I REALLY liked that gold coin pouch. I considered this leather pouch tied with a leather thong as representing a graduation gift, but also it reminded me of something like a graduation scroll or certificate (tied with a cord) that we might receive in an earthly graduation. Inside the scroll says "You passed the course and this is your certification proving it."

On 6/9/95 I had a dream where our car had been flying (like a plane) and when we landed safely on the ground I was astonished looking around. I saw all this gold on the ground everywhere. There were globs of it, bricks of it, gold coins, etc. That night the Lord told me that the gold was a verification. Now connecting this piece with Bud's, I see the gold says, "You passed the course and this is your certification proving it."

Another funny "Word" from the Lord happened a couple of years ago when I was walking at the mall. I became very tired, so I sat on a bench that happened to have a TV screen facing me. There was some kind of ad where I saw a rope dangling near the top of a lady's head. She looked up, and pulled the rope. Now at the exact second she pulled the rope, a coin operated children's train right next to me blew a loud whistle! And again at the exact second the whistle stopped, the gal on TV finished tugging the rope and a bucket full of gold coins from the sky fell on top of her head. (I love it when the Lord talks to me like that!)

On 10/18/89 Grandma Anna heard His still small voice say: "Where's the money? You'll see. Down by the riverside. Just. Waiting. It's in your path. You'll pick it up. Marching. An army. …There's the money. Gold. Bright gold. Refined in the fire. Comes with eye salve. You bought it. The money. That's the rub. How will I handle it? Weakness. Lots of weakness. I'll provide muscle. Big ones. Poppin' ones. Ear poppin' ones. It's coming. Standing in line. One by one, by one. Silver dollars. Now bright gold."

Anna also heard His still small voice say on 10/15/89: "You are precious. A vineyard of red wine. I the Lord do keep it. Where's the money? In you. Look inside and see. Dazzled. All white. Married to me. Private wedding. We are so close. I just whisper and you hear Me. Listen. Ears tuned to My voice. You hear Me. Hear a word behind you. Step this way. Walk. Feet know where to go. Fun. Wonderful path. You are on it… Time will come that connects dots. [Then I saw a vision of a little cartoon like figure putt putting along connecting the dots.] Where's the money? I AM. In you. Freeing the captives."

The third thing that really encouraged me in reading Bud's experience: "As I stepped onto the bank He surrounded me with a pillar of blue that extended about one foot beyond me wherever I stepped in Canaan…" This reminded me of a dream I had on 1/29/99 when I saw a traveling evangelist who was really a 7-8' tall angel. I didn't realize he was an angel until I woke up remembering how tall he was compared to all the people! This "man" was moving around the audience ministering to people and everywhere he walked, people would get radically touched by the Lord. They would get healed, or fall under the Lord's power, quake and tremble, receive a Word, etc. As I watched this "man" I could see that everywhere he walked, he was surrounded by this perimeter of power that extended 40 feet or so. So as he moved forward, going this way and that in the crowd, people would get radically touched within that 40' radius. The Lord brought the memory of his power field to mind when I read about Bud's pillar of blue that extended one foot wherever he walked in Canaan.

The blue pillar also reminded me that we have some rhema of the Lord promising to upgrade His enduing power from a 110 to a 220 voltage. In 1997 I saw a vision of blue electricity flowing like current. The Lord said that it was a foretaste of His 220 power and that He was going to plug me in. I have had foretastes of this since last year, but have been experiencing it increasingly more so since January of this year. I wrote Bud back and asked him if he had received this and he said there was a lady at his church who is "often unable to stand nearby and warns me away until someone can bring her a chair.....that may be 220 power, I'm not certain. All I know is, they are very aware of it, and I hardly sense that I have it at all. I am just trying to hear the Holy Spirit and obey His directions!"

Grandma Anna also heard the Lord talk about His 220 power on 3/20/89: "… Lots of hard work, but well paid. Going to be surprised when she gets the check. High salary plus a bonus. Need to plug her in again, but not until she rests. New plug is a 220. Coming. Will handle it all. Lots of electricity coming. Amazed. My army led by a captain. Me. Multiplied many times over. What an army! All marching as one. No thrusting. A unit. Love."

I will close with a Word to Ponder I wrote having to do with this 220 rhema the Lord gave us. For those of you who have not read any "Words to Ponder" from my site, they are prophetic devotional Words that were written based upon visions, dreams, His still small voice and other rhema. I hope this posting has blessed you with hope and encouragement to press into Him!

Lovingly,

Sandy Warner

HIGH VOLTAGE

Awake My love. Much has been put into place while you were sleeping. "What is this?" you question. The lamp, once lit by 110 power has been replaced. The intercession is completed with the cord and plug updated.

Whatever you have seen or heard in the days of old, is now replaced with twice the power. Look at that cord coming down from heaven! It is 220 power plugged in and ready for use. It's there, it's available. Simply plug into My power and use what is already installed. Prepare even now, for I AM going to reveal the greatest show ever witnessed on earth. A double portion is promised for the last days. Let the curtains rise. Turn on the power. Let the show begin!

"And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me." (2 Kings 2:9)

A Season of Sifting

Sandy Note 2/27/99: The world is entering into a long spiritual season of sifting. There are many aspects to this season / concept and the purpose of the following file is to help give understanding to a variety of issues having to do with sifting.

All Biblical truth is held between the tension of 2 poles, and that is the case with the sifting season. God allows the enemy to sift and have certain influences for many reasons. Yet our God is sovereign and He carefully maneuvers all circumstances including good and evil forces for His ultimate purposes. We will see many turn from their independence and run to Him. Be courageous and take heart, for at the same time, His glory will also be revealed. The greater the darkness, the greater His glory. So as you read this file, understand that like many of the files at this website, they are all interrelated and coexist at the same time.

1] Word study on the word SIFT:

"For surely I will command, And will sift (5128) the house of Israel among all nations, As grain is sifted (05128) in a sieve; Yet not the smallest grain shall fall to the ground. All the sinners of My people shall die by the sword, Who say, 'The calamity shall not overtake nor confront us.' " On that day I will raise up The tabernacle of David, which has fallen down, And repair its damages; I will raise up its ruins, And rebuild it as in the days of old; That they may possess the remnant of Edom, And all the Gentiles who are called by My name," Says the LORD who does this thing. " Behold, the days are coming," says the LORD, "When the plowman shall overtake the reaper, And the treader of grapes him who sows seed; The mountains shall drip with sweet wine, And all the hills shall flow with it. I will bring back the captives of My people Israel; They shall build the waste cities and inhabit them; They shall plant vineyards and drink wine from them; They shall also make gardens and eat fruit from them. I will plant them in their land, And no longer shall they be pulled up From the land I have given them," Says the LORD your God. (Amos 9: 9-14)

2] Sifting Touches One's Faith

The following is taken from 101+ Ways God Speaks (And How to Hear Him) by Sandy Warner

81. HE SPEAKS WHEN WE HAVE FAITH

Two people who do NOT have a common language begin to communicate. The tribesman with guttural mumbles asks the white hunter a question. Hesitating and scratching his head, the hunter responds with a shrug.

These two are not communicating. So instead, the tribesman speaks a word or sentence by drawing a picture, using sign language and pointing to the surrounding environment, while the hunter listens and applies. In the process they form common reference points and begin to understand general ideas. This is not a word for word translation.

There is a foundation of faith that must exist between the two communicating. — A faith that says, "I believe that you just spoke to me, and I believe I can come to understand what you said." For true communication to exist in the listening process, there needs to be a certain measure of faith that goes beyond the language of the mind and penetrates the heart with belief.

The Bible states these facts about faith:

1. Faith comes by hearing Him speak. "So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." (Romans 10:17 NKJV)

2. We each have a portion: "...God has allotted to each a measure of faith." (Romans 12:3B)

3. Our faith can grow: "...Lord, increase our faith." (Luke 17:5 KJ)

4. It describes faith: "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." (Hebrews 11:1 KJ) The Living Bible says, "What is faith? It is the confident assurance that something we want is going to happen. It is the certainty that what we hope for is waiting for us, even though we cannot see it up ahead." (TLB)

5. The Greek definition for faith1 (also belief) is translated: {persuasion, credence, conviction, reliance, constancy, truth, assurance, belief, faith, fidelity.}

6. We cannot please Him without faith. "...without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is..." (Hebrews 11:6 NKJV)

7. To do anything without faith is sin. "...for whatever is not from faith is sin." (Romans 14:23B NKJV)

As the Lord speaks to you, and you find "Words" together, faith grows and blossoms. The Bible says Jesus is "...the author and finisher of our faith..." (Hebrews 12:2 KJ) He not only is the source of our faith, but also the completer.

Sometimes the particular Words the Lord speaks to me go through a faith process of sifting, wavering and quickening before they become planted and firmly established into a strong, bold faith:

1. "SIFTED faith" - The Words of the Lord are turning in circles without a secure, stable home. I KNOW I have heard the Lord - I just don't know how it applies. This is faith with no sense of balance, security, or establishment.2 It is like a small screw in a big hole, turning round and round never becoming set or secure.

2. "WAVERING faith" - I know the general place the Word applies, but don't understand what He means. This swings back and forth between different opinions. The wobbly screw needs to be deeper in the hole to be in a sure strong place. This happens with time and confirmation concerning what is believed.3

3. "QUICKENED faith" is like a screw sunk into the right place. The Lord speaks a Word and I discover a place it fits. When the quickening comes it has finished its turning, finally finding its proper placement, its niche.4

4. "BOLD faith" is when I know that I know. Having complete confidence on the inside, I know and understand what the Lord is saying. This is complete faith without doubts and with absolute assurance.5

When we have grown to the place of complete faith, we come into what the Bible calls Sabbath rest.6 It is a place where we no longer struggle with an issue in life. We hear the Lord's perspective on a matter, rest, and believe Him. We cease from our own restless pursuits and trust Him. Sabbath rest is perfect belief in His Words to us.

One of my favorite examples of what I believe is someone entering sabbath rest is Smith Wigglesworth.7 He was an anointed preacher in the early 1900's who led thousands to salvation and healing. He was very close to the Lord, in fact testified of seeing Him. In the process he overcame enemy opposition. One particular night the devil stood in his room, and when Wigglesworth saw him, he said, "Oh, it's only you" and turned over and went back to sleep. That's what I call sabbath rest! He knew his opponent, understood his own authority over such, and simply rested in that truth by literally going back to sleep! That's bold faith.

3] Word to Ponder - Sifted

The following is taken from the book, Words to Ponder by Sandy Warner

SIFTED

This thing the enemy has desired has not been without purpose. Your life is under Divine restraints and nothing can touch you without My permission.

Back and forth, back and forth. The sieve vacillated back and forth. Up and down, round and round, you went in circles, ever closer to the wire. When the time came you left the hard and stubborn places behind. You came through.

This was not without pain. I interceded for you and suffered with you. Even your most difficult hours were not without My mercy and grace. I covered you. Part of My mercy was to give you Novocain and I also put you to sleep. If I had given you your desired senses to understand, your pain would have been too great. Even in the midst of chaotic enemy invasion, I operate with complete control. My grace let you fall through the sieve, My grace caught you on the other side.

I alone hold you up. You cannot stand in independence and ever hope to succeed. Even the most simple task will fail if you stand in your own power. You have great strength before the enemy, but it is not your strength. I have given you many gifts, but you cannot use them without My help.

There are valuable treasures that come from sifting. For you, it is humility. If you carry its lesson in an important place of remembrance and cut your own pride before it sprouts roots, you will never be sifted again. That is My promise.

Yet an even dearer treasure has been given to Me. Your garden has been weeded and your heart is soft and fluffy. This is your yieldedness. I have longed for this quality to come to fruition in your life. I am teaching you what it accomplishes in the spirituals. You have yet to see the fruition of what this can accomplish on earth. I will give you eyes to see what your yieldedness produces. It will be My gift to you.

"Break up your fallow ground for it is time to seek the Lord till he come and rain righteousness upon you." (Hosea 12:12)

4] Word to Ponder - A promise

The following is taken from the book, Words to Ponder by Sandy Warner

THE DOOR

I have brought My people to a door. A door of promise, a door of destiny. Many have approached this door before, with seeds of promise, only to look at it, and see the insurmountable walls. They were given the instructions at Jericho; the time waiting was much more than the time moving. Years of waiting have passed, and the moving has been in circles. But this has not been without purpose.

I have gone before you and set up your place. Indeed, you have circled long enough. Once again, you stand before the door and look at insurmountable odds. But I say unto you, the hour is due. At My command, these walls shall fall, and every man shall enter straight before him. I go before you shouting "Grace." These walls shall fall and you shall be astonished at MY mighty hand on your behalf.

There are many who have been so sifted by the plough, and blackened by the fire, they have lost sight of this door of promise, this great door of Hope. They have been turned inside out, and backwards; some are even upside down. But I have been turning the perspective so they may see My view. I am facing them forward, securing feet in front of the door.

Have no fear if you cannot see the door of promise. Your eyes may still be burning from the smoke. Trust Me to turn you in perfect direction. Have hopeful expectation of what I shall do. For when it opens, it shall open suddenly, and the Light from the other side will be so bright, there will be no questions as to your direction.

I give good gifts to My people. Pick up those hopes lost from yesterday, and dare to believe, this time from MY perspective. Even as the door stands before you, I stand on the other side. When I open the door, you will not walk alone. We will occupy together.

"I know thy works: behold I have set before thee an open door and no man can shut it..." (Revelations 3:8)

5] Rhema - Help the Young Through the Sifting

Still Small Voice given to Shirley 2/19/94

HEARD: To help the young. Sift. More power to 'em.

6] Sifting is a Time of Judgment

His Still Small Voice Given to Shirley 10/30/94

HEARD: Filter. Search and rescue. Sifted. Tried. Found not wanting. Able to stand. Get up and go. Search and rescue. Toll the bell throughout the land. The time of judgment is at hand. Some will laugh and others weep.

7] Sifting - A Time of Upheaval and Not Planted Securely

Vision given to Shirley 11/5/92

VISION: I saw a musical staff that looked like a very long swinging bridge. There were musical eighth notes, sometimes called running notes, covering about the first third of the bridge. Some had fallen off the staff head first. They were still in the air, hadn't hit the ground yet. Others had fallen down and were lying on the bridge. Still others had fallen on the bridge upside down. As each note was placed back in an upright position, the staff would sag and then become taunt. This gave a rebounding effect that caused some notes to not be able to stay on, and they were flung off.

*Grandma Anna Comment: The sifting is going to be very threatening for some. Severe reactions are going to result. Some will leave the faith, some will fall, some will have their faith shaken to the core.

8] Sifting is Death to Self & Turning Upside Down

Still Small Voice given to Grandma Anna 7/20/93

HEARD: Wanted. Dead. Then alive. Pulled through a keyhole. Yes. You have the keys. Inserting them upside down. Turned. Over and over and over again. I will comfort them. Come under my wing and stay.

9] Sifting is a Part of the Training Process

Vision given to Sandy Warner 5/13/94

VISION: I saw 2 people doing the alphabet turn. As I saw this, I groaned and said, "Oh no, not again!" As I watched, the turning was in total & perfect synchronized unison.

HEARD: Honey. I'm proud of you. Upside down.

SANDY COMMENTS: In the early 80's I had visions of learning to write the alphabet (the many ways God's speaks) with my self as the writing tool! I was "flying" in the sky, doing aerial acrobatics, turning and flowing my body in the direction of each letter. Later as I became more accomplished, more difficult letters like the letter "O" was added. I didn't like that one!

If you can picture being in an airplane (only it's you without the airplane) and turning a complete circle. Anything that is loose and not tied down falls out of your pockets. It's a very unnerving experience. Your feet are not on the ground, you are unstable clinging onto the Lord, and the only balance and stability is in knowing He is God. It's like a sifting experience, only without the presence of evil.

I have seen myself doing this many times, in many seasons off and on, with in between times of "stability in hearing Him". Do understand, the letters are not circumstantial life experiences, rather they are specific periods of relationship with the Lord where everything gets turned upside down in what you are hearing, and how you understand what you are hearing. It's a time when you say "God is God and that's all that matters."

What have I learned in the past about this time????? Don't try to outguess God. I get queasy when I hear someone interpret Him and put Him in a box... what I mean by that is, trying to interpret what He is saying, and come up with a perfect pat answer to what He just meant by what He just said. He is too big to understand. Even when we think we have a grip on things, He can turn us over and whatever is loose that He hasn't tied down Himself, will fall away. The only thing you can do, is hang on and know it's just a season and soon it will get better and He will right you, plant you straight up and down, on your feet, SECURE & WITH UNDERSTANDING.

10] The Shepherds Were Sifted

Still Small Voice Excerpt Heard via Grandma Anna 5/24/94

HEARD: Fan uprighted. It's a pickle. Sour turned sweet. What happened? You figure it. It's an 8. What tipped it over? My timing not yours.

Excited? You bet. He's going to like it. Not done yet. Upside down. In the midst of a cartwheel. Bringing in the ark. Good shepherd. Tried and true. That's what sacrifice will do. Put it on the fire. Sizzled to a turn. Still too rare. Wonderful aroma. Doesn't even need sauce.

He did it. Thanks Dad. Good show. Paid the price. Lots of spice. It was painful. Mothers forget pain. Fathers too. When they see what pain can do. Giving birth, they did it. Stand up and sing. It's a loud noise. How many bouncing boys? Walk the beach. Can you count it? That's who you teach. You'll see. An amazing outreach.

Lots of crowns, when your work is done. Precious in My sight. All your birds take flight. Don't give up. Wait for Me. Just the tip of the iceberg. You'll see. A very special family. Lots of pain. Lots of strain. But watch it rain.

A downpour coming. Drenched. Over and over and over again. Upside down, right side up. Cartwheels. Turning and turning. What joy. This family did it. Raising My Boy. They are the womb. It's an earthly tomb. Lots of little Adam's growing. Going to make a sonic boom.

Watch out it's catching. Such a noise you've never heard. It's coming from the East. A huge bird. Called him to My foot. That's what it took. People loving people. Willing to go all the way. Ready to greet the New Day. My Day. Lots of fire and thunder. Cleansing as it goes. The earth in painful throes. Groaning and yearning. When will it happen? Let it be. You'll know. When you see him in the midst of the sea. Thank you dear ones. You did it for Me.

11] A Riddle - Upside Down

A riddle heard via His still small voice to Sandy Warner 5/27/95

HEARD: See it through her eyes. Rock hard faith. Belly up. Turtle shell support you. Rule the world upside down. In my pocket found a key.

Sandy Comment: In my past the Lord told me that He was going to build within me a rock-hard faith. At the same time He also brought me rhema having to do with turtles that walk very slow, and carrying a rock hard shell as a protection and refuge.

At that time, my son told me the big turtles have no natural enemies, and that is why they grow so big and so old. He said when in danger, they draw in and hide! (I love that) They are also too tough to eat. Rock hard.

The only that can happen to them is you-know-what... they can turn upside down. That's the awful word called sifting. Belly up!

12] A Quickened Parable - Sifting Separates the Weeds in Our Lives

Given to Sandy Warner 5/5/96

This week I have been rebuilding my backyard flower beds. In the past there was a patch for 3 years in a row of rye grass that had gotten into my chicken and hen plants. I tried pulling, I tried digging around, and the third year I tried weed killer. The killer killed everything including the hens and chickens. So when I came to the other section that had slowly been developing rye grass in the chickens and hens, I had been just pulling it and only sometimes getting the roots because the task looked so overwhelming to me, and I didn't want to lose my plants.

This time in restructuring the whole bed, I decided to dig up the chickens & hens to get the rye grass out. I dug much deeper than their planting, and by hand separated the roots of the grass from the plants. When I dug up a clump of chickens and hens, I tried pulling the grass up through the top. Most of the time it was so deeply entrenched in the plants roots that it would pull apart the chickens and hurt their roots. So I turned the clump upside down and discovered that the rye grass roots are very visible from that direction, and if I pulled them straight out from the bottom, they slipped right out without hurting the plant roots! This took me several hours to do, as the bed was so big and I wanted to make sure the grass was gone. Mom came over and saw what I was doing and said "I've seen people weed before, but I've never seen anyone do it quite like that!"

The Lord quickened some lessons in this experience. First of all I could see first hand how difficult it is for the Lord to separate the wheat from the tares, without damaging the wheat.

The second thing I saw was the process of temporarily being upside down. Last month He was giving me short little bursts of being upside down so that I might clearly see weeds that needed to be removed from my life. In the unstable process, once I saw, I could work with Him on my own cleansing, including repenting, rebuking and renouncing things I saw deep inside. How easy it is to receive deliverance at this time when we are WILLING to let Him work on us!

Thanks to my willingness, last month was such an easy process, and I suddenly saw how difficult we make it for ourselves and for Him when He wants to correct us about issues. He has to balance the act of correcting us, and yet not lose the building He wants to accomplish within us. Sometimes we over-react so badly that He has to back up and re-build the same foundation again and again, all the while approaching our sensitive areas from different angles. We get all upset and think we are dung and no good, then He has to patch us up and then re-build His favor within. This takes time to go around the same circle, and all the while we don't let Him accomplish what He is trying to uproot! Unfortunately this can take years around the same circle. It is so much easier when we understand and simply comply with a temporary upheaval and stay willing and pliable in His hands.

13] A Vision - Straining the Lumps Away

From Sister Ching Co - ching@cebumail.com

I saw two strainer in the hand of God's angel, one was made of coarse mess wire, while the other was made of very fine material, so fine that it look like invisible to the naked eye. The angel was putting something into the first coarse strainer and the bigger elements began to fall down, then the fine strainer was brought out and the sifted elements were once more sifted through this very fine strainer. It took quite sometimes for the elements to pass through the fine screen, but then it did, like a drop then another until nothing can squeeze through it. Then I even saw the hand pressing on what is left, just to make sure that all that can be squeeze out will be out.

After a while, the hand removed what was left from the strainer and it was pressed out like being ironed, and then I saw a very white handkerchief so beautiful with gold thread stitched upon the border and the materials was beautiful, then this handkerchief was given to the king and he gently took and received it and put it to his nose and gently smell it and I saw a great big smile broke into the face of the king as he hold that handkerchief close to his heart.

THE INTERPRETATION GIVEN:

In the past years, many of God's wonderful people have been through those two strainer. God angels carrying out the Lord's order have been sifting His people, first it was the easier matters that were shaken from our lives, we were tested financially in giving and in releasing them to God, we were tested emotionally in how we respond to various situations that crops up here and there, we were tested spiritually in how we respond to brothers and sisters as we learn to live and love one another.

After these, we were put to a finer strainer, these time the secret motives of the heart are being exposed. Things that we hold dear and have difficulty releasing or letting go , our love ones, our name and our career, our dreams and our aspiration, our hopes and our longings, even our character and our dignity...one by one...the angel just press them harder and harder into the strainer and one by one they fall and are being stripped away from us, until nothing of self is left in that strainer.

Then like that white, newly pressed , gold stitched handkerchief, our lives is like a finished work that was brought and presented before the King of Heaven, who so lovingly smell us and press us close to His heart.. and He smile for He is delighted into what we have become after all these shaking that has taken place.

THE WORDS:

" My loved ones, my precious people, my chosen of olds, Oh! how precious you are all to me. Each and every one of you...precious in My sight...the apple of My eyes...the Love of My life..

" I know that the past years have been difficult, for I have press you over and over again...I have put you into the fire of cleansing and purification...I have emerged you in the rivers of washing...and it is all for my preparation, it is all for your perfection...to the image of my only Son Jesus, the Head of all that is being brought forth into glory.

" I know the pain that you've been through, I've seen every tears, I've heared every moan, I've seen every struggle.. But I am pleased my people for I've seen how you have submitted and yielded to the work of My Spirit. You have come and you have responded to Me..

" I know that I have many of you confused in the past for to some I have come so swiftly and so suddenly and without warning and have acted drastically. But My cherish one, I have done it out of Love for you. I know what is best , that is a Father's instinct and that is a Father's wisdom.

" I am delighted that so many of you have chosen to obey.. that you have chosen to cling on to me despite the questions, the fears, the difficulties.. that you have chosen to trust my heart when you cannot see my hands..

" I am overflowing with joy, I am overflowing with happiness, I am overflowing with satisfaction in what I have witness...

" There is a great roar in heaven, a great and mighty roar.. A great cheer is coming out from those that have gone ahead of you...they are saying to you all...'Hold on to what you have for it will be greatly rewarded...do not give up...do not surrender...rest in His mighty arm for He is faithful and just and righteous '....

" Be assured of my love, be secured in your call, be steadfast in your walk for I am here, I have always been here, and I will always be with you wherever the path will led..

" Know that my plans for you are for good and that they are eternal and everlasting...

" Know that my eyes are keeping watch over you overflowing with compassion and with love..

" Know that my hands are all around you, to lift you up when you stumble, to guide you when you go astray, to cover you when the storm come, to hold you close to my heart at all times.

" I love you dearly My people...love you so dearly....more than words can express...

" Feel my heart...draw close to me...be warmth in my presence....

THE LORD IS GOD AND HIS MERCIES ARE NEW EVERY MORNING! PRAISE THE NAME OF JESUS, OUR GREAT KING, OUR LORD AND OUR SAVIOR!!

14] A Word About The Sieve

From Nancy Smith - bntesmith@ohiohills.com

The Lord has been impressing upon me to share this. One day, during worship I received the word "sieve"....and about a week later I was reading the Word and came across the words, "threshing floor" several times, in several places. I understand that a sieve is what I call a "sifter thing" in my kitchen. (It wasn't a word I used, so I knew it was the Lord!) I had to ask about the threshing floor. Apparently, it is a large area where the grain was threshed.

The Lord told Peter that satan wanted to sift him like wheat, but that He had prayed for him. I believe that as I submit to threshing and sifting in this world, I will become a useful ingredient in the Lord's hand.

Nancy

15] Sifting is a Season of Harvest

From: ab600@sfn.saskatoon.sk.ca (Lila Wagner)

For the last few weeks--since the New Year--our house group has been hearing over and over again the words, "threshing-machine", "winnowing fork" and "sifting". The overall interpretation seems to be that as a church we will be threshed (yes, that means beaten), shaken up by the winnowing fork so that all the chaff and straw can be blown away by the wind of the Spirit and sifted of all impurities. This is a preparation for the HARVEST!!--we've been promised in Saskatoon.

Waiting for HIM!!

16] Sifting is For Our Sanctification

From Earlene - earlyb@integrityonline.com

I too, have been meditating on the "sifting" that appears to be happening in many places. But the Lord reminded me of the sifters my husband used to work with in the flour mill. These sifters are taller than a man and about 3 feet wide and deep. There are 24 screens of varying sizes inside, and they shake violently. When the crushed wheat is poured into them, it is sifted according to size. Master bakers specify what type of wheat and what fineness they require for their products and the wheat is taken from the appropriate screens. The millers may pull wheat from the middle screens and process it for crackers or cookies. The larger wheat pieces on the top screens may be pulled and crushed through the rollers again for cake flour. And the very lightest and smallest pieces, the bran, will be packed for cereals. Higher protein wheats will be used for bread and buns.

So what I was reminded of is that the Lord Jesus knows what He is doing with all the shaking and sifting. He is separating us and pulling us aside for His specific uses. I think this is called "sanctification!" :)

Blessings to you all,

Earlene

17] Upside Down Brings the Leaven to the Surface

Still Small Voice heard by Sandy Warner 5/11/96

HEARD: Upside down. Critical. Coming to the surface. Challenge. There's more to come. Advice, just stay calm. Trust Me.

Sandy COMMENT: Upside down is speaking of being temporarily turned upside down to remove bad roots that are exposed.

18] Sifting Threshes Out One's Testing of God

The following is taken from 101+ Ways God Speaks (And How to Hear Him) by Sandy Warner

89. HE SPEAKS WHEN WE LIMIT FLEECES

Using a fleece is a comforting way to please the soul and personality, but is not recommended as a pattern of relationship with the Lord. Most people use fleeces by stating a certain need for guidance: "Lord, if You do such n' such, then I know I'm supposed to do such n' such." Notice the if-then clause. This clause suggests making a contract with God on YOUR TERMS. When a person lays a fleece before the Lord, he is putting God into a position to answer according to his way, not God's. It is controlling the limits of circumstances and asking God to fit that mold.

There are those who lust for signs. (The Pharisees wanted signs, rather than Jesus. They did not see HE WAS the sign.) People who look for signs are also vulnerable to falling into a snare. They are ones who lay fleeces before the Lord on a continuing basis. One satanic realm of influence is the lust for signs.

God knows the heart, and may answer a fleece, as recorded in Gideon's plight.

Notice the awe and respect of Gideon's heart in approaching God in this manner. Placing the fleece before the Lord was with great caution as unto the fear and respect of the Lord: "And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece, let it now be dry only upon the fleece and upon all the ground let there be dew." (Judges 6:39-40 KJ)

The fleece was a request to God, and God answered as His gift. This was not without consequences. God wanted Gideon's army cut down to 300 men. It was not that God was angry so Gideon had to make up for the use of the fleece by cutting his army; but that the fleece and answer were very much like a contract. Gideon suggested a contract on Gideon's terms. God answered. Then God gave Gideon God's terms: 300 men.

The scriptures suggest God is reasonable, listens to the will of man, and is willing to be flexible and work with him. He is our Good Father. However, we should not test Him to see how far He is willing to bend. This whole concept is something to be approached with reverence, respect and awe. He's not Someone to bargain with in the market place. Those who use fleeces on a regular basis are asking for trouble.

Fleeces suggests a flexible part of God's nature, but when we draw the line of flexibility it is best WE BE THE FLEXIBLE ONE.

If one has the wrong motive: a lust for signs, lust for knowledge, demanding (striving with) or testing and proving Him, one day the Lord will thresh out that leaven in the heart through a sifting process.

There is one other reason God would cut this weed out. There are people who have been accustomed to using fleeces with a pure desire to find out His will. He knows the heart, and perhaps will even answer for a season on their terms. Yet there will come a day when He wants them to grow and come out of this type of relationship with Him. Fleeces put God in a box, He is not cheerfully willing to stay there for very long! There are many of ways to hear from Him without putting Him in a box. He desires to bring His own up and out, seeking Him on His territory.

19] Discerning the Supernatural Can Cause Sifting

The following is taken from 101+ Ways God Speaks (And How to Hear Him) by Sandy Warner

MAKING DECISIONS ABOUT THE SUPERNATURAL

Part of the process of discernment is learning to make accurate decisions about what you are exposed to without being impulsive, rash, judgmental or critical: but with careful prayer, thought, consideration, and TIME. It is good to make a decision. The Lord is bringing the earth into a time when it's TIME TO MAKE A DECISION. (Joel 3:14) Much of the population today is choosing sides in response to moral and ethical issues. What we have already seen politically, spiritually, and physically is only one small drop of what is to come.

We are coming to the end of an age when both God and satan want a commitment one way or another. Some of God's people have been riding the yellow line for a long time, afraid to voice an opinion, or make a stand about what they believe. They have taken the middle of the road approach to avoid confrontations and ruffle as few feathers as possible to get through life in one piece! The yellow line hasn't been a problem because there hasn't been much traffic. However, the traffic in both directions is now increasing and the guy in the middle is going to get crunched. The pace is accelerating. Because of the great shaking, the fence straddlers are going to be forced to make decisions about what they believe one way or another.

The Lord's supernatural outpouring is going to break and/or shake up man's religious boxes as to Who He is. There are many ways man boxes God. One way is by interpreting the Bible to say God intended the supernatural to die with the early Apostles. Man will be confronted with a choice of removing the box and allowing God to reveal Himself as He chooses. Or, he may not be included in the blessings of the pouring forth of the latter rain of God's Spirit.

Have you ever been in a belly-gusher rain? One time we had a deep, very loud, and overwhelming downpour. The gutters overran and Cuddle's kitty pillow and blanket were drenched. I think it scared Cuddles, as after I washed and dried her bed (without offending soap or softeners) she would not come back and rest. She was sleeping somewhere else in the neighborhood and coming back to eat. It really bothered me and I kept praying that she would return and find her place of comfort.

Finally I came up with an idea. Whenever my son got her towel out and placed it on his lap, she came running! So I told Sonshine to also get her clean blanket that was on top of her pillow, and sneak it in with the towel so she could get her smell on it. He did this and she loved her time with him. Then he placed her on her pillow with her blanket. The next day she was contentedly sleeping there.

The point of the allegory is that sometimes the supernatural rain of the Lord upsets our security as we are frail human beings. We become unstable and need to return to our resting place. The Lord wants to build in you a secure foundation and He understands. He will do His best to bring you to that place of security, that safe place of faith in Him.

People can go through a sifting process when they are learning to discern the supernatural. They really desire God and earnestly want to make the correct choices. However the inability to make the decision causes the wavering to become intense. So many have already been sifted in their hearing and led astray because of lack of knowledge. To keep from being sifted, a firm foundation is needed in reading the Bible and understanding Who God is. The things that God speaks will always line up with Who He is, so if you earnestly desire God and come across something that shakes a box inside you, PRAY about it, and ask HIM. If you are insecure about what you've been exposed to, go to Him and He will establish you. He will help you find Him and make the decisions that are correct.

20] A Story About Sifting

The following is taken from 101+ Ways God Speaks (And How to Hear Him) by Sandy Warner

HE SPEAKS THROUGH CHILDREN'S WORDS

"You have taught the little children to praise you perfectly. May their example shame and silence your enemies." (Psalms 8:2 TLB)

"Beware that you do not despise or feel scornful toward or think little of one of these little ones, for I tell you that in heaven their angels always are in the presence of and look upon the face of My Father Who is in heaven: Allow the little ones to come to Me, and do not forbid, or restrain, or hinder them, for of such {as these} the kingdom of heaven is composed." (Matthew 18:10 & Matthew 19:14 AMP)

Children are gifts straight from heaven and His heart. I have been astonished by the direct Words of my Father that come through what they say and do. As I walked through a prolonged season of wavering, seemingly on a spiritual swing set vacillating between two opinions, I would swing one way and think maybe the Lord meant such n' such, or I would swing the opposite. The Lord gave me a picture-vision of myself near the waves of the ocean. Every time a large wave (overwhelming circumstance) would come close, I would scurry to the top of a very small and skinny tree. The bottom trunk was about four inches in diameter. When the wave would hit, the tree bent way over to one side and then the other, bouncing back and forth!

It was a perfect allegory of what I was doing during that season. Isaiah 35:3 says, "...confirm the feeble knees." My knees were anything but confirmed, they felt more like rubber legs, just like that tree trunk! I felt so sifted and tired of wavering. One day as I was thinking about wavering back and forth with rubber legs and feeling very condemned, my very young son interrupted my thoughts. He said out of nowhere, "Mama, I am worried my knees might break." Regaining my composure, I explained that when we bend and exercise our knees, it is good for them for it makes them strong! That was one of many times I remember his little voice penetrating my thoughts and bringing me encouragement from the Lord. I am now trained to know and believe that good gifts come in small packages!

21] God will Overturn, Abasing the High and Exalting the Low

Vision given to Shirley 11/9/96

VISION: I saw a right hand turn something over that resembled and upside down glass.

HEARD: He changes things. Truth.

Eze 21: 26, 27 "…exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high. I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him."

22] Word to Ponder - A Warning

The following is taken from the book, Words to Ponder 2 by Sandy Warner

UNDERSTAND THE NATURE OF THE BATTLE (written in 1999)

There is much you do not understand when suddenly there is a victory and just as suddenly there is a defeat. This is because you have entered an era where the final battle is in the making. All of the spiritual forces are at work to take ground once and for all. And you are caught in the middle. This is not a time to sleep and be taken unaware. For when the waves of darkness come, they can sweep you off your feet and suddenly you are left sifted and upside down wondering what hit you.

This is a time to prepare for battle and understand the nature of the battle. There are seasons of war and seasons of rest. Likewise, there are seasons of victories and seasons of resting in the victories. These times are just like the waves in the ocean. The enemy forces ride in, gathering strength in numbers, while raising the tides of evil onslaught upon the earth. When this happens, this is the time to stand. Stand with the power to tell the enemy no. Command the darkness to retreat in Jesus Name. Stand armed with the Words I have given you. Do not bow under the circumstances, but stand knowing it is but an enemy wave. Command, praise and trust Me through it and you shall rise above its destructive path.

As My believers stand firm and the strength of the enemy depletes, the evil forces retreat to gather energy for another round. Take advantage of those times to draw near to Me and gather your own strength for the battles to come. Angelic activity and blessings have greater access during this time. Take advantage of this understanding. Gather food to feed your soul, and gather supplies for nurturing those in a weaker condition. Take this time to rest from the heat of war, and seek Me, enjoying the blessings of My Presence. For in those times I draw near to Mine Own ones, and reveal Myself to them. If you understand the nature of this long war, you will learn to ride the waves. Rise above the enemy circumstances when they hit and ride the blessing waves when they arrive.

Always remember that in it all, I AM in control. Everything the enemy does is with My permission. This is a time when the enemy has been allowed to touch the earth with swift judgment. It is a wake up call. I use this for good, to cleanse and bring forth repentance. The enemy intends it for complete destruction. The measure it touches your own life is the degree in which the intercessors stand in the gap against the incoming waves of evil as well as the degree in which you yourself need repentance. If something has touched your life, see the truth, repent and then find the secret place hidden in Me and you will ride out the storms in a place of safety.

There will come a time when it will be impossible to rest in circumstances without genuine faith in Me. To truly understand this is to understand the fear of the Lord and understand I will no longer wink at sin, but bring swift judgment. Take heed and find your covering under the shadow of My wings.

"They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon. For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded…. In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us. " (Nehemiah 4:17-18, 20)

23] Sometimes Sifting is a Matter of Perspective

Vision given to Sandy Warner 6/22/97

HEARD: Exposed. Harvest.

VISION: I saw a very funny prophetical picture: There was a group of water ballerinas doing water ballet in the water. They had just gone under water and were turning themselves around under the water. In the process of turning, the one closest to me opened her eyes under water and then she REALLY opened her eyes in a shocked look. She was gazing just past my shoulder. Then she looked again as though she couldn't quite believe what she saw, and her eyes were bugging out. She pushed herself to the surface and the look on her face was one of being absolutely astounded. I turned around to see what she was looking at and there was a huge ocean liner that had come in ready to dock. It was practically on top of us. But behind that was another, and another and another and another. There were many ships all lined up in single file clear to the horizon, all coming in. I realized that our ship had come in!

Sandy Comment: Sometimes we are buried under circumstances and occasionally upside down as we swim through the process. The parable of this vision is that God has been working a great work to bring our "ship" in, and we are sometimes so overwhelmed in the sea of life that we fail to see His promises until it is right on top of us.

Notice I titled this one, "Sometimes Sifting is a Matter of Perspective." In this vision, the ship was not upside down, the ballerina was.

RHEMA 7/31/97: TRAINING ON IMPRESSIONS OF HIS SPIRIT

EXPERIENCE: This morning I paused before turning with anointed hands in my 101 Ways God Speaks book to see if I would be impressed with a page number. Although it was not His Still small voice, a number floated into my mind. So I turned to it.

My eyes fell on this line: “sense page numbers and I have been blessed to read exactly what I needed.” It was the section on He Speaks Through Impressions. That was cool!

IMPRESSION TRAINING: A few minutes later I went on deliveries and just as I was getting into my car I turned around to ask the customer for her full name and phone number. An Indian lady interrupted and I was unable to ask. I stood there a minute or so waiting and felt awkward just standing there so I over-rode that impression with my will.

I said to myself, her full name and number is on the last receipt, I’ll just get it from that when I get home. When I got home there was no phone number and the name of the business was their trademark name, not business name so I could not call her when Wayne found a discrepancy with what they ordered and the sample they turned in. So I had to drive back to town, taking an additional hour of my time when it was to be a 7 hour day of filling orders. When I arrived back at their location, they had already left for the day. I was able to get their number from a neighbor, but it was all quite a hassle. I was not able to make contact with them via phone for 4 more hours of which Wayne could not finish their order until we heard back from them.

On the way home I was thinking about the fact that my wanting their name and number was an impression from the Holy Spirit and I should have listened. This is very hard training to learn to be so sensitive. I have been begging the Lord for this training and He was answering my prayer.

CONFIRMATION: On the way home I was listening to a tape where the speaker suddenly mentioned that his friend had a small impression from the Lord that he was not to take a motor cycle ride that day, even though his wife wanted to. He went on the ride and the enemy almost killed him in a bad cycle accident. The speaker strictly mentioned that this was not His Still small voice, but merely an impression. I was really stunned by this whole day of realizing how much depends upon our being sensitive to the Holy Spirit and how everything is not going to come by His Still small voice or seeing angels! It was very disconcerting, and yet I realized that we need the training. Especially during ministry situations where we need to be sensitive to ideas that float into our thinking.

1 Cor 2:14-16 AMP
But the natural, nonspiritual man does not accept or welcome or admit into his heart the gifts and teachings and revelations of the Spirit of God, for they are folly (meaningless nonsense) to him; and he is incapable of knowing them [of progressively recognizing, understanding, and becoming better acquainted with them] because they are spiritually discerned and estimated and appreciated.

15 But the spiritual man tries all things [he examines, investigates, inquires into, questions, and discerns all things], yet is himself to be put on trial and judged by no one [he can read the meaning of everything, but no one can properly discern or appraise or get an insight into him].

16 For who has known or understood the mind (the counsels and purposes) of the Lord so as to guide and instruct Him and give Him knowledge? But we have the mind of Christ (the Messiah) and do hold the thoughts (feelings and purposes) of His heart. [Isa 40:13.]

WE ARE NOT STORMED, BUT FORMED

RHEMA 9/21/02 IN THE ARMS OF GOD

HEARD: I used to give SO much. I just want you to rest. Where is your focus? Focus on God. It's all about entering in and being still. There's no place I'd rather be then in the arms of God.

What do you see? No way to communicate. There's a spiritual storm coming. Stay plugged into Me.

PIX: I saw an earphone put into an ear.

HEARD: We will not be stormed. We will be formed. We are just starting. It's been more than a wonderful thing. His keeping power.

PIX: I saw a big plug in with a phone wires going in different direction.

HEARD: Are you tired? He gives abundantly all you can ask or think.

WORD TO PONDER IN THE ARMS OF GOD 9/21/02
In the days to come, it is important that you stay plugged into Me. Listen for My voice in all that you do and see and say. In every spiritual storm, know that you will not be stormed, you will be formed. I am much bigger than any storm and My keeping power is all that you need to know. I will give to you even more abundantly than all that you could ask or think. So now My love, come to Me and stay safely in My arms of love.

In other seasons you were more productive, and perhaps you feel you are giving less now. But I want you to learn to rest in My arms. Put your focus upon Me, it's all about entering in and learning to be still in My love. You will soon find there is no place you'd rather be.

In My arms, I will lovingly hold you. You are safe in My arms. In My arms, I will hold you near. You are safe in My arms. Be still now……and rest in My arms of love.

"And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake: And after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice. And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. And, behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, What doest thou here, Elijah?" (1 Kings 19:11-13 KJV)

THE LORD'S BOOMING VOICE: I WILL NEVER FORGET YOU
A Word about America and Israel

RHEMA 6/07/10 STRONG WORD: I WILL NEVER FORGET YOU
Today I had taken something off my computer that reminded me of a broken relationship. I had done everything I could to repair to no avail. It hurt me to take the reminder off, but I had been in grieving intercession for 6 long years and no longer wanted to be reminded of the pain of what had broken. Tonight as I was praying for him, I heard the Lord's BOOMING VOICE and it was far from being His still small voice.

HEARD (inner audible): I WILL NEVER FORGET YOU!!

I pondered this for several days because I KNEW it was the Lord even if I did not understand what He meant.

Near the end of 2003, I heard this same booming voice. I was in a very busy and noisy restaurant with my family and all of a sudden all the noise came to a hush and it felt like I was put in some kind of a sound proof bubble. I was so surprised at this because I saw the lips of my family talking to one another around the table, but all I heard was this total hush. And as soon as I noticed all of this, I heard the Lord's BOOMING voice. He said, "I will NEVER, NEVER LEAVE OR FORSAKE YOU!" It shook me, resonated into my being and totally impacted me to hear Him say this so forcefully. Then the noise of the restaurant came back and I was shocked that my family was still busy talking to one another as though they had not heard that booming voice.

As I sat there stunned by the experience, my first impression after hearing the Lord Jesus say this to me, was "Why? Who is dying??" A few months later began one of the hardest intercessions I have ever gone through in my life, regarding the same spiritual son. I went through a great amount of death to self and the Lord used all that I went through as an intercession for multiplication of His Word and promises.

UNDERSTANDING UPDATE 6/10/10: Today on the way home from an appt I once again asked Him why He said that in such a BOOMING way this week. As soon as I acknowledged that Jesus Himself spoke to me, "I will never forget you!" the following scripture came to mind, and so I prayed the scripture out loud on the way home. I realized as I was praying it, that after so much agony, I had wanted to forget my spiritual son who refused fellowship and the scripture was perfect and the Lord's answer to give me understanding.

Isa 49:14-23 AMP
But Zion [Jerusalem, her people as seen in captivity] said, The Lord has forsaken me, and my Lord has forgotten me. 15 [And the Lord answered] Can a woman forget her nursing child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? Yes, they may forget, yet I will not forget you. 16 Behold, I have indelibly imprinted (tattooed a picture of) you on the palm of each of My hands; [O Zion] your walls are continually before Me.

Your children and your builders make haste; your destroyers and those who laid you waste go forth from you. 18 Lift up your eyes round about and see [the returning exiles, ready to rebuild Jerusalem]; all these gather together and come to you. As I live, says the Lord, you [Zion] shall surely clothe yourself with them all as with an ornament and bind them on you as a bride does. 19 For your waste and desolate places and your land [once the scene] of destruction surely now [in coming years] will be too narrow to accommodate the population, and those who once swallowed you up will be far away. 20 The children of your bereavement [born during your captivity] shall yet say in your ears, The place is too narrow for me; make room for me, that I may live.

Then [Zion], you will say in your heart, Who has borne me all these children, seeing that I lost my offspring and am alone and barren and unfruitful, an exile put away and wandering hither and thither? And who brought them up? Behold, I was left alone [put away by the Lord, my Husband]; from where then did all these children come?

Thus says the Lord God: Behold, I will lift up My hand to the Gentile nations and set up My standard and raise high My signal banner to the peoples; and they will bring your sons in the bosom of their garments, and your daughters will be carried upon their shoulders. 23 And kings shall be your foster fathers and guardians, and their queens your nursing mothers. They shall bow down to you with their faces to the earth and lick up the dust of your feet; and you shall know [with an acquaintance and understanding based on and grounded in personal experience] that I am the Lord; for they shall not be put to shame who wait for, look for, hope for, and expect Me.

SANDY COMMENTS: When I got home I saw that Tao had posted to my forum. Tao knew nothing of my experience of hearing the Lord's booming voice.

TAO CONFIRMATION 6/10/10 GOD BE MERCIFUL TO AMERICA!

TAO EXPERIENCE: Very early in the morning(6/10/10), I woke up from a very emotional and desperate prayer. The prayer was very simple "God, be merciful to America..." I repeated it a couple of times, then I prayed a Bible scripture at the end. The scripture is Isaiah 49:15 "Can a mother forget the baby at her breast and have no compassion on the child she has borne? Though she may forget, I will not forget you!"

After praying the scripture, I woke up.

Immediately I thought of the following scriptures from Mark 10:

Blind Bartimaeus Receives His Sight
Then they came to Jericho. As Jesus and his disciples, together with a large crowd, were leaving the city, a blind man, Bartimaeus (that is, the Son of Timaeus), was sitting by the roadside begging. 47When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" 48Many rebuked him and told him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

49Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." So they called to the blind man, "Cheer up! On your feet! He's calling you."50 Throwing his cloak aside, he jumped to his feet and came to Jesus. 51"What do you want me to do for you?" Jesus asked him. The blind man said, "Rabbi, I want to see." 52"Go," said Jesus, "your faith has healed you." Immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus along the road.

Just like Blind Bartimaeus shouted "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" we need the same for America at this time.

As I ponder on this, I strongly sense that America comes to the desperate place to need His MERCY. It is not an option but it is a must. It is the time for the church to wake up and cry to the Lord “Lord, have Mercy on America”.

Love and blessings,

Tao

SANDY COMMENTS CONTINUED: When combining both Words, I believe the Lord is saying that though America is refusing her Godly foundations of "In God We Trust", and she is pushing Him out of our schools, government, laws and social morals, that God will not forget nor forsake her, EVER. I also understand the great agony and grief He is going through in loving America and Israel so much, and how He continues to suffer long over His wayward children. I strongly believe this is also a Word for Israel because the scripture is about Israel and speaks of her walls continually are before Him. Last night on one of the Christian channels, I saw a Jewish man kissing the western wall as he prayed. Israel is in a great desperate place too and our destiny is connected with hers.

TO "HEAR" THE FULLER UNDERSTANDING 3/01/09

A couple months ago a lady prophesied over me that the Lord had taken me through many layers of revelation. She said it was now time to have the full understanding of what He had given me. She had no idea what she was talking about, but just obediently shared this in prophesy.

A couple weeks later the Lord asked me to build a file of just the Words of His still small voice, visions and dreams. I took out all interps, Words to Ponders, confirmations and all the extra things I gather that connect with what I hear and see. This file is going to be easy and fast for me to search keywords from now on. It's going to be a great help. In order to build this file, I have had to read every entry in order to title it and put them into paragraphs. I have been totally astounded at what I have discovered. It has built my faith like nothing I have ever known before.

We all hear and see in part, as that is scriptural until the fullness comes. And so my rhema is in snipits and parts. I have had enough confirmations along the years to know it is the Lord, but it has stretched me too because of the dark speech, riddles, and parts and pieces.

Well this time when I read it, everything has made total sense to me!!! I have been very shocked. I had no idea when I heard most of it that it was foreknowledge and it had not happened yet. But now that I am reading it, it is all hindsight and fulfilled. He left me special buzz words throughout, that were little remembrances of instances and so I suddenly had a frame of reference of what time, circumstance or issue He was speaking about. This has totally astounded me to now read it all in hindsight and with understanding, just as the lady's prophesy said would happen. It didnt make sense because it hadnt been fulfilled yet. But it sure does now. This experience has removed some obstructions I have had in my spiritual ears and also faith level.

This incident is also a manifestation of the Word the Lord gave me for 2009: that it would be the year our fruit was manifest of what we have been nurturing for many years.

Today Anna sent me what she saw last night and it was a confirmation to what the Lord has been doing in my reading the rhema in hindsight.

ANNA RHEMA 3/01/09: T HORN OF MISUNDERSTANDING ABOLISHED
SAW: I saw my uncapped jar full of q-tips that I use to clean my ears.

> CT: 6:20 AM Thorn abolished. To leave behind.
> KJV 2 Timothy 4:13 The cloke that I left <620> at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments.

SANDY INTERP: There is no longer a thorn of misunderstanding or stumbling blocks in your ears. You understand the Words I have spoken to you and are walking that path now. Bring your books with you, but especially the rhema that I have spoken to you!

> UPDATE CONFIRMATION 3/07/09
> I smiled when I read the following email! It was a confirmation to the Lord clearing the obstructions out of our spiritual hearing!
> Hi Sandy, just thought that I would share a new product that I got last week. It's called Ear Candles and I had never heard of them before. You put them in your ear and burn them very slowly and the slight heat from the candle pulls all the gunk in your ears out! When you take the candle out you can cut open the tip and see what has come out, you'll be surprised at how much there is! A friend who is a nurse told me about them and says everyone should use them once or twice a year.

WORD TO PONDER: TO REMOVE WHAT STUMBLES YOUR FAITH IN HEARING MY VOICE 3/01/09

Beloved ones, as you have been faithful to keep your candle lit to hear Me, I AM being faithful to answer your prayers to open your ears to hear My voice more. I AM removing the stumbling blocks that have held you back from hearing My voice. I want you to have complete access to hear Me clearly. Rejoice as your long time prayers are being answered!

1 Kings 19:11-13 NKJV
Then He said, "Go out, and stand on the mountain before the LORD." And behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind tore into the mountains and broke the rocks in pieces before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire a still small voice. So it was, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood in the entrance of the cave. Suddenly a voice came to him, and said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

Luke 10:23-24 NKJV
Then He turned to His disciples and said privately, "Blessed are the eyes which see the things you see; 24 for I tell you that many prophets and kings have desired to see what you see , and have not seen it, and to hear what you hear, and have not heard it."

PRE-SERVICE PRAYER MEETING: THE BREAK ANOINTING THROUGH TENACITY AND UNITY 5/12/07

BRIEF IMPRESSION: Tonight in pre-prayer I heard the intercessor next to me say the word “angels” when she was speaking in tongues. I leaned over and told her that, so I prayed that the angels would come and that tonight we would experience an Explosion in the Spirit. I had the impression of something so powerful happening that the Lord would send forth a lightning rod down from heaven and scatter our enemies. I did not see this, but asked for it as it was impressed upon my heart.

TENACITY: We ended up having massive unified warfare. It was one of the most powerful prayer meetings I have ever been in. Each level seemed to grow after the next. We would think we were done, then someone would say, we are not yet done, we need to continue to press through! We had never had such pressing through, where we would become quieter and then another call and wave of His Spirit to press on. After several had lead out in prayer with the rest loudly backing in tongues, we had ended up all facing the same direction and clapping our hands together slowly in one united sound. It reverberated in the room and I knew this was the sound of God's army marching - the sound of feet in perfect cadence upon the earth. We had united with heaven's army and it was a powerful moment.

At the very end of this, I opened my mouth to release one long, loud sound for as long as I could release it in one breath. Then I took another deep breath and did the same sound again. I felt led to do this over and over again as though relentlessly. This repeated over and over again. Soon the whole room was doing the same thing, first I would sound and then they responded in the same. Pastor ran into the other room and brought back his shofar and blew it and we responded to that. I suddenly realized that the sound that we were making together was a cross between a warrior's cry and an announcement from a clarion trumpet.

OPENED EARS: Then I heard a loud angel say, "The breaker anointing." The voice was heavily impacting and not the Lord's still small voice. As soon as I heard him, I was hit by the power of God, I doubled over into the birthing position and yelled out several times with trembling. It was a brief moment of travail.

INTERPRETATION OF TONGUES: Right after that I had an interpretation of one of the words the intercessor spoke in tongues. She clearly said, “Crescendo!”

(That is a musician's term from a building up or climax. No kidding, I smiled at that!!!)

QUIET TIME: During our time of waiting upon the Lord after this, I heard the Lord's still small voice.

HEARD*; Tenacity. I show Myself strong on behalf of those who unite. Follow through. Dominion. Shatter their ranks. Explosive union by My hand.*

CONFIRMATION: During share time one of the intercessors said she heard, The army of the Lord brings break through.

CHURCH: Worship was powerful tonight at church. Pastor's wife stood up and proclaimed the following scripture. I felt it was a confirmation that what I had sensed at the beginning of prayer meeting, that we would have an explosion and it would result from the lightning of God. God indeed scattered our enemies.

> 2 Sam 22:14-16 NKJV "The LORD thundered from heaven, And the Most High uttered His voice. He sent out arrows and scattered them; Lightning bolts, and He vanquished them. Then the channels of the sea were seen, The foundations of the world were uncovered, At the rebuke of the LORD, at the blast of the breath of His nostrils.

THE WORD FROM THE BREAKER ANGEL: Breaking Through Barrenness When I got home from church I had the following email sent to me and knew it was a confirmation to one of the intercessions that had taken place during pre-prayer. It was something that was warred for and then released to us. It was a direct confirmation to what I had experienced at pre-prayer, what I had sent in an email just prior to leaving for church, and the picture I saw during church.

EMAIL CONFIRMATION: I read the following from an intercessory friend when I got home: “Two days ago I had a new experience with the Lord and I have been praying and thinking about it. I was first worshiping Him with songs as the Spirit gave them to me. Now many times after some worship like that it has happened that I literally feel my spirit entering a deep stillness, peace, an other dimension. It is like floating in space. In this place then I started to hear a sound, a note that came closer and closer to me, entered me and then through me the natural realm as I started to sing that one note only.

When I asked the Lord what was happening I felt Him say that note, that heavenly sound was a weapon against a particular spirit in the area: the spirit of barrenness.

So I just kept singing that note. I felt that one note had a form, a depth, a substance and I have never heard such a thing before. It was nothing of me, totally separate, just coming through me as if through a funnel. I also sensed that it literally annoyed demonic spirits and they were expressing their dislike clearly."

CONFIRMATION: Just prior to going to church I sent a long email to someone about releasing the seeds that God has planted inside of us. The very end of the email was what I had heard on 10/21/04:

HEARD: Harvest. I planted you. Right on. Don't let go. Promises.

PIX: I was standing on a bridge looking down upon a river that was flowing with a gentle current.

HEARD: When we were at lunch you could hear the Savior say to believe. All these Words so lovingly planted. Trust Me. The power of My seed. Is not barren. There is beyond the heart that is depairin'. So trust Me as we win this war over dead faith.

The trust that You planted is given freely. A harvest of seed is coming your way. A harvest of seeds bearing after its kind. Woa.

VISION DURING CHURCH: I saw a little acorn and knew it was destined to be a huge oak tree. I felt the acorn was either dead, dormant or barren faith. And so I cupped my hands around it and began to blow upon it. I blew 4 times. And each time was a long blast of hot air. My hands became very hot and I knew this seemingly dead acorn came to life. I had a rush of heat all over me. And then I held it in my hand, open palm, and sprinkled salt upon it to represent His irrevocable covenant, and then I dug a hole, planted it, and poured rain down upon it.... I pantomimed all of this with my eyes closed.

I am sure if anyone was looking they must have thought it very strange. Smile! Let's just face it, intercessors are radical believers and what they do best is birth on earth what God speaks in heaven.

VISION: Then I was very gratified to see a picture of a green spout come through the broken shell and I knew it had come to life and would bear fruit after its kind and come into its full destiny.

CONFIRMATION: Pastor preached out of Isa 61: 1-7 and I noticed one of the verses in there was the following:

> Isa 61:3 AMP To grant [consolation and joy] to those who mourn in Zion - to give them an ornament (a garland or diadem) of beauty instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of mourning, the garment [expressive] of praise instead of a heavy, burdened, and failing spirit - that they may be called oaks of righteousness [lofty, strong, and magnificent, distinguished for uprightness, justice, and right standing with God], the planting of the Lord, that He may be glorified.

FINAL NOTE: I just finished typing this from last night's meeting where one of the things broken through was barrenness. Today is Mother's day, 2007.

STEP INTO YOUR PLACES, WOMEN OF GOD

It's Time; Will You Respond As He Comes For You?

5/5/02

Hi Loved Ones,

The following are bits and pieces of revelation that the Lord has been speaking this year on behalf of women coming into their places and callings in the Lord. As usual, in my newsletters I prefer to share the misc. pieces of what the Lord gives me, to teach how He speaks. Here it is in the order in which it was given to me.

On January 9th of this year, we had a little baby girl born into our church. All during the pregnancy as we prayed for mother and child, we knew she was a girl, we also knew she had been named Parker Grace and I knew from the Lord that she was to be a sign to us. So prophetically speaking I paid close attention to the meaning of her (male and female) name, the details of her birth, the date, her weight, the first time I saw her, and anything the Lord wanted to highlight and quicken to me.

The Lord delivered her quickly and suddenly even though the umbilical cord was wrapped around her neck. The first time I saw her, was when I had turned around in my chair to look at the back of the church. There on the floor kneeled 3 little girls in a row. They were as close as they could possibly be to little baby Parker Grace who was supping at her mother's breast. And so back in January, as I compiled the quickened bits of information about her, the Lord gave me the following Word to Ponder.

WORD TO PONDER FOR PARKER GRACE BORN ON 1/9/02

Little Parker Grace. You have been born into a man's world, but I shall teach you that there is neither male nor female in Christ Jesus. Throughout your life, I will give you doors of favor from both male and female. I shall bring you into green pastures and you shall find rest for your soul. You will learn the secret of trusting in Me and I will make your burdens light. My gifts and favor shall be sprinkled liberally in your life.

In all places where the enemy would seek to steal, I shall bring you swiftly through and suddenly you shall be delivered from his snare. This too is My gift and My favor, dear Parker Grace. And so this day as you have been brought into the world, so I shall draw the hearts of generations before you and their hearts will be turned toward you. You will be a living example where the curses of many generations have been broken, for I have also turned the hearts of your parents toward you, and I shall turn your heart toward them.

Luke 2:39-40 NKJV

"And the Child grew and became strong in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon Him."

Heb 4:16 NKJV

"Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need."

{end Word to Ponder}

Then in March of this year, I heard the Lord talk to me about certain areas of my calling that I had not yet come into. As I was listening to His still small voice, it was starting to make me feel a bit uncomfortable and I am sure you will guess why when you read what He said in response! After I started to squirm, I heard Him say: "Lady? ? Do you think THAT makes a difference to Me? It's not about who you are, it's about Who I Am. I will show you how." It was very clear how He felt about my insecurities and so I wrote the following Word to Ponder based upon that night's rhema.

WORD TO PONDER: NEITHER MALE NOR FEMALE 3/4/02

Do you think that it makes a difference to My kingdom, whether you are male or female? I send you in My Name, Jesus Christ. It is not about who you are, but about Who I Am. Do not worry, do not fret, I will show you how. Step by step we shall take the journey together and you will learn that the world's opinions are of little value when faced with My power and My authority. Whether you are weak or strong, all that matters is that you lean upon Me. I will bring you before My throne and commission you for supernatural service. I have a harvest to bring in and I will empower you to witness all that you see and hear from Me. I will do the rest.

"For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise." (Gal 3:26-29 NKJV)

{end Word to Ponder}

Then on April 10th of this year, a friend from New York emailed me and said that Bob Jones had come. Here is a quote from his email: "He also spoke a great deal about this being The Year of the Woman, and the Lord's preparation for women to be significantly involved in the five-fold ministries that are only now being announced and released in the heavens."

On May 4, I listened to a tape from the MorningStar Advanced Prophetic Conference. The tape was called "Dreams, Visions and Trances" by Jack Deere.

MorningStar: http://www.morningstarministries.org/

Elijah list tape order #: (541) 917-0484]

At the end of the tape Bob Jones shared the following revelation that the Lord had given him.

QUOTE BOB JONES

Taped on 3/21/02 in Charlotte, NC

{Permission given to quote}

"Let all you sisters between the ages of 30 and 50 stand up. Now I have already brought this Word and I am just quickened to bring it again. Those of you between 30 and 50 are going to begin to invade the 5-fold. (Immediate sounds of women shouting and clapping in the audience.) This is the year of the women. This is the year that the woman comes forth. The teachers. Those with a compassion anointing. Evangelism. Prophets. And I got news for you; there's going to be women Apostles, there already are. I believe that some of the women have actually run before the men with real anointings. And the age of priesthood begins at 30. And it ends at 50 where you have kicked up another one. This is what He was saying. This is the year that My women are going to come forth. There is neither male nor female. And those between 30 and 50 I am going to use in all the areas.

So Lord, You called them. There is neither male nor female in this. So begin to give them Your revelation so they can accomplish Your purpose. For we have been 50 percenters without the sisters. And now let the sisters come along our sides and let them overcome their 2nd citizenship mentality. And let them get a hold that they are first class citizens along with the men.

I believe the real bowels of compassion that we are getting ready for is going to come out of you women. Compassion that the enemy can not hold back. So let that compassion come out of them and let that compassion in intercession be able to take a hold of the Lord and not give up until He releases the thing that they are praying for. So let this come forth in our sisters now. In Jesus Name. Amen."

{end Bob Jones quote}

SCRIPTURES ABOUT BOB'S WORD

The phrase, five fold ministry, is based upon this scripture: "And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ, till we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; (Eph 4:11-13 NKJV)

The ages of the priests: "The count included all the men between thirty and fifty years of age who were eligible for service in the Tabernacle…" (Num 4:34-35 NLT)

Male nor female: (Gal 3:26-29)

And it ends at 50 where you have kicked up another one: Those older than 50 will be sent to support the youth. "And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse." (Mal 4:6 KJV)

After hearing this tape on dreams and visions, that night it inspired me to ask the Lord for a dream from Him. And He answered my prayer. It is a confirmation dream to Bob's Word.

CONFIRMATION DREAM: IT IS TIME, MY LOVE

(night of 5/4/02)

SCENE ONE: I saw a Man give an invitation to a woman He loved. I did not see His face, but was most taken with the fact that the Words He spoke were very important to her. She worked at a bus station and He had come there to ask her something intimate and share His love for her. They agreed together over whatever He had spoken, and that they would wait the prescribed amount of time. Then He would return for her and ask her again.

SCENE TWO: On the exact date many years later, He returned to the bus station. I saw many employees, but did not see the woman. Nevertheless, He fulfilled His Word and He began to speak. While He was speaking, the people at the station gathered around a little crystal clear pool of water. My eyes followed down the line of people who were gathered at the pool, but I still did not see her.

As He was speaking, I suddenly heard her voice speak from a distance. She had kept in her heart all the things He had spoken to her years before. Now she was repeating back to Him those same things, as though memorized, but still as fresh in her love for Him as the day He spoke them many years before. As her voice drew nearer, My eyes went to the end of the pool and there she was.

She had on a floor length, white linen robe, with a matching floor length mantle and hood attached. Her head was bowed looking down at the ground consequently the hood was covering her face so that she was completely cloaked in white linen. Then her voice grew stronger as she took one step forward, raising her head at the same moment. Then it looked as though she had been hiding behind all her garb and as she stepped forward, she was actually stepping forward into her white garments at the same time. I saw her exposed face and it was radiating with love in response to her Beloved. She was very lovely and her voice was quite feminine and her appearance was innocent and chaste, as though either her youth had been restored, or she had been remarkably kept in innocence and purity. It was very hard to tell her approximate age, for I knew many years had passed and she had matured, but her countenance was innocent and radiant.

SCENE THREE: As I gazed upon this women, the second most remarkable thing about her was her hair. It had been peeled away to show her face and braided in one long braid. The braid had been brought forward to cascade over her left shoulder and it was very long. The tip of the braid ended in a sharp point extending to her reproductive area. I was most amazed by this braid. I knew that each knot in the braid represented one year of waiting for her Beloved to return for her. It was a very remarkable scene to see her step forward with her shining face of love and knowing how she had kept His Words in her heart all those years. As I was thinking this, I looked over at the Man.

He had on the same white robe but without a mantle and hood. And although I did not notice His face, I was surprised, for He had the same identical braid that she had. It was the same length as hers, and ended in the same way. He was not ashamed of His hair. He too had waited right along with her, suffering the groanings of each year.

{end of dream}

INTERPRETATION OF THE DREAM

When I woke, I still had the same longings I had in the dream, as I was looking upon their braided hair and understanding what the knots meant. The Holy Spirit immediately reminded me that one of the Hebrew words for "wait" means to bind together by twisting.

OT:6960

qavah (kaw-vaw'); a primitive root; to bind together (perhaps by twisting), i.e. collect; (figuratively) to expect:

KJV - gather (together), look, patiently, tarry, wait (for, on, upon).

Isa 40:28-31 NKJV

Have you not known? Have you not heard? The everlasting God, the LORD, The Creator of the ends of the earth, Neither faints nor is weary. His understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the weak, And to those who have no might He increases strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, And the young men shall utterly fall, But those who WAIT {Strongs # 6960} on the LORD Shall renew their strength; They shall mount up with wings like eagles, They shall run and not be weary, They shall walk and not faint.

This morning as I re-listened to my hand recorder to type my rhema for the night, I heard what the Holy Spirit had said to me just prior to my falling asleep and having the dream. I realized that this too is a part of the Word: "A time of favor. I have been with you since the beginning. I have never left your side. I see no fault in thee."

As I pondered this, I was reminded that at first the women's face was hiding because she had been looking down. When one's eyes look down, it is a symbol of shyness, insecurity or shame. But as she responded to the favor and voice of the Lord she stepped forward, raising her head above her insecurities and the beautiful glory on her face was radiant. I thought of the following scripture.

Num 6:24-26 NKJV

"The LORD bless you and keep you; the LORD make His face shine upon you,

And be gracious to you; the LORD lift up His countenance upon you, and give you peace."

OTHER DREAM SYMBOLS

Bus station - modes of transportation usually symbolize one's relationship with the Lord, or ministry. The larger the mode, the larger the ministry. In a similar manner where the Lord carries us along in our lives, so a bus carries and moves people from one destination to another. Employees at the station speak of the workers or helpers in the ministry.

Faceless man - When there is a man that you know, feel loving towards or feel His love or help for you, but you cannot quite get a glimpse of His face, it is usually the Holy Spirit.

White linen robe - stands for the righteousness of the saints. "And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints." (Revelation 19:8 KJV) She was counted righteous in His eyes.

Fine linen was also found in the priest's attire, the curtains and veils of the temple, the Levite musicians, and the armies of heaven. (I Sam 2:18, Ex 26, 2 Chron 5:12, Rev 15:6, Rev 19:14) Linen was exported from Egypt and was the attire of the Egyptian priests. Because of this, Pharaoh dressed Joseph in linen upon his promotion (Gen 41:42). Mordecai was also dressed in linen upon his promotion. (Es 8:15) They made sails for ships with linen. (Ez 27:7) Jesus's body was wrapped with linen after His death. (John 19.40)

Hair growth pointing to the reproductive area - Hair represents strength (Jud 16:17) and glory (I Cor 11:15). And when a man let his hair grow, it was the Nazarite vow or promise, signifying holiness and separation unto the Lord.

Num 6:4-5 NLT

"As long as they are bound by their Nazirite vow, they are not allowed to eat or drink anything that comes from a grapevine, not even the grape seeds or skins. "They must never cut their hair throughout the time of their vow, for they are holy and set apart to the LORD. That is why they must let their hair grow long."

The fact that the Holy Spirit returned on the exact day to fulfill His promise, and the hair signified their years in waiting, it is significant that the braid ended in a point at the reproductive organs. The Holy Spirit is saying it is time to join in intimacy with Him to travail so that many spiritual children can come forth out of the union.

SUMMARY

WORD TO PONDER: IT IS TIME, MY LOVE

My Beloved, I have counted each moment of every year and groaned for this hour. All these years you have not seen My face, but I have never left you nor forsaken you. How it has comforted My own heart that you have relished My Words and My promises to you… that you have kept them, rehearsed them, nurtured them, letting My love for you grow deep inside. Yes I have comforted you with My Words, and yet within our fellowship of longings, you too have comforted Me by keeping My Word. Thank you dear one.

Through our years of waiting, I stood with you as you resisted all that would strangle and suffocate My promises to you. Even as you went through death to self with no promise in sight, I kept hope glowing in your heart and delivered you. What you did not see in your lifeless state was that I transformed your grave clothes into promotion. As you have come boldly before Me, I see no fault in you. For I have clothed you in white, washed by the blood of the Lamb and also the fires of your own testings. In the waiting, your mantle and glory has grown to full length. And yet still you do not see My hidden work within you.

As you look upon yourself, you only see weakness, human frailty, shyness, insecurity, shame from failure; and you wonder how I can possibly perform My Word through your life. I have called you not to look upon yourself, but to delight in My everlasting love for you. Let My favor, My grace, My longings and wooing wash over you to strengthen you. Let Me strengthen you in your weakness, let Me renew your strength in Me. For it is not what you can do in yourself, but what I can do through you. And I will bless you and keep you and I will make My face shine upon you. I will be gracious to you. I will lift Mine Own countenance upon you, and give you peace. You shall know My rest, as you lean your whole weight into Me. I will make your burdens light. For like the sails on a ship, I shall fill them and carry you with ease in your utter dependence upon Me.

It is time My Love. I come to you with the culmination of the groanings of many years in waiting. I have longed for our consummation, of My resurrection power to bring forth new life. Now let our combined compassion through intercession bring to birth that which I have promised. For we have many souls waiting to be born in this final harvest of children. I will empower you to bring them forth, and I will fill you with sweet Mother’s milk to raise them up. It’s My Word and it’s our hour. Will you be there when I call your name? Will you step forward into your place as you hear My voice?

Matt 9:36-38 NKJV

But when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were weary and scattered, like sheep having no shepherd. Then He said to His disciples, "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest."

FOR THOSE OVER 50

5/7/02

Hi Loved Ones,

The Lord revealed to me added revelation about my last post, "Step Into Your Places Women of God." The Word the Lord gave me was a two-fold mystery for those (regardless of age) who have not yet been called, and those who have. Both will be reborn as innocent babies into their callings. Both will be visited by the Holy Spirit. Both will be renewed.

The Word the Lord gave Bob Jones was an announcement. Many of those between the ages of 30-50 have not yet received their promises, their callings from the Lord. The Lord is making announcements even now to call these people between 30 and 50.

However there are those who are over 50 that have already received their callings but have grown old and weary in the waiting. They do not have the dew of their youth, and their bodies and callings need to be renewed. This is going to happen just like Moses' example, when he stood in the Presence of the Lord! Moses was 85 years old when he received his calling. (Acts 7:23, 24, 30, 31)

Deut 34:7 NKJV

Moses was one hundred and twenty years old when he died. His eyes were not dim nor his natural vigor dimished.

THEY THAT WAIT UPON THE LORD

This is the scripture the Lord gave me in the post regarding the dream about the lady being called forth by the Holy Spirit:

Isa 40:28-31 NKJV

Have you not known? Have you not heard? The everlasting God, the LORD, The Creator of the ends of the earth, Neither faints nor is weary. His understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the weak, And to those who have no might He increases strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, And the young men shall utterly fall, But those who WAIT on the LORD Shall renew their strength; They shall mount up with wings like eagles, They shall run and not be weary, They shall walk and not faint.

The promise is that if you wait, your strength shall be renewed. That scripture even contrasts it with the youth. Now re-consider this phrase from that dream:

INNOCENT AND CHASTE FROM WAITING

"She was very lovely and her voice was quite feminine and her appearance was innocent and chaste, as though either her youth had been restored, or she had been remarkably kept in innocence and purity. It was very hard to tell her approximate age, for I knew many years had passed and she had matured, but her countenance was innocent and radiant."

That section of the dream even points to the fact that even though the woman had matured with age, it was very hard to identify her age, as she appeared so radiant and innocent. I knew many years had passed. She, like the scripture, had grown youthful, she'd had her youth restored.

WOMEN REBORN FRESH AS THE HOLY SPIRIT

After I sent the post I heard the Lord say that women's ministries were being reborn as fresh as the Holy Spirit. I thought it an interesting riddle, and when I pondered it, He reminded me of baby Parker Grace mentioned in the post. When we go forth in our callings, we emerge like innocent babies, and we will grow a step at a time in walking out the gifts and promises of His grace upon our lives. Human age has nothing to do with the Lord fulfilling His promises. Though He has tarried, He will fulfill exactly what He has spoken.

REMEMBER SARAH'S WOMB; 90 YEARS OLD

Remember Sarah. Right now the Lord is calling the intercessors to partner with the Holy Spirit to birth the children of the harvest.

Gen 17:17 NLT

Then Abraham bowed down to the ground, but he laughed to himself in disbelief. "How could I become a father at the age of one hundred?" he wondered. "Besides, Sarah is ninety; how could she have a baby?"

EVANGELISM

According to Bob Jones' revelation, there are at least 1 billion youth going to come into the last day's harvest. I have heard the Lord tell me that these same youth are going to be the evangelists to bring in their peers. It is going to be the passion of these freshly born that will tell their stories to others. There will be watering holes that will be bursting with signs and wonders, healings and deliverances, with awesome and great glory of His Presence to draw them.

So after this great multitude is born, who is going to feed them and raise them up? Are they going to be left by themselves to raise their own?

As I have shared in past posts, He needs every possible resource that we have; our tape libraries, books, Bible studies, prayer groups, sermons, Words, Sunday Schools, testimonies, money, time, support to help raise the new born into Jesus image. You think you might not have a call to leadership? Think again. The Hebrew word "fathers" in the following scripture means father, grand fathers and forefathers.

Mal 4:6 NKJV

And he will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse.

VISION - HAVE FUN RAISING THE CHILDREN

In 1985 I received a trance vision. It was a most awesome experience when I literally felt the Lord fill my lungs with His breath. I took a deep breath and could feel His mighty wind rushing past my nostrils and down my throat. At the same time He opened my ears and I heard its very loud sound as it rushed into my lungs. It was just like a rushing mighty wind. As my lungs filled, it took several minutes to fill them to capacity!! I could feel the Lord's Presence as this occurred and thought what a mighty pair of lungs He has!

When I finished inhaling, I held it a brief moment, almost as in a delay. Then He opened my eyes and I gazed at multitudes of little blue and pink baby carriages. Each baby carriage carried a baby wrapped very snugly in a blue or pink blanket with a matching blue or pink milk bottle. My heart was filled with such tender feelings and a great nurturing for these babies. It was the Lord’s heart for His newborn children. I started to exhale upon them, gently at first. Like feathers in the wind, these babies arose and were carried upon the breath of God. Still exhaling, I watched them float ever so gently upon the breath of God. The breath grew stronger and they flurried around like snow flurries in the wind. This vision seemingly lasted a very long time as His exhale continued to blow.

When I came out of the vision, I heard the Lord say, "Have fun raising the children." It was a very powerful impacting voice. This vision has not yet been fulfilled, and I am a few months away from turning 50 years old. And I intimately know women in their 70’s who have callings and promises from God that have yet to be fulfilled. Is the Lord going to pass us by? No way. He is faithful and every jot and tittle will come to pass of His promises. He needs lots and lots of food for very hungry babies.

REMEMBER CALEB 85 YEARS OLD

These youth need a faithful and willing Caleb generation to raise them up. Caleb made it through the fiery trials of the wilderness and what he inherited was also for his children. Today there is a remnant generation of those who were given promises, who just like Caleb, have faithfully trusted and served the Lord in many, many years of waiting in the wilderness. They circled in delay, and they were given promises from the Lord. And the Lord will fulfill every Word.

Josh 14:7-12 NLT

"I was forty years old when Moses, the servant of the LORD, sent me from Kadesh-barnea to explore the land of Canaan. I returned and gave from my heart a good report, but my brothers who went with me frightened the people and discouraged them from entering the Promised Land. For my part, I followed the LORD my God completely. So that day Moses promised me, `The land of Canaan on which you were just walking will be your special possession and that of your descendants forever, because you wholeheartedly followed the LORD my God.' "Now, as you can see, the LORD has kept me alive and well as he promised for all these forty-five years since Moses made this promise--even while Israel wandered in the wilderness. Today I am eighty-five years old. I am as strong now as I was when Moses sent me on that journey, and I can still travel and fight as well as I could then. So I'm asking you to give me the hill country that the LORD promised me."

~~~~~~~

So beloved of the Lord, do not faint in waiting for the promises of the Lord. He has taken us through a great delay, and yet on the other side is a double portion reward for all that we have endured. We have such amazing times ahead of us, and He is going to use every available person, from every age to bring in the harvest and raise them up.

Matt 9:36-38 NKJV

But when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were weary and scattered, like sheep having no shepherd. Then He said to His disciples, "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest."

Lovingly,

Sandy

RHEMA 12/21/08 HIDDEN IN CHRIST

HEARD: I have hidden you.

QUICKENED REMEMBRANCE: I remembered what Graham Cooke said about being wrapped in the arms of Jesus. Graham Cooke's vision was about hiding in the secret place and being totally still in His arms. It is a place where you are wrapped up in Him and void of all fear and unrest.

In his vision, the demonic were chasing him, and suddenly he saw the Lord and ran into His arms and obeyed Him about being still. The demonic raced right past Graham and could not see him. It was like going into a transparent shower curtain, when his enemies were chasing him. He became invisible and they couldnt find him. He was enveloped in the Presence of the Lord. He could still hear the enemy curses, and rampaging violence all around him, but he had The Lord's arms around him; and in his left ear, he heard a still small voice – God's voice – and it was just a chuckle. God chuckled and said, "Look at that!"

The Lord began speaking to Graham about the secret place that this secret place is secret because the enemy does not know about it, and it is inside of you. [http://www.grahamcooke.co.uk/]

Col 3:1-7
If then you were raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God. 2 Set your mind on things above, not on things on the earth. 3 For you died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. 4 When Christ who is our life appears, then you also will appear with Him in glory. 5 Therefore put to death your members which are on the earth: fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. 6 Because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience, 7 in which you yourselves once walked when you lived in them.

> HID: To conceal secretly by covering > krupto
> NT:2928 krupto (kroop'-to); a primary verb; to conceal (properly, by covering):
> KJV - hide (self), keep secret, secret [-ly].
> WITH: To be in union with or together, companion, completeness
> NT:4862
> NT:4862 sun (soon); a primary preposition denoting union; with or together (but much closer than NT:3326 or NT:3844), i.e. by association, companionship, process, resemblance, possession, instrumentality, addition, etc.:
> KJV - beside, with. In composition it has similar applications, including completeness.

When the Lord reminded me of Graham being inside a shower curtain, He brought back the memory that the feast of Tabernacles were little tents or booths that people lived in. This is a symbol of our dwelling with God Who is inside us. God literally covers us when we are in companionship with Him.

Ps 27:5-65 NKJV
For in the time of trouble He shall hide me in His pavilion; In the secret place of His tabernacle He shall hide me; He shall set me high upon a rock. 6 And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies all around me; Therefore I will offer sacrifices of joy in His tabernacle ;I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to the LORD.

Ezek 37:26-28 NKJV
Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them, and it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; I will establish them and multiply them, and I will set My sanctuary in their midst forevermore. 27 My tabernacle also shall be with them; indeed I will be their God, and they shall be My people. 28 The nations also will know that I, the LORD, sanctify Israel, when My sanctuary is in their midst forevermore.

CONFIRMATION: Tonight after my having done today's study on being hidden in Christ, and covered, some emailed me their dream they had today. At the end, she said the following: "There were like curtains that went around me, so no one could see me….Hidden.. I wanted "alone time" and just sleep time."

RHEMA 5/11/07 THE KEY IS IN THE DOOR OF FAVOR
I woke this AM under oppression as I was slimed all night by the enemy. I had been fasting.

PASTOR'S PRAYER MEETING
HEARD*: Avenge My beloved. I will reward you.*

PIX: I saw a hand with a key in a lock start to turn it in a door knob.

HEARD: I am training you to walk circumspectly.

[PRAYER: Lord what's inside the door?] (I asked this several times)

QUICKENED MEMORY: The Holy Spirit then imparted to me what Wayne had told me this morning. He was listening to Sadhu, a prophet from India, preach on the Lord's favor. Sadhu spends a lot of time in prayer and many times he is given to see Jesus. Sadhu was preaching on favor and he said that one time the moment he went to prayer and called out on Jesus, that Jesus appeared to him with a glowing, loving face and said, “What may I do for you, My son?” Sadhu said that is the favor of the Lord, that even though we cant see Him, He is immediately there listening to us the moment we call upon His Name.

QUICKENED SCRIPTURE: As I was thinking about this, I thought of the following scripture, and so I mentioned to the Lord that I hoped it was the door of favor so that whatever we asked, it would be done.

John 15:7-8 NKJV If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you, you will ask what you desire, and it shall be done for you. By this My Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit; so you will be My disciples.

QUICKENED: Then pastor's wife prayed the phrase, “the door of Your promises.”

HEARD: The door of hope.

CONFIRMATION: Then pastor's wife prayed, “Open the door of favor”.

HEARD: In a moment's time. That's how fast. The key turns. Walk in.

CONFIRMATION: The second after I put the period at the end of the above two words, “Walk In,” pastor opened the door and walked into the room.

HEARD: Commissioned.

HEARD: [I was thinking about being slimed and how that affects us.] Faith.

IMPARTATION: The Lord imparted to me that the slime affects us only if we allow it to shake our faith and bring the veil of separation down. If we just renounce and rebuke and let the Holy Spirit wash it off, it does not impede us at all.

WORD TO PONDER: THE DOOR OF PROMISE, HOPE AND FAVOR 5/11/07
I have heard your cries for deliverance and I will avenge My Beloved and reward her for her faithful stand. Yes I AM training you to walk circumspectly, for your choices matter and time is too short to be slimed by the demonic when you need to hear Me. For injustice, I recompense more than enough. Even now I have placed a key in the door of hope. The door to your promises awaits and more importantly this is the door of My favor, where you shall ask what you will and it shall be done.

Be ready, be prepared, be expectant for in a moment's time the door opens. Do not miss your hour of visitation, but remain diligent to redeem the time. Every time you gather in My name, there is a great gathering for My kingdom agenda and history changes upon its impact.

Eph 5:15-21 NKJV See then that you walk circumspectly , not as fools but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be unwise, but understand what the will of the Lord is. And do not be drunk with wine, in which is dissipation; but be filled with the Spirit, speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord, giving thanks always for all things to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, submitting to one another in the fear of God.

Hos 2:15-17 NLT I will return her vineyards to her and transform the Valley of Trouble into a gateway of hope. She will give herself to me there, as she did long ago when she was young, when I freed her from her captivity in Egypt. "In that coming day," says the LORD, "you will call me 'my husband' instead of 'my master.'

Isa 61:2 AMP To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord [the year of His favor] and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all who mourn, [Matt 11:2-6; Luke 4:18,19; 7:22.]

PRE-SERVICE PRAYER MEETING: THE BREAK ANOINTING THROUGH TENACITY AND UNITY 5/12/07

BRIEF IMPRESSION: Tonight in pre-prayer I heard the intercessor next to me say the word “angels” when she was speaking in tongues. I leaned over and told her that, so I prayed that the angels would come and that tonight we would experience an Explosion in the Spirit. I had the impression of something so powerful happening that the Lord would send forth a lightning rod down from heaven and scatter our enemies. I did not see this, but asked for it as it was impressed upon my heart.

TENACITY: We ended up having massive unified warfare. It was one of the most powerful prayer meetings I have ever been in. Each level seemed to grow after the next. We would think we were done, then someone would say, we are not yet done, we need to continue to press through! We had never had such pressing through, where we would become quieter and then another call and wave of His Spirit to press on. After several had lead out in prayer with the rest loudly backing in tongues, we had ended up all facing the same direction and clapping our hands together slowly in one united sound. It reverberated in the room and I knew this was the sound of God's army marching - the sound of feet in perfect cadence upon the earth. We had united with heaven's army and it was a powerful moment.

At the very end of this, I opened my mouth to release one long, loud sound for as long as I could release it in one breath. Then I took another deep breath and did the same sound again. I felt led to do this over and over again as though relentlessly. This repeated over and over again. Soon the whole room was doing the same thing, first I would sound and then they responded in the same. Pastor ran into the other room and brought back his shofar and blew it and we responded to that. I suddenly realized that the sound that we were making together was a cross between a warrior's cry and an announcement from a clarion trumpet.

OPENED EARS: Then I heard a loud angel say, "The breaker anointing." The voice was heavily impacting and not the Lord's still small voice. As soon as I heard him, I was hit by the power of God, I doubled over into the birthing position and yelled out several times with trembling. It was a brief moment of travail.

INTERPRETATION OF TONGUES: Right after that I had an interpretation of one of the words the intercessor spoke in tongues. She clearly said, “Crescendo!”

(That is a musician's term from a building up or climax. No kidding, I smiled at that!!!)

QUIET TIME: During our time of waiting upon the Lord after this, I heard the Lord's still small voice.

HEARD*; Tenacity. I show Myself strong on behalf of those who unite. Follow through. Dominion. Shatter their ranks. Explosive union by My hand.*

CONFIRMATION: During share time one of the intercessors said she heard, The army of the Lord brings break through.

CHURCH: Worship was powerful tonight at church. Pastor's wife stood up and proclaimed the following scripture. I felt it was a confirmation that what I had sensed at the beginning of prayer meeting, that we would have an explosion and it would result from the lightning of God. God indeed scattered our enemies.

> 2 Sam 22:14-16 NKJV "The LORD thundered from heaven, And the Most High uttered His voice. He sent out arrows and scattered them; Lightning bolts, and He vanquished them. Then the channels of the sea were seen, The foundations of the world were uncovered, At the rebuke of the LORD, at the blast of the breath of His nostrils.

THE WORD FROM THE BREAKER ANGEL: Breaking Through Barrenness When I got home from church I had the following email sent to me and knew it was a confirmation to one of the intercessions that had taken place during pre-prayer. It was something that was warred for and then released to us. It was a direct confirmation to what I had experienced at pre-prayer, what I had sent in an email just prior to leaving for church, and the picture I saw during church.

EMAIL CONFIRMATION: I read the following from an intercessory friend when I got home: “Two days ago I had a new experience with the Lord and I have been praying and thinking about it. I was first worshiping Him with songs as the Spirit gave them to me. Now many times after some worship like that it has happened that I literally feel my spirit entering a deep stillness, peace, an other dimension. It is like floating in space. In this place then I started to hear a sound, a note that came closer and closer to me, entered me and then through me the natural realm as I started to sing that one note only.

When I asked the Lord what was happening I felt Him say that note, that heavenly sound was a weapon against a particular spirit in the area: the spirit of barrenness.

So I just kept singing that note. I felt that one note had a form, a depth, a substance and I have never heard such a thing before. It was nothing of me, totally separate, just coming through me as if through a funnel. I also sensed that it literally annoyed demonic spirits and they were expressing their dislike clearly.”

CONFIRMATION: Just prior to going to church I sent a long email to someone about releasing the seeds that God has planted inside of us. The very end of the email was what I had heard on 10/21/04:

HEARD: Harvest. I planted you. Right on. Don't let go. Promises.

PIX: I was standing on a bridge looking down upon a river that was flowing with a gentle current.

HEARD: When we were at lunch you could hear the Savior say to believe. All these Words so lovingly planted. Trust Me. The power of My seed. Is not barren. There is beyond the heart that is depairin'. So trust Me as we win this war over dead faith.

The trust that You planted is given freely. A harvest of seed is coming your way. A harvest of seeds bearing after its kind. Woa.

VISION DURING CHURCH: I saw a little acorn and knew it was destined to be a huge oak tree. I felt the acorn was either dead, dormant or barren faith. And so I cupped my hands around it and began to blow upon it. I blew 4 times. And each time was a long blast of hot air. My hands became very hot and I knew this seemingly dead acorn came to life. I had a rush of heat all over me. And then I held it in my hand, open palm, and sprinkled salt upon it to represent His irrevocable covenant, and then I dug a hole, planted it, and poured rain down upon it.... I pantomimed all of this with my eyes closed.

I am sure if anyone was looking they must have thought it very strange. Smile! Let's just face it, intercessors are radical believers and what they do best is birth on earth what God speaks in heaven.

VISION: Then I was very gratified to see a picture of a green spout come through the broken shell and I knew it had come to life and would bear fruit after its kind and come into its full destiny.

CONFIRMATION: Pastor preached out of Isa 61: 1-7 and I noticed one of the verses in there was the following:

> Isa 61:3 AMP To grant [consolation and joy] to those who mourn in Zion - to give them an ornament (a garland or diadem) of beauty instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of mourning, the garment [expressive] of praise instead of a heavy, burdened, and failing spirit - that they may be called oaks of righteousness [lofty, strong, and magnificent, distinguished for uprightness, justice, and right standing with God], the planting of the Lord, that He may be glorified.

FINAL NOTE: I just finished typing this from last night's meeting where one of the things broken through was barrenness. Today is Mother's day, 2007.

THE SPIRIT WORLD AND OUR THOUGHTS

I have been asked by people if the demonic world can hear our thoughts. With a great amount of experience in this, I have no doubt at all that they do indeed hear our thoughts.

This is shocking to some. They have been taught by the precepts of men that if they silently pray to the Lord, the enemy can not hear their prayers. (1 Tim 4:1) There is no particular scripture that proves whether the demonic world can or cannot hear our thoughts. However, reading the scriptures as a whole does bring some understanding about the spirit world.

COMMUNICATION IN THE SPIRIT WORLD

All angels, whether good angels or demonic fallen angels have celestial bodies and they communicate via thoughts, impressions, ideas and concepts without laboring over the language of words or creating them into sound. (Rev 12:7-9, 1 Cor 15:40-4, I Cor 2:14)

In scripture as well as in the experience of saints, angels have been recorded as speaking through dreams and visions. The receivers are actually hearing the angels in their thoughts and they are also communicating back to the angels through the same means. (Matt 1:20, Acts 10:2-3)

There are instances when other people have been present while the dream or vision was taking place and they do not hear or see the angel. For instance, husbands and wives have had this experience when both are in the same bed. The person who does hear, has a very difficult time realizing that it was spoken only to his thoughts, because the experience is so real. (Dan 10:7)

Jesus Himself said that the audible voice of His Father was for the benefit of the people in the crowd, not for Himself. Through this statement, Jesus implied that His relationship with the Father was not audible: "Father, bring glory to your name." Then a voice spoke from heaven, saying, "I have already brought it glory, and I will do it again." When the crowd heard the voice, some thought it was thunder, while others declared an angel had spoken to him. Then Jesus told them, "The voice was for your benefit, not mine." (John 12:28-30 NLT)

Jesus only did what He heard and saw the Father do. He also said that the Father lived inside of Him and it was the Father doing the works through Him. Jesus was given the Holy Spirit without measure and understood what it was to walk in the Spirit. Jesus also perceived the thoughts of men. These communications in the spirit world were for the most part, without physical sound or sight. It is our destiny to do the same works and even greater ones then Jesus did on earth. (John 5:19, 8:26, 28, 14:10, 3:34, Luke 5:22, Matt 9:4, Heb 4:12, John 14:12)

Documented testimonies of people who have either died and gone to heaven and come back to tell about it, or have been translated before the throne room in the 3rd heaven as Paul was, say that communication is immediate thought, much faster than using spoken words through the mouth and tongue. Not only that, but with the mere thought, instant travel and instant understanding are also possible.

Along the same concept, I met a prophetic man, who in the new company he was to work for, was introduced to the company prognosticator. The prognosticator was actually hired to manage the company funds via the stock market through using his occult skills. As they were introduced, they shook hands and he looked into the dark depths of the prognosticator's eyes. At the moment of contact, this prophetic man heard in his thoughts the prognosticator say to him in his thoughts, "I know who you are!" And the prophetic man thought right back at him, "And I know who YOU are!" It was the most remarkable experience this man had ever had. Not a spoken word took place between them. He was then taken to his new office to unpack his desk. Suddenly the procrastinator appeared in his doorway and said out loud, "I'll cut you a deal. You stay away from me, and I'll stay away from you, and we won't have any trouble." They both agreed!

DELIVERANCE MINISTRIES

It is known and experienced through various means in the deliverance ministries that demons can hear man's thoughts. For some, it is just as easy to cast out a demon (accompanied with demonic manifestation as evidence) by taking authority via the thoughts as it is through the spoken words. I have done this on a number of occasions over people. I know others who have done so.

I have also experienced demonic resistance hundreds of times in my mind. This occurs while waiting upon the Lord in prayer to hear His still small voice or see pictures and visions. To impede, the enemy puts up a fight. I see and hear demonic spirits giving me all kinds of resistance to whatever I am thinking about or praying. I rebuke and resist them in Jesus Name and they flee. Resistance against breakthroughs to hear the Lord is just a part of the package. This all takes place without my speaking a word out loud.

THE OCCULT WORLD

In the occult world, they consult with demonic spirits and make inquiries of such. The inquirer also receives answers. The scriptures do not express exactly how the communication between parties occur, however the scripture does say that the devil transforms himself into an angel of light. This means that the devil has the power to counterfeit the ways God speaks to man, including through the thoughts. (Deut 18:11, Gen 44:15, Isa 19:3, 1 Sam 28:7-8, 2 Kings 1:2-3, 2 Cor 11:14-15)

Our awesome God is omniscient, omnipresent, and omnipotent. That means that He knows EVERYTHING, is EVERYWHERE, and ALL POWERFUL. (Ps 14 7:5, Isa 40:28, Isa 46:10, Isa 44:6-7, Ps 139:7-8, Jer 23:23-24, 1 Chron 29:12, 1 Chron 29:11, Dan 6:26) The great news is that the enemy is NOT. He sends out demonic spies all over the land to collect information. And this is how the occult sometimes prognosticate with a degree of accuracy… the spirits spy on God's real prophets and anointed preachers, etc. (Job 1:7)

WARFARE IN THE THOUGHT LIFE

Paul says that part of our warfare is in our thought life: "For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, and being ready to punish all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled." (2 Cor 10:3-6 NKJV)

He also inferred that the devil beguiles us through our minds: "But [now] I am fearful, lest that even as the serpent beguiled Eve by his cunning, so your minds may be corrupted and seduced from wholehearted and sincere and pure devotion to Christ." (2 Cor 11:3 AMP]

OUR LIVES ARE OPEN BOOKS

It is my personal belief that our entire lives are open books before all of the spirit world. This means the angels, the demons, the cloud of witnesses who are in heaven, and the Lord. If we really understood this, we would live much holier lives. To think that an uncountable number of people in heaven can check in on us anytime they want to, is quite embarrassing if we are sinning. "Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a huge crowd of witnesses to the life of faith, let us strip off every weight that slows us down, especially the sin that so easily hinders our progress. And let us run with endurance the race that God has set before us." (Heb 12:1-2 NLT)

> "And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account." (Heb 4:13 NKJV)
> Ps 139:1-10 NLT
> O LORD, you have examined my heart and know everything about me. You know when I sit down or stand up. You know my every thought when far away. You chart the path ahead of me and tell me where to stop and rest. Every moment you know where I am.

You know what I am going to say even before I say it, LORD. You both precede and follow me. You place your hand of blessing on my head. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too great for me to know! I can never escape from your spirit! I can never get away from your presence! If I go up to heaven, you are there; if I go down to the place of the dead, you are there. If I ride the wings of the morning, if I dwell by the farthest oceans, even there your hand will guide me.

Let us not fear what is exposed to the enemy. Rather let us fear God.

SCRIPTURES

1. There are also scriptural instances where the demonic world cried out the secrets of God.

Mark 3:10-12 NLT

And whenever those possessed by evil spirits caught sight of him, they would fall down in front of him shrieking, "You are the Son of God!" But Jesus strictly warned them not to say who he was.

Mark 1:23-26 NLT

A man possessed by an evil spirit was in the synagogue, and he began shouting, "Why are you bothering us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are--the Holy One sent from God!" Jesus cut him short. "Be silent! Come out of the man." At that, the evil spirit screamed and threw the man into a convulsion, but then he left him.

Mark 5:6-8 NLT

When Jesus was still some distance away, the man saw him. He ran to meet Jesus and fell down before him. He gave a terrible scream, shrieking, "Why are you bothering me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? For God's sake, don't torture me!" For Jesus had already said to the spirit, "Come out of the man, you evil spirit."

Luke 4:33-37 NLT

Once when he was in the synagogue, a man possessed by a demon began shouting at Jesus, "Go away! Why are you bothering us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are--the Holy One sent from God." Jesus cut him short. "Be silent!" he told the demon. "Come out of the man!" The demon threw the man to the floor as the crowd watched; then it left him without hurting him further. Amazed, the people exclaimed, "What authority and power this man's words possess! Even evil spirits obey him and flee at his command!"

Acts 16:16-17 NLT

One day as we were going down to the place of prayer, we met a demon-possessed slave girl. She was a fortune-teller who earned a lot of money for her masters. She followed along behind us shouting, "These men are servants of the Most High God, and they have come to tell you how to be saved."

2. THE SCRIPTURE SAYS THAT IF THE RULERS HAD KNOWN, THEY WOULD NOT HAVE CRUCIFIED JESUS. WHAT DOES THAT MEAN?

NOTE ABOUT THE FOLLOWING SCRIPTURES: Jesus clearly and verbally told the disciples He was going to be killed. His death was also promised in the OT. The disciples even when clearly told that He would die, did not receive this truth until after the fact. Their preconceived interpretations about the Messiah blinded them to the truth.

The scriptures say that the church teaches the principalities and powers. How can this be, when they know the scriptures better then we? The answer is in our quickened faith that aligns with His scriptural truth and this releases the supernatural to understand.

1. JESUS VERBALLY TOLD HIS DISCIPLES HE WOULD BE KILLED

Mark 8:31-32 NLT

Then Jesus began to tell them that he, the Son of Man, would suffer many terrible things and be rejected by the leaders, the leading priests, and the teachers of religious law. He would be killed, and three days later he would rise again. As he talked about this openly with his disciples, Peter took him aside and told him he shouldn't say things like that.

Matt 16:21 NLT

From then on Jesus began to tell his disciples plainly that he had to go to Jerusalem, and he told them what would happen to him there. He would suffer at the hands of the leaders and the leading priests and the teachers of religious law. He would be killed, and he would be raised on the third day.

Matt 17:22-23 NLT

One day after they had returned to Galilee, Jesus told them, "The Son of Man is going to be betrayed. He will be killed, but three days later he will be raised from the dead." And the disciples' hearts were filled with grief.

Matt 26:23-24 NLT

He replied, "One of you who is eating with me now will betray me. For I, the Son of Man, must die, as the Scriptures declared long ago. But how terrible it will be for my betrayer. Far better for him if he had never been born!"

Matt 26:53-54 NLT

Don't you realize that I could ask my Father for thousands of angels to protect us, and he would send them instantly? But if I did, how would the Scriptures be fulfilled that describe what must happen now?"

Mark 9:30-32 NLT

Leaving that region, they traveled through Galilee. Jesus tried to avoid all publicity in order to spend more time with his disciples and teach them. He said to them, "The Son of Man is going to be betrayed. He will be killed, but three days later he will rise from the dead." But they didn't understand what he was saying, and they were afraid to ask him what he meant.

Ps 22, Ps 69, Isa 53, Zech 13:7, Luke 24:46, Acts 17:3, 1 Cor 15:3-4, Heb 2:8-10, Heb 9:22-23, 1

Peter 1:3, 1 Peter 1:11

2. YET THE RULERS OF THE AGE DID NOT KNOW IT

1 Cor 2:6-8 NKJV

But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, the hidden wisdom which God ordained before the ages for our glory, which none of the rulers of this age knew; for had they known, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

[Note: The word rulers in the Greek is translated to be both human and spiritual rulers.]

3. BECAUSE THE DISCIPLES WERE BLIND TO THE TRUTH UNTIL THE MOMENT OF QUICKENED REVELATION

Luke 24:13-16... 25-33 NLT

That same day two of Jesus' followers were walking to the village of Emmaus, seven miles out of Jerusalem. 14 As they walked along they were talking about everything that had happened. 15 Suddenly, Jesus himself came along and joined them and began walking beside them. 16 But they didn't know who he was, because God kept them from recognizing him....

... 25 Then Jesus said to them, "You are such foolish people! You find it so hard to believe all that the prophets wrote in the Scriptures. 26 Wasn't it clearly predicted by the prophets that the Messiah would have to suffer all these things before entering his time of glory?" 27 Then Jesus quoted passages from the writings of Moses and all the prophets, explaining what all the Scriptures said about himself. 28 By this time they were nearing Emmaus and the end of their journey. Jesus would have gone on, 29 but they begged him to stay the night with them, since it was getting late. So he went home with them. 30 As they sat down to eat, he took a small loaf of bread, asked God's blessing on it, broke it, then gave it to them. 31 Suddenly, their eyes were opened, and they recognized him. And at that moment he disappeared! 32 They said to each other, "Didn't our hearts feel strangely warm as he talked with us on the road and explained the Scriptures to us?"

4. BECAUSE THE CHURCH MAKES THE WISDOM OF GOD

MANIFEST TO THE RULERS

Eph 3:8-12 NKJV

To me, who am less than the least of all the saints, this grace was given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, and to make all see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the ages has been hidden in God who created all things through Jesus Christ; to the intent that now the manifold wisdom of God might be made known by the church to the principalities and powers in the heavenly places, according to the eternal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord, in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through faith in Him.

5. BECAUSE THE WORD MUST BE MIXED WITH FAITH

Heb 4:2 NKJV

For indeed the gospel was preached to us as well as to them; but the word which they heard did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard it.

God Speaks Through Puzzles

Sandy Warner ~ ~ swauthor@usa.net ~ ~ www.thequickenedword.com

PUZZLE PIECES AND THE BIGGER PICTURE

DREAM: Then I had a dream about someone trying to understand a mystery. A lady told the person, "If that's all the notes you keep, you'll never understand it. The Lord likes lengthy puzzles."

VISION: I saw puzzle pieces in the sky.

HEARD: Gathering.

INTERPRETATION: Building prophetic puzzles require time and journaling. That is because the Lord speaks to us line upon line, precept upon precept.

In the OT, the Hebrew word for dark speeches means puzzle. (Num 12:8)

==========

HEARD: It's a matter of discovery. Hold My hand, Precious, we are going somewhere. Interpretation, what you did not know.

NOTE: My daily journal entries come from His still small voice, quickened lines from signs while driving, quickened thoughts, visions, a line from what someone said, and all of life. Often these threads mean a whole story in themselves. At the time they are quickened to my heart, but later when I read them all together in one paragraph at the end of the day, an amazing story appears. This story is clearly His Word to me about something else that He has been wanting to speak to me about. This is very amazing to me and happens regularly. It is like I have been blind to what He is REALLY saying, and then when I read it as the day's story line, it comes to life once again and my eyes are opened and I hear another perspective. His Word is multidimensional.

==========

QUICKENED ARTICLE

Today an article in the paper was quickened. A fellow had asked his beloved if she would marry him in an unusual way. He went to the New York Times crossword puzzle maker and they put his proposal in the puzzle. At the end of the article, the New York Times fellow said that usually puzzles are two dimensional, but this one was 3 dimensions only made for a few people's eyes. This really hit me because I had been talking about the concepts of hearing God in multi level dimensions along with hearing His still small voice. He speaks in so many different levels in our lives, some obvious, most not obvious unless we have that special love language built between two who love each other.

==========

GRANDMA ANNA VISION: I saw someone sitting at a table working on a puzzle. The puzzle was very difficult. I knew the person was not to get discouraged in putting it together and give up.

==========

HEARD: The ministry of angels helps you watch for puzzles. Here's one.

VISION: I saw something dropping out of the ceiling, like a puzzle piece. It was dropping onto my head!

HEARD: We like puzzles too. Helping you build. Sometimes training is difficult. Work. War. Grace. We will help you. Angels.

VISION: I saw someone or something very close. It was just too close to see it well.

HEARD: Sometimes it's easier when you are not so close. Like far away. They line up. They connect. One, two, three.

HEARD: To smell. This one is out of place. Knock out. Grace to delete what is not quickened. Mold. Take the potters wheel. Shape.

Discern you. Smell. Hummm, smells good. I will help you. Rhema. What can be done. How do you apply this? What's the common denominator? How hard can it be? Puzzles, no harder than that.

The ABC's School. Downward into something more simple. Its impact is better.

WORD TO PONDER: PUZZLE PIECES AND THE BIGGER PICTURE

Like small puzzles pieces falling from the sky, I speak little glimpses of My Words into your life. Gather and collect these precious gems of revelation and quickened Words, for I will help you build a larger picture of understanding. Be open to hear Me in all the ways I speak, for I speak through many facets and multilevels. If you are tuned into Me, I will quicken My Words to you and they will bring you life and application.

Do not become discouraged in trying to understand what is not quickened. Feel free to put it on the shelf and at rare times even throw it out. If you have a pure heart in desiring My pure Words and you throw out what you perceive is mixture, yet it really is My Word, I will circle My Words until you do understand. I will confirm and under gird you to swallow all the Words I have sent.

If it is not My Word, it may look like the right shape yet when enough pieces have come together, you will clearly see that the piece is warped and does not fit into My picture. The more you know Me, the more you will more easily discern what is good and applicable. Sometimes you become discouraged when you try to understand things that are too close to visualize. Step back a bit and look at the long range view of your life and apply My Words at a distance. If you look at the overall view, you will not become confused by the smaller details and the overall view becomes more simplified and to the point.

How do you build puzzles for understanding? It’s simple, just look for the common denominators. Those Words which have common patterns and matching boundaries are meant to connect. And when they do, the eyes of your understanding are enlightened and your boundaries grow in confidence and stability. Enjoy the process, I love to confirm you.

"And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel." (Ezek 17:1- KJV)

THROUGH THE HEART OF STONE

[He is Knocking on the Door of Our Mortared Hearts]

==========

PROPHETIC VISITATION 6/19/04: THROUGH THE HEART OF STONE

HEARD: Pack all your cares away. Don't take them for another day. I will go with you. Abandonment. I have never left you. I want you to sink deeply into your roots in Me. I understand. I have walked where you are walking. It's not about your flesh, it's about My power working through you. Weakness. I am training you. You can handle this. It's about Me living in you. That's all that matters. Retreat? Never. Move forward into place. My beloved Bride. I am standing by your side. Don't argue. Enlargement. I am your full measure. You will not fall. My keeping power. We have to do it My way. I'm going to send you. Way past yourself. Leader. Into My throne room. Trust Me.

1 Peter 5:7

Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

Heb 13:5-6 NKJV

For He Himself has said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you." So we may boldly say: "The LORD is my helper; I will not fear. What can man do to me?"

Eph 4:13-14 NKJV

Till we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ;

HEARD: Knock, knock. Your emotions. They are under control, you are doing very well. It feels like a roller coaster, I know. I want you to experience these things so you will understand your children. In and out and up and down. My oh my and all around.

==========

NOTE: Upon hearing Him mention the roller coaster, the Holy Spirit brought back to my memory the following Word to Ponder:

ROLLER COASTER RIDE 1/25/03

I know that your feelings have felt like a roller coaster ride from the bottom to the top, and up and down again. First you're sad, then you're glad. Up and down and down and up. My what a time it has been!

Just like a tea pot, I have tipped you over and poured you out. Smile with Me and feel the joy that the strongholds have finally fallen in your life. These were mind-sets that you thought would never change but are now radically different. Just wait until you see the fruit! Yes, I know, you have waited long enough and you're tired of pouring steam. So let's move on now, one wonderful day a time. Proceed carefully and your road will be a whole lot smoother this time.

"Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth; And all flesh shall see the salvation of God." (Luke 3:5-6 KJV)

HEARD: Knock, knock, knock.

VISION: I saw a wooden chamber door with a rounded arch at the top, just large enough for a person to enter. I could see the outside of this small chamber room connecting to the door and it was mortared in cobblestones. I had the impression that the room was almost round, but not quite.

HEARD: Come in.

VISION: I saw the door opened and I felt the movement of walking in through the door.

HEARD: Got you!

[When I hear His still small voice, usually there is not emotion or inflection. His inner audible voice has inflection. But sometimes I do get strong inflection in hearing His still small voice. When I heard, "Got you!" it was very cheerful and I felt His humor and joy.]

OPENED SMELL: The inside of the room was dripping heavy with a man's perfume. It was like what Wayne wears that I love so much, but this was more poignant and I knew it was the Lord. It was an overwhelmingly beautiful aroma with great attraction and drawing.

NOTE: Evidently the Lord had been listening to my thoughts yesterday about Wayne's cologne. Sometimes Wayne will hug me and nestle his cheek against my face right after putting it on. Then later in the day I have noticed the yummy smell lingering upon me and I love it. As I was thinking about this, the Holy Spirit brought to mind the following scriptures:

Song 5:13 NKJV

His cheeks are like a bed of spices, banks of scented herbs. His lips are lilies, dripping liquid myrrh.

Song 5:4-5 NKJV

My beloved put his hand by the latch of the door, and my heart yearned for him. I arose to open for my beloved, and my hands dripped with myrrh, my fingers with liquid myrrh, on the handles of the lock.

HEARD: Would You please show us our future? It's a destiny made in heaven. For My purpose. Within the deep recesses. Come Holy Spirit. I won't be denied. It's a joy and a life as you experience it together side by side. One. They shall all know You. Room. Your hearts of stone to pulse once again.

QUICKENED IMPRESSION AND MEMORY: The Lord has been recently talking to me about His melting and changing our hearts of stone. As I watched an old Star Trek, there was a scene in sick bay where they had a stone about the size of a small heart and it lit up and played different sounds for whoever held the stone in their hand. This was really quickened to me that our Doctor Jesus has our hearts in His hands and He is doing Master surgery upon them.

On the outside of the stone were all these beautiful natural colored stones that were mortared or embedded into it. The stones glowed and pulsed with light and were alive in the song. I was reminded that the stone looked similar to the mortared cobblestone surrounding the chamber room, so both represent the heart's of stone coming alive.

HEARD: Heart of prayer. Stone. Right now, to feel again. What is lacking? She's afraid. Vulnerable. It's OK. I want to reassure her. I'm not leaving. Abandonment. She seems hard pressed, I know. I'm doing the work in her heart on the go. It's for My children, you see. To understand their destiny. Volunteer lovers, who will go for Me? Only those who want My way on earth.

==========

CONCLUSION

{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER 6/19/04 A WAY THROUGH THE HEART OF STONE

My beloved Bride, pack all your cares away and leave them with Me. Lean heavily upon Me as you sup with your roots grounded in My love. I understand your weaknesses and feelings of vulnerabilities, I also once walked the earth, you know. Always remember, it is not about your own power, but My power working through you. As you experience your weakness, draw deeply from our well and never retreat. I AM moving you forward into your place. I AM sending you and preparing you for leadership. Now trust Me.

Right now your emotions seem to be up and down and all around. I also understand this and want you to understand. As I AM moving you into your place, I AM also doing heart surgery. I AM opening a way through your heart of stone, this heart that is well barricaded with years of mortar for protection. I AM knocking upon the door of your heart with yearnings and wooing and tender caresses, I AM drawing you with the fragrance of My poignant spices. As you enter into this new place, you will be overcome with the rich smell of My Presence and passionate longings to embrace your heart. As you finally let go and let the climax of our union come to fruition, your heart will pulse once again. This stone of an existence you once knew will spring to life and pulsate with vibrate color and rich sounds that are unique to you.

Watch now, as I move you into the new beginnings with growing foundations that are solid, healthy and strong. Your hearts are becoming tenderized after many years of loss, pain, tragedy and sorrow. Allow Me access to do this work within you I greatly rejoice in you, My beloved ones, - always.

I understand this is greatly disconcerting to you, - to feel so vulnerable and without protection. You see the risks of loss and can not fathom a recovery should a tragedy take place. Precious one, know that I AM the Great Doctor. I do all things well. I will not abandon you, I will never leave you, I AM your destiny. Yes, volunteer love is different than the security of legal contracts. Consider this, that I too have weighed the risks and I have chosen to love you as you are, to embrace you as My own, and to call you My friend. Love is like that.

Ezek 11:19-21 NKJV

Then I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within them, and take the stony heart out of their flesh, and give them a heart of flesh,20 that they may walk in My statutes and keep My judgments and do them; and they shall be My people, and I will be their God.

ENDUED WITH POWER

MY TESTIMONY OF HIS ENDUEMENT

Since 1984 I have received several anointings from the Lord, several quickenings by His Holy Spirit upon the cells of my body, and also several impartations through the laying on of hands from anointed ministers of the Lord. In each experience I have received something different and specific from the Lord and my life changed as a result of these experiences. This particular post is when He "endued me with power from upon high." I do not know if this experience is (or will be) the same as others, but this is what happened to me. I apologize, this is 5 pages long, quite out of norm for Ears2Hear. However I felt this shouldn't be shortened or separated.

PREPARATION FOR THE CONFERENCE

For weeks before attending a Mahesh conference, I continued to turn with "anointed hands" to the scripture: "And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high." (Luke 24:49 KJV) [Anointed hands is my term for randomly opening the Bible and my eyes fall upon a scripture that is quickened to me.] Since I normally do not turn to this scripture, I felt that the Lord was trying to tell me something.

AT THE CONFERENCE

Mahesh mentioned in passing, the phrase, "Tarry until you are endued." This penetrated my heart, especially since I had already been alerted to that scripture.

CONFIRMATION

I again turned with anointed hands to the same scripture, Tarry until you are endued with power." (Luke 24:49)

VISION: I saw a series of dominoes flashing in front of my eyes. They went in succession from 4, 3, 2. I felt impressed that this was the countdown of the days of the conference and that it was one more day before something special would occur. I was hoping that it was His promised enduement!

HEARD: My daughter. Gloooooory service. I baptize you. Baptizer.

[I heard His still small voice say glory like that, and this was very funny!]

Acts 1:4-8 NKJV

And being assembled together with them, He commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the Promise of the Father, "which," He said, "you have heard from Me; 5 for John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now." 6 Therefore, when they had come together, they asked Him, saying, "Lord, will You at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?" 7 And He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or seasons which the Father has put in His own authority. 8 But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."

==========

WORD STUDY: When the Holy Spirit "fell" upon them, the Greek word "fell" means to embrace or seize with violence.

Acts 10:44 KJV

While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

FELL

NT:1968

epipipto (ep-ee-pip'-to); from NT:1909 and NT:4098; to embrace (with affection) or seize (with more or less violence; literally or figuratively):

==========

LAST SERVICE OF THE CONFERENCE

I was on the ministry team, but special arrangements had been made so I could ride home with my friends prior to the final evening meeting. Even though they were leaving to return home at a decent hour, and I did not have to minister that final meeting, I had a deep yearning to stay and tarry. This was a very difficult decision for me to let them go, and then call my husband saying I was coming home a day late. I had an expectation deep in my heart that the Lord wanted to give me something special.

ENDUED WITH POWER!

What would have happened had I not stayed???? Oh THANK YOU LORD! Tonight Mahesh prayed over all the people individually. He stopped before each one, and said a word or a sentence, and sometimes he was forceful and aggressive. When he came to me, he touched me gently on the forehead and whispered in my ear a very special phrase. He had no way of knowing that years ago the Lord had promised me that exact thing. This was a reiteration of that promise.

I did not receive an impartation from Mahesh. I went down very softly and was very touched by the fact it was so soft. I was nervous of falling having had a very bad experience. I felt nothing as I laid there and wondered if I had received anything like an impartation. I felt that I had not.

As the phrase Mahesh spoke to me began to work its way into my heart, I began to softly cry as I was so touched by the tenderness and love in which Mahesh gave me this Word. It was a representation of how I knew the Lord was treating me. I felt very vulnerable and receptive to the Lord's love at that moment.

Suddenly I heard the Lord's BOOMING voice say, "Daughter, you are anointed!" On the word anointed, it was as though a million volts of electricity charged through my entire body. I shook violently all over with even my heavy tennis shoes pounding the ground. It was totally radical! Then just as suddenly, the voltage stopped and I lay there perfectly still. That was even more amazing! As I was worshipping Him in my mind, I heard Him quietly say, "Protected" and again this violent voltage happened! This time it was so strong I began to laugh while I was being "wired". Then it stopped and once again I was perfectly at peace. A third time His voice and voltage came and I again heard, "Protected."

After these strong electrical currents stopped. I began to cry deep sobs. Strong pain that I had no idea was there came from the depths of my being. Grandma Anna turned over leaning against me and gently placed her hand upon my forehead. It was very soothing and immediately the deep pain left and I was surrounded in His peace once again. I sat up and watched others being blessed and again I heard the Lord say, "Anointed." Even though I was sitting up, I went berserk! I radically shook all over and my heavy tennis shoes were pounding on the floor. It was quite an experience.

IN BED

I managed to get up to my hotel room and I was laying in bed trying to go to sleep. Anna said a word that was quickened to me and I was struck again by His power voltage! My bed pounded like an earthquake, as the palms of my hands happened to be face down upon the mattress. This was hilarious!

I heard the Lord say, "Shake, rattle and roll!" and again the voltage came. I shook all over and laughed hysterically. I was so amazed at all of this, I had never been "touched" like this before. I finally went to sleep. Then I heard the Lord in the night.

HEARD: Anointed. The glory of God is coming. Step into the glory. Liquid light.

VISION: I saw moving, living liquid light swirls. It was like the Lord lifted the veil and I saw His glory briefly.

AMAZING EXPERIENCE

The next morning as I washed my face, I felt a slight burning as though it had been sun or wind burned. I looked at it carefully and sure enough I had sunburn even in the small cracks and wrinkles around my eyes. This was supernatural because I had not been in the sun at all. It was from the brief moment when the Lord lifted the veil and I saw His liquid light. I believe this was the Shekinah glory, the same that touched Moses' face.

Ex 34:29-30 NKJV

Now it was so, when Moses came down from Mount Sinai (and the two tablets of the Testimony were in Moses' hand when he came down from the mountain), that Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone while he talked with Him.

==========

UPDATE: I radically shook for several days, every time I heard the Lord speak to me. Finally the shaking began to quiet into trembling, then finally the trembles subsided into gentle waves of electricity, which is what I believe Jesus called, "virtue." (Mark 5:30) This was a process that continued over many months. The Lord explained to me that He was acclimatizing me to His anointing and Presence. (The priests who served the Lord in His temple had to be able to stand in His Presence. I Kings 8:11) His anointing had not diminished, but my physical body had become accustomed to it, and it seemed as though the anointing was also working its way deeper and deeper into my being.

Note: For more posts written about my experiences with His anointing check in the directory called Ears2Hear, under the 2 themes called "anointing" and "glory cloud."

==========

==========

{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration.}

WORD TO PONDER: WHEN MY ANOINTING FALLS

There are many exquisite joys when My anointing falls. Mankind has a weak frame and even in the tiniest portion of My power, he is unable to withstand. Rather than resisting in fear what you do not understand, jump in for joy and let Me touch you with My radical power. Yes, you may shake, you may tremble, you may bounce, you may roll, you may laugh hysterically one moment and cry deep sobs the next. Every moment will be filled to your capacity as you wait before Me and soak in My Presence. Feel the virtue of My power flow through your veins and out your hands.

Feel your cells surge with My Presence.

I promise you, you will never be the same. From then on, My power will reside within you and it shall be like a volcano churning beneath the surface. When in close proximity to My Word, My anointing, My Spirit, you may erupt at any given moment! Set your fears aside. Relax and enjoy life, My love, let all religious mind sets and appearances burn up and be set free to become radical for Me!

"May the glory of the LORD last forever! The LORD rejoices in all he has made! The earth trembles at his glance; the mountains burst into flame at his touch. I will sing to the LORD as long as I live. I will praise my God to my last breath! May he be pleased by all these thoughts about him, for I rejoice in the LORD." (Ps 104:31-34 NLT)

SUPERNATURAL 220 VOLTAGE

HEARD SONG: Plug her in, plug her in.

COMMENT: This was a funny Word! They have a commercial about the "Plug ins" that smell good when you plug them into a wall socket. The commercial song says, "Plug it in, plug it in." I had been thinking about being on the ministry team for an upcoming Paul Cain conference at the time I heard this song.

CONFIRMATION: I received a phone call filling me in on the various instructions for ministry teams for the conference. After I got off the phone that song, "Plug her in, plug her in" floated into my mind. I was tickled at this reminder from the Holy Spirit. He brings all things to remembrance. (John 14:26) Thank You Lord!

HEARD: You're welcome!

COMMENT: I am very happy about this Word, because I remembered Bob Jones' Word about the 220 plug needing to be plugged in before His supernatural show began. We also have a lot of rhema in the past about being plugged in. 220 power is double portion power.

==========

EXPERIENCE AT THE CONFERENCE
During this conference, I have had the most unusual Holy Spirit feelings. During each service, I have felt strength all during ministry, and then promptly after the last person I'd prayed for, my legs would suddenly turn like rubber and they'd feel as though they had a strong muscle relaxant or something like strong wine. I would wobble up to the hotel room and lay in bed with my legs totally effected in this way. I have never been drunk before, but this is probably how it feels in the muscles. This has happened every service during this conference, with my being fine during ministry and then after the last person my legs turn to rubber and I can barely make it to my room. I have never had this sensation before.

==========

HEARD [at the conference]: Double portion anointing. I have given you a deposit. Once you have it, obedience is important. You're heavily armed. Be careful. Use your weapon wisely. It is not necessary for all occasions.

FUNNY CONFIRMATION AT THE CONFERENCE
Tonight during worship as I was looking straight up at the ceiling I noticed a 220 wire right above my head. The Lord immediately reminded me of the rhema this month where I heard the commercial song, "Plug her in, plug her in." When I had heard that I was reminded of our hearing about the coming show and the only thing we were waiting for was that the power to be converted to 220 and be plugged in. Bob Jones also mentioned this great show coming. So I was pondering this as I was looking up at this huge wire.

I suddenly wondered if there was a parable to where I was standing and if I was standing somewhere near the plug. I followed the wire across the ceiling and down the wall. I noticed that it went to my left and out of sight around the small wall where the overhead projector was. Then I looked to my right and noticed another wire was going out the opposite direction, and then another one straight in front of me going out at a 90 degree angle into the room. I didn't see any plug so I said, "I guess there is no parable!" Then as I was worshipping again my head went back and I noticed that my arms were up in the air exactly between 2 huge cords hanging down from the ceiling. This stopped me in my tracks. I turned around and gawked at my feet. I had been standing directly in front of a the huge plug in the wall and that is why I hadn't seen it! I knew it was a confirmation for the double portion!

INEBRIATED HANDS AT THE CONFERENCE
This last powerful service, as I laid in bed expecting to feel rubber legs, I noticed my legs were just fine and that I had walked to my room without any problems. Then I realized my hands were inebriated and they also had strong tangible power surges going through them. It felt like electrical current of some kind. This lasted about an hour. I told Grandma Anna this and held her feet so she could feel what I meant. She felt the surges coming through my hands. It was the most interesting feeling and I have never had inebriated hands before! I told the Lord I really liked this especially since I was able to walk!!

WORD TO PONDER: SUPERNATURAL 220 VOLTAGE
For many years, you have waited along the sidelines. Faithful in your calling, you have blessed My house. You have earnestly awaited My promise of power. The countdown is here, My love. This is the final day.

Stay awake My love, for your time has come. I will give you My power, I fill you to the depths of your being. The lamp, once lit by 110 power has been replaced. I shall fill you with supernatural 220 voltage, enough to charge yourself and others as you walk in My supernatural. All you have waited for is at your door step. I have given you My deposit.

Whatever you have seen or heard in the days of old, is now replaced with twice the power. Look at that cord coming down from heaven! It is 220 power plugged in and ready for use. It's there, it's available. Simply plug into My power and use what is already installed. Stay obedient and prepare even now, for I AM going to reveal the greatest show ever witnessed on earth. A double portion is promised for the last days. Let the curtains rise. Turn on the power. Let the show begin!

"And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon Me." (2 Kings 2:9)

UPDATE PRAYER ROOM 220 POWER CONFIRMATION:
In the prayer room, when we first gathered and held hands in a circle, pastor said, "Charge us Lord." When he said that, I saw that we each were like batteries and our holding hands were like the battery cables and He was flowing in a circled current and charging us.

At the end, the sax player said he saw various people in the prayer room with large 220 plugs in our backs. Then he saw the fuse box and some hands pull down the reset lever and open the power. He said that some of the faces became so bright you could hardly see them. I was especially touched because he was unaware of the promise of this double portion power promise. And he did not even know the kind of plug he saw, all he could do was describe it.

I have been earnestly waiting for the double portion power for many years, standing and keeping His Word and promises close to my heart. I have written a lot about the 220 power.

UPDATE: The word electricity came from the word elektron, which is the Greek word for amber. Ancient Greeks used amber to create static electricity. In prophetic terms, the color amber represents the glory of God.

ACCLIMATIZED TO HIS ANOINTING
RHEMA 8/7/99 Becoming Acclimatized

Bob Jones said that those who minister in the strong Presence of the Lord will have to learn how to stand in the power of it. The Lord told me He was soaking His anointing through my layers, deeper and deeper. At first, every time the Lord came close, I would tremble and shake and if I heard His still small voice, I would radically shake. I am getting more acclimatized now, one layer at a time.

ANOINTING EXPERIENCE SOMETIMES FEELS LIKE AN AWAKENING VOLCANO
The anointing of the trembling is changing again. Now I can feel it start to build inside, and it wants to explode, but it is like a feeling underneath that stays dormant on the outside. It feels like it is just going to burst and then doesn't. He still gives me these sensations in various degrees. Sometimes it is a violent burst, sometimes it is gentle. Sometimes it comes very fast, and sometimes it is as though it is in slow motion. Sometimes after worship or prayer and I am being still before Him, I can feel it and I feel as though I am highly sensitized to His Presence and the least little thing will set me off like a volcano ready to burst. It is hard to explain, but this is the best I can describe.

[Lord what is this new thing I am feeling with Your anointing now?]

HEARD: Acclimated.

WORD TO PONDER TREMBLING IN MY PRESENCE 8/7/99
The anointing that you are experiencing is My precious gift to you. Sometimes it is experienced like a violent trembling. Other times it is so deep within that only brief glimpses are felt like gentle surges. Listen to My anointing and become acquainted with My Presence. I want you to become acclimatized. Sometimes My anointing is like a deep building volcano. Deep within it surges and builds almost to the point of explosion, then it goes deep once more to a feeling of dormancy. Sometimes these surges are very fast, other times it is almost in slow motion. You will notice that as you spend time in worship to Me, that you become highly sensitized to My Presence and the least little thing may bring a bursting eruption. Enjoy this delightful time in Me! I have purposes in your future that you know not of. For now I want you to know Me in this tangible and warm way.

"May the glory of the LORD last forever! The LORD rejoices in all he has made! The earth trembles at his glance; the mountains burst into flame at his touch. I will sing to the LORD as long as I live. I will praise my God to my last breath! May he be pleased by all these thoughts about him, for I rejoice in the LORD." (Ps 104:31-34 NLT)

RHEMA 1/13/09 THE FULL REVELATION IS NOW
One of our intercessors prophesied over me tonight. She said, "You have had layers upon layers, a layering in the Spirit. Things of the Lord. Revelation is coming, a time of now to be revealed. It wasn't time during the layering, but now is the time for it being revealed."

HEARD {later as I was pondering the Word} Into the now.

COMMENT: I know this is a corporate Word, because we are in the year 2009 which is manifesting the fullness of His full 9 fruits and gifts in our lives.

=======

UPDATE CONFIRMATION: 2/01/09 The last few days I have generated a condensed version of my rhema journey. The file contains only what I have seen in visions, dream and heard in His still small voice. I am now re-reading them. It is totally blowing me away as every bit of it makes sense, because I am reading it in hindsight with the wealth of my journey behind me. What was spoken in parts and pieces, were like little mystery nuggets of my journey yet to come. Now all the layers makes sense, nothing is missing or out of place. I can clearly see in hindsight that God truly, truly encircles, encompasses us with His Word. He knows all, is all, and nothing passes His scrutinizing inspection. Yet even in the midst of such detailed, specific scrutiny, His love and mercy reigns over all.

UPDATE CONFIRMATION 1/28/09
This post came out today, it is perfect for what I am doing in generating Throne Room Rivers of all the rhema. It is taking over 10,000 pages and condensing it down to something manageable of what is really important which is the Lord's still small voice and visions, etc.

RHEMA 9/20/08 BALANCING ACT
VISION: I saw a huge catalog with many pages bookmarked. It was standing on the bottom spine edge and slightly tilted as a ballerina would be leaning on one foot.

WORD TO PONDER: BALANCING ACT 9/20/08
You are juggling many things right now of weighty and important matters. Yes sometimes it feels like you are left standing on one foot. Beloved, rejoice for at least you are STANDING. Good job. I am turning pages in your life and marking your way with signs so that you will be able to jump from page to page even as a ballerina on her toes.

2 Sam 22:29-34 NKJV
For You are my lamp, O LORD; The LORD shall enlighten my darkness. For by You I can run against a troop; By my God I can leap over a wall. As for God, His way is perfect; The word of the LORD is proven; He is a shield to all who trust in Him. "For who is God, except the LORD? And who is a rock, except our God? God is my strength and power, And He makes my way perfect. He makes my feet like the feet of deer,
And sets me on my high places.

I ordered Bobby Conner's Shepherd Rod and the Lord said this was the "Year of the Open Book" in both the printed Word and the rhema Word.

WORD TO PONDER: THE FULLNESS OF REVELATION 1/13/09
Through out your years, I have encompassed you with My Words. Whether you acknowledge them or not, I have been faithful to speak them into your life and it is the power of My Word that sustains you, keeps you and raises you up. Beloved, My Word washes your spots and makes you holy and whole. In and through the process, My love for you never quits. You have known Me through a veil as though sleep walking. Arise My love, and open your eyes. I AM here. I was always here. I never left you. I will always be here. I will never leave you. I sustain your every breath, your every moment. Let the full revelation of Who I am in your life now come and you will know My faithful love as you have never known it before.

Luke 24:30-34 AMP
And it occurred that as He reclined at table with them, He took [a loaf of] bread and praised [God] and gave thanks and asked a blessing, and then broke it and was giving it to them. 31 When their eyes were [instantly] opened and they [clearly] recognized Him, and He vanished (departed invisibly). 32 And they said to one another, Were not our hearts greatly moved and burning within us while He was talking with us on the road and as He opened and explained to us [the sense of] the Scriptures? 33 And rising up that very hour, they went back to Jerusalem, where they found the Eleven [apostles] gathered together and those who were with them, 34 Who said, The Lord really has risen and has appeared to Simon (Peter)!

RHEMA 5/9/00: HOLY HUSH IN THE GARDEN

HEARD: Touch my hand. Showed me. Need to talk. Sit down.

OPENED SMELL: I smelled the sweet smell of the Lord.

HEARD: It's a new day. Uncertain. Cloudy. Authority. 1-800 pin drop.

HEARD: Not giving into sin. Comforter. Just be careful. Holy Spirit. Stay clean and cooperate. Holy Ground.

Are you listening? Shhhh. Quiet. The Lord is now present. Bow down. Kneel. He is able to deliver you. Surrounded.

DREAM: WALKING IN THE GARDEN OF GOD

I dreamed I was walking in a garden and there was a man walking in the garden. He was somewhat hidden and ethereal. In the garden, I saw the faces of a lion, a man and an eagle.

Ezek 1:5-21
5 From the center of the cloud came four living beings that looked human, 6 except that each had four faces and two pairs of wings. 7 Their legs were straight like human legs, but their feet were split like calves' feet and shone like burnished bronze. 8 Beneath each of their wings I could see human hands. 9 The wings of each living being touched the wings of the two beings beside it. The living beings were able to fly in any direction without turning around. 10 Each had a human face in the front, the face of a lion on the right side, the face of an ox on the left side, and the face of an eagle at the back. 11 Each had two pairs of outstretched wings--one pair stretched out to touch the wings of the living beings on either side of it, and the other pair covered its body. 12 They went in whatever direction the spirit chose, and they moved straight forward in all directions without having to turn around.

13 The living beings looked like bright coals of fire or brilliant torches, and it looked as though lightning was flashing back and forth among them. 14 And the living beings darted to and fro like flashes of lightning.

15 As I looked at these beings, I saw four wheels on the ground beneath them, one wheel belonging to each. 16 The wheels sparkled as if made of chrysolite. All four wheels looked the same; each wheel had a second wheel turning crosswise within it. 17 The beings could move forward in any of the four directions they faced, without turning as they moved. 18 The rims of the four wheels were awesomely tall, and they were covered with eyes all around the edges. 19 When the four living beings moved, the wheels moved with them. When they flew upward, the wheels went up, too. 20 The spirit of the four living beings was in the wheels. So wherever the spirit went, the wheels and the living beings went, too. 21 When the living beings moved, the wheels moved. When the living beings stopped, the wheels stopped. When the living beings flew into the air, the wheels rose up. For the spirit of the living beings was in the wheels.
NLT

Rev 4:6-8 NLT
In the center and around the throne were four living beings, each covered with eyes, front and back. 7 The first of these living beings had the form of a lion; the second looked like an ox; the third had a human face; and the fourth had the form of an eagle with wings spread out as though in flight. 8 Each of these living beings had six wings, and their wings were covered with eyes, inside and out. Day after day and night after night they keep on saying,

"Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty-- the one who always was, who is, and who is still to come."

RHEMA 10/9/00 SIMPLE SONGS OF LOVE

HEARD: Being alone with God. They go through the valley of weeping and it turns into blessing. Surrounded.

PIX: I saw a pair of hands come up and cup underneath a pair of ears.

PIX: I saw an amphitheater that was like surround sound.

PIX: I saw a glory light shine through the window upon a pair of glasses.

HEARD: Minister. And He walked with them in the coolness of the evening. In a garden. They knew the Presence of God. And then some. Shout and sing. Simpler songs of love.

> Ps 84:6, 7 NLT
> When they walk through the Valley of Weeping , it will become a place of refreshing springs,where pools of blessing collect after the rains! 7 They will continue to grow stronger,and each of them will appear before God in Jerusalem.
> Ps 84:12 NLT
> How lovely is your dwelling place,O LORD Almighty. 2 I long, yes, I faint with longing to enter the courts of the LORD.With my whole being, body and soul,I will shout joyfully to the living God. 3 Even the sparrow finds a home there,and the swallow builds her nest and raises her young - at a place near your altar,O LORD Almighty, my King and my God! 4 How happy are those who can live in your house,always singing your praises.Interlude
> Happy are those who are strong in the LORD,who set their minds on a pilgrimage to Jerusalem. 6 When they walk through the Valley of Weeping , it will become a place of refreshing springs,where pools of blessing collect after the rains! 7 They will continue to grow stronger,and each of them will appear before God in Jerusalem. 8 O LORD God Almighty, hear my prayer.Listen, O God of Israel.
> Interlude
> 9 O God, look with favor upon the king, our protector!Have mercy on the one you have anointed. 10 A single day in your courts is better than a thousand anywhere else!I would rather be a gatekeeper in the house of my God than live the good life in the homes of the wicked. 11 For the LORD God is our light and protector.He gives us grace and glory.No good thing will the LORD withhold from those who do what is right. 12 O LORD Almighty,happy are those who trust in you.

WORD TO PONDER: LIKE JOSHUA 5/10/00

Like Joshua, you have pursued and climbed your way to the top. And now you stand before Me. And yet you still wait. Why? Because also like Joshua the enemy yet surrounds you with accusation and condemnation. I will wash you clean and place My garments of righteousness upon you. Bow low and I will deliver you from your accuser. Stay in humble obedience and do not forsake your conscience.

I will visit you even as I visited Adam in the garden and you shall feel the dewy mist of My Presence rise upon your face. Breathe in the vapor of My anointing and let My love embrace you. There in the garden will be the faces of a lion, a man and an eagle.

"In the center and around the throne were four living beings, each covered with eyes, front and back. The first of these living beings had the form of a lion; the second looked like an ox; the third had a human face; and the fourth had the form of an eagle with wings spread out as though in flight. Each of these living beings had six wings, and their wings were covered with eyes, inside and out. Day after day and night after night they keep on saying, "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty-- the one who always was, who is, and who is still to come." (Rev 4:6-8 NLT)

SET ASIDE FOR INTIMACY

I heard the following through His still small voice. It reminded me of Song of Solomon where they speak of one another.

HEARD 4/19/05: Spring forth oh fountain of God. Destiny awaits. My life and my love. My calling and purpose. Set aside for thee. We become one.

HEARD: Walk with Me in My garden. Coolness. I cover you. My gift, My Daughter. It is well.

HEARD SONG: You are the portrait of love.

HEARD: My husband, let's walk. Up and down. Lord lighten my load. Yes, sweetheart. Walk with Me. To retrieve intimacy. Bring her back.

VIBRATIONS

Luke 19:37-40 NKJV
Then, as He was now drawing near the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works they had seen, saying: "'Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the LORD!' Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!" And some of the Pharisees called to Him from the crowd, "Teacher, rebuke Your disciples."
But He answered and said to them, "I tell you that if these should keep silent, the stones would immediately cry out."

Today I received the following Word through Ras Robinson's ministry and it brought to the surface several memories that were quickened.

> WHAT THE LORD IS SAYING TODAY - June 20, 2007
> Ras Robinson
> Jun 20, 2007
> Rhythm. Before dawn while praying, I was studying the sights and sounds of the heavens. What I saw and heard was the rhythm of all things working together in synchronized harmony. There was a majestic beauty and peace in that rhythmic moment. Most noticeable was the hum of the heavens. The Lord says today, you need to hear there is a rhythmic hum in the heavens concerning you. I have not forsaken nor have I abandoned you. All is well in the Father's house. You are in the right place. Add your unique part. Rhythm.

Romans 8:28 "And we know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose."
{end Ras Robinson Word}

QUICKENED MEMORY CRICKETS: At a recent conference, Bobby Conner said that everything in creation has vibration and God loves harmony. He then shared a story about Winkie Pratney and the crickets.

Winkie was on his porch and couldn't concentrate because the crickets were so loud. He wasn't very happy with this, so he asked the Lord to quiet them down. And the Lord told him He was listening more to the crickets than He was him. The Lord told Winkie to go get his recording equipment and record the crickets. So he did, and since crickets live 7 times faster than humans, he slowed the record down 7 times, and did nothing else to the tape on edits. They were singing a perfect Hallelujah!! Bobby said he has heard the original tape and also Winkie's slow down.

SO PRECIOUS!

QUICKENED MEMORY VISION: One time during worship I saw a giant tuning fork and pastor had mentioned that he was feeling a trembling on the inside of him. The whole atmosphere was surging with vibrations. I was trembling too.

Luke 19:37-40 NKJV
Then, as He was now drawing near the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works they had seen, 38 saying: "'Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the LORD!' Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!" 39 And some of the Pharisees called to Him from the crowd, "Teacher, rebuke Your disciples." 40 But He answered and said to them, "I tell you that if these should keep silent, the stones would immediately cry out."

Ps 114:7-8 NKJV
Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob, Who turned the rock into a pool of water, the flint into a fountain of waters.

Isa 66:5 NKJV
Hear the word of the LORD, you who tremble at His word:

QUICKENED MEMORY: I have had hundreds of experiences where I have felt the power of the Lord's touch surge through me and it causes me to tremble. Sometimes it is more violent and it causes uncontrollable shaking. Other times it is gentle and there is a slight tremble. Sometimes it shows, sometimes it does not.

I have become acclimatized to the power of His anointing and so it does not affect me as much now. However when His power becomes stronger, it returns on new levels.

RHEMA 8/7/99 Becoming Acclimatized

Bob Jones said that those who minister in the strong Presence of the Lord will have to learn how to stand in the power of it. The Lord told me He was soaking His anointing through my layers, deeper and deeper. [Lord what is this new thing I am feeling with Your anointing now?]

HEARD: Acclimated.

(Synonyms are adjust, conform, adapt, accommodate.)

WORD TO PONDER TREMBLING IN MY PRESENCE 8/7/99
The anointing that you are experiencing is My precious gift to you. Sometimes it is experienced like a violent trembling. Other times it is so deep within that only brief glimpses are felt like gentle surges. Listen to My anointing and become acquainted with My Presence. I want you to become acclimatized. I will sing to the LORD as long as I live. I will praise my God to my last breath! May he be pleased by all these thoughts about him, for I rejoice in the LORD." (Ps 104:31-34 NLT)

UPDATE: Someone just sent me a link to hear the crickets:

This unusual recording contains two tracks:

1. the natural sound of crickets chirping

2. the sound of the crickets slowed down to match and mirror the length of the average lifespan of a human being.

The angelic chorus you hear accompanying the sound of the crickets is NOT a synthesizer or a chorus singing. It's the crickets themselves (slowed down) creating the effect.

RHEMA 12/07/07 A BALANCE OF ADMONITION AND AFFIRMATION

EXPERIENCE: Today I was reading an article by someone and felt it needed more of a balance between correction and encouragement.

ANOINTED HANDS: I opened to this scripture:

1 Cor 16:13-14 NLT
Be on guard. Stand true to what you believe. Be courageous. Be strong. And everything you do must be done with love.

CONFIRMATION INTERPRETATION OF TONGUES: Pastor prayed in tongues over me tonight. I received two sentences of interpretation. One sentence was, “No, no, no, you should not do that!” And a while later the other sentence I picked up was, “A double portion.” The intercessor next to me picked up something about His strength covered my weakness.

Last night before going to bed, I heard a conversation where someone asked an angel, “Have you told her yet?” I then heard that he had been sent to tell me. Then I was visited by an angel after going to sleep and I knew exactly who he was, I had seen him before, why he had come and that I had better repent really fast. The message was very patient, loving, but quite firm. So tonight when I heard pastor’s tongue, he told me that he had never spoken in that language before. Well since I heard the rebuke in the interpretation, I felt strongly that pastor was speaking in the tongue of that angel and I heard the message loud and clear.

When placing the 3 sentences in context, I felt that the Lord was lovingly, but firmly saying that if I wanted the double portion then I needed to change and He understood I could not do it in my weakness, so He would give me His strength to change.

> NOTE: People have asked me how I “receive” an interpretation of tongues. I actually hear with my literal ears the voice of the person speaking in English. And at the same time I hear the Lord’s inner voice superimposed over the same sentence at once.
> I can almost always tell it is a interpretation because what I hear from His voice starts and stops at the same synch and timing as the sentence I am hearing the person speak in another language. Often even the syllables match in synch and that is amazing.
> But what is most profound about this gift is that the Lord’s voice is so strongly superimposed over the person’s literal voice, that I actually hear more of His voice than I do the tongues. It is like His voice is louder, even though it is actually heard in my inner ear and spirit. So I am hearing English but the person is speaking something else.
> Some of the tongues that men speak are men's languages and some are the languages of angels. I have had a few visions where I have seen and heard angels speak in their tongue and I am hearing them through the gift of Interpreting of Tongues, through the Lord's still small voice. Those visions helped me understand that the sentences I receive of interpretation when in the prayer room are really this gift in operation, for it is the exact same way.
> I have recently been receiving some occasional phrases of interpretations of my own tongues and they are very, very clear to me. Those times have been a true comfort and joy to hear what both my spirit and the Holy Spirit are speaking into my life.
> Acts 2:4 NKJV
> And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

1 Cor 12:7-11 NKJV
But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to each one for the profit of all: 8 for to one is given the word of wisdom through the Spirit, to another the word of knowledge through the same Spirit, 9 to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healings by the same Spirit, 10 to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another discerning of spirits, to another different kinds of tongues , to another the interpretation of tongues . 11 But one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing to each one individually as He wills.

1 Cor 13:1 NKJV
Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal.

1 Cor 14:13-15 NKJV
Therefore let him who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret. For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays , but my understanding is unfruitful. What is the conclusion then? I will pray with the spirit , and I will also pray with the understanding...

WORD TO PONDER: RAISE YOUR CHILDREN WITH A BALANCE OF ADMONITION AND AFFIRMATION 12/08/07

Wisdom is justified by her children. Dear ones, the good and bad seeds that you plant in others become your children. They are your fruit. Take heed to plant good seeds so that you reap a good harvest.

It is wise to plant seeds with a balance of affirmation and admonition. A child raised with too much correction will become a harvest of condemnation, shame and self rejection. A child raised in only affirmation and praise will become proud and independent. Choose to balance correction with encouragement so that the seeds you plant in your children will produce a good crop. In all things, always plant with love.

2 Cor 9:6-11 NKJV
But this I say: He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity; for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance for every good work. As it is written: "He has dispersed abroad, He has given to the poor; His righteousness endures forever." Now may He who supplies seed to the sower, and bread for food, supply and multiply the seed you have sown and increase the fruits of your righteousness, while you are enriched in everything for all liberality, which causes thanksgiving through us to God.

HANGING IN THE BALANCE

Pieces of a puzzle: 1 Story, 3 Dreams, 6 Visions

4/23/99

Hi Loved Ones,

Yesterday I sent a post about a 3 year old child trapped under a garage door. He had a life after death experience and was sent back to tell us a simple message that God has a plan for each of us and that He has surrounded us with angels. I want to share with you the prophetic significance behind his story.

This year I was given a dream where the Lord hid me in the cleft of His rock. It was a cave on the side of a mountain that had a huge garage door pulling down over the front. As long as the door closed the hole (gap), it was a safe place and the polar bears outside the door could not reach me.

The boy in yesterday's story was trapped under a garage door. He was suspended half way between a safe place and the outside world. Twice this year I have seen visions of a suspension bridge. This bridge has a great amount of significance with past rhema and represents a historical bridge. It is suspended in time and stands in the interval between the old and the new thing God is birthing upon the earth.

We are now standing at the thresholds of history, ready to cross over the river Jordan into the land of new beginnings. Like the standard of righteousness the Lord raises when the enemy comes in like a flood, the priests go before the people and stand in the gap against this flood. (Isaiah 59:19) Together the priests stand united, forming a bridge and making a safe place for all to cross over on dry ground. When they take their place, the waters of Jordan roll all the way back to Adam. (Joshua 3:16, 17) We are crossing over into a new land where all that Adam lost will be restored to us. This is no small bridge. The enemy knows this and it is time we know this because our children are at stake.

At the National School of the Prophets this year (January, Colorado Springs) one of the prophets reported an open vision of a stadium packed with youth. (I am sorry I do not know who saw this vision, I have only read eye witness testimonies lacking this information.) He saw these youth in one accord hearing something from the Lord, and then dispersing, carrying the fire of God with them. The reports I read said, if God's people do not pray then our youth will instead be hit by war.

In Bob Jones' Shepherds Rod 99, he saw visions of the good, the bad and the ugly. [http://www.bobjones.org/] The following are quotes about the children of the good seed and the bad seed: "From the good seed I saw children that were the best of all generations. They are the children of promise from Romans 9:8 & Galatians 4:28. Children as young as 6 years old were anointed with awesome power and revelation. Their revelation came directly from the Lord and their prayers went before Him with unwavering faith. Many of these children will be filled with the Holy Spirit even while in their mother's womb. Their prayers even carried more power and authority than their parents."

"An especially disheartening portion of the revelations dealt with the bad seed. The Lord revealed that apart from His provision of grace, even the very young among the bad seed will begin to experience sin with incredible depravity. Incredibly, young 9,10, and 11 year old children will begin to experience homosexuality, thievery, lying, and perversion on a scale not yet seen before. These will seemingly have no conscience of guilt or shame even killing and torturing others without remorse." [end quotes]

Recently I again saw a vision of the suspension bridge. Our children are waiting to cross over. They are being held back because the bridge is too steep and in the middle between the two sections of the bridge there is a breach. We need additional reinforcement to close the bridge. When God said the following scripture … "If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land. (2 Chronicles 7:14 NKJ)" … He didn't say if the world turned from its wicked ways, He said if His people turned from their wicked ways. He didn't call the world to be the salt to preserve itself, He called His people to be the salt preserving the world. "You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt loses its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? It is then good for nothing but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by men." (Matt 5:13) Every time I have read that scripture throughout the years, I can't get passed the impression that being trampled underfoot by man is a warning of war. Whether this is a spiritual war or a physical war and to what degree this touches our children, is still at stake. This is the year, now is time to make a difference.

When I saw the suspension bridge and saw that the children were not able to cross it safely, I also saw a hole in the wall. Sticking out of the hole was carnage. Many voices of the world were coming out of the hole, especially from TV. The wall was blocking or opposing the carnal things of this world. If we want our children to cross safely into this new beginning, if we want them alive, we have got to fill the hole with righteous living. God is not asking for us to make legalistic rules, but He is asking for us to have no fellowship with darkness and live holy lives. He is asking us what are we watching on TV and how much do we love our children? We have entered a war where EVERYTHING is at stake.

On the eve prior to the Littleton, Colorado shootings, one intercessor in our little prayer group had a nightmare of bloody bodies all over. My husband Wayne had a nightmare where he was standing outside a building with broken windows. He could see through the windows that the building was completely filled with a huge dark spirit of fear. I heard the Lord's still small voice say, "The current of the shock waves shock us back to Jesus. White House. Tragedies. Massacres." Littleton happened 6 hours later and we made the connections after the fact. The reason I share this now, is that the words tragedies and massacres were plural. The devil has more planned. "For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil." (I John 3:8) Jesus reveals to us the purposes of the enemy so that they might be destroyed. We are not to agree with the devil and believe his purposes will happen, rather we are to stand against such.

Do you remember the end of the story of the 3 year old and the angels? Angels are everywhere and they serve us and they serve God. We have angels right now WAITING for our prayers. They stand by and wait to be loosed, to be dispatched with assignment, sent by our prayers. Please stand for our children, yet hanging in the balance. Stand in the gap by forming a united, holy wall of righteousness, and then loose the angels to do their work. In Jesus Name, bind the forces of tragedy and massacre and loose the angels to uncover and halt the hidden forces of darkness. Time is short. It is very short. We can still make a difference.

Lovingly,

Sandy

THE IMPORTANCE OF ESTABLISHING HIS WORD THROUGH 2 OR 3 WITNESSES

The following is a revelation I received about the fact that every Word in heaven and earth is established (stands, is set) through 2 or 3 witnesses. He downloaded me with the importance that heaven and earth must be in agreement, where He gathers 2 or 3 witnesses for EVERY WORD that He sends. Those three witnesses of His Word are through the spoken, written and living Word. And there must also be 2 or 3 witnesses among the realms of heaven, earth. And when we are witnesses of what we have seen and heard, we become weapons that destroy the demonic rule.

Our parts on earth are an important key to establishing His kingdom on earth. The heavens belong to God, but He has given the earth to the sons of men. Since the earth belongs to man, He awaits our agreement and willingness before He brings His own heavenly kingdom to earth.

> Ps 115:16 NKJV
> The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD's; But the earth He has given to the children of men.
> 2 Cor 13:1-2 NKJV
> This will be the third time I am coming to you. "By the mouth of two or three witnesses every word shall be established."

=======

RHEMA 11/07/06 THE WITNESS OF INTERCESSION ON EARTH
HEARD: How come I need to do this? Because it must be written down.

HEARD: I need a witness. I'll make you a deal. You write. I will pray. And I will preach.

(This was in answer to prayer about my asking Him a few days earlier. I am a simple intercessor who, when the Lord tells me things, I write them down and hold onto them like Mary in my heart, waiting to see it manifested on earth. Most of the time, I also walk these things out in misc. parables that connect with His Words and have to stand against all the obstacles that oppose the Words I have heard. This kind of intercession is more of a walking and abiding place then it is verbalizing long prayers. These are intercessions I do not share with the public, and if I am led to, I share them through simple Words to Ponder, as the Holy Spirit leads.)

> Matt 6:5-7 NKJV
> But you, when you pray, go into your room, and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father who is in the secret place; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly. And when you pray, do not use vain repetitions as the heathen do. For they think that they will be heard for their many words.

SUDDEN REVELATION: As I was pondering God's answer to my questions I had a burst of understanding that strongly hit my spirit. God birthed the world into existence by speaking His Word. Therefore birthing His kingdom on earth as it is in heaven must be by and through His Word. Every truth in heaven and earth must be established through 2 or 3 witnesses. That is a scriptural fact that all of heaven and earth abides by:

> 2 Cor 13:1-2 NKJV
> This will be the third time I am coming to you. "By the mouth of two or three witnesses every word shall be established."

> ESTABLISHED: histemi
> NT:2476 histemi (his'-tay-mee); a prolonged form of a primary stao (stah'-o) (of the same meaning, and used for it in certain tenses); to stand (transitively or intransitively), used in various applications (literally or figuratively):
> KJV - abide, appoint, bring, continue, covenant, establish, hold up, lay, present, set (up), stanch, stand (by, forth, still, up). Compare NT:5087.
> (Biblesoft's New Exhaustive Strong's Numbers and Concordance with Expanded Greek-Hebrew Dictionary. Copyright © 1994, 2003 Biblesoft, Inc. and International Bible Translators, Inc.)

> Deuteronomy 17:6-7 NKJV
> Whoever is deserving of death shall be put to death on the testimony of two or three witnesses; he shall not be put to death on the testimony of one witness. The hands of the witnesses shall be the first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So you shall put away the evil from among you.

Deuteronomy 19:15 NKJV
The Law Concerning Witnesses
"One witness shall not rise against a man concerning any iniquity or any sin that he commits; by the mouth of two or three witnesses the matter shall be established.

Matthew 18:16 NKJV
But if he will not hear, take with you one or two more, that 'by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.'

John 8:17 NKJV
It is also written in your law that the testimony of two men is true.

2 Corinthians 13:1 NKJV
This will be the third time I am coming to you. "By the mouth of two or three witnesses every word shall be established."

=======

THE WITNESS OF PRAYER BETWEEN HEAVEN AND EARTH
Jesus intercedes for us continually in heaven, but He needs a second witness on earth to usher in the same. God needs two witnesses in heaven and earth to agree. He needs us to pray in agreement on earth so we are establishing His Word in earth's domain. The second witness both in heaven and on earth is the Holy Spirit's prayers.

Heb 7:23-25 NKJV
Also there were many priests, because they were prevented by death from continuing. But He, because He continues forever, has an unchangeable priesthood. Therefore He is also able to save to the uttermost those who come to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them.

Romans 8:33-34 NLT
Who dares accuse us whom God has chosen for his own? Will God? No! He is the one who has given us right standing with himself. Who then will condemn us? Will Christ Jesus? No, for he is the one who died for us and was raised to life for us and is sitting at the place of highest honor next to God, pleading for us.

Romans 8:27 NKJV
Now He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

Matt 6:9-13 NKJV
" In this manner, therefore, pray:
Our Father in heaven,
Hallowed be Your name.
Your kingdom come.
Your will be done
On earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
As we forgive our debtors.
And do not lead us into temptation,
But deliver us from the evil one.
For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Isaiah 53:12 NKJV
Therefore I will divide Him a portion with the great, and He shall divide the spoil with the strong, because He poured out His soul unto death,
And He was numbered with the transgressors, and He bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

John 16:23 NKJV
"And in that day you will ask Me nothing. Most assuredly, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My name He will give you. NKJV

John 16:26-27 NKJV
In that day you will ask in My name, and I do not say to you that I shall pray the Father for you; for the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me, and have believed that I came forth from God.

Hebrews 4:14-15
Our Compassionate High Priest
Seeing then that we have a great High Priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin. NKJV

Hebrews 7:25
Therefore He is also able to save to the uttermost those who come to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them.
NKJV

Hebrews 9:24
For Christ has not entered the holy places made with hands, which are copies of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us; NKJV

1 John 2:1-2 NKJV
My little children, these things I write to you, so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. And He Himself is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the whole world.

There is a 3rd witness between heaven and earth as well. The cloud of witnesses and also the angels witness the power of prayer from heaven and earth.

We pray that His kingdom come on earth as it already is in heaven. Everything we do on earth comes into synch and alignment with heaven and this also lines up with the witnesses in heaven. In a divine dance between heaven and earth, God is bringing His kingdom on earth through His written and spoken Word.

=======

THE THREE WITNESSES OF HIS WORD: Spoken, Written and Living

There are 3 witnesses of His Word: One is the spoken Word. The second is the written Word. These are the rhema and the logos Word both as witnesses in heaven and on earth. The rhema Word is like His still small voice, visions and daily leadings of His Spirit in our lives. The logos Word are the written scriptures in the Bible.

The third witness is the Word becoming flesh. Jesus was the Word and He became flesh and dwelt on earth. Likewise, we too are to be His Word: His love letters being read and known by all men.

John 1:14 NKJV
And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

2 Cor 3:2-3 NKJV
You are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read by all men; clearly you are an epistle of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink but by the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of flesh, that is, of the heart.

The various forms of these Words come through writing, praying, prophesying, declaring, living parables.

> Isa 7:14, Matt 1:16, Matt 1:20-23, Luke 1:31-35, Luke 2:7, Luke 2:11, John 1:1, Rom 1:3-4, Rom 9:5, 1 Cor 15:47, Gal 4:4, Phil 2:6-8, 1 Tim 3:16, Heb 2:11, Heb 2:14-17, Heb 10:5, 1 John 4:2-3, 2 John 7

~ THE POWERFUL TESTIMONY OF BEING HIS WITNESSES ~
When God calls His people to testify on the witness stand, it is to stop the mouth of the accuser through the Word of their testimony (and through Jesus' blood). Their personal experience of God's Word in their lives reveals the manifold wisdom of God to the principalities and powers in the heavens. In the end, this causes satan to fall not only in his accusations but he must yield his place.

> Eph 3:10-13 NKJV
> ...to the intent that now the manifold wisdom of God might be made known by the church to the principalities and powers in the heavenly places, according to the eternal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord, in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through faith in Him. Therefore I ask that you do not lose heart at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.
> Job 1:6-11 NKJV
> Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them. And the LORD said to Satan , "From where do you come?" So Satan answered the LORD and said, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking back and forth on it." Then the LORD said to Satan , "Have you considered My servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and shuns evil?" So Satan answered the LORD and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing? Have You not made a hedge around him, around his household, and around all that he has on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land. But now, stretch out Your hand and touch all that he has, and he will surely curse You to Your face!"

Rev 12:10-11 NKJV
Then I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, "Now salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren, who accused them before our God day and night, has been cast down. And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death.

~ CALLED TO BE HIS WITNESSES ~

Acts 22:14-15 NKJV
Then he said, 'The God of our fathers has chosen you that you should know His will, and see the Just One, and hear the voice of His mouth. For you will be His witness to all men of what you have seen and heard.

CURRENT RHEMA INSERTS ON THE WORD WITNESS

RHEMA 11/19/06 WITNESSES
Pastor had a vision last night. He was climbing the stairway up to the throne with the Holy Spirit as a faceless man on one side and Jesus on the other. They walked arm and arm up the stairs together. When they came to the top there was an intense light and Presence of the Father. They all stood before Him and said in unison, "Behold Your Son!"

His vision was very comforting to me. The Holy Spirit has appeared to me quite a few times as a faceless man with intense love and emotions for me. I have had many visions where we do things together. Bob Jones says that he is always aware of this man walking right beside him, and every time he turns his head, he can not see him. He is a very, very faithful Friend. In his peripheral vision, he is a man and he knows He is the Holy Spirit.

As I was thinking about pastor's vision, I said, Lord thank You that I have the Holy Spirit on one side and Jesus on the other side to pray for me."

Vision: I saw a wood stove and the prophets had called to add more wood to the fire. When I heard this, I didn't think it needed to be stoked any more than it already was. As I watched, the man doing so tried to open the door and put wood on with his bare hands. He was too close, and not equipped for the heat. Suddenly I saw a huge, angry horse's head (much bigger than the stove) appear behind the stove and blow over the fire. The horse was very angry with his ears back, his forehead furrowed and his eyes blazing. The fire roared like an inferno and the stove glowed red hot; embers and sparks were flying toward the man. He fell back with his feet near the stove and was trying to protect himself from the heat. I was so startled by this, I said Jesus Name over him and commanded his protection. Suddenly I saw the embers stop 2 inches away from his feet and rise up and over his body.

Right after seeing the vision I heard the Lord say, "It is time for Dad to discern what the prophets have been saying." Then I heard the Lord's voice state emphatically, "I never said that!" Suddenly I understood that the angry horse represented some of the prophets that had been prophesying with critical attitudes speaking words of judgment in an angry, critical manner. They were falsely representing the heart of the Lord.

Sandy Note: Fire represents many things and one of them is the fire of judgment. The Lord is calling for world-wide repentance of unholy lives and independence. However, He is pleading with His people, earnestly desiring them to return to Him. He is not wanting to judge, but out of His love for us, He will do what He has to do to bring us home. His heart is always that mercy triumphs over judgment. Even if some of the judgments are irrevocable, He desires to reduce them to the chastisements of spankings so that His mercy can cover our sins.

Still Small Voice heard by Sandy Warner 12/23/98

HEARD: Message to the prophets. Speak mercy and not judgment. Speak kindly to one another. Provoked.

This was posted on 1/6/99 and an excerpt was posted again on 2/11/99.

I too have spent countless hours reading the prophetic on the Internet sites and came to the same conclusion... a deeply grieved spirit.

In addition to witnessing the prophetic pride emanating from such "Words" I have also deeply grieved over the anger behind so many "Words." I have received dreams from the Lord about these things and His heart is that mercy still triumphs over judgment. And even within judgment, it does not mean that He is angry with us. He can weep when He spanks. I believe that many prophesies are falsely representing His emotions.

What the prophetic people do not understand is that we have authority in our vote. And every time we speak anger and judgment we are casting our vote for such to occur. Those who are prophetic intercessors are standing in the gap, asking for forgiveness and weeping for the sins of a blind nation.

The easiest formula for humility is for a prophet to point a finger and suddenly realize that on the same hand 3 fingers are pointing back. If the Lord opens ones eyes to see a mirror reflecting the same "Words" back, then there is temperance in finger pointing. And then when one becomes convinced they must say something in the Name of the Lord, they do it with great fear and trembling ... knowing the God in Whom they speak.

"If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land. (2 Chronicles 7:14 NKJ)

[There were many responses to the above posts. I have included some of them here. These were recently moved from the file, Standing in the Gap]

Hi,

I could not have been moved more. You have touched the truth here, my friend. I have gone through an "ordeal" of some sorts, telling you ! But GOD always lifts one up and Romans 8 spoke to me in those dark hours between tears and pain..."who will bring judgment, who can charge you...nothing will separate me from His love..." Praise God for the Word where the real TRUTH lies..

From a friend.

Dear Sandy,

This touched me deeply as I, too, have felt these same things. Back in July I had an experience that will (hopefully) forever change me. I had been hearing many words of coming judgment and God's wrath, etc etc and I needed to hear from God about this. And I prayed and prayed - not in fear, but needing to know what HE was saying. And one day I came under a tremendous awareness of His presence but it was heavy. I could not stand up - I was so weak. He was weeping. I thought my heart would break - seeing Him Whom I love weeping so. And He began to share with me his heart on this matter ....and opened my eyes to see exactly what you mentioned about how in joyfully proclaiming this judgment they were coming into agreement with that. And, unfortunately, I, too , have seen a "pride" arise. God help us. I write to encourage you in what you shared - and to let you know that I am standing with you before the Lord on behalf of this land - seeking repentance and mercy.

Lovingly, Joanie

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

A friend forwarded me an article that you just wrote pertaining to a dream and praying for our nation. God gave me the above scriptures to read as an Intercessor. You don't know how many times I have read those scriptures to Him. I will share with you about this. Every time I cry out to God in pain for my nation, He will give me scriptures where God repents of His anger.

I also had a dream in which I saw a few people take vials and pour something into a pool of dark water. As they poured these vials I could see where the water began to get clear. God will always give me HOPE.

Annette

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

Awesome word you shared! Thank you!

I've been struck with the anger of the net-words, as well. I logged on originally to hear what God was saying to other people, and unfortunately, I've gotten more insight into the hearts of the prophets than God.

God bless you,

DEBBIE

Just wanted to let you know I really appreciate the spirit of your message. I too have been disturbed by the glib, almost vengeful way in which many in the church are calling for judgment. I understand they're speaking out of their own woundedness and immaturity, but sometimes I wonder, if those who are called to pray for mercy are instead calling down judgment, will God still be able to show mercy as He wants to? Sometimes I almost feel as if we need to 'undo' the wrong prayer that has gone forth - I feel like praying, "Dear Lord, please don't answer that misguided prayer!"

I have also been aware of a 'narrowing of the way', where I sense that God is asking me to take a closer look at my choices in entertainment, not because they are bad in and of themselves, but because He has something better for me to do with my time.
~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

(For example, playing a board game with my kids instead of playing a computer game alone, reading or praying instead of watching T.V.) Some things may be permissible, but not profitable. (Prophet-able?)

Thanks for sharing your insight. Blessings to you,

Stephanie

Your message really spoke to my heart and it has caused me to really examine how I am living and how I am giving the "words" to my church. thank you for your obedience to the Lord.

Dear Sandy,

Thank you for your posting. I could not have said it any better! I have been grieved over some of the judgment prophecies for so long, that I have them in a folder in my favorite places (it's huge) and don't know if I will EVER get to them! Again...thank you for writing...I suppose you were the one to do it!

In His Majesty's Service, Dan

Sandy,

The LORD weeps much through my eyes, also. HE speaks some cutting words through me but HE has never omitted saying, for us all to repent and to return unto HIM. Their are many that enjoy the cutting with the sword and banish it to remove heads of ministers. Many years ago I prayed, You want eyes that cry for Your people, LORD, use mine. At that time I did not know the term of intercession. Today your shared words helped to draw me to a new connection in the term prophetic intercessor. My prayer in the power name, JESUS is that we may we all come out of Rome bringing others with us, to the inner city of our King and LORD.

A handmaiden crier, Suzin

Dream given to Sandy Warner 2/14/98

DREAM: I was in the forest among many trees. Someone had purposely lit a tree on fire and it was so hot that it was glowing. The appearance of the tree was supernatural because the tree was more like a woodstove glowing hot, than a tree with flames that was actually being consumed. I knew the tree was too hot, dangerous, and could start a whole forest fire. I saw that someone had opened the air vent (like the one on our wood stove) in order to fan the flames even hotter. I used the wood stove poker and put the air vet down. This cooled the tree down somewhat and then suddenly many people appeared that had been waiting in line to go past this glowing tree. It had been too hot to pass by, and the banquet room they were in line for, was on the other side. Pulling the air vent down gave way for all these people to file past one by one into a large banquet room to dine at long tables.

A Revelation From Visions About The Heart of God - from Lori Wills

I would like to share with you what the Spirit has been speaking to me over the last several days. I believe the Lord has shown me that this word is not only for myself but needs to be shared.

Last week I had so much heaviness after reading a prophecy spoken on God's upcoming judgment. I really began to seek the Lord concerning this heaviness, these are the impressions I received.

First I was given a given a picture that led me to the story of Jonah. Next the Lord directed me to Rev. 2 with emphases on verse 4-5, "Nevertheless I have this against you, that you have left your first love. Remember therefore from where you have fallen; repent and do the first works, or else I will come to you quickly and remove your lamp stand from its place - unless you repent."

Twenty four hours later, the Lord directed me to another passage which I believe ties all three together. He took me again to Luke 15 and the story of the prodigal son. The words, "famine in the land" followed by the prodigal son knowing where his help could be found... "at his father's house", really leaped out at me and I knew the Spirit was trying to answer my question about the heaviness I was experiencing. As I continued reading the story of the prodigal, I received the impression that the emphasis was not on the prodigal but rather on the spirit of the elder brother when the prodigal came home.

Today, as I was again seeking the Lord on whether or not to share this with you, He brought all these things together for me, and what I feel the Spirit is saying is that in the midst of all the prophetic words that are going out about repentance and judgment, we are in danger of missing God's heart.

Jonah took the word to Ninevah, "REPENT, God's judgment is at hand"! They followed his advice and repented, only to be met by Jonah's personal judgment that they didn't deserve God's mercy. He had God's true word but he missed God's heart.

In Rev. 2, the church in Ephesus was "doing everything right" by outward appearance. But God said they had "left their first love", which I believe was their passion for Jesus... knowing His heart! Finally, the elder brother was offended and resentful to see his father's forgiveness extended to his prodigal sibling. He had, after all, been faithful in service while his brother was out "having fun". He served his father but he missed knowing his father's heart.

That is the caution I believe God is speaking. We need to use this time He has given to really become intimate with and know His heart completely, so that we can stand beside Him with "PURE" hearts and motives and welcome our brothers and sisters home when they realize "even the servants are well fed at my Father's house."

In God's love,

Lori Wills

Prophetic Experience Given to Auntie Shirley & Grandma Anna 3/7/94

Auntie Shirley's experience: Anna & I were on a mini vacation at the ocean. Our motel room was right on the beach. In the morning not long after we had read over the nights rhema and spent some time in the Word, I took my tea out on the balcony and sat to pray and watch the ocean. To my utter amazement I saw a large whale surface then go down then up and spout water. I called to Anna to come out and see it. We continued to watch this playful mammal for over an hour. The whale was so close to the shore I could see white spots on it. It would raise it's head out of the water a long way and open it's mouth very wide, then dive and we could see it's entire length and then the tail would appear. The whale then turned and swam away as we had our suitcases in our hands ready to leave.

Several times I have felt the Lord telling me he would give me a sign; so the experience with the whale was almost more than I could grasp. This was such a precious thing. He never ceases to amaze me and how much He loves us and wants to communicate that love to us and how much He confirms that we are hearing from Him.

Excerpt of Grandma Anna's experience: After watching it cavort I suddenly knew the Lord was giving us a sign. I spoke the words, "This generation seeks after a sign but no sign will be given it but Jonah and the whale." As I said it both of us were quickened with waves of goose bumps. Later I said, "We will know if it really is a sign to us, if when we are ready to leave, that whale swims out to sea! At 11:00 AM with suitcases in our hands, we watched as the whale gave one more flip with his tail and swam quickly out to sea! The cleaning lady said they had never seen an adult whale that close before nor open its mouth.

Luke 11:29 "And as the crowds were increasing, He began to say, "This generation is a wicked generation; it seeks for a sign and yet no sign shall be given to it but the sign of Jonah."

In reading the below study, consider a unique and possible application:
Jonah means "dove."
The Holy Spirit's sign is a dove, which means comforter or advocate.
One of the meanings of comforter is: "one who pleads another's cause with one, an intercessor."

Luke 11:29 And as the crowds were increasing, He began to say, "This generation is a wicked generation; it seeks for a sign (4592) and yet no sign shall be given to it but the sign of Jonah (2495). NAS

Note from Grandma Anna: Perhaps we could extend Sandy's above Word Study to another application. This could be the Lord speaking to us prophetic intercessors and asking: "What kind of intercessors are we? Are our hearts knit with His in mercy in regards to His not wanting any to perish? Are our hearts thrilled that our messages have the potential to change behavior, and that God may even repent of the prophesied judgment? Do we allow Him to be God, whether or not He carries through with it? Do we run to Him afterwards, stand in the gap and beg Him not to bring to pass that which was prophesied? Or are we sitting under a gourd pouting because we are more concerned over our own spiritual reputation when He does the exact opposite of what He told one to speak to the people???

A Message from Sandy Warner 2/22/98

This year, 1999, we are standing at the crossroads of history. Judgment fires are ready to be loosed upon the world, and nothing short of repentance and intercession will cool them. Some judgments are reversible, some are not, some can be lessened. They hang in the balance and we do not yet know the outcome.

However, to me, the parable of Jonah is plain. He was a prophet sent by God to speak judgment and repentance. Yet Jonah was mad at God when they repented and God turned the judgment! Jonah felt that God had made him look like a fool. As I was reading a Word to Ponder I wrote in the mid 80's called, Jonah, I was thinking about the tension between mercy and judgment and how they relate. I suddenly wondered, "What will to happen to the angry prophet if his particular prophesy does not come to pass?"

I think the distinction here is the heart of the prophet. Many are prophesying judgment, but some with angry and pointing fingers, and others with an urgent and pleading call to repentance and intercession. There is a difference in the tone, in the heart of what is spoken and why. I am reminded of the scripture where James and John wanted to call fire down from heaven: "And when His disciples James and John saw this, they said, "Lord, do You want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them, just as Elijah did?" But He turned and rebuked them, and said, "You do not know what manner of spirit you are of. "For the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives but to save them." (Luke 9: 54 - 56)

I think that John the Beloved must have had an instant conversion at the very moment. The Lord opened his heart to truly understand the heart of the Father. As I was pondering this, I suddenly realized that if anyone was worthy to receive the vision of the book of Revelations, and then to write such, it would have been John.

Jonah

Doest thou well to be angry with God? What is more important; the lost one's heart or your pride? Go. Send My Word. You shall witness transformation. In the process perhaps you will be touched and learn the heart of servanthood and humility.

"Jonah rose up to flee... from the presence of the Lord." (Jonah 1:3)

Still Small Voice heard via Sandy Warner 3/23/96

HEARD: Jonah. Sign all over the world. They repent. Eyes opened. Around the world. News flash.

Journal excerpts from Sandy Warner 2/12/98

Last night I heard a strange riddle. I think it has to do with the sign of Jonah:

HEARD: Are they going to be there for anybody? Signs. Posts. Signposts. Although He expresses mercy in judgment. He doesn't want to have to judge.

Then today my husband Wayne started telling me how the prophets today need to consider Jonah. He had no idea that I had been thinking about Jonah the last several days. Neither did he know that last night I asked the question, "What happens to the angry prophets if our nation repents?" I felt that the Lord was speaking through Wayne.

Later as I was pondering the fact that mercy triumphs over judgment, I glanced at today's newspaper. The headlines said, "Clinton acquitted." As I peered at it, I suddenly saw a vision of a computer mouse highlighting the word, "Acquitted" in bold. I knew this was a confirmation that the Lord was saying no matter what we deserve, His heart is mercy triumphs over judgment.

Today as we went out for breakfast I saw another newspaper headline: It said, "Acquittal assured." It was quickened to me as a 2nd confirmation.

Wayne brought out an interesting fact today about his dream, David Come Home (posted in the file Standing in the Gap). He said that when David came home, the angels did not rejoice that he had been wounded or that he had come home. In fact, they were deeply sad and in mourning. It was not until David yielded to the fact that God had brought him home that they turned and worshipped the Lord. This too reveals the heart of God. He does not want to have to wound.

Grandma Anna Note: As I pondered the president's acquittal, the Lord opened my eyes to see more clearly. "I place particular ones in government for My own purposes, and even more so as you see the day approaching. Lean not unto your own understanding, but know that Clinton's acquittal will hasten the day that satan is marched to the pit."

[The following is an excerpt from Steve's report as relating to what Paul Cain said]

A note from Steve Shultz, Moderator of Elijah List:

November 7, 1998

I just returned from the Pastor's luncheon with Jack Deere and Paul Cain in Portland, OR today. I've tried to accurately portray what he has said, not as quotes, but with the essence of his message. I hope this helps.

Steve Shultz, THE ELIJAH LIST

There is a seed of the Lord/Christianity in Clinton and we should continue to extend mercy to and pray for him. The reason we need to extend mercy, quite simply is that we NEED mercy and we won't get it (inferred from what he is saying) from the Lord, if we don't extend it. There are pastors who are guilty of what Clinton has done and more, but they have not yet been exposed. Those who show no mercy will not get mercy.

From Bob Jones Shepherd's Rod 99

"The judgments prophesied for this country will now become apparent in the coming year. Some of these judgments are set and will not be changed. Fortunately, there remains a small opportunity for divinely granted repentance that can change their severity. Many have spurned mercy and grace for the last time and will experience the Lord's chastening hand. Still others have an opportunity to appeal to the mercy and grace of God and repent for disobedience and unbelief and obtain mercy even in the midst of judgment. This applies not only to the world but also to those in the church that have harbored sin in their lives that the Lord has been attempting to deal with for years."

"The people of God must especially deal with unresolved anger and bitterness over the failures of the past. If we are harboring anger or bitterness for any reason, we must take that to the cross and ask for the grace to be released from it so our discernment will be clear and unimpeded. If we desire the Lord's Mercy we must also be willing to extend Mercy and forgiveness. We will live this year by the fruit of our own lips."

Vision given to Pastor Dale 2/24/99

cschurch@chatlink.com

VISION: As I was contemplating why certain people heard the Lord speak in a way that made Him appear to be legalistic, I saw many streams flowing from what I took to be the throne of God (I could not actually see the source). As I watched these streams, I could see different people in different streams.

I recognized that each stream had a basic spiritual tone to it and represented a particular aspect of the nature of God. I saw streams of grace, mercy, truth, law, wisdom, kindness, etc. There were more streams than I could keep track of.

I could see where two separate streams would flow together for a season and then split back off into separate streams again. I saw this with the stream of mercy and the stream of grace. There were places where mercy and grace flowed together and made a stream of mercy and grace. I also saw this with mercy and truth. They came together and separated in many places.

Truth seemed to mingle with more of the other streams than did any other. Each time a stream would merge with another there was an increase in depth and flow. I saw people shift streams. They did so when another stream merged with the stream they were in. It was most often the stream of truth that became a pathway into another stream. Truth would often take them to an entirely different stream where they began to take on the attributes of that particular new stream.

I noticed there were many more people in the stream of law than in any other stream.

Some of the people in this stream I recognized. I knew them to have powerful gifts but also knew their gifts often manifested in harsh and strict ways. I now understood that this was because of the stream that they were in! As I saw people shift streams, I continued to marvel at how many people chose to stay in the stream of the law. This stream was very shallow and had almost no movement to it at all. Those in the stream of the law seemed to be going nowhere. Yet there were places where the other streams merged with the law. At each of these places there was an opportunity for the people in the stream of the law to get out. But they seemed to be comfortable in the calm orderly flow of the law. The other streams had more current and were often turbulent where they met and departed with the stream of the law.

[end of vision]

From Pastor Dale 2/27/99

cschurch@chatlink.com

I have personally experienced a great grieving in my soul over the "spirit" that the majority of the church seems to be in. It is not just prophets, but pastors and church leaders of all kinds who continue in the spirit of the law and not in the spirit of grace.

Even though the church knows theologically that Jesus Christ is the end of the law for righteousness, many continue to view God, the world, and the church through Old Testament eyes. Much of leadership views God and His people through the eyes of Elijah (or some other Old Testament prophet or priest), and not through the eyes of the greatest Prophet, Priest and King who has ever lived -- the mediator of a New Covenant -- Jesus Christ. The Word of God clearly records that the law came through Moses but grace and truth through Jesus Christ.

Nowhere in the New Covenant are we told to emulate a single Old Testament figure. Yes we are to learn from them, but not to emulate them. It is a great failure when we look like any prophet, priest, or king other than the Lord Jesus Christ. Even the spirit of Elijah that is to be released in the last days is to be released to make a way to Christ. Scriptures says that the apostles, prophets, evangelist, pastors, and teachers are sent to bring the whole body into the full measure and stature of Jesus Christ (Eph 4:13). In the New Testament we are told to put on the Lord Jesus Christ, (Rom 13:14) not some Old Testament prophet’s personality.

Judgment belongs to the law! We are taught repeatedly throughout the New Testament NOT to judge anyone outside of ourselves. How I long to see New Covenant Christianity, where the saints look like Jesus and not Elijah!

Jesus really did die on a cross and in so doing crucified the law, so that we might now live under the power of grace through His resurrection from the dead. Pentecost really did happen! There really were 3000 souls saved that day, in contrast to the 3000 souls that died when Moses brought the law down from Sinai. The letter really does kill and the Spirit really does give life. Oh that we would live in the Spirit and be done with the works of the law once and for all!

RETURN TO RHEMA INDEX

3 WITNESSES: THE GLORY OF GOD RETURNS MARCH 11
The following are 3 witnesses that the glory of God has returned to the earth. Bob Jones was told it had returned 3/7/07, 40 years from the exact date and time it left. Kim Clement confirmed this and the Lord gave me rhema about this date twice in 1999.

MARCH 11 PROPHESY BOB JONES:
Quote taken from http://www.prophetic.tv/bobjones/
http://www.bobjones.org/

{Bob Jones Quote} "On March 11 at 6 o'clock in the evening, in 77 I saw the glory of God lift and the word Ichabod takes its place.

> 1 Sam 4:19-5:2
> Now his daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, due to be delivered; and when she heard the news that the ark of God was captured, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and gave birth, for her labor pains came upon her. And about the time of her death the women who stood by her said to her, "Do not fear, for you have borne a son." But she did not answer, nor did she regard it. Then she named the child Ichabod, saying, "The glory has departed from Israel!" because the ark of God had been captured and because of her father-in-law and her husband. And she said, "The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God has been captured." Then the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod.

I said, "Lord I dont want to be down here without Your glory." He said, "I am removing My glory because they no longer honor it. They're marketing it." In 1977 the men of God that got anointed started marketing it. They started losing their morals. And they started building themselves kingdoms instead of building the kingdom of the Lord. And they were using His glory to further their own purposes. And so as He did in the Old Testament by writing Ichabod over it, He lifted it. He didn't take away salvation, the Holy Spirit or revelation either. He took away His glory from it. He took that shining away, He took that beautiful light away, that white light. At times when that gold would come in buildings and on people. At times it would be like fire on the ceilings of churches because the Spirit of Holiness was there.

There's a new hunger for Christ. A new morals that we will never sell out again for anything. And we will give it back as soon as the signs and wonders and glory returns, we will begin to honor Him Who it came from. So a great hunger has taken place in the desert. I believe the church has had a desert experience. And in the desert is the place of His voice. I believe the church is seeking the voice of their Daddy. And with that, it returns His glory. It's time to begin to hallow His Name and with that glory to bring His kingdom to the earth. There was a maturing going on all this time. Such hunger and such an honor that you would never market it again, to where it would remain.

It came this last March 11 (2007) at 6 o'clock in the evening in Columbus South Carolina. I saw the glory return."

{End Bob Jones quote}

CONFIRMATION THROUGH KIM CLEMENT:

Quote taken from http://www.prophetic.tv/clement3/
http://www.kimclement.com/

{Kim Clement quote} "We came here on 3/11/04. God said the heavens are opening up on March 11th. We gathered together and I said there are going to be certain things that happen from that point onwards. Nothing happened in the natural. Nobody felt anything. But seasons started.

And one of the seasons was the season of subtraction. Because in order for God to multiply, there has got to be a subtraction. When Lot was taken away from Abraham, God said to Abraham lift up your eyes, which means to stretch them as far as you can see. Elevate your sight, and whatever you see I am going to give to you. So I have noticed through out the Bible where things are taken from you, but then it sets you up to multiply... So God said to me, this is the season of multiplication. The season of subtraction is over."

{End Kim Clement quote}

THE LORD TALKED TO ME ABOUT MARCH 11 IN 1999
The following are the 2 nights He spoke about the date March 11. We were in the midst of a Mahesh Chavda conference and the 8 hour service was a forerunner experience of what is to come for the body of Christ. This rhema from 7/23/99 was what I heard the night before waking on 7/23, which was the day of our 8 hour service.

RHEMA 7/23/99: THE GLORY SERVICE A FORERUNNER

AH: I turned with anointed hands in my Bible to: Tarry until you are endued with power. Coming with power.

PIX: I saw a series of dominoes flashing in front of my eyes. They went in succession from 4, 3, 2. I knew it was a countdown before something special occurred.

HEARD: My daughter. Glooooooory service. (I heard His still small voice say it like that, and this was very funny!) You don't know about this. You will. Supernatural.

HEARD: What was that? That was rumbling. The enemy is scared, terrified.

> [NOTE: The day before Mahesh had a vision where he saw an Indian smiling, putting his ear to the railroad track. The Lord said that the Glory train was coming. As Mahesh shared this, he said to get ready to feel the rumble of the train. As he said this, I was struck by His Spirit and I could literally feel the rumble under my feet, and then it entered my feet, traveled up to my stomach and immediately erupted into radical shaking. It was a powerful experience, I was holding on to my chair with both hands to keep from falling off onto the floor!]

HEARD: I need you. Daughter. My people. I baptize you. Baptizer. March 11*. The {glory} train. Shoot the enemy. I carried you across the tracks. We have conquered. Liberty. Leaning upon Him. To do what's right. We've only just begun. Green flag.*

HEARD: And then I saw you. Baptizer. Holy Spirit. Fire. Forerunner. Are you willing to be a sign? Step into the room. Go. Earthquake. Authority. Training. Voice. Be in tune with God's Presence. Maybe you will hear. Right on cue. White hot. Holy Spirit, all over you.

PIX: I saw that my hand was shaking. It had a salt shaker in it and the salt was shaking out.

HEARD: What's this all about anyway? Appointed. Captain. Glory.

PIX: I saw the pouring of hot water, into a mug or large cup.

HEARD: Behind you, a Word. Follow Me. The Lord uses you for His glory. Freedom. Linked. I see it coming. Apostles.

AWESOME 8 HOUR SERVICE EXPERIENCES OF GOD'S CLOUD 7/23/99 7:11 PM – 7/24/99 3 AM

Tonight I was worshipping in the far back and as I looked at the stage I could see that the right hand side was blurry or hazy and the left side was clear and not hazy. I wondered what it was. Then I looked up against the black curtain where the lights were on the ceiling. In the far right hand corner light directly against the black curtain, I could see the white glow around the light. All the lights had a glow around them and this was perfectly natural. However this particular light I could see a small cloud just below the light, extending through and past the white glow. I was amazed and watched as the fog or vapor began to descend up and down from that place. It went in waves where it ascended then came back down to just above the heads. A couple times during the night it moved over to almost the center of the stage, but most of the time it stayed on the right side.

As I went to the back of the front chair section, I breathed in the fog or vapor through my nose. I immediately recognized the difference between the hot dry air and this cool moist air and remembered my past experiences with His cloud. I breathed in this air 2 other times during the night. It is like the smell and moisture of putting your head into a vaporizer when it is on its lightest setting.

I wanted Pastor to see and smell the cloud and so I went up the left hand side to find him during worship. As I approached the first row of people in front of this clearing, I smelled very strong incense. It was a pure incense and not offensive at all. I do not like any incense and avoid the smells at the malls whenever I can. This was not like that.

Then I peered through the first row of people and there was no altar or incense burning up there, I was smelling in the Spirit! I saw Pastor and he was hugging what looked like baby diapers. Pastor was very red in the face, and was under a very strong intercession. His head was quivering and he was breathing hard with spiritual travail contractions. It touched my heart deeply because I thought of the nurturing father holding the babies as close to his heart as he could possibly get them. I knew I was supposed to share about the cloud, but did not want to interrupt Pastor's intercession, so even though I was shy, I took the courage and went forward to whisper into Mahesh's ear.

Later when Mahesh announced what people were experiencing, he called it the cloud canopy. He also said that people smelled rain and mentioned my incense experience. I was quite taken with the fact he called it the Lord's canopy. I have many Words about that word.

As I was back again worshipping in the back and watching the cloud and thinking about smelling the incense, the Lord immediately imparted to me that the incense was Pastor's prayers and the parable of the nursing father's prayers.

EXCERPT rhema 9/11/99: MARCH 11TH GLORY IS COMING

HEARD: March 11. I just placed within the body of Christ the next theme. Broken witchcraft...

...Just like that, glory.... All we need is the anointing. What did we do with our socks?

> COMMENT: This socks rhema is hilarious. I wondered what it meant, then suddenly remembered the phrase, "Blessed our socks off!"

PIX: I saw my keyboard with not enough octaves, as some notes were missing.

HEARD: By His stripes we are healed. This is so cool.

PIX: I saw the stadium lights were wired and hooked to my keyboard.
HEARD: Stadium. The Lord Jesus Christ. The A Team.

QUICKENED EXAMPLE FROM A READER:
TURN OFF CERTAIN LAYERS 3/06/09

Tuesday night our lecturer was a landscape architect. He has to design gardens for a very big airport. He said the plans for this airport were done in the latest version of Auto-Cad. When he opened the plans to try and figure out where he should start with the gardens he could not make out a thing. The plans were in 47 different levels (plumbing, electricity etc) and if all levels were switched on it was impossible to see what was going on. He had to click on only a few levels at a time and work from there.

RHEMA 3/07/09 WASHED AND PUT BACK INTO ORDER
HEARD: Separated. To cut the mixture. To set you free. To let you hear and see without censoring. That is My desire too sweetheart.

ABOUT CENSORING THE RHEMA
I had a lady prophesy over me a couple months ago that the Lord had taken me through years and years of layerings of revelation. She said the Lord had completed what He started and He would bring to me the understanding.

So this month I built a new file of summaries of each day's rhema, with paragraphs of only His still small voice, dreams, visions and pix. This took my 10,000+ (choke) pages of rhema journals with all the Words to Ponders, interpretations, scriptures, references and the works OUT. I generated a new file of 1,000 pages and is so much easier to search for keywords.

When reading just that file, I saw how clearly things had changed in my soul and others, but His Words were still there as painful reminders of the need for prayer at that time over past issues. Therefore, I censored all the soul parts He spoke to me and was highlighting on my journey and deleted them forever. What a release!

I have had all my journals printed in hardbound books in my bedroom all these years. After the separation of His Words, I cut the covers off and then took the guts down to our local shredder place. It was 45 pounds of paper and they didnt even charge me for the load. I laid hands on all the "guts" and prayed over myself, His Words, and the others whom the Lord also spoke to me about, and released all... deleting the past, releasing the angels to go forth and set us all free from our baggage and into our new beginnings. It was a deep joy for me to do this.

WORD TO PONDER: CENSORING YOUR SOUL TO UNDERSTAND 3/11/09
Beloved one, sometimes it is really hard to hear what I AM speaking because you have to wade through so many layers of circumstances and "stuff" to get to the point. My Words are hiding and just waiting for you to understand. Understanding is My life line that will make a difference for you.

I want to separate the parts of your mind, will and emotions that cloud your ability to understand clearly. These layers are your soul that do not reflect My will in your life. Yield your soul to Me and allow My Spirit to spotlight and separate it from My Words in your life.

Learn how to turn OFF all layers except My voice. Delete the demonic, consecrate your soul, and highlight My Spirit. When you do these things, you will perceive My Words clearly in what you see and what you hear. It is My desire for you, beloved one, to cut the mixture and receive My clear Word. You will walk so much freer when you are able to separate and discern as you go, and cut out the cumbersome part that weighs you down. Where My Spirit is, there is liberty. You will find wonderful promotion waiting for you after your soul is aligned with heaven's agenda.

Heb 4:12-13 NKJV
For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

Ps 139:2 NLT
You know when I sit down or stand up. You know my every thought when far away.

1 Cor 14:25 NLT
As they listen, their secret thoughts will be laid bare, and they will fall down on their knees and worship God, declaring, "God is really here among you."

2 Cor 3:16-18 NKJV
Nevertheless when one turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. 17 Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty . 18 But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord.

HEARTBEATS 5/05/04

PARABLE: I have been in bed for several days now and woke up in the middle of the night with my little micro recorder on my heart. I use it to record His still small voice, pictures and visions.. As I reached for it, the Lord impacted my spirit with the fact it was listening to the Lord's heartbeat.

John 13:23 NKJV
Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of His disciples, whom Jesus loved.

REACHING YOU IN SILENCE 9/04/06
Deep within the recesses of My heartbeat, there is an intake and outflow with every breath. Ever so subtle is a moment of pause, where all stands still for a moment in time. Come to that hidden place, My beloved, and listen to My pause.....When in tune with My Spirit, even the pauses are pregnant with increase.

Separate and fast yourself for little moments for us to be alone from the noise of the world. You will find strength there and focus and peace. Pray, My child, pour it all out to Me, then listen. Set yourself aside to listen to those pregnant pauses when I pass by.

Ex 33:21-22 NKJV
And the LORD said, "Here is a place by Me, and you shall stand on the rock. So it shall be, while My glory passes by, that I will put you in the cleft of the rock, and will cover you with My hand while I pass by.

HIS HEART BEAT

QUICKENED SIGN: I was driving in the car and praying and thinking about John the Beloved laying his head on the heartbeat of the Lord. I knew there were many sons being birthed who would also lay their heads upon the Lord's heartbeat. Immediately I came up to a truck and my eyes landed on the back of its big red letters. It said, HEART BEAT.

EAT YOUR VEGETABLES

EXPERIENCE: The Lord has been talking to me lately about eating more vegetables and less starch. He really wants me to change my eating habits and recover a healthy body. Then today at the new dentist office I was amazed at the huge fish tank in their office. I asked the secretary about the foot long fish on the bottom of the tank. She said that he went along the glass and ate algae.

Then I heard the Lord say, "Vegetable eater." As soon as I heard Him say that, she added, "We cut up pieces of zucchini and hang it from a string and he loves it." I said, "That is probably why he is so big, because you feed it with tender loving care." She said it was the largest that any one had ever seen of its kind.

As I was trying to apply the Lord's quick interjection into my conversation with the lady, I realized He was saying that He had fed me with TLC and I was growing bigger in Him. I also thought He had a wonderful sense of humor to find such an interesting confirmation for getting me to change my eating habits. I am doing much better now and having vegies every day.

HILARIOUS CONFIRMATION: As I went into the dentist and sat in the chair, I was still thinking about eating vegies. Hanging on the wall I read:

QUICKENED SIGN: "Open thy mouth and I will fill it."

OK Lord, I got the point! More vegetables.

{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration.}

WORD TO PONDER: LISTEN AND APPLY

I want to talk to you through everything in life, if you would only listen. My Words to you are like shining symbols hanging on the wall, once your heart is opened to hear Me in new parabolic ways.

Do you want to grow up in Me? Then eat a more balanced diet. I know all you want is visions and hearing My still small voice, but I want to send you a good variety of tasty Words. You may not like the unusual ways I speak, but I promise you that once you taste My voice in all of life, it is like a carrot dangling on a string. I place My morsels in front of you, and bounce them around just enough to get your attention, and wait for you to take a bite. Now that wasn't so bad, was it? Try another, and another and another. Soon you will delight in eating your spiritual vegetables and will grow healthy, lean and strong. Listen and apply your life around you as My Word. Hear the spiritual parables behind your circumstances. They are everywhere, all around you, every day.

"And with many such parables He spoke the word to them as they were able to hear it. But without a parable He did not speak to them. And when they were alone, He explained all things to His disciples." (Mark 4:33-34 NKJV)

LEARNING TO STAND

Years ago I went through a lengthy season when the Lord was teaching me to "stand".

FUNNY CONFIRMATION: My son called me into his room to look at his Spanish computer program Wayne bought him. When I came in, there was a scene where this very sleepy man in bed was being wakened by his wife. She kept saying, "Levantate!" "Levantate!"

Previously I had heard the Lord's still small voice say Levantate to me. As we were looking at the computer screen the Holy Spirit reminded me of that. Anna asked a Spanish speaking friend the meaning and it means, "You stand!" In the Lord's humorous way, He was one more time reaffirming me to STAND.

==========

WORD STUDY

If you notice in the following scripture, the word "stand" in the Greek is used 3 times, and the 4th time the word withstand is used, the root of the word also comes from stand. CAPS mine:

Eph 6:10-18

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to STAND (2476) against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to WITHSTAND(436) in the evil day, and having done all, to STAND(2476). STAND(2476) therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints.

histemi (his'-tay-mee); a prolonged form of a primary stao (stah'-o) (of the same meaning, and used for it in certain tenses); to stand (transitively or intransitively), used in various applications (literally or figuratively):

KJV - abide, appoint, bring, continue, covenant, establish, hold up, lay, present, set (up), stanch, stand (by, forth, still, up). Compare NT:5087.

NT:436

anthistemi (anth-is'-tay-mee); from NT:473 and NT:2476; to stand against, i.e. oppose:

KJV - resist, withstand.

James 4:7 KJV

Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist (436) the devil, and he will flee from you.

PRECIOUS PARABLE FROM THE PAST:

Saturday's bowling parable really tickled me. Sonshine is on a league where the sizes of the children range from about 3½ feet to 6 feet tall. (I'm not sure of the ages.) I watch the tiniest kids walk out to the line, bend over and either yank or roll that ol' ball all the way down the alley. And then they stand, and stand and stand some more. They watch that ball go about zero miles per hour all the way down, an inch at a time. When the ball finally hits the pins, the pins fall in slow motion too. One at a time, they fall, usually like dominoes in slow motion.

There is one particular tiny girl who stands with her right arm in the air, straight up to heaven, while she watches the ball go down the alley. That arm doesn't budge until the last pin is down. I have seen her week after week do this. It is so precious. She reminds me of baby Moses. Every time I see her it is a pure delight. And she is so short and tiny!!!! I have marveled at the parable:

In warfare and learning our authority, it doesn't matter how powerful, how fast, or how fantastic the delivery of the words, the only thing that matters is the pointing of that little will in the right direction and standing to see the results. Oh God You are so marvelous. I am so blessed to see the things You delight in!

==========

QUICKENED SIGN: A mighty oak tree grows from a little nut who holds its ground.

==========

{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER: STAND AND DO NOT BUDGE

I AM training you to be My overcomer. This is training for ruling and reigning, ultimately with darkness under your feet. Your commission is to learn to stand. Standing is a defensive position that does not budge… not even an inch, no matter what.

As you declare My Word, it is like pointing a weapon towards the hindrance, then faithfully waiting for the weapon to make contact. In the midst of the opposing confusion, noise and distraction, it takes the strength of your will to withstand doubt as you believe My Word. It takes an active part to resist and say no to that which drains your faith.

The enemy does not have sovereign knowledge of your will. He tests the will of man to find weak links. When you learn to stand firm without budging, you not only show the enemy that your will is rock hard and unwilling to compromise, but it also closes the breaches to your weaknesses. Learning to stand in My Name will ultimately bring defeat to yours and My enemies.

"Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you." (James 4:7)

LET ME

I was burdened with too many responsibilities and laid before the Lord in prayer.

VISION: I slid down the bleachers because there was not enough room for me to walk through the pile of stuff to get from one place to another. At the bottom of the bleachers, having slid down on top of the pile for a smooth ride, I heard, HEARD: "Let me help you." The emphasis was on the word "let".

SANDY RHEMA 2/27/05

During worship at church, there was a song playing. "You are kind and you are gentle. I lay myself down at your feet. I give you my all." We were supposed to be singing that to the Lord. But I felt the impact of the Lord singing this song to me through another person who had been pouring out and serving me in prayer. This was very hard to receive and I started to cry.

HEARD HIS STILL SMALL VOICE: "You are kind and gentle. I lay myself down at your feet. Listen My daughter I will reach you with My love, anyway I can. As much as you can receive My love through the least of these My brethren, You can receive Me."

I knew without a doubt this was the Lord. I saw this deeply humble person, pouring out, crying and travailing over me and I knew it was the Lord pouring out His love over my needs. I knew how deeply humble it must be for this person to be used in such a way. It impacted me so deeply.

Titus 1:15 NKJV

To the pure all things are pure , but to those who are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure ; but even their mind and conscience are defiled.

VISION DURING COMMUNION: I saw the head of my white horse, the same one I have seen in several visions. He came and looked me in the eye. He nuzzled up close to me and whispered into my ear. Then He kissed my cheek with horse lips. (smile) He bowed low and licked my feet and then laid down and put his head onto my feet and stayed there. I sobbed. I felt like this was Jesus once again speaking the same message to me. I was so undone by His loving demonstration through His servant and through these Words.

WORD TO PONDER 2/01/05 LET ME

How I yearn over you to release you from the burdens you carry! Sometimes I send helpers to be the hands and tools you need to bring you to the goal. Freely accept these good gifts divinely placed in your life. Learn to rest as I bring you the provision you need, dear one.

Sometimes I send intercessors to travail and groan over you. I place within their hearts, things that are so deep you are not able to express them for yourself. I plant in their heart, what I feel over you. And they are My living expressions on earth of that which I would say face to face to you, My Beloved. Receive these pourings out when I send these rare gifts. Know they come from the purest and most yielded of hearts.

My child, LET Me help you. When you plod through your days bowed over with care, your eyes are downcast not knowing I AM there. Why carry this load as you walk My road? Give it to Me instead, I will make you Spirit led. To rest, to lean, to support and carry. It is you I want, to commune and marry. Yes, be still and let Your God into your life. Refuse the burdens, turn away from strife. Now come to Me and let Me hold you. I will sustain your day with release brand new. Look ahead, not behind - not with nose to the grind. Look up, not down - like a sniffing hound. Keep your eyes on Me and let things be. I want you, My child - yes to LET ME.

Matt 3:14-15 AMP

But John protested strenuously, having in mind to prevent Him, saying, It is I who have need to be baptized by You, and do You come to me? But Jesus replied to him, Permit it just now; for this is the fitting way for [both of] us to fulfill all righteousness [that is, to perform completely whatever is right]. Then he permitted Him.

John 13:6-9 NLT

When he came to Simon Peter, Peter said to him, "Lord, why are you going to wash my feet?" Jesus replied, "You don't understand now why I am doing it; someday you will." "No," Peter protested, "you will never wash my feet!" Jesus replied, "But if I don't wash you, you won't belong to me." Simon Peter exclaimed, "Then wash my hands and head as well, Lord, not just my feet!"

MANNA, THE HIDDEN BREAD

How Manna Is Processed In The Last Days

5/8/01

Hi Loved Ones,

As a scribe, I hear, see and record the Words of the Lord at night. Often in the morning, I ask, "What was THAT?" Those who receive from the Lord by way of visions, dreams, His still small voice, and other rhema go through a similar process. They are blessed to hear from the Lord, but then ask the question, "What IS it?" "What does it mean? How do I apply this?"

Manna — the hidden food of heaven. What IS it?

"But he commanded the skies to open -- he opened the doors of heaven -- and rained down manna for them to eat. He gave them bread from heaven. They ate the food of angels! God gave them all they could hold." (Ps 78:23-25 NLT)

This is manna! The very nature of this strange bread is found in its name. The first time it is recorded is after the Israelites had left Egypt to take the journey to their promised land:

"The next morning the desert all around the camp was wet with dew. When the dew disappeared later in the morning, thin flakes, white like frost, covered the ground. The Israelites were puzzled when they saw it. "What is it?" they asked. And Moses told them, "It is the food the LORD has given you." (Ex 16:15 NLT)

In the King James, this same verse says: "And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, It is manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moses said unto them, This is the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat." (Ex 16:15 KJV)

The word manna in the Hebrew literally meant "a whatness" so called from the question about it. (#4478 Strongs.) It comes from a Hebrew word (#4100) meaning: interrogative what? (including how? why? when?); but also exclamation, what! (including how!), or indefinitely what (including whatever, and even relatively, that which).

I laugh when I read those questions! Those questions are the very nature of manna! That is exactly what we go through in receiving the Words of the Lord. Notice what the New Testament promises about manna: "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give some of the hidden manna to eat…" (Rev 2:17 NKJ) This is a promise that as we overcome, we will be given some of the hidden manna of heaven to eat.

In this verse, the Greek word 'hidden' (#2928) means to conceal. It is translated hidden, to keep secret. The Greek word manna (#3131) comes from the SAME Hebrew word manna recorded above. This is the SAME word recorded in the New Testament for the last day saints. So, we can interpret this symbolically, that in the same manner in which the Israelites ate manna, we can have the privilege of eating spiritual manna. What is the process that they went through in order to eat this manna?

1] FIRST THEY GATHERED IT

"And Moses told them, "It is the food the LORD has given you. The LORD says that each household should gather as much as it needs…." (Ex 16:15b-16 NLT)

Jesus told us to pray, "Give us this day, our daily bread." (Matt 6:11) And He also told us, "I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread that I shall give is My flesh, which I shall give for the life of the world." (John 6:51 NKJV) (FYI: The Greek word bread in these scriptures are identical, meaning raised bread.)

Gathering manna is like a treasure hunt and brings such joy when we find His quickened, life-giving Words to us! Just as I was placing the above scriptures here, I decided to read emails. A lady shared her "6:11" story (based upon my last post about 7:11 & 11:11 confirmations) and here is what she said: "I was so excited I wanted to stand on top on my desk and start screaming. I knew it was from God. I looked up Matthew 6:11 and it says "give us this day our daily bread". What God showed me is that He wants us to receive the Bread of Life every day in a new way."

I was so tickled to read about her joy and also to receive the confirmation of this post. ("It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life." John 6:63)

I love her conclusion, that the Lord wants to talk to us every day in a new way! If you are hungry to learn how to find daily manna, remembering the following scriptures help. "If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear." Then He said to them, "Take heed what you hear. With the same measure you use, it will be measured to you; and to you who hear, more will be given. For whoever has, to him more will be given; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him." (Mark 4:23-25 NKJV) That measure is like the capacity of our baskets for gathering manna. We have to have our manna baskets stretch and grow so that we can receive more from Him. [I have written an entire book on how to increase our hearing Him; available at my website or Elijah List website.] A key to hearing Him, is to ask, seek and knock (Matt 7:7) and that is the effort we expend to gather manna. We don't create the manna, He supernaturally sends it to us as a response to our asking.

2] THEN THEY PULVERIZED IT

"The manna looked like small coriander seeds, pale yellow in color. The people gathered it from the ground and made flour by grinding it with hand mills or pounding it in mortars." Num 11:7,8 NLT)

Anyone who grinds coffee beans or flour knows there are various degrees of grinding. The longer time one spends grinding, the finer the substance becomes. Even rhema which is the most difficult to understand can be pulverized into baby food, if the time is taken to do so. Babies spit out lumps, but they may swallow it if the food is ground smooth enough. We grind the lumps (or the questions or stumbling blocks) by separating the chunky space between the lumps!

The more we do this, and the more time is spent doing so, eventually all the lumps disappear and we have refined food, smooth enough for all to eat, even the babies. If we try to cook it whole or cut this process short, in the end, we may spit it out and not receive anything from it at all.

Tools needed for grinding manna:

a] Elbow grease

We live in a microwave society and want to be fed now. But manna takes effort to prepare before it can be eaten. This is effort in study, prayer, searching, and separating the Word of God. (2 Tim 2:15)

This effort is studying to connect each of the isolated, questionable pieces of rhema. We find common denominators of patterns which are reference points with His Word, we use concordances, we include our personal life in the places where He has given us understanding before, etc and connect it all with the lumps that we do not understand.

b] A safe place

Grinding can be messy work. It sometimes ends up out of its gathering container, onto the floor and all over the person grinding it. :) Therefore, it is best to keep the grinding in a hidden place, away from public scrutiny.

If you have a few working in the kitchen with you, they may understand the way you in particular do your grinding and give you lots of space to make messes. Others may not be so understanding and not only reject your pearls, but also reject your mess.

c] A pounding stone

I have often heard the saying, "Fall on the rock, before it falls upon you." This comes from the scripture in Matt 21:41-44 where Jesus was speaking of Himself as the cornerstone. Then He says, "And whoever falls on this stone will be broken; but on whomever it falls, it will grind him to powder." (vs 44 NKJV)

The context of that scripture is not talking about grinding manna, but the parable of Jesus being the grinding stone certainly fits. As we fall upon Jesus, and let the Words that He speaks to us fall back upon Him, the Holy Spirit breaks the manna down into smaller and smaller portions until it becomes powder.

In the breaking down process, the more we hear from the Lord, rather than puffing us up, the more humbled we become. I have been a scribe for many years now and at first I would become sifted and frustrated, asking too many questions with not enough answers. I finally learned not to trust in my own mind, my own preconceived ideas, my own opinions, my own strength. Ambition, zeal, pride, all became crushed into powder as I went through the process of receiving something awesome and wonderful from the Lord, only to find out that I most definitely heard, but didn't have the foggiest idea what He meant by it! This grinding teaches us that we have no ability to understand God on our own, we must take EVERYTHING back to Him, Who is our Source. He has sent the Holy spirit to help and teach us. "But when the Father sends the Counselor as my representative-- and by the Counselor I mean the Holy Spirit-- he will teach you everything and will remind you of everything I myself have told you." (John 14:26 NLT) In every aspect, it is IMPOSSIBLE to live the Christian life apart from His help.

This is what the Bible says as to WHY the Lord gives us manna:

"Remember how the LORD your God led you through the wilderness for forty years, humbling you and testing you to prove your character, and to find out whether or not you would really obey his commands. Yes, he humbled you by letting you go hungry and then feeding you with manna, a food previously unknown to you and your ancestors. He did it to teach you that people need more than bread for their life; real life comes by feeding on every word of the LORD." (Deut 8:2-3 NLT)

"He fed you with manna in the wilderness, a food unknown to your ancestors. He did this to humble you and test you for your own good." (Deut 8:16 NLT)

3] THEN THEY COOKED IT

"The people went about and gathered it, ground it on millstones or beat it in the mortar, cooked it in pans, and made cakes of it; and its taste was like the taste of pastry prepared with oil." (Num 11:8 NKJV)

Another saying is, "A watched pot never boils." And so it is with cooking. It takes time to make a fire, to heat the pot up to cook. In these last days, there are 2 kinds of fire and the choice is ours. One kind of fire is having the fiery passion of loving and thus pursuing the Lord our God: "Jesus replied, `You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind.' This is the first and greatest commandment." (Matt 22:37-38 NLT)

However the second choice is a result of losing that fiery love for the Lord: "Sin will be rampant everywhere, and the love of many will grow cold." (Matt 24:12 NLT) "Nevertheless I have this against you, that you have left your first love." (Rev 2:4

NKJV) If the embers of our love grows cold, then we will be put into the fiery furnace so that we will no longer depend upon ourselves, but turn to the Lord.

"I know all the things you do, that you are neither hot nor cold. I wish you were one or the other! But since you are like lukewarm water, I will spit you out of my mouth! You say, `I am rich. I have everything I want. I don't need a thing!' And you don't realize that you are wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked. I advise you to buy gold from me--gold that has been purified by fire…." (Rev 3:15-18 NLT)

So our two choices are to cook, or to be cooked! If we cook, we zealously pursue the Lord and give Him time to stir His rhema pot within us. He turns up the fire of love and we search Him all the more. It is a joyous experience to be consumed in the passion of the Lord.

The other is to be consumed in the fire of trials. And that too is the love of the Lord, so that we will turn and sup with Him. The very next verse says: "I am the one who corrects and disciplines everyone I love. Be diligent and turn from your indifference. "Look! Here I stand at the door and knock. If you hear me calling and open the door, I will come in, and we will share a meal as friends." (Rev 3:19-20 NLT)

There is something very precious in growing in our hearing the Lord, or receiving daily manna from Him. He develops within us an appetite for Him in that the more we receive, the more we crave. To discover that the God and Creator of the universe actually wants to connect and talk to us personally, this lights a fire deep inside us. He draws us into passion with His very Words to us. "Love flashes like fire, the brightest kind of flame. Many waters cannot quench love; neither can rivers drown it." (Song 8:6-7 NLT)

I will close with a Word to Ponder. May the Lord breath upon us His fiery passion as we receive His hidden manna!

Lovingly,

Sandy

HOLY FIRE 3/9/98

A fire is building. Watch the flames flicker with each gust of wind. As I breathe upon My people, the wind takes hold of each ember to burst forth new flames of kindled heat. Watch the fire. It grows hotter as each hour passes. Watch it build, as My people return to their first love…. The flames of passion from My people grow, as they worship Me with all of their strength... The glow of desire becomes more intense as they seek Me with all their hearts… The luminescence of their minds electrifies as they hunger for My Words. The flame grows hotter. The passion deepens.

My people, who stir My heart. My people, who draw out My great longings to respond to your unabashed love. Call on Me and I will answer! Seek Me and I will be found. The cloud of My Presence will descend upon the earth and you will be found in Me for I dwell in the praises of My people. I long to dwell in the midst of your fiery passion. Let the fires burn. Let them burn deeply.
~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

"For our God is a consuming fire." (Hebrews 12:29)

"And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart." (Jeremiah 29:13)

"Thou hast ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck." (Song of Solomon 4:9)

GOLD DUST AND THE MOTHER LODE

(5 visions and 1 dream)

From Sandy Warner

3/8/99

Hi Loved Ones

Have you ever sat in a sun beam near a window, punched a pillow, and watched the dust swirl and twirl? (If you haven't, maybe that's one of those leftovers from my childhood days!) Well the first week of 1999, at church during worship, I suddenly saw sparkling gold glitter swirling and twirling in circles. I marveled at such a thing and asked the Lord what it could mean. Without my saying anything, a couple weeks later a lady came forward in church and shared a vision she'd had.

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

Vision & Word given to Jennifer Holland:

As I was worshipping I saw gold dust filling the air. I asked the Lord what it was and He said it was the physical expression of His Presence. In other words, it was what we perceive in our understanding and experience of Him. Then I saw a gold miner standing in a stream panning for gold. He was picking up little flakes of gold in his gold pan and was very excited as he gathered each one in his dish. The Lord said,
~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

"That is My church, standing in the stream of My Presence and glory."

I perceived that we were satisfied and excited about those little nuggets and little flakes of the gold. There was a tendency to want to "camp" at the spot and not move on up the stream. I sensed a striving to get what gold could be found in the pan, but there was not a striving to go to the source, a digging into Him.

Then the Lord spanned the scope of my vision outward and I could see the stream with the mountain behind it. The Lord asked, "What is the source of that gold? The source of that gold is in the mountain. My very Presence is in the mountain." I could see a river of gold running through the mountain.

Prophetic Word:

"Come into the mountain, come into My very Presence. The flakes of gold are only like the sluffings off of Who I AM, and what I AM and what you are experiencing of Me. Come into the very Source of that gold. It may take digging, it may take a blasting away to get to the gold, but press into Me. You have been satisfied with the flakes when the mother lode is waiting. Press in, climb up stream and find the mother lode."

from Jennifer Holland

[end of vision]

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

A couple weeks after Jennifer shared this, I read several pages of posted e-mails of people seeing gold dust, gold sparkles, and gold glitter all over the world. People saw it literally and they saw it in the Spirit. The following is a reprinted vision used with permission.

Vision given to Lori Hankins:

About 7 years ago I had a vision: I was up on a stage preaching the gospel when suddenly Jesus appeared behind me. Then as I spoke gold dust started coming out of my mouth. I saw it come out and land on the people in the audience. I turned and looked at Jesus and He smiled and nodded His head yes. So I continued to share and then had the urge to blow upon people. When I did this the gold dust went all over the room filling the atmosphere. It was so incredible and real in the vision.

from Lori Hankins

[end of Lori’s vision]

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

Dream given to Sandy:

After I wrote this gold dust post, but was waiting upon the Lord to send it, He gave me a dream: My Dad had a plant nursery, and I was enjoying the beautiful landscaping, the plants and the pools. As I was enjoying the lush setting, I passed by a huge solid gold boulder. A little miner (probably an angel) was standing in front of the gold boulder with his pick and shovel in hand ready to pass out chunks of gold. The reason he appeared so small is because the solid gold boulder was towering over his head! As I passed by I suddenly had large chunks of gold in my mouth. (About the size of jelly beans.) They felt quite strange and I wasn't sure if I was to swallow them or spit them out! At the same time I was deciding what to do with these gold chunks, a family asked me to pray for their son. The son was crooked with disease. I was not sure what I was supposed to do because I needed to pray for their son, but my mouth was filled with all of this gold! I woke up still deciding what I was supposed to do with these gold chunks.
~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

2 Visions given to Sandy:

Today as I was preparing to send this post out, more posts came in about the Lord literally filling gold teeth. Teeth fillings are a parable of filling holes caused by decay. This reminded me of 2 visions I had in the early 80's. In the first I saw the army of cankerworms coming in masses over the hills and valleys. Everywhere their slime touched, they left gaping holes in people. The only way to keep from being "slimed" was to vigorously exercise one's conscience. In the scripture about the cankerworms, we have the Lord's promise, "And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpiller, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you… And your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, Your old men shall dream dreams, Your young men shall see visions. And also on My menservants and on My maidservants I will pour out My Spirit in those days." (Joel 2: 25, 28,29)

In the other vision I saw my baby son's brand new tooth popping through and simultaneously heard the Lord's still small voice say, "There will I make the horn of David to bud." (Psalm 132:17) The word horn comes from a root Hebrew word meaning to grow a horn (like a rams horn). In part of the animal kingdom, horns are usually a symbol of the growth of authority. So as I ponder the sign of Him filling/replacing teeth with gold, I see the Lord saying He is wanting to restore our authority in Jesus to pray for the crooked and maimed and release the captives.

The last few weeks I have perceived a noticeable increase in His anointing. He is closer, His Presence is stronger and the manifestation of His power is stronger. I firmly believe that we have a door of opportunity opened to us at this very hour. He is drawing us closer to Him in preparation for what is to come. This is not a time to take the increases of His golden glory for granted, rather it is a time to persistently climb up stream, and dig deep until we find His mother lode. It's waiting. He's waiting! His gold rush is coming and He is asking us, "Do we want the gold dust or the Mother Lode?"

RHEMA 9/21/08 RETURNING IN REPENTANCE
HEARD: Wall. Having already seen. I am with him. I am dealing with him.

Heb 6:4-6 NKJV
For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted the heavenly gift, and have become partakers of the Holy Spirit, 5 and have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come, 6 if they fall away, to renew them again to repentance , since they crucify again for themselves the Son of God, and put Him to an open shame.

=======

POEM: WHO CAN STAND? 11/23/04
Oh God, when I hear of a chosen man falling,
Who can stand secure, walking in their calling?
My heart weeps in despair for the pain that is there
As such a one bares the weight of this care.

How deep the pain to know Your anointing
Of being an ensign of Your pointing;
To feel the heartthrobs with their great demand,

To know Your power now slips through the hand.

When Your anointing departs, the void is real.
The hole craves filling from pain the soul feels.
How deep the pain to know Your still small voice
Is replaced by demons due to sin's choice.

Chastisement is Your way with ones gone astray.
Oh my God, give us all grace to obey!
Without Your great grace to keep us from falling
We are mere men, trying to walk in a calling.

Your gifts and calling are without repentance.
Such a warning requires all excellence
To use our trials this side of Your promise,
That the fires of life burn out our dross.

How can You choose us, with no guarantee
That we'll be faithful, to serve only Thee?
You've given us free will, that is Your plan.
Heaven on earth always comes through a man.

If a public one falls before he dies
Grant public repentance to denounce the lies.
This will bring comfort to all who so mourn
Who bear the reproach of prophetic scorn.

It will comfort those who fear for that soul
That hell's flame will swallow that one whole.
Sacrificial repentance will heal and mend
That which was torn and thoroughly rent.

We are sinners falling short of Your glory.
Cloaked with masks, and covering our stories.
If one man could repent after having been sent Prodigals might come home from where they went.

Please let there be a final heroic deed
For Your people who are in such great need.
Let them hear truth from a repentant heart
So the fires of revival can find their start.

Building monuments and idols to men,
Is placing pedestals - credit on lend.
For God alone must receive His glory
Through mere men who share His story.

Dan 11:35 NKJV
And some of those of understanding shall fall, to refine them, purify them, and make them white, until the time of the end; because it is still for the appointed time.

RHEMA 6/06/10 WAITING FOR HIS WIND
HEARD: the wind is blowing. Arise.

AH CONFIRMATION: I turned with anointed hands to the following rhema today.

RHEMA 4/19/98: GLORY IMPARTED IN THE WIND

DREAM: GLORY IMPARTED IN THE WIND
We were expecting an impartation of the Lord's glory. Because we knew it was going to be an impartation, I went to Pastor thinking he might have the Lord's glory to impart. Pastor not knowing what I am thinking comes to me with his hand out, saying, "you impart good." I immediately realize that this particular impartation is going to come straight from the Father and we both put our hands up and looked to the Lord while I prayed very strongly, "Lord impart to us Your glory!!!" Then still in the dream I heard His still small voice say, "In the wind." I understood that this was how He was going to impart His glory. Then as I was shaking very strongly under the power of the Lord He asked me if I enjoyed dancing with the children.

WORD TO PONDER SOME IMPARTATION IS STRAIGHT FROM ME 4/19/98
There are many impartations in My Spirit, and I use laying on of hands and other means to release gifts to My people. There is a wave of My glory coming that can only be received directly from My own touch upon and into your life. Place your heart to receive and open your sails like a ship to catch My wind.

"And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting." (Acts 2:2 KJV)

PRAYER: Many of Your people are laying prone before You, waiting in earnest for You to put wind to their sails. Lord we are unable to move forward without You. Many of us are stuck and can not arise. We are needing the wind of Your Presence to raise us up and propel us forward. We call upon You and wait for You oh Lord.

Luke 17:19 NKJV
And He said to him, "Arise, go your way. Your faith has made you well."

John 14:31 NKJV
But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father gave Me commandment, so I do. Arise, let us go from here.

Theme: 100 Fold Fruit

[Note: to print this page, make sure that you click in this frame first, otherwise you will print the left scrolling frame instead. This document prints to 8 pages]

Note from Sandy: Through the weaving of the following contributions, you will see the Lord is taking His people on a journey where our lives are planted as seeds of corn, which become ripe (fully mature) and fruitful (to be utilized) for the Kingdom. For those who are willing to continue the journey, their fruitful corn nuggets become a sacrifice through death to self and are then dried by the fire in order to multiply into an even greater harvest. I believe these prophetical Words also reveal a journey for those in the coming harvest. "Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit." (KJV John 12:24)

[File created Winter 97 from the newsletter, The Quickened Word]

[1] Planting

Vision given to Shirley on 5/4/93

I saw fresh plowed ground. It had been raked and rows dug for planting.

Some corn seeds had been planted, but were not yet covered with dirt.
"And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow; And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up: Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth: And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them: But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear." (Math 13: 3-9)

[2] Growing

Shibboleth is a Process of Growing Stronger and Stronger - Experience given to Grandma Anna 9/2/81:
I was very ill in bed suffering the terrible weakness of the aftermath of a hypoglycemic coma. While three ladies were praying over me, suddenly I knew in my spirit that the Lord had a Word for me. One of them began to stutter a strange word: "You will have the strength of shibboleth." She stuttered over the word shibboleth. I began to whisper, "I will have the strength of Shibboleth." As I continued to whisper this, more and more strength came to my voice, and I was able to rise out of bed in increasing stages. I finally said with a very strong voice, "I will have the strength of Shibboleth!" Such strength came to me that I walked down the hall much to everyone's joyful amazement. Because the word shibboleth sounded familiar, we looked it up in the Strong's Concordance. We were surprised to discover that in the verse where shibboleth is spoken, that person stuttered over saying it too! We wondered what the Lord could be speaking by way of such an amazing allegory. "Then said they unto him, Say now Shibboleth: and he said Sibboleth: for he could not frame to pronounce it right..." (Judges 12:6)

Word Study on Shibboleth
(Gen 41:5-7, 22-27, Jud 12:6, Isa 27:12, Zech 4:12., etc)

SHIBBOLETH: A Hebrew word denoting the growing or flowing out process.
(The King James version uses the words ears of corn instead of ears of grain and the Lord has built upon the corn idea as a riddle for Shibboleth. Corn as we know it was not grown in the Bible lands.)

HEBREW: 07641 shibbol {shib-bole} or (fem.) shibboleth {shib-bo'-leth}
07641 shibbol {shib-bole} or (fem.) shibboleth {shib-bo'-leth}¤ from the same as 07640, a stream (as flowing); TWOT - 2316b,2316c; n f ¤ AV - ears 11, ears of corn 3, branches 1, channel 1, floods 1, Shibboleth 1, waterflood + 04325 1; 19 ¤ 1) flowing stream 2) ear (of grain), head of grain 2a) as growing 2b) cluster
(Hermeneutika - Bible Works for Windows)

[3] Harvesting

Heard and saw given to Shirley on 7/9/94:
I saw piles of corn still in the husks and heard the Lord say, "The time of harvest has begun."

[4] Harvesting

Generation X Will be Harvested With Mercy - Dream excerpt given to Pastor Dale Howell on 3/5/97:
I am in what appears to be a cornfield but instead of stalks of corn there are rows and rows of young people. They are dirty and ragged. I am walking in and among the rows praying and prophesying. I do not remember what I said at first but as I continued to walk among the cornfield of youth, the Spirit of the Lord came upon me and I began crying out, "Mercy triumphs over judgment!" I said this several times and then I noticed a young lady about 18 years old. She had a look of purity about her. Without thought I picked her up and began to run with her over my shoulder crying out, "Mercy triumphs over judgment!"
Possible Interpretation
From Pastor Dale: The Lord is getting ready to bring in a great harvest. We have been praying and marching (doing warfare) in among the cornfield of souls now for years. The Lord is sending a Spirit of purity to the church. We are to pick it up and run with it in a spirit of intercession with a heart cry of, "Mercy triumphs over judgment!"
"For judgment will be merciless to one who has shown no mercy; mercy triumphs over judgment." (James 2:13 NKJ)
"For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself: first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear. But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come." (Mark 4:28)

[5] Husking - Peeling away

Husking Makes the Full Grown Corn Manifest - Given to Sandy Warner on 6/6/95:
As I was fixing dinner I heard the Lord say, "long-legged." I thought that was a strange Word and questioned Him about it. Then He opened my eyes to what I was doing. I was husking corn. Long-legged is a riddle for the word, "Shibboleth" which is a Hebrew word meaning the growing forth, as in ears of grain. The removal of one's husk is the process of uncovering, revealing or making the fruit manifest. For notes on Shibboleth see above Word study.

[6] Tested & Dried

Ears of Corn Dried For Future Use
Excerpts given to Grandma Anna on 7/28/94: I heard the Lord say, "Ears coming. Big ones. Elephant ears. Just a little longer. Dry as a bone. Tested and tried. Occupied. Corn chips. Shibboleth. Dried and edible. Ground to powder. You will see. Prayers answered."

[7] Sacrificing

Death to Self of First Fruit - Given to Grandma Anna on 7/15/93:
I heard the Lord say, "You are of My green ears of corn, dried by the fire, even corn beaten out of full ears."
"And if thou offer a meat offering of thy firstfruits unto the Lord, thou shalt offer for the meat offering of thy firstfruits green ears of corn dried by the fire, even corn beaten out of full ears." (Lev 2:14)

[8] Sacrifices made manifest

Corn Cobs Manifest & Sent - Vision given to Sandy Warner on 3/13/85:
I was playing "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" on the piano. The music was heard in the throne room and not on earth. (Inter-cession) Suddenly ears of corn fell from heaven. I saw them plunge into the ground like spears, head first. As I gazed at the corn, I saw a turtledove inside each ear. They appeared lifeless and immobile. Just as I was wondering if they were dead, the husks peeled away and out of each ear popped a turtledove. It was as though they had waited until the right time to come forth. When they came forth, each popped out in their own timing, however they all came forth in the same season. I heard the Lord say to me the Word, "Shibboleth." Then He referred me to Song of Solomon, 2:12 "The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle (dove) is heard in the land."
Possible Interpretation from Sandy:
Turtledoves represent sacrifice in the Old Testament. Shibboleth is a riddle for those sons who have come to full maturity and are then offered as sacrifices for the Kingdom of God. Their lives will bear multiplied fruit. The peeling away of the husks is the manifestation of His sons as they go forth upon the earth. "Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit." (John 12: 24) "For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God." (Rom 8:19)

SONG:
BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC:
(Julia W. Howe, 1819-1910
(American melody att. To William Steffe, 1952-)
"Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is tramping out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword;
His truth is marching on.
I have seen Him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps;
I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps;

His day is marching on,
I have read a fiery gospel, writ in burnish rows of steel;
As ye deal with My contemners,
so with you My grace shall deal;
Let the Hero, born of woman, crush the serpent with his heel;
Since God is marching on.
He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never sound retreat;
He is sifting out the hearts of men before His judgment seat.
Be swift, my soul, to answer Him!
be jubilant, my feet!
Our God is marching on.
In the beauty of the lilies
Christ was born across the sea,
With a glory in His bosom that transfigures you and me;
As He died to make men holy,
let us live to make men free;
While God is marching on.
Glory! Glory hallelujah
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
His truth is marching on."

[9] Multiplied

Dried Ears Will be Reconstituted - Given to Grandma Anna on 9/2/94:
I heard the Lord say, "Green ears of corn dried by the fire. I will reconstitute. No man knows the hour or the day save the Father."

"Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you: Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution [605] of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began." (Acts 3:19-21)

[10] Multiplied

One Dried Corn Seed Becomes a Thousand - Given to Grandma Anna on 8/17/93:

I heard the Lord say, "Where did they go? Ask them. Shibboleth. Very dry. Waited a long time. Were reconstituted. Watch out!" Then I saw ears of corn. Each little kernel had wings. Then He said, "A little one becomes a thousand. Right in front of your eyes."

[11] Multiplied

Shibboleth Popped Corn - Excerpt given to Grandma Anna on 1/11/89:

I heard the Lord say, "A branch grows up out of its place. Shibboleth. Air popped corn."

[12] Multiplied

Popped Popcorn Vision given to Sandy Warner on 5/1/94

I saw popped popcorn. This is His Word for those of Shibboleth, that were set to dry by the fire, then heated with the oil of the Holy Spirit.

[13] Multiplied

Our Church Blooms Popcorn

Dream given to Barbara in May 1997: We were at church on a work day. The women were working inside the church and doing a little remodeling or changing some things in the church. Outside, the men were building a wall that seemed to be a wall for protection. It was not yet completed and I had the impression that it might eventually end up going clear down the driveway to the street. The wall was so high that you couldn't see over it.

Thinking we all needed a break, I said, "We have this big popcorn machine, so lets have popcorn!" The machine was like the big square commercial kind that you see in a theater. I poured in some oil, and I asked Ladean if that was enough and she said, "Just a little more." I said, "I'll pour in the popcorn. There, do you think that is enough?" She said, "Maybe just a little bit more." I said, "We don't want to get too much," but I poured in a little bit more.

It began to pop and went crazy. It wasn't popping like normal popcorn. It began to fly out a hole about two inches wide and twelve inches long at the top of the machine. I said, "Oh my goodness! Lets put tape across it to keep it from coming out all over the floor." We tried to put duct tape over the hole, saying, "This isn't going to work." The tape wouldn't hold and the popcorn just kept flying out. "We might just as well let it go! Oh my, look at this popcorn, it is going everywhere!" The machine kept producing popcorn clear up to the ceiling of the church! It formed three huge mounds.

Looking at the popcorn I thought to the Lord, "What have we done?" What are we going to do with all this popcorn?" About that time Nick came in. I said, "Look at all this popcorn! What are we going to do with it?" He looked at me with that kind of grin he gets and said, "I know what I'm going to do with it. I'm going to finish this wall with it." I said, "It won't work. It won't stay together." He said, "I'm going to just pile it up there." But I said, "It won't stay there!"

He reached down and got as much as he could carry in his arms, carrying it over to the wall. He pounded and pressed it together, but I said, "That won't stay together." I was thinking to myself this is crazy it isn't going to work! About the second time he carried a load, I saw mortar begin to flow supernaturally through the popcorn in the wall and the popcorn turned to stone, the same kind of stones used in the present church building. After he had picked up his third load of popcorn and turned towards the wall, the popcorn in his arms then turned into the same stone that was already in the wall.
The rest of us said, "Let's help do this!" And as we picked up the popcorn and turned and started towards the wall, the popcorn would turn to stone in each one of our arms. Several picked up the popcorn to help Nick finish the wall and get rid of the popcorn. When I awoke I saw a vision of mountains of popcorn and I wondered what in the world it could all mean?

Possible Interpretation from Sandy:
This dream so delights me. Barbara knew nothing of the corn/popcorn rhema when she had this dream. I believe the Lord is saying that our church contains people who have completely yielded to Him, gone through the death to self process and learned to wait upon Him to build His kingdom, and not their own. He's honoring this and is beginning to join those people. Together united in His Spirit, they will form a strong wall, a hedge of protection for all those who would dwell within the arms of our church.

[14] Multiplied

Corn Popped Through the Holy Spirit - Given to Shirley on 7/29/93:
I heard the Lord say, "To each his own. I join. I unite. Not your choice. All things decided by Me. Unlikely partners. Don't plan ahead. Spirit leading; you follow. Oh day of victory. Fail safe. Perfect batch. Like popcorn, right temp. No burning. Air popped. Spirit breath."

[15] Endued

Endued With A Popcorn Mantle - Dream given to Rose Crownover on 12/3/97:
E-mail: soundofharvest@juno.com Website: http://members.spree.com/soundharvest
In this dream I was in a church building that was our church (although it was not the same facility that we have now). Lewis and I were in a meeting in which Jill Austin was ministering. She asked if she could use me as a type of what the Lord was going to do to many people. She threw over my shoulders a rectangular cloth (it was like a gray flannel or wool fabric). Then she dumped a large bucket of a gooey golden colored substance on me that was like a combination of honey and oil. Then she took a bucket of white popcorn and threw it on me over the honey/oil mixture.
Next I was cutting a bolt of the cloth (like what had been thrown over my shoulders) into rectangular strips to be used for others. I asked Jill if I was doing it right. She answered, "Well that's fine, but what I really miss are the big square pieces." I understood that it would be better for me to cut the pieces twice the size than I was making them.

Possible Interpretation from Rose:
As I was pondering this dream I began to laugh at the combination of items that had been dumped on me. "It sounds like a recipe for caramel corn to me," I said to the Lord. Then I realized a play on words with the word caramel. I had been reading some books about the Carmelites. In about 1209 the men living on Mount Carmel adopted a rule emphasizing solitude, penance and prayer. I had a Word recently about God calling me to this lifestyle of the inward man. The World Book Dictionary says a definition for Carmelite is a fine woolen material, usually gray or light brown, which fits the description of the cloth thrown on my shoulders. Caramel literally means cane-honey.
Additional Comments from Sandy:
I see this dream depicting those who are called to carry the mantle of intercession upon their shoulders. The fact that the mantles need to be larger represents the fact that the intercession is much larger than what appears in the natural. We say people, He says "Nations."

[16] Anointed

Corn Revealed, Then Anointed - Given to Sandy Warner on 9/23/94:
I heard the Lord say, "He will butter my banners." Then I saw a vision of husked corn on the cob. This denotes that after the revealing of the mature corn, comes the Holy Spirit anointing. The word banners comes from a Hebrew word meaning a sign. (See notes on page 5.) Therefore those whom the Lord anoints as His banners will be His signs pointing the way. I believe that part of the church's intercession is ussuring in this season through worship and dance. A further parable of this is seen through beautiful banners on church walls and in the people using banners and other items to worship.

Word study on Banner
(Num 21:8-9, Psa 60:4, Isa 5:26, Isa 18:3, etc)
BANNER: An ensign lifted up
HEBREW: 05251 nec {nace}
¤ from 05264; TWOT - 1379a; n m ¤ AV - standard 7, ensign 6, pole 2, banner 2, sail 2, sign 1; 20 ¤ 1) something lifted up, standard, signal, signal pole, ensign, banner, sign, sail 1a) standard (as rallying point), signal 1b) standard (pole) 1c) ensign, signal
(Hermeneutika - Bible Works for Windows)

[17] Salted

Salt Flavors and Preserves Popcorn - Dream given to Sandy Warner on 12/14/95:
I was typesetting a coupon. Spread across the top was a banner of popcorn salt shakers pouring out over the coupon. There were women dressed in battle fatigues doing different things among the salt shakers.
"For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt. (Mark 9:49)

Possible Interpretation from Sandy: To me, this verse is like a promise to those who die to their will and become a sacrifice. They will be salted with salt. The sacrifice and the salt go together as a package deal. Salt is a natural by-product of sacrifice. It is also produced by spending time with Him and having an intimate relationship.
Salt is like an advertisement that draws people to Jesus. We give flavor to the world through sharing the testimony of what we see and hear God doing in our own lives and those around us. We preserve the world by overcoming the enemy and pushing back darkness.

[18] Served

Double Portion Corn Ready to Serve - Given to Sandy Warner on 6/18/95:
I heard the Lord say, "Watch it all come to pass. Eye witness." Then I saw two ears of ready to eat corn, stacked one on top of another on a plate. This speaks of a promise that we shall be eye witnesses to a last day's double portion anointing on those who have come to maturity.

RHEMA 4/19/98: THIS IMPARTATION IS COMING WITHOUT HUMAN TOUCH

HEARD: Coming wave. You'll be on it. Anoint. Passion. Blaze.

HEARD: Do you want My glory? Anoint. Presence. Coming right now. Ready to leave. My Presence. Powerful.

DREAM: GLORY IMPARTED IN THE WIND
We were expecting an impartation of the Lord's glory. Because we knew it was going to be an impartation, I went to Pastor thinking he might have the Lord's glory to impart. Pastor not knowing what I am thinking comes to me with his hand out, saying, "you impart good."

I immediately realized that this particular impartation is going to come straight from the Father. So instead we both put our hands up and looked to the Lord while I prayed very strongly, "Lord impart to us Your glory!!!"

Then still in the dream I heard His still small voice say, "In the wind." I understood that this was how He was going to impart His glory. Then as I was shaking very strongly under the power of the Lord He asked me if I enjoyed dancing with the children.

WORD TO PONDER SOME IMPARTATION IS STRAIGHT FROM ME 4/19/98
There are many impartations in My Spirit, and I use laying on of hands and other means to release gifts to My people. There is a wave of My glory coming that can only be received directly from My own touch upon and into your life. Place your heart to receive and open your sails like a ship to catch My wind.

"And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting." (Acts 2:2 KJV)

MARRIED AND ONE IN THE LORD 8/15/10

HEARD: Work together. My will is love. Because they conquer. What's My joy of watching you? Seeing your faith. Fellowship. In My Spirit. We're married. We're all married, do you believe that?

John 17:11 NKJV
... that they may be one as We are.

John 17:21-23 NKJV

Eph 5:29-33 NKJV
For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as the Lord does the church. For we are members of His body, of His flesh and of His bones. "For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

=======

SOME MISC MARRIED INSERTS FROM PAST RHEMA

2/22/03 MARRIED IN THE GLORY TRAIN?
HEARD: Train.
PIX: I saw a just married sign on the back of a train caboose.

HEARD: Angelic ministry. Hosts. My bridesmaids. Help. Here I'll give you a hand. Two blank checks, checking account. All expenses paid.

PIX: I saw a huge long, long truck, maybe 3 links long. It said, New User on the side. It was turning a corner into the lots of both Jerry's Building supply and Wal-mart shopping center to get loaded up.

HEARD: Others operate the same way with Manifested Presence. Yes by faith. Presence, it's a touch. Unity. Let's exchange presents. Gifts. Come wealth. Let's get this show on the road.

2/17/04 THE HOLY SPIRIT MANIFESTS
This night I literally heard a Man's voice at the foot of my bed. He was SO loving and cheerful. Then after that, I had a full night of rhema from His still small voice and here is one of the things He said to me:

HEARD: My bride. Doesn't know a thing about herself. Ruler. Double blessing. It's an honor. Fellowship. What's happening? See it from My point. Married. Pretty soon you won't be able to tell a difference between us. One.

11/15/06 THE MYSTERY OF BEING MARRIED TOGETHER IN GOD

HEARD: Paul was saying something here. Mystery. Married, together in God. Restore. Intercession. Fact. Birthed on earth what was spoken in heaven. Willing to pay the price...Yes. It's going to manifest on earth right before your very eyes. The truth of birthing... It's a mystery.

========

3/24/07 GRAFTED AND MARRIED AS ONE

HEARD: She's standing in the gap for one body. One people. My people. Married. Blended together. Grafted as one. Unit. Holy. Assembled. Yes.

========

8/29/08 STANDING FOR UNITY YET TO COME

HEARD: Grafted together. Commitment. Unity. Don't be afraid. You will see them married as one. It's time you understood this. It's all about love.

HEARD: Just stay focused. Obedient. In synch. With My timing. My ways are not your ways. Frustrated. Encumbered. By degrees too slow. It's OK. Follow My lead. Out in front of you. My pace not yours.

========

10/28/08 SURROUNDED, HEDGED AND COVERED

HEARD: A new door. Married. Walk down the stairs and turn right. Fellowship.

RHEMA 8/16/10 MARRIED

HEARD: Something to show you. I want you to go back to Dec 12 rhema.

RHEMA 12/12/99 MARRIED
HEARD: Clear a pathway. I wasn't the only one, we all cried uncle.
PIX: I saw someone sitting down in a chair and was bowed over dejectedly. The only thing we have left.

QUICKENED THOUGHTS: I felt myself in a bubble. I was thinking about the Lord coming to me and wrapping His big arms around this bubble and giving me a big squeeze. Then He said, "Wife!" He squeezed the bubble really tight and He gave me a big kiss. It popped the bubble and He put His arms around me, and then we were inside a bubble together.

HEARD: Wife, bubble. Joy. It happened exactly as you said. Surrounded. Really did, literally happen.

HEARD: Darkest hour. I meet you face to face.
PIX: I saw 2 people who had American flags and they were holding the flags sideways as they were walking side by side.
PIX: I saw my wedding ring on my right thumb as it was sticking up.
HEARD: Cause I chose you.

WORD TO PONDER FACE TO FACE 12/12/99
In the darkest hour, I am coming to embrace you with a face to face encounter of My love and My power. I will place My arms around you and it will be like a warm bubble of protection. Although you will be able to see and hear great darkness on the outside of our bubble, you will know the depths of My love and our joy together as we look upon the world together. I have chosen you to be My bride; called, chosen and faithful you are to Me.

"When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek." (Ps 27:8 KJV)

COMMENT 8/27/10 DIVINE TIMING
I had gathered all the rhema for 12/12 throughout the years and I had to pick what I felt the Lord was wanting to saying to me. Since He was speaking to me about being married the day before, I chose the above one about being married to the Lord in the bubble. After that I received 2 confirmations that I had chosen the right rhema:

CONFIRMATION 8/27/10 A LEGIT MATE
Someone sent me the following email;

WOW! - I AM glad I AM a LEGIT-I-MATE mate for the Lord Jesus... isn't that the Father's Job... to grow us UP, so Jesus doesn't have to MARRY DOWN and that men and women should be a Proverbs 31:10 WIFE to JESUS! - HA!

CONFIRMATION 8/27/10
This gal was responding to a totally different post about God speaking in circles. She was making comments about the graphic I had about the bubble, and the rhema I had found for 12/12 and was working on at the time was about the above bubble and being married to Him.

Dear Sandy, Thank you for sharing your writing and your picture of the Bubble of Light. This past Spring I had a vision of the exact Bubble of Light. I was inside the bubble up on a cliff looking out and could see the word "Light" spelled backwards, thus I knew I was inside the Light. I then searched for the scriptures with 'Light', and in particular 1 John 1:5 &7 "God is light; in Him there is no darkness at all" and "If we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all sin". Years ago He spoke this word to me "Abide" and now the bubble of light is the second affirming word.

UPDATE CONFIRMATION 8/28/10: Wayne saw a vision where he was dressed in his white wedding suit, everything was all white. It had special flocked designs on the coat. Embedded in the coat was hundreds of multicolored flowers.

WORD TO PONDER: MARRIED, GRAFTED TOGETHER AS ONE 8/15/10
I have been forging the culmination of a mystery that I have kept in the womb of My Spirit which is the mystery of marriage. Yes, I AM marrying My bride, the one whom I have chosen and called and who has kept her lamp lit even in the dark hour. But I AM also enlarging hearts, so that even as I love My body, My body loves itself and is one, in the same way that we are One. This mystery of marriage and divine one-ness only happens through one-ness with Me, and in turn those on earth become One. And when heaven and earth are aligned, they are even one with the cloud of witnesses.

How can this be and what does it look like? It is My kingdom on earth, just as it is in heaven. Communication to hear others and transport through thought? YES. The true riches of bearing another's burdens, feeling everything? YES. Honoring and loving with humility and grace. YES. Sitting at the feet of a child and listening in earnest. YES. Seeing Me, hearing Me, knowing Me, loving Me through My people in heaven and earth. True one-ness, blended, married and grafted together as My beautiful bride. My beautiful bride, the one who carries My heart and who becomes My heart. Oh how I love her!

John 17:11 NKJV
... that they may be one as We are.

John 17:21-23 NKJV

Eph 5:29-33 NKJV
For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as the Lord does the church. For we are members of His body, of His flesh and of His bones. "For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

TESTIMONY:
A BRIEF BACKGROUND ABOUT SANDY WARNER
My Life in the Lord Jesus Christ

Hi Loved Ones,
I have had many ask me for this, so I am sharing a portion of my background of my life in the Lord Jesus. Although I was raised outside of the evangelical church community, I was raised by my Mom to pray and trust in the Lord Jesus and I really cant remember not believing in Him. I prayed about everything because I learned at any early age of His abiding friendship and help. I learned to lean upon Him.

My family did attend the Presbyterian church a few times a year and on Easter, but my memory was only hearing the Old Testament Bible stories and not about Jesus. At the age of 16 a friend invited me to their after school fellowship at their Baptist church and I was flabbergasted to meet all these passionate kids who all loved Jesus like I did, and they prayed regularly. I had never met anyone else like me before and it was like fresh rain to know I was not the only one and that I had a family of believers. Finding these people strongly validated my life in the Lord.

When I was 17, I was invited to a Charismatic church camp and received the Baptism of the Holy Spirit and spoke in tongues. You may read about that testimony by clicking here. After graduation I attended a Charismatic Bible college in hopes of finding my husband. Smile, back then it was affectionately called Bridal college because most females attended for that exact reason. I did not find Mr Right and moved to another college and found my beloved Wayne in the church I attended. We were married in 1976 and had one wonderful son.

On August 22, 1984 I was camping with my son and Grandma Anna at the ocean. The Lord visited me in our camping trailer and I saw His white robe, His feet and also His staff as He waved it over me. The next day as we were sitting in the sand, I heard His voice tell me my calling. That was enough to wake me up and soon after that He started granting me visions, dreams and hearing His still small voice. I was coming alive with the passion of intimacy with Him!

In November, while sleeping He visited me again and handed me a solid gold pen and His Presence descended upon me and quickened me. I fell under the power of His Spirit and when I woke I wondered what the pen meant!! I just packed it away in the spiritual pantry that He was rapidly building of visions and dreams, and really didnt think much more of it.

One week later I had this yearning to write an article on how God speaks to me, as I wanted others to be able to hear Him in the special ways He talked to me. I had written term papers in college so I thought maybe I might try to submit an article someplace. My dad had recently given us our very first computer and so I thought I would give it a try.

That day I sat down and wrote all day. I thought I would start the article with an introduction and it ended up being prophesy that just flowed out of me. At the end of the day, I had not written one thing I had intended about hearing Him! As I walked down the hallway to go to bed, I said outloud, “Lord, this is no magazine article! This is a BOOK!” Immediately the Holy Spirit washed over in waves and waves of His awesome Presence. It was so amazing, it would not stop. I was just melted in a puddle of goose bumps and warm waves washing over me up and down my body. I needed no other confirmation, it was such a powerful experience. It was THEN that I remembered the solid gold pen!!

Today I smile when I think of that first-taste, first-day, first-toe-in-the-water introduction that was long ago deleted. One of the things the Lord told me was, “The introduction wont last the book.” I had no idea what that meant until it all came to pass before the book got published. (smile)

I have been writing ever since that time. I have walked in the calling of His scribe and a prophetic intercessor, where I have spent most of my hours day and night recording His Words and carrying them in my heart... trusting Him to bring His precious Words to pass.

In 1997 He released me to be His witness of what I have seen and heard from Him and He led me step by step to release His seeds onto the internet. Many years prior to that I had a couple visions of the internet, His newspaper going through satellite, phone lines and cable lines. I had promises of it, but had no idea what it all meant since the internet was not yet in existence.

My passion to this day, in fulfillment of several visions is to build a huge storehouse for the children of the harvest to be fed and equipped in their faith and relationship with the Lord. They strongly need to be confirmed that yes they are hearing Him and they will take off rapidly in their own relationships, having it modeled for them. It is much better to teach one how to fish, rather than to hand him the prepared meal.

It is my earnest prayer and desire that the Lord draw you to His quickened Words that you need for your life. And that you will find the tools you need to be launched and established in your walk in Him. I ask the Lord to bless all those who feed at the Quickened Word and release His wonderful impartation of His Presence, comfort and edification.

With much love,
Sandy

RHEMA 3/03/09 CLOSED THE DOOR TO THE OLD WINE SKIN
HEARD: 8 copies of a newsletter waiting for me.

INTERP: New beginnings are being confirmed.

HEARD: Exactly. New wine skin.

HEARD: Circling through a launching of events.

IMPRESSION: I had the impression of going through all my rhema journals, especially the three and half years of soul surgeries and cleaning them up.

HEARD: Exactly. Why is this important? Time to behave. The clock is ticking. Out of desperation, years of working on this:

PIX: On the floor, I saw a giant sound board mixer in the entrance hallway at our door.

HEARD: We will use the bridge between the old and the new.

> UNDERSTANDING: A sound board mixer is the equipment used to mix many sounds into one voice that ultimately comes through a speaker system, or into making a CD. The best example of this is an orchestra, where each instrument is on its own separate line and then when it comes into the sound board mixer, that line is adjusted as to its total fit into the overall song.

The person running the sound board is a sound editor and can adjust the volume of that line up or down, and even take the sound completely off during a part of the song. The idea is to listen to the whole piece as one unit, and not many individual instruments trying to come together. When the final project is complete, each line is so blended that the listener will only hear the harmonious union of one song and not many individual instruments.

DIRECTION ABOUT HARVESTING RHEMA

Today I came to a decision about what to do with my rhema journals. I have tried to not use my journals as a catharsis for negativity, especially about other people. Love covers and keeps no record of wrong. So, all these years I have tried to keep a clean record up to date.

Yet, I never deleted the actual Words I heard the Lord speak, where I heard and saw about my own problems or other people's problems that needed prayer and work. Part of the description of the Word of God is that it separates between what is soul and what is spirit and shines light on motives and intents of one's heart.

Heb 4:11-13
Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest, lest anyone fall according to the same example of disobedience. 12 For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit , and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. 13 And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

At the time I hear these things about myself and others, it is very impacting to have that spotlight turned on. However, I have noticed that when I do searches in past rhema, my eye catches these things and I am reminded of painful times where I (badly) needed surgery in my soul, or where God was highlighting where I also needed to pray for another. After I had gone through the death to self process of being pierced, yielding, excised and then healed, I was rewinding old life that had really changed.

Because these were God's Word in His still small voice and visions, I have not even considered deleting them. It was only recently when I saw how they were keeping myself and others bound to the past, that I saw the need to delete them. When the Lord forgives us, He literally blots out our sins and throws them all away!

1 Peter 4:8 NLT
...for love covers a multitude of sins.

Mic 7:19 NKJV
You will cast all our sins into the depths of the sea.

Ps 103:10-12 NKJV
He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor punished us according to our iniquities. For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is His mercy toward those who fear Him; 12 As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us.

Isa 38:17 NKJV
But You have lovingly delivered my soul from the pit of corruption, for You have cast all my sins behind Your back.

WOW CONFIRMATION: After I came to the decision that it would be good to go through the rhema and delete the parts that were about myself and others that needed work in lining up with His image, I came to an old entry where I heard: "Do you want to edit soul?"

I was SO thrilled I had heard that! It was perfect for what I felt was my answer to getting beyond my past. Just as I decided this, I downloaded an email from the CEO of the internet company I work with. He said, "That website just needs updated with the new code because she is using code from the old site!"

EXPERIENCE: After completing the project by combining all the cleaned up files together into one easy to search file:

HEARD: When you leave, can you close the door?

I feel this is closing the door to the past, covering sins and mistakes, and never returning to these things in Jesus Name. PRAISE THE LORD!

WORD TO PONDER: TO HEAR MY SONG AS ONE CLEAR WORD 3/03/09
I speak in many, many ways to get My perspective and Word implanted into your life. My Words are creative and filled with nuances of flavor that give life in unusual ways. Some of My Word is correction; some of it is edifying and encouraging you to continue in My good path. All of it is My work to build My image in your life.

My Word is eternal and lasts forever. However, that which you commit to prayer, while asking forgiveness and passing through to change is covered under My mercy through the blood of Jesus. If I do not remember your sins and have washed them away, why should you remember that which does not line up with My Word? Feel released. beloved ones, and allow yourself to delete your past and finally close the door to it. Your soul will be greatly freed to finally have it behind you.

Enjoy your new skin and enjoy a new perspective from My view. You will suddenly hear My song as something very lovely because that which did not blend in tune with My image has been deleted.

2 Cor 5:16-19 NKJV
Therefore, from now on, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know Him thus no longer. 17 Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new. 18 Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation, 19 that is, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not imputing their trespasses to them, and has committed to us the word of reconciliation.

RHEMA 3/13/07 THANK YOU FOR LISTENING

[Holy Spirit good morning.]
HEARD; Good morning friend.

HEARD; First you need to check with the radio. I don't know about you, but I LIKE the radio.

COMMENTS: For years I wrestled with the Lord in how I hear in different pronouns. He calls my hearing Him being tuned to His frequency like a radio.

Many times it overlaps as a 3-way mirror where it represents my heart, His family's heart and the Lords heart at once. It is a true blend of oneness. I know that I am on the forefront of this and it is all related to becoming one in Him. In heaven people hear one another's hearts. It is not necessarily thoughts or speech, but hearts. This will be common place in the millennium when we will be one with Him and one another. It truly is a 3 way mirror as I read over so much of how I have heard for so many years.

I know this overlaps into hearing creation. Bobby Conner has mentioned several times about hearing the bird talk to him in His still small voice, when he was sitting on his deck. It was fully backed up with what the bird did each time the bird spoke. And I have a lot of rhema about animals talking to me in dreams and visions. Bob Jones says that in heaven everything has a voice and a song. Even the flowers and rocks.

Luke 19:40 NKJV
But He answered and said to them, "I tell you that if these should keep silent, the stones would immediately cry out."

Rom 8:22-23 NKJV
For we know that the whole creation groans and labors with birth pangs together until now. Not only that, but we also who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for the adoption, the redemption of our body.

RHEMA 12/03/09 TEACHING YOU HOW TO HEAR ME
HEARD: I am maturing you. Complete in Him. Do you want it?

> Col 2:9-10 NKJV
> For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily; and you are complete in Him, who is the head of all principality and power.

PIX: I saw a walkie talkie with a phone wire strung like the old fashioned cans stung between strings.

HEARD: We will dig together. Truth. How to hear Me. I will help you. Just listen.

> LISTEN AND APPLY 9/22/03
> I want to talk to you through everything in life, if you would only listen. My Words to you are like shining symbols hanging on the wall, once your heart is opened to hear Me in new parabolic ways.
> Do you want to grow up in Me? Then eat a more balanced diet. I know all you want is visions and hearing My still small voice, but I want to send you a good variety of tasty Words. You may not like the unusual ways I speak, but I promise you that once you taste My voice in all of life, it is like a carrot dangling on a string. I place My morsels in front of you, and bounce them around just enough to get your attention, and wait for you to take a bite. Now that wasn't so bad, was it? Try another, and another and another. Soon you will delight in eating your spiritual vegetables and will grow healthy, lean and strong. Listen and apply your life around you as My Word. Hear the spiritual parables behind your circumstances. They are everywhere, all around you, every day.

"And with many such parables He spoke the word to them as they were able to hear it. But without a parable He did not speak to them. And when they were alone, He explained all things to His disciples." (Mark 4:33-34 NKJV)

THE WEDDING SURPRISE

This week at church I noticed we had an unusual amount of visitors. Behind the scenes, while we were preparing for a potluck, they suddenly announced a surprise wedding and held it on the spot. After the vows, the bridal party announced a wedding reception in the back where we were loading the tables with food.

The bride came back astonished not knowing we were having the potluck, and I kind of chuckled at the Lord's gift to her of this sudden addition to her wedding! As I was bringing the pots to the table, I noticed the line of wedding guests forming the potluck line. It dawned upon me as I looked at the line and I looked at the food — there wasn't going to be enough food! With no more food on the kitchen counters, I prayed, "Oh Lord, I have been praying and believing that You will multiply our resources in the future to feed all who come to our doors! Please multiply this food, and may it be a sign of Your future promise!" I am not one to pray for signs, but it just popped into my mind, and so I prayed it.

As the people went through the line, I was nervously watching the food disappear. After all were sitting I looked at the potluck table. It looked like a tornado had gone through. Besides the fact there was no food left, it looked like a gross sloppy mess. As I dejectedly looked at the disaster, thinking about my prayer for a sign, I walked into the kitchen. The "empty" counter was now bulging with three huge 33 gallon garbage sacks — full of bread, loaves and rolls. At that exact moment I heard the Lord’s still small voice whisper, "Trust Me!"

Evidently someone had noticed that there was not very much food left and had the sacks from the day old bakery in his truck. He brought them in and left them on the counter. The bread never was served on the potluck table and I was trying to piece together the story of what the Lord was saying. I suddenly realized, "This is what is LEFT!" "So they all ate and were filled, and they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments that remained." (Matthew 14:20)

Then as I glanced at the bride’s table the Holy Spirit reminded me of my "silly" prayer I had prayed while getting dressed for church. It seems like we are always short on desserts at our church potlucks, so I asked the Lord that there would be enough desserts this time! Sure enough when we put out the desserts, there were only 2 small desserts at the potluck. This was going through my mind as I looked at the bride’s table. About 1/3 of the bridal cake was LEFT.

If you are concerned about your future and also supplies, remember the Lord is saying, "Trust Me!" "And don’t worry about food — what to eat and drink; don’t worry at all that God will provide it for you. All mankind scratches for its daily bread, but your heavenly Father knows your needs. He will always give you all you need from day to day if you will make the Kingdom of God your primary concern. So don’t be afraid, little flock. For it gives your Father great happiness to give you the Kingdom." (Luke 12: 29-32 Living Bible)

Lovingly,

Sandy

UPROOTING THE TARES - FOREVER BEHIND YOU

[Setting Our Hearts Free From the Tares]

NOTE: We are in a season when the Lord is doing surgery to bring us back to health in all areas of our life, body, soul and spirit… most especially the soul at this time. One of the soul surgeries is His harvesting the tares and the weeds that are coming to full fruition. As He draws issues to the surface, we are not to wallow in shame, rather, we are to quickly offer them up to Him to purge them from our lives forever. Much of the issues He is drawing up and out are related to seeds that were planted in our grandparents and parents. We are reaping their fruit, and the tares in our lives are the full harvest of their own plantings. We are to cover them, forgive them, then take responsibility for our own watering of these seeds. As we cry out to the Lord, He will send His angels to pluck up the weeds and the tares and release us from all that does not match His image.

HEARD 6/23/04: Canopy of prayer. Weeping room. Protected between the enemy of the old soul. It's a fact I'm establishing you. You are not going to fall. It's been there a long, long time. Generations. I prayed for you.

John 17:15-18 NKJV

I do not pray that You should take them out of the world, but that You should keep them from the evil one. They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.

Sanctify them by Your truth. Your word is truth.

==========

HEARD 6/08/04: Could you tell them that I have some unfinished business to do? Your hearts. Until they flow, let them come and go. Until they are completely free. Instability. When they are comfortable and no longer wrestling, I will plant them. Offer the tares and the weeds. Come Holy Spirit, make them free.

==========

DREAM: We were trying to figure out all these parts and pieces and how they went together. I was supposed to take them all and roll myself over a bar like device. I kept bending down as though to turn over in a somersault, but I just couldn't make myself do it. I suddenly had the revelation that rolling over was faith and it was the faith that was the special ingredient that put the pieces all together. Then as I rolled over in faith, it placed them all in ink onto a printing press.

QUICKENED: I could not remember the word somersault and when I finally remembered it, I suddenly thought of it being a summer assault on my faith. I knew this was a revelation from the Holy Spirit.

WORD TO PONDER: THE SOMERSAULT

In the warm and dry season of your labors, even as I AM harvesting the wheat and tares within your personal life, you have had a sudden assault upon your faith. This assault came from where you did not expect and it tossed you off your feet.

My dear one, hold on, hold on to Me. Do not let go of the planting I have planted so deeply within your life! Return to your roots and hang on. Yes, I use these times to pull out the weeds that have grown up in your life. Yes, it disturbs your soil and stability as these things fall. But the enemy also intends to take advantage of this time to so entangle you that you are tossed away with the weeds. Return to your good soil, precious one. Return.

Instead of running from a fall of faith, just roll over with the punches. Consider it a somersault upon your summer assault. Your rolling over is the willingness of your heart and faith to serve Me regardless of what is going on. As you roll over and yield everything to My will, even when it hurts, this is your willing sacrifice to Me. I will turn you over in one full sweep as you roll over and spring to your feet once again.

2 Sam 22:4-7 NKJV

I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised; So shall I be saved from my enemies. "When the waves of death surrounded me, the floods of ungodliness made me afraid. The sorrows of Sheol surrounded me; The snares of death confronted me. In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried out to my God; He heard my voice from His temple, and my cry entered His ears.

==========

{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

NOTE: This year, the Lord gave me a new gift of prophetic poetry. These come through a means of hearing His still small voice, and fluent inspiration. After going through a several month season of having some tares uprooted in my life, this was the Word the Lord gave me about my experience.

WORD TO PONDER

POEM: FROM THE THRESHING FLOOR

What is the way we go this day? I simmer and stew, my heart in fray. I stare at the pages filled with Your Word. I know not the course. This is absurd.

In the midst of delicate challenge, I forget my delicate balance. Wounds too deep to understand take first place amidst the fan. From fanning the fires, to burning the dross, my heart tumbles and turns as the tares are tossed. My heart cries to You to help me through it. It is in Your lap that I crave to sit. It's all about focus and Who is our God. It's walking in Your peace, feet firmly shod. Whether resting or standing, nothing is too demanding. When love remains firm and in its place, as communion without Words deepens before Your face, in times of silence, in times of despair, help me always to know You are there.

Reaching beyond the distant miles, may the bowels of intercession be my bridge for a while. Carry me through this, Lord I pray. Help me to stand yet another day.

Matt 3:11-12 NKJV

He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor, and gather His wheat into the barn; but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

ANOINTING TO BREAK THROUGH THE SHELL

HEARD: Mount up. I will anoint you. I will establish you. Breakthrough anointing.

Isa 40:31 KJV

But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

BOBBY CONNER QUOTE

GRANDMA ANNA HEARD HIS STILL SMALL VOICE

12/5/95:

It's a seed I planted

2000 years ago.

A seed to whom I said,

"Now grow!"

It's a mystery created

In front of their eyes.

It's the story of the butterfly.

It's been a worm.

In the cocoon,

It's had its turn.

Out of the darkness

And into the light.

Bursts forth My seed

With glory bright.

Overcomers in every way,

All things they conquered

To begin the new day.

Birthed out of majesty,

Their words declare.

There is nothing, no nothing

That will ever compare.

==========

VISION: I saw a butterfly come from a long distance. It was so beautiful. Then all of a sudden I realized it was coming to me. I quickly pulled my burgundy sheet over my face thinking that I could hide. But the butterfly landed right on my face. It was very gentle, but I felt like I had been found out somehow and couldn't hide!

BREAKING THROUGH THE COCOON

BOB JONES QUOTES (4/24/02)

"…When the Lord gets ready to do something, He does it in the heavens. In 87 this supernova come. It came on 2/20. You didn't realize it, but boy you were appointed to a death. Galatians 2:20.

Gal 2:20 NKJV

I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me.

A death started working in you like the cocoon of the anointing. You were like worms that crawled around on the earth. You didn't get any higher than the plants you climbed on. But all of a sudden you began to get wrapped up in the anointing and you began to die. All of a sudden you were totally bound. You were totally restricted by the Holy Spirit. You didn't get anything you thought you were going to get. You had preset ideals of what you thought you were going to be. You stayed there in that cocoon and year after year went by. And what you haven't realized - You're not the same person that went into that cocoon. You did some dying in there and some changing.

Eph 2:20 is the power that has been changing you.

Eph 2:20 NKJV

Having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone, Foundation ministries. Governments. In heaven's time, that cocoon is going to start wiggling. It's getting weaker in here. I can just feel it. There's gonna be a jail break. And that wall is breaking down and I am going to kick loose again. And the cocoon of the anointing is going to open and you are going to find out you're not a worm, but a butterfly. For a metamorphous has taken place.

You're getting ready to get translated or raptured. {Laughter in audience.} Me being a good Baptist, I like to put my Baptist doctrine in it. But this is the kind of rapture you come back with. Every day before the throne and back with the results of it. Translated from this present darkness into His marvelous light. Get ready for the Holy Spirit to move on you like you have never seen before. And when this cocoon breaks, I think some of you are going to be the most shocked at what He has already done in your lives.

Already you have access to heaven. You are already seated with Christ in heavenly places. Why haven't you gone there? Because you have been changing. Now the translation begins. The butterfly ascends on high and comes into the light of God. And when it is joined with Christ, it only has one purpose and that is reproduction, conception. You are getting ready to reproduce on scales you have never seen before. The butterfly can reproduce about every 2 weeks. And then his descendants can reproduce every 2 weeks. If you want to figure out how many can come forth in a year, it is beyond imagination. But this is how many people are getting ready to be saved…"

{End Bob Jones quotes}

==========

{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration.}

WORD TO PONDER: ANOINTED TO BREAK THROUGH

When I plant My anointing within you, it is like a seed that takes root and grows along with your own transformation into the image of My dear Son. This time of anointing is a time hidden away in Me when I teach you, transform you and bring My complete will into your heart and life. This is a time when you become intimately acquainted with My Presence, My written Word and My rhema Word in your life. It is a time of radical life changes like nothing ever accomplished before. These changes are only possible through the power of My anointing.

Even as Jesus was set apart immediately after His anointing, and Paul was taken to the back side of the desert, so I set you apart and raise you up into the fullness of your calling. At first you shall be ravenously hungry and I will send copious loads of My Words to fill your appetite. Your growth and changes shall be apparent to all those around you. Then your inner changes occur in the hidden place where I shield you from the eyes of those around you as you yield to Me that which does measure up to My image. When My work is complete, you shall burst through your shell to soar on tender new wings of faith. You shall be carried by My anointing into My glory.

SET ASIDE FOR INTIMACY

I heard the following through His still small voice. It reminded me of Song of Solomon where they speak of one another.

HEARD 4/19/05: Spring forth oh fountain of God. Destiny awaits. My life and my love. My calling and purpose. Set aside for thee. We become one.

Walk with Me in My garden. Coolness. I cover you. My gift, My Daughter. It is well.

HEARD SONG: You are the portrait of love.

My husband, let's walk. Up and down. Lord lighten my load.

Yes, sweetheart. Walk with Me. To retrieve intimacy. Bring her back.

VISION: I was struggling and peddling my car as though it was a bike. Then I switched the gears into the ease and power of the car.

HEARD: Just rest. Let Me carry you. Shield of faith. Fellowship, My wife. Daily bread.

Re-define your boundaries. Freedom to walk in liberty. You shall know the truth and the truth shall set you free. Fellowship. Intimacy in Me. Stay pure. Set aside a block of time. And keep up your dailies.

==========

CONCLUSION

WORD TO PONDER: SWITCH GEARS

Beloved wife, you are struggling so hard to move forward. Your load is encumbered and pressed from too many tasks. Switch gears. Choose your priorities. Lighten your load. You will grow weary and burdened if you try to get through your day without your daily bread from Me. Redefine your boundaries, set aside daily time with Me and keep up your daily assignments. Delegate what you can, and let your burdens fall away.

I want to carry you with ease and power. I want to give you the sustenance of communion as we simply walk through each day together. Come My love, into our secret garden away from the world. Let us walk together. Let My love for you cover you.

Matt 11:28-30 NKJV

Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light.

RHEMA 6/1/97: QUICKENED WORDS ABOUT QUARTERBACK INSTRUCTION

Wayne told me today that they now mount earphones in the quarterback's helmets. He receives verbal plays from the coach, instead of hand motions. Wayne said that they are so trained in using hand motions, that is takes months to get used to the ear commands. I of course was reminded of learning to hear the Lord's voice, and the training in how to remember it long enough to write it down, without the understanding of what He is saying or where He is going with the thought. Understanding comes as an afterthought and it is a slow way of communicating because of the learning curve and then putting the pieces together to see the overall whole of what is being said.

This concept also reminded me of the various learning theories. Some people learn best via verbal, some via visual, some both, and some only through experience and hands on touch. I have always been visual, where I can see a picture and it can communicate a 1,000 words. Whereby listening to words is not as effective for my brain. When something comes verbally, I need repetition to remember it, and that is probably why I am so wordy in trying to communicate as I think others need reinforcement the same way I do.

Both Wayne and our son can hear something once and remember and learn. I have never been that way. However, if someone tells me a story, I remember the story because it creates pictures in my mind as I listen.

1 Sam 3:1-10 AMP
NOW THE boy Samuel ministered to the Lord before Eli. The word of the Lord was rare and precious in those days; there was no frequent or widely spread vision. At that time Eli, whose eyesight had dimmed so that he could not see, was lying down in his own place. 3 The lamp of God had not yet gone out in the temple of the Lord, where the ark of God was, and Samuel was lying down 4 When the Lord called, Samuel! And he answered, Here I am. 5 He ran to Eli and said, Here I am, for you called me. Eli said, I did not call you; lie down again. So he went and lay down. 6 And the Lord called again, Samuel! And Samuel arose and went to Eli and said, Here am I; you did call me. Eli answered, I did not call, my son; lie down again. 7 Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord, and the word of the Lord was not yet revealed to him. 8 And the Lord called Samuel the third time. And he went to Eli and said, Here I am, for you did call me. Then Eli perceived that the Lord was calling the boy. 9 So Eli said to Samuel, Go, lie down. And if He calls you, you shall say, Speak, Lord, for Your servant is listening. So Samuel went and lay down in his place. 10 And the Lord came and stood and called as at other times, Samuel! Samuel! Then Samuel answered, Speak, Lord, for Your servant is listening.

SEEING WITH THE EYES OF YOUR HEART 12/16/07
~ Where 2 Worlds Meet ~

I have been tasting a new kind of vision and the Lord continues to give me so many immediate confirmations that I am convinced it is another way to "see" visions.

Other kinds of visions that I see are as a picture flash behind the screen of the eye where I literally see a picture pop up without pre-thought at all, it just suddenly appears. (I call them PIX:) Another is a tangible movie (moving) vision that is seen in the same unexpected way. (I called them VISION:) But this new vision is rather an inner vision that is seeing with the eyes of my heart in my inspired thoughts, kind of like inspired day dreams. I rarely if ever put them into my rhema for public, but I do receive them and see God's hand interact them with His still small voice, real PIX and real VISIONS. I have tried very hard to keep my ear and eye gates pure and not contaminated with self (and the world), and only recording what I know has come TO me as an unexpected gift and not THROUGH me, which can be connected with my soul. There is a distinction and I have spent years discerning the difference.

I have heard others describe similar experiences but no one has really backed it with scripture that I have noticed. I have asked the Lord for scripture to back it up and He finally gave it to me tonight. When in prayer and asking Him about a recent experience, I HEARD: The eyes of your heart.

Eph 1:17-21 AMP
[For I always pray to] the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, that He may grant you a spirit of wisdom and revelation [of insight into mysteries and secrets] in the [deep and intimate] knowledge of Him, By having the eyes of your heart flooded with light, so that you can know and understand the hope to which He has called you, and how rich is His glorious inheritance in the saints (His set-apart ones), And [so that you can know and understand] what is the immeasurable and unlimited and surpassing greatness of His power in and for us who believe, as demonstrated in the working of His mighty strength, Which He exerted in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His [own] right hand in the heavenly [places], Far above all rule and authority and power and dominion and every name that is named [above every title that can be conferred], not only in this age and in this world, but also in the age and the world which are to come.

Eph 1:17-18 NKJV
...the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him, the eyes of your understanding being enlightened;

WHAT OTHERS SAY
Bob Jones said that when we give our heart, soul, and emotions to the Lord to consecrate, that He will use them as expressions of His Word. I have understood this and experienced this many times, through tangibly feeling the heart and Words of the Lord when hearing and expressing them. I have also heard Bob say that the Lord will rain on our brains and give us inspired creative thinking. In my understanding, I just never put it all together before along with seeing on the inner screen of my thoughts.

I heard one teacher try to explain similar kinds of visions as though they are like inspired day dreams. I have not really liked the term day dreaming, because in those cases one can create them and make them go where they want the dreams to go. But the way one "sees" a normal day dream, is very similar, on the inside of their thoughts and not with their literal eyes or behind the screen of their eyes. I have heard another call this visualization. I am not impressed with that word either, but that word does describe the act of seeing our thoughts as moving pictures on the screen in the mind. I believe there IS a difference.

THE PROCESS OF "SEEING" IN OUR THOUGHTS
Seeing with the eyes of your heart, is the kind of vision that is inspired thoughts that are seen like day dreams, but they are being guided by the Spirit of the Lord. He is the One inspiring them to go in the direction they take and you can tell by the way they are being led that it IS the Holy Spirit and not you.

When the Lord gave me this scripture, I could clearly see that it describes the process of seeing with the eyes of your heart and that is how you can tell it is the Lord's vision and not just day dreaming.

Eph 1:17-21 AMP
[For I always pray to] the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, that He may grant you a spirit of wisdom and revelation [of insight into mysteries and secrets] in the [deep and intimate] knowledge of Him, By having the eyes of your heart flooded with light, so that you can know and understand the hope to which He has called you, and how rich is His glorious inheritance in the saints (His set-apart ones), And [so that you can know and understand] what is the immeasurable and unlimited and surpassing greatness of His power in and for us who believe, as demonstrated in the working of His mighty strength, Which He exerted in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His [own] right hand in the heavenly [places], Far above all rule and authority and power and dominion and every name that is named [above every title that can be conferred], not only in this age and in this world, but also in the age and the world which are to come.

God imparts wisdom and revelation and insight into what you did not previously know about what you are visualizing with the eyes of your heart. Information that was held back from you is suddenly disclosed and your heart is flooded with His light as He highlights something of importance upon what you are picturing in the inner eye of your heart. He is giving you knowledge and understanding and guiding your moving story that you are thinking about. There is a level of participation in and with the Holy Spirit as we are yielding our senses to Him. We can feel the emotions of His heart, be led by the direction the inspired thoughts are going, and then also see them on the screens of our hearts as they are advancing. We become convinced it is the Lord when there is the element of quickened surprise, where He puts His spotlight upon a thought and He reveals something we did not know or had not previously thought about. In the process, there is a knowing in our own hearts that something that was just imparted to our thoughts that was not planned or expected.

Perhaps another way of labeling this is having the Mind of Christ. I have continued to ask for the mind of Christ since my youth.

> 1 Cor 2:13-16 NKJV
> These things we also speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual. But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. But he who is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is rightly judged by no one. For "who has known the mind of the LORD that he may instruct Him?" But we have the mind of Christ .

TWO WORLDS OF THE NATURAL AND SPIRITUAL MEET

I turned with anointed hands in my 2004 rhema. On 10/12/04 I heard the Lord say the following:

> HEARD: Come hither My bride. See here where the two worlds meet. Natural and spiritual. There may come a time when those roads are difficult to separate*. But for now it does not matter. Abba set her free. Come to ME. It's My way, the holy way.*

I am living in that time now where my daily walk is filled with the Word of God as He is opening my eyes and ears to see how the natural and the spiritual are weaving in and out to tell His Word with confirmation and understanding. My consecrated soul is a part of the experience. When I dont walk in this daily merging of the natural and spiritual, I start pressing into Him because I KNOW it is there as daily manna for me to live in. Each and every day He is giving me the confirmations I need to be affirmed in this walk. The more I live this, the more I cant live with out this walk of abiding in Him. It is Jesus living inside my natural life!

Ps 34:10 NKJV
The young lions lack and suffer hunger; But those who seek the LORD shall not lack any good thing.

Col 1:27 NKJV
To them God willed to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles: which is Christ in you, the hope of glory .

THE RIVER JORDAN AND ADVERSITY

REOCCURRING SONG 9/11/08: I woke this morning with the following song going round and round in my mind: Every time I feel the Spirit, movin' in my heart, I will pray.

EVERY TIME I FEEL THE SPIRIT
Traditional

Chorus
Every time I feel the Spirit
Movin' in my heart I will pray
Every time I feel the spirit
Movin' in my heart I will pray

Verse
Up on the mountains my Lord spoke
Out of His mouth came fire and smoke
Looked all around me, it looked so fine
I asked the Lord could it be mine

Chorus
Every time I feel the Spirit
Movin' in my heart I will pray
Every time I feel the spirit

Movin' in my heart I will pray

Verse
The Jordan river is chilly and cold.
It chills the body but not the soul.
There aint but one train upon this track.
It runs to heaven and then right back.

Chorus
Every time I feel the Spirit
Movin' in my heart I will pray
Every time I feel the spirit
Movin' in my heart I will pray

Verse
Oh, I have sorrow and I have woe
I have heartaches here below
But while God leads me I'll never fear
For I know that He is near

Chorus
Every time I feel the Spirit
Movin' in my heart I will pray
Every time I feel the spirit
Movin' in my heart I will pray

EXCERPT FROM 101 WAYS GOD SPEAKS: GOD SPEAKS THROUGH RECURRING SONGS

Have you ever noticed the song you sing in church will sometimes go over and over in your mind? Listen to the message. You may be delighted to discover He is speaking His response to your worry or question of the moment.

After a time of personal and difficult death to self will, the Lord brought a melody to mind I hummed for days. Having forgotten the words, I finally found the song and listened to the words: "He didn't bring us this far to leave us. He didn't teach us to swim to let us drown. He didn't build a home in us to move away. He didn't lift us up to let us down." (By Joni Erickson Tada) In His wondrous way, He brought me needed encouragement.

I love to hear the Lord through songs. Sometimes they go over and over again in my mind, until I finally listen to the Words and I realize they are the Lord speaking to my exact need. Sometimes I have heard His still small voice sing the song to me at night when I am just waking. His Word is alive and well through song, and He sings His Words to us all the time!

APPLICATION: The heavens belong to God, but the earth He has given into our hands. God MOVES when we pray. Pray about everything, watch God step in where you give Him permission.

Yes we are going through death to self as we cross that river Jordan, but He promises that as we humble ourselves, He lifts us up and we will rise into new life, new hope, new position, new faith, new opportunities, just as Jesus rose from His death to self. Jordan's current may be going against our flesh, but adversity is the womb of advancement. How? Every time you feel the Spirit moving, PRAY.

QUICKENED QUOTES ON ADVERSITY

Billy Graham
Comfort and prosperity have never enriched the world as much as adversity has.

J. C. Penney
I would never have amounted to anything were it not for adversity. I was forced to come up the hard way.

Louisa May Alcott
I'm not afraid of storms, for I'm learning to sail my ship.

Helen Keller
The one resolution, which was in my mind long before it took the form of a resolution, is the key-note of my life. It is this, always to regard as mere impertinences of fate the handicaps which were placed upon my life almost at the beginning. I resolved that they should not crush or dwarf my soul, but rather be made to blossom, like Aaron's rod, with flowers.

BEAUTY FOR ASHES

9/20/01

It is with great sadness that I saw the terrorism of 9/11/01 unfold on the news. I grieve with the rest of the world. In the midst of such a horrendous upheaval, it has left us stunned and sober, touching the souls of mankind to examine our foundations. For most, that foundation is their level of faith in their religion. But the Lord Jesus Christ will be Lord over all lords, shaking the foundations of every nation and every religion in order to harvest a multitude of souls unto Himself. It has begun.

PROPHETIC ANNOUNCEMENT PRIOR TO 9/11

Two days before terror struck our nation and reverberated throughout the world, I wrote a significant prophetic post and released it to my list on 9/9/01. I feel that it was the Word of the Lord for His bride in preparation for what occurred on 9/11/01 and for the future. Perhaps you will see what I mean as I share with you some direct quotes from President Bush response to this sudden terror. I felt they were direct confirmations to that prophetic post of 9/9:

QUOTE FROM PRESIDENT BUSH:

"Our country is strong. Terrorist acts can shake the foundation of our biggest buildings, but they cannot touch the foundation of America."

QUOTE FROM 9/9/01 QUICKENED WORD POST:

"UPENDED TO EXAMINE OUR FOUNDATIONS" (header)

"I personally believe this year has been the grand finale and climaxing year of examination. In these 12 years, our lives have gradually become just like that bed: stripped, upended, undone, and turned upside down. The purpose was to get to our foundations in order to discard the old and replace it with the new."

QUOTE FROM PRESIDENT BUSH:

The president's day began in an elementary SCHOOL. After being told of the news, he said, "The resolve of our great nation is being tested. But make no mistake: We will show the world that we will pass this test."

QUOTE FROM 9/9/01 QUICKENED WORD POST:

"In my praying over this post and where we are in the time line, I saw a large magnifying glass and remembered seeing the same magnifying glass in years past. A magnifying glass represents close scrutiny, or examination. To my understanding it has been like a school exam or "test." (Ouch)"

QUOTE FROM PRESIDENT BUSH:

Bush quoted from the 23rd Psalm, "Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil, for You are with me."

QUOTES FROM 9/9/01 QUICKENED WORD POST:

"DELIVERANCE FROM FEAR IS VITAL" (header)

It is vital that as this fiery transition from the church to the world occurs, that we return to our resting place. If we have our eyes on worldly circumstances and not on the Lord, we will fear. The Lord wants to deliver His church from all fear."

"The scripture says that He makes me lie down in green pastures and leads me beside still waters. (Ps 23:2) Sheep will not lie down if they are afraid. They must be free from sudden, startling dangers and free from tormenting pests. They are free when they see the Shepherd with them and know His personal care."

"…I am reminded of being in the eye of the storm, where everything may be spinning around and quite chaotic. But inside that eye is a place so secure in the Lord, there is perfect peace and nothing can steal our joy - our assurance. It’s a place where we know we are safe, and we do not fear. It is also a place where we do not give an inch to the enemy and allow him any access to plunder our lives."

[end of quotes]

ASHES

As I watched the symbols of world-wide commerce fall into a plumb of ashes… as I saw people running from the ash ‘bomb’ and suddenly overcome as it swept past them… as I watched fire trucks plow through ashes… as I watched survivors board buses, literally caked white in ashes, I knew the Word of the Lord. I realized that He had given me His preparatory Word in that posting of 9/9/01. Here are two verses I quoted:

"I had heard about you before, but now I have seen you with my own eyes. I take back everything I said, and I sit in dust and ashes to show my repentance." (Job 42:6 NLT)

"Job's final statement was not unlike Psalm 102 where it says, "I eat ashes instead of my food. My tears run down into my drink because of your anger and wrath.

For you have picked me up and thrown me out. My life passes as swiftly as the evening shadows. I am withering like grass. BUT YOU, O LORD, WILL RULE FOREVER. Your fame will endure to every generation." (Ps 102:9-12 NLT)"

PSALMS 102 AND YEAR 2002

If you notice, that the above scripture written before the tragedy, was from Psalm 102. The Lord told Bob Jones many years ago that the number of the Psalms represented God's Word for that particular year. At the time I heard Bob say this, I went backwards in my personal life and tested it with major personal milestones and I was totally amazed how those years lined up with the Psalm. Because of this I have had my eyes, ears and prayers toward Psalms 102 for many years, praying over every detail.

At first I was concerned that it meant great calamity, being cut down in mid life. (vs 23-24) There are many applications to this Psalm including the possibility of pointing towards Israel (who is now in midlife since statehood in 1948). There are also spiritual applications to God's Words intended for His church. There are many with midlife death sentences (whether physical or spiritual) that are living on the edge and brink of spiritual and physical health.

NOW IS THE TIME FOR PITY AND MERCY

After painting such a gloomy environment in the first 11 verses, the Word of the Lord kicks in and he says "But you, O LORD, will rule forever. Your fame will endure to every generation. You will arise and have mercy on Jerusalem-- NOW is the time to pity her, NOW is the time you promised to help." (Ps 102:12,13)

BEAUTY FOR ASHES

A few months ago I was standing in the kitchen of a friend and doing her dishes. As I was praying over her life, I distinctly heard the Lord say, "Beauty for ashes." She is a overcoming Christian who has seen the ravages of her life live on the brink for many, many years, and yet she has great unwavering faith. At this point in time she was totally and completely convinced she would immediately be "fired" from her job. She repented of everything she could think of, and we continued to pray that the Lord would turn her events and bring her favor and she witnessed an obvious turn around and she was never fired.

I see her life as a divine example of so many past painful war stories, where the Lord redeems it into something good. I feel that she is an example of the church right now. We have come through that fiery 12 year season, feeling and believing that we are going to be disqualified and "fired" from our callings. And yet nothing could be further from the truth. (Mal 3:3)

Isa 61:1-4 KJV

The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

2 To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn;

3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them BEAUTY FOR ASHES, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

4 And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

As we come out of our own personal fires, and the fires are passed onto the world, we will be used as ambassadors of healing and deliverance to the nations and to the unbelievers. Our prayers, our past sufferings will bear fruit for those who are not innocent. (Job 22:30) And this is all the more reason to pray for the fires now being released upon the world, that the Lord will have mercy in doing so — and that if they must come, they come slowly and mixed with His love and mercy. How the world can go through the coming storms and fires without a relationship with the Lord is inconceivable. And yet that is exactly the point, to DRIVE THEM TO THE LORD. He is the water of life. (John 4:14) And the church will be pouring out that water so that the enemy does not get the upper hand.

QUOTE BOB JONES

{From article called "The Lord's Heart For Intercession" from Bob Jones and Keith Davis - April 15, 1999. http://www.bobjones.org/}

"…They will be able to extinguish portions of these fires as their prayers become heavenly "precipitation". The Lord told Bob that the fires cannot be stopped, however, we can prevent them from occurring all at one time and their effects can be curtailed. These are spiritual fires that will be verified by natural fires.

The Lord instructed Bob to announce to the church, "DO NOT FAINT AT THIS TIME FOR THE FIRES WILL LEAVE THE ASHES OF RENEWAL." These events are part of the preparation in righteousness necessary for the coming harvest. Beware when they say peace and prosperity for that is when sudden destruction will come…"

{end quote}

PSALM 91 AND 911 EMERGENCY

The revelation came to several of us prophetic that the sudden date of this national terror (9/11) referred to a scripture. For me it was strongly quickened that as far as the church is concerned, it meant Psalms 91, especially Psalms 91:1: "He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty." I feel that Psalm 91 is the Word of the Lord for our times, and again my post of 9/9/01, "Return to Your Resting Place" is what I believe is God's answer to the sudden worldly events.

THE PARABLE OF THE STORM

A few days after 9/11 events we had a storm sweep over our state and during the storm the Lord told me that it was a sign of His Word of the storm coming upon the world, and to take note of how the events played out at our home. I noticed that I heard the first thundering boom around 9 PM as I was shutting down my computer and going to bed. The last boom I heard at our house was promptly at 1 PM as I looked at the clock. It was no coincidence that the numbers were 9 and 1. (91)

A very unusual thing occurred while we watched and listened to the storm play its hand.

Perhaps other regions have different kinds of storms, but our thunder and lightning storms usually have a lot of rain and wind accompanying. This storm was very unusual as there was no rain and no wind at our house. It was very still and that was the reason it stayed for four hours. As my husband and I united in prayer I could see a faint misty like dew fall below the street light right outside our window. It would leave when we stopped praying. We prayed for America and also that the Lord would put out any fires started from this storm. The storm was loud and flashy, but we felt safely under His covering. I heard the Lord say that we were protected.

There were other things I noted about this storm. One, my son was camping under the stars at a watchtower / observatory and watching the entire sky light up for hours. They were too far away to hear the blasting thunder, and so he said it was like truly watching a display of the glory of God. He had never seen lightning come so fast and vivid for so long. My Dad saw the storm from his town, and he said there were between 20-30 strikes per minute. He was very concerned about forest fires.

At one moment (ten minutes to midnight) there was a HUGE boom and our lights flashed off for a brief second. Just as I was deciding whether to get the candles out, they came back on and the touch lamp beside my bed came on past its most brilliant setting. (It had been off prior to this, the power surge turned it on.) At that boom, I came rising out of my bed literally shouting "In Jesus Name!" several times. It was thunderous and intimidating. I do not know if the transformer above our street light got a surge or not, but it was violent. Later I found out that the transformer next to our pastor's house had been struck at this time, and their lights were out for several hours. They were without electricity but they were safe. There were homes and trees in the area that were struck by lightning and also shattered windows.

I saw the above quickened to mean:

1. 9 to 1 = Psalms 91 for those who abide in Him. Those who pray and watch, abiding in Him have the promise of Psalm 91 and His protection, although flashing and powerful circumstances around them may become very loud and intimidating.

2. The water of united intercession will be vital in keeping demonic fires under control.

3. The storm will not be over quickly. It will last at least 4 years.

4. Some of the children will be so safely kept from the fear and intimidation of sudden events that they will only see the glory of the Lord as He displays His awesome power.

5. Some will go without electricity, some will not. Just as lightning strikes, the storm will seem to hit and miss from one place to another.

THE ARK

In the post of 9/9/01 I began it with a personal joke. In hindsight it is certainly NO laughing matter as relating to the tragedy of 9/11. However in hindsight I can see the joke was a prophetic parable. The joke was about Moses being a "basket case." And that really was the state I felt myself and the church had been in for some time (especially this climaxing year). In hindsight, the joke was quickened to me that those who had a death sentence upon their head as Moses did, were protected in an ark and sent down the rough rivers… with a future of being "drawn out" from that death sentence. (Moses name means drawn out.)

I wrote this post a couple days after 9/11 and have been waiting upon the Lord to release it. Just one day after I wrote the above paragraph, I went to a store and saw a ceramic piece that drew my attention. I am not usually attracted to things like this in shopping. I am much more practical in taste and don't stop to look at much of anything unless it has a purpose. But I stopped in front of this scene. My eyes gazed upon it and I thought how pretty it was. Immediately I recognized the anointing of the Lord and was trying to figure out WHY I was suddenly feeling His drawing to gaze upon this piece.

It was like hide and seek in slow motion as my blind eyes were opened one step at a time to see His Word. As I was trying to figure out what there was about this piece that was anointed, my eye first glanced at a baby in a women's arms. Then my eye went to the top of a basket lid that another lady was holding. I said very surprised, "Why THAT looks like a basket lid, and that baby reminds me of Moses!" I knew it couldn't be Moses. Then I saw a river and another lady hiding behind a tree. And then I saw an empty basket in the river! This HAD to be baby Moses, just freshly drawn out of the river!!! I looked on the box and sure enough it was Moses. I rejoiced with such a beautiful, clear Word and confirmation.

For those who abide in Him in the days to come, remember that you are saved and preserved for a purpose. The Lord has preserved a remnant for Himself. He has been working a long time on you to prepare you to be poured out like His finest wine to a hurting and wounded world. To those who have gone through the fiery kiln, He will do amazing works through each one of you. You will begin to see in the days to come, as your personal fires cool, just exactly why He brought you to this day. He has never left you, He has not abandoned you, and He never will.

PROPHETIC WORD TO PONDER

I want to close with a Word to Ponder. Words to Ponder are given to me based upon rhema of His still small voice, dreams, visions, parables, etc. I came across this one today as I was searching "911" in my rhema data base. It blew me away when I realized the relevance.

This particular one was written on 8/27/98 for a person whose name means, "Consecrated to God." The following is the original version except that I have inserted the words "those consecrated to God" instead of the person's name. It is also important to understand that at the time of writing, this person had been dealt quite a death blow and went through a literal 911 life saving experience. Since that time this person has fallen into sin and rebellion. I believe that this Word is an invitation. I feel that those believers who are in rebellion and sin will miss this opportunity, and instead they will be caught below the coming storms where they are purified with fire.

FOR THOSE CONSECRATED TO GOD

Last call for the flight called "those consecrated to God." That's flight 912 — the flight after nine-one-one (911) Take your seat - those consecrated to God, there's been a place won for you. Buckle up, for in keeping your conscience void of offense, there is divine restraint against demonic turbulence. "Up and away," says your Captain. I'm flying this plane. Rest easy, for I carry you.

One thing am I desiring of you, and that is that you release your control. Let go of your inner wrestling and give Me the Pilot's seat. For I alone can carry you safely to your rainbow. Lean back in your chair and rest in Me. My flight will carry you without your strength, for My strength is made perfect in your weakness.

Together we fly through the storms of fury. Look below! Those black clouds are under your feet as we soar up and through, onto the other side. Those consecrated to God, open your eyes and see. See the distance stretch before you! For I give you a future and a hope. A new beginning promised for those consecrated to God. A rainbow coming closer.

Lighten your heart those consecrated to God. Even now my angelic stewards are bringing you nourishment. What is this? It's a bowl full of cherries, minus the pits. Eat hardy and enjoy your flight.

But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint. (Isaiah 40;31)

{end of Word to Ponder}

In the days to come, remember "those consecrated to the Lord" that you are saved and preserved for a purpose. The Lord has preserved a remnant for Himself. He has been working a long time on you to prepare you to be poured out like His finest wine to a hurting and wounded world. To you who have gone through the fiery kiln, He will do amazing works through each one of you. You will begin to see in the days to come, as your personal fires cool from the kiln, just exactly why He brought you to this day. (Col 1:27)

Lovingly,

Sandy

QUICKENED WORD: SURROUNDED BY A BARRIER 5/27/10

Class Member Dream:
"My husband and I were on a canyon path ..to the right was a beautiful deep pool of clear water. I saw several fish ..one of them jumped out of the water to bite me, but failed to bite me. It had a look of hate in it's eyes. I knew it was a barracuda and I actually could feel the spirit of hate behind this attack."

Portion of an article from a class member:

THE BARRACUDA....
Scientists at the Woods Hole Oceanographic Institute did the following study:

It's a widely known fact that Barracuda love to eat mullet. Scientists put a barracuda into an aquarium, added a glass partition in the middle and then put a mullet in the other side. Not believing his good luck the barracuda circled a few times, gathered up speed and launched directly at his lunch - the poor unsuspecting mullet.

Wham! Bam! Full throttle into the glass partition. Unfazed at this, the barracuda did his preliminary circles and sped off again toward the mullet. Again, Wham! Bang! into the glass partition. Again and again and again he tried. Some weeks later, the scientists noticed the barracuda quit trying to eat the mullet, so they removed the glass partition.

Amazingly, the barracuda remained in his side of the aquarium, silently swimming in circles. In fact, the hapless barracuda slowly died of starvation while the lucky mullet swam about in safety just a few inches away!

SANDY'S RESPONSE
Wow that is an incredible Word about how God surrounds us with an invisible barrier, that although we can sometimes see and hear the enemy threats, they cant directly get to us. This reminds me of the following dream:

SANDY DREAM 1/12/2000 DRAGON DREAM:
I was standing in a big deep cave, with an underground pool of water in front of me. In the back of the pool of water was the cave wall. There were 2 large holes with a U shaped tunnel going between the two holes. In the right hole was the large head of a dragon and in the left hole was its tail. I watched it slither out the tunnel into the water. It took a large plunge towards me and came to an invisible barrier as it lunged in violence. I stood there surprised at the barrier and felt like I had flinched some, but stood my ground. I heard the Lord's still small voice say something to me, but I can not remember exactly what. It was a warning that I was to be very careful in obedience in following my conscience. This had something to do with the barrier staying there.

It was interesting to me that the barrier was in the midst of the water. There was water on this side of it, that came to my feet, although I was not standing in the water.

WORD TO PONDER INVISIBLE SHIELD 1/12/00
The dragon comes before the throne and accuses you day and night. Until you can better understand My clear will for your obedience, you need to be very careful to follow your conscience in what you do know. The dragon is before your face, but I have placed an invisible shield around you. It is a clear barrier between you. You can see and hear through it, but you will see that as he lunges at you, he is not able to touch you, merely bounce off. Yes it is intimidating, but I have called you to stand until this season is over and you are taken from this place. In the mean time, it is vital to keep your conscience pure so there will be no hole in the invisible hedge I have placed around you.

"And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men." (Acts 24:16 KJV)

~ TIMING IS EVERYTHING ~

[And Pay Day is Coming]

4/13/01

Hi Loved Ones,

My birthday was one week ago and today as I was taking down birthday cards, my husband said, "Happy Birthday!" I thought that kind of strange, but when I looked at him, he was grinning. One hour later I received a belated birthday card in the mail. (How did he know?) Now this particular birthday card, ($) I had been expecting and dreaming about for a few months. When it didn't come, I have to admit I was disappointed. In my mind I had already spent that money several times.

So today, I had just begun to write this post about how God speaks to us through clock times and numbers -- and -- my husband drops this birthday card on my desk. My heart is thumping as I open that card. The outside says, "Timing is Everything..." Before I tell you the rest of this prophetic story, please hit ‘pause’ . . . because that too is a part of this encouraging Word from the Lord . . . .

The following story is an excerpt from my book, "101+ Ways God Speaks (And How to Hear Him)." This story took place in 1994 and is about Pastor Dale Howell, of Cornerstone Church in Grants Pass, OR. Since that time, this church has been identified by Bob Jones as one of the 3 eagle’s nest to be birthing eagles in the PNW.

80. HE SPEAKS THROUGH NUMBERS AND CLOCKS

I have a pastor friend who had a most interesting experience with numbers. It all started the year before when he prayed, "Lord, please come and pour out Your Spirit upon us. Do anything You want, I just want to know that it is You and not some deception of the enemy." About the same time he noticed every time he looked at a digital clock the time would consistently be 11:11 (AM and PM). This continued for several weeks.

Then one morning when he was rushing to get ready for an appointment he looked at the clock - 11:11. He said, "Lord?" Immediately he had a sense it was a scripture, but determined not to look, lest he select the one that suited him. At the end of the day as he rolled into bed he glanced at the clock to see what time it was. You guessed it — 11:11. The next morning, again 11:11. "Lord, which scripture?" Finally He heard the Lord say, "Luke!" This was the verse: "If a son asks for bread from any father among you, will he give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a serpent instead of a fish?" (Luke 11:11) At last he understood.

The Lord was answering his prayer by saying He had given him a written guarantee that if he asked God for something he would not get a counterfeit. That night as he went to bed he again glanced at the clock - 11:11 pm. The next day he shared this with his leaders and after the meeting an elder’s wife walked into her bedroom and glanced at their clock. It was 11:11.

That Saturday he prepared a message that would end with the 11:11 message and when he went to bed that night he looked at the clock — again it said 11:11. Smiling, he went to sleep. Sunday he preached the message and glanced one time at the back wall of the church. It was 11:13 which was significant to him because the Lord had said He wanted to pour out His Holy Spirit that morning. Luke 11:13 says, "If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!" That night when he went to bed the clock said 11:13! From this, he was absolutely convinced they had received the move of the Lord which was the outpouring of His Holy Spirit!

The story doesn’t end there. After I had heard about the 11:11 message, we had a fun confirmation to the above story. My son said, "Hey look!!! Our clock says 11:11!!!" I started laughing, and said, "I gotta write this down!" Knowing nothing about 11:11, he asked me, "Why? Is that another parable?" (I am always noticing allegorical parables, and he knows that.) I said, "Yes." He wasn’t satisfied with that answer and was curious. So I told him the long story about 11:11's. When I finished he couldn't run fast enough to look up Luke 11:11.

Shortly after that, he and I started noticing 7:11's. It became so frequent we were both wondering what it meant, just like Pastor. We saw 7:11 in our bedrooms, on the TV, on the microwave, on his wrist, in the car, on the computer. 7:11's were popping up everywhere. My son was reading the Bible through for the first time, and the first day he read the New Testament his eye immediately jumped to 7:11. He could hardly believe his eyes! "If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask Him!" (Matthew 7:11)

After that the Lord started using 11:11 and 7:11 to confirm things He was sharing. One in particular was that He was promising the body of Christ an entire season of 11:11's! YES LORD! Then one night I had a dream that many people's journals were sprinkled with 11:11 on lots of pages. When I woke up from the dream I heard the Lord say, "11:11." Immediately following, I glanced at my clock — it said 11:11.

Then an amazing thing happened. One night in the car our son started counting 10, 9, 8, etc. I looked at the digital clock and it said 7:10. I realized what he was doing, so I started at 19, 18, 17. etc. After doing my countdown very methodically and in perfect rhythm, when I got to 4, I slowed and said, "fooouuurrr, thhhhrrreee..." and then it turned to 7:11. If I had not stalled out the 4 and 3 it would have been absolutely perfect on the dot! From that day on, I understood that we were in a season of "countdown" towards 11:11-7:11. And of course, the Lord confirmed that understanding with more you-know-whats.

Right before I added this 11:11 story to this section in this book, I was going through my journal to find more stories or examples I could add. When I searched, I was happy to find 26 more tid-bits. As I sat in my car at a stop light, I thanked the Lord for giving me so many and then I was reminded that part of my promise was that I was going to be a food gatherer for the body of Christ. I realized that was what I was doing, collecting stories for hungry people. I was feeling kind of silly, and somewhat jokingly I said, "OK Lord, I'm supposed to gather food, so let's gather some!" As soon as I said "some," I glanced up through the windshield. There looming directly above me was a 7-11 grocery market sign. (He had the last Word on that one!)

Between digital clocks, car odometers, wrist watches, video camera timers, VCR's, computers, microwaves, score boards, exercise bike timers, signs and broken calculators — for all the trouble the Lord has gone through, all I can say is THIS SEASON IS REALLY GOING TO BE GOOD!

[end of excerpt . . . and Hallelujah, end of pause!!!]

~~~~~~~~

. . . So let me tell you about that birthday card, "Timing is Everything." On the outside there is a pair of trapeze artists. She is hurling through the air and due to timing, misses her catcher. There is a file at my site called, "Transition" and in that file is an excellent story from an anonymous writer about transition being just like flying through the air on a trapeze. It is a most unstable time when you don't know where you are going to land. So I am thinking about transition as I notice on the card that there is a net below to catch this trapeze artist in case she falls.

I think, "At least she wont splat on the ground!" as I remembered a vision the Lord gave me a couple months ago. This is an entry from my journal: 2/19/01: I went to bed very weary about every area in my life. I prayed, "Lord not one sparrow falls to the ground without You noticing." I was thinking of a sparrow taking a dive bomb and falling in a splat. I kind of grimaced at the thought and then kiddingly said, "Lord could we try that one more time?" I suddenly saw a vision of a big giant hand reaching out to catch a little tiny bird as it was falling from the sky. I saw dust being blown off the bird, then its feathers were being smoothed. The bird began to eat sunflower seeds in the giant hand, and when the seeds were gone the hand filled with water like a bird bath and I watched the bird frolic in the water. The final scene I saw the bird rub its head against this caring hand in a loving nudge. ("Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy." Jude 24 KJV)

Turning to the inside of this prophetic "Timing is Everything" card, I read, "Sorry mine was off! Happy Belated Birthday. Next time I will try to turn my calendar when March is over!"

Beloved of the Lord, God's calendar is turning! We may think He is really late and His timing is off. We may think everything in our lives has fallen apart while we were waiting, but God says, TIMING IS EVERYTHING. He has a season for everything and we have been in a divine pause for His perfect purposes. (John 11:40)

Was there a check inside that card? OF COURSE there was a check. Am I glad it arrived one week late??? Yep. Now why would I be glad about that? Because since I had been expecting it and had spent that money in my mind several times already, I would have spent it that very day of my Birthday. But what I didn't know was that when one is in transition, sudden events can change in a moments time. I hit a sudden event a couple of days after my BD, and the circumstances around what I wanted changed drastically. I didn't know this, but the Lord knew. Now I am so glad I did not spend that money.

We have been in a divine delay for 11 years and PAY DAY IS COMING. What the enemy has meant for your harm, God meant for your good. What the enemy cursed, robbed and stole, the Lord will turn around for blessings, gifts and recompense. What you died to and gave to the Lord, will be multiplied over and over again. Wherever you cast your bread upon the waters, it is about to come back to you in a tidal wave. Why? Because God always repays with interest. We have been storing up a lot of promises and good gifts in our spiritual banks. And in that divine delay towards their fulfillment, we have been accruing spiritual interest on those promised good gifts. "Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but when the desire comes, it is a tree of life." (Prov 13:12 NKJV)

On the back of the card is a Pinwheel, and on the back of the card envelope are 2 pinwheels and some swirls as though the wind is blowing. We are now coming into a season when the Lord breathes life upon our circumstances, everything can change SUDDENLY. Yes! We are entering the days of suddenlies. "The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit." (John 3:8-9 NKJV)

I will close with a Word to Ponder the Lord gave me in the 80's. The Words to Ponders that He gives me are prophetic, based upon visions, dreams, scriptures, and His still small voice.

Oh and by the way… today when I woke up and turned over, the clock said 7:11. :)

Lovingly,

Sandy

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

Suddenly

A season of "suddenlys." Long you have waited for this fulfillment. Now you are confirmed. I have promised it, I am doing it. Suddenly, all at once, what was not, is.

Have hope! Years of prayers are not lost. Why so long? Because the battle was greater than yourself. Great warfare has taken place in the heavenlies and worldwide strongholds have been broken. Your portion is coming. Give Me time to set things in order. Be prepared. Even now the prey is being divided and sent on its way.

Flood waters covered the land, but now they are receding. With each new day, new land is emerging. Inheritance free and waiting to be occupied. Yes. Go for it.

"...So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order. And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly." (2 Chronicles 29:35-36)

ABOUT THE ANOINTING OIL AND IS THE ANOINTING OF GOD CATCH-ABLE?

Isa 10:27 NKJV
It shall come to pass in that day that his burden will be taken away from your shoulder,
And his yoke from your neck, And the yoke will be destroyed because of the anointing oil.

ANOINTING: HEBREW
mashach
OT:4886 mashach (maw-shakh'); a primitive root; to rub with oil, i.e. to anoint; by implication, to consecrate; also to paint:
KJV - anoint, paint.

OT:4887 meshach (Aramaic) (mesh-akh'); from a root corresponding to OT:4886; oil:
KJV - oil.

OT:4888 mishchah (meesh-khaw'); or moshchah (mosh-khaw'); from OT:4886; unction (the act); by implication, a consecratory gift:
KJV - (to be) anointed (-ing), ointment.

In the NT the word is mentioned 20 times.

ANOINT: GREEK aleipho
NT:218 aleipho (al-i'-fo); from NT:1 (as particle of union) and the base of NT:3045; to oil (with perfume):
KJV - anoint.

NT:5548
NT:5548 chrio (khree'-o); probably akin to NT:5530 through the idea of contact; to smear or rub with oil, i.e. (by implication) to consecrate to an office or religious service:
KJV - anoint.

NT:5545 chrisma (khris'-mah); from NT:5548; an unguent or smearing, i.e. (figuratively) the special endowment ("chrism") of the Holy Spirit:
KJV - anointing, unction.

The term for Oil literally meant “fat”. The oil came from olives off the olive trees. The olive oil was generated by pressing and/or crushing the olive.

REVELATION; As I was pondering the making of olive oil, I realized that Jesus was probably surrounded my olive trees when in the garden of Gethsemane. His very prayer was a parable and prophetic sign that when we are hardest pressed and deeply crushed, as we surrender to our loving Father, it brings forth His greatest anointing to be spread and multiplied liberally.

Luke 22:39-43 NKJV
Coming out, He went to the Mount of Olives, as He was accustomed, and His disciples also followed Him. 40 When He came to the place, He said to them, "Pray that you may not enter into temptation." 41 And He was withdrawn from them about a stone's throw, and He knelt down and prayed, 42 saying, "Father, if it is Your will, take this cup away from Me; nevertheless not My will, but Yours, be done."

According to the article in International Standard Bible Encyclopedia, it notes these purposes for olive oil:

- It was used as a commodity of exchange.
- It was used as a cosmetic.
- It was used as a medicine.
- It was used as a food.
- It was used as an illuminant for oil lamps.
- It was used to consecrate things.
- It represented prosperity.

WOW. Just think if the above purposes for the anointing oil as how it relates to the value of our lives for a very needy world!!!!!!!!!!

> Matt 25:1-13 NKJV
> "Then the kingdom of heaven shall be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. 2 Now five of them were wise, and five were foolish. 3 Those who were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them, 4 but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. 5 But while the bridegroom was delayed, they all slumbered and slept. 6 "And at midnight a cry was heard: 'Behold, the bridegroom is coming; go out to meet him!' 7 Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps. 8 And the foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil , for our lamps are going out.' 9 But the wise answered, saying, 'No, lest there should not be enough for us and you; but go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.' 10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding; and the door was shut. 11 "Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us!' 12 But he answered and said, 'Assuredly, I say to you, I do not know you.' 13 "Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming.

IS THE ANOINTING OF GOD CATCH-ABLE?

THE ANOINTING OF GOD IS TRANSFERRED THROUGH IMPARTATION:
Scripture says we can receive the anointing through “impartation”. There are different kinds of impartations.

> Rom 1:11-12 NKJV
> For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, so that you may be established — 12 that is, that I may be encouraged together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.

> IMPARTATION - GREEK
> metadidomi
> NT:3330 metadidomi (met-ad-id'-o-mee); from NT:3326 and NT:1325; to give over, i.e. share:
> KJV - give, imparticiple

(Biblesoft's New Exhaustive Strong's Numbers and Concordance with Expanded Greek-Hebrew Dictionary. Copyright © 1994, 2003 Biblesoft, Inc. and International Bible Translators, Inc.)

1.] IMPARTATION THROUGH LAYING ON OF HANDS

One impartation is through the laying on of hands. This is an official symbolic act in the Old Testament and New Testament.

LAYING ON OF HANDS IN THE OLD TESTAMENT

It was an act of blessing.

Gen 48:14-15 NKJV
Then Israel stretched out his right hand and laid it on Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand on Manasseh's head, guiding his hands knowingly, for Manasseh was the firstborn. And he blessed Joseph.

It was a ritual of sacrifice and transference of sin.

Ex 29:10-11
"You shall also have the bull brought before the tabernacle of meeting, and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands on the head of the bull.

Lev 16:20-21
Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat, confess over it all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions, concerning all their sins, putting them on the head of the goat...

It was an act of setting apart for consecration for service.

Num 8:10 NKJV
So you shall bring the Levites before the LORD, and the children of Israel shall lay their hands on the Levites;

LAYING ON OF HANDS IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

It was an act to receive the Holy Spirit.

Acts 8:15-19
Who, when they had come down, prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit. 16 For as yet He had fallen upon none of them. They had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. 17 Then they laid hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit. 18 And when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money, 19 saying, "Give me this power also, that anyone on whom I lay hands may receive the Holy Spirit."

Acts 19:6 NKJV
And when Paul had laid hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke with tongues and prophesied.

It was an act to impart or stir up gifts of God.

2 Tim 1:6 NKJV
Therefore I remind you to stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands.

It was an act to set apart for ministry.

Acts 13:2-3 NKJV
The Holy Spirit said, "Now separate to Me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." Then, having fasted and prayed, and laid hands on them, they sent them away.

It was an act to impart healing.

Mark 16:18 NKJV
...they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

RHEMA 11/02/08 STAY FAITHFUL IN INTERCESSION
VISION: A young man from the track team came to us and said, "I'm scared." He showed us photos of his track buddies on the track at various events. His event was the pole vault, where they rapidly advance forward with a very tall pole and then leap over a high bar, kind of like a catapult. Grandma Anna was leaning back into me and we were both sitting next to each other on her couch. She was laying hands on this pole-vaulter and he started getting radically empowered and was shaking and vibrating all over under the power of God. I also touched him during this and said, "May you go forth in peace, in Jesus Name!"

Titus 1:4 NKJV
To Titus, a true son in our common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior.

We are living in a time when the tangible, power of God can be radical. I have experienced this so many times where I am shaking and vibrating under His powerful anointing.

I have received brand new gifts from the Lord through other prophetic leaders laying hands on me in prayer lines. One was the gift to pray prophetic prayers outloud!

The second time I was on a ministry team, I peeked out into the auditorium which was packed with about 1,200 people. My heart began to race and all I could see in my mind's eye were lines and lines of people in front of me! I ran back into the prayer room and grabbed Rich's hand and slapped it onto my forehead. Rich was a very special person. He had been hired to pray for the company from which he'd tried to previously resign, due to the Lord's calling upon his life to pray. He is the only intercessor I know that has the world's salary to pray! I had heard some of his stories of intercession and he had my vote for sure. So dear Rich smiled at my wide eyes and started to pray. I relaxed and received whatever the Lord wanted to give me. It lasted less than a minute and my prayer life changed from that moment on. When ministry time came, the Lord filled my mouth with prophetic prayers. People gave me all kinds of confirmation about reading their mail and I was just amazed. I knew exactly what I did NOT have before Rich's prayer! Praise the Lord for the simple gift of laying on of hands!

2.] ANOINTING IS TRANSFERRED THROUGH TOUCHING
A lady pursued Jesus and received Jesus' virtue to heal her. He did not choose to give this to her, her faith went after Jesus and her need DREW it out of Him.

> Luke 8:46
> And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me.

There are times when someone accidently bumps into me in public places. In my mind, I always say, "In the Name of Jesus!!!" That way if the Lord wants to give something to them, He may. And if the enemy is wanting to dump on me, there is a standard against it. This is a long time habit and I have seen people actually get delivered through this simple blessing of Jesus Name.

3.] ANOINTING IS TRANSFERRED THROUGH A CORPORATE IMPARTATION
In the case of Saul in the OT, when he mingled with the prophets, he received the same prophetic spirit to prophesy.

> 1 Sam 10:6-13 NKJV
> Then the Spirit of the LORD will come upon you, and you will prophesy with them and be turned into another man. 7 And let it be, when these signs come to you, that you do as the occasion demands; for God is with you. 8 You shall go down before me to Gilgal; and surely I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings and make sacrifices of peace offerings. Seven days you shall wait, till I come to you and show you what you should do." 9 So it was, when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, that God gave him another heart; and all those signs came to pass that day. 10 When they came there to the hill, there was a group of prophets to meet him; then the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them. 11 And it happened, when all who knew him formerly saw that he indeed prophesied among the prophets , that the people said to one another, "What is this that has come upon the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets ?" 12 Then a man from there answered and said, "But who is their father?" Therefore it became a proverb: "Is Saul also among the prophets ?" 13 And when he had finished prophesying, he went to the high place.

Often when I am in a prophetic round table meeting, or a meeting that gathers the prophetic, there is a corporate anointing to prophesy. The spirit of the prophets stirs up the prophetic giftings and it is VERY easy to prophesy and find open heaven hearing/ seeing when the prophetic gather.

4.] ANOINTING IS TRANSFERRED THROUGH DISTANCE
The anointing can be transferred through distance by speaking the Word. Often when I am watching a prophetic conference on line or TV, when I hear the Word loosed, I receive His tangible anointing wash over my soul and body with cleansing and refreshment!

There have been times in the QW chatroom where we have met to worship Him in one accord by all typing together, that we have received His tangible anointing upon our worship and praise! It has been awesome confirmation to our gathering together and a lot of fun!

> Matt 8:8-11 NKJV
> The centurion answered and said, "Lord, I am not worthy that You should come under my roof. But only speak a word, and my servant will be healed. 9 For I also am a man under authority , having soldiers under me. And I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." 10 When Jesus heard it, He marveled, and said to those who followed, "Assuredly, I say to you, I have not found such great faith, not even in Israel!

5.] ANOINTING IS TRANSFERRED STRAIGHT FROM HEAVEN'S OUTPOURING

> "And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting." (Acts 2:2 KJV)

DREAM: GLORY IMPARTED IN THE WIND
We were expecting an impartation of the Lord's glory. Because we knew it was going to be an impartation, I went to Pastor thinking he might have the Lord's glory to impart. Pastor not knowing what I am thinking comes to me with his hand out, saying, "you impart good."

I immediately realized that this particular impartation is going to come straight from the Father. So instead we both put our hands up and looked to the Lord while I prayed very strongly, "Lord impart to us Your glory!!!"

Then still in the dream I heard His still small voice say, "In the wind." I understood that this was how He was going to impart His glory. Then as I was shaking very strongly under the power of the Lord He asked me if I enjoyed dancing with the children.

WORD TO PONDER SOME IMPARTATION IS STRAIGHT FROM ME 4/19/98
There are many impartations in My Spirit, and I use laying on of hands and other means to release gifts to My people. There is a wave of My glory coming that can only be received directly from My own touch upon and into your life. Place your heart to receive and open your sails like a ship to catch My wind.

"And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting." (Acts 2:2 KJV)

6.] IMPARTATION OF THE ANOINTING THROUGH ANOINTING OIL

Oil that has been set aside and consecrated unto the Lord for His purposes can be used to impart His anointing.

Ex 30:25-32
It shall be a holy anointing oil. 26 With it you shall anoint the tabernacle of meeting and the ark of the Testimony; 27 the table and all its utensils, the lampstand and its utensils, and the altar of incense; 28 the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the laver and its base. 29 You shall consecrate them, that they may be most holy; whatever touches them must be holy. 30 And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may minister to Me as priests. 31 And you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'This shall be a holy anointing oil to Me throughout your generations.

Isa 10:27
It shall come to pass in that day that his burden will be taken away from your shoulder, and his yoke from your neck, and the yoke will be destroyed because of the anointing oil.

James 5:14-16
Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: 15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. 16 Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

7.] ANOINTING IMPARTED THROUGH ANOINTED BELONGINGS OF SERVANTS OF GOD

JESUS' CLOTHES

Matt 14:36
and begged Him that they might only touch the hem of His garment. And as many as touched it were made perfectly well.

ELIJAH'S MANTLE

2 Kings 2:14
Then he took the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and struck the water, and said, "Where is the LORD God of Elijah?" And when he also had struck the water, it was divided this way and that; and Elisha crossed over.

MOSES ROD

Ex 17:5-6
And the LORD said to Moses ,"Go on before the people, and take with you some of the elders of Israel. Also take in your hand your rod with which you struck the river, and go. 6 Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock in Horeb; and you shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it, that the people may drink."

HANDKERCHIEFS & APRONS

Acts 19:11-13
Now God worked unusual miracles by the hands of Paul, so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were brought from his body to the sick, and the diseases left them and the evil spirits went out of them.

ELISHA'S STAFF

2 Kings 4:29
Then Elisha said to Gehazi, "Get ready to travel; take my staff and go! Don't talk to anyone along the way. Go quickly and lay the staff on the child's face."

PETER'S SHADOW

Acts 5:15-16
As a result of the apostles' work, sick people were brought out into the streets on beds and mats so that Peter's shadow might fall across some of them as he went by.

ELISHA'S BONES

2 Kings 13:21
Once when some Israelites were burying a man, they spied a band of these raiders. So they hastily threw the body they were burying into the tomb of Elisha. But as soon as the body touched Elisha's bones, the dead man revived and jumped to his feet!

I have waved glory ring and/or flags in worship and people have experienced His tangible anointing. Twice I witnessed people receiving deliverance in this.

The prophetic school discussed the question, "Is the anointing catchable?" The following link contains some wonderful responses:
